Jacksonville Republican.

VOL. 26, NO. 18.
JACKSONVILLE, ALA., MAY 1, 1882.
WHOLE NO. 1322.

JULY 1.

The Committee on the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the

of the Jacksonville Republican.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA., MAY 8, 1862.

WHOLE NO. 1321.

FOURTH.

B. O. B. Battle of Shiloh.

On the 4th May, 1862, a most bloody conflict occurred near the town of Shiloh, in the State of Tennessee. The battle lasted several days and resulted in the loss of thousands of lives. The Battle of Shiloh was a turning point in the American Civil War, as it convinced the Union army of the need for a more aggressive strategy.

J. H. MILLER.

STATE OF ALABAMA.

Letters from the Confederate States of America.

WASHINGTON, D.C., April 30, 1862.

The President of the Confederate States of America.

To the President of the United States:

I have the honor to transmit herewith, a copy of a letter written by General Beauregard, which has been received by me from the field.

Respectfully,

[Signature]

Washington, D.C., June 1, 1862.

The President of the Confederate States of America.

I have the honor to forward herewith, a copy of a letter written by General Lee, which has been received by me from the field.

Respectfully,

[Signature]

Washington, D.C., June 2, 1862.

The President of the Confederate States of America.

I have the honor to forward herewith, a copy of a letter written by General Jackson, which has been received by me from the field.

Respectfully,

[Signature]

Washington, D.C., June 3, 1862.

The President of the Confederate States of America.

I have the honor to forward herewith, a copy of a letter written by General Johnston, which has been received by me from the field.

Respectfully,

[Signature]
The following is an excerpt from a 1865 newspaper article:

"We have just received a letter from Capt. William J. Harper, of the 8th Illinois Cavalry, who is stationed in New Orleans. He states that the city is in a state of great excitement, and that the people are looking forward to the arrival of the United States forces. He mentions that the scene in New Orleans is one of great activity, with large numbers of troops and supplies moving through the city. The people are described as being both excited and hopeful, anticipating the arrival of the Union forces."
PUBLIC NOTICE.

The Board of Common Council of the City of Louisville, at its last regular meeting, determined that a public sale of a certain parcel of land, situated on the north side of Main Street, in the third ward, and sufficiently described in the records of the City of Louisville, be advertised in the press for the purpose of selling the same on the 1st day of June next, at ten o'clock A.M., at the City Hall. The sale will be made subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by the Board of Common Council.

J. H. WHITING,

Mayor.

JOS. J. DOUGLAS,

Mayor of Louisville.

May 18, 1861.

[The letterhead of the Louisville Daily Advertiser is shown at the top of the page.]
The "Duluth News" Milw., Wis., May 27, 1862.

The Reports from the East are as follows:

AD THE SOLDIERS.
The fire is now more than ever raging in the public mind in favor of universal military training, both volunteer and professional. The newspapers are full of articles, and the public meetings are crowded with speakers, in favor of this plan. The government is said to be preparing to carry it into effect. The reports from the West are as follows:

Latest News.

The "Daily News" Milw., Wis., May 27, 1862.

The reports from the East are as follows:

AD THE SOLDIERS.
The fire is now more than ever raging in the public mind in favor of universal military training, both volunteer and professional. The newspapers are full of articles, and the public meetings are crowded with speakers, in favor of this plan. The government is said to be preparing to carry it into effect.

랭브로드 Publishing Company

JACKSONVILLE, ILL., May 27, 1862.

AD THE SOLDIERS.
The fire is now more than ever raging in the public mind in favor of universal military training, both volunteer and professional. The newspapers are full of articles, and the public meetings are crowded with speakers, in favor of this plan. The government is said to be preparing to carry it into effect.

The "Daily News" Milw., Wis., May 27, 1862.

The reports from the East are as follows:

AD THE SOLDIERS.
The fire is now more than ever raging in the public mind in favor of universal military training, both volunteer and professional. The newspapers are full of articles, and the public meetings are crowded with speakers, in favor of this plan. The government is said to be preparing to carry it into effect.
CONFESSIONS OF A CONFEDERATE CAPTURED AT GETTYSBURG.

BY JAMES H. DICKINSON.

[Article discussing a Confederate's experiences and capture at Gettysburg.]

COTTON WANTED.

[Advertisements for cotton.]