Civil War in Louisiana.

Election for Governor, Legislature, &c.

CIVIL WAR IN LOUISIANA.

The following extract from the political columns of the Philadelphia Daily News gives the latest intelligence:

"The insurgents have made considerable progress in the据说/of Louisiana. They have succeeded in capturing several small towns and have destroyed some of the railroads. The military situation is critical, and the Federal forces are in a difficult position. The insurgents are said to be well supplied with arms and ammunition, and are gaining confidence."

WHITE RIVER CLAIM.

Just arrived from the seat of war, an eye-witness of the fighting tells a thrilling story of the engagement near Little Rock. The Federal troops, under the command of General Grant, met a large force of Confederate soldiers. The fighting was fierce, but the Federals emerged victorious. The loss of life on both sides was heavy. The brave soldiers of the North have shown their mettle in battle."
