NOVEMBER
JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN

VOL. 28, NO. 47, JACKSONVILLE, ALA., NOVEMBER 17, 1864, WHOLE NO. 145

As Editor I say—A war, which has been the cause of so much suffering and distress, has now come to a close, and the American people are enabled to enjoy a season of peace and prosperity. The people of the South, who have been through a long and trying war, are now free to enjoy the blessings of peace and prosperity. The people of the North, who have been through a long and trying war, are now free to enjoy the blessings of peace and prosperity.

STATE AFFAIRS

The cabinet of the United States, under the leadership of President Lincoln, has been perfectly successful in all its movements. The people of the United States, who have been through a long and trying war, are now free to enjoy the blessings of peace and prosperity.

A communication from the President was read in council, the members of which were in session at 11 o'clock on the 17th instant. The President informed the council that he had been informed of the fact that the 6th regiment of the National Guard had been called into service by the authorities of the State of Arkansas, and that he had directed the commanding officer of the regiment to take command of the troops and cause the same to be mustered into the service of the United States. The President further informed the council that he had directed the commanding officer of the regiment to take command of the troops and cause the same to be mustered into the service of the United States.

The council continued in session until 12 o'clock, at which time it adjourned.
