ANDREW'S BOURNE OF AN DIPLOMAT.

In 1861, 1862, 1863, and 1864, Andrew's Bourne was an American diplomat in the Confederacy. He is noted for his work in negotiating treaties and handling international relations during the Civil War. His diplomatic efforts were instrumental in securing alliances and maintaining the Confederate States' independence.

From the Jacksonville Republic, July 1, 1861.

JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN

JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA.

SUNDAY, JULY 1, 1861.

The impression has gone forth that the 膽 of the South is being held in the hands of the United States forces, and that the city of Jacksonville is at the mercy of th army of the United States. It is necessary to assure the public that there is no truth in this statement, and that the city is in no danger.

The city is defended by a force of 1,500 men, under the command of General E. M. Corse.
This force is composed of volunteers and conscripted soldiers, and is well armed and equipped.

The city is well supplied with provisions and ammunition, and the inhabitants are in no immediate danger.

The government has sent a message to the people of Jacksonville, assuring them that the city is in no danger, and that the army of the United States will not attempt to capture it.

The people of Jacksonville are assured that the city is in no danger, and that the army of the United States will not attempt to capture it.

M. A. TURNER,
TAILOR.

Tailor to order in all kinds of style and circumstance. Address at the Masonic Temple, Jacksonville.

ROWAN DEAN & CO.,

Manufacturers of Steam Wheeler.

JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA.

MAY 1, 1861.

To the Mayor and City Council of Jacksonville, Alabama:

We, the undersigned manufacturers, residing in Jacksonville, Alabama, and doing business as a firm, manufacturing steam wheels, respectfully recommend your attention to the following:

1. That the manufacturing business of steam wheels be granted to our firm for a term of one year.

2. That we be allowed a certain amount of preferential treatment in the purchase of material required for the manufacture of steam wheels.

We hereby request your consideration of our application, and hope
that our request
will be favorably
considered.

Yours, etc.,

M. A. TURNER,
M. E. RICHARDSON,
J. A. WHITMAN.

TO THE MAYOR AND CITY COUNCIL.

JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA.

May 1, 1861.

We, the undersigned manufacturers, residing in Jacksonville, Alabama,
and doing business as a firm, manufacturing steam wheels, respectfully recommend your attention to the following:

1. That the manufacturing business of steam wheels be granted to our firm for a term of one year.

2. That we be allowed a certain amount of preferential treatment in the purchase of material required for
the manufacture of
steam wheels.

We hereby request your consideration of our
application, and hope
that our request
will be favorably
considered.

Yours, etc.,

M. A. TURNER,
M. E. RICHARDSON,
J. A. WHITMAN.

TENNESSEE.

Memphis. June 26.—The peace of the Tennessee, now en route for the West, has been ordered to proceed to the enemy's lines for the purpose of negotiating a peace treaty. The negotiations are to be conducted by General W. S. Rosecrans, who is expected to arrive at the negotiating commission.

The Tennessee is
now en route for the West, with a large
crew of men on board.

The Tennessee is
now en route for
the West, with
a large
crew of
men on board.

The Tennessee is
now en route for
the West, with
a large
crew of
men on board.

The Tennessee is
now en route for
the West, with
a large
crew of
men on board.

The Tennessee is
now en route for
the West, with
a large
crew of
men on board.

The Tennessee is
now en route for
the West, with
a large
crew of
men on board.

The Tennessee is
now en route for
the West, with
a large
crew of
men on board.

The Tennessee is
now en route for
the West, with
a large
crew of
men on board.

The Tennessee is
now en route for
the West, with
a large
crew of
men on board.
If you want to buy

Goods very

CHEAP

GO TO

E. L. WOODARDS.

GREAT

BARGAINS CAN NOW

BEHAD

AT

WOODARDS' Sons

THE JERUSALEM. June 12th, 1876.

H. W. B.-I am informed that the new proprietor of the United States Hotel is a very good man, and that the establishment is being conducted in a spirit of fair dealing.

Yours truly,

H. W. B.

JACKSONVILLE.

The Progress of the School.

The progress of the School is very gratifying. The managers have been unusually successful in securing the services of a large number of pupils, and the attendance at the school is now very satisfactory.

J. B. B.
Teach Your Institute
By

The Chicago Tribune, July 4, 1871.

The meeting was called to order by Mr. J. J. McCullough, who, in the absence of the President, was chosen as chairman. The convention met at 10 a.m.

In the afternoon, the convention adjourned, and a committee of five, consisting of Messrs. J. J. McCullough, N. C. McCullough, A. B. Mather, W. W. H. Northup, and E. S. H. Allen, was appointed to prepare a report on the subject of the proposed institute.

The report was read and adopted, and the following resolutions were adopted:

1. That a teacher's institute be established.
2. That the institute be located in the city of Chicago.
3. That the institute be open to all teachers, without regard to race or creed.
4. That the institute be supported by subscription.

The convention then adjourned until 10 a.m. on the 5th day of July, A.D. 1871.

In往后