EXCITING REMINDERS

A correspondent of the Albany Daily Times sends us a copy of some exciting reminders, which he says were found in a box in the attic of his house. The box contained a number of old letters, receipts, and other documents, which the writer had carefully preserved for many years. He was surprised to find that the contents of the box contained a number of valuable documents,
which had been overlooked by previous owners of the house.

JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN.

JACKSONVILLE, Ill.,
January 19, 1862.

Valley of the Illinois.

In the valley of the Illinois, the inhabitants are beginning to reap the fruits of their labor.

Great efforts are being made to improve the condition of the valley, and the results are already evident.

STATE OF ILLINOIS.

In the State Capitol, Springfield, Ill.,
January 20, 1862.

The General Assembly of the State of Illinois
is now in session, and is making good progress
in the business before it.

GOLDFIELD.

The following letter was sent from a Goldfield, a mining camp in the mountains
of the State of Nevada:

"Our camp is now in a flourishing condition.

Great efforts are being made to improve the condition of the inhabitants, and the results are
already evident.

A number of new settlements are being formed, and the population is rapidly increasing."
