GROCERIES!!
GROCERIES!!!

B. F. CARPENTER & CO.

Beware until you see us Seattle's largest store, holding the largest and best selected stock of the finest groceries in the State. It is the custom of this house to sell, not at a loss, but profit, and to exhort the, public to buy as little as possible, at least, not more than is necessary for family use. On all kinds of provisions, we have made liberal discounts, and will sell them at such a price that the public can purchase them in any quantity, and still be able to buy them in any other store in the State. We are not able to sell at a loss, but will be content with a profit, and will sell them at such a price that the public can purchase them in any quantity, and still be able to buy them in any other store in the State. We are not able to sell at a loss, but will be content with a profit, and will sell them at such a price that the public can purchase them in any quantity, and still be able to buy them in any other store in the State. We are not able to sell at a loss, but will be content with a profit, and will sell them at such a price that the public can purchase them in any quantity, and still be able to buy them in any other store in the State.

STAPLE AND FANCY GROCERIES

Flour in large sacks, of the best quality, will be sold at a price that will not be exceeded in the State. The best qualities of tea, coffee, and other such articles, will be sold at a price that will not be exceeded in the State. The best qualities of tea, coffee, and other such articles, will be sold at a price that will not be exceeded in the State. Bring the Cash

But little is paid for the best goods in this community, and, that is all that can be purchased in any store. We can not say that we are not able to sell at a loss, but will be content with a profit, and will sell them at such a price that the public can purchase them in any quantity, and still be able to buy them in any other store in the State.

BAGGING, TIES, FARMING UTENSILS

Wines, brandies of all kinds, and all kinds of liquors, will be sold at a price that will not be exceeded in the State. We can not say that we are not able to sell at a loss, but will be content with a profit, and will sell them at such a price that the public can purchase them in any quantity, and still be able to buy them in any other store in the State.
