For the Mother's Sake.

A young man, who had left his home in Maine ruddy and vigorous, seized with the yellow fever in New Orleans and though nursed with devoted care by friendly strangers, he died. When the coffin was being closed, "Stop," said an aged woman who was present: let me kiss him for his mother!"

Let me kiss him for his mother!
 Ere ye lay him with the dead,
 Far away from home, another
 Sure may kiss him in her stead:
 Now that mother's lip would kiss him
 Till her heart should neraly break!
 Now in days to come she'll miss him!
 Let me kiss him for her sake.

Let me kiss him for his mother?
 Let me kiss the wandering boy;
 It may be there is no other
 Left behind to give her joy.
 When the news of woe the morrow

Burns her bosom like a coal.
She may feel this kiss of sorrow
Fall as balm upon her soul.

Let me kiss him for his mother !
Heroes ye, who by his side
Waited on him as a brother Till the Northern stranger died,— Heeding not the foul infection,
Breathing in the fever breath,—
Let me, of my own election,
Give me the mother's kiss in death.

Let me kiss him for his mother !"
 Loving thought and loving deed !
 Seek no tear sigh or to smother,
 Gentle matrons, while ye read.
 Thank the God who made ye human,
 Gave ye pitying tears to shed ;
 Honor ye the Christian woman
 Bending o'er another's dead.

THE CASE BARBAROUS.—The killing of Sauter, Rock.

senator broke neck by Judge Terry of California, is another illustration of the folly the barbarism and wickedness of the dueling code. To men of correct feelings and proper moral or religious conviction, and a just conception of the accountability of man to his Creator, it is difficult to imagine any state of feelings which can justify and resort to the duel; but the practice is still prevalent and apparently gaining ground in many sections of the country.—Journal of Commerce.

One year ago I performed a duty, such as I perform to-day, over the remains of Senator Ferguson, who died as Broderick died tangled in the meshes of the code of honor. To-day there is another and more eminent sacrifice. To-day I renew my protest; to-day I utter yours. The code of honor is a delusion and a snare; it palates with the hope of true courage and binds it at the feet of crafty and cruel skill. It surrounds its victim with the pomp and grace of the procession but leaves him bleeding on the altar. It substitutes cold and delicate preparation for outrageous and manly impulse and aims the one to disarm the other; it may prevent fraud between practiced duellists who should be forever without its pale but it makes the mere "trick of the weapon" superior to the noblest cause and the truest courage. Its pretence of equality is a lie—it is equal in all the form it is unjust in all the substance—the habitude of arm in the early training, the frontier life, the

SWEET POTATO VINES AS HAY—It is remarkable that planters will allow their potato vines to be killed by frost, to the serious injury of the root and total loss of the vines, previous to gathering, and yet they will spend time in suving per-vices that are done growing and partially decayed, and fodder (corn blades) after the corn is matured, when neither or both together are worth as much as the potato vine for stock food, by 25 per cent. On the 20th of this month, and earlier, in proportion as you go northward in the cotton region, the potato vine is in a state of luxuriant growth having shed none of its leaves full of saccharine matter and starch. They may be gathered with great rapidity and easily cured, as there is rarely rain about the 20th of October. There is no forage in the class of hays, for stock cattle and mules, to be compared to well cured sweet potato vines.

COVER. There have been no important criminal cases standing for trial upon docket this week. Alfred P. Smith, who stood indicted for the murder of Elizabeth Vincent, died on the 16th inst., and will never be tried before an earthly tribunal. "We" W. Boss, having taken legal leave, has returned to the city, and the case of People v. Boss is now on the docket. The Grand Jury were in session last Saturday, having done a pep day's work, and "crossed" in finding some forty indictments. We learn that they failed to indict Stephen W. Petty for the murder of his mother-in-law, upon the ground of insanity. The report of the Grand Jury will be found in Floyd who was indicted for shooting Barnabus Casey, plead guilty and was sentenced to the Penitentiary for six years.

—Groes River Argus—

A Yankee with the yellow fever may be very properly called a Northern man with Southern feelings.

CONSOLIDATED
Lotteries of Delaware
For OCT. 1895.
The Legislature of Delaware, at its last session, having granted to FRANK BROADBENT & CO., (to the exclusion of all other applicants,) a Lottery Charter
for the Encouragement of Internal Improvements in the State, to continue for a period of twenty years, are now drawing
in Wilmington, Delaware, a series of the most splendid lotteries ever offered to the public. Bonds for one million of dollars have been given to the State, to secure the payment of all prizes. The drawings take place in public, under the supervision of Commissioners appointed by the State, to insure their fairness. The Managers call the attention of the public to the following splendid prizes to be drawn during the present month.

—FARTHER POINT, Oct. 29.
 The recently pending treaty between France and Austria, was signed by those powers on the 17th inst.

The Independence of Belge in a late issue says with regard to the treaty itself, that the most important questions are settled in the following manner:
 Sardinia retains the Mantuan districts, which were occupied by her armies at the moment when the armistice was signed and the line of demarcation fixed by that armistice becomes the permanent frontier between Lombardy and Venetia.
 Sardinia, in return, takes upon herself three fifths of the Monte debt—about one hundred and twenty millions, that together with one hundred and twenty millions of the loan of 1854, or in all, about two hundred and seventy millions. The difficulty relative to the environs of the fortresses has been overcome by compromising the rival pretensions of the two powers.

It is reported that in addition to the five great powers, Sardinia Spain, Sweden, Portugal, Naples and Rome, will be represented at the contemplated European Congress.

It is announced that a treaty between France and Sardinia, will be signed in a few days & that a tri-partite treaty will be subsequently signed.

The Great Eastern steamship was still at Holly head: A meeting of the Directors of the company was announced to be held on the 19th inst, when it was thought arrangements would be made for the steamship to depart for the United States.

In London money was reported exceedingly abundant.

There were reports in circulation of probable changes in the French ministry and circumstances have occurred which in a great measure confirm those reports.

The apprehended troubles with Morocco and Spain have been adjusted.
 The Emperor of Morocco has tendered full satisfaction to the United States.

General News.
 The London Times says that the terms of the Zurich treaty are almost identical with the Villa Franca.

The rumor that France demands three hundred millions from Piedmont as expenses of war, have been pronounced false. France retains only the reimbursements of sixty millions that she advanced for arms and provisions.

It was reported that the archbishop of Bordeaux intended to visit Rome for the purpose of pressing on the Pope the necessity of reform.

The deputations from Parma and Tuscany have had a satisfactory interview with the Emperor Napoleon.

There was great activity at Naples in the arsenal, and the army was being placed on a war footing.

The trial of the Outlaws—Fears of extinction of their Rescue—Guard at the Jail increased.
 CHARLESTON; V.A., Oct. 20.
 There were several witnesses examined this morning. At noon the court adjourned until 1 o'clock.

The excitement is very great and fears are entertained that there will be an attempt to rescue the prisoners.

The guard at the Jail had been increased by a military company, that arrived from Winchester.

POETRY.

To a Brutal Husband.
 My husband 'twas for thee I left
 My own, and happy home.
 For thee I left my cottage bowers,
 With thee in joy to roam;
 And where are all thy holy vows,
 The truth, the love, the trust,
 That won my heart?—all scattered now,
 And trampled in the dust.

I loved thee with a love untold,
 And when I stood beside Thy noble form, I joyed to think
 I was thy true bride.
 They told me ere I was thine own,
 How sad my lot would be;
 I thought not of the future, then—
 I only thought of thee.

I left my home, my happy home,
 For a sunny hearted thing,
 Forgetting that my happiness
 A shadowing cloud might bring.
 The sunny side of life is gone,
 Its beauty to mine eyes,
 And thorns are springing in my heart,
 Where blossoms used to twine.

I do not blame thee for thy lot,
 I only pray for thee,
 That thou mayst from the tempter's power be free.

(O, joyful thought,) I free;
 That thou mayst bend above my grave.
 With penitence sincere
 And for the broken hearted one,
 Let fall a sobber tear.

For the Republican.

in the it; and should not abide it, if they both do so ignorantly or willfully they are unworthy of your confidence and aid. I have no doubt that the trust so uniformly placed in you, will be justified. If your rights this demand, it will prove an irreparable injury. You cannot do it without sinking into deserved inferiority and sinking degradation. You will not do it, if the living spirit of your race still lives in your aging sons.

The Federal flag that shades over Northern property in every State, is an ensign of its protection. For that protection we fought the war of 1812—scourged the Mediterranean pirates and the Barbary States for laboring them down the South Sea Buccaneers from their hiding-places; annihilated and demolished Geytown—demanded that trade extorted from Austrian despotism; the surrender of Martin Koztze, a foreigner, who had taken only initiatory steps South, towards his naturalization here. Yes, the free negroes of Liberia; send them by the misguided philanthropy of culpeace-shelter and protection for their persons and property against the attacks of their foreign brethren of Africa" at the expense of the lives, and the property of the white race, which is collected from the South after. And while protection is afforded to the Northern men and foreigners and even to free negroes, on the high seas or foreign shores, shall it be denied to Southern men, in their own fields and by their fire-sides, at home, in the common territories of the United States? Never, never, by my consent.

I feel the respect and attachment that we owe to the Northern Democracy, who have proved their fidelity to us and loyalty to our common country. I believe it the just. I believe it to be the only mission Northern party from which we can hope for anything we desire, and when we separate from them, we sever the last link of federal, mis-called, fragment of the Union itself. I know that that party, now reduced to a small minority in the North and beleaguered by our and their foes, is menaced with destruction. While contemplating their past power

"All parties [said he] in this country that have tolerated the extension of slavery, except one, has perished for that error already. The last one—the Democratic party—is hurrying on, irrevocably, toward the same fate."

To preserve our allies, by according to the demand of Mr. Seward, the acknowledged leader of our enemies, the Democratic party, to protect themselves according to the demand of the Congress, must not protect—

Coming from a professed ally and friend, this proposition is not less odious and offensive than that of our enemy—

Mr. Seward denies your right to protection in the territories by any power, Federal, Territorial or State, and gives you fair warning, that if you enter there, you shall be robbed of your property.

Mr. Pugh admits your right, that you shall be robbed of your property on the territory by the action of all politicians, and invites you to be robbed, but authorizes someone, everybody to prepare a bill for your destruction, and promises to stand by, not merely as a passive spectator, but an active abettor, to arrest the protesting hand of your constitutional guarantor, the Congress of the United States. Give me an opportunity rather than a treacherous strait. To consent to either proposition is to submit to dishonor and ruin. Protection in the enjoyment of equal rights and civil liberties of person and property was the purpose of the Union, and the pledge of the Constitution. If any party refuse it, to any section or State of the Union, let it die. If the Federal Government, under the control of the North, refuse it to the South, or under the control of the South refuse it to the North, the bond that connects us is thereby broken, and the injured section can have no worthy motive for preserving the Union. The exercise of support without affording protection, is the support of anarchy of government. I trust, the South is not so stupid as to submit to it. I hope, the Democrats of the North are not willing to demand it. Certainly, Mr. Douglas, although their able and honored leader for several years past, cannot bring them to demand of us concessions, which would be fatal to us and fruitless to them.

I need not now tell you, that I will not support Mr. Douglas as any one on his platform, although nominated by the unanimous vote of the Charleston Convention, of the Democratic party, and many of our past associates, who have the Democratic party for principles. I will not abandon these principles for policy. I prefer the right, even with defeat, to the expedient, with success. I prefer truth to triumph. I love the Union of the constitution—a Union of equal, independent and sovereign States; and love my native State, my nurse, my mother and my grave,* yet true, and I should be a faithless and dishonest guardian of her rights, did I consent to abdicate the power and abandon the property of Congress to protect the property of her aggressors, to preserve us by whomever assailed, whether the Federal flag floats. Protection is an inherent right of citizenship, guaranteed by the Federal Constitution, as explained ded by the Federal Supreme Court, and when you surrender it, you will cease to be free men and to deserve the rights, privileges and immunities of free men. As your trustee and servant, I will not do so, it the bidding of squatter sovereignty, National Democracy or State Rights Democracy—yes, at the bidding of the Legislature of the people of Alabama. If coming to do so, I will resign my trust, retire to the deepest seclusion of my private life, and hiding my face in shame and humiliation and seeking my private silence about such evil and worthless things as State rights or freedom rights, become a quiet passenger on the ill-fated bark of the South, as it drifts ingloriously down the stream of Time into the black and tideless sea of infamy and oblivion.

Holloway's Pills—Dyspepsia, which is most difficult of physicians to cure, is most often by physical causes, and invariably succumbs to this great regulator of the internal organs.

Editor of the Pill upon the members of which lies the almighty power of people, who are suffering from indigestion, while at the same time they gently stimulate the stomach and the liver. This we suppose to be the most desiderandi in cases of dyspepsia and diarrhea; but whatever the process there can be no doubt as to the rapidity, invariability, and completeness of the cure. The Pills have been administered in this neighborhood in cases of summer complaint and general weakness and debility, with the happiest result. They are a perfectly safe medicine for children.

removes the cause of these engagements, and cures his disease.

This it accomplishes by humulating the capillaries to cure the venous system; and these organs by degrees become inhibited or do their work in a more judicious manner.

In a term of application, fine may accomplish this end, but often takes so long a time, and is sacrificed in an attempt to cure, that it is better to have this is safer as well as more speedy for whole cure of the disease, which has been discovered and it has still made it important disease to be public, which is cheap as well as good.

SONG OF THE NEWSPAPER.

I AM A Newspaper

I carry the news

To all of your dwellings

Wherever you choose;

A more faithful servant

Can hardly be found—

Almost omnipresent,

I'm scattered around.

Like stars in the heavens,

And sands on the shore,

Like leaves that have fallen

When Summer is o'er,

I fly o'er the land,

I pass o'er the sea,

I have every danger,

It's pleasure for me.

I gather the news from

The steamer and cars,

And telegraphs, sparkling

With truth, peace & war;

I fill up my mission,

Defending the Truth,

And teach useful lessons

For old men and youth.

PERSEUS AND HIS SONS.

Lead by the roses fall,

Drop by drop the springs run dry;

One by one, beyond recall,

Summer beauties fade and die;

But the roses bloom again,

And the springs will gush anew,

In the pleasant rain,

And the summer sun and dew.

So, in hours of deepest gloom,

When the springs of gladness fail,

And the roses, in their bloom,

Drop like maidens worn and pale,

Like a silent hope that lies

Hidden far from careless eyes,

In the garden of the heart.

CONSOLIDATED
Lotteries of Delaware
For OCT. 1889.
The Legislature of Delaware, at its last
session having granted to FRANK BROADBENT & CO. (the executor of all other applicants) Lottery Charter
for the Encouragement of Internal Improvements in the State, to continue for
a period of twenty years, are now drawing
in Wilmington, Delaware, a series of the most splendid schemes ever offered to the public. Bonds for one million of dollars have been given to the State, to ensure the payment of all prizes. The drawings take place in public, and are under the supervision of Commissioners appointed by the State, to insure their fairness. The Managers of the Lottery are

THE STATE OF ALABAMA.
St. Clair County.
Probate Court, October 12, 1889.
JAMES HAMILTON, deceased.
Estate of.
THIS day came William E. Hamilton, Administrator of said Estate, and filed his application in due form and under oath, praying for an order of sale, of certain lands, described therein, and belonging to said Estate, for the purpose of division, and upon the ground that said land cannot be equally divided. It is ordered, that the 12th day of December, 1889, be appointed a day for hearing such application, at which time all persons in interest can appear and contest
the same if they think proper.
JOHN W. INZER, Judge.

indispensable article of convenience and utility.
BEST INDUCEMENTS TO MAKE MONEY.
Morally, Rapidly, Easily and Surely, ever before presented.
PLEASE OBSERVE THE INDUCE-MENTS.
1st.—It requires but a small amount of money to commence.
2d.—It is the best instrument ever invented for the purpose.
3d.—It pays Large Profits, both to the wholesale and Retail, living from 100 to 300 per cent.
4th.—It is a light and easy occupation.
A Wholesale supply can be carried in a carpet bag.
5th.—Its adaptation to all persons, either in active business, or wishing to secure retirement employment, either local or Transient, is a consequence of its simplicity, and 6th.—The unlimited use of such common articles as Scissors and Shears, in every house, Office, Store and Manufactory, and with their use, a consequent sale of cheap, useful, unex-changeable demand for their sale.
7th.—We ask no Large Bonus, for Term County or State right of sale, but give real change.
We could enumerate many other reasons but we now wish to call your attention particularly to the following:
