The Editor of the Jacksonville Republican says: "We are encouraged to hope that the Legislature will hasten the passage of a bill authorizing the appointment of a Superintendent of Schools for the State. The present system of education is far from perfect, and the changes necessary to improve it are within the power of the Legislature. We are gratified to learn that the Governor has taken prompt action in the matter, and we trust that the bill will be expedited without delay."

Telegraphic Resume

Alabama Legislature:
- A bill has been introduced to establish a State Board of Education.
- The Senate has passed a resolution censuring the Governor for his recent actions.
- The House has approved a bill providing for the appointment of a Commissioner of Agriculture.

E. L. Woodward's Son:
- It is reported that E. L. Woodward's son has been appointed to a prominent position in the government.
- Details of the appointment and its implications will be announced at a later date.

White Goods Sales:
- There is a significant increase in the sales of white goods, particularly in the textile and clothing industries.
- This trend is expected to continue as demand grows.

Ladies' Clothing:
- A new line of ladies' clothing has been introduced, featuring a range of styles and sizes.
- The new collection is expected to be popular among women of all ages.

Tea Sales:
- There is a notable rise in tea sales, with consumers seeking quality and variety.
- Local merchants are reporting increased profits due to the increased demand.

Court Case:
- A court case involving a dispute over land ownership has been filed. Details of the case will be made public at a later date.

Market Prices:
- The prices of various commodities, including wheat, corn, and cotton, have increased significantly.
- This trend is expected to continue unless external factors intervene.

Business News:
- A new business has opened in the city, offering a range of goods and services.
- The business is expected to contribute positively to the local economy.
Mr. E. B. Baker, Special Commissioner for Southern Union Company, a member of the Pennsylvania Railroad, took the train last week. We shall be delighted to hear from him. We are glad to welcome him to the town.

The court house is being built, and it will be ready for use in a few weeks. The building will be a handsome structure, and will be a fitting memorial to the citizens of this community.

The annual meeting of the Board of Education was held last week. The Board of Education is composed of ten members, and is elected by the voters of the district. The Board of Education is charged with the responsibility of providing a system of education for the children of the district.

The town is preparing for the celebration of the Fourth of July. The celebration will take place on the fourth, and will be a grand affair. The town is looking forward to a fine day, and everyone is expected to attend.

The town is also preparing for the celebration of the birthday of the town. The celebration will take place on the sixth, and will be a grand affair. The town is looking forward to a fine day, and everyone is expected to attend.

GREAT FREIGHT AND PASSENGER ROUTE
JACKSONVILLE
AND
RICHMOND, NORFOLK,
Baltimore, Philadelphia, Boston & New York,
BY THE
Virginia and Tennessee
Air Line Railway

This line is entirely owned by the Virginia and Tennessee Air Line Railway Company, and is operated exclusively by the same.

The company was incorporated in the State of Virginia in 1869, and has a capital stock of $1,000,000.

The line extends from Jacksonville, Fla., to Richmond, Va., and is 377 miles in length.

The road is built on the highest grade practicable, and is equipped with the latest improvements in machinery.

The trains are composed of Pullman cars and baggage cars, and are run at regular intervals.

The rates for freight and passenger traffic are moderate, and the company is doing a large and growing business.

The road is well adapted for the transportation of goods and passengers, and is an important link in the chain of railroads connecting the southern and northeastern parts of the country.

The company is in the hands of a able and experienced management, and is well provided with engineering and mechanical facilities.

The Virginia and Tennessee Air Line Railway Company is a safe and reliable company, and is doing a large and growing business.
