FEBRUARY
LATEST NEWS

SOUTHERN NEWS

February 20, 1861

The latest news from the South is full of reports of the increasing unrest. The secessionists are gaining momentum, and the southern states are preparing for war. The Confederate Congress has met, and a declaration of war against the federal government is expected to be issued soon.

The southern army is being organized, and military supplies are being collected. The states are calling up their militia, and the southern ports are being fortified. The Confederate navy is being formed, and ships are being built in southern shipyards.

The southern states are also issuing their own currency, and the southern cotton market is in turmoil. Demand for southern cotton is high, but the federal government is imposing严格的 trade restrictions on the south.

The federal government is preparing to send troops to the southern states, and there are reports of armed conflicts between federal and southern forces. The southern states are also preparing to send troops to the federal government's border states.

The southern states are also issuing their own currency, and the southern cotton market is in turmoil. Demand for southern cotton is high, but the federal government is imposing严格的 trade restrictions on the south.

The federal government is preparing to send troops to the southern states, and there are reports of armed conflicts between federal and southern forces. The southern states are also preparing to send troops to the federal government's border states.

The southern states are also issuing their own currency, and the southern cotton market is in turmoil. Demand for southern cotton is high, but the federal government is imposing严格的 trade restrictions on the south.

The federal government is preparing to send troops to the southern states, and there are reports of armed conflicts between federal and southern forces. The southern states are also preparing to send troops to the federal government's border states.