WHOLE NO. 1553.

M. P. STOVALL, W. W. CONRAD & Co., WHOLESALE AND RETAIL MERCHANTS.

GOVERNOR'S PRECINCT.

To the Suffering and Persecuted:-

The first funds collected in this State for the suppression of slavery have been made on the occasion of the late ghastly act of robbery and murder in the Stegall vicinity. A committee to collect these funds has been appointed, consisting of Mr. W. R. Stegall, Mr. W. J. Adams, and Mr. J. W. Hunter, and the committee is now in operation. The next meeting will be held on the 12th instant, at 10 o'clock, in the City Hall, and all persons interested are requested to be present. The committee is authorized to accept any amount of money, and to make suitable arrangements for the collection of the same. The committee is also authorized to dispense with any expense incurred in connection with the collection of the funds.

J. S. STEWART.

To the Best of my Knowledge.

I certify that I have examined the accounts of the above-named committee, and find them correct.

Commercial College

The Board of Trustees of the Commercial College have decided to establish a new department in the College for the study of practical bookkeeping, to be open for examination on January 17th. The classes will be conducted by Mr. J. W. Bell, who has been appointed by the Board as the superintendent of the new department. The course of study will be arranged to meet the needs of the business world, and will include subjects such as bookkeeping, accounting, and general arithmetic. The College will also offer courses in stenography and typewriting, and students will be encouraged to develop their skills in these areas. The Commercial College is committed to providing students with the skills they need to succeed in the business world. The new department will offer an opportunity for students to gain practical experience and prepare for careers in bookkeeping and related fields.

Advertising of the Legislature.

The Legislature, which now occupies our warmest welcome to Monticello, is nearing its close for the session, and in the month of January we are sure to find some new laws affecting the interests of Alabama. As a general rule, the laws are passed during the last month of the session, and we are not likely to have much change in the laws that have been passed this year.
