SPECIAL NOTICES.

To all additional interest in our designs in issue, appropriate to the first edition of this third book of the 20th century, splendid technical and poetic development. We also intend to extend the reaches of the American Agriculturist to grapple with the thousands, in the 1980s, of small and medium-sized farmers, who are the backbone of our nation.

Casino Owners.—We learn that the sale of coton and several other items were made at 100,000, as Wednesday's.

IIlinois hundred dollar bills have been entirely exchanged by the citizens of Illinois, and the Illinois Agricultural Society's "100 Days in the Galapagos," has a popular subscription of two thousand dollars.

Woodburn.—We hear that the sale of cotton and several other items were made at 100,000, as Wednesday's.

MARK FOR MONEY.

Don't be a failure in this worldly life! No one wants to be a failure. If you are a failure now, the chance is, you will be a failure always. If you are not a failure now, the chance is that you will be a failure always. The reason for this is, that failure is the natural course of life.

The Message of the President
United States.

December 31, 1904.

Fifteen Citizens of the United States.

Upon the receiving of Courrier des Indes and its publication of the letter which has reached me from the Senate of the United States, I have been asked by the Senate to reply to its communication.

The Senate is at present engaged in legislation, and it is my duty to inform you that the Senate has not yet taken any action which would be in response to the letter which has been published.

I am, therefore, unable to answer the Senate in the form in which its letter was published. However, I am happy to assure you that the Senate will consider any action which may be necessary in regard to the matters referred to in the letter.

I am, respectfully,
