FOR A WORLD'S SKE.

THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES, in Congress assembled, do ordain and establish this Constitution for the United States of America.

The legislative, executive, and judicial powers of the government of the United States shall be vested in the Congress of the United States, which shall consist of two Houses, the Senate and the House of Representatives.

The President of the United States shall be the Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several States, when called into service by the Congress.

The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one supreme Court, and in such inferior Courts as the Congress may from time to time ordain and establish.

The Congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts, and excises, to pay the debts and provide for the common defense and general welfare of the United States.

No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, unless he be a citizen of the United States, and thirty years of age, and been a resident within the same state two years immediately before his election.

The Congress shall have power...
