A Dollar In Clothing!

THE

A dollar never looks so big in Clothing as it does to-day. We are still along with the sentiment of the past that prices are unnecessarily high, that the demand for goods excites the manufacturer to increase their cost, and that the people are not able to pay the high prices asked. Why, then, have we not been able to find the manufacturers who will give us the same advantages as the larger cities? Why, then, have we not been able to find the manufacturers who will give us the same advantages as the larger cities? Why, then, have we not been able to find the manufacturers who will give us the same advantages as the larger cities? Why, then, have we not been able to find the manufacturers who will give us the same advantages as the larger cities? Why, then, have we not been able to find the manufacturers who will give us the same advantages as the larger cities?

FAMOUS

Until recently hundreds of clothing houses have been forced to operate at a loss, and a number of large clothing houses have been forced to close their doors. Today, it is true, the clothing trade is as lively as ever, but the manufacturers are finding it necessary to operate at a loss in order to keep their doors open. The result is that the clothing house is no longer a place of amusement, but a place of business.

One Price House.

To save you: Clothing has a color and cost, and you want the best. If it is expensive, try it. If it is cheap, try it. If it is both, try it. If it is either, try it. If it is neither, try it. If it is all, try it. If it is none, try it. If it is anything, try it.

The Dead Now Estimated at 1,000!

RELIEF FUNDS NOW ORGANIZED

And Everybody Seems to Want a Dollar-

The greatest famine in human life and the worst in the United States has been in Idaho since it turned to gold for a year. The United States government is doing its best to relieve the suffering, and is not by any means the only organization that is trying to do so. Several charitable societies have been formed, and others are organizing, to help the destitute. The Idaho State Reform Association has added an immense amount of money to its relief fund, and has already distributed thousands of dollars to the needy. The sum of $5,000 has been added to the fund, and there is still money left over.

The relief officers are doing their best to help the destitute, and are making good progress. They are feeding the starving, giving them shelter, and doing all they can to alleviate their sufferings.

At the accession of the winter, which is fast approaching, the relief officers are doing their best to help the destitute, and are making good progress. They are feeding the starving, giving them shelter, and doing all they can to alleviate their sufferings.

Cayce, S. C., June 10, 1895.

Board of Directors.

Dr. McAlpine, President.

Gentlemen: The opinion of counsel given by Mr. J. H. McAlpine, in response to the petition of the company that I have been authorized to present before the circuit court of the United States for the Northern District of West Virginia, is not quite correct.

I have this morning received a letter from Mr. G. H. Rives, Attorney-General of the United States, in which he states that he has been authorized to express the opinion of the United States Department of Justice in the matter referred to in the petition of the company.

Mr. Rives states that the company is entitled to the benefit of the act of Congress, approved March 3, 1891, which is known as the Interstate Commerce Act.

It is understood that the company has been authorized to proceed with the construction of the railroad for the purpose of connecting the towns of Orange and Rocky Mount, in the state of Virginia, with the railroad of the company at the point where the same is to be connected with the railroad of the company.

COMMENCEMENT
EXHIBITION AT THE FIRST INSTITUTION.

The commencement exercises at the Academy opened today with a well-attended and enthusiastic audience. The weather was fine, and the ceremonies were conducted in the open air. Throughout the day, the atmosphere was filled with excitement, as students and faculty alike celebrated the end of another academic year.

In every department of the school, the students excelled, demonstrating their hard work and dedication. The teachers were proud of their students, and the community was eager to see what the future held for these young minds.

The day concluded with a special performance by the school band, which had been working hard all year to prepare for this special event. The audience was captivated by the music, and the band received a standing ovation for their excellent performance.

Overall, it was a beautiful day filled with pride and accomplishment. The students left feeling accomplished and eager for the next chapter in their lives.

State News. A correspondent at Montgomery, says that the weather has been very much improved, and has actually been the case for several days. The crops are looking well, and the country is in a fair state of health. It is reported that the central part of the state is having a very fine time, and that the people are generally contented.

International News. The diplomatic correspondence between the United States and Great Britain is still in progress. The United States government has submitted a protest to the British government regarding the treatment of certain American citizens in the British dominions. The British government has denied the charges, and has stated that the treatment of the American citizens was in accordance with the law. The situation is likely to continue for some time, and the matter is likely to be referred to the International Court of Justice.

COTTON MILLS.

A Strong Showing of the Advantages of the South.

New Business is the Order of the Day.

Our correspondent in Tuscaloosa reports that Mr. Edward Allison is his activity is on the increase. He says: "The successful operation of the new mill has been the subject of much attention among the capitalists of the South. The mill is well equipped with modern machinery and is capable of producing large quantities of cotton. The labor force is well trained and is able to operate the machines efficiently. The location of the mill is also an advantage, as it is situated in a region where cotton is grown in abundance. The mill is expected to be a great success."

A Dollar In Clothing!

THE

A dollar never went so far. Clothing at 50c a day is quite a bargain. While the man of moderate means has been reduced to the utmost, the man of available means, careless and extravagant of his means, has been duped into the utmost extent. The result: a great demand for clothing. Supplies are improved to a great extent. This result is a great privilege, in itself, and it is highly essential to the progress of the country.

FAMOUS

Until recently limited to a small circle of influential men, the name of "Famous" has now been applied to the name of the world's greatest fashion magazines. The magazines are now published in a thousand copies, and are sold in all parts of the country. The name "Famous" is also applied to the name of the world's greatest women's clothing stores.

ALABAMA EXCURSIONS

The Resignation of H. B. Newton

A short time ago the office of the Alabama Excursions was closed, and the company was dissolved. The company was formed in 1837, and it is now dissolved. The company was dissolved for the purpose of enabling the various Excursion to take care of their own business.

FAMOUS

We have not been able to find any story about Famous. The name "Famous" is now applied to a number of women's clothing stores.

One Price House

To save you: Clothing has a value of a dollar and a quarter, and a value of five dollars. In the past, when you buy clothing, you pay a dollar and a quarter. In the future, when you buy clothing, you pay five dollars. This is a great advantage.
