This total result for the month was $642,400, average $100. This amount now runs from 3 to 10 per cent higher than in 1857. There were only four cities in the state that sold less than 10 per cent higher than in 1857, and these were the 3rd, 7th, 8th, and 9th. The average increase is so high that it is difficult to compare the two years. The best-made goods now are from the 3rd, 4th, and 6th. The other goods are from the 1st, 14th, and 17th. The average increase is so high that it is difficult to compare the two years.

As to the weather at this point, it was too bright for our best plants. A glance on the horizon, however, will show that the blight disease is not far from these markets. The weather is com- monly understood to mean the climate at this point, and that which the blight disease is not far from these markets.

A LETTER FROM J. T. HENDRICKSON.

To the Editor of The Republican:

I am not averse to the publication of your paper, and I think it would be of service to have it in circulation, as it contains much useful information. I am glad to see that you are using your influence in the cause of education, and I hope that you will continue to do so. I am also glad to see that you are working for the abolition of slavery, and I hope that you will continue to do so. I am also glad to see that you are working for the improvement of the condition of the negro, and I hope that you will continue to do so.

Yours truly,
