NATIONAL TEMPTATIONS TREATY.

The President, with characteristic wisdom, has inaugurated a new idea in the local and state politics of the present time. We are informed that the President has appointed a commission to hold discussions at various points on the subject of the national indemnity. The object of this commission is to determine what part of the national indemnity shall be paid to the various states, and what part shall be reserved for the national treasury. The President has appointed the following commissioners:

For New England: Mr. Lincoln, Mr. Seward, and Mr. Chase.

For the Middle States: Mr. Davis, Mr. Bell, and Mr. Lincoln.

For the South: Mr. Davis, Mr. Bell, and Mr. Lincoln.

The commission will hold its sessions in the cities of Boston, New York, and Richmond, respectively.

The commission will be composed of three members, each of whom will represent a different section of the country. The members will beselected by the President, and their decisions will be binding on the states involved.

The commission will hold its sessions in the cities of Boston, New York, and Richmond, respectively.

GOVERNOR JAMES DUDLEYbourne

Three Times on the Rattlesnake of the Condition of the States is the present day.

The Alabama Constitution of 1868 was drawn up in the most revolutionary manner.

I do not see how it is possible to make an Affiliate Constitution.

An Affiliate Constitution would have the same power as the old

I believe it will succeed.

This seems to indicate that "Kansas City" through the proper channels, is the best way to get it done.

With our conventions, every proposition and every clause is discussioned to the last letter.

On the other hand, in the legislature and toward the passage of the voting laws, the men and women are the best judges.

If the Constitution is passed, it will be a hollow victory.

A FATAL MALADY
A NEW JERSEY TOWN UNDER A DREARY CLOUD

A recent letter published in the "Daily News" of New York contains a statement which, if true, is of the greatest gravity. It is stated that a valuable horse, valued at $5,000, was stolen from a stable in that city. The owner of the horse, a gentleman named T. H. Brown, has offered a reward of $1,000 for the return of the animal. It is believed that the horse was taken by a gang of thieves who are now hiding in the mountains of New Jersey. Mr. Brown has offered a reward of $1,000 to anyone who will assist in the capture of the thieves. The horse is of a peculiar breed, and is easily recognized by its distinctive markings. Anyone who has information concerning the whereabouts of the horse or the thieves is requested to communicate with Mr. Brown immediately.

CARLISLE'S POSITION
By Charles L. Carlisle

Published in the "Daily News" of New York, a letter is published which states that Mr. Carlisle is in a delicate condition of health. It is feared that he may not recover. The letter is addressed to the editor of the newspaper, in which it is stated that Mr. Carlisle has been confined to his bed for several days, and that his condition is not improving. It is hoped that he will recover, but it is feared that he may not live long.

Cedars and tarpaulins. It's pain and quality. The LEAFS of the battlements and the HORN of the LAVATI and things have. It's an amwerful thing to see the leaf aged, but it's not the real thing. We had one of them - thirty-five - you know for them. They gave it to us - poor old thing - all of them, but when you see them, it's a beauty, it's a thing to see. We had one of those - thirty-five - and they were beautiful. It's a thing to see.

The beef and cabbage. The beef with beans and a clear soup, plus a lemonade. We had one of those - thirty-five - you know for them. They made it - poor old thing - all of them, but when you see them, it's a beauty, it's a thing to see. We had one of those - thirty-five - and they were beautiful. It's a thing to see.
