POETRY.

Let us be happy.

BY ELIZA COOK.

Oh! let us be happy when friends gather around us.

However the world may have shadowed

our lot,

When the rose-branded links of affection

have bound us,

Let the cold chains of earth be despised and forgot.

And say that the friendship is only ideal.

That Truth and Devotion are blessings unknown.

For he who believes every heart uncored,

Has something unsound at the core of his own.

Oh! let us be happy when moments of

pleasure

have brought to our presence the dearest and best.

For the pulse always beat to most heavenly measure.

When love and good-will sweep the

strings of the breast.

Oh! let us be happy, when moments of

pleasure

bring to our side who illumine our eyes.

And though folly, perchance, shake a bell

at the greeting.

He is the dullest of fools who forever is wise.

Let the laughter of joy echo over our bosoms.

As the hum of the bee o'er the midsummer flowers.

For the honey of happiness is from love's blossoms.

And is found in the hive of those exqui-sitive hours.

Then let us be happy when moments of

pleasure

have brought to our presence the dearest and best.

For the pulse always beats to most heavenly measure.

When love and good-will sweep the

strings of the breast.

Let us speak not of a spirit too sad and too

wary.

To yield the kind word and the mirth-
ful smile.

The heart, like the tree, must be fearfully

pruned.

Where the robin of hope will not warble

any more.

Let us say not in pride that we care not for

others.

And live in our wealth like an ox in his stall.

'Tis the commerce of love with our sisters and brothers.

He who seeks our great debt to the Father and all.

Then let us be happy when moments of

pleasure

have brought to our presence the dearest and best.

For the pulse always beats to most heavenly measure.

When love and good-will sweep the

strings of the breast.

Let us speak not of a spirit too sad and too

wary.

To yield the kind word and the mirth-
ful smile.

The heart, like the tree, must be fearfully

pruned.

Where the robin of hope will not warble

any more.

Let us say not in pride that we care not for

others.

And live in our wealth like an ox in his

stall.

THE DARK STRANGER.

CHAPTER I.

With the money in his pocket, Robert hastened down Broadway. At the corner of Park Place he paused and cast a furtive glance around him. He was evidently much agitated. He thought of his wife, whom he had deceived, and his conscience smote him. She was all love and confidence, he had basely deceived her. Should he return, throw himself at her feet and beg forgiveness? Such a course was most gratified to his conscience heart, but he had been a hope of retrieving himself, the destruction of mammon thwarted him. A singular. Turning down the street, he entered one of those gambling halls, which are a curse to the country. Again he paused on the steps, to silence the suggestions of conscience. The beautiful image of his wife, languishing away the tedious hours of absence, haunted him. But the usual consolation of the soul, only this way, and then I'll forever abandon the way of the transgressor, came to urge him on.

By the gaslight he saw a dark form

in the angle of a Spanish cloak, approached the spot where he stood.

Stranger passed by his side, glanced intently at him, and then entered the saloon.

He followed him, the hall was brilliantly lighted, and the gay and fashionable dressed were there, countenancing the iniquity, practiced within those gilded walls.

Robert Wilson shuddered as he entered.

Yet, why should he shrink from a scene which the most repugnant mingled?

How could he come to a man? His soul had not yet come to a man? His soul had not yet come to a man? His soul had not yet come to a man? His soul had not yet come to a man? His soul had not yet come to a man? His soul had

That the act of Congress, providing for the admission of Nebraska and Kansas, embodies the principle of Congressional non-interference upon the subject of slavery in the Territories, and that the provisions of that act, so far as they relate to that subject, meet the hearty concurrence and approval of this Convention.

6 That the restoration of the Missouri compromise line by Congress would be a great wrong, resistance to which even to the extent of a distribution of the Union, would be a sacred duty with all who cherish the essential principles of Constitutional right and State equality.

7 That it is the deliberate conviction of this Convention, that in view of the great practical questions which now involve and menace their dearest rights and most important interests, the people of the slave holding States should unite for the protection of their threatened rights; and for the prevention of further aggressions upon their domestic institutions; and that they should positively refuse longer to affiliate with any National party which will not distinctly and unequivocally recognize and maintain the full measure of their rights under the Constitution.

8 That it is expedient that we should be represented in the Democratic National Convention, upon such considerations as are hereinafter expressed.

9 That the delegates to the Democratic National Convention, to nominate a President and Vice President, are hereby expressly instructed to insist that the said Convention should adopt a platform of principles, as the basis of a National organization, prior to the nomination of candidates; unequivocally asserting, in substance, the following propositions: 1 The recognition and approval of the principle of non-intervention by Congress upon the subject of slavery in the Territories. 2 That no restriction or prohibition of slavery in any territory, shall hereafter be made by any act of Congress. 3 That no State shall be refused admission into the Union because of the existence of slavery therein. 4 The faithful execution and maintenance of the Fugitive Slave Law.

10 That if the said National Convention shall refuse to adopt the propositions embraced in the preceding resolution, our delegates to said Convention are hereby positively instructed to withdraw therefrom.

11 That this Convention appoint an Executive Committee, to consist of one person from each Congressional District whose duty it shall be, in the event that the action of the said National Convention is not in conformity with the severer resolution, to call a Convention of the Democracy of Alabama to meet at an early day, to consider what is best to be done.

12 That we hail with unaffected satisfaction the movement of Georgia to prescribe the terms upon which she will associate in party brotherhood with any National organization.

13 That we sympathize with the friends of the slavery cause in Kansas, in their manly efforts to maintain their rights and interests of the Southern people, and that we rejoice at their recent victories over the paid adventurers and jesuitical hordes of Northern abolitionism; that the deep interest felt and taken by the people of Missouri in the settlement of Kansas, and the decision of the slavery question in it, is both natural and proper, and that it is their right and duty to extend to their Southern brethren in that Territory every legitimate and honorable sympathy and support.

14 That we are uncompromisingly opposed to the political organization commonly called the Know-Nothing order, having no sympathy with their secer, their oaths, their unconstitutional designs, their religious intolerance, and their political proscription; and that, under whatever name or in whatever shape its members present themselves to the public, advocating the principles of that Order, they will alike meet our sternest opposition.

15 That the signal triumph in Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, and other States, of the Democratic party, and of the patriotic Whigs, who co-operated in achieving these results over the Know-Nothing organization, as conclusive evidence that, in the great practical questions involved in that contest, Southern men may honorably and successfully combine, without regard to past political distinction, to save the Constitution from desecration, and the South from being prostrated before the power of Northern fanaticism and misrule.

16 That those men in the non-slaveholding States who have nobly advocated the passage of the Nebraska-Kansas act, and the Fugitive Slave law, as measures of justice to the South, deserve our thanks, and are entitled to our confidence.

17 That the administration of President Pierce meets our cordial approval; and the bold and statesmanlike enunciation of Congressional principles, in his recent message to the Congress of the United States, entitles him especially to the gratitude of the South; and this Convention earnestly recommends him to the National Democratic Convention for nomination as a candidate for re-election to the office of President of the United States.

A MASTER-PIECE OUT DONE.

We have lately supposed Ayer's Cherry Pectoral was Ultima Thule in its line, and that nothing had been or would be invented which could surpass it in its fine points of excellence as a medicine. But we are confidently assured by those competent to judge on the subject that Dr. Ayer's new Pills excel in high medical artistry even that widely celebrated embodiment in making them not only pleasant to take but powerful to cure larger class of complaints which require purgative remedy.

Splendid Offer.

We now offer the Jacksonville Republican and Arthur's Home Magazine, published in Philadelphia, one of the best Literary Magazines in the United States, containing in each number two splendid engravings and many beautiful embellishments, for the low price of $3 25 cts. Our present subscribers who pay in advance, can also take in the Magazine if they wish at $1 25 cts.

Loan Bill Passed.

It is with feelings of heart felt gratification, that we are enabled to announce to our readers this morning, the passage through both houses of the bill authorizing a loan of two hundred thousand dollars to the Ala. and Tenn. River Rail Road, notwithstanding the veto of the Governor. Not that we wish to impugn the motives of the Governor, or have the slightest idea that he has acted in any manner contrary to his convictions of right and duty; but that sound policy dictated that this aid, and even more should be rendered by the State, where there is no risk of loss. We have never favored a wild and reckless system of endorsement of State bonds, for any and every scheme of improvement, practicable or impracticable; but this if we understand it is very different, being a loan upon undoubted personal security. Besides, this aid of improvement, is no time for us, with our unparalleled natural advantages, to be tugging over dirt and mud roads eight miles a day, while our neighbors are skimming over the earth at the rates of an hundred miles per hour, and making us pay tribute to them for transportation. If under the circumstances, we should stubbornly refuse to enter the race of improvement, we would deserve neither the sympathy nor respect of mankind.

But we rejoice the more in this loan, on account of the timely aid afforded to the worthy officers of this road, who have struggled through difficulties almost unparalleled, and thus far kept it in first hands. We may confidently hope to see the work progress without stoppage, at least to this point.

We publish in to day's paper, the Resolutions adopted at the late Democratic State Convention. They embrace the well tried and long established doctrines of the democratic party, and have met we believe with universal approbation.

Copper Mining.

We have this week, some "crumbs of comfort," for that very interesting and interested class of our fellow citizens in this and adjoining counties, who were more or less severely afflicted with the "copper fever" in the year 1855. We publish in another column an extract from the Savannah Journal, containing information of an improved method of smelting copper ore of inferior quality, which heretofore would not pay expenses of mining and transportation in its crude state. This inferior ore, yielding not more than 8 per cent of copper, is said to exceed the best ore, in the heat of nine in quantity four to one, and is now yielding to some of the companies, by a small outlay of labor, $500 per day.

We recollect that the question of those who were best acquainted, practically and theoretically with the business of copper mining, was not so much whether copper ore could be found in this State and Georgia, as whether it could be found of quality sufficiently rich to pay expenses; but if under this new process, ore of poorer quality can be made to pay so well, copper lands which under the old process of shipping the crude ore, would have been valueless, will now be of immense value. We hope yet to see experiments made in this section, not merely like gopher holes, but upon a scale calculated to produce important results.

Cold Weather.

If it were any news, we could inform our readers that we have a continuation of extremely cold weather, since our last issue. The thermometer has been as low here as 4 deg. above zero. But this is pleasant weather to what we see noticed in the North and North-west: there it has fallen to 10, 16, 24, & 24 degrees below zero.

We hear considerable fears expressed of injury to the wheat crop here, by the intense cold and severe frosts. Much of it, it is thought will be winter killed, leaving a very bad stand.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

The National Democratic Committee met at Washington on the 8th of January, and appointed the meeting of the Democratic National Convention to take place at Cincinnati on Monday the 2nd day of June next.

We have the pleasure to announce that Professor C. W. Langworthy, an accomplished Music Teacher, will take charge of the Music Department, the pre-ent year, in the Woodland Female College at Cedar Town, Ga.

Additional by the Atlantic.

Appearances indicate that Austria will not take the field unless assured of the active support of the German Bund. Russia was displeased at Baron Leybach's Mission to St. Petersburg, and had sent Baron Manteuffel to Dresden, to enquire to what extent Bavaria and Saxony had engaged themselves with the Allies.

Advices from Sweden were warlike. The military commanders had received orders to have their corps in the highest state of efficiency before spring.

PRESIDENTIAL NOMINATION. A letter, written from Washington, says: "If the politicians were as much in favor of the nomination of Mr. Pierce as the people are, he would receive it, beyond the possibility of a doubt." The politicians, we hope in this instance will be compelled to obey the voice and wishes of the people. If they do not, we think we may safely predict for them a humiliating and well deserved defeat. There is always something very revolting in the idea of scheming politicians forcing unexpectant candidates on the people, very near akin to that occasioned by mercenary motives, wedding youth and beauty to age and decrepitude.

Jacksville Female Academy.

It will be seen by reference to the advertisement in another column, that the 9th session of this well known and justly popular institution, will commence on the 18th day of February next. We have heretofore spoken so frequently and warmly of the advantages of this institution, to the friends of female education, especially since it has been in the hands of the present diligent and competent superintendent, that it is unnecessary to add any thing here. We will merely remind those who intend to send, of the importance of making immediate preparation to enter with the commencement of the session.

Copper Mining.

The business of Copper mining in Georgia and Tennessee, is fast growing into the first importance. The developments thus far, have far exceeded in richness the most sanguine expectations, and means are being used to perfect and make still more profitable the digging and smelting the precious metal. Whatever tends to perfect the business benefits the commercial importance of Savannah, and adds to the real wealth of our State.

The Griffin Empire State, speaking of an improved process of smelting copper ore, says Mr. Calloway, one of our successful business men, has been considering totally valueless, because the net yield would not pay the expenses of mining and transportation, which is said to be the case with all ore yielding less than 12 per cent, of copper.

The process of smelting has been lately introduced by the Eureka Mining Company, (says Mr. Calloway) one of our successful business men, has been considering totally valueless, because the net yield would not pay the expenses of mining and transportation, which is said to be the case with all ore yielding less than 12 per cent, of copper.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

ARRIVAL OF THE AMERICA.

The steamer America had arrived with Liverpool dates to Jan. 5. Prospects of peace had not improved. The Czar's answer to Prince Esterhazy was not expected until the 8th inst. but Nesselrode had put forth a circular, in which he had interpreted upon the Third Point, to which the allies could not agree, viz: that Russia and Turkey mutually agree as to the strength of their respective fleets in the Black Sea.

Appearances indicate that Austria will not take the field, unless she be assured of the active support of the German Bund. Russia was displeased at the Baron Seelach's mission to St. Petersburg, and had sent the Baron Manteuffel to Dresden, to enquire to what extent Bavaria and Saxony had engaged themselves with the Allies.

The advices from Sweden are very warlike. The military commanders have received order to have their respective corps in the highest state of efficiency before Spring, when it is probable that Sweden will take the field. Denmark has consented to the establishment of depots for the English fleet at Kiel, as it will rendezvous there in April.

RUSSIAN VICTORY.

The latest advices from the Crimea state that the Russians had been reinforced to some extent, and that large parties of Russian troops were marching from the Crimea into Bessarabia. There was no intention, however, to evacuate their position, as the places of the troops that had marched were supplied by the reserves. Prince Gortschakoff, announced that on the 16th ult. a detachment of Kosakows had defeated a strong squadron of General Vivian's Cavalry near Kertch, and that the English Commander had been made prisoner. The Russian Government had authorized for contracts for the supply of immense quantities of artillery, stores and rifles, &c., for the Regiments being enrolled.

The gun boats of the Allied fleet were frozen up at Kinburn. Omar Pacha has renounced his intention to attack Kutais.

Advices from China state that a serious difficulty had occurred at Hong Kong, the American Consul having been imprisoned by the British authorities for attempting to rescue the captain of the ship Reindeer, who had been lined for an assault upon the carpenter of his ship. Com. McCluney, of the Pachattan, declared the action of the court illegal, and stated that he would resist by force any attempt to exercise jurisdiction over American citizens on board American ships.

Helmbold's Genuine Preparations.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED Compound Fluid Extract Buchu, For diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys. Secret Diseases, Stricture, Weakness, and all diseases of the Sexual Organs, whether in Male or Female, from whatever cause they may have originated, and no matter of how long standing.

If you have contracted the fearful disease which when once seated in the system, will surely go down from one generation to another, undermining the constitution, and sapping the very vital fluids of life, do not trust yourself in the hands of Quacks, who start up every day in a village this, and fill the papers with glaring falsehoods, who well calculated to deceive the young, and those not acquainted with their tricks. You cannot be too careful in the selection of a remedy in these cases.

The Fluid Extract Buchu has been pronounced by eminent physicians the greatest remedy ever known. It is a medicine perfectly pleasant in its taste, and very innocent in its action, and yet so thorough that it annihilates every particle of the rank and poisonous virus of this dreadful disease; and unlike other remedies, does not dry up the disease in the blood.

Constitutional Debility, brought on by self-abuse, a most terrible disease, which has brought thousands of the human race to untimely graves. Blighting the bud of the brilliant hopes of parents, and a noble youth, can be cured by this invaluable Remedy. And as a medicine which has been tried and approved by the young, and is so found acting both as a Cure and preventive.

HELMBOLD'S HIGHLY CONCENTRATED Compound Fluid Extract Sarsaparilla, For Purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence in life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the Blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetters, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

This article is now prescribed by some of the most distinguished physicians in the country, and has proved more efficacious in practice than any preparation of Sarsaparilla yet offered to the public. Several cases of secondary Syphilis, Nervous and Scrofulous diseases have entirely recovered in a few weeks of the use of this medicine. These cases furnish striking examples of the salu-tary effects of this medicine in arresting some of the most inveterate diseases, and the bones already affected were destroyed, and the bones already affected were destroyed, and the bones already affected were destroyed.

Notice is given that several Medical Colleges, and Professors of several Medical Colleges, and certificates of cures from patients will be found accompanying each Preparation.

Fluid Extract of Buchu, $1 per bottle. Fluid Extract of Sarsaparilla, $1 per bottle or 6 bottles of five dollars, equal in value to one gallon of Sarsaparilla.

Prepared and sold by T. HELMBOLD, Chemist, 203 Chestnut Street, near the Girard House, Philadelphia.

To be had of And of Druggists and Dealers everywhere.

All letters directed to the Proprietor or Agent receive immediate attention. June 26, 1855.—ly.
