DECEMBER
MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Wednesday, Nov. 20.—The press of telegraphic dispatches continues to be heavy. A small force of troops has just arrived from the coast, and reports that the fortifications have been strengthened, and that the garrison is in a state of readiness for the enemy.

BY TELEGRAPH.

J. M. W. EVANS.

A DESISTING OF FIRE is ordered to be observed in the city, by the adjutant of the Massachusetts Military Department.

NORTH CAROLINA.

The State Legislature has adjourned sine die.

SUNDAY'S DISPATCHES.

From Governor Rice.

The Governor received the following telegram from Governor Rice:

"SIR: You are hereby notified that the troops will be moved to this place, and that you are to be in readiness to receive them at once."
