GARDINER GARDINER NEWS.

GARDINER, ALABAMA, 1853.

And the people coming out of the gates of Canton and from the surrounding country are bringing in a large amount of produce, which is being shipped to other parts of Alabama. The market in the country is much better than it has been for some time. The crop is not as large as last year, but it is still considerable. The wheat is not as good as the corn, but it is still in good condition. The farmers are very pleased with the results of the season.

The Agricultural Society of the county recently held its annual meeting. The officers of the society were elected for the coming year.

The town of Canton is doing well. The new hotel is almost ready for business. The population is increasing rapidly. The school system is improving.

The weather has been very pleasant. The spring has come early and the crops are growing well.

The following prices are current:

The following business firms are doing a good trade:

- J. B. Davis & Co., grocers
- E. A. Thompson, hardware
- W. H. Brown, dry goods
- J. M. Smith, tailor

The town is enjoying a brisk trade. The people are happy and contented.

The following events are scheduled for the coming week:

- Sunday School Picnic: Saturday afternoon
- Election Day: Tuesday
- Market Day: Wednesday
- County Fair: Saturday

The Agricultural Society has decided to hold a county fair next month. The fair will be held on the first Saturday in June. The society is looking forward to a successful event.

The town is preparing for the fair. The streets are being cleaned and decorated. The fairgrounds are being improved.

The weather is expected to be favorable for the fair. The forecast for the coming week is favorable.

The Agricultural Society has decided to offer a prize of $100 for the best exhibit of produce. The prize will be awarded to the exhibitor whose exhibit is judged to be the best by the judges of the fair.

The fair will feature a variety of events, including horse shows, animal exhibits, and agricultural demonstrations. The fair is open to the public and is expected to draw a large crowd.

The Agricultural Society is looking forward to a successful fair. The society hopes that the fair will be a great success and that it will help to promote the interests of agriculture in the county.
