THE NEW APPEAL

We have been encouraged by the large and increasing subscription for the New Appeal, and its continuous support, to continue to publish the paper, as long as the spirit of the people shall be in favor of it. We do not pretend to be a newspaper in the ordinary sense of the word, but rather a weekly periodical, containing such articles as may be of public interest, and which, in our opinion, will be calculated to promote the welfare of the community.

The New Appeal is published weekly, on Saturday, by W. H. L., at the office of the New Appeal, Market Street, New York.

CITY OF NEW YORK.

The City of New York is the largest city in the United States, with a population of over one million. It is situated on the island of Manhattan, and is the commercial and financial center of the country. The city is divided into five boroughs: Manhattan, Bronx, Queens, Brooklyn, and Staten Island. It is served by a network of subways and buses, as well as by a river system for water transportation.

BETTY'S LAST LETTER.

The last letter from Betty, dated April 14, 1859, was received by her friend, Miss Brown, on May 1, 1859. In her letter, Betty mentioned her intention to leave for Europe, where she hoped to study art and music.
