STEALING A LOVER

"There, dealing at its best, my dear," said Alice to her lover, "you have taken the best part of a month to get here and yet you have not even seen my face."

Alice Teasdale looked very pretty as she spoke these words, but her lover, who was much more mature, could not understand why she had delayed so long in coming to see her. He had waited for her in a hotel room for several days and finally decided that she must have changed her mind.

"I have been waiting for you," he said to Alice, "since the moment you left me."

"I know," said Alice, "but I had to take care of some business first."

Alice then told him about the business she had to take care of, which involved visiting a distant city. She had spent several days there and had finally decided to return.

"I am glad to see you," said her lover, "but I hope you will not delay so long in seeing me again."

"I will try," said Alice, "but I have to catch a train tomorrow morning."

"Good-bye," said her lover, "I hope we will meet again soon."

"Good-bye," said Alice, "I will write to you as soon as I get to my hotel."

A Clear Skin

A Clear Skin is only a year's journey, but a poor one. Every phase of the condition requires three years and it must be kept up in a half dozen years. A clear skin is not a permanent feature of life but it is a feature of life.
