

DECEMBER

Circuit Court. All persons who are owing costs in my Office, are required to settle. And all who have judgments that have been returned to property, are required to pay costs or Executions will be issued against the Plaintiff for costs after the 25th inst. Settlements with the old Sheriff, and no mistake. Dec. 4, 1862. G. B. DOUTHITT, Clk.

Our Legislature has done and is doing some noble things, which will reflect honor upon itself and the State. They have acquiesced in and expressed the opinion that the Conscription law of Congress is constitutional and assured the Sec'y of war of the cordial co-operation of Alabama in the prosecution of the war to the utmost of her ability. They have made liberal provision for the support of indigent families of soldiers in the army. They are doing their utmost to supply the people with salt at more reasonable prices, and endeavoring as far as possible to suppress speculation and extortion. They have solemnly resolved that our support of the Union, "the Gem of the Gulf," shall never be surrendered; and if taken, should be only a heap of ashes. The Legislature of South Carolina has taken similar action with regard to Charleston, and that of Georgia, with regard to Savannah. This is the spirit, if any, which is to preserve our sea-coast. Our cities, if thus taken, will prove but barren victories, having no other motive or justification than the most foolish malice and revenge; and subjecting our ruthless invaders to ten-fold retaliation.

In consequence of a press of work on Association Minutes, and a so having to get out our paper one day earlier on account of recent changes in the mails, we are compelled to send out a half sheet this week. But as we give our readers all the news there is, and are striving all the time to do the best we can in these difficult times, we hope our patrons will not be impatient with us. It is our purpose to make up to them amply for every deficiency.

See in another column, the liberal proposition by Messrs. Vernon and Brady, to tau lides on the shares.

MURDER.—We learn that a murder was committed in the eastern side of this county, on Thursday night last. A young man named Edmund F. Deason, was found dead on Friday morning, on the side of the road from Abernathy to Gain's Bridge, with four stabs in his body and thigh. From what we have thus far learned, the persons seen last with him, before the murder, were Lee Harrison of Perry county, not supposed to be guilty, Scott Pessell and Thornton Pessell. Scott Pessell has been arrested, and Thornton Pessell has left.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE MOORE GUARDS. Persons wishing to send any articles to their friends in Capt. H. L. Patton's Company, (K) 48th Alabama Regiment can have the opportunity of sending them by me. The articles must be deposited at Mr. Douthitt's office, by the 20th December, as I expect to start at that time. Every article should be distinctly marked, and put in box or cheap trunk.

SERGEANT J. J. DICKINSON. Mr. Morgan has been detailed from Capt. McCoy's company, for duty. The friends and relatives will please deposit any articles marked, before Dec. 15, at Mr. Douthitt's office.

ALABAMA LEGISLATURE. In the Senate, on the 26th, the bill to authorize imprisonment and punishment of persons, was taken up, amended and passed. Mr. Johnson from a Select Committee, reported favorably with amendments on the bill to prevent extortionate charges for freight and passages, Passed. In the House, Mr. Bennett, from the Judiciary Committee, reported favorably on the Senate bill to detach Mason from the Middle and attach it to the Southern Chancery Divisions, and detach Sumner from the Southern and attach it to the Middle Chancery Division. Passed. Mr. Lawler from Committee on Ways and Means, reported adversely to the Senate bill to provide for meeting appropriations out of the Treasury. Concurred in. Also, adversely to the bill to tax cotton in bales or bags; to discourage the production of cotton; to provide a special tax on cotton planters; and to provide for meeting every deficiency. Concurred in. Also, favorably, in the Senate, Joint Resolutions, to provide a service of posts to Mrs. A. B. Smith, in charge of the Alabama Soldiers in Richmond, Tallad.

Mr. Langdon, on Committee on Interoceanic Investments, reported adversely on the Senate bill to amend the charter of the Atch. & Tenn. R. R. Co., the Ala.

& Miss, R. R. Co., the Selma & Gulf R. R. Co., and the Western R. R. Co. Passed. Mr. B. Little reported favorably on the bill to incorporate the Selma Iron Foundry Company. Passed. Senate bill to establish a Bank at Opelika to be called the Exchange Bank of Alabama, was passed by the constitutional majority.

THE DEFENSE OF MOBILE. The following resolutions regarding the defense of Mobile, have been adopted by the Alabama Legislature:

Whereas, the Abolition Government has for the year past, and is now straining every nerve to consolidate its naval force for the destruction of the seaport towns of the Cotton States, the consequent invasion of the homes and firesides of our helpless women and children; and whereas we, the Representatives of the people of Alabama, inspired by the noble daring and the gallant and successful defense of the city of Vicksburg by her indomitable citizen-soldiers, would it is a hope that the city of Mobile, our only support, and the Gem of the Gulf, shall never be desecrated by our Abolition foe:

Be it therefore resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Alabama, in General Assembly convened, That in the solemn judgment of this General Assembly, the city of Mobile shall never be surrendered; that it should be defended from street to street, from house to house, inch by inch, until, if taken, the victor's spoils should be alone a heap of ashes.

Resolved, That the Joint Committee of Finance, the Senate concurring, be instructed forthwith to report a bill appropriating such sum of money as may be deemed sufficient to defray the expenses for the removal of the helpless women and children of the city of Mobile to a place of safety.

Resolved That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the Governor to the military and naval commanders for the defense of the city of Mobile, with the assurance that the people of Alabama will accept any calamity rather than suffer her soil to be again polluted by the tread of the Abolition invaders. Approved, November 17, 1862.

Latest News.

MOBILE, Nov. 28.—A special dispatch to the Advertiser & Register, dated Knoxville, 7th inst., says "Col. James R. Howard, of the Alabama Cavalry, arrived there today from a scouting expedition in Kentucky, as far as Duckville. On the 19th he encountered an Abolition force consisting of cavalry and infantry, on the Columbia Turnpike. After a fierce engagement he routed them, killing thirty. Our loss was four killed and three wounded. We captured 500 hogs and drove them out camp." Gen. Joseph E. Johnson leaves here today for Tallahassee, to the great satisfaction of the troops and people generally.

The report that Rosecrans is advancing from Nashville, is false. Our base is Lawrenceburg, 15 miles from Nashville. Morgan was captured at Tyree Springs, thirty miles from Galatin, but made his escape by a ruse. Numerous supplies are being brought out from Middle Tennessee. Large wagon-trains are daily passing Southward from Lebanon, loaded with flour and bacon.

PRELUDE, Nov. 28. The New York Herald of the 23d has been received here. It states that the Rebels were still in possession of Fredricksburg, at last accounts; but its surrender had been formerly demanded. A large force of Stuart's cavalry came to Warrenton Junction on Friday, probably with a view to make an attack upon the Union lines in the accustomed fashion. Raiders were rife on Friday that Spotsylvania was into Winchester with an eye to another raid into Maryland. So says the Herald. It thinks the condition of the river after the rains renders all chance of crossing it impossible. The Washington Star says the great deficiency of Railroad facilities in Virginia may delay Burnside a week—perhaps a fortnight. A temporary check, two hundred feet in length, has been constructed at Aquia Creek, and consequently master's stores for the entire army have been averted. Gen. Morgan is again en route for Cumberland, and it is reported he will march by the most practicable route to Knoxville.

Nov. 28. There is an unusual scarcity of news. Advices from above say that everything is quiet. Nothing of interest has occurred.

KNOXVILLE, Nov. 28. The Knoxville Register says that Howard's Alabama Cavalry have returned to East Tennessee from Kentucky with five thousand hogs. Judge Humphries opened the Confederate Court today for the trial of many treason and secession cases. Col. Drake Morgan's command, that a general engagement near Nashville is imminent.

MOBILE, Nov. 29.—A special dispatch to the Advertiser & Register, from Saffold the 28th says, that on Sunday the 23d a regiment of new Abolition recruits at Corinth refused to obey marching orders for Grand Junction. A force comprising two regiments attempted to coerce them, when a severe fight ensued, lasting three hours. A great number were killed and wounded on both sides. It is said that troops from Rienzi were ordered up to aid in quelling the insurgents, but the fight closed before their arrival.

RALEIGH, Nov. 24.—The State Journal has the following dispatch, dated Kingston:—"I have just been informed that Lt. Whitford, of Capt. John Whiteford's Partisan Rangers, captured a Yankee gunboat in Craven county yesterday, burning the boat and taking the crew prisoners. This crew consisted of 23 white men and 20 negroes. All quiet below."

DEFENSE OF SAVANNAH.—We find the following in a late message of Governor Brown of Georgia, to the Legislature of that State:

I have been informed by the military commander at Savannah that it is intended to make a defense of the city "to extremity," and he requests assistance from the State in the removal of the women and children and other non-combatants from the city. In view of the fate of New Orleans and other cities which have been surrendered to the enemy, I cordially endorse and approve this resolution of the Confederate General. Let us hold the city as long as a house or a brick wall is left standing behind which our troops can fight, and let the State assume the loss or expense of the destruction of property, or at least divide it with the sufferers.

It will be necessary that food and shelter be provided for such of the non-combatants as are unable to take care of themselves, as soon as possible, that they may be removed in advance of the attack. I therefore recommend an early appropriation of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars for this purpose.

MARRIED.—By J. W. Whiteside, Esq. on Thursday, the 13th of Nov. 1862, Mr. Eliza Hyatt to Miss Virginia C. Gibson.

THE ENEMY'S MOVEMENTS IN THE SOUTHWEST—GALLANT DEEDS OF CAPTAIN MITCHELL'S CONFEDERATE CAVALRY.

MOBILE, November 28.—A letter in the Mobile Advertiser and Register, dated Headquarters, Cavalry Division, ten miles South of Holly Springs, November 23d, says: "No doubt the enemy intend advancing in this direction soon. Fifty to sixty thousand Abolitionists are in front, at Grand Junction, Davis Mills and Lurgans. Reinforcements are being sent daily from Memphis and Jackson. The enemy are rapidly pressing upon the Memphis and Charleston Road to Grand Junction; also, on the Mississippi, central and Road towards Holly Springs. All the stations and bridges are heavily guarded. Their armed foraging parties are composed of the vilest robbers and murderers upon the face of the earth, and ravage the country round for miles on every side. From Davis' Mills to Moscow seems to be their base of operations." Captain Mitchell's cavalry company attacked a Yankee forage train comprising forty wagons, guarded by eighty cavalry and two companies of infantry, killing and wounding twenty-nine Abolitionists, capturing eleven prisoners and forty-eight mules, without any loss on our part. The prisoners and captured property were brought in last night.
