LOCAL.

The Democrats have gathered in the city, and are making preparations for an exciting contest with the Republicans. It is said that the Democrats have secured the services of several of the leading Republicans, and that they will offer a strong ticket. It is also said that the Republicans will offer a strong ticket, and that they will have the support of the people. The contest will be a close one, and it is said that the outcome will be decided by the vote of a small number of people.

The weather is pleasant, and the people are办事 on the streets.

MARRIAGES.

The marriage of Mr. J. H. White and Miss M. A. Jones will take place at the home of the bride's father, Mr. J. H. White, on the 1st of the month. The bride and groom are very happy, and the entire family is very pleased.

DEATHS.

Mr. J. H. White, a well-known citizen of the city, died of typhoid fever last week. He had been ill for several days, and the doctors had given him little hope of recovery. He was buried in the city cemetery last Saturday.

Obituary.

Mr. J. H. White was a well-known citizen of the city, and was held in high esteem by all who knew him. He was a good neighbor, and was always willing to help his fellow citizens. He was a faithful member of the local church, and was very active in its work. He was a devoted husband and father, and was loved by all who knew him.

The family of Mr. J. H. White is left in great sorrow by his death. They have the sympathy of all who knew him.

PHARMACY.

Dr. J. H. White is now in the city, and is doing a thriving business. He is well known for his skill and knowledge, and is respected by all who know him.

Miscellaneous.
