Senator Morgan, in his New Year's address, said it was his intention to introduce such measures into the Senate for the improvement of the seacoast of the State as would secure the interests of the country. He also proposed to introduce a bill to organize a Railroad from Mobile to Montgomery, and to provide a Railroad from Mobile to Pensacola, and from Pensacola to the Mississippi River. He further proposed to introduce a bill to establish a University in the State, and to provide for the education of the people in the various branches of literature and science.

The Senate of the State has also been in session, and has already enacted several important measures. Among these is the bill to organize a Railroad from Mobile to Montgomery, and to provide a Railroad from Mobile to Pensacola, and from Pensacola to the Mississippi River. This bill has been passed by both Houses of the Legislature, and has been signed by the Governor.

THE STOLEN DIAMONDS.

Dear sir,—I am sure you are aware that I have a jeweler's on the corner of Main and 2nd streets, which I have for twenty years. Last night, I was at my residence, and, as I was retiring, I noticed that my jewel box was gone. I believe it was taken while I was at the rear of my house, where I have a fence, and the entrance to my jewel box is by a sliding door which opens to the street.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

JACKSONVILLE, November 13.

The official report of the black cat commission has been published, and it is expected that it will be in the hands of the people by the first of the year. The commission was composed of three members, and they have been working for several months on the report. The report is said to be very interesting, and it is expected that it will be read with much interest.

BLOODY TRAGEDY.

The shooting of an old fellow in the night, in which the life of the old man was taken without a struggle or resistance, is a tragedy that should shame the city. The old man was shot in the night, and the police have not yet identified him.

The old man was a known criminal, and it is believed that he was shot in self-defense. The police are investigating the case, and it is expected that the perpetrator will be caught soon.

The shooting took place in a deserted building, and the old man was alone at the time. The police have not yet found any witnesses, but they are searching for any information that may help in the investigation.

The old man was known to be a wealthy man, and it is believed that he was killed for his money. The police are searching for any clues that may help in the investigation.

The shooting has caused a great deal of concern among the citizens, and they are demanding justice for the old man. The police are working hard to find the perpetrator and bring them to justice.
