AN ALABAMA LISTER'S STORY.

By W. H. H. S.

In September, 1876, an Alabama lister, just before the elections, was called upon to do his duty. He was an old man, now over eighty years of age, and was known to be a good Christian man, who had always been of good conduct, and was respected by all who knew him. He was called upon to sign the list, and he did so, declaring that he had not voted for any of the candidates of the party. His signature was witnessed by several of the citizens, and it was then presented to the officers of the court, who signed it and returned it to him. He then left the office, and was shortly afterwards seen in the streets of the city, where he was much respected by all who knew him. He was a good Christian man, and was respected by all who knew him.
