A New Era in Medicine.

Dr. Logan, who has been for a number of years a resident of this city, has just arrived, in answer to the invitation of Dr. F. H. W. S. Smith, who has requested him to take charge of the newly established School of Medicine of the University of Alabama.

Dr. Logan is a thorough medical gentleman, well versed in the latest knowledge, and is admirably fitted for the position to which he has been appointed.

The University of Alabama, which is to be the home of this School of Medicine, is situated in the heart of the state, and is surrounded by the most beautiful scenery.

The College is well provided with buildings, and is likely to become one of the most important institutions of its kind in the South.
