The following is from the daily press:

MR. M. LAMBERT, Third Party candidate for the position of mayor of Washington, D.C., has been appointed an engineer for the completion of the new financial building being erected in the city, and he has accepted the position.

The Massachusetts legislature has passed a bill providing for the immediate organization of a labor party in that state. The bill provides for the appointment of a labor commissioner, who shall have power to investigate the condition of labor in the state and to investigate the labor laws in other states. The labor party shall be organized under the name of the "Massachusetts Labor Party," and shall have the power to nominate candidates for public office. The party shall be composed of persons who are interested in the labor movement and who are willing to fight for the rights of labor.

The following is from the daily press:

THE THIRD PARTY movement in the United States is gaining ground rapidly. The leaders of the third party are working hard to organize the party, and they are making headway. The third party is opposed to the two major parties, and it is advocating a program of social and economic reforms. The third party is gaining support among the working class, and it is likely to become a serious political force in the United States in the near future.

The following is from the daily press:

THE SENATE has passed a bill providing for the establishment of a system of free public schools in the United States. The bill provides for the establishment of schools in every state, and for the appointment of school superintendents and teachers. The bill also provides for the establishment of a system of higher education, and for the appointment of university superintendents and professors. The bill is intended to provide for the education of all children, and to give them an equal chance to become educated.

The following is from the daily press:

THE BENEFIT of the American people is the object of the movement for the establishment of a system of free public schools, and it is the object of the movement for the establishment of a system of higher education. The movement for the establishment of a system of free public schools is being supported by the working class, and it is likely to become a serious political force in the United States in the near future. The movement for the establishment of a system of higher education is being supported by the middle class, and it is likely to become a serious political force in the United States in the near future.
