JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN

JACKSONVILLE, ALA., FEB. 8, 1873.

THE LEGISLATURE.

Monday, January 30, 1873.

... The debate on the bill, which was introduced in the Senate by Mr. Pendleton, was resumed and continued. Mr. Pendleton said that the bill was necessary to prevent the State from being deprived of its revenue. He pointed out the advantages of the bill, and said that it would be beneficial to the State. Mr. Pendleton also stated that the bill would be a boon to the farmers of the State.

THE STRUGGLING WOMAN.

In the House of Representatives, a bill was introduced by Mr. Smith, which was designed to protect the rights of women in the workplace.

New Fashions in Clothing.

The latest fashions in clothing are very much in evidence in the VGA, where the dressing is becoming more elaborate and ornate. The new style of dress is being introduced, characterized by a close fit and a more graceful line. The material used is mostly silk and velvet, and the colors are very soft and pastel shades. The hats are being made in a variety of shapes, including the cloche and the beret, and the shoes are being made in a variety of materials, including leather and velvet. The accessories are also being introduced, including the scarf, the purse, and the hat. The fashion is being introduced in a variety of stores, including the department store and the specialty store.
