There are several plants, especially the one at the foot of the railroad, which are being engaged in the manufacture of tobacco. The buildings are well arranged, and the process of smoking is carried on with great precision. The cigars are of various kinds, and are sold at moderate prices. The proprietors of the plant are making a large profit, and are likely to continue so.

The report made last month agrees in every respect with the present one. It is to be hoped that the owners will continue to improve the premises, and to increase the production of tobacco.

The present season is proving very favorable for the manufacture of tobacco. The crop is large, and the quality is good. The proprietors are making a large profit, and are likely to continue so.

The report made last month agrees in every respect with the present one. It is to be hoped that the owners will continue to improve the premises, and to increase the production of tobacco.

From Rev. P. S. GRANGER.

"Preadopting the Spavin Cure in his Parsonage, I have found it to be of the highest value in the treatment of all diseases of the Spavin. It has a decided effect on all diseases of the lower extremities, being especially adapted to the treatment of all forms of arthritis, gout, rheumatism, and lumbago. I have had a number of cases of spavin brought to me by my brethren in the ministry, and all have been cured by Kendall's Spavin Cure. I heartily recommend it to all my brethren in the ministry who have been troubled with these diseases. It is a powerful medicine, and I have no doubt that it will do for the many diseases of the lower extremities." —Rev. P. S. GRANGER.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

The longest, the strongest, the best.

There is no doubt about it, Kendall's Spavin Cure is the best cure for all diseases of the Spavin. It is a powerful medicine, and I have no doubt that it will do for the many diseases of the lower extremities. —Rev. P. S. GRANGER.

From Henry H. MARTIN.

"I have had a number of cases of spavin brought to me by my brethren in the ministry, and all have been cured by Kendall's Spavin Cure. I heartily recommend it to all my brethren in the ministry who have been troubled with these diseases. The Golden Talamun.

"I meant to advance you, believing that you were worth it, but you were not worth it." - Godfrey Hunt.

The young man was walking down the street, looking dejected.

"But you are not worth it," she said, "You have not lived up to my expectations."

"What do you mean?" he asked.

"I mean," she replied, "that you have not shown the same intelligence and determination that I expected from you."

He turned to her, his face set with anger.

"You are wrong," he shouted. "I have worked hard and accomplished a lot."

"I am sorry," she said, "But I cannot support someone who does not meet my standards."

He turned away, his shoulders slumping.

"I will not force you," she added. "It was not my intention to cause you harm."

He nodded, his face resigned.

"Thank you," he said, "For your understanding."

She watched him as he walked away, her heart heavy.

"I hope he is happy," she thought. "But I cannot be responsible for his actions."

She turned and walked back into the house, leaving him behind.
