Latest News.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 16. — The President will ask Congress on Tuesday to come to the conclusion of a treaty with Great Britain. The President has already stated that the Executive is not only willing but anxious to conclude the treaty. The President's decision to proceed with the treaty negotiations is expected to be welcomed by the Senate, which has already approved the treaty and is now ready to ratify it. The Senate is expected to take up the treaty this week.

FROM ENGLAND.

London, May 15. — The British Government has announced that it will not recognize the Japanese government's decision to abandon the Treaty of Portsmouth. The British government has expressed its support for the Treaty of Portsmouth and has condemned the Japanese government's decision as a violation of international law.

FROM BEER.

March 31. — All pails of water must be returned to the reservoirs by noon on Thursday, as the water supply is expected to be depleted by mid-June. The water supply is currently at 20% capacity, and the reservoirs are expected to be at 10% capacity by mid-June.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, May 16. — The President is expected to sign the treaty with Great Britain on Tuesday. The treaty will provide for the exchange of consular relations and the establishment of diplomatic relations between the United States and Great Britain. The treaty is expected to be ratified by both countries by the end of the year.

FROM ATKINSON.

Atlanta, Ga., May 16. — The city council has approved the construction of a new public library. The library will be located on the corner of Peachtree and Forsyth Streets. The library is expected to be completed by the end of the year.
