MASSACHUSETTS.

Boston, May 25.—The newspapers contain accounts of the discovery of the bodies of two persons recently killed in a railroad accident on the main line of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company's road. The bodies were found near the crossing at East Hampton, Conn., and were identified as those of two men who had been seen entering the train at New Haven.

The first of the men killed, a conductor, had been seen running along the track when the train stopped at the crossing. The second man, a brakeman, had been seen working on the engine. Both men were from the same town. The train had run over them as they tried to cross the tracks. The accident occurred at about 9:30 p.m. on the night of the 24th. The cause of the accident is not known. The conductor and brakeman were both experienced workers.

The bodies were transported to the town where the man who had been killed lived. The coroner's jury was convened to hold an inquest on the bodies. The inquest will be held this afternoon.

NEW YORK.

New York, May 25.—The results of the May 25 general election in New York City were announced today. The results show that the Republican party has won a majority of the seats in the City Council and the Board of Aldermen. The Democrats have lost several seats in both bodies.

The victory of the Republicans is attributed to the successful campaign of Mayor William Gaynor, who has been seeking re-election for two years. Gaynor's campaign was centered around his record as mayor, which included his efforts to improve public schools and to reduce the size of the city's police force.

The Democrats have indicated that they will appeal the results of the election to the courts. They have also expressed their intention to challenge the victory of Mayor Gaynor's party in the next election.

The results of the general election in New York City are as follows:

- Mayor: Republican William Gaynor, 112,000 votes; Democrat John Hylan, 108,000 votes.
- City Council: Republican Party, majority of seats.
- Board of Aldermen: Republican Party, majority of seats.

The results of the general election in the rest of the state are also available. The Republicans have won the majority of the seats in the State Senate and the House of Representatives.

The Republican Party has also won the majority of the seats in the United States Congress. The victories in the general election are attributed to the successful campaign of President Abraham Lincoln, who has been seeking re-election for two years. Lincoln's campaign was centered around his record as president, which included his efforts to preserve the Union and to end the Civil War.
