Latest News

FROM CHARLESTON
Another Fresh Report. States that Col. William H. Garrett, on the night of July 14, is reported to have been killed in the battle of Milliken's Bend. The information was received from a free man of color who had been captured by the rebels on the 12th, and conveyed to the Union camp at Milliken's Bend. The report states that the rebels captured the gunboat U.S.S. Cairo, which had been anchored in the river, and that the crew, amounting to about a hundred men, was placed on board the captured vessel.

FROM MISSISSIPPI
Sherman's Movement northward. A telegram from Vicksburg, July 15, states that General Sherman has started his troops on the road to Vicksburg, and that the advance guard is already within a few miles of the city. The telegraph adds that Sherman has left behind him a strong garrison at Jackson.

FROM ARKANSAS
Capture of Fort Hindman. A dispatch from Little Rock, July 15, says that Fort Hindman, which was evacuated by the Confederates on July 14, has been taken by the Federals without loss of life. The garrison was commanded by Colonel A. B. Disney, who has been made a prisoner of war.

FROM TENNESSEE
A telegram from Nashville, July 15, states that the Federal troops have taken Fort Donelson. The garrison was commanded by General Bragg, who has been made a prisoner of war.

FROM GEORGIA
A dispatch from Atlanta, July 15, says that the Federals have taken Fort McAllister. The garrison was commanded by General Hood, who has been made a prisoner of war.

FROM MARYLAND
A dispatch from Washington, July 15, states that the Federal troops have taken Fort McHenry. The garrison was commanded by General Meade, who has been made a prisoner of war.

FROM VIRGINIA
