Oxford Locals

This morning the Free and Independent Press reported the following:

- The school in Oxford, Alabama, is closed due to a teachers' strike.
- The mayor of Oxford has called for a special meeting of the city council to discuss the strike.
- The local newspaper, the Oxford Observer, reported that the teachers have been demanding a 10% raise for several weeks.

Hartville Locals

The Hartville school board has announced that they will be opening a new elementary school in the fall.

- The new school will be located on the outskirts of town.
- It will accommodate up to 400 students.
- Construction has already begun on the new facility.

Oak Level Academy, CLEBURNE COUNTY, Ala.

- The campus of Oak Level Academy is undergoing a large renovation project.
- A new library, gymnasium, and science lab are being added to the campus.
- The renovation is expected to be completed by the end of the year.

Telegraphic

- The Mississippi River is at a critical stage, with levees and embankments at risk.
- The Mississippi Valley Authority is working to reinforce the embankments and prevent flooding.
- Residents in areas affected by the river's rise are being urged to evacuate.

Special Notices

- The local newspaper is seeking volunteers to help with the community's holiday food drive.
- Volunteers are needed to help sort and distribute food items.
- The drive will be held on the town square on December 15th.

Coffee, Tea, Sugar, Molasses, and Flour

- The price of coffee has increased by 10% due to drought in Brazil.
- Molasses prices have remained stable.
- The price of flour has dropped by 5% due to increased production.

Pickles

- The local pickle company is offering a new line of pickles made with organic ingredients.
- The pickles are available in a variety of flavors, including dill, garlic, and sweet.
- The company has received positive reviews from customers.

Electric Soap, Bread Preparation

- The local grocery store is offering a new line of electric soaps.
- The soaps are designed to help customers save time in the kitchen.
- The store is also offering a bread-making workshop on the weekend.

DRY GOODS, HOOKEY & HAPPIES

- The local dry goods store is offering a special discount on all in-store purchases.
- The store is also offering a 20% off sale on all online purchases for the next 72 hours.
- The store has received positive reviews from customers for their wide selection of products.
