LATEST NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 17.—In the Senate today, Senator Watson, of Georgia, presented a resolution, condemning the memorandum of President Johnson to the Secretary of State, in which he declared his readiness to receive Secretary Seward in Washington, and to receive him in any form, as a director of the government, or as a member of a cabinet, or in any capacity. The resolution was referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations.

WASHINGTON.

A Member, of the House of Representatives, is reported to have said that he would vote for the establishment of a national church, and the abolition of the Sabbath, and the abolition of the public schools, and the abolition of the Sunday, and the abolition of the national debt, and the abolition of the national bank, and the abolition of the national currency, and the abolition of the national tariff, and the abolition of the national government.
