MAY
It would be unjustifiable, if this paper were conducted upon a par with those which have appeared in it before, to say that the present column is intended to be a political or a religious one. It may be said, however, that the paper is not intended to be a mere collection of facts, but that it is intended to be a useful and interesting one. It is to be hoped that the reader will find it so.

The present column is intended to be a useful and interesting one. It is to be hoped that the reader will find it so.
