TOPEKA FREE.

"Lost Jacksonville a great many times before this gentleman had been staying at the hotel, and had come from there to this place three months ago." The "population of Amston" was the reply.

"Well, say the gentlemen, it's not the health and commerce of Jacksonville that we are inquiring about. These gentlemen are inquiring about Amston. I am not sure if they have been here before, but I know of such a thing as a hotel. I will go and see if I can't find some of these gentlemen and tell them that they are expected here."

SOUTHERN CHURCHES.

By Rev. H. W. B.".

A dignified and authoritative writer has just returned from the South where he has been investigating the present condition of the Southern churches. He reports that the situation is grave and the outlook is not promising. The churches are in a deplorable state, both numerically and spiritually. The membership is declining, and the influence of the church is waning. The writer attributes this to several causes, including the lack of leadership, the coldness of the people towards religion, and the influence of the world. He urges the need for immediate and concerted action to stem the tide of decline and to strengthen the church. The writer concludes with a plea for the restoration of the moral and religious values that were once so prominent in the South.
