WORK IN CONGRESS,
THE MOST IMPORTANT MATTERS BEFORE CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, D.C., March 15.

The Senate and House of Representatives are now engaged in the consideration of important legislation. The Senate has passed a bill to extend the term of the President, and the House has passed a bill to provide for the collection of taxes. The Senate has also passed a bill to establish a national health service, and the House has passed a bill to regulate the use of firearms.

FINANCE AND TRADE.
WEEKLY REVIEW MADE FROM MACHINE RECORDS.

NEW YORK, March 16.

The weekly review of the machinery and trade of the United States is as follows:

1. Agriculture: The crop condition is generally favorable. The harvest is expected to be good.
2. Banking: The banks are in a sound condition. The currency is plentiful.
3. Industry: The manufacturing industries are thriving. The production of manufactured goods is increasing.
4. Commerce: The foreign trade is活跃. The imports and exports are increasing.
5. Transportation: The railway system is expanding. The construction of new lines is proceeding.

100 MILES AN HOUR.
ON THE MOST EXCITING NUGGETS IN RAILROADS.

The Apalling Experience of a Passenger on an Oregon Short Line.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 16.

A passenger on the Oregon Short Line was thrown from the train and suffered severe injuries when the engine derailed. The train was traveling at a speed of 100 miles an hour, and the derailment occurred near a curve in the track. The passenger was thrown from the car and landed on the ground. The train was a new model, and the railroad company is conducting an investigation to determine the cause of the derailment.

A NEW AND WHITESTONE BANK.

Mr. E. P. Coe, of Jefferson, Missouri, says the Whitestone Bank is situated on a spot where the Ohio River is 30 feet above the level of the city of Jefferson. The bank will be built entirely of stone, and will be one of the finest and best banks in the United States. The building will be four stories high, and will contain 100 rooms. The ground floor will be occupied by a large banking room, and the upper floors will be used for offices and apartments. The bank will be completed in six months, and will be ready for business in the fall of the year. The capital stock will be $100,000, and the bank will be under the management of Mr. E. P. Coe.

The Farmers' and Mechanics Savings & Loan Association,

The Farmers' and Mechanics Savings & Loan Association, of Nashville, Tennessee, is pleased to announce that they have received a grant of $100,000 from the State of Alabama. The association was established in 1890, and has been growing steadily ever since. The grant will be used to expand the association's facilities and to increase its lending capacity. The association's president, Mr. J. H. Smith, expressed his gratitude for the grant, stating that it would enable the association to continue its work of helping farmers and mechanics in the area. The association has over 1,000 members and has lent over $1,000,000 in the past year.

BALLOT AGAINST BALLOT.

In the matter of the election between Mr. J. H. Smith and Mr. W. H. Miller for the office of Sheriff of Wilson County, the ballot against ballot was the most exciting feature of the election. The two candidates were evenly matched, and the vote was close throughout the county. The election was held on Tuesday, April 3rd, and the results were announced on Wednesday. Mr. Miller won by a narrow margin, with a total of 512 votes to Mr. Smith's 508. The election was conducted in a free and fair manner, and both candidates congratulated each other on a hard-fought campaign.

E. O. HOLT, Sheriff.

COTTON COMPARISONS

NEW YORK, Feb. 13. — The New York Cotton Exchange last week, as reported to its members, was unusually quiet. The market was subdued and the prices were lower than usual. The supply of cotton is considered to be ample for the present needs of the trade. The prices of cotton are expected to remain steady, but there is some uncertainty about the future due to the unsettled state of the money market.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15. — The Federal Reserve Board has announced that it will continue to maintain the current low rate of interest. The board is also considering the possibility of increasing the price of cotton to ensure a steady supply.

CHICAGO, Feb. 14. — The Chicago cotton market has experienced a slight decline in prices this week. The supply of cotton is considered to be adequate, and there is no expectation of a major increase in demand.

BOSTON, Feb. 15. — The cotton market in Boston has remained stable, with prices holding steady. The supply of cotton is adequate, and there is no expectation of a major price change.

ATLANTA, Feb. 14. — The cotton market in Atlanta has remained stable, with prices holding steady. The supply of cotton is adequate, and there is no expectation of a major price change.

MEMPHIS, Feb. 15. — The cotton market in Memphis has experienced a slight decline in prices this week. The supply of cotton is considered to be adequate, and there is no expectation of a major increase in demand.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 14. — The cotton market in New Orleans has remained stable, with prices holding steady. The supply of cotton is adequate, and there is no expectation of a major price change.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 15. — The cotton market in St. Louis has experienced a slight decline in prices this week. The supply of cotton is considered to be adequate, and there is no expectation of a major increase in demand.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14. — The cotton market in Philadelphia has remained stable, with prices holding steady. The supply of cotton is adequate, and there is no expectation of a major price change.

SEATTLE, Feb. 15. — The cotton market in Seattle has experienced a slight decline in prices this week. The supply of cotton is considered to be adequate, and there is no expectation of a major increase in demand.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 14. — The cotton market in San Francisco has remained stable, with prices holding steady. The supply of cotton is adequate, and there is no expectation of a major price change.

ANCHORAGE, Feb. 15. — The cotton market in Anchorage has experienced a slight decline in prices this week. The supply of cotton is considered to be adequate, and there is no expectation of a major increase in demand.

PORTLAND, Feb. 14. — The cotton market in Portland has remained stable, with prices holding steady. The supply of cotton is adequate, and there is no expectation of a major price change.

SEATTLE, Feb. 15. — The cotton market in Seattle has experienced a slight decline in prices this week. The supply of cotton is considered to be adequate, and there is no expectation of a major increase in demand.
