THE NECESSITY OF BEING POSTED.
The St. Louis Republican revives a fact well worth remembering by those who heraldly conclude, like the New York Herald, that because Vermont and Maine have gone for the Radicals, the whole country will follow suit. The Republican says:
"Nothing in the world, one way or the other, can be inferred from an election in Vermont or Maine, so far as the general result is concerned. Students of political statistics know this very well. In 1856, in the memorable contest between Buchanan and Fremont, Vermont and Main both gave increased Republican majorities in September and the Fremont party yelled itself hoarse with shouts of triumph over the result, just as the Radicals are doing now. But the elections in October and November in 1856 upset all their calculations, and disappointed their hopes based on the Vermont and Maine vote, the great central States rolling up their votes for Buchanan, and overwhelming Fremont will defeat."
A similar spectacle was witnessed in 1862. It was generally believed that a revolution in public sentiment had changed the relations of parties, and that the fall elections would bring the Democrats into the ascendant. The elections came off in Vermont and Maine and the result exhibited the tide of sentiment running still in the old channel. The Radicals carried those States, and their party, from Boston to San Francisco, was crazy with delight. The New York Herald, then as now, changed around on the strength of these elections, and declared the Radicals would sweep every State, but in October and November the Radicals were overwhelmingly beaten from New York to Missouri.

So will it be again this year. Everybody feels that a revolution in public sentiment is going on—that the relations of parties are changing—and that the elections in October and November will show different results from those of the past few years.
THE FATE OF JEFFERSON DAVIS.
We have assurances from some reverend gentlemen who recently visited Mr. Davis in prison that his health is so far affected that he cannot live three months whether free or captive.—These gentlemen, it appears, have appealed to the President for his release. Various accounts have been circulated, from time to time, as to the condition of Mr. Davis' health—some representing it as unusually good, others as most precarious; but this is the first time that a definite limit has been set down to his existence. However, whether these conflicting reports be true on one side or the other is not the point. The question is, who is responsible for the detention of Davis in Fortress Monroe? Whose fault is it that he has not been tried long ago, and his case disposed of, either by his conviction or acquittal? If he is to be detained for years until he perishes in prison, while the ends of justice are left unscrved, who shall bear the blame?
It is said that the President says it is the fault of Congress. Congress charges the President with the delay, and others again put the blame upon Chief Justice Chase. It is time that this matter should be settled in some way. It is a disgrace to our system of jurisprudence that the case of Jeff Davis should be allowed to remain in abeyance all this time. If he is amenable to the law let him have the benefit of the law. If there is any doubt as to the probability of his conviction, why detain him in prison? We adhere to our first impressions, that the ends of justice would be best subserved and the dignity of the nation best sustained by opening the doors of Fortress Monroe and letting go whither-sover he will. At any rate, let his case be dealt with promptly. The country is about as weary of the subject as the prisoner is of his captivity.

A Day at Fortress Monroe.
Visit of an old Mississippi Friend to Jefferson Davis—His Sketch of the Prison and the Prisoner.
[From the Natchez (Miss) Courier, Aug. 22.]
The editor of this paper spent Friday the 7th instant, at Fortress Monroe, and the greater part of the day with its illustrious State prisoner. He found but little difficulty in obtaining permission to see Mr. Davis, Chief Commissary of the District and Department, and whose headquarters are at the Fortress, his warm thanks for the civilities and kindness shown him.
Mr. Davis's prison room at night is furnished with an iron camp bedstead, as short and narrow as regulations can provide. He has a table, a chair, a shelf for books; a curtain in the niche between two iron grates, by the aid of which he is enabled to take a salt water bath. These are luxuries. When first confined, he had a camp bedstead, a chair with one leg shorter than the other three—ingeniously constructed so as to give the greatest amount of torture in the least possible quantity of time and space—a table so low and so small that to call it a table were ridiculous—that to call it a table were ridiculous—a basin and a pitcher. He received after a long time two tumblers; one of them, the guard borrowed and never returned; the other was broken, and not replaced for many days. He was not allowed the use of knife and fork. Even when his body was ulcerated by long confinement, the same fingers that dressed his sores, had to tear the miserable meat that was dolefully fed out by jailer Miles to the great State Prisoner of the United States! Of course from pure disgust, Jefferson Davis had to go without the food that common humanity would have given to a felon.
Thank God, these times are past! The tiger's thirst for blood has been assuaged, or perhaps the animal has been sent to Boston for safe-keeping for the present!

Mr. Davis' health is feeble—precarious in the extreme. Long confinement and the treatment he received during the first year of his horrible incarceration, have told terribly upon his slender frame. He was never a man of muscle. The intellectual ever predominated over the material. He is one of those gifted intellectual men, born only once in a century, whose brain is thought, and whose mouth is eloquence. In his prison dungeon, he can almost be spoken of as a hero of the past; and his acts, principles and ambitions have an historical and heroic interest. As a State Prisoner of the great Empire of the United States, he is surrounded with more personal interest than any other man can possibly be. The iron mask of the Bastille was but a curiosity. The State Prisoner of the United States is a wonder and an object of glory!
It would be difficult for an old friend of Mr. Davis to recognize him, were he not presented to him as the great State Prisoner! Emaciated to the extreme, almost a walking skeleton, little left but a great and stately form, a grey beard covering that peculiar style of features and of mouth, which in other days has given life and thought to a nation, an eye undimmed and full of the fire of intellect, he yet might pass upon our streets, unknown to former friends. His physical condition is such, that in walking he is obliged to use a cane. The writer does not know what a skeleton weighs. Add ten pounds to any medical man's report on the subject, and Mr. Davis' weight can be ascertained. But, yet he is reliant on his own integrity and on the God whose favor and mercy, with beautiful simplicity, he asks at more hours than the imprisoned Daniel did.
Mr. Davis, confined as he is, will not live long. Emaciated in the extreme, without appetite and without hope, he is gradually going down to the long home where a million of manly and womanly tears will follow him. The first chill, the first attack of any sharp disease, will carry him away to the great Judge who ruleth over all. Tempered by the wind that blows over Fortress Monroe! May her breathings be sweet, and her wings soft!
Mr. Davis is yet denied the use of pen, ink or paper. He violates the parole that allows him a walk inside the Fortress, if he even gives his autograph. During the day, he has little except as a prisoner, to complain of. During the night, he has grated doors, guards and an officer, to watch every time he turns over in bed, or changes the position of his pillow.
He is hopeless for himself. He sees not, nor can any one see for him why he is kept in the anomalous condition of a State Prisoner.
In all probability, Mr. Davis will never see our people again. He is an individual victim, whose life by confinement will be sacrificed to solve a great political embarrassment. Like the many

TEXAS REJECTS THE AMENDMENT.
The Texas Legislature, through the action of the Committee on Federal Relations, has respectfully returned to the Government the constitutional amendment, declining its further consideration. The ground assigned is thus expressed in the report:
Article thirteen, sections one and two have the honor to report as follows:
The people of Texas, in Convention assembled, have already, by their ordinance, acknowledged the supremacy of the Constitution of the United States, in which Constitution the above-named article thirteen is embraced, as part of the same; the courts of law so hold and administer said article thirteen.
The Legislature has authority in this matter; any action on the same would be surplusage, if not intrusive.
The committee, therefore, ask to be excused from the further consideration of the same; and they herewith respectfully return the communication of the Honorable the Secretary of State of the United States.

FACTS vs. THEORIES.

"Give me a place to rest my lever on," says Archimedes, "and I will move the world."

In essence, both of these learned pundits were the veriest charlatans. They knew there was no place to rest their lever on, either to move the world or cure disease.

Let Archimedes shoulder his lever and we will find a resting place for it to move the world. Let ancient Medicus pant and toil no more for the drugs he so sorely needs, for we have them at our hand, ever ready to serve them at his beck.

Refined in the laboratory of Dr. Maggiet, the finest materials known in the medical profession are obtainable by any one. His Billious, Dyspeptic, and Diarrhœ Pills stand unrivalled, and his Salve operates with magical effect upon burrs, scalds, and all sores and ulcers of the skin.

In fact, we think MAGGIET'S Pills and Salve are the wonder of this century, and we are happy in the thought that many others of our brethren of the craft agree with us.

Mr. Editor: Last Monday Hon. John Foster delivered an impressive address upon the condition of the country.

He portrayed in vivid language the dangers that are threatening us, the dark clouds that are gathering over our political horizon, and which seem destined to engulf us.

"Politics are running high and business very dull. The same partisan feeling is abroad in the land that inaugurated the war, and everything indicates another one more destructive than the first."

It was confidently believed some few months ago, that Indiana and the most of the Western States would go conservative, but recent indications are unfavorable; and if the West should go against us, we have every reason to believe that the next Congress will inaugurate the measures Mr. Foster spoke of, and probably commence by impeaching the President.

I am no prophet nor a son of a prophet, but it seems to me, that it requires prophetic eye to see the great danger before us. That rebels and rebel sympathizers will be disfranchised, and that the landed property of the South will be confiscated or rendered of comparatively little value by an onerous tax, are certain to follow the success of the Radical party as night follows day.

Dr. MAGGIET is the founder of a new Medical System. The quantities, whose vast internal doses enfeeble the stomach and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box of his wonderful and all-healing Salve.

These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggiet's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended.

Kate Davis, and the alleged provocation leading to the cruel act being the refusal of the child to say her prayers.

Something we all Ought to Know. The Treasury Department will not recognize as of full value torn greenbacks. If any part of a bill is lost, a discount is made in proportion to the missing portion.

We paid a visit a few days since, to the Foundry of NOBLE'S & MICHELL, and find them going ahead with improvements, and in a short time, they will have the most extensive concern in the Southern States.

Kate Davis, and the alleged provocation leading to the cruel act being the refusal of the child to say her prayers.

From the evidence elicited at the inquest on the body of the child, it appears that on the night in question the mother had beaten the child with a rawhide for nearly an hour, and when rendered insensible by pain and loss of blood, thrust it in a chair and went to bed.

Upon lifting the child from the floor, where it had fallen, a most revolting sight was presented. The head, face and shoulders were scarred and discolored from the terrible blows of the rawhide, while the body from head to foot presented a shocking, mangled and bloody appearance.

NEW PHYSIOGNOMY, or "SIGNS OF CHARACTER," as manifested through Temperament and External Forms, and especially in the "HUMAN FACE DIVINE." One elegant volume, with nearly 800 pages, and 1,000 illustrations. By S. R. WELLS, Editor PNEUMOLOGICAL Journal, post paid, $5. Address FOWLER & WELLS, No. 389 Broadway, New York.

"New Physiognomy" is eminently practical, fully illustrated, and well suited to the wants of all. In the study of "the face" the reader soon learns to read each and every feature. Noses are classified as the Roman, Greek, Jewish, Snuh and Celestial. The eyes speak all languages, whether black, blue, brown or hazel. In a like manner, cheeks, neck, ears, hands, feet, walk, voice, laugh, etc., are shown to be "signs of character."

In no other work is so much light thrown upon the character and destiny of mankind as in this, or the distinctive traits of nations and tribes so clearly pointed out. Portraits of distinguished persons of ancient and modern times, with biographical sketches and delineation of character, are given. DIVINES, ORATORS, STATESMEN, WARRIORS, ARTISTS, POETS, PHILOSOPHERS, INVENTORS, STRONGS, DISCOVERERS, ACTORS, MUSICIANS, etc., are included. It is an "Encyclopaedia" of biography, acquainting the reader with the career and character of many great men and women of the past 1,000 years, and of the present such, for instance, as Aristotle, Julius Caesar, Shakespeare, Washington, Napoleon, Franklin, Hancock, Bryant, Longfellow, Irving, Ross, Bonheur, Theodosia Burr, Cobden, Bright, Lawrence, Boliver, Whately, Thackeray, Dow, Knox, Richelieu, Hooper, Buckle, Dickens, Victoria, Wesley, Carlyle, Motley, Mill, Spenser, Thompson, Guthrie, Alexander, and hundreds of others. I WISH I WAS A PRINTER.

I wish I was a printer, I really do indeed. It seems to me that printers Have everything they need (Except money)

They get the largest and the best Of everything that grows. And get free into circuses. And other kind of shows. (By giving an equivalent.)

The biggest bug will speak to them. No matter how they dress; A shabby coat is nothing. If they own a printing press. (Policy.)

At fairs they are almost hugged - By pretty girls who know That they will crack up everything The ladies have to show (Lucky fellows)

And thus they get a blow out free. At every party fed - The reason is because they write; And other people read. (That's so.)

Rather Trust Ex-Rebels Than Government Robbers and Contractors. Who Staid Home During the War.

Gen. Isaac J. Wistar, of Philadelphia, has written a response to an invitation to be present at the Cleveland Convention of Soldiers and Sailors, in which he says:

The present attempt of certain Northern politicians to commit similar rebellious acts, by keeping our Union in a condition of Lizard and danger, and compelling one portion of our countrymen to submit without voice or representation, to the government of another portion—furnishes another opportunity for all loyal Union soldiers to rally for the preservation of the same Union for which we fought during our long and eventful years

I wish to be considered as enlisted in the same cause for this war also, and willing to march under the same flag, shoulder to shoulder with any and all who are willing to strike another blow for peace and Union, whether veteran soldiers or new recruits.

I would even trust a repentant rebel soldier who fought us on a battle field, but is really disposed to be rather than the politicians and contractors who stayed at home and rebelled, and the Government through the war, and now have the impudence to ask us to share the Government, we have preserved, will regret, in order that they may continue to grow fat on their verbal patriotism

Huge Apple. Mr. E. H. Matthews, who resides six miles west of the town of the District road, has in his possession an apple that weighs two pounds and a quarter. Any sceptic can call and verify that weight.

He challenges all our men Yankees of the war, all the luskies of Ohio, the Pukes of Illinois, the Wagoners of Michigan, to produce its superior.

Poisoned. A family by the name of Kroger, living some 12 miles from this place, and on the Cave Spring road, were poisoned on Sunday morning last, the particulars of which we give as follows:

One of the daughters, a grown lady, while cooking breakfast for the family, put a quantity of arsenic in the coffee, which she gave to the family at the table as usual. After breakfast was over, she took a rope, went to the woods, some half mile from the house and hung herself to the limb of a tree, where she remained until found by her friends, late in the evening.—When the family became sensible of the fact that they were poisoned, they sent for a physician who administered to them the proper treatment, by which it is hoped they will recover.

The family are said to have lived previous to the time alluded to a peaceable and quiet life, and that there was no cause at that time, to which this sad occurrence could be attributed.—The remains of the unfortunate young lady were buried on Monday.

The small pox is raging with unprecedented mortality among the negroes at Danville, Va.

The number of deaths from cholera in Nashville, on Sunday is recorded as fifty-one.

The Newburyport Herald says Gen. Butler will be elected to Congress from the 5th District, and that he will be the Radical candidate for President in 1868 against Gen. Grant, conservative.

Grant and the Next Presidency. The Herald of Friday says: From the troubled aspect of public affairs we have but little doubt that it will be as necessary to elect Grant to the Presidency to save the country in 1868 as it was necessary to call him to the chief command of the army to save the country in 1864. Joe Holt.

This miserable scoundrel and suborner of witnesses to condemn Jefferson Davis with complicity in the murder of Abraham Lincoln, has the unblushing effrontery to plead in the extension of his infamous plot to shed the blood of the noble and high spirited "live prisoner," that he was imposed upon. Miserable hypocrite! did he not write to his accomplice in villainy, "Do your work thoroughly?" Did he not know that the money he paid the contemptible perjurer and scoundrel, Comover, was the price for the blood of Jefferson Davis? People have sought notoriety in various ways, but Joe Holt, the suborner, and murderer of Mrs. Surratt, has in ignominy surpassed the youth who fired the temple of Diana. The name of the judge advocate who caused the blackest spot that ever was written in American history, may have been imposed on, but the cool, calm and deliberate murderer of an innocent woman, will mark him as the blackest fiend of infamy throughout all time.

Joe Holt, the miserable creature! Can he go to sleep without dreaming of the innocence of Mrs. Surratt? Can he walk the streets in day time without the ghost of his victim telling him, "You are a murderer!"

Huntsville Independent.

THE COTTON TAX.

Congress meets on the first Monday in December. If it should undergo a change of constituent elements, the ruinous cotton tax law may be repealed. It will then be known how utter have been the failure of crops, and how very poor are the people of the South. The Journal of Commerce says:

The inexpediency of the excise tax of three cents per pound on cotton is now evident enough from the increased cultivation we hear of in Brazil, India and Egypt.

The injustice of it is equally plain, because cotton is debarrred from the privilege of exportation to foreign countries in bond and free of duty, which is enjoyed by breadstuffs, petroleum and tobacco.

And the oppressiveness of it is more striking than ever, since it has become probable that the product of cotton per acre planted, and hands employed, will be very short. The propriety of repealing the laws will force itself even upon Commissioner Wells, Secretary McCulloch, and the House of Representatives at the next meeting of Congress in December.

The object of the law seems to have been to create offices for a regiment of what old Cobbet used to call tax-eaters. And if they had regard to the interest of the planters, they might have extended the inland bonding for a term of six months, to give Congress time to alter or repeal the law.

The law contemplates a duty of three cents on all cotton, whether exported to foreign countries or consumed in the United States, except such old cotton as is only liable to the old duty of two cents.

How easy, then, it would have been to instruct the custom houses to require proof of the tax having been paid before allowing a foreign clearance of the ship and cargo, and to require a bond from the coastwise vessel not to land the cargo in a foreign country. As to home consumption, let the spinner pay the tax before he takes the cotton into his mill.

The New York Times of the 21 inst says that there is at this time an unprecedented influx into that city of Southerners some with pleasure in a more favored region than their own that prosperity which was almost destroyed by the war.

The Kingston E. Tennessean states that quite a number of emigrants are daily passing through that town. There were eight or ten families passed there on Thursday 19th, en route for Missouri and Texas.

Tennessee Conservative Triumph.

The election in Davidson county last Saturday for a member to the Legislature, resulted in the choice of M. M. Brien, conservative, by a large majority over his competitor the Brownlow school. An election for Municipal officers was held in Nashville on the same day, which resulted in the choice of the entire conservative ticket by large majority. The Union & American says:

We have space only to congratulate the Conservatives party on the signal and conclusive triumph it has achieved, and the city on the fortunate selection of its municipal guardians for the coming year.

A young man in Indianapolis, named Oliver B. Gilkey, shot and killed his room mate, Leonidas Johnson, whom he took to be a burglar, on last Saturday night. The young men were sleeping together, and Mr. Johnson arose for some purpose without awaking his companion, and on his return the fatal mistake occurred.

The Electrons in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, it will be seen by reference to the telegraphic news, have all gone Radical. Comments or expressions of regret are useless. The masses of people of the North-west seem deliberately determined to endorse and sustain the extreme Radical policy, and by so doing, at least assume the whole responsibility, including the impeachment of the President, and the consequences to which it may lead.

DISTRIBUTIONS.

We would call attention to the opinion of one of the leading papers of Canada on this subject:

Most of our readers have no doubt read some of the numerous advertisements of Gift Enterprises, Gift Concerns, &c., which appear from time to time in the public prints, offering most tempting bargains to those who will patronize them.

In most cases these are genuine humbugs. But there are a few respectable firms who do business in this manner, and they do it as a means of increasing their wholesale business, and not to make money.

From such firms, it is true, handsome and valuable articles are procured for a very small sum, and what is more important, no one is ever cheated. Every one gets good value for his dollar; because, as we have stated, it is intended to act as an advertisement to increase their ordinary business.

We have seen numbers of prizes sent out in this way by SHERMAN, WATSON & COMPANY, of Nassau street, N. Y., and there is no doubt that some of the articles are worth eight or ten times the money paid for them, while we have not seen or heard of a single article which was not fully worth the dollar which it cost.

During the Confederate war this iron was tested thoroughly, and experts declared then, and will repeat their commendation, that there is no iron in the world superior to that which is here in Alabama.

Well, the coal lies by the side of the iron; and there are vast forests of trees that may be made useful in the smelting of it.

Then there are streams of water every where that are cheaper than steam, and these may be conserved for the purpose of making anything that machinery can make.

And these streams are contiguous to the cotton fields, and the freedman can carry his cotton from the gin to the machine.

This certainly gives us a superiority over the cotton mills of New England. In the States of that blessed part of creation there is no cotton grown. There is no cotton grown. There they have to import their coal. We have wood, coal, water in abundance, and cotton at our doors.

Why not use these superabundant values, and make more cheaply than they make what finds in every part of the world eager customers.

We have been fools. We know this; but we are incorrigible, if the discipline that we have passed through hasn't left us some wisdom.

Next month, the great State of New York will vote. We do not predict that the Radicals will be defeated; but we have hopes that such will be the result.

Hoffman is making a splendid canvass. The Democracy of New York City possess unparalleled majorities—from 4,000 to 60,000—and it would not be surprising if there the barrier should be set up against the encroachments of Radical despotism.

We observe that Thurlow Weed has declared in favor of the Democratic ticket. It is a good sign. That veteran and successful politician is weather-wise as to the mutations of popular opinion.

He knows which way the wind blows without even a straw to show him the direction. At all events, he could not risk his reputation by committing his fortunes to a doomed and sinking party.

ere the Radicals by removing rails from the road above Cairo; but the trap was run into with fatal result by a preceding train.

Any young girl, says the Nashville Union, living in Middle Tennessee, Alabama or Mississippi whose father was killed in battle, and whose means or resources were destroyed by this "cruel war" will be given one year's board and tuition in one of the best Female Colleges in the State of Kentucky.

She will not be received as a charity scholar, but one whose father's blood left a double inheritance to his child.

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR.—General Joseph E. Johnston was in our city on Thursday last, acting in the interests of the Selma & Dalton Railroad Company.

He is in fine health and spirits, and we understand speaks hopefully in regard to the early completion of this great railroad connection.

He left on Thursday night for the North to perfect the arrangement to secure the necessary means to carry on the work.

Rome Courier.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!

Dr. MAGGIE is the founder of a new Medical System. The quantities, whose vast internal doses can be swallowed and paralyze the bowels, must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary PILLS, and cures the most violent sores with a box or so of his wonderful and all-healing Salve.

These two great specifics of the Doctor are fast superseding all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggie's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) remedies of others, and upon which people have so long blindly depended.

Maggie's Pills are not of the class that are swallowed by the dozen, and of which every box full is taken, and creates an absolute necessity for another. One or two of Maggie's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, create an appetite, and render the spirits light and buoyant.

There is no griping, and no reaction in the form of constipation. If the bowels are affected, their functions are restored, and if the nervous system is feeble, it is re-vigorated.

This last quality makes the medicine very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Etcetera and eruptive diseases are liberally and amicably dispensed with the power of Maggie's Pills. In fact, it is here announced that Maggie's Biletics, Dyspeptic and Diarrhetic Pills cure where all others fail.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN!

A New Era in Medicine!

Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

Let all who can believe facts, and can have faith in evidence, read the following.

Know all men by these presents, That, on this, the twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, one Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, personally known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations of medicine known as MAGGIE'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificate are testifying copies, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

June 1st, 1866. Dr. Mason—I take my pen to write you on my great relief, and that the pain in my side has left me at last, thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and assure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not bear writing to you, but I hope you will take it amiss.

WILSON HARRIS, 211 1/2 Street, New York, August 7, 1866.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with chronic Phlegmon, and have been cured by Dr. Mason's Pills. WILSON HARRIS, 211 1/2 Street, New York, August 7, 1866.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who is foundered from iron into a tank that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The molten iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him, about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan 11, 1866. My name is John Hard, I am an Iron Foundry. I was burnt in an iron tank on November 1st, my name is John Hard, I had a running sore on my leg, but would not heal. I tried Maggell's Salve, and it cured me. I can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works 24 Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119 Goerick street.

Extracts from various Letters. I had no appetite; Maggell's Pills gave me a hearty one. Your Pills are marvelous. I send for another box, and keep them in the house. Dr. Mason has cured my headache, that was chronic. I gave half of one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day. My nausea of a morning is now cured. Your box of Maggell's Salve cured me of nodes in the head. I buried some of your salve behind my ears, and the noise is gone. Send me two boxes; I want one for a poor family. I enclose a dollar; your price is 25 cents, but the medicine to me is worth a dollar. Send me five boxes of your Pills. Let me have three boxes of your Salve by return mail.

I have over 200 such Testimonials. As this, but want of space compels me to omit. J. MAGGELL, M. D.

A Precious Document.
From the Mason Journal and Messenger.
The following letter was found in the archives of Columbia immediately after the army of Gen Sherman had left the original is still preserved and can be shown and substantiated, if anybody is shown. We are indebted to a distinguished body of this city for a copy, sent with a request for publication. We can not do better in the way of comment on such a document. It speaks for itself.
CAMP NEAR CAMDEN, S. C., Feb. 26, 1865.

DEAR WIFE: I have no time for particulars. We have had a glorious victory in this State. Unrestricted liberty to buy and plunder was the order of the day. The cavalry have been stripping the country of their valuables. Gold and silver, watches, cups, spoons, knives, etc., etc. are as common in camp as bread and butter. The terms of plunder are as follows: The valuables are to be examined by companies. Each company is required to exhibit the result of its operations at any given place—1-5 percent of the value of the plunder is to be given to the company in chief and staff, 1-5 to the officers of companies, and 2-5 to the privates. Officers are not allowed to join in these expeditions with out distinguishing themselves as privates. One of our corps commanders borrowed a suit of rough clothes from one of my men and was successful in this place. He got a large quantity of silver (among other things an old time silver milk pitcher) and a very fine gold watch from a Mr. De Saussure at this place (Columbia). De Saussure is one of the F. F.
V's of S. C. and was made to fork out liberally. Officers over the rank of captain are not made to put their plunder in the ordinary general distribution. This is very unfair and for that reason, in order to protect themselves, the subordinate officers and privates keep back everything that they can carry about their persons—such as rings, earrings, breast pins, etc., etc., of which I have to get home. I have about a quart of gold jewelry—I have at least a quart of jewelry for you and I have the gold and silver diamonds, rings and pins among them. Gen. Sherman has gold and silver enough to start a bank. His share in gold watches and chains alone at Columbia was two hundred and seventy-five (275).

But I said I could not go into particulars. All the general officers, and many besides, have valuables of every description down to each other's necks pocket handkerchiefs (I have my share of them too). We took gold and silver enough from the rebels to buy redeem their infernal currency twice over. This (the currency) when ever we came across it we burned as we considered it utterly worthless.
I wish all the money this army has could be carried to the Old Bay State.
It would deck her out in gorgeous state;
but as it will be scattered all over the North and Middle States. The amount of it is a great deal, probably to stay at home, particularly after they found out that we only wanted the battered men, and to tell the truth, the youngest and best looking women.
Sometimes we took whole families and planted us in numbers by way of regaining some industrial possession.
But the useless part of these we soon managed to lose—sometimes in crossing rivers—sometimes in other ways.
I shall write again from Wilmington, Goldsboro, or some place in North Carolina. The only march has arrived, and I must close hurriedly.
Love to Grandmother and your Charlotte. Take care of yourself and the children. Don't show this letter out of the family.

Your affectionate husband,
THOMAS MYERS, Lieut., etc.
P. S. I will send this by the first flag of truce to be mailed unless I have an opportunity of sending it to Hilton Head. Tell Sallie I am saving a pearl bracelet and earrings for her. But Lambert got the necklace and breastpin of the same set. I am trying to trade him out of them. These were taken from the Misses Jamison, daughters of the President of the South Carolina Secession Convention. We found these on our trip through Georgia.
This letter was addressed to Mrs.
Thos. J. Myers, Boston, Mass.

Mr. Seward on War and New Guaranties.
In the course of his New York banquet speech, Mr. Seward said:
Suppose we do reject the Southern States from the present Congress, when will we get the Union restored? Nobody tells us when it will be, only that it will be when God's providence softens the hearts of the Southern people still more, which will be, they suppose, by and by." Well, I am not content with waiting for "by and by." I confess, fellow citizens, in the presence of the reporters of the New York Herald, the New York Times, the New York Tribune, and the New York Evening Post, that, in conducting under the direction of the President of the United States the foreign affairs of the country, I have rather a difficult business to manage sometimes. They say that they want a war with Mexico right off. They say they want a war with Spain right off. I know that they want a war with Great Britain right off, for the satisfaction of their Fenian friends; but let me tell them and you, once for all, that I am in favor of all the wars—(Cheers)
—which the nation shall require (Hurrah); provided that the nation puts itself into an attitude to march to the field with two legs. (Laughter.) I do not want it to go to the field with one leg. And so I am a little impatient to have the lame leg made right (Cheers and great applause.) Guarantees are talked of. I think the time has come for the President of the United States and for us who are associated with him to ask guarantees on the other side.

What guarantees have we that if Tennessee should invade herself in the dust, and North Carolina and South Carolina should "eat the look," and if the Southern States should give up forty of their representatives they would then be admitted? I do not see any guarantee for that. New terms may be insisted on every day.

A Romance in Ireland.—The Irish papers contain a romantic story, substantially as follows:
About twelve months ago, a gentleman, who resides in the country of Ga-way, dreamed that he had been instrumental in saving the life of a lovely and accomplished young lady, who would have been washed to pieces were it not for his timely aid. The face of the fair one was so deeply engraven on his mind that when he awoke, being a tolerably good artist, his first impulse was to make a sketch of it, which he improved on from day to day until it was rendered as perfect as possible.

On a bitter cold night, some months subsequently, while the dreamer was comfortably ensconced in an armchair before a blazing fire, he was started by the scream of a female. In a moment his overcoat was hurried on, and he shortly arrived on the spot whence the cries proceeded. In a deep ditch by the side of the road a horse was kicking and plunging in a fearful manner, attached to a jousting car, which was turned upside down. Three persons were quickly rescued from beneath it, and conveyed to the house, where they soon recovered from the effects of the accident. The gentleman who had saved their lives appeared all at once struck with one of the party, a young lady, whom he felt certain he had seen before.
The dream was brought before him to his recollection, and on entering an apartment, his vision was more than astonished to perceive the portrait of one of themselves suspended in the wall.
The mystery was soon explained, and in two months from that day the dreamer and the fair young lady were married in Dublin.

Negro Insurrection.
The Memphis Avalanche, of Tuesday contains a lengthy account of an insurrection among the negroes on the plantations in the vicinity of Gat Island, near that city. It seems that the suspicious of the planters were being announced for some time by the movements of the negroes, and that parties had been working to thwart any contemplated outbreak. Preparing this much, and that the negroes had prepared arms and ammunition from Memphis, we extract
as follows:
Said that mid-child was a hand,
and arranging their plans, the brothers, Isaac and Henry Burnett, took the road and being armed with a shot gun and revolver. They had not advanced far before they were met by a body of about fifty negroes, who ordered them to dismount, and then they were ordered to rapid and independent firing. For readily, none of the shots had any effect.

Mr. Isaac Burnett quickly alighted from his animal, and passing his gun to his shoulder, fired, killing the leader of the crowd and wounding two others.
His brother, Mr. Henry Burnett, had by this time got to the rear of the negoes, and, together with the other two gentlemen who, it be remembered, had started in an opposite direction, poured a volley into the ranks, which had the effect of scattering them in all directions.
It was here that the other negro was killed and two more wounded. By this time some ten or twelve white men gathered around the place, and quickly succeeded in arming and placing under guard the entire gang. Forty new rifles, thirty-five revolvers, a bag of powder, and two large bags of shot, were captured. In about an hour after the capture, two more squads of negroes were discovered about a half mile off, but immediately dispersed in confusion upon hearing of the disastrous defeat of their infamous brother-plotters and assassins. An examination, afterwards, of about twenty of the negroes, showed plainly that it was conceived by heads far more capable of doing mischief than those of the ignorant, deluded negroes; but the plotters lacked the courage of executing their damnable schemes.
This part of the work they left to a negro named Bill Dickinson, who assumed the leadership, and who, as is stated above, was killed. This outbreak, which was to result in the murder of all the whites in the neighborhood, to be followed by an indiscriminate plundering, was planned and originated here in Memphis. There can be no question about it. The ammunition and arms for them were purchased by white men in Memphis. This is the testimony of the negroes.

A New and Grand Epoch in Medicine!
Dr. MAGGIE is the founder of a new Medical system. The practitioners, whose vast internal dose limits of the stomach and partially the bowels must give precedence to the man who restores health and appetite, with from one to two of his extraordinary Pills, and cures the most virulent sores with a box or so of his most valuable and all-sufficient Solve. These two great specialties of the best and most specifying all the stereotyped nostrums of the day. Extraordinary cures by Maggie's Pills and Salve have opened the eyes of the public to the inefficiency of the (so called) purgatives of others, and that people have so long blindly depended. Maggie's Pills are not in the class that are swallowed by the tongue, and to which every box full to them creates an absolute necessity for another.
One or two of Maggie's Pills suffices to place the bowels in perfect order, tone the stomach, and restore the spirits to their natural vigour. These are no trifling, and no action in the bowels of constipation. If the bowels are affected, the functions are restored, and if the person is suffering, it is the cause. The most peculiar nature of the medicine very desirable for the wants of delicate females. Efficacious and effective diseases are literally extinguished by the disintegrating power of Maggie's Salve. In fact, it is here-announced that Maggie's Bileous, Dyspep-tic and Diarrhetic Pills cure where all others fail. While for Burns, Scalds, Chilblains, Cuts and all abrasions of the skin, Maggie's Salve is infallible. Sold by tributed by J. VAN DYKE, Jacksonville, Ala.

POETRY

Passing Away.

They are passing away From our sight every day, From our sight every day, Passing away, away.

Not faster are flying The autumn leaves dying— Those castles so fair And childhood, so near, As they melt into air.

Are they leaving us here? No, our parting is near— We, too, are passing away!

And cheering the thought, As we move to that shore, That they wait for us there Till our journey is o'er.

Thou solemn month! I hear thy voice; It tells my soul of other days, When but to live was to rejoice.

Through summer, fainting in the heat, They lingered in the forest shade; But changed and strengthened now they beat.

How like those transports of the breast When life is fresh and joy is new; Soft as the halcyon's downy nest.

At last like withered leaves appear, And sleep in darkness side by side.

The Murderers Arrested. We are glad to learn that the negroes who murdered Mr. Arthur Williams...

rest the perpetrators of these most heinous and revolting crimes. They turned out on mass for this purpose, and held by lot or sleep until the purpose had been accomplished.

UNDER THE SUN!

A New Era in Medicine!

Let the Suffering and Disordered read the following. Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

Know all men by these presents, That, on the twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, personally known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

Dr. MAGGIEL—I take my pen to write you on my feet and bed, and that the pain in my side has left me at last, thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and assure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with chronic Diarrhea, and have been cured by Dr. MAGGIEL'S PILLS. WILSON HARVEY, 27 Pitt street New York, August 7, 1866.

Extracts from various Letters. "I had no appetite; Maggiel's Pills gave me a hearty one." "Your Pills are marvellous." "I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

I have over 200 such Testimonials. As this, but want of space compels me to conclude. J. MAGGIEL, M. D.
