President's Address.

We have been called again the hospitable, and with the best of intentions. The call is for our support. Our duty is to the country, to the Constitution, and to our friends. We are the party of the people, and we have a right to expect their support. We are the party of the common man, and we have a right to expect their support. We are the party of the people, and we have a right to expect their support.

LOCAL MATTERS.

BIO SHOW!

Tie Robinson's excellent
Great European Escallops

in a generous way, eight, green, eight, and a large variety of wines available.

Well, Well.

The real reason why the bananas were sold for five cents apiece was because the storekeeper was trying to move them out before they went bad.

A Gentle Hint.

In order to improve the appearance of the town, the citizens are advised to dispose of all alley trash. It is not necessary to wait until the sanitation department takes care of it, for it is better to take care of it yourself.

A Good Mother.

Dr. B. H. Myrick, the local physician, has been elected as the new president of the county medical society.

WICK'S MAGAZINE.

Mr. Dayton's Storekeeper.

"Practically nothing," replied the storekeeper.

"Nothing," echoed the boy.

"You know how costly is the trade," said the storekeeper.

"Yes," said the boy, "I know it."
