

DECEMBER

Remember—that all appearances must be paid before a paper is discontinued.

We hope our patrons will not be offended, if we again invite their attention to the urgent call upon them for help, which we have been publishing for weeks.

More than 19 out of 20 of our patrons are farmers, whose produce of every kind now commands, each at high prices, and although the times are hard, our debts are so small that this can be no impediment if their will is good to pay them.

End of the War. Some of our exchange papers express the opinion that the present war must soon be brought to a close.

Cost of the War to the North. Greeley's New York Tribune, which would by no means be likely to overestimate the cost of the war, says it is not far short of $3,000,000 per day.

Comparative Loss. From calculations made by both Northern and Southern writers, it is ascertained beyond doubt, that the North has lost, in killed wounded and prisoners, at least five to one of the South.

A Silver Lining to the dark Cloud of Selfishness. A firm in Montevallo, Shelby County, Ala. advertises to give away 30 sacks of salt to indigent families.

Arrivals from the Army. Adj. J. E. Martin, Jr., Capt. Thomas Bush and Franklin Woodruff, and Mr. L. C. Mitchell, have recently arrived from the army in Virginia.

Robt. Hanna, has just arrived from Yorktown, Va., a member of Capt. Thos. Bush's company—he will return to Yorktown about the 23d inst.

Valuable Land Still Unsold. We are informed that the valuable tract of land, which has been advertised in our paper for sale for some time, by Mr. S. J. T. Whatley is still unsold.

Many, many thanks to our friends and patrons who have already responded to our call for help.

A new Post Office has been established in St. Clair county called Watson's Mills, and John Watson appointed Post Master.

Our thanks are due to John Timmerman, Post Master at Round Pond, J. Pearson, P. M. at Springville, John Watson, P. M. at Watson's Mills, for names of new subscribers and money forwarded.

The Confederate government has purchased the hospital thousand head of hogs in East Tennessee for the use of the army.

We invite attention to the advertisement of Mr. Wm. C. Laidl, in another column. Mr. L. has had long experience in his business.

"Live and let Live" used to be the old and generous maxim; but it seems to have been totally reversed in these latter days.

The last section of this bill reenacts the provisions of what is called the salt law—on the subject of ascertaining the compensation which shall be paid to speculators, manufacturers &c.

On motion of R. P. Lanford, Maj. Wm. J. Harrison was called to the chair, and on motion of J. B. Findley, Esq., Hon. J. B. Findley was requested to act as Secretary.

On motion of the following committee was appointed to draft suitable resolutions expressive of the meeting, when the chair appointed the following:

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God to remove from the walks of men, Gen. Robert W. Higgins, our late Senator from the counties of Marshall and DeKalb, and Capt. of the DeKalb Invincibles, 12th Regiment of Ala. Vol. Confederate States Army; and, whereas, we, the people of DeKalb county, deeply sympathizing with the relatives of the deceased in their irreparable loss, which they, in common with ourselves, and the country have sustained, do resolve.

At a meeting of the recruits of Capt. Jno. N. Robertson, and many citizens of Jacksonville and vicinity at the court house on the 9th day of December, 1861, Col. J. D. Hoke was called to the chair, and G. W. Tate appointed Secretary.

2nd. Resolved, That in the death of Gen. R. W. Higgins, the people of this Senatorial District have lost an able and faithful Senator; the State a young and promising patriot; the bar of this community an intelligent and efficient advocate; and the Army of the Confederate States a true and valuable soldier.

On motion the meeting adjourned sine die. W. J. HARRISON, Pres. J. B. FINDLEY, Secy.

At a meeting of the recruits of Capt. Jno. N. Robertson, and many citizens of Jacksonville and vicinity at the court house on the 9th day of December, 1861, Col. J. D. Hoke was called to the chair, and G. W. Tate appointed Secretary.

Whereas we are informed that the time allowed Capt. John N. Robertson to raise a company for the Confederate service, has expired and that he is bound to return and report himself at Richmond or Yorktown, and whereas Capt. Robertson has been faithfully industriously and indefatigably engaged in raising a company, and had enough on his list to form a good company, but before he could organize, many would join other companies and recruit, leaving him to fill up their vacancies, and that although, he has faithfully discharged his duty as a recruiting officer, yet without any fault on his part, his company now remains unfilled.

Therefore Resolved—That those who have joined Capt. Robertson's company, and the citizens of Jacksonville and vicinity here assembled, regret that it becomes necessary for Capt. Robertson, after so much labor and service, be compelled to abandon his recruits and return to service.

Resolved, That we believe he has been faithful in his exertions to procure a good company, and that his failure has been unavoidable, for the reasons above stated.

appear cheerful and very well satisfied of course, some of those who are rather given to despondency and would like to be at home, but this is only natural.

We have been here very near three months—some of us more than that—and have never been paid off yet, but we are expecting the money in a few days. It is a pity our men have not been paid before now, for money is very scarce with us, and now is a time when it is needed very much.

Enclosed I send the obituaries of two members of the Asheville Blues, which I hope will find a place in your columns. As I have no news except that which I will close my episode hoping I will have more cheering news when you hear from me again.

High Prices. "The cry of the public against the monopolists and extortioners, is growing louder, because their vices are growing more gigantic and intolerable."

When men complain of an increase of prices within the above limits, they are simply indulging themselves in the luxury of fault finding. Such complaints do harm.

THE ENTRANCE OF THE FISCAL—PROVIDENTIAL OCCURRENCE.—The following is an extract from a letter from an officer in Fort Pulaski, to his wife, which is made public:

The circumstances connected with the arrival of the Fingal seem to have had a divine direction. The morning was one of the most beautiful of the season, clear and serene—when the Fingal bore in sight of the Fort.

Gen. Bragg Compliments his Troops. Gen. Bragg has issued the following general order to the troops under his command at Pensacola, complimentary to them on their signal victory over the enemy after a two days' bombardment.

The signal success which has crowned our forty hours' conflict with the arrogant and confident enemy—whose government, it seems, is hourly looking for an announcement of his success in capturing our position—should fill our hearts with gratitude to a merciful Providence.
