The Last Insult to Valor.

A SIMPLE POEM ADDRESSED TO HIS MUTILATED FELLOW-SOLDIERS.

BY A BOY IN BLUE.

Alas! poor wounded comrades,
Did you think your work was done
When you crawled home, sick and ragged,
From the fields your prowess won?
No, you still are held to service;
And as clowns of Faction's ring,
Viler traitors than you conquered,
Lying ballads bid you sing.

Totter forward on your crutches,
With your empty coatsleeves come,
Hurry up your shot-torn bodies
At the tap of Shoddy's drum.
Though your limbs, to prop the Union,
You gave freely, that was nought;
Split your throats to serve the scoundrels
Who were stealing while you fought.

To the Blunderer of Vienna,
To the Thief of New Orleans,
And to On-to-Richmond Greeley,
Shout ecstatic Io Paens!
Swindlers, Imbeciles, and Cowards
Claim your voices, votes, and souls.
Dress your ranks, the word is "Music,"
And Thad. Stevens calls the roll.

Will ye have these men for masters?
Shall they lead you through the land
Like a caravan of monkeys
Taught to caper at command?
Gallant hearts, whose victor-thunder
At Antietam shook the skies,
Will you glorify the negro,
And give melody to lies?

Make reply, ye shattered heroes
Against Rebel cannon flung
By our soft-shell Alexanders,
And mock Cæsars, cast in dung!
Tell your white-livered insulters—
By the God of Battles, No!
That the stars of War's grand theatre
Cannot twinkle in their show!

While on rogues who shaved your rations,
Party's choicest favors fall,
Speculation farms your muscle,
Late the Union's living wall.
Dressed in motley to be stared at,
And by sordid greed kept down,
You just live by carrying bundles—
Liveried lackeys of the town!

Tell the world, my labeled comrades,
What returns per week you bring
To the Rdicals who shaves you,
For whose chiefs you're asked to sing?
How they grudge you meagre wages,
How they fatten on your sweat;
And what cause you have to warble
On the pittances you get;

Tell the world, Potomac Veterans,
Who so grudgingly were given
Leave to labor for the nation,
In whose vanguard you had striven,
What your taskmasters decided.
When their spies the tidings bare
That you meant to vote for Seymour
And the army's idol, Blair?

How they damned you and discharged you,
With a malice born of hell:
Because herr, vote and conscience
At their beck you would not sell,
And O! don't forget to mention
How your ballots, under seal,
Sent from Richmond for McClellan,
Stanton,s tools were hired to steal!

Bear in mind the seventeen thousand
Soldiers' votes all good and true,
That for "Little Mac" were given
By his whole-souled boys in blue!
You all know how they were canceled
And their bearerledged in jail,
Lest the white man's cause should triumph,
And the New Rebellion fail.

Have we lost our rights, brave brothers,
And is this, indeed, the end—
To be outcasts in the country
We enlisted to defend?
Shall the blacks, who stuck to treason
Till the tide of battle turned,
With the help of Northern sharpers,
Rule the roast while we are spurned?

Let us answer in November,
As true men should answer knaves;
As the martyred dead would answer,
Could the question pierce their graves.
Let us show the bloated upstarts,
Who by black votes hope to reign,
That the Union saved by bullets,
We with ballots will sustain,

A BOY IN BLUE.

THE MAINE ELECTION.

Congratulatory Address of the Pennsylvania Democratic State Committee Upon the Glorious Gains in Maine.

To the Democracy of Pennsylvania:

The sturdy Democracy of Maine have covered themselves with glory.

In the very citadel of Radicalism they have demonstrated that they are upon the eve of a magnificent victory.

The two parties were last arrayed at the polls upon national issues in 1866. Maine then polled a vote nearly equal to her vote in 1864, whilst Pennsylvania polled her largest vote.

In 1865 Radicalism received in Maine 69, 637 votes. In 1868 it received as they themselves estimate, 75,002 votes, this is an increase of eight per cent, up on the vote of 1866.

In 1860 Democracy there received 41,947 votes, and in 1868 it received 55,725 votes. This is an increase of thirty per cent. upon the vote of 1866.

In 1866 Radicalism received in Pennsylvania 307,274 votes, and Democracy received 300,006 votes

Apply the test of Maine to this vote, and Radicalism will receive in Pennsylvania an increase of eight per cent. 24,581 votes, making a total of 331,855 votes, and Democracy will receive an increase of thirty per cent. or 87,028 votes, making a total of 377,124 Democratic votes, showing that we have a clear Democratic majority of 45,269 votes.

Whilst the total shown by this estimate are too large for the vote that will be cast in October, no man who knows the condition of public sentiment in Pennsylvania will assert that the relative portion will be lessened.

Maine voted for John C. Fremont, yet James Buchanan was elected President and Pennsylvania led the column of States that made him the Chief Executive of the nation.

The hope of the Republic is in the Democracy of the Keystone.

As in 1856 the responsibility of determining the contest now rests with you

Maine has proven that you can again bring triumph to the principles that you love.

Let us arouse to renewed energy and more determined effort.

By order of the Democratic State Committee.

WILLIAM A. WALLACE,
Chairman

Why do they Stay Here.

The so-called Legislature was convened by the Governor's Proclamation under the authority conferred upon him by the 8th section of article V of the bogus Constitution. The language of the section is that "He (the Governor) may, on extraordinary occasions convene the General Assembly by proclamation, and shall state to both Houses, when assembled the purposes for which they have been convened."

Gov. Smith, in his special message, stated distinctly the purpose for which he had exercised his Constitutional authority of convening the Legislature in extraordinary session, viz. the passage of a registration law to enable the people of Alabama to participate in the important Presidential election to be held, throughout the Union on Tuesday the 3d day of November next.

Now it is true the "Legislature" is not limited in the business of legislation to the subjects suggested or recommended by the Governor, nor to the time it would take to give a just consideration to those subjects. They may proceed to take up such other legislative business as they may please to think worthy of their attention, and to stay in session as long as they may choose, provided they do not remain here more than thirty days. But there is no good reason, that we can see, why, at this time they do not act on the Governor's recommendation, or refuse to act—pass a registration law, or decline to pass one as they did before for the purpose of defeating a popular election—and go home.

They have been here already seven days at a cost of nearly or quite $10,000 to our overtaxed and impoverished people. Instead of transacting the necessary business expected at their hands by Gov. Smith and the people, they have converted themselves, it seems, into an impromptu radical committee, at an expense to the State of over $1000 per day. We can't afford to enjoy the luxury so delightful to the feelings of an impecunious carpet-bagger. It costs too heavily and the tax payers experience no pleasure in this expensive buffoonry. In the place of enacting a proper registration law so that the people of Alabama, both white and black, may vote to aid in the electing President and Vice President of the United States, they have been electing a Major General of Alabama Militia and sending a committee to Washington, with a lying memorial to the President, designed as a base electioneering document.

All this transparent political hypocricy deceives no one. It is seen to be a villainous effort to shift the blame for the failure of radical reconstruction from radical shoulders to those of the peaceable, unresisting white citizens of the State.

This is the rascally effort now being made—not merely in this State, but in every other Southern State, Tennessee included—when in point of fact, the foolish and wicked—scheme has only broken down like the rotten limb of a tree, by reason of its inherent weakness, and its own dead weight. It was, in truth, an inevitable failure from the begining, in the very nature of things, and could be no more depended on for strength and permanency than Sumner's manhood or Greely's decency.

THE CATTLE DISEASES IN TENNESSEE.—The Nashville Union says: The terrible mortality among the cattle in this vicinity, from what is known as the the cattle plague, is still unabated. On last Saturday Colonel W. F. Prosser lost seven fine milch cows on his farm seven miles out on the Neeley's Bend road. A Mrs. Galligan, living near Allen's shop on the Gallatin pike, during the last week also lost several head Squire John Taylor, an old and experienced farmer of thiscounty, gives it as his opinion that the disease is that of spinal affection, and if the affected subjects could have their tails cut off when first attacked a great many could be saved.

A Clear Statement.

We have seen no clearer statement of the issues involved in the pending Presidential canvass than is contained in the following from the National Intelligencer of yesterday. It deserves the careful consideration of every thoughtful man in the whole country:

The prosperity of the United States is beyond question, if the wounds of war are so healed as to secure the restoration of the Union in fact, as well as in name. The question for those who desire the speediest return of the old days of wonderful growth and re-establishment of the national credit, is which party is most likely to restore the reign of good feeling throughout the country. Radical organs tell us that if Seymour and Blair are elected there will be war; but if that means anything, it means that their party do not propose to submit to the will of the majority. In the event of the election of Seymour and Blair there can be no disturbances unless created by the recusant minority. The Democracy certainly will have no occasion to resort to arms unless to quell violent resistance to the popular verdict.

If Seymour and Blair are elected, the government will be administered on constitutional principles. The rights of the people in the States will be respected. The disabilities now imposed on a large class of white men will be wiped out. Each State will, without the intervention of Congress or the Executive, settle its local institutions to suit the people concerned. Even granting that negro suffrage will be upset, there will be a steady pressure in behalf of the negroes growing out of that provision of the constitutional amendment which excludes from the count as representative population that class of people which is excluded from the polls.—But the government of each State will be formed to suit the majority of the people, and will be left in the hands of its most intelligent and experienced classes. The Democracy will be restrained from any excesses in national politics, even if they had the disposition, by a Radical Senate. The true theory of our Government, as one of checks and balances, will be restored, and conciliation and compromise will inevitably be the order of the day. We shall have peace; and with peace, prosperity.

On the other hand, if the Radicals are left in power they will be more violent even than heretofore. That disposition which leads them to denounce as rebels all who differ from them in opinion will prompt them to greater acts of violence than have marked their history for the last four years. The Executive may not be further assailed, for the reason that it is substantially shorn of its prerogative, and the further reason that General Grant has declared that he will have no policy.—But the Supreme Court will be manipulated, and its functions overridden utterly by the legislative power. The spirit of bitterness towards the South which is so characteristic of the Radicals will find expression in further acts of legislative hostility, which will engender ill feeling down there in return; and instead of having peace and good feeling, we will convert the whole South into Tennessee, if not Irelands. You cannot pacify the South by putting its meanest secessionists—like Holdens and the Hunnicutts and Joe Browns—in power, even if you ally with them its most intelligent or its most stupid negroes. Yet this is precisely what the Radical policy has done, and is likely to continue to do.

The election of Grant and Colfax will be substantially the completion of an utter revolution in the character of the government, changing it from one of constitutional limitations on the part of Congress to one of supreme Congressional authority. No matter what the professions of the adherents of Congress are, these are the facts. It has disregarded the Constitution. It has exercised powers never vested in it. It has trampled on the executive and assailed the functions of the Supreme Court, and if endorsed by the popular verdict its usurpations will be continued until the entire structure of the government will be changed, and the constitution will become a dead letter in the hands of an arrogant Congressional majority. This is the serious danger which threatens the Republic, which should induce all thoughtful citizens to work with might and main for the election of Seymour and Blair.

A VOICE FROM ABROAD.—The London Cosmopolitan, after referring to the mistaken views held by some of its metropolitan contemporaries with reference to American politics, says:

The Radicals have had their day, and done as much mischief as the country will suffer. It is now the turn of the Conservatives and Democrats—the only party whose principles, old as the Constitution and as sacred—are able to preserve the Union without a second civil war, and to save it from the manifold evils which the first has brought along with it. The time is ripe for a reaction against the sham philosophers, and malignant philanthropists, and nigger worshippers, like Ben Butler, Wendell Phillips and Thaddeus Stevens, and all the other charlatans and montebanks who, untaught and unwarned by the lessons of history, sought to reproduce in the New World the villainies and horrors of the old, and to emulate to the extent of their fangs and the volume of their venom, the doings of Robespierre, St. Just, Couthon, and other poisonous spawn of the French Revolution. America has had more than enough of such tormentors, and longs, as Ireland did, in the olden day, for a saint like St. Patrick, to make an end of them. We fervently hope and implicitly believe that St. Seymour will be the man to do it, and that all the black snakes in question, each with woolly head, will, at his blessed advent, like the toads in the ballad, "commit (political) suicide to save themselves from slaughter"

[From the Mont. Advertiser.]

A Warlike Talk.

The resolution of Mr, Jones in the Senate yesterday brought out a discussion of wide range. The object of the resolution as stated by Mr. Jones was to reach a lot of carpet bag legislators, who have no homes in Alabama, but are claiming to be Senators, and Representatives, while really they are holding offices of profit under the United States Strange to say, the resolution brought Mr. Pennington to the floor, and he talked almost as much war and bloodshed as the vile incendiary Coon, who is now with his family in Iowa.—During his political harrangue he took occasion to refer to the "late unpleasantness" and his own heroic devotion to the Union. Said that he had been insulted and persecuted for his Union sentiments, and that if the people of Alabama wanted to get up another rebellion they would be met and that his party was prepared for the contest and that when it became unsafe for him to lie in his bed at night, it would be unsafe for his enemies to lie in theirs.

Mr Jones asked him the question whether if another war should come he would go with his own race, but he evaded an answer. Senators Jones and Worthy favored the resolution in some able remark. Mr. Worthy said he was the only Senator on the floor elected by white men

Mr. Pennington pretended to be very Conservative when here in the late session He is now trying to imitate the miserable Coon.

Wanting Muskets and a Leader.

As one of our reporters ascended the steps at the Capitol gate last Saturday morning, his attention was attracted by a party composed of two carpet-baggers and three negroes, standing on the walk, engaged in earnest but open conversation. As he had frequently noticed one of the negroes, a dirty looking mulatto, talking very earnestly to different carpet-bag and scalawag members of the Legislature, curiosity prompted him to stop and hear what was the subject of discussion. Just as he stopped, the mulatto made a remark which the reporter did not catch, but in response to which one of the white men (a rather decent-looking man, of about 45 or 50) remarked, "yes, and this is as good a year to die in as any, isn't it?" He immediately turned and walked away.

The mulatto then said something about "making things go right in Bullock county," and in response to that, a black negro said, in an excited manner, "Well, we've got the manhood in Bullock to make things go right; all we want now is the muskets, and we'll make em go right." "Give me your hand on that!" said the remaining carpet-bagger, extending his hand to the negro, which the latter took hold of slowly, and with apparent surprise. "And another thing we want," continued the carpet-bagger, at the same time pointing his finger at the Governor's room in the Capitol, "we want a leader in that room; we want a leader in that room." (The Governor was sitting near the window at the time.) That carpet-bagger is named Richardson. He is a one-armed man, and pretends to represent Wilcox county in the House.

A few other remarks were made about "making things right," and "go our way," in Bullock county, when our reporter left the incendiary group they were talking, of course, about "making things go right" at the coming Presidential election. It is no doubt a fair specimen of the kind of talk that such black and white scoundrels are engaged in all over the State.—Mont. Mail

The Wicked Flee When no Man Pursueth!

Although the Chicago Convention congratulated the nation upon the success of reconstruction, the Alabama Legislature on yesterday passed a memorial which declared that reconstruction in Alabama is a failure. Although there is no doubt of the failure, still the Alabama Legislature has arrived at this conclusion from statements which it knew to be false It has willfully and wantonly slandered a peaceful people for no other purpose than to raise an election cry and make votes for the Radical party. Failing to pass an electoral bill by which they might steal the vote of Alabama, their next object was to prevent an election by the people.—Fearing that they would fail in this, it appears that the extreme Radicals have determined, if possible, to flood the State with Federal bayonets, in the hope that Radical army officers may be used to intimidate Democratic voters and keep them from the polls. The moderate Radicals appear to have yielded to the extreme men in this matter of calling upon the President for troops. They hoped that the passage of the memorial to the President would prove a tub thrown to the whale and defeat a calling out of the militia. They believed also that the people have little or nothing to fear from the presence of Federal troops. Those troops invariably sympathize with the white people.

If Gov. Smith has consented to be a party to this memorial we believe that he is actuated by a desire to set the matter in its true light before the President, and to keep the Legislature from doing something worse. At the same time we cannot see how any man with the instincts of truth can suffer himself to appear as a party to the most infamous slander ever perpetrated upon a peaceful people. So far as the memorial is concerned, it will not accomplish its object. It does not specify the existence of a condition of "domestic violence," in Alabama which cannot be reached by the civil authorities.

Gov. Smith himself declared to Coon in his office that the people of Alabama are a law-abiding people, and he knows that he can find in any county of the State a posse amply sufficient to carry out the laws. He knows that he has ample authority and can obtain ample assistance from the Democrats of Alabama, to carry out the laws, however, obnoxious they may be to the people. When, therefore, the Governor appears before the President and acknowledges that he has ample means to preserve the peace of the State, and that he does not believe that any domestic violence is intended, the President will say that he has no right to send Federal troops to a state in anticipation of troubles at the polls. There must be actual domestic violence such as defies the power of the Governor, before the President can step in and interfere.

But the memorial is not intended to effect any other object than a misrepresentation of the people of Alabama.—It is intended as a campaign document, just as the New Orleans riot was gotten up as a campaign document, and just as the Camilla riot in Georgia the other day, was intended to make capital for Congress and to unreconstruct Georgia. It is a vile scheme, concocted by a vile body of hypocrites and slanderers. The people of Alabama, black and white, will hold mass-meetings and denounce indignantly this effort to ruin our trade and peace simply for party purposes. In the meantime we beg the people of the North to understand that their memorial is the mendacious inspiration of a Legislature in which the Lieutenant Governor is a publicly branded thief, and the speaker of the House is a publicly branded negro stealer—a body which numbers among its members a bigamist, a defrauder of the government, and a penitentiary convict, and in which the bigamist and convict possess more than average virtue and intelligence.—Mont. Mail.

GENERAL FORREST.—In the Tennessee Democratic State Convention, says the Louisville Journal, the appointment of General Forrest as a delegate to New York being strongly urged, the General rose and declared himself quite indifferent whether he was appointed or not. In conclusion he said: "But I am not going to consider myself an outcast, or to ignore my duties as a representative man in the community in which I live. That community sent me here, and I come to do my best. The man who thinks I could go back upon myself, or my parole, or who distrusts my intentions, does not know me; and I will say that, if any foreign nation should levy war upon the United States, I will engage to get up a bigger and better fighting command out of my gray jackets to serve under the old flag than any Radical in America."

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,
OF MISSOURI.

☞A business letter from J. G. Bell & Bro., Commission Merchants of Selma, dated 28th Sept. informs us in addition, that the cotton market there is somewhat fluctuating, ranging for the last ten days from 20 to 23¼ cts. and at that date middlings at 22 cts. and good demand. We are pleased to learn too that Selma keeps pace with Mobile and New Orleans, and that it is believed to be really the highest cotton market any where, North or South. Flour ranges from 5 50 to 6 50 by the wholesale.

L. W. Cannon, Esq. of this place, who has just returned from a trip through the Cane Brake region, informs us that the ravages of the cotton worm there has been very great, in fact, that some fields there will not produce more than one bale to 25 acres. The worm has also done considerable damage in this section, for the first time in many years.

☞We had a brief interview on Monday last, in our office, with Capt. W. R. Hanna, a citizen of our County, and Agent for the sale of the celebrated and valuable Brinly plow, and other agricultural implements. Capt. H. was just from the great Agricultural Fair, which was recently held at Louisville, Ky. for several days He speaks in glowing terms of the stock, and improved implements on exhibition at that Fair, and says we are far behind in these respects in this section, with all our numerous natural advantages, and that we ought and must spur up, if we do not wish to be left still further behind. He further stated, that in all the immense assemblages in which he mingled in Kentucqy, he did not hear a single man express an intention to vote for Grant and Colfax. Three cheers and a tiger for old Kentucky.

"A Move in the Right Direction."

It will be seen from the following report that the citizens of Jacksonville have waked up to their interest. The spirit of enterprise has been revived, and there is life in Jacksonville yet.

They propose to erect a first-class College at this place. Their hearts, heads and we hope their pockets are set for the speedy accomplishment of this laudable undertaking. They say that they intend to accomplish it, and we believe that they mean just what they say.

It is not only important but an actual necessity to every man in the country, and particularly to the people of South Ala. As to the locality, there is no place in Ala. more suitable. Situated immediately on the S. R. & D. R. R. 145 miles north of Selma—surrounded with beautiful mountain scenery—well supplied with lime-stone, free-stone and mineral water. Indeed it has everything to make it one of the most desirable places for a College in any country.

Seeing the suitableness of Jacksonville in every respect to such an institution, they are determined to exert themselves and call upon the people everywhere to assist them in building Jacksonville College.

But the action of the meeting of the citizens on the 28th inst., speaks for itself in the following report:—

Jacksonville, Ala Sept 28, 1868.

The citizens of Calhoun County met pursuant to a called meeting in the Court House of Jacksonville, Monday 1868, P. M, Judge M. J. Turnley called to the chair and Horace L Stevenson elected Sec'y.

The chairman explained the object of the meeting in a few appropriate and timely remarks—spoke of the County cite being in great need of a College, and hoped that the necessary steps for the erection of a suitable building would be taken and executed.

By request the Rev. McVoy, of Selma, addressed the meeting in an animated, logical and interesting speech. He described Jacksonville as excelling any place he has ever visited in Europe or America, both in beauty of scenery and sanitary climate. He dwelt considerably on the health of Jacksonville and its climate being dry and similar to Minnesota. He spoke of the advantage that the children could attend school all the year, while in the lower countries from 8 to 9 months in the year, et cetera.

D. P. Forney introduced the following, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the chairman appoint a committee of two to solicit donations for the purpose of erecting a suitable building for the accommodation of a College at Jacksonville.

2. Resolved, That said subscription be payable in quarterly installments, the last payable on 1st January, 1870.

3. Resolved, That said committee report to an adjourned meeting to be held on the first Monday in October next, at which time a directory will be organized to actually engage in procuring the funds to erect a suitable building for said College at Jacksonville.

Messrs E. L. Woodward Sr. and D. P. Forney were appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions from the county at large.

Thanks of the meeting extended to the Judge for courtesy in tendering the C. H. to the use of the meeting.

E. L. Woodward & Son are still receiving New Goods, They have a large, varied and beautiful stock, which they are selling right cheap, too, to suit the times. Go see for yourself.

HEMLOCK SOLE LEATHER,
AT WOODWARD'S.

THE AFFAIR AT TUSCUMBIA FULL PARTICULARS.

Confession of a Conspiracy to Burn the Town.

The Hanging of the Incendiaries.

From the Tuscumbia Times of the 22.

On the morning of September 13th 1868, between two and three o'clock, the Female Seminary in this place, was set on fire, and burned. Since the burning, persons have been silently engaged in procuring testimony, which would convict the incendiaries. On Sunday last a warrant was sued out before Maj. Jos. H. Sloss, for the arrest of Port Simpson, Ben Cooper, Bill Cooper, Jack Moon, Jake Bell and Blake Hogan, charged with the burning The warrant was placed in the hands of Wm. Green, Constable, who with others by him summoned as assistants, arrested Bill Cooper, Port Simpson, Ben Cooper and Jake Bell. In the afternoon Maj. Sloss went to the Court House and issued subpœnas for witnesses for defendants and in order to give the officers time to serve the writ, adjourned the hearing of the case until Monday morning at 9 o'clock and associated with him to try the case, Col. F. G. Norman and Jno. N. Green, Esq's During the afternoon, Bill Cooper was bailed out on a bond of $1,500, for his appearance on the morning following—Some of the others sent for one of our most prominent and respected citizens and made a confidential statement to him, which proves conclusively that these men, with several others were banded together for the purpose of burning the whole town, if they thought it would be of any benefit to them. That they were all armed and had their regular meetings at night; being called together by the firing of signal guns.

Our people were considerably excited upon the arrests being made, but every one seemed willing that the law should take its course and that the prisoners should have a fair trial.

In the night, about one o.clock, a large body of men charged into town on horseback, and dismounted in front of the Court House. The leader called for the officer in charge of the prisoners, and Mr. Wm. Green came down stairs, first having the lights in the room blowed out and the door locked and the key put into the pocket of one of the guard. As Green came to the door he was asked, "are you the officer in charge of prisoners?" Upon answering affirmatively, he was ordered to turn them over. He refused, and the order was given to "charge," when Green commenced firing, and fired several shots, when he was knocked down on the stairs and run over. Several shots were also fired by others of the guard; but being outnumbered and overpowered, the guard were all taken into the Court House and placed under strong guard. Prisoners were then taken and carried to the bridge across Spring Creek, and hung by the neck, where they were found hanging, dead, this morning by Judge Womble, as he was coming to his office. The Judge found a card on one of the bodies, in which several persons were warned not to be guilty of further outrages upon the community. They were assured that persons who behaved themselves would not be harmed or molested; but if any more houses were burned, or if they attempted to carry out their threats of shooting cattle, etc., they would surely be dealt with severely.

Thus has our community been shocked by this most unfortunate act of mob law. Thus have three lives been sacrificed at the altar of carpet-bag teaching.

The Publication Bill.

A Bill has just passed the House and is now before the Senate, the object of which is to compel the publication of all laws, which have been or may be passed by the present bogus General Assembly, in the new radical newspaper which has been just started at Montgomery. The object of the Bill is to feed the newspaper at the expense of the State and to keep it on its legs with the expectation that it will do immense service to the Radical cause.

This publication bill includes the publication of the new Code of Alabama which was adopted at the last Session. Did any body ever hear before of publishing a Code as an advertisement, especially after that Code has been already published in book form and circulated from one end of the State to the other. The Legislature might as well pass a law for the publication of the Bible in the radical organ, which they hope to maintain by fraud upon the people. If they wish to pay a bonus to a radical journal out of the public Treasury, why not vote the money to the conspirators, instead of beating the devil around the stump? Why not say to the people as Speaker Harrington, the burred face pirate, said, that it was a party measure and he favored the passage of the bill to help the party?

This Radical publication bill will cost the State of Alabama not less than $125,000, and this money, wrung from the people in the shape of taxes, will go into the pockets of two or three unprincipled adventurers and imposters.—Mont. Mail Reconstruction acknowledged a Failure by the Radical Party in Alabama.

The so-called negro Legislature of Alabama, has by a resolution commencing, "Whereas, there being no civil officers in the State of Alabama worth a damn, and whereas many of the civil officers in the State have failed to qualify, and whereas, the civil authorities are insufficient to maintain, and enforce the laws and whereas, there being no legal State government &c." Similar to the preamble of the Congressional Reconstruction bill, petitioned and memorialized the President to detail additional troops for Alabama, and have appointed a committee of five to proceed to Washington and lay said petition before the President. Said committee consists of two Monkeys, two Hyenas and one Orangoutang with the Governor as the keeper, viz; Hays and Hinds of the Senate, and Thweatt, Jennings and Fistor of the House. A nice set hailing from the noble Common Wealth of Alabama, with a lie bill in their pockets. We know but little about any of these men except Mr. Thweatt who was elected to the bogus Legislature by 13 white votes out of a population of 20,000 in this county. He voted for the publishing bill, as he says, because he expected to reap advantages by it. He has voted for every extreme measure that come up in the Legislature, such as the electoral College &c. The people of this county will certainly pronounce this uncalled-for measure of the Legislature as an infamous slander upon the State of Alabama. Law and order prevails here, and the civil authoritis are amply able to execute the laws without the assistance of the Military.

SARSAPARILLIAN,
AND
Its Powerful Curative Associates.

RENOVATING

A NEW PRINCIPLE DISCOVERED.

ONE BOTTLE OF RESOLVENT IS BETTER THAN TEN LARGE BOTTLES OF THE ADVERTISED SARSAPARILLAS, OR DIRECT DIURETIC REMEDIES.

PHYSICIANS wonder at the extraordinary power of RADWAY'S RENOVATING RESOLVENT in curing the worst forms of Scrofulous, Syphiloid, Chronic Skin Diseases, and its marvelous power in res dving calculous concretions, affording immediate relief and consequent cure of Diseases of the Kidney, Bladder, Liver, Lungs, Pancreas, Spleen. Its rapid influence in the cure of Diabetes, Incontinence or scanty, turbid, albuminous, cloudy urine; its almost instant efficacy in stopping itching and painful discharge of urine, and its singular power in curing discharges from the Uterus and Urethra, Leucorrhœa Bloody Urine, and other unhealthy and weakening discharges;—and enquire wherein the SARSAPARILLIAN used in the Renovating Resolvent differs from ordinary Sarsaparillas! Sarsaparillian is the only principle in Sarsaparilla that possess curative properties; all other parts of the root are inert and useless. One ounce of the extract obtained under Dr. Radway's new process for extracting the curative properties from vegetable substances, contains more of the true principle of cure than 20 lbs. of the ordinary roots.

SARSAPARILLIAN is only one of the ingredients that forms this truly wonderful medicine; and it is the only compounding remedy that communicates its purifying, cleansing and reinvigorating properties through the BLOOD, SWEAT, URINE, and other secretions, securing a harmonious functional action of every depraved organ and gland in the system. If the blood is corrupt, the Resolvent will make it pure. If the Lungs are ulcerated and sore, exerting thick phlegm and purulent matter, the Resolvent will loosen this deposit and repair the wasting lung with sound and healthy material. If the Skin is covered with pimples, spots, pustules, sores, ulcers, &c., the Resolvent will quickly remove the eruptions. If mercury is deposited in the bones and has accumulated in the system, the Resolvent will drive it out. If the Throat or Bronchial Glands are ulcerated, the Resolvent will cure them signs of an early waste. Direct remedies, possessing only exclusive properties, are hurtful, as they increase the functional secretions of one organ by impeding the constituent secretions of others; hence a compensating remedy like the Resolvent is the only means of a permanent cure.

BEAR IN MIND THAT EVERY DROP OF blood impregnated with the Resolvent and absorbed to supply the waste of the body, will make pure, sound and healthy flesh and fibre. The first dose that is taken commences its work of purification and increasing the appetite and flesh.

A REMARKABLE CURE!

SORES ON THE TONGUE, ULCERS IN THE THROAT, SORE GUMS, SORE MOUTH, SORES IN THE NOSE, AROUND THE EYES, &c.,

If recently exhibited, a few bottles will cure. If chronic, or through the effects of Mercury, Potassium, Corrosive Sublimate, from six to one dozen bottles may be required to make a permanent cure.

A remarkable instance of personal beauty restored to a Lady disfigured by the ravages of a frightful disease.

From the advanced sheets of a new Medical work called

"FALSE AND TRUE."

BY JOHN RADWAY, M. D.

N. B.—This book contains much valuable information for the benefit of the sick. Illustrated with figures of the Liver, Lungs, Kidneys, and other organs in their natural and in their diseased condition. Every person in search of health, and desirous of preserving the same, should send for a copy, which will be sent free of charge, by remitting one three cent stamp for postage, to Radway & Co., New York.

FIRST BOTTLE.—At the end of the first bottle her strength, appetite and spirits were improved, and the small pimples, blotches, pustules, disappeared. Applying the Resolvent over the surface, with a fine sponge, relieved the inflammation and itching, and served as a reliable antiseptic in cleansing and purifying the putrid flesh.

SECOND BOTTLE.—At the end of the second bottle, signs of improvement in the discharges from the uterus; inflammation, pain and swelling abated, the skin greatly improving, the eyes growing brighter, strength and appetite increasing.

THIRD BOTTLE.—Dry scabs on the scalp, and sores on the arms, and incrusted scales of the hands, gradually disappearing, leucorrhea greatly lessened, water becoming clear, and kidneys and bladder improving.

FIFTH BOTTLE.—Finger nails growing, hands and arms clear and smooth, hair growing on the scalp, bowels regular, and skin free from irritation, face clear of sores.

SIXTH AND SEVENTH BOTTLES.—Ulcer on the neck greatly improved, leucorrhea discharges stopped, menstruation regular, pain of the abdomen, irritation in the uterus, bladder and kidneys stopped, face clear of all spots, hair covering the scalp, great increase of flesh, spirits buoyant, step elastic, and appetite good.

NINTH BOTTLE.—All signs of disease gradually disappearing, frequent rides in the Park, great improvement in personal appearance, hair continuing to grow rapidly, skin smooth and clear, and the ulcer in the neck healed.

TWELFTH BOTTLE.—Continuing the Resolvent after all eruptions had disappeared, she gained in flesh and personal beauty. No more trouble in the uterus, kidneys, etc. Bowels regular, digestive organs regular, blood pure, her nails perfect, hair growing luxuriant, spirits excellent, she exhibited to her friends a picture of health and beauty.

For six months after the use of the twelfth bottle, she continued taking three teaspoonfuls of the Resolvent per day, and two of the Pills three times a week."

In this wonderful cure a lesson may be learned in regard to the true means of securing personal beauty. Good, pure, rich blood will make healthy fibre and clear skin, beautiful complexion and luxuriant hair Cosmetic powders, painting the skin with brushes, applying greasy substances, and alcoholic lotions to the hair, are injurious. The paint, powder, &c., clogs up the pores, obstructs the free escape of sweat and insensible perspiration, thus preventing the absorption of oxygen in the atmospheric air, so essential for the vitality and purification of the blood and fluids of the skin, &c. Pure blood is secured by the Resolvent, and all who use this medicine will enjoy the possession of its blessings. R. R. Resolvent is sold at $1 per bottle, at No. 87 Maiden Lane, N. Y., and by Druggists everywhere. Six bottles for $5.

N. B.—SEE THAT THE WORD SARSAPARILLIAN IS ON THE LABEL OF EACH BOTTLE.

LATEST NEWS.

FROM MONTGOMERY.

Montgomery, Sept 24—The Legislature did nothing to-day, and will probably take no action relating to the election until the return of the Committee sent to Washington for troops.

A large number of members are opposed to an election by the people, and will prevent it if they can.

At a very large meeting of the citizens held here last night, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Whereas, neither the Governor nor any other executive officer of the State of Alabama has ever found it necessary to call upon a posse of citizens to aid in executing the laws, and no proclamation has ever been issued by the Governor declaring that the due execution of thelaws is impeded in any section of the State;

And whereas, The Democratic and Conservative State Convention of Alabama at its recent meeting resolved unanimously to obey the laws of the de facto State Government and as law-abiding citizens to submit to the same until lawfully changed; therefore,

1. Resolved, That the declarations of the facts and apprehensions in the said memorial [to the President for troops] is not true in any particular, and we, the people of Montgomery, do defy, an investigation into said alleged facts, feeling satisfied that they are not established by any evidence in the archives of the Executive office, or in the declarations of the chief Magistrate of the State.

2. Resolved, That we the people of Montgomery, do solemnly declare our conviction, from evidence existing around us and within our knowledge, and from evidence received from all sections of the State from reliable authority, that the people of this State were never more peaceably disposed than at present, and never more ready to render prompt obedience to the existing laws.

3. Resolved, That the said memorial is prompted by a partisan spirit, which, for the temporary success of a certain policy or party, would wreck the prosperity of the State, and plunge it into the horrors of civil war.

4. Resolved, That the people of Alabama, although knowing the rectitude of their intentions, and fearing no molestation from an army of United States troops, would protest against the introduction of such an army into our midst as a violation of the Constitution of the United States and as an unjust imputation upon our character and conduct.

5. Resolved, That we cordially endorse the letter of Gen. R. E. Lee and others in reply to Gen. Rosecrans, and do solemnly declare our belief that the sentiments of that letter are the sentiments of the people; and that we are peaceable and law abiding, and will do nothing, and will countenance nothing in others, tending to domestic violence.

6. Resolved, That the men composing the Legislature which has drawn up this monstrous indictment against a whole people, are, for the most part slanders on the State, and were voted for at an election in which a majority of the adult males of the State did not participate, and that the failure of the people to participate in said election was due, not to an approval of the men who were afterwards falsely declared to have been elected, but to the pledge of Congress that non-voting would be equivalent to voting against them.

7. Resolved, That the said legislators do not represent the people, but do grossly misrepresent them, are robbing them of their money by extravagant appropriations, are wasting the public treasury upon the vilest of the community, are endeavoring to deprive the people of the ballot, and are breaking down their commerce and credit by enacting the slanders which have not the slightest foundation in truth; that a Legislature which would relieve one of its members of the penalties of felony, and another of the penalty of bigamy, and which would attempt to cheat the people out of an election for President, is capable of perpetrating even greater outrages than the adoption of the said memorial.

8. Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the President of the United States.

THE SPANISH INSURRECTION.

The Alabama Legislative Delegation in Washington.

Gov. Smith Does Not Sympathize With the Slanderers of Alabama.

He Bears Testimony to the Good Conduct of the People.

He Contradicts the Charges of the Legislature.

"Bully" for the Governor!

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Sept. 26—The delegation from the Alabama Legislature having neglected to bring an authenticated copy of the resolution under which they are acting, will await its arrival before officially visiting the President.

Gov. Smith is with the party by request of the Legislature, to advise and support the delegation.

He has no official functions to perform here in connection with the application for troops.

He is of the opinion, however, that the action of the Legislature, though unsuited in form, meets the requirements of the Constitution in the matter of securing federal aid for Alabama.

He does not fully sympathize with the Legislature in its calls for troops, and expresses confidence in his own ability, by civil machinery, to maintain the peace of the State.

He says the people desire peace; and he has assurance from men of both parties of support in his efforts towards the preservation of peace.

He says there is some disorder on the line of the Tennessee River and north of Mobile, but elsewhere throughout the State there are no indications of disturbance, and no disposition to resist the law, and in no other portion of the State has any officer who has been regularly installed in office been resisted in the performance of his duties.

He is apprehensive that during the excitement of the election, imprudent parties may commit acts which will lead to serious disturbances unless restrained by some assurance from the President that they will be promptly put down by federal authority. Beyond the assurance the Governor is inclined to think that no federal interference is necessary at present.

FROM SPAIN.

London, Sept. 26,—After a sharp fight with loyalists at Santiago, the rebels took refuge in the fleet.

The rebels are particularly strong on the sea-board.

Few royal regiments sent against Cadiz are reported to have joined the insurgents.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26.—Gen. Sibley informed Gen. Howard that he is investigating the Camilla riot.

Gen. Howard had a long interview with the President to-day his first visit for many months.

Gov. Warmouth has vetoed the negro equality bill.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Sept 28.—The Alabama delegation had a two hours' interview with the President to-day, at which they presented their documents and had a free conversation. Another interview is fixed for to-morrow, at which the Secretary of War will be present, and the President's answer communicated.

Revenue to-day $500,000.

The New York Herald of this morning says editorially:—

"The Governor of Alabama is certainly not far wrong in his notion that more national troops are unnecessary in that State. The presence of 50,000 soldiers in Alabama would not be so effective in keeping the peace as the Camilla fight will prove. Now that the whole history of that event is known, it is undeniably clear that the negroes provoked the disturbance. They marched with their radical leaders, with music and arms, into a quiet town, deporting themselve in an offensive manner making a bullying expedition, and the menace of their conduct was met as if it were real. Niggers will see by this example that it is not yet safe to bully white men, and that will prevent collisions."

Arrest the Murderer.

ON the morning of the 20th inst., Wm. J Middlebrooks was murdered near Davistown in Calhoun County, State of Ala. by a man named Whitfield Black. Said Black has fled from the country. A liberal reward will be paid to any one who will arrest the said Black, and confine him so that he may be brought to justice, or any information of his whereabouts will be thankfully received.

Said Black is between forty-five and fifty years old; about five feet ten inches high and weighs about one hundred and sixty pounds, dark complexion and dark hair, and blue eyes—had a wound at the time he left, through or in the left arm. He may endeavor to pass himself off as a Mason.

Land for Sale.

THE undersigned offers for sale a valuable Tract of Land, lying on Ohatchie creek, on the Kay's Ferry road, 10 miles north-west of Jacksonville, containing about 700 Acres, sold altogether, or in three parcels, two of which are improved, and all well watered. Two of the places have good, comfortable cabins and out houses, with good orchards, and one of them a growing crop which will be sold with the land. About 150 acres of the land cleard, mostly creek bottom, and some 300 acres, finely timbered creek bottom uncleared.

A portion of the purchase money would be expected in cash, and the balance terms easy.

Executor's Sale OF LAND.

THE undersigned Executor of the Estate of Thomas Johnson, deceased, late of Calhoun county, will, under and by virtue of a power conferred by the will of said Testator, and by direction of an Order granted him by the Probate Court of Calhoun county, sell on the premises of the deceased, at public outcry, to the highest bidder,

On Monday the 12th day of October next.

The following described Land, to-wit.

The south east fourth of Section six (6,) Township 16, Range 8, except about one half acre, which includes the family grave yard, and a street or road leading from the Alexandria road to said grave yard.

Said Land will be sold in 4 Lots, one half of the purchase money will be required to be paid at the time of sale, and the other half on a credit of Twelve months, with interest from date, to be secured by note and approved security.

Said Lands lie three and a half miles above Oxford, immediately on the Selma and Rome Railroad, the road running through the land, the right of way having been granted to said Railroad company. About half of said land is cleared, and the balance is well timbered. There is a good Dwelling House on the place and all necessary out buildings, and there are four fine springs on the tract. Altogether, it is a most desirable place for any one wishing a small farm, conveniently located in a healthy country.

The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has purchased the Right of this truly ingenious and valuable invention, for the Counties of Calhoun and Tallade a, and is now prepared to furnish them to all who may desire to purchase, at the principal places of business in the two Counties. They will be found by practical experience to save two-thirds the labor of churning, and produce a greater amount of butter than the old plan. It is believed that no modern invention will pay so great a per cent. in proportion to the small cost, in fact it will pay for itself in one week. The uniform retail price, established every where is two dollars. Call at any of the stores and examine for yourselves.

The Carpet-Bagger.

AIR—"JOE BOWERS."

I am a carpet-bagger—
  I've a brother, scallawag,
Come South to boast and swagger
  With an empty carpet-bag;
To rob the whites of greenbacks.
  And with the blacks to "bunk,"
And change my empty sachel
  For a full sole leather trunk.

I'm "some" on "constitutions"
  For a "late rebellious State,"
And I'm "some" on persecution
  Of disloyal men I hate;
I'm "some" at negro meetings
  When white folks ain't about,
And "some" among the nigger gals,
  When their "marms don't know they're out.

I'm "some" on a Convention.
  Where I draw an "X" per day,
And opposed to all adjournments,
  If I only draw my pay;
I drew it down at Jackson,
  Where for months I kept my seat,
And laid a heavy tax on
  All who wear, drink and eat.

But now my day is over,
  The Constitution's killed;
Again I am a rover,
  And my pockets are not filled;
All my money has been spent on

THOUGHTS FOR EVERY DAY.—He is rich whose income is more than his expenses.

Laziness travels so slow that poverty overtakes it.

Who gives of his superfluity does good to others, who gives of his necessity does good to himself.

It is an awful thing to feel all that we possess continually wasting away, and at the same time to set our hearts upon it, without inquiring after something more solid and durable.

It is immortality that makes life a desireble blessing. Without this it would be but an unprofitable and burthensome trifle, preserved with anxiety and quitted with terror.

In matters of great concern, and which must be done, there is no surer argument of a weak mind than irresolution—to be undetermined where the case is so plain, and the necessity so urgent; to be always intending to lead a new life, but never to find time to set about it

The security which follows long continued prosperity is often the occasion of men's destruction, as it leads them to neglect a reliance upon the Lord.

If half the pains were taken by some people to perform the labors allotted to them that are taken by them to avoid it we should hear much less said about the troubles of life, and see much more actually completed.

If any one speak ill of thee, consider whether he has the truth on his side, and if so reform thyself, was the wise remark of an old philosopher.

To be thankful for what we have, and to be hopful for what we have not, is the best and happiest way of carrying on merchandise with the court of heaven.

Horace Mann says that "a teacher who is attempting to teach, without inspiring the pupil with a desire to learn, is hammering cold iron."

The counsel of the good cannot benefit us, nor the seductions of the wicked injure us without our own free consent. Our wisdom and folly are our own, and we must reap their fruits here and hereafter.

That was a good remark of Seneca:" Great is he who enjoys his earthen ware as if it were plate; and not less great is the man to whom all his plate is no more than earthen ware"

If the Spring put fourth no blossoms, in the Summer there will be no beauty, and in Autumn no fruit. So if youth be thrown away without any improvement, ripe years will be contemptible, and old age miserable.

THE PLOW KING, BRINLY.

Wonderful Improvements in Plows.

In visiting the Farmers' Club rooms yesterday, our attention was called to some plows on exhibition, made by T. E. C. Brinly, and from the firm of Brinly, Miles & Hardy One is a universal gang plow, intended for several purposes. It is so arranged that a corn and cotton row can be cultivated at one going; it is worked with two horses, each horse walks between the rows. The plows can be reversed with ease, so as to throw the dirt to or from the plant. It is also arranged to dig potatoes, and it is said to do its work well; for that purpose it has two plow knives in front, throwing the dirt from each side of the potatoes, whilst it has a plow in the rear centre which follows and lifts the potatoes out. We noticed also a late improvement on his two-horse universal plow that certainly is ahead of anything we have ever seen in the plow line. We saw this plow turned into a first-rate sub-soil plow in less than two minutes by removing two bolts. By this improvement the farmer saves seven dollars in buying one plow. All he has to do when he wishes to sub-soil is to remove the turning mold and he is ready for sub soiling

We also noticed his one-horse universal plows. These plows are so arranged that eleven first-rate implements can be worked on the same plow, at a small additional expense. They have solid steel turning molds; also steel molds with steel or cast points, or cast molds, cotton scrapers, sweeps, half shovels, shovels, bull tongues, scooters. It really deserves the name Brinly has given it, of universal. We would invite the attention of our farmers to these great improvements in plows.

EXECUTOR'S SALE.

Valuable Plantation.

1, 2 & 3 Years Credit.

BY virtue of a decree of the Probate court of Calhoun county, Ala., I will, as the Executor of the Estate of Sims Kelley, deceased, sell on Friday the 9th day of October next,

Upon the premises, four miles south of Jacksonville, at 12 M., the valuable plantation of Sims Kelley, deceased, containing about 840 acres, viz:

The North half of Section 33; and also the north east fourth of the south west fourth of said section 33; also the south east fourth & the north west fourth of section 28; and the east half of the south west fourth of said section 28; also the east half of the north east fourth of section 32, all in Township 14 of Range 8 east in said county.

The place will be sold on ONE, TWO and THREE YEARS CREDIT, with interest from date—the purchaser to give notes with approved security and titles made when purchase money is paid.

This is one of the most desirable places in the county—over 300 acres in cultivation—abundance of excellent timbered Land—good Dwelling, two-story framed—with out buildings—a never-failing Spring—fine Orchard—splendid range adjoining for Cattle and Sheep—for health unsurpassed by any plantation in the county.

S. C. KELLY, Executor.

Jesse U. Bryan resides on the place, and will with pleasure show the premises to persons desiring to purchase.

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

THE undersigned, Administrator of the Estate of E. S. Simmons, deceased, under an Order of the Probate Court of Calhoun county, will sell at public out cry to the highest bidder, at Oxford in Calhoun County,

On Monday the 5th day of October next,

Twenty-four TOWN LOTS,

Lying in said Town of OXFORD, several of them well improved, and situated in the most desirable part of said Town. Several unimproved lots located in the business part of the said Town. A survey and plot of all of said Lots will be exhibited to persons wishing to purchase on the day of sale.

The property will be sold as follows: One half of the purchase money paid at the time of sale, the other half on a credit of twelve months, with interest from date, purchaser giving note and approved security; and persons buying who should fail to comply with the terms of sale, the property so purchased by him will be resold at their expense

This is a most favorable time for persons wishing to make investments in one of the most flourishing and prosperous Towns in Alabama. The Town is located immediately on the line of Railroad, in a beautiful, picturesque country, surrounded by majestic mountains, from the base of which burst forth purest waters. It also has the advantage of educational facilities, second to none in the State.

Come at the time, and secure yourself a home and place of business in Oxford while you can.

BENJ. JOHNSON, Adm. &c.

Aug. 25th, 1868.

P. S. There will also be sold on the same terms, an undivided half interest in eighty acres of wood land lying west of the Town.

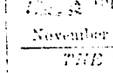
Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.



Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, EPILEPSY, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cts.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and cheerfully.

☞This lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publishers.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun county.

Court of Probate for Calhoun county, Ala. September 16th, A. D. 1868.

THIS day came G. B. Goodlett and J. P. Watkins, executors of the Estate of James W. Watkins, deceased, and presents to this Court their petition in writing, setting forth among other things, that their late testator died seized and possessed of following described lands, to-wit: the south east fourth of section 6, in Township 14, of Range 8, east, the north west corner of said quarter section supposed to contain forty acres, bounded on the north by the land owned by Elizabeth Roberts, on the west by James Golier's land, and on the south and east by Tallassehatchee creek —Also, the north east fourth of section 5, Township 14, Range 8, the above constituting the Home Place.—Also, the north half of the north west fourth, and the south west fourth of the north west fourth of section 32, Township 15 of Range 8, and east in the Coosa Land District, and situate in said county of Calhoun.

They further allege, that Albert A. Watkins, residence Bates county, Ga., Elizabeth A. Barker, wife of J. W. Barker, residence Benton county, Arkansas, Harry M. P. Watkins, residence unknown, and Robert P. Watkins, residence State of Mississippi, are the children and heirs at law of decedent, and are of full age and are all non-residents, residing beyond the limits of the State of Alabama.

They further allege, that an equal, fair and lawful division of said Lands cannot be made without a sale of the same, and they therefore ask an Order and Decree of said Court authorizing them to sell said lands for division among the Heirs of said Estate.

It is therefore Ordered by the Court, that the 22nd day of October, 1868, be set for the hearing of said petition; and that notice thereof be given by publication in the Jacksonville Republican, for three successive weeks prior to said day, as a notice to said non-resident Heirs and all other persons concerned, to be and appear at a Special Term of said court, to be holden at the Court House of said county, on said 22nd day of October, A. D. 1868, and defend against said petition if they think proper.

A. WOODS, Judge of Probate.

THE OUTLAW.

TRUTH STRANGER THAN FICTION.

There are those who disbelieve the story below, but it is true in every particular. We knew Nixon Curry, and a more brave, honorable and candid man, prior to the affairs with the Strongs, never breathed. The writer has omitted to mention two facts—first, that Curry was under the influence of strong drink when he revealed the strange history of his early life, although he was a very temperate man. The second omission is, that Mose Howard, spoken of, was the betrothed of Curry's supremely beautiful daughter Mary.—[Butte Co. (Cal.) Press.

In the year 18—there lived in Iredell county, North Carolina, a Presbyterian minister by the name of Curry. He was a man in comfortable circumstances, of most excellent reputation, with a large family of sons and daughters. Among these was a boy by the name of Nixon, noted for his sprightliness, his activity and courage.

Many are the incidents recorded of his early days, wherein he displayed his bravery and won the respect and admiration of his schoolmates. He seemed impulsive, generous, and the possessor of many noble qualities.

From childhood Nixon curry was in love. His fair one was a girl somewhat younger than himself, attending the same school with him. She returned his affection and so ardently were they attached to one another that, what is most rare in childhood, no rival was ever suffered to come between them.

Thus they grew up in a delicious dream of the future, and as their years increased, so apparently did their passion for each other. At fifteen this was so evident that their parents forbade all interviews between them. Her parents were the very F. F.'s of North Carolina, and they had and could easily secure more brilliant prospects for her.

The natural consequence followed.—The lovers met by stealth, and renewed their pledges to each other. They promised that whatever should occur she would never wed any one else, and Nixon vowed to stand by her so long as a breath of life remained in his body.

At length, at the age of eighteen, when Lucy's relatives were doing their utmost to force her into the arms of another, she fled with her true and devoted love. They were immediately pursued and overtaken, when the enraged Nixon Curry, brought to bay, turned and shot his rival and one of the others, and renewed his flight.

The pursuit was hot, but he succeeded in eluding them, and took refuge in the Alleghany Mountains, near the sources of the Catawba.

Here really begins the extraordinary career of Nixon Curry. Under the plea of necessity, he took up the profession of robber, and speedily rendered his name famous by the number and character of his exploits. Without attempting to give any of the minor incidents, it should be stated that the young robber never took a life for the sake of plunder, although he did it again and again to avoid arrest.

The Governor of North Carolina offered $5,000 for his apprehension, and many parties, tempted by the offer, engaged in the pursuit. They frequently gained sight of the notorious bandit; more than once the crack of his death-dealing rifle was heard from some adjoining rock; but never were they able to discover his retreat or bring him to bay.

Suddenly all rumors of his daring conduct ceased, and although the search was continued, he was seen no more in North Carolina. It was judged that his quarters were becoming too hot for safety, and he had, therefore, prudently removed them while the opportunity remained to him.

During the first settlement of the fertile delta bordering on the St. Francis, now in the State of Arkansas, an emigrant made his appearance, calling himself John Hill. He rapidly became the most popular man in the settlement. Although of moderate means, he was sober, industrious, generous and of extended hospitality, and such continued to be his character in the country which he had adopted for a period extending over about a dozen years.

During all this time, not a quarrelsome word occurred between him and any of his neighbors; and yet all knew that it was from no lack of courage on the part of Hill, for of all the hunters that pierced the jungle of cane in the "Great Swamp," or descended by torchlight into the bowels of the Ozark Mountains, he had the reputation of the most fearless. He was overwhelmingly elected again and again to the Territorial Legislature, and distinguished himself by his powerful and impassioned eloquence and speedily became a leader in the ranks of his own party. He was a member of the Convention which formed the State Constitution, and was re-elected to represent his county in the Senate of Arkansas.

And now began his second series of misfortunes. Hill's most intimate neighbors were the Strongs, four brothers of considerable wealth, a great deal of ambition, and in the phrase of the country, "famous fighters." A close and cordial intimacy grew up between them and Hill, and the latter, most unfortunately and unguardedly, made George, the eldest, a confidant of his previous history. It so happened that George had a most ambitious desire for political distinction, and made a request of Hill that he should resign his seat in the Senate in his favor. Hill refused, and the brothers conspired to revenge.

Sending to North Carolina, they procured a copy of the reward offered for Nixon Curry, the notorious robber.—The four, powerful and determined as they were, dared not attempt his capture alone, but secured the assistance of a dozen men, and made the attempt to capture Hill in his own house. The latter never forgot his daily peril. He always carried a double-barrelled shot gun, two long rifle pistels, and a formidable knife. Arkansas has never been noted as a peaceably inclined State, and in those days its population numbered a greater per cent. of desperadoes and lawless men than it does at the present.

The attack of the Strongs proved a dreadful one for themselves. Two of the brothers were shot dead, while six of the others were badly wounded, several of them mortally, when the rest of them were glad to withdraw for the time. This affair caused the most unbounded excitement throughout Arkansas. The thought that the chivalrous and highly popular John Hill could be identical with the notorious robber Nixon Curry was staggering to hundreds. Many for the time refused to believe it.

Perhaps the state of public feeling can best be shown by the following extracts from the Little Rock Gazette.—The first appeared when Hill became so popular during the days of the convention:

Among the truest friends of the people of all in the present Convention may be named John Hill, of St. Francis. His energy, eloquence and courage fully entitles him to the place he holds, and, as we trust, will long retain—that of the leader of the Arkansas Democracy."

The second extract is taken from the same paper for May, 1840:

"BLOODY AFFRAY.—A desperate encounter occurred in St. Francis last week. Two distinguished citizens were killed, and three others dangerously wounded. The difficulty resulted from an attempt to arrest John Hill, a member of the last Legislature, and formerly of the State Convention, who, as it is alleged, is the notorious robber Nixon Curry, who committed such atrocities fifteen years ago in the mountains of North Carolina."

A requisition was sent by the Governor of North Carolina demanding the surrender of Nixon Curry. The Governor of Arkansas published an additional reward for the arrest of John Hill; and thus between the two, it seemed as if it was about up with the victim.

Hill packed up hastily, and set out with his wife and children for Upper Arkansas, where he knew of the existence of a band of desperadoes that he had reason to believe would protect him. He was pursued by over a hundred of the citizens, many of them unarmed, and attending only for the purpose of witnessing the sport and securing a part of the munificent reward that was offered for his apprehension. Hill was overtaken at Conway Courthouse by these men, and halting his wagon and admonishing his wife and children to keep their places, he marched forth with his death-dealing gun.

The gallantry of the action, and Hill's incredible bravery, operated in his favor. Many were unwilling to hurt so intrepid a character; others were afraid; a panic was created, and Hill pursued his way unmolested.

Subsequent attempts were made to arrest him, but all resulted tragically or ludicrously to those attempting it. It was known that Hill could never be taken alive, and many began to believe that he could not when dead also.

The constant pursuit and hunting him changed his nature. He became morose and sour, and unable to follow any regular business. He resorted to the gambling table for the support of his family. He became a drinker, too, and was speedily transformed into a most bitter and quarrelsome opponent.

If Hill had been famous among the mountains of North Carolina, he now became doubly so. Excepting, perhaps, that prince of duelists, James Bowie, there never was a man who inspired more terror. Men who had acquired a wide reputation for deeds of daring turned pale when they encountered John Hill. Bullies who sought quarrels on the slightest pretext accepted all manner of insults from him without a single word of remonstrance.

One day in September, 1845, while he was seated at the breakfast table, Hill burst into tears.

"What is the matter, dear?" inquired his wife.

"I have had a dreadful dream. It is a warning. I know I shall die before sunset. Together we have encountered perils and hardships; you abandoned wealth and position for my sake, and you have never spoken an unkind word to me. We have loved from childhood, and that love has never known abatement. It is this that troubles me—not regard for self. It is indelibly impressed upon my mind that I shall die a horrible death before sundown, and the thought that it will distress you also distresses me."

These were the exact words of Hill, as testified by his wife and children.—His wife told him—

"Then, my dear husband, do not go to court to-day."

(The Circuit Court of Pope county, in which Hill resided, it should be remarked, was then in session.)

"Yes, my wife, I must go," he replied: "When a man's time has come he should not seek to avoid death, but meet it bravely." Then turning to his son William, a bright boy of 13, he told him to go and get the Bible, and upon it he made him swear to kill the man that killed his father.

"Here comes Moses Howard, father; he will protect you," remarked Mary, the eldest daughter, as she descried the young man approaching.

The youth, who was a fine, powerful looking man, chatted a few minutes with the family, and then went out with Hill, who showed and dressed himself with particular neatness, and embraced his wife with the warmest affection, and with tears in his eyes, before leaving.

As soon as the two reached town Hill began drinking deeply and showed a more quarrelsome disposition than ever. He insulted everybody that crossed his path, and all the entreaties of the young man failed to pacify him. Finally he declared that he would clear the court-house, and dashed into the court-room with fury depicted in his countenance. Judges, lawyers, jury, spectators, all made a rush for the door. One man who lagged behind was seized by Hill and beaten unmercifully.

Young Howard caught hold of the infuriated man, and attempted to restrain him, when, glaring like a tiger, he turned upon the youth and struck him to the earth. Before he could rise Hill sprang upon him, and commenced pounding him.

"For God's sake, stop, Hill! Don't you know me, your friend—Howard?"

Hill seemed to grow more furious each moment, and finally clutched a pistol, determined to take his friend's life. Howard, seeing the crisis had come, seized the bowie knife that protruded from his vest and buried it in his bosom.

"The dream is fulfilled!" exclaimed Hill, with a smile of singular sweetness that lingered on his naturally handsome face after he was a corpse. He then died without a groan.

Howard looked down into his face, as if unable to realize what he had done. Then he burst into tears,

"God knows I would not have done it if I could have helped it, but it was either your life or mine."

He turned away with a gloomy air, and upon the instant disappeared. He was never seen in Arkansas again, but several years after a trader brought the the news that he was living at San Antonio, Texas.

Were we writing fiction, we should here lay aside the pen; but as we are giving facts simply, which can be substantiated, duty compels us to add another incident before the tragic tale is ended.

It will be remembered that Hill enjoined upon his son to avenge his death. Faithfully did that son obey the command. When he had reached his sixteenth year he left for Texas. He was gone several months. When he returned he said to his mother:

"It is done, mother! Poor Howard. I pitied him, but I had to do it."

Mr. Seymour's Opinion of the Canvass.

"Pink," the New York correspondent of the Charleston Courier, in a letter writes as follows:—

I can communicate to your readers the gratifying intelligence that on Wednesday last Governor Seymour, in a conversation held at Utica with a member of the State Committee, expressed his entire confidence in the coming success of the Democratic ticket. The Governor feels assured that he is to be the next President of the United States. All the evidence in regard to the progress of the canvass throughout the whole country is now pointing in that direction. He acknowledged that at first there was no visible evidence of success. It took some weeks after the nominations had been made for some sections of the country to reconcile themselves to his (Seymour's) position on the finances, but now all is working admirable, and day by day, almost, the strength of the ticket is increasing. In one word, Mr. Seymour is convinced that Democracy will succeed. He does not attribute this to his personal popularity, but to the almost universal desire for a change of party to administer the affairs of the Government. I am personally acquainted with the gentleman who had the above conversation with Governor Seymour, and he informs me that he has known the Governor for the last thirty years, and always found him correct in his prophecies in regard to his (Seymour's) own chances in this State, and also the national election.

[From the Selma Times.]

A Memorable Day!—Tremendous Outpouring of the People.—Fifteen Thousand Freemen in Council—Banners, Music, and Guns.—The Procession and Speeches.—The Great Multitude Fed.—Distinguished Alabamians on the Stand.—Clanton, Watts, and Taylor.—Herbert, Lee, and Winston.—The State Mass Meeting.—There's Life in the Old Land Yet.

Heaven could not have vouchsafed to the patriotic democracy of this section a more lovely morning than that of yesterday; and all things being ready, the good people of Selma sat down, in fear and trembling, to await the response from the country to their cares, labor and expense, in the matter of the barbecue and mass meeting named for that day.

Preparation had been for 10,000 people, and an attendance greatly less than that number would be a failure.

Could 10,000 people be gotten together in our sparsely settled country, where so many were necessarily detained at home by the poverty which affects us all, and in the midst of a busy season with planters?

We confess that we doubted it; and we feared the effects of a failure, both upon timid whites, and turbulent negroes. We awaited the event with mingled feelings.

But our fears were groundless. Almost with the appearance of the sun, people began to come in, singly at first, then in pairs, later in threes and fours and crowds. By 8½ o'clock the streets were well filled. Then came the first train on the Selma and Meridian railroad, bringing nearly 1,000 persons, mostly from Perry; and then the quickly following trains poured in their thousands, nearly all organized as clubs, and bearing appropriate badges, flags, and banners, and some of them with music. About this time the "Union Democracy" of Summerfield, Burnsville, and Antauga counties, several hundred strong, appeared on our streets magnificently mounted, and making an imposing display.

At this time, our streets presented an inspiring spectacle. The long balconies in front of the Central Warehouse block, and other buildings on Water street, were filled to their utmost capacity with ladies, whose many-colored costumes dazzled the eyes of the beholder almost as much as did the multitude of eyes that flashed back rays of light scarcely earthly. The sidewalks were densely packed with human beings, who could scarcely move for the crowd. Marshals with their emblems of office were galloping hither and thither arranging order out of chaos and preparing for the signal to march. The clubs were falling into line. At the corner of Lauderable and Front streets, from amidst the foliage of the overhanging trees, the observer caught glimpses of the brilliantly costumed ladies who had consented to represent the several States on the occasion, and their escorts bedecked with feathers, sashes, and flaunting banners.

The signal gun put every thing in motion, under the direction of Gen. E. W. Pettus, the able Chief Marshal, assisted very efficiently by the following Assistant Marshals: Capt. W. K. McConnell, Capt. H. A. Haralson, Capt. Thos. O. Ferguson, Capt. Joseph Groves, Wilber Brown, S. W. John, M. J. Williams, Maj. S. N. McCraw, Capt. W. M. Byrd, Jr., Jos. F. Johnston, Capt. C. A. Cobly, Capt. John F. Burns, Wm. Atkins, John D. Lapsley, Ed. F. Fowlkes, Jep. McCraw, and Maj. W. H. F. Randall, in the following order:—

1. The Montgomery Brass Band,

2. Thirty-seven ladies, elegantly mounted, habited in white bodies trimmed with silver fringe, and blue skirts, each carrying on the left arm a national shield, with the name of the State represented across it, and each accompanied by a knight wearing a blue sash and carrying a handsome banner.

3. The Committee of invitation and invited guests in nine carriages.

4. Montevallo Club.

5 Perry Clubs, nearly 1,000 strong.

6. Demopolis Brass Band.

7 The "Union Democracy" of Summerfield beat, several hundred strong, and well mounted.

8. Dallas county and Selma democracy.

9. Colored Brass Band of Montgomery.

10. Colored Democratic Clubs, numbering about 200.

11 A long line of drays, with their negro drivers, each carrying a Seymour and Blair Streamer.

All of the Clubs had fine flags or banners, some of them very large and very fine.

In this order, the procession, more than a mile long, moved to the grounds selected for the meeting, Weaver's Grove, one of the most beautiful spots in Central Alabama.

Here extensive arrangements had been made. The platform was large, substantial, and well seated. Seats had been prepared around for as many as were expected to need them. But, after the seats were filled, thousand unprovided for still disposed themselves as comfortably as possible under the spreading oaks and on the velvety grass to listen to the speakers.

Col. Woolsey, President of the Central Democratic Club of Dallas County, under the auspices of which the meeting had been called, took the chair, and, in a few brief remarks, introduced Gen. Clanton to the assembled people.

We have neither the time nor the space to attempt a synopsis of the speeches, for the best report we could possibly make would at once be unjust to our readers and to the speakers.

Gen. Clanton spoke about half an hour, eliciting frequent and loud applause.

Gen. Clanton was followed by Ex-Gov. Watts, who, in something over an hour, almost exhausted the argument on the great constitutional questions involved in the pending canvass, from which he passed to the subjects of registration, the registration oath, and the situation of Alabama, taking particular pains to demonstrate the propriety and duty of Alabamians taking the required oath for registration if it shall be required, which, however, he thinks doubtful.

Col. Jos. W. Taylor was the next speaker, and his warm reception showed what a hold he has upon the hearts of our people. Like all his speeches this one was able and eloquent, and the audience, to the last, despite to fatigues of the day, showed no signs of weariness.

At the close of his remarks, the people were invited to bounteously spread tables, where an abundance had been prepared for all, and to spare.

After dinner, speeches were made by Col. H. A. Herbet, of Greenville, Col. C. W. Lee, and Ex-Gov. Winston, after which the audience were dismissed, and the people scattered to await the torch light procession at night.

While Gov. Watts was speaking, the second train on the S., R. & D. R. R. arrived, and precisely at 12 M. the Talladega Clubs, nearly seven hundred strong, arrived upon the ground, in solid column, with banners and flags flying, and were received with prolonged cheers.

Exactly one hour later, a third train over the same road brought down the Calhoun Clubs and the Baine democracy, three hundred or four hundred, who marched upon the ground, under their chiefs, and, amidst cheers, were made as comfortable as possible in such a crowd.

The clubs from Marengo, very strong in numbers, for some reason, were unable to join the procession, and this was the case with several smaller orgaizations.

The small show made by the Selma democracy in the procession was a subject of comment, but it is easily accounted for. Nearly every active member of the Club here was upon some one of the committees appointed in connection with the barbecue, and actively engaged in the performance of some of the duties of hospitality.

Our friends from Marion apologize for coming upon the ground less than 1,200 strong, stating the several hundred were left behind owing to a misunderstanding as to the time the trains would leave their city. Their turnout was most gratifying, as it was, and considering that no thought was entertained among them of coming in a body until Tuesday evening, they should be proud of their display.

Our friends in Talladega, Calhoun, and Baine deserve banners for the show they made. Their distance from Selma had deterred them from any attempt to make an organized demonstration on the occasion, until Monday and Tuesday last, when, encouraged by the feeling in their respective communities, they resolved to compete with the counties nearer the meeting for the banner to be presented by the ladies of this city to the largest county delegation. Perry was fortunate enough to carry off that prize; but the mountains deserved recognition, and we suggest to the ladies of this city to present a handsome flag or banner to the Central Clubs of each of the counties of Talladega, Shelby, Calhoun, and Baine.—Fair ladies never bestowed approving smiles upon a nobler set of men or truer patriots, and we knew such tokens of their favor would inspire the "mountain boys" with new life and fire their hearts for nobler deeds in behalf of the Constitution, the Union and the Laws."

At Night.—imposing Demonstration.—Magnificent Display.—The Torch-light Procession.—Guns, Rockets, Transparencies, and Music.—A Brilliant Illumination.—Another Tremendous Turnout.—The Ladies' Presentation.—The Wildest Enthusiasm.—Etc., Etc., Etc.

At 6½ o'clock, P. M. precisely, the signal gun announced the moment for the formation of the torch light procession, and in an instant the heavens were lighted up with the glare of rockets ascending in every direction and the stream and filling the air with their blaze, and the streets were alive with gathering thousands. Marshals galloped through the throng, issuing orders and command from the chiefs roused the procession into order, and soon all were ready for the signal to "light up," which was promptly given at the appointed time. And then as if at the touch of electricity a thousand torches, and colored lights were in line, and twice ten thousand lights in the windows and the fronts of the business houses and residences of the principal streets, filled the city with a glory beyond that of the day, and the joyous shouts and inspiring echoes of the great multitude went up to Heaven as a thanksgiving for the hope of deliverance from tyranny and wrong that now breaks in upon the long weary night of the past.

At seven o'clock, the long procession, of music, clubs, and organizations on horseback, with its myriad of illuminated mottoes, blazing torches, and colored lights, moved out from the line of the principal streets, while thousands of men, women, and children were in line began to gather around the stand erected at the crossing of Hanon alley and Broad street for the presentation of the beautiful banner to be given by the ladies of the city to the Lowndes county delegation.

By the time the procession reached to this point, the scene was truly magnificently grand. The balconies and windows and both sides of Broad street, on the side walks and doors were filled with ladies, not less than three hundred of whom graced the occasion with their presence and added life and encouraged their country by their smiles. The whole of Broad street from Alabama to Water was packed with people until no room was left.

The meeting was called to order by Col Wooley, who introduced Hon. In private conversation Gov. [illegible] captivating in private life, he is in no sense a man of forms or fashion. In his presence the plainest persons are placed at their ease—and feel at once that they are with a kind and good man, democratic in all his instincts, principles and purposes. Simple and unostentatious, strictly temperate, he uses neither strong nor spirituous liquors nor tobacco; of the most refined tastes and elevated morals, it is said of him, by those who have known him from his early youth, that he was never under the influence of strong drink—never known to tell an untruth or utter a profane oath—to indulge in a vulgar story, a coarse anecdote or an obscene jest—nor did he ever violate the proprieties of the Sabbath, or sit at the gambler's table, or cross the threshold of more fashionable vice. Purity of life is with him a marked characteristic. Educated in the Episcopal church, he has ever remained faithful to his communion, adorning its doctrines by a blameless life and multiplied deeds of charity. Yet free from sectarianism, he has contributed liberally to the erection and maintenance of every other church and place of public worship in the city of Utica and its vicinity. An active Trustee of Hamilton College (a Presbyterian institution) he has been made by it an L. L. D., as well as by a Methodist University in another State. The children of the Orphan Asylum have been guests at his house (which is a house of prayer,) and it was noticeable that, when the news of his nomination for President reached Utica, these children spontaneously turned out in procession, and manifested their joy in many pleasant ways peculiar to the innocency of childhood.

The People's Money.

Perhaps the democratic leaders at the North are wise policy in giving undue prominence in the party canvass to the extravagance of the radical financial policy in the management of public affairs.

It is true the great question is the preservation of the republic, and to that all questions of finance are really subordinate for if we are to have [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] and Coal [illegible] of Confederate [illegible] [illegible] and bonds will [illegible] and high taxes will be the least of the evils borne by the people.

Yet, the people of the North, [illegible] [illegible] of the greater danger impending over them, might not have long, even [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] by the [illegible] leaders, or [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]

Jacksonville Republican.

JACKSONVILLE ALABAMA
SATURDAY, OCT. 10, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT,
HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,
GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,
OF MISSOURI.

☞Capt. P. B. Sheppard, is our authorized Agent, to contract, receive and receipt for advertising, and subscription to the Jacksonville Republican, in the cities of Selma and Mobile.

☞The second week of the Fall term of our Circuit Court closes to-day, Hon. Wm. L Whitlock presiding, John H. Wright, Solicitor. About the usual amount of business has been transacted, and so far as we learn, to the entire satisfaction of Officers, Attorneys, Litigants and all others interested.

Lyman & Rothrock. Wholesale and Retail Booksellers, Stationers and dealers in Musical Instruments, Selma, Ala.—Particular attention is invited to the card of these gentlemen in another column. One of the firm is well known to many of our citizens as the former efficient Supt. of Transportation on the A & T. R. Railroad.—We know, from personal inspection of their stock, from purchases and pricing of many articles, that it is extensive and varied, and their prices very low.—Merchants who may wish to fill up their stocks of Books and Stationery, as well as teachers, parents and guardians who may need school books, we do not believe could do better than send their orders to this firm, which will be filled on as good terms as if they were personally present, and if mistakes occur will be promptly corrected.

E. L. Woodward & Son are still receiving New Goods. They have a large, varied and beautiful stock, which they are selling right cheap, [illegible] to suit the times. Go see for yourself.

"Calhoun College"—We are gratified that we can state our citizens are alive to the importance of building a College. Since our last issue, the citizens have had two meetings—at the first a committee was appointed to examine the Code to ascertain if the College could be incorporated under the present Laws of Ala. At the second meeting, the committee reported and presented the necessary papers to the meeting to be signed—the action of the committee was unanimously adopted.

It appears before an incorporation can be perfected, it is necessary to elect 3 to 9 Trustees, whose names have to be inserted in the certificate to be filed in the Probate Court, and upon the filing of the certificate, the incorporation of the College is complete.

The meeting adjourned until 10 A. M., Saturday the 24th inst., to meet at the Court House. The meeting will be one of importance. All who desire to aid in this great undertaking will have a voice in electing the Trustees for the College.

We hope our citizens will give liberally—all are interested—the Mechanic and the Merchant—the Farmer and the Professional man—the old and the young—and let no one be backward in subscribing—do not wait to be called upon—but hunt up the committee, if they should fail to see you. Messrs. E. L Woodward, D. P. Forney and J. B. Turnley are the committee to solicit subscriptions. Call on them and sign, and you will have a voice in electing the Trustees. You will be building up your village—you will be doing a service to your children—and your children's children, and you will be putting money into your pocket. The investment will pay in less than five years ten fold.

☞We tender our heartfelt thanks to Messrs. E. Johnson and J. G. Bell, and their amiable and accomplished Ladies, for the hospitality and kindness extended to us during our recent visit to Selma. We are also under equal obligations to Col. Alex. White, Dr. C. J. Clark, Capt. Wm. White, and other friends, whose kind invitations we could not accept for want of time.

☞We invite special attention to the card of Maj. Geo. W. Mattison, formerly a well known and highly esteemed citizen of our County, now a Commission Merchant of Selma, Ala. We assure those who do not know him personally, but may need his services, that they may trust with implicit confidence in his business capacity, experience, and fidelity to their best interest.

Shake no More.—We desire to call the particular attention of our readers to Thompson's Ague Powders, advertised in another column, they are purely vegetable, and can be depended on in all cases of Chills, Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, &c. They come among us at a season when the above diseases are most prevalent. Physicians recommend them as far superior to Quinine or any known Remedy, as they leave the system in a healthy state and the patient beyond the probability of a relapse.

AT WOODWARD'S.

☞We tender our thanks to Gen. John T. Morgan, for a handsomely printed copy of his truly able and eloquent Address to the Graduating Class of the Virginia Military Institute, delivered at Richmond on the third day of July, 1868. It is our purpose, so soon as the press of political matter is over, to publish this address entire, or at least copious extracts from it.

Groceries, Very low at Wholesale.—The well known, reliable and accommodating firm, Messrs. S & W J. Morgan, of Oxford, Ala., have recently received a very extensive Stock of Groceries of the best quality, which they are, by extensive dealing and business facilities enabled to offer at astonishing low prices by the wholesale. Give them a call and you will be convinced that you "may go further and fare worse."

J. R. [illegible], Wholesale Druggist, Selma, Ala., has on hand a very extensive stock, and can and will fill orders on as good terms as can be obtained in any Southern city. We advise retail Druggists and Physicians to give him a trial by forwarding orders, with the assurance that he will give them perfect satisfaction.

VALUABLE LANDS.—See notices in this day's paper of valuable Lands offered for sale to highest bidder on the 2nd Nov. next, by John J. Wilson and Wm. N. Hughes, Administrators. Persons who may wish to purchase valuable land on good terms, should not let this opportunity slip.

"FIREMAN'S PARTY."

I had the pleasure of attending a party given by the members of the "Hook and Ladder Company of Jacksonville," on the evening of the 25th inst., at the "Spruell House" Everything heart could wish for, or mind conceive of, necessary to increase the pleasures of enjoyment, was beautifully and attractively displayed in elegant and beautiful profusion, giving a keen relish for such delicacies.

The Party was conducted with such nicety and precision, as to produce an impression of magical influence, "and all went merry as a marriage bell."—Being no neophyte in things of this character, and having witnessed similar demonstrations at other places—can with full assurance safely say, that the object designed, was an effort in the right direction to establish permanently in our midst a useful corps of worthy and deserving men. Time will clearly demonstrate the wisdom and propriety of giving encouragement to, and fostering an organization, which if properly conducted, may be instrumental in saving many of our homes from accidental destruction.

The fact that Jacksonville has never been visited by fire, gives us no security in the future. Let's be prepared as best we may, while this deadly and destructive element is under our control, for fear that in an ungarded moment it burst upon us like a tornado, and with merciless fury sweep away the town. Citizens, infuse new life and energy into your Hook and Ladder Company—give them every encouragement, and think not that this feeble warning came too soon.

COUNCIL.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.
Oct. 3rd, 1868.

MR. GRANT:

On last Thursday morning, according to previous arrangement, the Court House bell rung out, clear and shrill on the still air, the signal to rise and repair to the depot to take the train for Selma.

The bell having rung very early (three and a half A. M.) great haste was made to reach the depot, but all assembled on the plat-form some time before the arrival of the cars from Cross Plains.

Col. Gid. Ellis, was unanimously chosen Marshal-in-chief of the delegation.

The boys being all duly sober and full of fun, began to crack jokes with the clever Agent, A. R. Smith, (not Archie.) George White, from Pie Nic, not enthusiastic in the cause, was on hand with a full supply of fruits and Scuppernong Grapes. White, seated on his box, wanted the Agent to remit half-fare, because he furnished his own seat. About daylight the cars hove in sight and was greeted by a long, loud shouts. Temporary seats were soon prepared in box and on flat cars, and all got aboard. Our very clever and accommodating Conductor, William Day, soon had us under full headway. Stopping at Weaver's, Blue Mt, and other intervening stations, our delegation increased considerably until reaching Talladega; a train having just left this place, we made no more halts until we reached Shelly Springs, the dinner station.

Leaving this place we made nearly forty miles an hour, and arrived at Selma at 1 P. M. Col. Ellis through his assistant Marshals, Dr. Wm. Nesbit, D. P. Forney, John Wyley, Jas Francis, T. P. Wynn and H. L. Stevenson—formed the delegation into ranks—fronted, and was then escorted by the Marshal of the day, Gen. Chas. Shelly and his numerous train to the stand in Weaver's Grove. When nearing the Grove the Band was playing—streamers flying, when boom went a cannon—the shock was so sudden, and the sound so familiar that my first impression was to take the back track, at a double-quick.

Hon. Jos. Taylor occupying the stand when we came up, paid us some compliments and welcomed old Calhoun. Here we found a large crowd assembled and ample preparations for dinner, which at the appointed hour was announced and all invited to partake of Selma's hospitality. Judging by the quantity the boys ate, all got plenty and were fully satisfied. I did not see the least rushing, crowding, or any kind of confusion.

All behaved well, and dinner over, retired in good order to the stand.—Speaking was resumed and continued to a late hour in the evening. The speeches were eloquent, logical and very interesting; but being so numerous will not try to give them. At night the Torch Light Procession was formed about 6½ o'clock—marched through various streets to the stand, erected in Main street. I can not give the length of the procession, but there seemed to be thousands of transparencies, with various mottoes inscribed on them—the heavens seemed illuminated with rockets, Roman candles et cetera. A beautiful silk Banner was presented by the Ladies of Selma to the delegation from Perry as being the largest in attendance. Col. Alex. White, Maj. Jas Francis, of the State Executive Committee, Cols. Dawson and Woolsey, Gen Clanton and many others were mounted on the rostrum, and addressed the assembled thousands.

Maj. Francis, after having paid a glowing tribute to the fair Ladies of Selma, extended the thanks of North Ala. to the citizens of Selma and Dallas county, for their hospitality. He closed by saying that North Ala. was fully awake to the issues of the day, and that there was "fire in the mountains, run boys, run." Maj. Francis was fully animated, and acquitted himself finely. We predict a bright future for him, and think North Ala. and most especially Baine county, should be proud to acknowledge him.

The speaking concluded at the appointed hour, and the vast assembly having broken up—dispersed quietly, and orderly, no fights, knock downs or hard feelings political or private that I saw.

There was a tremendous cheer for the colored man, who, mounted on a pale grey, had a large stuffed coon tied behind him and large empty carpet-bags fastened to his saddle. The coon was prepared and forwarded by Col. Hart, of Gadsden, accompanied by a note from Col. W. B. Martin. Ex-Gov. Watts remarked "he was not afraid of a coon, for he had killed them twenty years ago"

Mr. Grant, have you ever been far away from home in a big, strange city—late at night—plenty of money in your pocket, but the Hotels crowded, and no place to squeeze in? Well, that was just my condition, with the exception of the pocket-full of money. We began thinking of how the poor soldier had to lie out on the green sward with the blue canopy of heaven for a covering, and was wishing that we were far up the country with the better-half; but our mournful meditations were cut short by the coming of the good Samaritan, Capt. William White, who really commanded us to go to his house. Mr. Grant, did you know I learned to obey orders in the army and did not think of disobeying this one I assure you. At Capt. White's we took a reckoning and found that our ranks had deserted and scattered so much that from hundreds we had been reduced to eight, and the said eight were supplied with good beds and a warm breakfast on the following morning.

Mr. Editor, do you reckon we will ever forget Bill White? Just tell him, will you, echo answers no!

We embarked about 8 o'clock on our homeward train, and reached Jacksonville about 9 o'clock P. M., without the least accident, but having an excellent time.

Our friend Bill Day, the Conductor was so kind and accommodating, that we did not get tired or fatigued in the least. He gave us all the comforts in his power.

Mr. Editor, Tom Wynn is called a small man, but he is big enough to draw his purse to make his travelling friends comfortable—good luck to him—may he find a gal good enough for him. I will close by saying the whole affair was "grand, sublime and peculiar." I would like to tell you of all the boys and the big things we saw and heard, but this scroll is already too long. I would not trouble you to publish this, but we want our friends to know that we appreciated their kindness.

OF LAND.

THE undersigned Executor of the Estate of Thomas Johnson, deceased, late of Calhoun county, will, under and by virtue of a power conferred by the will of said Testator, and by direction of an Order granted him by the Probate Court of Calhoun county, sell on the premises of the deceased, at public outcry, to the highest bidder,

On Monday the 12th day of October next.

The following described Land, to-wit.

The south east fourth of Section six (6,) Township 16, Range 8, except about one half acre, which includes the family grave yard, and a street or road leading from the Alexandria road to said grave yard.

Said Land will be sold in 4 Lots, one half of the purchase money will be required to be paid at the time of sale, and the other half on a credit of Twelve months, with interest from date, to be secured by note and approved security.

Said Lands lie three and a half miles above Oxford, immediately on the Selma and Rome Railroad, the road running through the land, the right of way having been granted to said Railroad company. About half of said land is cleared, and the balance is well timbered. There is a good Dwelling House on the place and all necessary out buildings, and there are four fine springs on the tract. Altogether, it is a most desirable place for any one wishing a small farm, conveniently located in a healthy country.

SOLOMON KILLGORE, Executor, &c.

Finley's Patent Churn Dasher

The undersigned respectfully informs the public that he has purchased the Right of this truly ingenious and valuable invention, for the Counties of Calhoun and Talladega, and is now prepared to furnish them to all who may desire to purchase, at the principal places of business in the two Counties. They will be found by practical experience to save two-thirds the labor of churning, and produce a greater amount of butter than the old plan. It is believed that no modern invention will pay so great a per cent. in proportion to the small cost, in fact it will pay for itself in one week. The uniform retail price, established every where is two dollars. Call at any of the stores and examine for yourselves.

Land for Sale.

THE undersigned offers for sale a valuable Tract of Land, lying on Ohatchie creek, on the Kay's Ferry road, 10 miles north-west of Jacksonville, containing about 700 Acres, sold altogether, or in three parcels, two of which are improved, and all well watered. Two of the places have good, comfortable cabins and out houses, with good orchards, and one of them a growing crop which will be sold with the land. About 150 acres of the land cleard, mostly creek bottom, and some 300 acres, finely timbered creek bottom uncleared.

A portion of the purchase money would be expected in cash, and the balance terms easy.

POETRY.

God Bless You.

How sweetly falls those simple words
  Upon the human heart,
When friends, long bound by strongest ties,
  Are doomed by fate to part?
You sadly press the hand of these
  Who thus in love caress you,
And soul responsive beats to soul
  In breathing out, "God bless you!

"God bless you!" ah! long months ago
  I heard the mournful phrase,
When one whom I in childhood loved,
  Went from my dreamy gaze.
Now blinding tears fall thick and fast;
  I mourn my long lost treasure,
While echoes of the heart bring back
  The farwell prayer "God bless you!"

The mother, sending fourth her boy,
  To scenes untried and new.
Lisps not a studied, stately speech,
  Nor murmurs out "adieu!"
She sadly says, between her sobs,
  "When'er misfortuns press you,
Come to thy mother, boy, come back;"
  Then sadly sighs "God bless you!,,

"God bless you!" more of expressed love
  Than volumes without number,
Reveal we thus our trust in Him,
  Whose eyelids never slumber.
I ask in parting, no long speech
  Drawled out in studied measure;
I only ask the dear old words,
  So sweet—so sad—"God bless you!"

HOME AND FRIENDS.

O there's a power to make each hour
  As sweet as heaven design'd it;
Nor need we roam to bring it home,
  Though few there be that find it.
We seek too high for things close by,
  And lose what nature found us;
For life hath here no charms so dear
  As home and friends around us.

We oft destroy the present joy
  For future hopes, and praise them,
Whilst flowers as sweet bloom at our feet,
  If we'd but stoop to raise them;
For things afar still sweetest are,
  When youth's bright spell hath bound us;
But soon we're taught the earth hath naught
  Like home and friends around us.

The friends that speed in time of need,
  When hope's last reed is shaken,
Do show us still, that, come what will,
  We are not quite forsaken.
Though all were night, if but the light
  From friendship's altar crown us,
'Twould prove the bliss of earth were this—
  Our home and friends around us.

A NEW AND STARTLING EXCITEMENT.—All the excitement of the political campaign is likely to be soon eclipsed by the startling disclosures about the revenue frauds President Johnson has commenced in earnest to investigate these stupendous frauds of a hundred millions or more and no doubt there will be a terrible shaking up of the whole rotten system involving high and low officials from the Secretary of the Treasury, Commissioner of Internal Revenue members of Congress, down to the inspectors, assessors, collectors and district attorneys. It will be an earthquake to the office holders and we may look out for the greatest havoc among the internal revenue thieves and rascals.—New York Herald.

ST. CLAIR ALL RIGHT.—The Seymour and Blair meeting at Truss's Ferry, on Saturday last, was a perfect success. There was an immense crowd in attendance and everything passed off in fine style and the best humor prevailed. Speeches were made by Messrs. Winbourn, McGregor, and Haydes of our town, and Mr. Ash, of St. Clair. It is said that Mr. Winbourn spoke for near two hours with telling effect—The other speeches were listened to with interest, and were timely and effective.—As usual with old St. Clair they served up an elegant dinner, and feasted the multitude. When a man goes to a public speaking in St. Clair he need not take a lunch in his pocket. They always prepare to entertain their friends. Maj. Truss, who always does things up in the liberal scale, opened a free ferry for the day, and set everbody over without charge. Our friends will (if they have not already done so) please set St. Clair down for Seymour and Blair.

THE PLOW KING, BRINLY.

Wonderful Improvements in Plows.

In visiting the Farmers' Club rooms yesterday, our attention was called to some plows on exhibition, made by T. E. C. Brinly, and from the firm of Brinly, Miles & Hardy. One is a universal gang plow, intended for several purposes. It is so arranged that a corn and cotton row can be cultivated at one going; it is worked with two horses, each horse walks between the rows. The plows can be reversed with ease, so as to throw the dirt to or from the plant. It is also arranged to dig potatoes, and it is said to do its work well; for that purpose it has two plow knives in front, throwing the dirt from each side of the potatoes, whilst it has a plow in the rear centre which follows and lifts the potatoes out. We noticed also a late improvement on his two horse universal plow that certainly is ahead of anything we have ever seen in the plow line. We saw this plow turned into a first-rate sub soil plow in less than two minutes by removing two bolts. By this improvement the farmer saves seven dollars in buying one plow. All he has to do when he wishes to sub-soil is to remove the turning mold and he is ready for sub soiling.

We also noticed his one-horse universal plows. These plows are so arranged that eleven first-rate implements can be worked on the same plow, at a small additional expense. They have solid steel turning molds; also steel molds with steel or cast points, or cast molds, cotton scrapers, sweeps, half shovels, shovels, bull tongues, scooters. It really deserves the name Brinly has given it, of universal. We would invite the attention of our farmers to these great improvements in plows.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.

Court of Probate for Calhoun county, Ala. September 6th, A. D. 1868.

THIS day came G. B. Douthit and J. P. Watkins, Administrators of the Estate of James W. Watkins, deceased, and presents and files in court their petition in writing, representing among other things, that their intestate died seized and possessed of following described lands, to-wit: the south east fourth of section 9, in Township 14, of Range 8, except the north west corner of said quarter section, supposed to contain forty acres, bounded on the north by the land owned by Elizabeth Roberts, on the west by James Gotcher's land, and on the south and east by Tallasseehatchee creek—Also, the north east fourth of section 9, Township 14, Range 8; the above constituting the Home Place,—Also, the north half of the north west fourth, and the south east fourth of the north west fourth of section 22, Township 14 of Range 8, and all east in the Coosa Land District, and situate in said county of Calhoun.

They further allege, that Albert A. Watkins, residence Pettis county, Ga., Elizabeth A. Barker, wife of J. W. Barker, residence Benton county, Arkansas, Henry M. P. Watkins, residence unknown and Robert P. Watkins, residence State of Mississippi, are the children and heirs at law of decedent, and are of full age and are all non-residents, residing beyond the limits of the State of Alabama.

They further allege, that an equal, fair and beneficial division of said lands cannot be made without a sale of the same, and they therefore pray an order and decree of said Court authorizing them to sell said lands for division among the heirs of said estate.

It is therefore Ordered by the Court, that the 22nd day of October, 1868, be set for the hearing of said petition, and that notice thereof be given by publication in the Jacksonville Republican, for three successive weeks prior to said day, as notice to said non-resident heirs and all others concerned, to be and appear at a Special Term of said court, to be holden at the Court House of said county, on said 22nd day of October, A. D. 1868, and defend against said petition if they think proper.

A Leaf From a Lawyer's Note-Book.

It was in the year 1830, that having completed my legal studies in the office of a provincial lawyer, of note, I removed to the city of New York, and opened an office. I had not a solitary acquaintance in the city—my purse was almost empty—my library consisted only of half a dozen elementary works, and the city overflowed with lawyers, so that the prospect ahead of me was anything but flattering. I stuck to my office closely—read over my well-thumbed books; eschewed all amusements, and consoled myself, for my threadbare coat and napless hat, with the hope that clients would increase.

Ah! the sad trials and cruel pangs of poverty! Men like to patronize the prosperous; few are inclined to give business to a poor fellow in a threadbare coat and with empty pockets. Who cares to trade with a poor merchant, when he can get to Stewart's palatial store? But a poor young lawyer has, of all others, the hardest time. He can get no opportunity of showing his abilities, and the few clients that he can boast of, are usually poor and unable to pay him fees. Brain work is always poorly paid, but from all accounts, it has been so from the dawn of history. Very often I felt tempted to relinquish my profession, and seek some mercantile situation, the salary of which would at least support me in decency.

I was sitting in my humble and ill-furnished office, in November, 1831. The night was dark and stormy. A snow storm of unusual severity was raging; the wind roared and whistled in a way that made one feel thankful that he enjoyed the shelter of a roof; the snow and sleet beat upon the windows. Somehow fires never seem to burn on cold days and nights, and mine appeared resolved not to burn freely on this particular night. It imparted no heat; the blaze would shoot up cheerily for a few seconds, and then die out, in a most tantalizing manner. I punched and poked it—I turned the logs and added a fresh supply of "dry wood," but still it obstinately refused to burn. Such a thing was very provoking, and I am free to confess it upset all my philosophy. Outside the storm roared and raged, and at every puff of wind, I felt more out of humor with my fire, and punched and poked it with greater vigor. To sum up all in one word, the fire gave me the fidgets. I presume every one has been fidgetty at some period of life, and therefore needs no definition of the term. It is unpleasant, and yet ludicrous, to be fidgetty. Everything goes wrong: one makes strange blunders: if he grasps anything in his hand, he is sure to let it fall; he cannot find what he is in search of, to save his life. I knocked down the tongs half a dozen times, and let my book fall on the floor as often—all which only served to render me more fidgetty. While I was in this state there was a sharp, hurried knock upon my front door, and upon my opening it, a girl about ten years of age hurriedly entered, and at once stated her business.

"Mr. Hastings, I want you to go right down to Ralph William's grocery."

"What for?" I asked.

"Tom Peters has murdered father, and as you were father's lawyer, last year, I want you to go down there with me, and look into this business. Come along, sir, and you must be sure to have Peters hung," was replied in a quick and positive tone of voice, so very earnest and decided, as to cause me to give her face and form a more scrutinizing look than I had given before

She was a brunette in complexion—tall for her age—with very black eyes, a mass of curls clustering around her neck, and a very pretty mouth; but, there was a look and air of resolution about her I had rarely seen in a female face. She would have been pronounced handsome by the most fastidious judge of beauty; and, as I did not assume to be one, I, of course, pronounced her beautiful for a girl.

Drawing on my overcoat, I accompanied her to Ralph's grocery—the scene of the tragedy. I found that the coroner had completed his investigations, and was drawing up a commitment for Peters. He briefly informed me that Jesse Rivers had been wantonly and brutally murdered by Peters, in consequence of some light jest, which he had broken upon him, in the bar-room.—Telling Rivers's daughters that Peters would be committed to await his trial, and that nothing more could be done at present, I gladly left the dirty bar-room, where Rivers lay stark and dabbled in gore, and hastened back to my office and my ill-humored fire.

Peters was a wealthy, but dissipated young man; and had earned an unenviably notoriety, from having been implicated in several disgraceful brawls.—His chief associates were low gamblers and courtesans, with whom he led a riotous life, and upon whom he squandered his money. Rivers had been a noted gambler, and for several years past had lived in habits of daily intimacy with Peters—whom he had initiated into the arts and mysteries of gambling.

The father of Peters—a well-known and prosperous merchant—spared neither money nor pains to fetch him off scathless from the trial. Venal presses labored to soften the facts of the case, and to paint Rivers as a desperado and sharper of the first water, who had been a notorious corrupter of youth, and the terror of peaceable citizens for years. They even hinted pretty broadly that Peters had been duped and fleeced by Rivers, and had killed him, in a moment of passion, upon discovering how he had been cheated. The ablest counsel in the city were engaged to defend him. Justice and law had no bribes to offer. Ada Rivers came frequently to consult me about the progress of the case, and was untiring in hunting up testimony. I was, at each visit, more and more struck with her intense desire of avenging her father, although this desire seldom found expression in articulate words. It was evident this was now the master passion of her soul, and that it absorbed all her thoughts and energies. This intense thirst for revenge appeared so strange and unnatural, in a girl of her tender age, as to send a shiver through my heart, and fill me with apprehensions of her taking the law into her own hands, should Peters be acquitted. She loved and idolized her father with all the ardor of her passionate nature, and his death had left her a lonely orphan in the wilderness of the world, without any pillar of cloud to shelter her from the heat of the day, or pillar of fire to illumine the darkness of the night. But there was no tinge or trace of selfishness in her desire of avenging her father—as that feeling sprang wholly from her idolatrous love of him.

As some degree of intimacy had grown out of our business connections, I took occasion to remonstrate with Ada Rivers upon the wickedness of indulging such bitter resentment towards a fellow-creature, reminding her that it was not only contrary to the spirit of religion, but was bound to embitter her subsequent life.

"I cannot help it, sir, my father was very dear to me—he was all I had in the wide world, and he was foully murdered It is my duty to hate his murderer, and hate him, I will, as long as I live," she exclaimed.

"But it is very wrong in you to cherish such feelings. Peters is now in the hands of the law, and to it you should leave him. The death of Peters cannot recall your father to life, nor possibly give him the least comfort in his home beyond the grave. I do not see how you can repeat the Lord's Prayer, while your heart is brimful of hatred towards a fellow-creature, for God only promises to extend the same forgiveness to us that we do to our enemies. Be persuaded and advised, Ada, to overcome this unchristian feeling."

"It is no use trying to argue me out of my feelings, for I must go my own way. God did not give us all hearts alike—one rock is soft, and another melts when the rain falls upon it; another is hard, and defies the rain. If you will only get Peters convicted, I will toil for you like a slave—I will worship you."

"Rest assured, Ada, that I shall do my whole duty as a lawyer, but, you must remember, Peters has many rich and powerful friends, and may escape."

"He shall not escape;" cried the girl, in a voice of concentrated passion; and I relinquished the attempt to change the current of her feelings to a healthier channel.

At length, after the exhaustion of every dilatory plea, and legal subterfuge, the trial came on. Ada Rivers took her seat in the bar, by my side, and listened with outward composure to the recital of the harrowing details of the murder, although her extreme paleness and tightly compressed lips told what anguish of heart she endured, as well as what an iron will it required to check any demonstration of feeling.

The testimony was complete and overwhelming. Not a link in the chain of proof was wanting; not an extenuating circumstance was brought to light; the defence failed to show any antecedent wrong that the deceased had done the prisoner, and relied solely upon proof of the good character of Peters, which was not of the most unexceptionable sort. Thinking, with Dryden, "that anything, though never so little, which a man speaks of himself, is still too much," I will simply say, that I prosecuted with all my ability, and strained even that to the utmost tension.

Greatly to my chagrin, Peters, in violation of every principle of law, and maxim of justice, was acquitted; but it is easy to pack a jury in a city, where purchasable men are numerous among certain classes. I turned around, in order to note the effect of the verdict upon Ada Rivers. She neither swooned, nor screamed, but seemed to be writhing with some spasm of acute pain. Immediately she left the court room, and I saw nothing more of her. The next day I received through the postoffice, the following brief note:

Mr. Hastings:

I do not blame you for the escape of my father's murderer—you did all in your power. I quit the city at once, but do not fear I shall do anything rash.

ADA RIVERS.

Time rolled on. My business increased and widened with the flight of years, so that I removed to a better quarter of the city, and made some improvement in my wardrobe.

After this event, Peters led a more reckless and dissipated life than ever, and contrived to squander one or two respectable fortunes for his weakly indulgent father. He was finally, through the failure of his father, in the crash of 1857, thrown upon his own resources, without a dollar in his pocket. For some time he eked out a precarious support by gambling and sponging on his former wealthy friends, but at length he retired to Philadelphia in quest of new conquests.

Upon meeting him suddenly in the streets, nearly a year after, he accused me of having interfered to break off a marriage he was on the eve of consummating, in Philadelphia, and with having aspersed his character. I felt a profound contempt for him; and so I told him I cared far too little for him to bother myself about him or his affairs, and that he must never presume to approach me.

He gradually descended lower and lower in the social and moral scale, and became more seedy in appearance and more slovenly in dress, until none of his former wealthy associates could have recognized the Broadway dandy in him. Pride and self-respect have died out of him, and he was now so debased as not even to make any pretensions to decency of conduct, but openly appeared the frontless vagabond that he was. It often occurred to me, that the mere sight of his social and moral degradation would have amply gratified the revengeful feelings of Ada Rivers, perhaps have excited a faint emotion of pity in her breast; and these thoughts set me to speculating as to what ups and downs she had passed through since her disappearance. She had buried herself into my memory: Neither the flight of time, nor the whirl of business, nor diversities of life, had blotted her from the leaves of memory. It was not love, but curiosity. If we gallop through a country, memory will yet carry away some landscape, brook, morass, or mountain peap, and it will remain for years, with such distinctness and vividness of outline, that we could paint it, could we handle the pencil. Why one object is thus engraven on the memory, and a hundred others equally noted make no more impression than the shadow upon the fields, or the sunbeams on the water, is a mystery. It was so with my recollection of Ada Rivers—hundreds of clients had faded from my memory, yet she clung to it—nay, grew, into it, as the cedar shoots its roots into the "clefts of the rock, and flourishes where the oak would wither and die." But I am wandering from my story, without clearing up my mooted point in metaphysics or psychology, and must return to it, per saltum.

There was an unusually daring robbery perpetrated upon the house of one of our wealthiest citizens, and much booty, consisting of plate and jewelry, carried off. Large rewards were offered for the recovery of the stolen goods, and the police were thereby stimulated to unusual activity.

A few days afterwards a handsome lady called at my office and requested a private interview on pressing business. No sooner had the door of the consultation room closed behind us, than my visitor opened the business that had brought her to my office.

"I wish you to assist me with your presence, in arresting the men who robbed Mr. Lucas's house. I know where they are to be found, as well as the stolen goods If we only hurry, the proof will be complete."

I accompanied her to the nearest officer, before whom she made the oath necessary to procure a warrant. Calling two policemen, we all entered a cab and drove to the shop of a well-known Jewish pawnbroker of doubtful integrity, but wonderful thrift. After a short search the goods were drawn out of an old battered sailor's chest in the back room. The burglars were secreted in the cellar of a disreputable tavern—the haunt of thieves and gamblers, on the same street, and were promptly secured.

Peters was among the number. The trial came on. The proof was direct and positive. But conceive of my surprise at finding that the principal witness for the State (and my visitor) was Ada Rivers. The moment her name was called, I knew her and wondered that I had not recognized her at first sight. She, in conjunction with two of her agents, had witnessed the whole affair, and tracked these burglars to to their hiding places. It turned out that these agents had never lost sight of Peters for years, having been really spies on his conduct. When the name of Ada Rivers was called and she took her place on the witness stand, it was plain to see that Peters lost all heart—his head drooped and his frontless look gave place to one of fear. Never before had I witnessed so sudden—so complete a change in any human countenance. The burglars were convicted and sentenced to ten years' confinement.

Ada Rivers asked me to call upon her the next day, and named the house of a well-known citizen. Curiosity would have caused me to call, as I expected, from this interview, to learn the outlines, at least, of her life. Nor was I disappointed. Ada Rivers gave me a sketch of her life, from which, it appeared that, on quitting New York, she had gone to her maternal grandfather's in Maryland. He had never forgiven her mother for eloping with Rivers, but, as he was old and forlorn, when Ada reached him, he had relented, and greeted her with a warm welcome. Dying a couple of years after, he had left her a very handsome fortune She returned to New York to watch Peters, whom she surrounded with a cordon of spies. This was her grand employment—to secure such proofs as would utterly disgrace and damn the murderer of her father.

"I preferred the slow tortures of his conscience, preying upon him as the vultures are fabled to have preyed on Prometheus, to his sudden death.—Nothing but a life-long torture—the protracted stretching of his very soul itself upon the rack, could realize my conception of revenge; and even then it would have been incomplete had he not known the blow came from the hand of Paul Rivers's daughter. The object to which my life has been consecrated with entire singleness, having been accomplished I feel like a cripple who has been suddenly deprived of his crutches—life has no further aim or charm for me—I have no ties or friendships to bind me to society, so that I shall execute my long cherished purpose, of becoming a "Sister of Charity."

She did join that noble sisterhood of heroic workers in the moral vineyard, and is now passing the evening of a well-spent life in Nazareth, Kentucky, followed by the benedictions of thousands whom she has relieved and nursed, when the "pestilence walked abroad at noonday," and the atmosphere was freighted with death. And whenever the "silver cord" shall be loosened, thousands will exclaim, with streaming eyes, "requiescat in pace."

THE WORKINGS OF THE LEAGUE.—A gentleman gives us the following in regard to the strength of the League in several counties in Alabama and their intentions: On Sunday they met at Mrs. Comer's place, below Hatchechubbee, well armed, numbering about six hundred. There is another League at Spring Hill, numbering three hundred; another at Enon, numbering four hundred; another in the neighborhood of Silver Run, numbering five hundred; another at Union Spring, numbering eight hundred; and one near Eufaula, numbering one thousand. They are thoroughly armed and equiped, for the purpose of taking the polls in these localities on the day of the election. The scoundrel Speed, we understand, is the chief of the concern and direct their proceedings. They have issued, we are informed, a placard to the effect that if any negro or person belonging to their League found missing, they will hold the people of said neighborhood responsible. This is the beautiful working of Radical reconstruction. "The colored troops fit nobly." "Let us have peace!"

South American Earthquakes.

WASHINGTON, October 4th.

Mr. Seward, Secretary of State, has received accounts of the terrible earthquake in South America from from a United States Minister Alvin P. Hovey, dated Lima, Peru, September 14th, as follows:

Sir: In my dispatches Nos. 144 and 145, dated 22d and 28th of August, respectively, I gave you a slight account of the terrible earthquake, which, on the 13th ultimo, laid desolate a large part of Peru, and now again it is my painful duty to inform you that a large and the most prolific part of the republic of Ecuador is in ruins, caused by a similar shock at 1:30 on the morning of the 16th of the same month. This earthquake seems to have had its centre in the province of Imbaburn, near the volcano of Ocamps, about sixty miles north of the city Quito. Eigh towns, with the adjoining hacendias and populations, are said to have been destroyed, numbering from forty to fity four thousand inhabitants. The cities of Otavato and Cotacachi, containing respectively about twelve and eight thousand inhabisants, and both situated on the shores of the Lake Mojanda, are said to have been swallowed up, with their entire populations, and their sites have become a part of the lake.

The city of Tabarra, with a population of thirteen thousand, is totally destroyed, only about three thousand of the inhabitants escaping, and the town Atuntaque leveled with the earth, burying all its inhabitants in the ruins.—Nor is the injury confined to the cities and towns, but all the hacendias of the province, the richest in Ecuador, growing sugar and grain, and producing large numbers of cattle and sheep, have, as it were, been swept out of existence.

Quito did not suffer in the same ratio in the loss of life, but its walls and houses are destroyed. The most inhabitants, including the English charge d'affaires Mr. Hamilton, with his large family, were driven to the open square or plaza in the centre of the city, and he, more fortunate than the others, is now enjoying the great luxury of a tent; while thousands of the best citizens are without a shelter. To heighten the gloom, despondency and misery of all, the terrific thunder storms of the tropics seem to have redoubled their forces, and having literally deluged the whole country. The losses in Imbabura will cause great suffering in Quito, as nearly all necessaries of life for that city were drawn from that province. The difficulty of conveying food from Guayaquill will be very great, as the journey requires twelve days' severe travel with mules, carrying small burdens, over rugged and precipitous mountains, deep gorges and narrow passes. If relief in some form is not speedily given, many of the sufferers will be compelled to reach the sea shore or perish.

Extracts from private letters and public documents, published in the Lima journals show the destruction and destitution to which I have referred. Indeed, these shocks have almost ruined the republic of Ecuador. The mentioned representations have been fully corroborated by the statemens of his Excellency Don Antonio Flores, plenipotentiary of Ecuador in Peru. In Peru also, as I have heretofore informed you, proud and rebellious Arequipa is leveled with the dust; Arica, swept from the seashore, with but one solitary house remaining, whilst the district and city of Mognega, with its rich villages, vinyards and haciendas are but the wrecks of things that were. Had the earthquake in Peru taken place at night time, as it did in Ecuador, the loss of life would have exceeded one hundred thousand souls. As it was, that loss in Peru is less, but the loss of property is far greater.

Want, hunger and famine in these now unhappy countries are striding through all classes in the midst of the unburied dead, and a general paralization of thought and action seems to pervade the land. This is no doubt, caused by the continous shocks since, and the great fear of other calamities, and to add to the consternation of the weak, fearful and helpless; robbers in some localities are said to be sacking and pillaging everything within their reach.

I take pride in informing you that Rear Admiral Thomas Turner, Captain McDougal, Commanders James H, Gills, James S. Thornton, Austin Pendergrast and the other officers and crews of their commands in our navy, near the scene of danger, have done all that noble-hearted, brave sailors could do to alleviate the sufferings of all within their reach.

STARTLING REVELATION.

6,000 Stand of Arms En Route to Arkansas.

As is well known, arms are being almost constantly, and with studied efforts at secrecy, shipped into the South to the Loyal Leagues and other equally infamous Radical organizations. It is known that arms have been received here, but for whom or for what purpose, is left to conjecture.

In this connection we learn upon unquestionable authority that a few days ago six thousand stands of arms, with amunition, equipments, etc., to match, arrived at St. Louis en route to Little Rock. It was impossible to ascertain to whom they are consigned, those having them in charge taking every possible precaution to elude the glances of of prying eyes. They will arrive here on the city of Cairo or Belle Memphis, for reshipment on a White river packet to Duvall's Bluff, and thence by railroad to Little Rock.

The United States government has no occasion to send arms to Arkansas, and this lot is doubtless intended to arm negro militia or members of the Loyal Leagues, with a view of overawing the people.

☞We presume no one can easily overlook the large advertisement of the new, reliable, accommodating and liberal firm of Wyly & Driskill, Grocers and Provision Merchants of this place.

They have started in with a large stock of choice Groceries, Confectionaries &c., and will keep their stock constantly replenished and full, and sell at prices as low as can be afforded by any other firm They also make liberal offers in the purchase and shipment of Cotton. As business men, they are both well known in our community, and we may confidently affirm that they deserve the liberal patronage of a liberal public.

In this connection we wish we could impress upon each and all of our readers, the paramount importance of extending encouraging patronage to home trade and merchandise, as well as home industry of every description. No community can be permanently prosperous without it. Remember, that when you help your neighbor you help yourself.

Jacksonville Female Academy.

We paid a brief visit to this Institution on Friday morning, Rev. D. F. Smith, is still Principal & Miss Broyles and Miss Fullenwider Assistants; all three thoroughly educated, qualified and experienced teachers

The building is now finished, and although not an imposing structure outwardly, is well lighted and neatly and conveniently arranged internally; has an area of 2,000 square feet, ample room for the accommodation of from 120 to 150 pupils. Other conveniences, improvements and adornments will be added to the house and grounds as means are afforded.

There are at present about 50 pupils, and we are pleased to learn that the number is on the increase.

Why do not the Trustees, Parents and friends of this institution, more frequently encourage the teachers and pupils, by their visits and presence at recitations. It is enough to do ones heart good to see so many bright, beautiful and intelligent young Ladies and little girls, diligently engaged in becoming educated and accomplished to adorn any station in life

We here repeat what we have often before urged upon parents, that is, the importance and necessity of giving their children the advantages of education It is the best investment they can make for them, and will remain with them through life, when other mere gifts and possessions have been lost or exhausted.

Circulars Addressed to each Registar in the State.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA,
OFFICE SECRETARY OF STATE,
MONTGOMERY, Oct. 3, 1868.

To——

Of the County of——

You are hereby appoint Assistant Registar of the county of——Accompanying, please find copy of an "An Act to Provide for the Registration of Electors," also blank oaths of office for yourself and Sub-Assistants.

Books for registration will be furnished in few days. It is earnestly hoped that no effort on your part will be spared to afford an opportunity on or before the third proximo for a full and free registration of the electors of your county.

Each assistant registrar is required to return to this office an official report, stating in detail all material facts connected with the registration in his county as soon as practicable.

CHAS. A. MILLER,
Secretary of State,
And ex officio Superintend'g Registration.

STATE OF ALABAMA,
OFFICE SECRETARY OF STATE,
MONTGOMERY, ALA., Oct. 3, 1868.

SIR:—Your attention is especially invited to the following suggestion in reference to conducting Registration in your county.

I. You will observe great caution, that those only be allowed to register their names who are legally entitled to do so.

II. If you have any doubt as to the legal right of the person offering to register his name, you will interrogate him specially as to his qualifications herein explained.

QUALIFICATIONS

First—The applicant must be a male person born in the United States, or who "has been naturalized," or who "has legally declared his intention to become a citizen of the United States."

Second.—He must be "twenty-one years old or upward," and "shall have resided in this State six months next preceding the election, and three months in the county in which he offers to register and vote."

Third.—No soldier, sailor, or marine, in the "military or naval service of the United States," will be allowed to register "by reason of being stationed on duty in this State,

Fourth.—The following classes of persons shall not be permited to register: 1st, Those who, during the late rebellion, inflicted, or caused to be inflicted any cruel or unusual punishment upon any soldier, sailor, marine, employed, or citizen of the United States, or who in any other way violated the rules of civil warefare; 2d, Those who shall have been convicted of treason, embezzlement of public funds, malfeasance in office, crime punishable by law with imprisonment in the penitentiary; or bribery; 3d, Those who are idots or insane.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS.

I. You will specially notify the electors of your county, that on the day of election no challenges will be allowed at the polls; hence; the necessity of not offering to vote unless properly registered, inasmuch as a vote without registration would subject the party to fine and imprisonment.

II. You will proceed at once to the diligent discharge of your duty, and do all in your power (and it is believed the time is ample) to insure a complete registration of the voters of your county, prior to the third day of November ensuing,

III. Registration on the day of election is intended only to accomodate those who have been prevented from registering before "by sickness or other disability."

These suggestions you will accept in connection with the Registration Law herewith sent you for your guidence.

Very respectfully,
CHARLES A MILLER,
Sec'y of State, superinten'g Registration.

"ATTENTION ALL."
Something New and Valuable.

HAVING secured the entire right and control of the South for the Celebrated French Elastic Fire and Water Proof
ROOFING PAINT,

I desire to call the attention of the Public to the cheapness and durability of this article. Its cheapness places it within the reach of all; it is as good on shingles as Tin, and renders the rate of Insurance less than common shingle Roofs. It is one of the cheapest and most durable articles for painting the Hulls of Boats and Vessels, and is a sure preventative against Barnacles and Worms—it preserves the timbers from decay and give it a smooth, glossy, surface—it is also one of the best Paints known for Iron, preserving it from rust caused by exposure or otherwise—the changes of seasons have no effect on it—it is a perfect non-conductor of heat—it is all prepared and needs no experienced hand to apply it.

This Paint is warranted to stand twice as long as the Metalic and Mineral paints used in this country for the same purpose, and is about one-half the price; one gallon will cover nearly twice the surface. All we ask is that you will give it a fair trial, and we are satisfied you will endorse the Testimonials given below, to which we could add many more if deemed expedient.

TESTIMONIALS.

BRIDGEPORT, CT., May 20, 1867.

LUPTON & Co.,—The French Elastic Paint I purchased of you last fall has had a good trial the past winter. My roofs are in a tight condition, and from their general appearance I do not think they will need any repairs for years. I consider your paint has done all you represented, and think it is the best roofing paint I know of.

MERRITT MERWIN.

BRIDGEPORT, CONN., May 27, 1867.

MESSRS. LUPTON & Co.,—I feel it a duty after making a six months trial of your French Elastic Roofing Paint, to inform you that I had it put on the roof of the Malleable Iron Works in this city; also, on my boiler and cupola. The said cupola has had a heat weekly since last November—the time your paint was applied—and, to give some idea of the heat from it, I had a piece of old tin roof hung up some eight feet from it and it caused the solder to run off On examination to-day, with my Engineer, of the roofs and cupola, we unhesitatingly pronounced it, without exception, the most durable and elastic paint we ever saw. My roofs are in perfect order, and the general appearance of the paint retains all its brilliancy and durability After the test of the past severe winter, I think every Steamboat owner would save money by having their smoke-stacks covered with your paint. You have free liberty to refer any persons to me personally, or by letter, regarding this paint as an article for roofing purposes, faces of boilers and iron work exposed to the weather: it is unsurpassed. Wishing it that success which a really good thing deserves, I remain Yours &c.,
ELISHA HUBBELL.

I fully coincide with Mr. Hubbell's views regarding this paint, and can with confidence recommend it to do all that is claimed for it.
CHAS. MALLORY,
Engineer of Malleable Iron Works.

MR. P. B. SHEPARD,—Dear Sir: I have had the paint purchased of you applied to my boat, and take pleasure in recommending it to be all you claim for it. Very respectfully,

MR. P. B. SHEPARD,—Sir: I have had the French Elastic Paint, purchased from you, applied on the roof a Steamboat, and it has given the best of satisfaction. From experiments made, I am satisfied it is the cheapest paint and most durable, that I have ever used. I intend using it for painting our car roofs. I take great pleasure in recommending it to the public. J. H. RIFFLE,
General Superintendent S. and M. R. R.

[Extract from Mobile, Ala., paper.]

"We have for the last 6 weeks been testing the French Elastic Fire and Water-proof Roofing Paint, which we can say is the best we have ever seen for the use of Tin Roofs, Steamboat iron work &c. Satisfactory explanations will be made of its qualities by calling at our store, No. 43 Dauphin-street.
P. J. BARNARD & Co.
MOBILE, ALA., May 19, 1867."

MOBILE, May 3rd, 1867.

MR. P. B. SHEPARD,—Sir: I have seen a number of experiments tried with the "Elastic Tin and Water Proof Roofing Paint," and am satisfied that it is what it purports to be "Fire and Water Proof"—and there is no doubt but that shingle roofs covered with said Paint, will be fully protected from fire occasioned by sparks or cinders falling on the roofs. I am,
Very respectfully &c.
THOS. S. KING.
President Underwriters Ins. of Mobile Ala.

MOBILE, May 30, 1867.

MR. P. B. SHEPARD,—Sir. I have given your Elastic Tin and Water Proof Roofing Paint a severe and thorough test; having placed a quantity of live coals on a dry shingle roof painted with it, the coals died out without setting the roof on fire although exposed to a good draft. I am satisfied that no roof covered with the paint could take fire from live cinders falling on it.
Respectfully your ob't serv't,
THOMAS B. LYONS,
Chief Tin Depot, Mobile, Ala.

Give it a trial, and its many virtues will attest its merit.

Washington, Oct. 9.—Much interest is taken here in Pennsylvania matters. The Democratic canvassers claim the State by 15,000. The radical canvassers claim it by 10,000.

Chief Justice Chase authorizes a contradiction of the report that he has declared for Grant and Colfax.

FROM MONTGOMERY.

Montgomery, Oct. 9.—Both houses have adopted a resolution to adjourn to-morrow to reassemble November 2d. It is generally understood that registration cannot be completed in time for the election. No election bill has yet been passed, and none will probably be passed.

The Cabinet meeting was full to-day

The local elections in Delaware resulted favorably to the democrats.

Chief Justice Chase goes to Savannah next week to hear several important cases, his presence being made necessary by the death of Justice Wayne. He will then hold Court in Raleigh, unless called to Richmond to hear the Davis trial. He will take no active part in politics, but continue his opposition to radical excesses, and has no doubt Seymour will administer the government on Constitutional principles.

FROM NEW YORK.

New York, Oct. 10—Yesterday morning Col. Williams, of Florida, accompanied by a Baptist clergyman, called on Gov. Cobb. An animated conversation occurred between the Minister and Governor Cobb

The Governor and Mrs. Cobb were taking leave of their guests on the stairs, when Mrs. Cobb observed a tremor of the body and a contraction of the muscles of the face. The attending physicians of the hotel were called, but before medical remedies could be administered the General was carried into his room and in five minutes was a corpse.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Recent local elections in Deleware indicate the democratic majority to be 3,000.

FBOM MONTGOMERY

Montgomery, Oct 10.—The Legislature will adjourn at 10 o'clock to night.

News reached here this morning of a terrible Ku Klux outrage in Russell county, being the murder of the loyal Probate Judge and Clerk.

Resolutions were offered in the House calling upon the Governor to have the county declared under martial law and order troops to be sent there at once.

In the Senate a resolution was offered requiring the Governor to offer a reward of five thousand dollars for each man engaged in the murder.

The democratic members suggested that it was wrong to denounce people without a hearing or trial.

News has been received here this evening that the whole report was false, and neither of the alleged murdered men are hurt.

The Governor received a dispatch stating that there was not a word of truth in the alleged murders. The whole thing was a trick to make capital for the Northern elections

FROM SPAIN.

Madrid Oct. 10.—The Provisional Junta has issued a programme guaranteeing many reforms.

Washington, Oct. 11.—the new whisky regulations have been issued. The following is the provision for commencing operations:

"No distiller's bond should be approved until his distillery or warehouse has been provided or established under the act of July 20, 1868, and no distillery should be permitted to start until a store-keeper has been assigned to such warehouse by the Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Washington, Oct. 12.—General Reynolds' prohibition of an election in Texas is disapproved. The President is about issuing a military order in which the Constitution and the laws are cited in condemnation of such interference by military officers under penalties of fine and imprisonment.

Montgomery, Oct. 12.—Gov. Smith has issued a proclamation for an election in this State for President on the 3rd of November. The proclamation is issued in accordance with the election law passed by the Legislature. Under that law there is to be no other election in this State until November, 1870. At that time members of Congress, Governor, State officers, Legislators, etc., are to be elected. The present incumbents are to hold over until that time.

Registration commenced this morning in this city. The negroes outnumber the whites.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, Oct. 13, M.—Considerable fighting in the suburbs.

In the 16th Ward, a boy was fatally shot by a Deputy Sheriff!

In the 20th Ward, heavy fighting is reported between the Police and Sheriffs

When the polls were opened at seven o'clock, long lines of voters were present at each voting place.

There are indications of a heavy vote.

Both parties claim the State, with chances favoring the Democrats.

THE ELECTION.

Philadelphia, Oct. 13 —The democrats claim the city by a majority of 6,000, and the republicans claim it by 2,000 majority.

Several fights are progressing.

FROM INDIANA.

Indianopolis, Oct. 14.—Thirty-seven counties show a democratic gain of nearly 7,000. Forty-one counties not heard from. The democrats claim the State by 1,500, and the republicans 2,500. The Third District is still doubtful.

FROM OHIO.

Cleveland, Ohio, Oct. 14 —Democratic Congressmen are elected in the 1st, 5th, 9th, 10th, 12th, and 13th districts. Republicans get the balance.

Dayton, O., Oct. 14.—Gen. Schenck is beaten by a majority of 500.

The Acme of Medical Science

IS ACHIEVED IN THE WONDERFUL DISCOVERY OF NEW MEDICINAL PRINCIPLES IN

DR. RADWAY'S
Perfect Purgative Pills

COATED WITH SWEET GUM.

1st Principle.—A vegetable substitute for Calomel or Mercury is secured.

2d. A cathartic that cleanses the Alimentary Canal and its neighboring Viscera as thoroughly as Lobelia does the stomach.

3d. Functional Harmony is secured to the secreting vessels of all the organs and glands in the system.

4th. Purification and equalization of the circulation of the blood.

5th. The properties of these Pills communicate a nutritious principle to the blood and reparative system.

6th. A great want is supplied in their soothing, healing and expulsive power in cases of intestinal ulceration, as in Eruptive Fevers, where a cure depends upon free evacuations.

7th. The aged and persons suffering from paralysis of the bowels, by the use of one Pill per day, secures regular evacuations.

Persons suffering with any disturbance of the secretory organs, or that have difficulty in discharging the contents of their bowels, or that are in the habit of taking Pills or opening medicines, should try one box of these truly excellent Pills. The happiness of their effects on the system, and the satisfactory evidence one box will give you of their wonderful curative powers, will convince you that your faith and trust in them will become firmly established.

THE PROPERTIES OF
DR. RADWAY'S PILLS.

They Equalize the Circulation, Purify the Blood, and Purge Corrupt and Acrimonious Humors, and restore deposits from the system in six hours.

As a Cathartic, they increase, when suspended, the peristaltic movement of the bowels, and promote a quick evacuation of its contents. Their influence is extended throughout the system, purging the retained deposits in the stomach into the duodenum, stimulating the secretory ducts of the pancreas and liver, in the promotion and increase of the flow of bile and pancreatic fluids.

Purgatives of common aloes exert their action on the colon and rectum by irritation of the mucous membrane, without influencing the liver or its secretions. Such cathartics are unsafe in pills for general use. The common Cathartic Pills, that induce drastic liquid discharges, should never be given in cases of inflammation, or when there is ulceration of the intestinal canal.

The Aperient and mild Laxitive properties of Radway's Pills are the best safeguard in these disorders, and in all cases of eruptions and malignant fevers their balsamic, healing and soothing properties protect the conts of the alimentary passage against the irritant and acrid humors of the faeces.

The Nutritious and Tonic properties of these Pills are of great service in depleting fevers and uterine discharges, likewise as a dinner pill, to increase the appetite and promote digestion.

Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach and bowels, either from inflammation, colic, flatulence, wind, cramps, &c.

Their Counter Irritant influence extends throughout the system where there is inflammation, congestion or irritation, stimulating the blood and nervous fluids in the congested vessels, and equalizing its circulation. The principle of Counter Irritation is generally applied to external remedies. Its application, internally, in the form of a purgative medicine, exemplified in Radway's Pills, has proved a wonderful curative principle, readily withdrawing from the blood and fluids their acrid and irritating humors.

As Diaphoretics or Sudorifics they stimulate the secretions of the skin, induce exhalation of obstructed perspiration.

Their Diuretic properties act on the kidneys, correcting and regulating the flow of urine.

Their Anti-Bilious properties stimulate the liver in the secretion of bile, and its discharge through the biliary ducts. In all cases of Headache, Jaundice, Bilious Attacks, Saffron-colored Skin, IMPERFECT DIGESTION caused by the overflow of bile and its mixing with the blood, these pills, in doses of four to six, will quickly regulate the action of the liver and free the patient from these difficulties. One or two of Radway's Pills taken daily, by those subject to bilious pains and torpidity of the liver, will keep the system regular and insure healthy digestion.

Inflammation of the Bowels.

In cases where there is severe inflammation, paralysis of the bowels, and a speedy discharge of their contents required, grind six of the pills to a powder and take in some preserves or water. In half an hour the Pills, given in this way, will generally operate. The dose can be repeated, if necessary, in two hours. We have known the pills, given in this form, to open the bowels WHEN CROTON OIL, Elaterium, podophyllum Mandrake have failed. It is seldom that a second dose will be required in these cases of Intestinal Obstructions.

N. B.—Ask for Radway's Regulating Pills.

The price of Radway's Pills is 25 cents per box all over the world. 5 boxes for $1. 13 boxes for $2 50. Sent by mail to any part of the United States. All letters requiring medical advice addressed to JOHN RADWAY, M. D. Business letters to RADWAY & Co., 87 Maiden Lane, N. Y.

Every person should read Dr. Radway's New Medical Publication, False and True. A copy on receipt of postage stamp will be sent free of charge.

Radway's Remedies are sold by Druggists all over the World.

POETRY.

I SWEETLY DREAM OF THEE.

BY S. A. MUNSON.

Oh! sing to me at twilight, Maud,
My favorite songs once more.
As thou wert wont so often, Maud,
In by-gon days of yore.

My heart is sad and lonly, Maud,
That merry use to be,
When arm in arm we wandered, Maud,
Till starlight o'er the lea.

A long time I have missed you, Maud,
For many a year has flown
Since by your side I lingered, Maud,
When happier hours rolled on.

Alas! how like a shadow, Maud,
The old-time seems to me,
Come back again at twilight, Maud,

Remarkable Cure of Consumption.

The Transactions of the Connecticut State Medical Society contain a paper from Professor S. G. Hubbard, of New Haven, in relation to the cure of the late Rev. Jeremiah Day, former President of Yale College, of tubular consumption. President Day, during early life, gave little promise of long life, and when in 1789, in his seventeenth year, he entered Yale College, he was soon compelled to leave from pulmonary difficulty. He rallied, however, and was able to finish the course and graduate in 1795. He was very feeble, however, for many years. He became a clergyman, and in 1801, was elected Professor of Mathematics and Natural History in College. But he could not undertake the duties An alarming hemorrage of the lungs prostrated him, which was treated "learnedly" by bleedings copious enough to have charmed even Doctor Sangrado. He went to Bermuda where he was plied with digitalis to such an extent as almost to take what little life was left. He came back to his native town, Washington, Conn., to die

He suffered from continued hemorrhage and repeated venecections, till he happened to meet Doctor Sheldon, of Litchfield, who had made the treatment with iron a hobby. He expressed a belief that Mr, Day could be helped. Though the case was regarded as hopeless, the patient was placed under the care of Dr. Sheldon, who treated him with iron and colisaya bark. feeding him carefully with wholesome food. Under this regimen he soon exhibited indications of improvement; and finally, in 1803, returned home as one restored from the dead, in sufficient vigor to be inaugurated in the professorship. He never afterwards exhibited symptons of pulmonary disease, although he had been affected by it more than twelve years. He lived till August, 1867, and was ninty-five years old at the time of his death.

The cavity of the thorax was examined, to ascertain the traces of his former malady, Only about a pint of serum was found; the lungs were everywhere free from tubercle, and were apparently healthy. In the apex of each lung was found a dense, corrugated circular cicatrix, an inch and a half or more in diameter. Also a third circular cicatrix on on the left side of the left lung, a few inches below the apex, each involving such a depth of issue as to indicate that the vomice of which they were the remains had been large and of long duration. Both lungs were slightly adherent at the apex.

Here, then, remarks Professor Hubbard, was all that remained to mark the beginning, progress and cure of a case of tuberculary consumption, occupying twelve years in its period of activity, and with its incipient stage dating more than three-quarters of a century. A legible record, surpassing in interest and importance to the human race those of the slabs of Nineveh, or the Kunic inscriptions.

The Columbus Enquirer says, the Democrats of Marion District, S. C., have purchased and presented to each of the fifteen negroes who had the courage to go to the polls and vote with and for their old masters, the title deeds to forty acres of good land near that town.

ALABAMA LEGISLATURE.—On the 6th inst., the Senate passed bills, increasing the pay of members of the Legislature from $6 to $8, of the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House to $12, and of the other officers of the two Houses, the Secretaries, to $10, Assistant Secretaries, to $8, and Doorkeepers to $6. The Senate passed a bill regulation certain elections. A bill was introduced, amending Sec. 3 of an ordinance of the Constitutional Convention, adopted Dec. 4, 1867, concerning the election for ratification of the Constitution and for State and county officers and members of Congress.

In the House, Emmons moved an adjournment to go into caucus. Lost The election bill was considered and passed. A joint resolution, appropriating $900 fo the pay of the special committee sent to Washington, was passed. A resolution to adjourn, sine die, on the 8th inst., was offered and laid over till the next day at 10 o' clock.

The Mail predicted the House election bill would be tabled by the Senate and the Sinate bill meet a like fate in the House—all to defeat an election.

Advices from Madrid state that the Provisional Government will free black children, in anticipation of the abolition of slavery by the Cortez.

A GOOD REPLY.—A respectable negro in Washington city, a few days since, thus responded to the chiding of a roving adventurer, who sought to seduce him into the Radical fold:

Under your teaching we have alienated from us the mass of the white people North as well as South, you have got the offices and emoluments, while we have done the work and stand out in the cold. For one, I am done with you.

Solomon himself could not have suggested a wiser answer.

The Peach Crop.

Early in the season we took a lively interest in and made an effort to induce the people to save the valuable crop of peaches then growing. Many subscribers to the Courier saw the force of our suggestions upon the subject, and dried a considerable portion of their peaches. The value of this crop cannot yet be estimated, but there has already been shipped from Rome 152,556 pounds.—This at ten cents per pound—about the average price—would amount to $15,255 60. The crop is not one-half in yet.

THE STATE OF ALABAMA, } Calhoun County.

Court of Probate for Calhoun county, Ala. September 6th, A. D. 1868.

THIS day came G. B. Douthit and J. P. Watkins, Administrators of the Estate of James W. Watkins, deceased, and presents and files in court their petition in writing, representing among other things, that their intestate died seized and possessed of following described lands, to-wit: the south east fourth of section 9, in Township 14, of Range 8, except the north west corner of said quarter section, supposed to contain forty acres, bounded on the north by the land owned by Elizabeth Roberts, on the west by James Gober's land, and on the south and east by Tallassehatchee creek.—Also, the north east fourth of section 9, Township 14, Range 8; the above constituting the Home Place.—Also, the north half of the north west fourth, and the south east fourth of the north west fourth of section 33, Township 13 of Range 8, and all east in the Coosa Land District, and situate in said county of Calhoun.

They further alledge, that Albert A. Watkins, residence Butts county, Ga., Elizabeth A. Barker, wife of J. W. Barker, residence Benton county, Arkansas, Henry M. P. Watkins, residence unknown, and Robert P. Watkins, residence State of Mississippi, are the children and heirs at law of decedent, and are of full age; and are all non-residents, residing beyond the limits of the State of Alabama.

They further alledge, that an equal, fair and beneficial division of said Lands cannot be made without a sale of the same, and they therefore ask an Order and Decree of said Court authorizing them to sell said Lands for division among the Heirs of said Estate.

It is therefore Ordered by the Court, that the 22nd day of October, 1868, be set for the hearing of said petition; and that notice thereof be given by publication in the Jacksonville Republican, for three successive weeks prior to said day, as a notice to said non-resident Heirs and all other persons concerned, to be and appear at a Special Term of said court, to be holden at the Court House of said county, on said 22nd day of October, A. D. 1868, and defend against said petition if they think proper.

THE GREAT

Southern Preparations

COMPRISE a class of pure and select Family Medicines, prepared from pure Drugs, by a class of experienced Southern Physicians, specially for the diseases incident to a Southern locality.

They and not secret nor patent mixtures, and are recommended to be used in lieu of those prepared by our Northern friends, who know but little about Southern treatment.

Ours is the only class of Family Medicines ever offered to the public which were prepared by the Medical Profession.

FEMALES OF THE SOUTH.

Diseases peculiar to your sex, incident to all localities, culled from the passing breeze that fans you with its perfumed breath, or snatched from some pendant dew-drop, are to you a constant and abiding trouble. Whether an inhabitant of city or country, hill or dale, palace or hovel, disease rankles and preys upon your vitals. Gloom and despair are your constant companions Your pale and ghastly countenance, your colorless cheeks, your lifeless eye, your feeble and tottering walk, your palpitating heart, your dejected brow, all tell of that disease which is gradually and steadily making inroads upon your declining system.

The Sunshine of Hope

Now bursts upon your vision, and the clouds of despair that hangs as a heavy pall of gloom upon your brow can be driven back, and the bright visions of health, in all its grandeur, are offered you. DROMGOOLE & CO'S

ENGLISH FEMALE BITTERS

Is the only combination that actually and positively arouses and restores the womb to its natural healthy condition. It removes all unnatural obstructions, relieves painful or suppressed Menstruation, cures Leucorrhœa or Whites, Falling of the Womb, Hysterics, Chlorosis, Palpitation, Nervousness, Swimming and Giddiness of the Head, Melancholy, Ulceration and Irritation of the Womb, Derangements of the Kidneys and Bladder, and all diseases that are peculiar to the female sex—afflicting old or young, married or single. Send and get one Bottle, it will do you good.

YOUR LIFE BLOOD

Must be cleansed in order to be relieved of that troublesome class of diseases requiring pure blood. DROMGOOLE & CO.'S

Constitutional Remedy

Is recognized by the Medical Profession as the BEST and most CERTAIN Blood Purifier now before the public, and why? Simply because it is composed of the best medicines for that purpose, viz: Stillingia, Yellow Dock, Sarsaparilla, Burdock, and Iodide of Potash. For Scrofula, Cutaneous Eruptions, Skin Diseases, Gout, Rheumatism, Glandular Tumor, and Swellings, old Ulcers and Sores, Constitutional Derangements, etc., it acts like a charm.

DROMGOOLE & CO'S

Fluid Ext. Bearberry, Cubebs and Buchu,

A highly concentrated medicinal compound, expressly for affections of the KIDNEYS & BLADDER, such as Incontinence, Frequent Desire to Urinate, Urinary Deposits, Thick or Milky Urine, Effects of early Dissipation, Nervous Trembling, Gravel, Gout, Pains in the Back, Gleet, Loss of energy, Strangury, and all affections requiring a quick and reliable Diuretic.

In all cases of a want of action on the part of the Kidneys and Bladder, affecting old or young, male or female, this compound can be relied on.

CHILLS AND FEVER

Can be easily cured by using one Bottle of Dromgoole & Co.'s KING OF CHILLS, which never fails to arouse the Liver, cleanse the Stomach, open the Bowels and relieve the most inveterate cases of Chills. One Bottle will cure a case of six months standing.

DROMGOOLE & CO'S

Red Diarrhea Remedy,

The most certain and effectual cure for all forms of Diarrhea, Nausea and Vomiting, Cramps, Cholera Morbus, pain in Stomach, summer complaint of children while teething, etc. It is exceeding pleasant, cools and quiets the stomach, is not an alcoholic preparation, contains no kino, catechu, galls, tannin, logwood, etc. It imparts tone to the already debilitated stomach and bowels, and no family should be without a bottle. It never fails to cure.

PILES! PILES!!

Why is it you continue to suffer with Piles, when the remedy to cure you can be so easily obtained? Do not suffer another day: send immediately and procure one box of Dromgoole & Co.'s PILE SALVE and be cured Internal or external Piles, whether recent or long standing can be cured immediately.

Cannot Southern Physicians cure the Piles as well as any one else? Try our remedy, then,

Those Who Do Not Think

Gray hairs honorable, can have them restored to their natural color without staining the skin or scalp. It does not dye the hair, but simply RESTORES to its former color, and at the same time prevents it from falling off, cleanses the scalp of all dandruff and scurf, imparts a beautiful gloss and comes as near restoring hair to the bald as any other preparation. It is Dromgoole & Co's Tonic Hair Restorer; It is warranted.

NOMS DE PLUME.

A writer in the Baltimore Leader gives us the following information:

The author of "Rutledge," and several other creditable productions in fiction, was Miss Miriam Coles, now Mrs. Harris, of New York. The "New Gospel of Peace" was written by Richard Grant White, better known for his latter Shakspearean labors. "Orpheus C. Kerr" is Robert H. Newell. "Artemus Ward" was Charles F. Browne, who died in England last summer. "Carl Benson" is Charles A. Bristed, a grandson, we believe, of John Jacob Astor, the New York millionaire.—"Marion Harland" is Mrs. Virginia Therhune. "Irenius" is the Rev. I. S. Prime. "Jeems Pipes" is Stephen C. Massett. "Howard Glyndon" is a lady—Laura C. Redden. "Doesticks" is a son-in-law of Fanny Fern (Mrs. Parton), Mortimer Thompson. "Jennie June," the graceful critic of fashion, and chronicler of fashionable New York coteries, is Mrs. Jennie Croly.—"Miles O'Reilly," almost everybody now knows, was the late Gen. Charles G. Halpine, of New York. "K. N. Pepper" is James W. Morris. "Barry Gray," chiefly of the New York Home Journal, is Robbert Barry Coffin The "Lounger" of Harper's is George W. Curtis. The Sparrowgrass papers originated with the genial and gifted F. S. Cozzens. "Ik Marvel" who has lately taken to Agriculture, is Donald G Mitchell. "Occasional of the Philadephia Press, could not be anybody but John W. Forney, the publisher.—"Burleigh" is Matthew H. Smith.—"Perley" and "Raconteus," Maj. Ben Perley poor. "Malakoff," who wrote for the New York Times, was Dr. Johnson—not Boswell's Dr. Johnson.—"Mace Sloper" is C. G. Leland.—"Josh Billings," A. W. Shaw. "Timothy Titcomb," Dr. J. G. Holland—"Gail Hamilton," Miss Abigail E. Dodge. "McArone," George Arnold. "Mrs. Partington," of the Boston papers, B. P. Shillaber. "Ned Buntline," such as he is, E. Z C. Judson. "Edmund Kirke," J. R. Gillmore.—"John Phœnix," the late Capt Derby. A Boston school teacher writes himself "Oliver Optic."

"Harry Franco," we believe, is Charles F. Briggs The "Misses Wetherill" proves to be Susan and Anna Warner, and are so regarded the "wide world" over. Henry Clapp, Jr., has at times styled himself "Figaro." Henry Ward Beecher no longer *'s it in the New York Independent. John Savage has often hid himself, and sometimes his genius, behind "Ezek Richards. H waterson, as a writer, has occasionally played the part of "Asa Trenchard." "Paul Clayton" was, in truth, J. W. Trewbridge.—Col. T. B. Thorpe turned a "Ree Hunter" on several occasions. Peter Parley's son, J. C. Goodrich, Jr. wrote himself down as "Dick Tink" in the New Rork journals. "Ion," of the Baltimore Sun, was well known to be E. Kinzmen.

To these we may add: "Florence Percy" was Mrs. Elizabeth Akers; and "Daisy Howard," Mary Daisy McCrum. Mrs. C. M. Sirkland wrote at times under the signature of "Mary Clavers."—"Petroleum V. Na-by," an especial favorite of the late President Lincoln, and now of would be President Wade, and not a great many others besides, is an Ohio editor, rejoicing in the name of Dr. Loke.

SALT WITH WHEAT.—The advantages derived from sowing salt with wheat have been enumerated in several articles published in this paper, and it will be remembered that our Mercer correspondent said the plan had been followed with marked benefits in that county. We have now more testimony in favor of the practice. Mr. G. W. Thompson of Pekin, Jessamine county, last season, sowed two gallons of salt to the acre with his wheat, McChesney variety, and it ripened five days earlier than other wheat. But little rust appeared on it and i's appearance from early spring was much better than that without salt. It stood thicker on the ground, and the yield of grain was larger, nor did it suffer so much from freezing and variable weather. There are valuable results, and if, upon further trial, the same advantages are perceptible, will be generally adopted and some of the formidable difficulties now in the way of wheat growing will be successfully overcome.

"Brick" Pomeroy gets off the following hand grenades:

ALL RIGHT.—We desire to do the square thing by Mr. Beecher and every body else, therefore we quote from his jolly speech of last night the following be-e-cautiful sentiment: "I would rather have Grant drunk, than have Seymour sober." That's all right—but then you can have both, friend Beecher.

THE Pittsburg, Virginia, Express learns from reliable authority that a large oak tree in New Kent county has died from a Radical bill being posted on it. It was green and flourishing when the bill was posted, but in two or three days it commenced withering and finally died.

VILLAINY ABSOLUTE VILLAINY.—The Legislature has passed a bill forbidding the Grand Jury to examine into the bonds of Officers, and declaring, in effect, that the approval of a Probate Judge is sufficient. The Grand Jury of Shelby county have just concluded their reports, as follows:

P. S.—Since making out the above report, Mr. Elijah Bushy, the Probate Judge elect, has filed his bond in the office of the Probate Judge, and the Grand Jury have examined it and find it insufficient in amount and insolvent

D. W. CALDWELL, Foreman.

It makes no difference now whether the bond is insufficient or not The rascally Legislature makes it good by law, and lets impecunious adventurers have their opportunity to steal from the people. The poeple are to have no protection

The Democratic Electoral Ticket.

For prudential reasons the Democratic Executive Committee have thought proper to withdraw the Electorial ticket originally adopted, and to submit in its stead one composed of men who can take the "iron clad oath." While it does not seem that there is any just cause for this action, as the law now stands, still they have thought it better to run no risk of the vote of Alabama being lost to Seymour and Blair on account of any exceptions that may be taken to the electorial ticket. It is a great stretch to construe an electorship into a United States office, but there might arise a contingency in which it would suit the Radical party to so decide, and in consequence to rule out the vote of any State whose electors could not take the test oath. The ticket is commended to the people of Alabama. Some of the gentlemen on the ticket were Federal soldiers and all were undoubted Union men. They are worthy of our confidence and in voting for them we show how false is the charge that the Southern people treat the Union men with indignity and disrespect.

Facts to be Observed by the People.

1 In the approaching election no man need be disfranchised who ever was entitled to vote.

2. A new registration is going on and every voter, old and new, must register.

3. There are one hundred and five thousand white voters in Alabama, and ninety thousand colored voters in round numbers' a white majority of 15,000.

4. Although the whole of the colored vote should be cast against the Democrats (which will not be the case,) and five thousand white votes added; Seymour and Blair will still carry the State if a full vote be polled.

5. Military Government has ceased. The election on the 3d of November is to be free, as in former times.

The Late Elections.

As the smoke of battle begins to clear away, it seems that the Democracy so far from being defeated, have made terrible inroads upon the enemy and captured many of their strongholds. Next to Thad Stevens, Julian of Indiana was the must bitter and rentless persecuter of the South. His name will be forever infamous for his attempt to rob the Southern States of their share of the land grants, and to declare forfeited all lands heretofore given to aid in building Southern rail roads. He was a violent impeacher. If Mr Julian is elected it is by the skin of his teeth. Mr. Vorhies, one of the most eloquent and effective stump orators in the country, has defeated his radical opponent. It will be remembered that the 30th Congress excluded Mr. Voorhies, although he was fairly elected, and gave his seat to one of the Washburne's. The people have taken up the quarrel and again placed him in Congress. The gallant General Morgan, who was turned out by the 40th Congress, is again returned by his constituents and the radical favorite left at home. But those who love peace and quiet and despise the vile impeachers of the President, will be more gratified at the defeat, of Ashley, of Ohio, than any other event of the canvass Mr Hong a Democrat has beaten him a thousand votes.

We now tell our Democratic friends that they have not been defeated in this contest The vote is considerably over one and a half millions and the Radicals will have to content themselves with less than fifteen thousand majority.—That majority was obtained by fraud, force and violence. In Pennsylvania the three Radical Judges of the Supreme Court violated the holy Sabbath, and issued partizan opinions, just before the election, declaring illegal all naturalization papers granted during the months of September and October. This policy was acted on throughout the State and hundreds of Democrtic votes were refused by the Radical Judges.

Gov. Geary with all his immense State influence rushed down to Philadelphia on the day of the election to aid in perpetrating this gigantic fraud.—After claiming the State by immense majorities, it now turns out that a pause is made in the returns by express order of a radical court. Why is this? Simply to allow enough Democratic votes in the city of Philadelphia to be cast out, to give the State to the Radicals.—In our honest opinion, Pennsylvania has given a Democratic majority, otherwise the return of votes would not be stopped at this stage of the game. If the radicals of Pennsylvania undertake to cheat the Democracy of that State out of the victory, they will have a lively time of it. In Indiania the radical frauds and outrages were of the most flagrant character. Day after day, the Democratic journals charged that radical voters were being imported into the State, and they not only did this, but published the names of the non residents who moved into the State just before the election, to vote for Barker. The Indianapolis Sentinel alone published the names of enough of these scoundrels to give the State to Senator Hendricks. In Ohio the fight made by the Democracy was a magnificent one, and our defeat is not so hopeles as to make the result in November a foregone conclusion against us. One radical candidate for Congress, was elected by negro votes—Stevenson who beat Gen Cary, the Independent Workingman's candidate.

We say to our friends, be of good cheer, the day is not yet lost. Those who have so nearly snatched victory from defeat, are not willing to give up the contest. Let us arouse ourselves, and place Alabama in the Democratic column.—Montgomery Advertiser.

Horrible Case of Miscegenation.

A Father Marries a Negro Wench, and Compels his Daughter to Marry a Black Negro.

The Columbian City (Ind) Post of the 30th ult., gives the details of a horrible transaction which has recently occurred in Whitley county. A man by the name of David M. Long, of Smith township, in that county, married a negro wench for his third wife, and beat his daughter by a former marriage, a girl of sixteen years of age, until he compelled her to marry a back negro The facts are thus detailed:

A white man by the name of David M. Long, a republican in good political standing with his party, and who has been a citizen of the place for many years, has been successful in gulping down the last plank in the black and tan platform.

This Monster has been a widower twice. His former wives were respected by all who knew them. By these marriages he had five children—two boys and three girls—who, too, are respected and esteemed.

The memory of the dead and the fair fame of the living have been blackened by this unnamed beast, by uniting himself to a negro wench in marriage.

Knowing that he could not procure a license in our country for such an alliance, he takes his muscle material with him to Michigan, where, by the laws of that State, the twain were made one flesh.

This little victory of republican principles being won, he turned to his family—with her to whom his little ones must bow, and whom they must call by that endearing name, mother.

Those children, who had often in their fond recollections for the loved in the grave, amid blinding tears, whispered that sweet name in their prayers, now are commanded to forget the treasures of the tomb. Before them stood the repulsive form of their father's wild choice. Her, to call mother! There was too much of forgetfulness toward the dead in this.

The little ones, who had no one to whom they could look for protection but their father, whom they had never disobeyed in the least, now for the first time declined obedience, when, to obey, would be a sacrifice to their honer. To embrace and call her mother, seemed to them more of the character of a punishment than a duty, and they refused, and for this refusal, the eldest daughter, sixteen years of age, was whipped and beaten by him who claimed to be her father, until she was literally covered with bruises. After being cruelly beaten she sought and found refuge with one of the neighbors. She was followed by her father, found and driven home, with the threat of taking her life, should she in the least disobey him.

He told her that, unless she did return to the family within fifteen minutes, he would cut her heart out. She returned, but to meet a worse fate than death. During her absence, arrangements had been made for her ruin, and one Pompey (colored) was awaiting her return with a conveyance to take her to Michigan, where they were, after their arrival, married.

Great excitement prevails among the people of Smith township, and threats of violent proceedings against this unnatural beast have been made.

Let us Have a Change.

Let us have a change, says an exchange A change can do no harm, but a world of good.

The taxed farmers call for a change.

The taxed merchants call for a change.

The taxed laboring men call for a change.

The friends of Republican institutions call for a change.

The friends of the Union and the Constitution calls for a change.

All the people who earn their bread in the sweat of their face call for a change.

In God's name let us have a change.

The men who do not want a change are—

The bondholders, who receive a gold interest and pay no taxes.

The National Bankers, who are every year filching from the people twenty millions in gold.

The public thieves and plunderers who are robbing the nations treasury.

The carpet-baggers—those loil sneaks who go South to be elected to office by negro votes.

The military satraps, who rule the South by the bayonet, in order to establish negro supremacy.

The negro bureau agents who are cultivating cotton plantations for their own benefit at the expense of the government.

New England manufacturers and monopolists, who are fleecing the laboring people out of their hard earnings.

These are the men who do not want a change, and who keep up the old cry of "copperhead" and "traitor," to divert the attention of the people from the true issues.

Questions—Facts.

Bennett, of the Franklin Planters' Banner, publishes, as is well known, one of the best country papers in Louisiana. We lay before our readers a couple of the Banner's pungent and killing paragraphs:

FACTS.

The white citizens of St. Landy tried again and again to make terms of peace with the negroes, but the carpet bag editors and leaders told them the d—d rebels were scared, and that they were ten to one in number, that they had the rebels under their feet, and to keep them there.

Did the carpet-baggers stand up to the negroes and fight when trouble came? Not a bit of it! They took to their heels and fled to the woods for dear life, or turned and fought against the negroes, whose minds they had inflamed. Do the negroes remember Moore, of Big Cane, a scallawag of St. Landry, who headed a club of armed Radical negroes last year, and bullied and threatened white Democrats and whipped Methodist ministers? He was in the fight and shot at negroes as though he would be glad to annihilate the race of black men.

QUESTIONS.

Who planned the burning of Opelousas and the massacre of all the white inhabitants, from old age to the cradle?

Radicals!

Who directed the negro women to obtain matches and grain bags for burning Opelousas and carrying off plunder?

Radicals!

Who marched on the town of Washington, parish of St Landry, a few weeks since, threatening to burn and plunder?

Black Radicals!

Who taught to threaten, plunder, fire and massacre a peaceable village of white people?

White Radicals!

Who dodged the calamity of the Opelousas riot, after he had sent runners into the country to order all the negro clubs to come to Opelousrs armed, to attack that place?

Bently, a carpet-bagger, from Ohio, editor of the carpet-bag newspaper organ, the Progress!

How do the negroes like running their heads into a fire to accommodate carpet-bag office-seekers from the North?

We await the answer.

Ragged Shinplasters.—Those who find it hard work to get of their delapidated currency should take it to the Post Office and exchange it for letter stamps. It can then be sent to Washington and destroyed by the Post Office department.

THE ELECTION.

REGISTER AND VOTE.

We shall issue but one more paper before the Presidential election, and before that paper reaches many of our readers, the day will have passed. We publish in this paper the patriotic and stirring appeal of the State Democratic Executive Committee, advising every citizen, to Register and vote, which we commend to the special attention and careful perusal of every reader. There remains nothing more for us to do—nothing more that we can do, but to urge, with all possible earnestness, upon every citizen, the important and imperative duty of Registering and voting, in this hour of supreme peril to the Republic. Whatever the North or West may do, let Alabamians do their duty; and whatever Alabama may do, let the citizens of the old banner County of Calhoun do their duty Thus far, unawed by danger and unbribed by gain—amid peril and insult, oppression and wrong, as peaceable, law-abiding citizens, they have abided by their principles, maintained their integrity, and kept their honor unsullied. Let not their enemies have cause of exultation over a tame and cowardly surrender in the last decisive hour. The control of the State government is more important to the citizens of Alabama, than success in the Presidential election. So far from the possible or even probable success of the Radical party in the Presidential election being a cause of discouragement, it ought to be an incentive to increased exertion. Events have proven, that with the National and State governments in the hands of the Radicals, both will be run into bankruptcy—in the South, all property interest will lose its value—the citizens will be taxed out of what little they have remaining, and it will be next to impossible to maintain even existence.

Then let every citizen do his whole duty, have his name registered, and be prepared to make one more gallant and manly effort to rescue the State government from the usurping grasp of the most treacherous, loathesome, foul and corrupt party that ever disgraced the annals of the human race in any age or country.

If you, who are disfranchised, have not filed your application for the removal of disabilities, do so immediately; and those who, from any cause, should fail to register before, can do so on the day of election.

The very latest news from the recent elections in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana, give Radical majority in Pennsylvania 3,000, Ohio 12,000, and Indiana none. Surely in this there is nothing so very discouraging, but much to encourage hope, especially when we reflect upon the important gains made in Congressional representatives.

ACTION NOW THE WATCH-WORD.

ADDRESS
OF THE Democratic Executive Committee
TO THE PEOPLE OF ALABAMA.

Fellow Citizens: The last State Convention of the Democratic and Conservative Party of Alabama requested the undersigned, at a proper time, to prepare and publish an address.

The principles and purposes of the National Democracy were openly and boldly proclaimed in the city of New York in Convention assembled in July last, by delegates representing every State in the Union.

True and tried statesmen were selected as our standard-bearers, and under their lead we have gone forth to battle for the Constitution of our fathers, with an unwavering faith that God, in his own good time will crown our honest and patriotic efforts with success and restore our once happy, but distracted country to its former peaceful and prosperous condition.

So much has been said and written by the ablest and best men of the country in support of both our principles and candidates, that, extended remarks as to the one or the other by us at this time, we regard as wholly unnecessary.

We confidently assert that ninety-nine out of every hundred bona fide white citizens and voters of the State approve of our platform and desire the election of our candidates. The oath, however, which has been imposed by a bogus constitution, with some other impositions by a bogus Legislature, "conceived in sin and brought forth in iniquity," may be urged by some good and true men as an objection to registering and voting for Electors in the approaching Presidential election.—These odious conditions were imposed by our enemies for the express purpose of deterring us from voting, and thereby riveting the chains with which we have been bound for three years. Shall we, our countrymen, aid them in their infernal purpose by refusing to participate in the government of the country, or shall we comply with the law as it now stands and by our votes break our fetters as Samson did the wythes that bound him?

To us, the answer seems plain and obvious. We have thoroughly, calmly and conscientiously considered the question. We have already taken the oath and registered, and by the recollections of the past, and the hopes of the future, beseech every man who loves his country and his family, to do likewise. We now present for the consideration of the few who still have some lingering doubts as to what duty requires in this dark hour of our country's history, the following argument, which we most heartily approve, from the pen of one of the ablest and purest of Alabama's son's, who, for about twenty years, adorned the highest judicial offices of the State—who has ever been above suspicion with all parties and races:

REGISTRATION OATH.

Can it be conscientiously taken by those persons who held that in their present state, colored persons should neither vote or hold office?

Two clauses of the oath prescribed by the Constitution must be considered:

1. "That I accept the civil and political equality of all men." The word accept in this clause means admit. This is simply an admission and relates to the time when the oath is taken. The radical Constitution makes all men equal in civil and political rights and this clause is nothing more than an admission of that self-evident proposition. It contains no pledge or guaranty of the future, or that the Constitution shall always declare "the civil and political equality of all men" Example: I accept, or admit the fact that the radical party has a majority in each House of the present Congress. I do not thereby affirm, or guaranty that it will always have such majority, or that I will make no effort to prevent such continued majority.

2. And (I) agree not to attempt to deprive any person or persons, on account of race, color or previous condition, of any political or civil right, privilege or immunity enjoyed by other classes of men."

This is not an unqualified pledge or vow. It is a vow not to deprive of political or civil right, privilege or immunity, "on account of race or color, or previous condition." It is no violation of the oath or vow to deprive any person of any or all political or civil rights and immunities unless it is done on account of race, color or previous condition. A juror trying and convicting a colored freedmen of some species of penitentiary offence, would deprive him of many or all political rights, privileges and immunities. He would not do so on account of race or color, or previous condition.

The controlling words in this clause, are on account of; which in this connection, mean by reason of, because of. They express the motive of the act.—Both the act—deprivation and the motive, or impelling cause— race, color, or previous condition must concur to bring the case within the inhibitory clause. The words race, color and previous condition contain but two ideas, and might be as well expressed by the words, color and previous condition.

No one seeks to deprive any colored person of any civil right, privilege or immunity, enjoyed by any other person. All concede perfect equality before the law; and none desire to abridge that equality This is equality in civil rights, privileges and immunities.

We think we hazard nothing in affirming that no man who wishes to withhold political privileges or rights from any or all colored persons, is impelled thereto by reason of previous condition. "Slavery is the previous condition" here referred to; and standing alone, no one would regard that as furnishing, per se, a disqualification for the elective franchise. Example: a galley slave or Algerine captive, emancipated and brought hither, if otherwise qualified, would not be disfranchised on that account, nor would we wish to disfranchise a colored man on account of previous slavery.

Color or race has nothing to do with the motive of any one in withholding political privileges

Let us imagine what are the motives which influence men of these views.—They are two-fold.

1st. The supposed general ignorance of colored persons in matters of statesmanship, or the science of government. It is contended by such objectors that not one in any one hundred of them sufficiently comprehend the science of civil policy to cast an intelligent ballot, wisely to favor or oppose a legislative measure.

2d. The second objection urged by such persons is, an alleged prejudice of colored persons against, and disrust of the white race. It cannot be denied that colored persons, as a class are ignorant, credulous, and easy led astray. Active and mischievous adventurers have been among them; and possibly the greatest social evil we are now suffering is the bitter prejudice with which these designing bad men have succeeded in poisoning their minds.

We know their whole argument to be false; we know that the interest of the two races, occupying a common country are identical, still this prejudice gives color and tone to their every act and policy as voters or legislators. We are thus made to suffer for all the evils of will, profligate and misguided legislation; a legislation brought from an uncongenial clime; unsuited to our interests and civilization; an exotic from the frigid zone, engrafted upon a stock of different species nurtured in the warm and generous South

We have offered the foregoing argument, to satisfy the scruples of those who oppose the present bestowment of the elective franchise on all colored persons, irrespective of their grade of intelligence.

It is thus shown that all persons can safely take the registration oath; and thus the government of our beloved Alabama may be snatched from the vandals who are despoiling her of her prosperity, and glory, and, be placed again in the keeping of her legitimate corporators.

The last Legislature, (so called,) crowned its bad faith and treachery by adding a provision to the already odious election bill, the last day of its session, prohibiting the managers, on the 3d of November next, from counting any votes except those cast for Presidential Electors, thus preventing the people of the State from electing a new Legislature and members of Congress, except to fill vacancies, and for the base purpose of perpetuating their own unconstitutional and tyrannical rule in this State until November 1870. To add to their infamy, they have also denied us the old Constitutional safe guard of the ballot—the right of challenge, a right sanctioned by time, and every consideration of prudence and patriotism.

By the provisions of the bill it is obvious what class of men are intended to have exclusive control of the whole scheme. Some already appointed as Registers are known as men utterly destitute of moral character. It is but just to others, known to the committee, to state that they are men of good characters, but embracing new comers and strangers to our people.

As the entire affair seems to have been so arranged as to prevent a fair election, and the detection of fraud by those most interested, it is incumbent on us to devise some plan whereby a fair vote can be had, and double dealing exposed.

We therefore make the following suggestions which we hope will be rigidly adhered to,

On next Saturday, the 24th, at your county meetings, if not already done—complete your organizations. Appoint for each voting place where an election is to be held, a committee of six of your best citizens, whose duty it should be to provide themselves with a paper with the following heading:

State of Alabama,
County of—— Precinct ——
November 3, 1868.

We, the undersigned, do hereby certify that we have this day cast our votes in the manner prescribed by law, for the Democratic and Conservative electors for President and Vice President of the United States.

(Signed) ——

Let each voter for Seymour and Blair, as he leaves the polls at which he has voted, halt and subscribe his name to the foregoing certificate, and for this take a convenient position, with pen and ink and other necessaries for the occasion, as near the place as the law allows and rules governing elections will permit. Let every good man consider himself a committee of one to aid in the good work.

Be at the polls early and stay late. You have a perfect right to use all fair and just means to carry the State. By all means deal gently and kindly with the colored man because it is right—as well as good policy. When a white man complains of this rule he will bear watching. A colored voter who might in some localities fear the vengeance of the League might be excusable in hesitating to publish his vote. Assure all such that we will defend them with our lives, if the exigencis render it necessary. But by all means on the election day, be sober, and peaceable, studiously avoiding any thing calculated to bring on a collision. At the same time defend yourselves and your families every where and under any circumstances as becomes the descendants of the proudest, bravest and noblest race on the earth.

As soon as the polls are closed let the committee go before a magistrate—or some other officer authorized to administer an oath, and make affidavit of the correctness of the roll or list and place the same in the hands of the Chairman of the County Executive Committee, or some other reliable man, who will be responsible that it reaches the Chairman of the State Executive Committee at Montgomery, (Gen. J. H Clanton), in no case sending by Mail, but by hand or Express.

We have referred very briefly to the Election Law. It must be read to be appreciated in all its hideous deformity. We advise and earnestly recommend every man in the State, who can, to peruse it carefully.

We are pained to find some men who are discouraged by the recent elections. The result when all the attendant circumstances are considered, affords us many reasons for rejoicing, and much cause for hope.

We must carry Alabama—our future salvation may depend upon it. If by chance, Gen. Grant should be elected, we shall have nothing to expect from the General Government. Our own efforts will be our last and only resource We have the ability by peaceable means to restore prosperity to our State, through the form of this Government foisted upon us by radical tyranny. Let us proclaim by the result of this election, that Alabamians intend to rule Alabama.

The contest in which we are engaged is for rights, dearer than life itself. We cannot, if we would, ground our arms without a loss of our rights and our honor.

The enslavement of ourselves and our children would be the terms of our surrender. In the name of all you hold dear—in the name of all that is noble in man and lovely in woman—arise to the full measure of your manhood, your majesty and your might, and on the 3d of November next, rebuke at the ballot box the merciless usurpers of your liberties and the fell destroyers of your peace, happiness and prosperity.

J. H. CLANTON,
Chairman.

V. S. Murphey, D. S. Troy, B. M. Woolsey, Henry St. Paul, H. A. Herbert, R. H. Powell, R. F. Ligon, M. H. Cruikshank, W. H. Northington, J. G. Harvey, J. H. Francis, J. W. Young, D. Coleman and O. S. Kennedy:
Executive Committee of the Democratic Party of Alabama.

☞More than fifteen thousand Democratic voters of foreign birth, and who had been regularly naturalized, were refused the right of suffrage in Pennsylvania at the late election by the Know Nothing Judges. The admission of their votes alone, without reference to the numerous frauds practiced by the Radicals, would have given the State to the Democracy by a handsome majority. Talk of a Radical victory in Pennsylvania, indeed!

Trouble in Sumter.

[From the Livingston Journal.]

As Mr. Bryant Richardson, living about 4 miles West of Sumterville, in this county, was returning from superintending some plantation work about nightfall on Thursday last, he was attacked by a freedman in his employ named Enoch Brown, alias Townsend, and stabbed in the side, the left lung pierced. The circumstances as related to us by a party who obtained them of Mr. Richardson, are as follows:

As Mr. R. was passing towards his dwelling after putting up his horse, the negro approached him from behind, and struck him on the arm Mr Richardson turned and struck his assailiant with a light stick he had in his hand, which he had been using as a measure, during the day, about some of his work. The negro again struck him, when Mr. Richardson tried to knock him down with the stick alluded to, but it was too light to be effective, and the negro rushed at him and struck him a third time. It was not until the last blow was inflicted, that Mr. Richardson discovered that he had been struck with a knife—the blood flowing into his boot, giving him the first intimation that he had been stabbed.

After inflicting the third and most serious wound, the negro decamped, and Mr. Richardson was properly cared for It was found the wound in his side was a very serious one; and for several days his life was despaired of. At last accounts his condition was favorable, but still critical.

And now comes in homicide, which subsequently created so much excitement, and at one time threatened serious consequences.

As soon as a warrant could be procured, a party of citizens went in pursuit of the assassin; and as it was known that he was in the habit of frequenting the place of the notorious Dr. Chouteau, they went there in quest of him. After searching several negro houses, in a quiet and ordinary manner, without finding him, they proceeded to another, the door of which they found barred—There was one other house which had not been searched, and to avoid forcing an entrance unless necessary to do so, they examined that house first. Subsequently they forced the door that was barred, and entering, were preparing a light, when some one rushed to the chimney, and ascending it jumped down on the outside and ran. Supposing, very naturally, from his strange conduct, that he was the man they were in search of, they ordered him to halt, stating they had a warrant for him. He continued running, they fired on him, and he fell. On going up to the body they discovered it was not that of Brown, but they had killed a freedman known as "Yankee Ben," President of the Sumterville League.

Brown, alias Townsend, was arrested on Friday, however, by two freedmen—Rob. Browning and Rob Thomas, and handed over to the authorities, and on Saturday he was committed to jail, where he now is.

The killing of Yankee Ben, although done through a mistake which under the circumstances could not well have been avoided, and which was regretted by every one, created intense excitement among the negroes, encouraged in it as they were by one or two despicable whites who have long sought to produce a conflict between them and the whites. A freedman disclosed the fact that the League was to meet at the house of Chouteau for the purpose of avenging the killing of Ben; and in consequence, the whites in the neighborhood put themselves in a condition for defence. On Saturday some sixty armed negroes assembled at the place designated, but after remaining until evening, dispersed. Sunday was comparatively quiet; but the next day some 150 negroes assembled at the same place—During the day some dozen citizens went to Chouteau's to hold an inquest over the body of Ben, which had been left unburied for the purpose of inflaming the passions of the negroes. On announcing their purpose, Chouteau informed them they could not hold an inquest unless the jury was composed of negroes; and the negroes present, were very insulting in their demeanor. These facts being communicated, some hundred armed citizens repaired to the spot, when the dispersed and Chouteau became rational. He interposed no further objection, but informed the citizens that if allowed a few days in which to arrange his business, he would leave the neighborhood—he had for some time contemplated doing so, was sorry he had lost the esteem of his neighbors, but would leave if permitted to do so. He was told such a course was unnecessary. He had occasioned much trouble and bad feeling between the blacks and whites—that he was believed to be the indirect cause of the death of Yankee Ben—but he was welcome to remain as a law abiding citizen He repeated his intention to leave, however.

Meantime, the Coroner, Mr B. B. Sanders, learning that the jury of inquest had not been duly sworn, proceeded to Chouteau's and held a formal inquest on Tuesday. And now a new scene is presented.

While the Coroner and jury were performing their duties, Chouteau approached and informed them that 800 armed negroes were advancing at a little distance. On looking, they saw a party of armed negroes approaching, but they were only nineteen in number. Chouteau had stated the day before that Mr. Price of this place, had sent word he would be there with 800 armed negroes. On coming up and being questioned as to their business, they stated they had been sent by Mr. Price to carry some "proper papers" to Chouteau. These papers consisted of two letters from Price, which were read by the Coroner, with the consent of Chouteau. These negroes were all armed, some of them having new Enfield rifles. After delivering the "proper papers," the armed messengers departed, at the suggestion of the Coroner.

At last accounts there was still some excitement existing in the Richardson and Chouteau neighborhood, but no outbreak is apprehended The whites are pursuing a prudent but firm line of conduct, and the blacks have seen enough to satisfy them that discretion is the better part of valor.

LATEST NEWS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Washington, Oct. 17.—Evarts has returned from New York. He had an interview with President Johnson and Gen. Schofield to-day.

Gen. Sherman has issued an order calling attention to the bravery and gallantry of certain officers and men of his command in recent fights with Indians. He makes special mention of Col. Forsythe, who, with his command of forty seven scouts fought and repulsed six hundred Indians in several charges, killing seventy-five and maintaining their position for eight days. A number of privates are also mentioned by name as having shown unusual bravery on different occasions

FROM LOUISIANA.

New Orleans, Oct. 18.—The Sheriff and Probate Judge of St. Mary's Parish, were assassinated at Franklin, La., last night, by parties who escaped without being recognized The Sheriff was killed in his hotel. and the Probate Judge's body was found on the street by the patrol, which was organized immediately after the dicovery of the Sheriff's assassination. The coroner's inquest, which is now progressing, has elicited nothing towards the discovery of the perpetrators. Several men were engaged in this transaction, but they were mounted on horses and escaped in the darkness

FROM MEMPHIS.

Destruction on the River of the Arms Sqipped to Arkansas Radicals.

Memphis, Oct. 18.—The little steamer Hesper, which left here at four o'clock yesterday afternoon, with four thousand stand of arms which, it is alleged, were destined for negroes in Arkansas, returned to this port to-day. Her officers state, that while wooding some twenty-five miles below here, on the Mississippi side, the steam tug Nettie Jones bore in sight with a barge in tow, containg about forty men in disguise, who took possession of the Hesper, placing guards over the pilot and engineer. They then cut the boat loose and steamed up the river. The boxes containing the arms and amunition were then broken open, and the guns were broken and thrown into the river.

After thus disposing of the arms, the party re-embarked on the tug and started up the river. In attempting to go through a chute she grounded. The party went ashore and took the woods.

It is said the party seized the tug below Fort Pickering soon after the Hesper left this port. The affair causes great excitement here.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Radical John Covode Defeated.

The Destruction of Arms below Memphis.

Washington, Oct. 19.—There will be no change of candidates and no third party.

Hon. John Covode, Radical, is defeated for Congress, but will contest.—He claims 300 fraudulent votes.

It is known to the military authorities here that the arms destroyed on the steamer Hesper at Cat Island were purchased by the government of Arkansas and Senator McDonald of that State on speculation, and that the Legislature would buy them. It is not believed that armed resistance is contemplated from the fact that the arms were destroyed and not reserved for use.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, Oct. 19.—The negroes are congregating to-day at Brashear city, La, where it is said one of the men assassinated at Franklin, on Saturday night, will be burried. An arrival from that section reports apprehension of a disturbance, and that families of citizens are being sent to places of safety, the citizens themselves remaining.

The following dispatches has been received at the War Department:

Little Rock, Ark., Oct., 17.

J M. SCHOFIELD, Secretary of War:

The arms purchased for the State were destroyed by an armed band of men, on the Mississippi river. The boat was captured and the arms were thrown overboard. From facts in my possession I am satisfied that armed resistance to the laws are contemplated, in which event the United State forces here would be entirely inadequate to preserve order.

POWELL CLAYTON,
Governor of Arkansas.

President Johnson is reported to have said, when the above dispatch was presented to him, that if the party had contemplated armed resistance, they would not have destroyed the arms and amunition on the Hesper.

The severest gale over known occurred on Lake Huron last Friday night. The only losses reported were two men and a woman and child.

LATER FROM NEW ORLEANS.

New Orleans, Oct. 19.—The body of Sheriff Pope, of St. Mary's Parish, killed at Franklin on Saturday night last, arrived here this evening, in charge of his wife, en route for his home. Pope was formerly Colonel of the 29 Illinois. Clue to the assisin yst. No immediate connection of the two murders with politics except that both were prominent radical leaders.

The reports of families leaving the neighborhood through fear of violence appear unfounded. Parties from there this evening say none have left there on that account, and that quiet prevails throughout. Some excitement existed at first.

Saving Bacon.

EDITOR SOUTHERN CULTIVATOR—In higher latitudes I suppose there is little difficulty in saving bacon, but in this, and South of this, I know that thousands of pounds are, if not total'y, much injured yearly. Hogs of any size should not be killed in unsettled weather. The wind should blow from the Northwest, and ice be, in favorable places, at least half an inch thick, to constitute what we consider a good spell. The operation of killing, scalding, scraping, etc, should be hurried through as rapidly as possible, in order that those who have charge of the lard department, may get the fat in time to finish drying the day of the killing, as this will cause the lard to be sweeter.

The hogs should be cut up as soon as possible, after the day's killing has been accomplished, and every piece covered with all the salt that will lay on it, without falling off, and spread over the smoke house, so that the animal heat may have an opportunity of escaping by morning. Should the weather unexpectedly turn warm, I prefer letting it lay spread until the second morning after being killed, in order to be certain that the animal heat is all out of it. I then have each piece well rubbed with wet salt, on both sides; I wet the salt with boiling red pepper tea Whether the red pepper tea exerts any influence in saving meat, I can't say but even supposing it does not, it gives the meat a good flavor, and by the salt being wet, causes its effects on the meat, to be developed more rapidly, which should be the object in every instance, as ours is a changeable and uncertain climate—cold to-day and warm to-morrow. I use about a teaspoonfull of each, of soda and saltpeter to each joint, sprinkled on the flesh side directly over the bone.—Pack the pork in boxes or hogsheads, as close as possible I use about a sack of Liverpool salt to the thousand pounds of pork, determining that, if my pork does spoil, it shall not be for the want of salt; but it does not spoil, and I have never seen one tainted piece managed in this way. After remaining in salt from three to five weeks, I rub a thick paste composed of finely ground black pepper and cane syrup, over the flesh side of each joint. Over this sprinkle fine meal or flour and dot it with the hand gently as long as it will stick; hang it up. I do not believe a skipper would touch it in five years

Respectfully,
G. W. C. MUNRO.

ALLEGED PLOT TO ASSASSINATE THE PRESIDENT.—The Washington Express of yesterday says:

We have been in possession of all the facts for a day past in reference to a discovered plot to assassinate President Johnson. We understand that these facts have been sent North. We, therefore, feel free to say that Mr. Frank Evans, an employee of the Treasury Department, has exposed a plot arranged since the impeachment trial, to assassinate President Johnson. A man named Heinzerher is accused by Evans as being at the head of the plot The negroes were all sworn to kill the President They meet nightly and take oaths, and have painted mottoes, &c.—We will publish facts in the next edition,

ADMINISTRATOR'S SALE.

BY virtue of an Order of the Probate court of Calhoun county, Alabama, made on the 11th day of May, 1868, I will, as the Administrator of the Estate of Jane B. Alexander, late of Panola county, Mississippi, deceased, offer for sale to the highest bidder, on a credit of twelve months, with interest from date, with note and two approved securities, at public outcry on the premises, on MONDAY the 2nd day of NOVEMBER, 1868, the following described lands, as belonging to said Estate, to-wit:

All the Land lying and being on the west side of Terrapin creek, extending to low water mark on the east side of said creek, known as the Lots or Fractions seventeen and eighteen of Fractional section thirty-four, and Fractions nineteen and twenty of Fractional section thirty-five, in Fractional Township twelve of Range ten east, containing one hundred and twenty acres, more or less—and the north west quarter of section two in township thirteen of Range ten east, and all lying and being on the west side of Terrapin creek in the north east quarter of section two in Fractional Township thirteen of Range ten, containing about eighty acres more or less; and the north east quarter of the north west quarter of section three, in Township thirteen of Range ten east—and also a portion of (quantity not known) lying and being in the north east quarter of section three. Township thirteen, Range ten, known as the Berry old field, containing one hundred acres more or less—this 5th day of October, 1868.

JOHN J. WILSON, Adm'r.

ADMINISTRATOR'S Sale of Land.

UNDER and by virtue of an Order and Decree of the Probate court of Calhoun county, Alabama, rendered on the 6th day of October, 1868, I will proceed to sell upon the premises, on the 2nd day of NOVEMBER, 1868, the following named Lands belonging to the Estate of Langford Hughes, deceased, to-wit: Beginning at the creek on the township line, thence to the dividing line in section 34, thirty-four, thence north to the north east corner of the field, thence west to the creek, including the field fence; thence meandering the creek to the beginning corner on the Township line; being part and parcel of section 34, thirty-four, Township fifteen, of Range nine, containing seventy acres, more or less.

Said Lands to be sold for cash, and any person purchasing the same and failing to comply with the terms of sale, the said Land will be re-sold at the expense of the first purchaser—this 5th Oct. 1868.

THE undersigned COTTON FACTORS AND COMMISSION MERCHANTS of

SAVANNAH, GEORGIA,

Take pleasure in notifying the public that arrangements have been effected for storing or shipping by steam or sail direct to European and American ports, the cotton crop of those sections the natural outlet of which is through our port; and hope, in affording every facility to receive a heavy increase over the large consignments of last season. We confidently express the belief that our city will be one of the best cotton markets this season in the United States.

POETRY.

SMILE AND BE CONTENTED.

The world grows old, and men grow cold,
To each while seeking treasure,
And what with want, and cares and toils
We scarce have time for pleasure;
But never mind, that is a loss
Not much to be lamented;
Life rolls on gaily, if we will
But smile and be contented.

If we are poor, and would be rich,
It will not be by pinnig;
No; steady hearts and hopeful minds
Are life's bright silvery lining.
There's never a man that dared to hope
Hath of his choice repented;
The happiest souls on earth are those
Who smile and be contented.

When grief doth come to rack the heart,
And fortune bids us sorrow,
From hope we may a blessing read,
And consolation borrow.
If thorns may rise and roses bloom,
It cannot be prevented;
So make the best of life you can,
And smile and be contented.

MAKE THE BEST OF IT.

Life is but a fleeting dream,
Care distroys the zest of it !
Swift it glideth like a stream—
Mind you make the best of it,
Talk not of your weary woes
Troubles, or the rest of it;
If we have but brief repose,
Let us make the best of it.

If your friend has got a heart,
There is something fine in him;
Cast away his darker part,
Cling to what's divine in him.
Friendship is our best relief,
Make no heartless jest of it;
It will bgrihten every grief,
If we make the best of it.

The Postmater General has ordered that from the first day of January next, the registration fee on all letters registered in and addressed to any part of the United States shall be fifteen instead of twenty cents. the same to be in all cases fully pré-paid in postage stamps, affixed to the letter, and cancelled. The present rate will continue until New Year's day. On the first day of October, the Postoffice Department opened 255 additional money order postoffices, making 1,463 in all. The amount of money transmitted during the fiscal year just closed is about $15,000,000, as against $9,000,000, the previous year.

Arkansas Affairs.

A correspondent of the Louisville Courier writes:

Political affairs begin to wax warm in Arkansas. The Democracy is moving in solid, harmonious columns, and will make a good report in November next. The Radicals are resorting to all kinds of chicanery to prevent Democrats from registering, but I am glad to know that they are taking the iron-clad oath and demanding their rights under the law manfully. They are also taking great pains in instructing the negroes, and thousands of colored people are leagues and enlisting in the Democratic clubs.

The Result in Pennsylvania.

It is almost certain that under the unofficial advice of the Radical members of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, all voters holding naturalization papers issued in September were stricken from the Registry by the Radical inspectors of election. The plea for such actions was based upon a charge that false naturalization papers had been issued. This charge was not made until a week ago, when it was too late for a new registration for the October election.

It is estimated that, by this Radical trick, not less than ten thousand Democratic votes were excluded from the polls in the single city of Philadelphia. That is the number as set down in a telegraphic dispatch to the New-York Herald.

Had it not been for this bold, flagrant and fraudulent usurpation of power on the part of the Radical inspectors of election, the State of Pennsylvania would have given the Democracy the majority which they expected, and which the Radicals conceded just before the election.

In the November election, the Democrats will see that the people are not cheated out of their votes.—Montgomery Mail.

To Adjourn.

Before another issue of this paper the mock Legislature will be gone from the capitol. We congratulate the people of the State on the happy fact.—They are to come back early in November, but during the brief intermission no more outrages in the name of law will be perpetrated. To the few Democratic members present, and the still fewer Republicans who had a little regard for the poor old State, are we indebted for the fight they made in opposition to the iniquitous legislation that has been hurried through both branches. It relieved one member from the penalties of bigamy, and another from the disability imposed upon office holding by having been convicted of felony. It takes away from Grand Juries the right to examine the bonds of officers and leaves it discretionary with carpet-bag-officials to accept straw bonds not worth the paper they were written on.

It perpetuated its own existence far beyond the legal time for which it was elected, and will in the course of five months receive mileage going and coming three times, and still desire an increase of pay. Its own members acknowledge a pecuniary interest in measures for which they were voting, and did not pretend to have a higher motive in what they did than to benefit the Republican party. The rights of employers are set aside, and their property left at the mercy of employees.—Elections are made a farce of, and any one who challenges a minor or a penitentiary convict is to be find and imprisoned. The catalogue of crimes committed by them is too long to attempt an enumeration. Again we congratulate the State on their deliverance, for a few weeks at least, from the degradation and disgrace of the carpet-bag Legislature!—Montgomery Adv., 11th

May 30, 1868.—3m.

THE GREAT Southern Preparations

COMPRISE a class of pure and select Family Medicines, prepared from pure Drugs, by a class of experienced Southern Physicians, specially for the diseases incident to a Southern locality.

They and not secret nor patent mixtures, and are recommended to be used in lieu of those prepared by our Northern friends, who know but little about Southern treatment.

Ours is the only class of Family Medicines ever offered to the public which were prepared by the Medical Profession.

FEMALES OF THE SOUTH.

Diseases peculiar to your sex, incident to all localities, culled from the passing breeze that fans you with its perfumed breath, or snatched from some pendant dew-drop, are to you a constant and abiding trouble. Whether an inhabitant of city or country, hill or dale, palace or hovel, disease rankles and preys upon your vitals. Gloom and despair are your constant companions Your pale and ghastly countenance, your colorless cheeks, your lifeless eye, your feeble and tottering walk, your palpitating heart, your dejected brow, all tell of that disease which is gradually and steadily making inroads upon your declining system.

The Sunshine of Hope

Now bursts upon your vision, and the clouds of despair that hangs as a heavy pall of gloom upon your brow can be driven back, and the bright visions of health, in all its grandeur, are offered you. DROMGOOLE & CO'S

ENGLISH FEMALE BITTERS

Is the only combination that actually and positively arouses and restores the womb to its natural healthy condition. It removes all unnatural obstructions, relieves painful or suppressed Menstruation, cures Leucorrhœa or Whites, Falling of the Womb, Hysteries, Chlorisis, Palpitation, Nervousness, Swimming and Giddiness of the Head, Melancholy, Ulceration and Irritation of the Womb, Derangements of the Kidneys and Bladder, and all diseases that are peculiar to the female sex —afflicting old or young, married or single. Send and get one bottle, it will do you good.

YOUR LIFE BLOOD

Must be changed in order to be relieved of that troublesome class of diseases requiring pure blood. DROMGOOLE & CO'S

Constitutional Monarch

Is recognized by the Medical Profession as the BEST and most CERTAIN Blood Purifier now before the public, and why? Simply because it is composed of the best medicines for that purpose, viz: Stillingia, Yellow Dock, Sarsaparilla, Burdock, and Iodide of Potash. For Scrofula, Cutaneous Eruptions, Skin Diseases, Gout, Rheumatism, Glandular Tumors, and Swellings, old Ulcers and Sores, Constitutional Derangements, etc., it acts like a charm.

DROMGOOLE & CO.'S

Fluid Ext. Bearberry, Cubebs and Buchu,

A highly concentrated medicinal compound, expressly for affections of the KIDNEYS & BLADDER, such as Incontinence, Frequent Desire to Urinate, Urinary Deposits, Thick or Milky Urine, Effects of early Dissipation, Nervous Trembling, Gravel, Gout, Pains in the Back, Chest, Loss of energy, Strangury, and all affections requiring a quick and reliable Diuretic.

In all cases of a want of action on the part of the Kidneys and Bladder, affecting old or young, male or female, this compound can be relied on.

CHILLS AND FEVER

Can be easily cured by using one Bottle of Dromgoole & Co.'s KING OF CHILLS, which never fails to arouse the Liver, cleanse the Stomach, open the Bowels and relieve the most invetcrate cases of Chills. One Bottle will cure a case of six months standing.

DROMGOOLE & CO.'S

Red Diarrhœa Remedy,

The most certain and effectual cure for all forms of Diarrhœa, Nausea and Vomiting, Cramps, Cholera Morbus, pain in Stomach, summer complaint of children while teething, etc. It is exceeding pleasant, cools and quiets the stomach, is not an alcoholic preparation, contains no kino, catechu, galls, tannin, logwood, etc. It imparts tone to the already debilitated stomach and bowels, and no family should be without a bottle. It never fails to cure.

PILES! PILES!!

Why is it you continue to suffer with Piles, when the remedy to cure you can be so easily obtained? Do not suffer another day; send immediately and procure one box of Dromgoole & Co.'s PILE SALVE and be cured Internal or external Piles, whether recent or long standing can be cured immediately.

Cannot Southern Physicians cure the Piles as well as any one else? Try our remedy, then,

Those Who Do Not Think

Gray hairs honorable, can have them restored to their natural color without staining the skin or scalp. It does not dye the hair, but simply RESTORES to its former color, and at the same time prevents it from falling off, cleanses the scalp of all dandruff and scurf, imparts a beautiful gloss and comes as near restoring hair to the bald as any other preparation. It is Dromgoole & Co's Tonic Hair Restorer; It is warranted.

THE GREAT SOUTHERN PREPARATIONS, as a class of Family Medicines should be used by every body.

AUTUMN BLOSSOMS.

How was it that I came to beau old bachelor? Not because of hating women, I am sure, for I liked them very much, and never could have spoken to one rudely or discourteously for my life. As nearly as I know, it was in this wise:

My father died, leaving a family of children, a wife, and an old father and mother, of whom only myself was able to earn a shilling. He had never saved anything.

So, after the first great grief, when we had calmed down and were able to look matters quietly in the face, there was a wretched sort of prospect for us. I was only an accountant, and had a young fellow's habit of wasting my small salary in a thousand different ways.—I had been "paying attention," too, to Elsie Hall, who, young and childish as she was, had a way that some girles do have of leading their admires into extravagance. Of all the trials of that never to be forgotetn time, I think the greatest was appearing nigardly in those baby blue eyes. I did not mind wearing plain suits, discarding kid gloves, and renouncing the opera: but not to lay those bouquets, and books, and music, and dainty bits of jewerly, and multitudinous trifles at Elsie's feet was a very terrible ordeal. I passed it, though; and if ever man had reason to be thankful I had, for the acquisitive little beauty jilted me in a month for Tom Tandem, who was rich and lavish of gifts, and who ran away from her, after a marriage of ten months.

I worked day and night, and managed to keep the wolf from the door

Sometimes I used to think how well it was for Elsie that she had not really loved me, for she could have had nothing but a dismal prospect of wearing out her youth in a dreary, hopeless engagement to one too poor to marry.—That was until Tom ran off. Then I thought it would have been even better for her to have shared our humble home and poor fare and the love I could have given her, than to be deserted so.—And pitied her, as if she had not proved herself heartless. But I never went near her, of course; and I never even spoke of her to my mother.

I grew no yrunger all this while, and every year seemed to add five to my locks. I had never been very handsome or very merry; and soon I became conscious of a peculiar middle aged look, which settles down upon some people very early.

Strangers, too, began to take me for the head of the family; and once, in a new neighborhood, the butcher alluded to "my wife." I found out that he meant my mother, and only wondered that it was not dear old grannie.

She was eighty, grandfather ninety, and they died one bright autumn day, before prosperity came to us; died within an hour of each other—for grannie just said, "I think I'll lie down a bit, now Lemuel don't need me. I'm very tired."

Then she kissed me, and said, You've been a good boy to your grandpa, Edward. You'll have that to think of."

And when next we looked at her she was dead, with her cheek upon her hand like a sleeping child.

So two were gone, and we were sadder than before. And then Jean, my eldest sister, married at sixteen a physician, who carried her off to Hindostan in her honeymoon.

And we could none of us feel the wedding a happy thing,

But prosperity did come at last. I had worked hard for it, and anything a man makes his sole object in his life, he is very sure to attain

We were comfortable—easy Ah, what a word that is after years of struggle! At last, we were rich. But by that time I was five and forty—a large, dark, middle-aged man, with a face that looked to myself in the glass as though it were perpetually intent on figures.—The girls were married. Dick had taken to the sea, and we saw him once a year or so; and Ashton was at home with mother and myself—the only really handsome member of our family, and just two-and-twenty. And it was on his birth-day, I remember, that that letter came to me from poor Hunter—that letter which began:—"When these lines reach you, Ned Sanford, I shall have my six feet of earth—all I ever owned, or would if I had lived to be a hundred."

We had been young together, though he was really older than I; and we had been close friends once, but a roving fit had seized him, and we had not met for years. I knew he had married a young Scotish girl, and knew no more, but now he told me that she was dead, and that his death would leave a daughter an orphan.

"She is not quite penniless," he wrote; "for her mother had a little income, which, poor as I was, I was never brute enough to meddle with, and it has decended to her. But I have been a rolling stone, gathering no moss all my life, and we have never staid long enough in one place to make friends.—Will you be her guardian? it is a dying man's last request—"

And then he wrote some words, coming from his heart, I knew, which, being of myself, I cauno quote even here—I could not think that I deserved them

And the result of that letter, and of another from the lawyer who had Annie Hunter's little fortune in charge, was that one soft spring day found me on board of a great steamer which lay at rest after her voyage in the protecting arms of Liverpool, with two little hands in mine, and a pair of great brown eyes lifted to my face, and a sweet voice choked with sobs saying something of "poor papa," and of how much he had spoken of me, and of the lovely voyage, and the green graves left behind; and I, who had gone to meet a child and found a woman, lookin at her and feeling towards her as I had never looked upon nor felt to any other.

Not to Elsie Hall. It was not the boyish love-dream come again.

Analyzing the emotion, I found only a great longing to protect and comfort her—to guard her from every pain and ill; and I said to myself, "This is as a father must feel to a daughter; I can be a parent to George Hunter's child in very truth." And I took her home to the old house and to my old mother. I thought only of those; somehow, I never thought of Ashton.

Shall I ever forget how she brightened the sombre rooms! How, as her sadnes wore away, she sang to us in the twilight! How strangely a something which made the return home, and the long hours of the evening, seem so much brighter than they had ever been before, stole into my life! I never went to sleep in church now; I kept awake to look at Oliver Hunter—to listen to her pure contralto as she joined in the singing. Sometimes I caught her eye, her great unfathomable brown eye, for she had a habit of looking at me. Was she wandering how a face could be so stern and grim? I used to ask myself.

Ashton used to look at her also. He had been away when she first came to us, and when he returned she was a grand surprise to him.

"Oh, how lovely she is!" he had said to me.

"She is very pretty," I replied.

Ashton laughed.

"May I never be an old bacheler if it brings me to calling such a girl "very pretty," he said; and I left conscious that my cheek flushed, and left angry that he shold have spoken of me thus, though I had never cared before. They liked each other very much—those two young things. They were together a great deal. A pretty picture they made in the Venetian window in the sunset. He a fair-haired, blue-eyed, Saxon-looking youth; she so exquisitely dark and glowing.

Every one liked her. Even my old clerk, Stephen Hadley, used to say her presence lit the office more than a dozen lamps, the nearest approach to a poetical speech of which old Stephen was ever known to be guilty; and I never knew how much she was to me until one evening, when, coming home earlier than usual, I saw in that Venetian window where Ashton and Olive had made so many pleasant pictures for me, one that I never forget—that I never shall forget as long as I live.

She stood with her back to me.—Ashton was kneeling at her feet. The sound of the opening door dissolved the picture; but I had seen it, and I stole away to hide the stab that it had given me.

I sat down in my own room, and hid my face in my hands, and would have been glad to hide it beneath my coffin-lid. I knew now that I loved Olive Hunter; that I loved her not as an old man might love a child, but as a young man might love the woman who ought to be his wife—better than I loved Elsie Hall; for it was not boyish passion, but earnest, heartfelt love.

I in love! I arose, and looked in the mirror, and my broad-shouldered reflection blushed before my gaze.

The spring-time of my life had flown, and my summer had come and gone, and in the autumn I had dream of love's bud and blossom.

I knelt beside my bed, and prayed that I might not hate my brother—that I might not even envy him. His touch upon my door startled me. He came in with something in his manner not usual to him, and sat down opposite me. For a few moments we were silent.—Then he said,—speaking rapidly and blushing like a girl,—"Ned, old fellow, you—you saw me making a fool of myself just now, I suppose?"

"I saw you on your knees," I said.

"And thought me a silly fellow, eh? But you don't know, Ned. You can't understand—you've been so calm all and cool all your life though, you know She's driving me mad Ned, I do believe she likes me, but she won't say yes. I'd give my right hand for her love. I must have it, and I think you can help me, Ned. From something she said, I believe she thinks you would disapprove; pehaps that you are one of those old fellows who want every one to marry for money. Tell her you're not, Ned,—dear old fellow,—tell her you have no objection, and I'll never forget it—indeed, I won't!"

"Tell her I have no objection," I repeated mechanically.

"You know you are master here, and as much my father as if you really were one instead of a brother," said Ashton. "If I did not know how kindly you had always felt to us both, I shouldn't confide in you, for it's a serious thing to be in love, Ned, and you may thank heaven you know nothing of it."

Know nothing of it! Ah, if he could have read my heart just then!

"I'll do what I can, Ashton," I said at last, "I'll try my best."

And he flung his arms about me in his own boyish fashion, and left me alone—alone with my own thoughts.

He had said truly, I had been like a father to him. I was old enough to be hers, and no one should know my silly dream. I would hide it while I lived. As I had said once, "I've only the old folks and the children now," I said then, "I will only think of mother and of Ashton. Let my own life be as nothing; I have lived for them—if needs be, I will die for them."

But I would not see or speak to Olive that night, nor until the next day was quite done. Then, in the twilight, I sat beside her and took her hand.

"Olive," I said, "I think you know that Ashton loves you. I am sure he has told you so. And you—can you not love him?"

She drew her hands from mine, and said not one word.

"I should rejoice in my brother's happiness. I should think him happier in having your love than anything else could make him," I said. "I told him I would tell you so."

And then she spoke.

"You wish me to marry Ashton?"

Reproach was in the tone—reproach and sorrow.

"If you can love him, Olive," I said.

She rose. She seemed to shrink from me, though in the dark I could not see her face.

"I do not love him," she said.

And we were still as death. Then suddenly Olive Hunter began to sob.

"You have been very kind to me.—I love you all," she said; "but I cannot stay here now. Please to let me go somewhere else. I must—I cannot live here."

"Go from us, Olive?" "Nay, we are no tyrants; and once assured you do not love him, Ashton will—"

"Hush!" she panted—"Hush! Please let me go away! Please let me go away!"

The moon was rising. Her new-born light fell upon Olive's face. Perhaps its whiteness made her look so pale.

She leant against the wall with her little hand upon her heart, her unfathomable eyes full of pain. How had I hurt her so? A new thonght struck me.

"Perhaps you love some one else, Olive?"

And at that she turned her face from me, and hid it in her hands.

"Too much—too much. You might have spared me that," she said. "Let me go away. I wish you had never brought me here."

And I arose and went to her. I bent over the woman I loved. I touched her with my hand; her soft hair brushed my cheek.

"Olive," I said, "if coming here has brought pain upon you, I wish I had not. I would have died to make you happy"

And my voice trembled, and my hand shook, and she turned her face towards me again looked into my eyes. What she saw in mine I do not know,—the truth, I think. In hers I read this; I was not old to her; not too old to be loved.

I stole my arm about her; she did not untwine it. I uttered her name, "Olive," huskily. Afterwards, I told her of my struggle with myself, not then.—I said, "Olive, I love you, but it cannot be that you care for me. I am old enough to be your father."

And again I saw in her eyes the happy truth, and took her to my heart.

But we kept our secret for a while, for we both loved Ashton, and both knew that his wound was not too deep to find a balm, and within a year, when the boy brought home a bride, a pretty creature whom he loved, and who loved him, I claimed Olive.

And she is mine now; and the autumn blossoms of my heat will only fade on earth to bloom again through all eternity in paradise.

A bore—the man who persists in talking about himself when you wish to talk about yourself.

Jacksonville Republican.

JACKSONVILLE ALABAMA,
TUESDAY, OCT. 31, 1868.

FOR PRESIDENT,

HON. HORATIO SEYMOUR
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT,

GEN. FRANK P. BLAIR,
OF MISSOURI.

Democratic Electoral Ticket

For Electors for President and Vice President of the United States.

Peter M Dox, of Madison.
W H F Randall, of Dallas.
Joseph Groves, of Dallas.
Lewis Owen, of Montgomery.
J H Davis, of Randolph.
E P Jones, of Fayette.
W T H Brooks, of Madison.
F W Sykes, of Lawrence.

COTTON SEED WANTED.

15 cents per Bushel will be paid in subscription to the Republican, for Cotton Seed delivered in a few weeks.

☞We commence the publication this week of a market report of Jacksonville, to be corrected weekly by the accurate and reliable firm of J. B. Turnley & Co. This will be a new feature of interest and value to our paper, and a great convenience to our readers, which we are sure will be duly appreciated.

E. L. WOODWARD & SON are still receiving New Goods. They have a large, varied and beautiful stock, which they are selling right cheap, too, to suit the times. Go see for yourself.

INCREASE OF TRADE IN JACKSONVILLE.—We are much gratified in being able to state that the trade of our Town has increased considerably for several months past, and is still on the increase. The completion of the Railroad to and on north of this place, has no doubt contributed to a considerable extent to this result. Among other causes, we may also state, that there is not now the same opportunities for the investment of capital, as in former years.—Our Merchants and Grocers too, with commendable enterprize and liberality have laid in unusually large stocks of Goods and Groceries, and have their business arrangements for constant additions to keep their stocks and variety full. Our Town is also favored with first class business men—men of enterprise, integrity and liberality, who are contented with reasonable profits, and who are able to convince the people that they can do as well and even better by encouraging home trade, than going to a distance. Our people generally too are becoming fully aroused to the interest and necessity of encouraging home industry and trade of every description.

WANTED,

1,000 Turkeys & Chickens,

For which the highest market price will be given in cash or Groceries, by
J. B. TURNLEY & Co.

☞Call and sample some of the very superior Chewing Tobacco, just received by J. B. Turnley & Co. Notwithstanding the very fine quality they sell it low.

J. M. CARROLL & CO.

IS now receiving a large and splendid stock of GOODS. If you want nice Goods, Good Goods, and CHEAP GOODS, call soon and get them.
Oct. 24th, 1868.

☞COL. P. ROWAN gives notice in this paper of the reception of an unusually large and varied stock of Fall & Winter Goods, which he is offering at his usual reasonable rates.

Call and examine his stock, and you can judge for yourselves, both as to quality and price.

No Commission Charged.

J. B. Turnley & Co., will ship Cotton for Planters to any market desired, charging no commission, and only 2½ per cent. Commission will be charged for selling.

Salt! Salt!!

For Sale by WOODWARD & SON.

☞We expect in our next to be able to give a sufficiency of election news to settle the question as to who is is elected President and Vice-President.

Should important news reach us on Wednesday evening we will send it out in advance to our patrons in an extra.

☞Notice notice of sale of valuable Lands, by Geo. I. Turnley, Adm.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.
Oct. 24th, 1868.

Pursuant to an adjourned meeting, the citizens of Jacksonville, interested in the erection of the Calhoun College Buildings, met this evening at 3 o'clock, P. M.

Judge M. J. Turnley presiding, called the House to order. A petition signed by many citizens was presented by D P. Forney, asking that nine Trustees be elected, and duly incorporated, who should be an incorporate body, under the name and style of the "Trustees of the Calhoun College," privileged to "sue and be sued"

The petition being unanimously adopted, and the meeting having been called to elect Trustees the following were each put in nomination and unanimously elected, viz: E. L. Woodward, Sr., D. P Forney, Horace L. Stevenson, Peyton Rowan, Jno H. Caldwell, Jas B. Turnley, Samuel W. Crook, J. Y. Nesbit, W. H. Fleming.

It was resolved that the Trustees hold office for the space of one year—The Ch'm. earnestly requested the Trustees to be zealous in the discharge of their duties and hasten the good work.

Resolved that the Republican be requested to copy. The meeting adjourned sine die.

H. L. STEVENSON, Sec'y.

The Trustees met on Monday the 26th inst.

On motion Col. Caldwell, E. L. Woodward, Sr. was nominated and unanimously elected by acclamation, President of Board of Trustees—H. L. Stevenson elected Sec'y, Peyton Rowan Treasurer, and D. P. Forney, corresponding Sec'y. The business of the meeting being duly attended to, it was recommended and earnestly desired by the Board, that the citizens of Jacksonville and vicinity all assemble at an early hour on next Monday night, the 2nd of Nov., at the Jacksonville Female Academy to discuss the matter fully.

It is very much desired that all the Ladies, young and old, encourage the meeting by their enlivening presence and prettiest smiles.

Let all interested in the cause of truth, education, and improvement of the young, be in attendance without respect to party, age or sex.

H. L. STEVENSON, Sec'y.
Board of Trustees, Calhoun College.

Hunting Sympathy.

There is a paper published at Yazoo City, Miss., called the Democrat. A Boston editor sent his paper down for exchange with the Mississippi man, and was greeted in the followin style Notwithstanding the vein of humor that runs through the article, it tells, alas! too much truth with regard to outrages in the South, while at the same time it exposes the philanthropy of a certain class of Yankees who are full of (mock) sympathy for a people thousands of miles away, who have struggled to free themselves from oppression, and as full of real hatred for the Southern people, who have been guilty of no greater crime:

Montgomery Mail

A prying Yankee sheet, a wandering carpet bagger of a paper, has impudently lit upon our reading desk It boasts the classical name of "The Cretan," and is "Barston" all over. It advocates aid for Turk oppressed Crete, and invokes the indignation of a world upon the Moslem monsters. It publishes a four colum list of outrages, specifying each —112 in number—and comes down South for sympathy. Come South to talk about 112 outrages! You hypocritical, blue nosed son of an onion! You pumpkinfed blatherskite! You woman-burning, child hanging; bigger loving, cotton stealing, bond holding blast of the Devil! Where in the name of thunder is Crete anyhow! A little dirt and rocks that a small freedman might carry in his shirt tail, jammed away in a corner of the Mediterranean sea.—You want a Cretan Bureau, don't you, to be supported by American taxes.

Four hundred and twelve outrages! Why we have forty-seven million of them to the square inch, in these regions. They are as plentiful here as preachers, temperance lecturers, moral ideas, harlots and child murders are in "Barston." We are so accustomed to "foil" outrages that we thank a man for a slight insult and take a small robbery as a special favor, and feel like giving a dollar to every nigger who allows us half the pavement.

"Outrages?" "Outrages?" Why the city of "Barston" is an outrage to begin with. This radical government is an outrage. Its desperate taxation is an outrage. The reconstruction law of Congress is an outrage. Congress itself is an outrage on decency. The expulsion of the Governor of Mississippi and his wife from their house by a Yankee General with a "Barston" name, is an infernal outrage. The burning of the Tuscumbia Academy by the 'loyal' league was an outrage. The carpet-bag and negro attack upon Camilla was an outrage. Their attack upon Opelousas was an outrage. Their late riot in New Orleans was an outrage. Gen. Meade and his sweat box are an outrage, with Joe Brown for its tail. Taking four thousand stand of arms to the wild negroes of Arkansas is a diabolical outrage. The seizure of our crops and property, and the interference with our private affairs by "Bureau Agents" are insufferable outrages. The slave trade carried on by Yankees from Mobile to Cuba is an outrage.

A large number of the outrages in "Cretan's" list, are rapes and ravishings of women. We can beat them a thousand to one. Nearly every Southern paper contains accounts of a half dozen committed by negroes on white women. A few days since the carpet-bag Governor of Virginia pardoned two who had just been sentenced to the penitentiary for that very offence. It is a virtue in the eyes of carpet-baggers, and they encourage it.

The only aid we can give these Cretans is to warn them against Yankees. Stick to the Turk every time. We wish we could swap with you. He may be cruel but he is not mean. The Yankees are both. They will send school marms and carpet baggers to you—they will have Anna Dickinson and old Susan Anthony after you—they will make pictures about your outrages and keep them ever fresh; they will sell them (and you too) and barter your woes for money.

Now you "Barston" fellow, we give you this editorial notice and send it to you marked. It is all we can do for you We wish it were more—some ramping, tearing, raging, flaying outrage upon your sleek carcass. Keep your paper away from us. Don't send it any more. The South wants none of your whining about outrages in Crete.

May you go to the devil with Ben Butler, be boxed in a red hot stolen cooking stove, and drink melted spoons forever.

MAJOR JAMES CROOK filled his appointment to speak in this city, on yesterday. Notwithstanding a lowering sky, his audience was respectable in numbers as well as character. He spoke for about an hour and a half in an able and eloquent exposition of the principles of the Democratic and Radical parties He exposed the corruption of the Radical Rump, in their hideous light, its outrageous usurpations and gradual absorption of all the powers of the Government in utter disregard of constitutional restraints and of the rights of the States and liberties of the people.—Arguing from the past conduct of the Radical party, and their declared policy, he depicted in vivid colors the ruin of all our civil liberties, which would result from the election of their candidates and the perpetuation of their power; and eloquently appealed to the Democracy to rally to the support of their candidates, for the reestablishment of constitutional government and the restoration of civil liberty, and peace, prosperity and happiness. To this end, he earnestly exhorted every true son of Alabama to register and vote for Seymour and Blair. His audience manifested their appreciation of his remarks by frequent applause.

A. WOODS, Judge of Probate.

Opportunity to Register.

Our friends should keep in mind the the following section of the Registration Act:

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That the assistant registrar shall cause an assistant to be present at each polling place on the day of election to register such electors as may have failed, from sickness or other disability, to attend on the day of registration.

Whoever may have been prevented from registering at an earlier day, whether by sickness or any other disability, may do so on the day of election. Any other disability may be from want of time, want of information as to the necessity of registering, want of time to examine into the meaning of the oath, absence from home, pressing business, or from any other cause. Every man who may not have registered, should not fail to do so on the day of election.

Montgomery Mail.

REMEMBER that the vote of Alabama may decide the Presidential Election, and the vote of Calhoun County may decide the election in Alabama.

Your failure to vote will be virtually aiding your opponents.

THE LARGEST ADVERTISING CONTRACT give out in 1868, and probably the largest ever given to one advertising firm at one time, is that of the proprietors of PLANTATION BITTERS to GEO. P. ROWELL & Co., Advertising Agents, No. 40 Park Row, New York, on the 18th of Sept., for $42 776 26.

Messrs. P. H. Drake & Co. have for years been among the largest, if not the largest, advertisers in America, and the contract mentioned above is but a small part of their expenditure in this way for the Present year. It is only those who have tried printers' ink most extensivly that are so firmly convinced of its efficacy

The Advertising Agency which is sending out this order is another example. It commenced buisness less than five years since, and the fact that it now controls a greater advertising patronage than any similar establishment, is without doubt to be attributed to their having expended more money in advertising themselves and their facilities within that time than all other advertising firms put together, since the establishment of the first agency a quarter of a century since.

LATEST NEWS.

BLOODY RIOT IN NEW ORLEANS.

NINE MEN KILLED.

New Orleans, Oct. 25.—A serious disturbance occurred in this city last night the origin of whic is difficult to discover.

A number of clubs, both white and negro, were parading the streets in different parts of the city A number of negro clubs passed up St. Charles street and out into Canal street, very noisy and disorderly. The Picayune state that the negro clubs insulted the white democratic clubs by marching in their rear, and that the first shot fired came from a colored club, wounding slightly a white man named Richardson. At all events a great fight began on Canal street, between Carondelet and Baronne, in which a number of shots were fired. The night continued three blocks, when the negroes fled. Two negroes were killed between Baronne and Dryades streets, on Canal street, and one dangerously wounded. One negro was crushed to death under foot. Another negro was killed on the corner of Canal and Basin streets, and one or two more further out on Canal street.

About midnight, scattered firing was head in all parts of the city.

No white men were killed on Canal street, though several were wounded who were taken home by their friends.

A white man was killed while standing quietly near a negro club room, on Camp street.

Another white man was killed and horribly butchered, with an axe, on Melpomene street, by negroes.

One white man was accidetally killed by his own friends on St. Charles street. Coroner Roach, of the First District, held eight inquests this morning—three whites and five negroes.

Another dead negro has been reported in the Second District, making nine fatal casualities.

The whites killed were each of them more than a mile from the first disturbance.

The disturbance began about 10 o'clock. At 11 o'clock Canal street was crowded with excited whites, who dispersed quietly when a squadron of cavalry approached upon the scene.

The stores on the corner of Baronne and Canal streetss are marked by bullets, as if by a skirmish-fire

Washington, Oct. 25.—President Johnson has written General Ewing a long letter covering the history of the public debt and predicting ruin from continuance of present policy.

LATER FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Serious Trouble in St. Bernard Parish.

Terrible State of Affairs.

Radical Negroes Murdering People and Burning Houses!

Women and Children Murdered and their Bodies Burned With the Houses.

Etc., Etc., Etc.

New Orleans, Oct. 29.—The city has all day been filled with rumors of troubles in St. Bernard Parish, adjoining New Orleans, below the city.

From information brought to headquarters by the sheriff of the parish, it appears that a difficulty occurred yesterday on the occasion of a public display by a couple of Democratic Clubs, in which one white man was wounded and two negros were killed, one being a member of the new Metropolitan Police force. At night the negroes congregated and proceeded in a body to the house of a Spanish baker, killing him, his son, and sister-in-law, and burning his house, his wife escaping with her child in her arms. Two other houses reported burned, one with four children reported killed.

Rumors are various and conflicting as to the extent of the outrage.

Many of the white inhabitants of the parish have deserted their houses and fled to this city.

Early this morning, upon the first notification of the trouble, Gen Buchanan ordered a company of Infantry to march down the river.

Later in the day, Gen Buchanan dispatched another company of the First Infantry on the steamer Ella Morse, instructing the officers in charge to arrest all the ringleaders of the disturbance who could be found.

It is currently reported this evening that the first body of Infantry was attacked, but by whom it has not been ascertained.

Staff officers have been dispatched to investigate the matter.

When the rumors spread this morning, large numbers of white men congregated on the Levee in the lower part of the city, and chartered three steam tugs to carry them to the scene of action, but were prevented from leaving the city by Gen Rousseau, as a sufficient number of troops had been sent to enforce order.

The disturbed condition of affairs deterred the internal Bevenue officials from entering the parish to-day to discharge their duties.

New York, Oct. 29.—San Blas has been nearly destroyed by a hurricane. Four lives were lost.

There have been heavy floods in Chili.

Unnatural phenomena continue throughout South America.

At Talcahuana the heat of the water cooked fish.

A LECTURE

TO YOUNG MEN.

Just Published, in a Sealed Envelope. Price six cents.

A Lecture on the Nature, Treatment and Radical Cure of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Emissions, Sexual Debility, and Impediments to Marriage generally; Nervousness, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits; Mental and Physical Incapacity, resulting from Self-Abuse, &c.—By ROBERT J. CULVERWELL, M. D., Author of the "Green Book," &c.

The world-renowned author, in this admirable Lecture, clearly proves from his own experience that the awful consequences of Self-abuse may be effectually removed without medicine and without dangerous surgical operations, bougies, instruments, rings, or cordials, pointing out a mode of cure at once certain and effectual, by which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically. THIS LECTURE WILL PROVE A BOON TO THOUSANDS AND THOUSANDS.

Sent under seal, to any address, in a plain sealed envelope, on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publishers,

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR HOME PURPOSES.

TAKEN INTERNALLY—Half a teaspoonful diluted in water, is a pleasant drink—stimulating and strengthening.

APPLIED EXTERNALLY—When there is pain or inflammation, affords instant ease.

STOPS PAIN quicker than morphine, chloroform, opium, or any other anodyne known to the world.

IF SUDDENLY SEIZED with pain, one teaspoonful in a glass of water, will, in a few minutes, remove all uneasiness.

PERSONS SUBJECT to apoplexy, heart disease, headaches, sudden faintings, should keep the Relief near them; a teaspoonful in water, will, in three minutes, remove all difficulty.

RADWAY'S READY RELIEF

IN ITS SIMPLICITY AND GRANDEUR.

R. R. R.

We will first consider in its capacity as a specialty our far-famed remedy Radway's Ready Relief, symbolized throughout the civilized world under the significant alliteration R. R. R. This remedy is happily possessed of properties that give immediate and positive proof of its excellence, that the most skeptical can feel its power in a few seconds, especially where the sufferer is the victim of excruciating pain. It is not a question with this remedy of time it takes to remove the perception or sensation of pain, or of the cost; for the moment it is applied to the part of the body where pain exists the patient is relieved. And if the pain is from an established disease, a cure will soon follow.

The Ready Relief is a vegetable remedy. It is pure, safe, and innocent. It is quicker in subduing pain and making the patient comfortable than Morphine, Chloroform, Ether, Opium, or any other agent. Its simplicity of application renders it a valuable household necessity, and its usefulness covers the entire range of family accidents that are liable to occur at any moment. The Ready Relief should be kept in every house, for if any injury or accident occurs to child or grown person, its use will prove of immediate service. It matters not what the difficulty may be. Burn, Scald, Fall, Bruise, Cut, Wound, Poison, Sprain, Strains, Pain, Ache, Cough, Cold, Croup, and a hundred other annoyances that are constantly taking place in every family, this READY RELIEF will, in a few minutes, prove its value. If suddenly seized with sickness, and you have no faith in medicines but wish for a doctor the Ready Relief will suspend or check the progress of the disease at once, and in ninety times out of one hundred, cure the patient before the doctor arrives. It can never do harm, but will always do good.

ITS GRAND POWER IN THE PREVENTION AND CURE OF PESTILENTIAL AND CONTAGIOUS DISEASES.

It is in diseases where immediate and absolute assistance and relief is required wherein this remedy proves its superior, and we might say, supernatural Power in saving life, and promoting health.

In cases where Epidemic Diseases, Pestilence, Small Pox, Fevers, &c., exist, this remedy proves the potent power of a disinfectant, neutralizer and cure. No one that uses the Ready Relief when Asiatic Cholera, Yellow Fever, Typhoid Fever, Small Pox, Diphtheria, &c., prevail in a community, will be seized with these diseases; and if seized when using it, will be cured if the directions are followed. Simple as this remedy is, it possesses the elements of cure of the most violent, painful, and fatal diseases that scourge the earth.

THE PROPERTIES OF THE READY RELIEF ARE COUNTER-IRRITANT, RUBEFACIENT, ANTI-SPASMODIC, DISINFECTANT, ANTISEPTIC, DIFFUSIVE STIMULANT TONIC, NERVINE, ANODYNE, ANT-ACID

Its use in Asiatic Cholera, either as preventive or cure, is of more value to the world than all other discoveries in vogue.

It instantly secures rest, stops the Cramps and Spasms, and holds the constituents of the blood together, equalizing the circulation, and preventing the separation of the watery constituents from the other properties of the blood, and arrests vomiting and purging. In Yellow Fever it is likewise all potent, and with the assistance of Radway's Pills, will protect those exposed from attacks, and cure them that may be seized.

In Fever and Ague, Typhoid, Bilious, Scarlet and other Fevers, its use will always insure a cure.

In Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, Tic Doloreux, Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Influenza, in all cases of inflammation, the Ready Relief, assisted when required with the Resolvent and Pills, will surely effect a cure.

NEW IMPROVEMENT in READY RELIEF.

New Corks, Large Bottles.

We have at last succeeded in getting a Cork that will prevent the evaporation of the Relief.

The substitution of the India Rubber Stopper will prevent the evaporation of the volatile properties of the Relief. It is important that the Relief be kept corked, to prevent the action of the atmospheric air.

The bottles are much enlarged, so that persons receive as much Ready Relief for 50 cents as they will get for $1,00 of the Pain Killers and other 25 cent Liniments, &c. R. R. Relief 50 cents per bottle. See that every bottle is stamped with Dr. Radway's Proprietary Internal Revenue Stamp. Ask for Relief in new bottles—new style.

N. B.—Persons in agua districts should take a teaspoonful of Relief, in water, on rising in the morning. This will protect you against Fever and Ague and all other Fevers.

POETRY.

Early Love.

BY J. WILLIAM VAN NAMES.

When years have rolled their lengths along,
With mingled joy and pain,
And sunbeams leave our horizon,
And falls the gentle rain;
When clouds obcure our sikies once blue,
And care and sorrow blend,
And fate has proved to us so false,
So changeable a friend;
We love to wander back in life,
O'er memory's sunny plain,
And live our happy childhood o'er,
Our early loves again.

And from communion sweet we find
New strength to grapple with
The crosses and the burdens which
Our daily lives must give;
And hope points us to look above
This world of care and strife,
To that blest home in Heaven above,
Where there's immortal life,
Where disappointments cannot come.
Nor care, nor grief, nor pain;
Where we will meet in endless bliss
Our early loves again.

A YOUNG MAN COMMITS SUICIDE AT THE GRAVE OF HIS BETROTHED.—John R. McGowan, a young man, committed suicied yesterday at the tomb of a young lady to whom he had been attached, in the Washington Cemetry, by shooting himself in the head with a pistol. The ball penetrated from the right to the left temple. He was conveyed to the Charity Hospital, and died there about seven o' clock. He was engaged to be married to a young lady who died about a year ago, and from this grief he never recovered. Mr. McGowan was the son of the well known captain of the Star of the West, Crescent City, and other vessels. He served through the war in the Washington Artillery.

New Orleans Republican October 2.

Jean Ingelow is a native of Boston, England. Her father is a country banker, her mother a Scotchwoman, as her name shows She is one of eleven children, of a shy and retiring nature. Her first poems were published in 1868, and one hundred thousand copies of her work have been published in America alone, and nearly as many in England.

DIED FROM GRIEF'—The Macon Telegraph says;

"About three weeks ago, Jimmie Johnson, a lad of some 16 years old, left Macon for Columbus; in search of employment. He is represented to us as a sprightly and active lad and left here to make a support for himself and mother. He failed to get work in Columbus and sent word to his mother that he would go on to Montgomery. Soon after his departure, which was a most grievous one to his mother, she began to pine and languish and when she heard that her son was still out of work and going still further away, she began to sink rapidly and actually died from excessive grief on Monday last.—Jimmie was her only boy, around him she had interwoven all those affectionate tendrils, which alone reach themselves forth from the mother's heart.

Throwing Out Votes.

The Radicals in Richmond, in order to elect Julian, threw out the south poll of that city. The facts, as we understand them, are these: There was formerly but one voting precinct in Richmond, and the registration was made only for this poll. But itwas clearly perceptible that with one poll all the voters would not have a chance to vote. So the Radical County Commissioners were convened and another voting precinct created, known as the south poll, and a Radical inspector and judge appointed. This registry list was sent them. All this was the work of the Radicals themselves, and yet they have actually had the audacity to throw out this poll, established by themselves, and swindled the people there out of their vots in order to place Julian in a position for which the people had defeated him! Is there no shame –no sense of decency in the Radical leaders?

The ground upon which the south poll was thrown out is, that there had been no separate registry of the voters in it, but the same logic would throw out the north poll, for there was no separate registry of the voters in it. The registry was for both precincts. If one is thrown out, so ought the other. The south poll gave over 200 Democratic majority. The north poll gave over 1,000 Radical majority. To throw out both would probably elect Mr. Hendricks, as well as Judge Reid. In their anxiety to send Julian back to Congress, the Rads have started a question that may not end very satisfactory to them.

We understand that legal steps will be taken in the matter.—[Indianapolis Sentinel.

HORRIBLE.

An Unnatural Monster Shot Dead for a Hideous Crime.

A correspondent of an Arkansas paper gives the following revolting and tragic details:

SEVIER COUNTY, ARKANSES, }
Sept 27, 1868. }

On last Wednesday a man by the name of John P. Reel, about fifty years of age, living in Bear Creek township, in this county, violated the person of his own daughter, a little girl about twelve years,and on Friday evning about sunset, he was taken from his house oy two men unknown to the family, and about two hundred yards from there was shot and left dead in the road.

This all occured in the strongest Radical neighborhood in the county.

Now the history of this man Reel is this: He deserted the Southern army in the fall of '64, came home, and made a business of stealing corn, hogs and anything else that came in his way. After the surrender he joined the Radicals and the Union League, but still he got no office, and the general opinion is that he committed this last act simply to convince the Radical party that he was worthy of some office in their ranks.

These are plain facts that can be substantiated by the entire community.

The Republicans can't charge this upon the rebels, for I am sure there is not a Democrat in the county who thinks cough of the Radicals in that neighborhood to interfere in any way.

Juan Prim, the Spanish revolutionist, is one of the richest men in Spain. He owns ten houses in Madrid. Gonzales Bravo did not dare to confiscate them, Prim having writen to him that, if he in any way molested his wife or laid hands on his property, his life would be taken. Prim's threats always were carried out to the letter. His famous menace addressed to Queen Isabell two years ago, "Change your system now, madame, or I swear that you shall flee from Spain," terrified the Queen at that time so much that O'Donnel was scarcely able to dissuade her from acceding to Prim's request.

STATE OF ALABAMA, }
St. Clair County. }

Probate Court for said County, October 5th, 1868.

Thomas C. Bowling deceased, Estate of.

THIS day came Lafayette Bowling, Administrator of said Estate and filed his application in due form and under oath, praying for an order of sale of certain Lands described therein, and belonging to said Estate for the purpose of Division, and upon the ground that said Land cannot be equally devided: It is ordered that the 16th day of November, 1868, be appointed a day for hearing said application, at which time all parties in interest can appear and contest the same if they think proper.

THOS. A RAMSEY,
Judge of Probate.

Arrest the Murderer.

ON the morning of the 20th inst., Wm. J. Middlebrooks was murderdered near Davistown in Calhoun County, State of Ala. by a man named Whitfield Black. Said Black has fled from the country. A liberal reward will be paid to any one who will arrest the said Black, and confine him so that he may be brought to justice, or any information of his whereabouts will be thankfully received.

Said Black is between forty-five and fifty years old: about five feet ten inches high and weighs about one hundred and sixty pounds, dark complexion and dark hair, and blue eyes—had a wound at the time he left, through or in the left arm. He may endeavor to pass himself off as a Mason.

Address the undersigned at Corn Grove P. O., Calhoun County, Ala.

LADIES !?!

Look Out! Look Out!!!

A BEAUTIFIER 'as is, A BEAUTIFIER.

[Ladies' Magazine for Sept.]

"HENRY R. COSTAR, of No. 10 Crosby Street—is said to be 'out' with a BEAUTIFIER that eclipses anything ever known in this line. The Ladies are wild with delight. One Lady says, 'I know it's right,' and pointed to a skin as fresh, soft, and delicate as a child. Another Lady said, "If it cost $10,-00 a bottle. I'd have it;" and another. 'Away with all hurtful cosmetics, and give me only

"HENRY R. COSTAR, of No. 10 Crosby Street is 'out' with a SALVE—which He calls His

"Costar's Buckthorn Salve."

Perhaps the most extraordinary SALVE ever known. Its power of Soothing and Healing for all Cuts, Burns, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers Chapped Hands and Skin, for Sore Nipples for Piles, &c., &c.—is without a parallel. One person says of it, 'I would not be without a Box in my House, if it cost $5 00, or I had to travel all the way to N. York for it."

Land for Sale.

THE undersigned offers for sale a valuable Tract of Land, lying on Chatchie creek on the Kay's Ferry road, 10 miles north-west of Jacksonville, containing about 700 Acres, sold altogether, or in three parcels, two of which are improved, and all well watered. Two of the places have good, comfortable cabins and out houses, with good orchards, and one of them a growing crop which will be sold with the land. About 150 acres of the land cleard, mostly creek bottom, and some 300 acres, finely timbered creek bottom uncleared.

A portion of the purchase money would be expected in cash, and the balance terms easy.
