Another Year.

BY JOSEPHINE POLLARD. Another year has slipped adown The pathway of remembered things; Another year to anxious hearts New buds of promise bring.

As months and days and moments pass: Before the mind in slow review, How trifling seems the labor done; How much there's yet to do!

Along the pathway of the past, With shaded walk or sunny slope; The ghosts of memory arise From sepulchres of hope.

But Life and Duty claim us yet, To fill perchance a brighter place; This year whose dawnings smile we greet, May be our year of grace.

Time to complete unfinished plans; Time to retrieve a lost career; Eternity may be within The compass of a year!

Another day—another hour Has robbed some soul of anguish dire, And poised it for an upward flight, And saved it as by fire!

And then who with rebellious heart Against the truth hath set his face, What dost thou purpose to perform, In this thy year of grace?

Great God, these lessons of thy love May every soul in truth attend, And seal itself to righteousness Before this year shall end!

Exciting Times. Immense Enthusiasm of the People of Chattanooga over the Cincinnati Railroad, as described by an Unprejudiced Foreigner of the Cincinnati Commercial.

Day had not dawned when I found myself at Shiloh, East Tennessee, upon the banks of the Tennessee River. Shiloh is not a large place, the population being only thirteen when the depot agent is there, and, of course, no less when he goes away. It contains a grocery and one store; and, in fact, a grocery and one store there are immense beds of muscle shells, and it is a query with the curious to understand where they all come from. No satisfactory explanation has ever been given, though it is generally supposed that the Indians dug them out of the river and left them upon the bank. What they did for, however, is as much a mystery as whether they did it at all or not. Years ago a point on the river was located at this large Indian village, and one of the most desperate battles ever fought with the Indians. Old Hickory being in command of the white troops, the Indians were badly defeated, and in endeavoring to escape by swimming over the river, thousands of them were shot. Their village was totally destroyed, and the power of the Cherokees forever broken.

The only mode of crossing the river at this point is by a ferry, and a very convenient one, too, as the ferry runs lives or all right; but if you happen up on the other side, you are all wrong. The river at this point is tolerably swift. It looks almost as broad as the Ohio, and in some places it is probably fully as wide.

Having hired an able-bodied negro to call the ferry, and at the rate of five cents was thinking of the time when Rosecrans pontooned this mighty river on his way to Dixie, and when a long legged, crane-necked, limber jointed boss-armed, slab-sided, lance-jawed individual came up and presented himself as having just come from Chattanooga. I inquired after the news in that enterprising little city, and was met with the response that there, "Chattanooga is in a fluster and had is about to come. He has ordered special dispatches from Wauhatchie and Tyner's Station, regardless of expense. At the national Bank they had a high old time when the news came, and the building was illuminated. Rathburn got out upon the pavement and danced a jig, while Montague sang a comic song. Col. Gaw put on a pug hat and swallow-tailed coat and picked up the lamp. He then threw a negro out the second story to see him fall, but as the boy struck on his head he was not hurt. Wheeler waved a pair of drawers out of his window as a token of peace and good will among the nations, while Wilcox stood on his feet five minutes at a time, to the great amusement of the boys

Horrible Murder.

At Georgians in this county we understand from Esq. Keen, that a negro about to be hanged in his hellish purpose to violate the provisions of Woman's Law, shot his victim dead in her own house. The negro was arrested and taken to the office, before the papers were made out he handed in his check and he himself went down. Coroner's inquest report says, "The negro was shot, negro's death, cause unknown.—Greenville Ad. vocate, 30th.

SPLIT IN THE GEORGIA RADICAL RANKS.—The Atlanta Constitution says street rumor has it that Bullock's Georgia Bill has split the Radical party effectually. If the Democrats remain firm, Bullock can't carry his own party in the Legislature. The Morton bill will only go a stick in Democratic hands to break Bullock's head with.

BLONDIN. Thrilling Scene on a Tight Rope.

An English paper thus details a thrilling affair which occurred during one of Blondin's recent exhibitions: After he had crossed in a sack, stood in a chair, and had done some of his minor feats, it was found that the rope, which was a new one, had slackened so considerably that it would be necessary to tighten it, in order to allow of his performing his new and extraordinary feat of crossing it on a bicycle, and he was, therefore, compelled to appeal to the audience for time to tighten the rope. Half an hour was asked for and cheerfully granted; but, after the guy ropes had been loosened and the rope tightened up, some difficulty was found in rearing the pole into which the guys were attached, in consequence of the tension of the rope having dragged them forward out of the ground. Quite three-quarters of an hour elapsed before this was done, and then Blondin appeared again, and starting from a west end of the building carried his assistant over on his back. It was evident, from the lowering of some ballast bags on the guy poles, that during this passage across the rope slackened a great deal, but Blondin either did not care or did not think it important, for after a short interval, during which he changed his dress, he appeared on his bicycle, and amid the cheers of the spectators started on what seemed an awfully perilous journey. He had not gone far when it became apparent from the decline of the rope that it had slackened very much, and people who understood bicycles and the impossibility of propelling them up hills, began to calculate upon its coming to a stop, and he must inevitably meet at the other end of the rope, but Blondin looked extremely cool and confident, and no fears for his safety seemed to be entertained till, after stopping cleverly about midway, he began to traverse the incline. It then became apparent, from the gradual slackening of his pace, that he was doing some hard work, and murmurs began to rise from the audience. When about twenty yards from the landing stage he came to a dead stop and appeared to be resting, himself cautiously with a great pole he carried. He then made another effort and got a few yards further, when he stopped again. It then became apparent that he could not get further, as although to the danger of disturbing his equilibrium, he tried to jerk the machine forward it refused to move. The scene that then ensued was most exciting. People left their seats, and, with frightened faces, made for the doors, and the general mass of the people at the east end of the building made a rush to the west end, hundreds jumping into the arena. When the rush and noise had subsided a marvelous stillness succeeded. The crowds on the floor beneath the rope, and the galleries nearest the spot, seemed to be hushed in eager expectation of something unpleasant, gazing some with horror-stricken faces on the performer, who sat motionless on his state on the rope, about six yards from the landing place, while the assistant leaned over the stage and appeared to be speaking to him, but looked helpless in the emergency. After the delay of two or three minutes, which seemed an age, the assistant, evidently by Blondin's directions, propped a rope, and this he threw out cautiously. It fell on the performer's shoulders, and he, with some difficulty, regained the pole with one hand, while with the other he gripped the rope round his waist. The assistant then gently pulled him in. Every move of the wheels was watched by the audience in silent horror till the machine ran on the landing stage, when the suppressed excitement culminated in one great shout of joy, succeeded by the wildest demonstrations.

JESTING.—It is good to make a jest, but not to make a trade of jesting. Jest me with the two-edged sword of God's Word. Will nothing please thee to wash thy hands in but the font? or to drink health in but the church chalice? Let not thy jests, like mummies, be made of dead men's flesh. Abuse not any that are departed, for to wrong their memories is to rob their ghosts of their winding-shrouds. Scoff not at the natural defects of any which are not in their power to amend. O, 'tis cruelly to beat a cripple with his own crutches. No time to break jests when the heart-strings are about broken.

TEXAS. As Texas has not elected a Republican Legislature, the plan is to make it Republican by the application of the iron-clad test oath section; and reconstruction legislation will therefore be put in the foreground of the Congressional program. The ultras are gaining ground every day, and it is obvious that if these can control the election, as proposed, the South will be allowed to stand that is not in the hands of the Radicals.

He has ordered special dispatches from Wauhatchie and Tyner's Station, regardless of expense. At the national Bank they had a high old time when the news came, and the building was illuminated. Rathburn got out upon the pavement and danced a jig, while Montague sang a comic song. Col. Gaw put on a pug hat and swallow-tailed coat and picked up the lamp. He then threw a negro out the second story to see him fall, but as the boy struck

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION. For one year in advance, $3 00 For six months, 1 75

TERMS OF ADVERTISING. One square of 10 lines or less, first insertion, 25 cents; second, 20 cents; third, 15 cents; thereafter, 10 cents.

B. ROSENBERG is our Agent to contract for advertisements for the Republican, in the city of Louisville, Ky.

Cuba.—The prospects of Cuban independence seem rather gloomy at late. We have never taken much interest either in the success or failure of the patriots, in the fight going on, believing from the first that the whole question depended upon the course the United States might pursue; & that has been so vacillating as to occasion continual doubt.

Chancery Court.—The present term of our Chancery Court has been in session from Monday morning to Thursday evening, Chancellor B. B. McCraw, presiding. The business having been kept so nearly up heretofore, there does not appear to have been a great deal on hand, and that has been promptly disposed of.

Chancellor McCraw is an able, efficient and excellent judicial officer, who disposes of all his official business in a manner alike just and impartial, and highly satisfactory to the public and all parties concerned.

Goods at Cost.—We invite attention to the advertisement of Capt. G. Stipes, who is now proposing to sell his entire Stock of Goods at cost. Now is the time to get good bargains. Call upon him and examine his stock and learn his prices.

Congress, our State Legislature, the re-constructed one of Georgia, and several others are now in full blast, after the close of the Christmas recess.

The time was when the people looked forward with pleasing anticipations to the meetings of Congress and the State Legislature, in hope of the enactment of measures of relief and encouragement to all the various pursuits and industries; but now their meetings are regarded with dread and apprehension; and any indications of an early adjournment are hailed with delight.

In these latter days the people are haunted with visions of burdensome taxation, without representation, repressive party legislation, and official corruption in high and low places.

They are having a lively time in Georgia; the layout and fire-arms being chiefly relied on to promote party men, and carry out party measures; but these instrumentalities have signally failed this far, because the Cronwells had not Cronwells courage.

We will try to keep our readers posted as to what is actually done in those bodies, affecting public interest, and which of course must be abided by for the present.

New Business in Jacksonville.—It will be seen by reference to their advertisement, that Messrs. Seymour & Turner have opened a Merchant Tailoring establishment in this place, in rear of Montgomery Bros. Grocery Store, on the west side of the public square.

Mr. Turner is well known to be one of the best workmen in the Southern States, doing his work promptly, neatly, substantially, and in the latest fashions. Mr. Seymour is a competent, reliable and experienced man. The establishment will be a great convenience and advantage to our place; and those who patronize it, which we hope may be many, will find it more to their interest, than the purchase of indifferently made up clothing from the North.

M. E. THORNTON, Esq., an active, prompt and energetic Attorney, of Edwardsville, Cleburne County, has been in our town during the present term of the Chancery Court.

Col. W. B. Martin and J. T. Bradford Esq., long and well known Attorneys, formerly of this place, but now of Gadsden, were also in attendance.

Educational.—The next session of the Middleton Male and Female Academy, as will be seen by reference to advertisement in this paper, will commence on the 1st of February, 1870, under the continued superintendence of Rev. L. Law, who has rendered himself justly popular as a teacher, by his competent, diligent and faithful discharge of duty, and unexceptionable deportment as a christian gentleman. The school is located in a healthy and desirable neighborhood, and ample arrangements made for the accommodation of boarders, at the very moderate rates of $5 to $10 per month.

Selma as a Cotton Market.

We think, from noticing the prices of cotton at various points, and other information of a reliable character, that it would be the interest of planters in this section to send their cotton to Selma. Cotton has been and still is relatively higher in Selma than New York, or any of the Southern markets. While middling cotton has been selling recently in Selma at 24, it was only 23 in Mobile and 23 1/2 in New York. While encouraging the nearest and best cotton market in their own State or the South, they could at the same time make it the best and most convenient one for Groceries, Hardware, &c.

We merely wish to give the figures, and get them to examine for themselves and think on the subject, feeling assured that the instincts of self-interest will do the rest.

The Rural Carolinian.

Colonel D. Wyatt Aiken, one of the leading planters of this State, has become associated with Messrs. Walker, Evans and Cogswell as joint proprietor of this valuable agricultural monthly. In his notice announcing the connection, Colonel Aiken says: "In this uniting myself with the enterprising firm of Messrs. Walker, Evans and Cogswell, more than a single motive will of course be laid at my door; but chief amongst the inducements is the earnest desire to lend a helping hand to develop and publish the developments of the agricultural interests of our beloved South. Whatever of agricultural advantages I may have gained after a practical plantation experience of near twenty years, shall be given to THE RURAL for the benefit of others."

Messrs. Walker, Evans and Cogswell state that Colonel Aiken "will devote his time to travelling through the Southern States gathering practical information from all sections for the benefit of our readers, enlisting correspondents, establishing agencies and extending our subscription list."

The January number of The Rural Carolinian has intrinsic merit rarely equalled, and must secure a favorable consideration for the new firm. Among the contents we especially notice the articles on Fish Culture, Liebig and Agricultural Chemistry, Facts and Figures for Farmers, Agriculture of Russia, The Sea Island Cotton Question, and The Culture of the Olive—all of which are first-class articles of practical interest, and evidently written by men thoroughly conversant with the subjects of which they treat. The illustrations of this number are numerous and handsome, and in appearance, as well as in contents, the January number of The Rural Carolinian can fairly challenge comparison with any other agricultural magazine, North or South.

The PROPRIETORS OF THE NEW CENTURY MAGAZINE have the pleasure to announce that in the February number will be given the opening of a new Southern Romance, entitled "The Storm, and the Sunset," by Colonel HENRY CLEVELAND, the talented author. We hardly need tell you Colonel CLEVELAND is, to the public where he is known so well. In 1859 he gave up a large law practice to become political editor of the Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist, and was a delegate to the great Democratic Convention of that year. He only left that paper when the South called her sons to the field, and save when a prisoner he was a soldier from the first month of the war to the last, mostly in field service. At the close of the war he retired to his fine plantation on the Georgia Rail Road, and in 1866 published a biography of Vice-President STEPHENS, which had a large sale. Mr. CLEVELAND was one of the editors of Appleton's Journal in the first half year of its existence.

The NEW CENTURY MAGAZINE, now so well established and so popular, has on its lists the best writers in the Union, and at $3.50 a year, or 35 cents a copy, is cheaper than Harper's or the Atlantic Monthly. It is highly toned, even in advertisements, and does not beg for patronage, but deserves it. Long live the "City between the Rivers," and its Magazine.—Charleston, (S. C.) Courier, Dec. 27, 1869.

Late Decision of the State Supreme Court.

We don't see why the Judges of the Supreme Court should have given the newspapers so much trouble, and wasted so much ink and paper in the cases of Gordon and Shields, and B. S. Bibb and W. C. Bibb (see page). Why not have briefly said in so many direct words without more talk, that all Courts during the confederacy were illegal, and that these cases were ruled by this proposition.—Why so maliciously crucify logic and common sense, ignore fixed facts, and smother Clauses in such awful confusion of ideas and grammar. It will appear that Judges Pock and Peters in order to defend their judgment in Coleman v. Clisom, against the ruthless assaults of the Supreme Court of the United States in the case of Titonington vs. Smith and Hardy, (opinion pronounced by Chief Justice Chase) have made a kind of will as ungrateful sons Pock and Peters with a power six pence.—Montgomery Advertiser.

In the face of all this Judicial folly, we can only say that if the Law could be personified in Alabama, it ought deliberately to make its will and die cutting off as ungrateful sons Pock and Peters with a power six pence.—Montgomery Advertiser.

On Friday, at the circus, a riot occurred between the negroes and whites at Dardanelles, Ark. About 60 negroes, led by several ringleader whites, attacked the citizens of that place, and were repulsed. Subsequently, the negroes captured a young white man and butchered him in cold blood.

The latest information is brought by the steamer Guion. When she passed, the negroes were rallying in large numbers below the town, and it was expected that another attack would be made.

A bloody revolution is looked for in Spain. Every dispatch that comes is expected to announce the beginning of very serious troubles.

Jacksonville.

From the Gadsden Times. While in Jacksonville Christmas week, the most attractive thing that we noticed was the Christmas tree given the children of the M. E. Sunday school. The church was tastefully decorated by the young ladies and gentlemen of the town for the occasion. The "tree" was composed of two trees, united by an illuminated transparent arch, on which was lettered: "On earth peace, good will to men." (a sentiment from which Grant is supposed to have drawn his celebrated hypocritical expression of "Let us have peace"). Behind the arch was a transparent star, so suspended by invisible threads as to be made to gradually ascend during the singing of the opening hymn. At the first notes of the organ which gave out rich music under the touch of one of the most amiable and lovely young ladies of the town, the star began to ascend and continued to rise until the close of the hymn, the whole combining to produce a most striking effect, elevating in character, and suggestive of that kinship which is said sometimes to exist between earth and Heaven.

Gloria in Excelsis was next sung by the entire school, followed by a most beautiful "conversation" with song interspersed, in relation to the birth of our Blessed Savior, in which the little children were made to ask questions concerning it, answered by the venerable Superintendent in appropriate descriptive passages read from the Scriptures—a scene irresistibly affecting. Capt. Harrison next made a brief address, full of happy allusions, in excellent taste and pertinent to the occasion. After the address began the distribution of presents to the big and little ones. The remainder of the scene can be easily imagined—the happiness of the little ones—the surprise—the pleasurable excitement.

En Passant.—During the distribution of the presents the name of our old friend J. M. Reifus was called several times, who, though not a "little one" showed no less gratification, as each successive package was handed over to him. From one of the boxes he received, a very lively mouse sprang out, causing no little flutter among the fair ones to whom he was "surrounded." Compliments which before we know were showering upon him were soon exchanged for "Ugh! you brute!" "Get away with you, naughty man!" He is hunting the fellow who put it on the tree, yet. Says he only want to thank him.

Every visitor from a distance was remembered and surprised with an appropriate present.

Truly hospitable, may the good old town long live and flourish, to guide and please its little ones, shake it sides over funny things, and still be mindful of weightier things.

Those of our friends who have not availed themselves of the benefits, offered by the Atlas Mutual Life Insurance Co., would do well to call on CAPT. REFUSO, at once, he informs us that it is his intention to make his Headquarters in Montgomery in the future. He is the General Traveling agent for the State.

The Race Question in Mississippi.—The Press of Mississippi manifests an utter disgust at the result of their late experiment with the negroes and many of the papers advocate the formation of a white man's party. The Columbus Index expresses itself as follows: "We have given the negro a fair trial. He has voted solidly against us and we hoist, from this day, the White man's Flag, and will never take it down so long as we have a voice in the government of the State.

"No more compromise; no more overtures of friendship from us. We have extended him the olive branch of peace, and he rejected it with scorn and contempt. Upon his own infernal kinky head fall the responsibility.

"White men, they mistrust, despise and laugh at us. Our dignity and self respect require that we should accept the issue and prepare for the consequences.

The radical idea of reconstruction is evidently borrowed from John Robinson's sermons. Those who have witnessed the performances of "the great American combination" (we mean John Robinson's) will remember how the down knockers over the young gentleman in the gold lace and then cries out "poor fellow," and sets him up again and goes to washing him clean, as he says, with a dirty broom. Then he dusts him off with a blacking brush. Then he polishes him with a rake. Then he whitts him about and asks "Now, isn't he beautiful?" That's reconstruction over and over again (Congress takes a State and knocks it down. Then it sets it up. Then it scrubs it with negro-suffrage. Then it polishes it with letquets. Then it dusts it with martial law. Then, finally, if it goes radical, like Mississippi, it says "Now, isn't it beautiful." The people are sick of this. There is no fun in it. It is all well enough as a circus trick, but it is too serious when applied to real life. Courier Journal.

On Wednesday last Samuel Whiteley, of Henderson county, Tenn., while laboring under a fit of insanity, threw his three children into a well, and then jumped in also. The children were drowned. Whiteley was rescued, but is not expected to survive his injuries.

DAVID PAIN KILLER has won for itself a reputation unsurpassed in the history of medical preparations. It is well known in the trading ports of India and China as in New York and Boston, and its continually increasing demand, where it has been long known, is one of its strongest recommendations and best advertisements. It began to be favorably known in 1839, and has ever since been gradually growing into public favor, till, in thousands of families, it has come to be considered an article of such necessity that they are never without a supply of it to resort to in case of accident or sudden illness. It is not infrequently said of it: "We would as soon think of being without four in the house as without PAIN KILLER." It gives immediate relief in case of small or large, as well as in the sudden attack of Diarrhoea, Dysentery, or other similar affections of the bowels, and, being an entirely vegetable preparation, it is as safe as it is reliable. The promptness and certainty with which it acts in relieving all kinds of pain, makes it eminently worthy its name.—PAIN KILLER, a name easily understood, and not easily forgotten.

No medicine has been more successful in curing FEVER and AGUE. For sudden Cold it is almost a specific. Rheumatic and Neuralgic affections give away to it when all other remedies have failed. It is eminently a FAMILY MEDICINE, and by being kept ready for immediate resort in cases of accident or sudden attack of disease, has saved many an hour of suffering and many a dollar in this and doctor's fee!

FROM WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—One hundred and fifty thousand dollars have been made on the lease of Samana.

FROM ENGLAND. LONDON, Jan. 8.—A story has been extensively published on the Continent lately to the effect that President Grant will soon visit the Sovereigns of Europe, and that he will make the trans-Atlantic voyage accompanied by a fleet of iron-clads.

FROM SPAIN. MADRID, Jan. 8.—All idea of Dictatorship is abandoned. The Ministers refuse to withdraw their resignations unless a definite policy is programmed.

FROM WASHINGTON. WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.—The President will nominate William Strong, of Pennsylvania, as Judge Grier's successor. He will not withdraw Hoar's nomination.

Executive circles have information that Spanish regiments can march to any point on the island of Cuba.

Revenue nearly half a million. The treaty for the annexation of San Domingo to the United States was negotiated by President Bacz and our commercial agent Berry, at San Domingo.

The secret message of the President of the United States will be sent to the Senate on Monday. Of the truth of this statement there is no doubt. The governing motive for the acquisition of San Domingo is its geographical position to this country as a means of national defense, as well as its general maritime advantages; and hence, as a preliminary case, the Samana treaty was effected and the jurisdiction of the United States established over that part of the territory of San Domingo.

Several Senators who are cognizant of the facts of the negotiation privately assert that the negotiation privately San Domingo is of as much importance to the United States as the island of Cuba, if not more so, and that the acquisition of the one will lead to more easy possession of the other.

It may be that the president of the United States, in his message recommending the ratification of the treaty treaty, will briefly state his reasons for the negotiation. It is, certain, however, that he has stated them to some of his most intimate political friends.

Although the text of the treaty cannot now be made public there is no doubt it contains the following propositions, viz: 1. The United States stipulate to pay the sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars. 2d. This money to be the liquidation of all obligations of the republic of St. Domingo, including the redemption of the currency which is represented to be of a comparatively small amount. 3. In case the obligations to be assumed by the United States shall exceed the before mentioned sum of one million five hundred thousand dollars, the public lands of St. Domingo are pledged as security for the excess. 4. Liquidation of obligations is entrusted to commissioners—one to be appointed by each of the contracting parties. 5. In consideration of the discharge of these obligations, St. Domingo cedes to the United States all forts, docks, custom houses and all other public buildings, arsenals, etc., and complete jurisdiction over the territory. 6. San Domingo to be ceded or acquired, as territory and not as a State, and subject to the legislation of Congress, in the same manner as Territories of the United States. 7. The treaty to be valid to all intents and purposes when ratified by the Senate of the United States, and confirmed by a vote of the majority of the citizens of St. Domingo.

NOON DISPATCH. Washington, Jan. 11.—House Reconstruction Committee reported a bill for the admission of Virginia, which was made the order for to-morrow. It contains Butler's preamble. A fundamental principle of the bill is that none voting now shall hereafter be excluded, and exacts the disqualification imposed by the Fourteenth Amendment. It legalizes the Senatorial election.

Paris, Jan. 11.—Rochefort's

Marsailles, newspaper attacks Prince Pierre Bonaparte. Two editors of Marsailles visited Prince Pierre Bonaparte to arrange a duel. During the interview Bonaparte becoming enraged, fired twice killing Victor Noir. The tragedy caused much agitation. Bonaparte surrendered himself.

Special to the Rome Daily. ATLANTA, Jan. 11.—Conservatives and Democrats united on Bryant for Speaker. The Radicals were greatly frightened, and importuned Terry to interfere. Harris adjourned the House at 12, about half having qualified, to marshal forces against Bryant. Father Congressional interference sought.

The Georgia Senate convened yesterday. The galleries were crowded with both sexes. The desks of late Senators Adams, and Ayer, were draped in mourning. The Hall was decorated with American flags. Provisional Governor Bullock's order convening the Legislature, and Gen. Meade's order of June, 1868, announcing the names of Senators elect, were read, when members came forward to qualify. Among whom were Aaron Alperio Bradley and Campbell, negroes. Campbell, negro, made a protest against qualifying of several white members as having held offices and not yet relieved of disabilities by Congress. But amid applause from the galleries, all were sworn in. About two of the members thus sworn in are considered as not being able to legally qualify. Benjamin Canby was elected Speaker of the House. The Governor's proclamation and Gen. Meade's order were read; also the opinion of the Attorney General, as to the qualification of members. During the swearing in of members, Bryant ex-member and postmaster of Augusta, interrupted the proceedings of House, declaring the reading of the attorney General's opinion an outrage and the acts of Congress illegal and revolutionary. On being called to order by the Chair he refused, and was finally elected chairman himself. A committee of three was appointed to wait on Gen. Terry and obtain his views as to the legality of the proceedings went on in quiet.

About nine members in the House are considered disqualified. Both Houses adjourned to meet to-day.

On reassembling to-day a few members were sworn in and again adjourned to meet to-morrow at noon.

The Republicans hold a meeting to-night.

It is supposed that the Democrats and Conservative Republicans will have a majority in both Houses.

The Attorney General's opinion is that a citizen having ever held office, civil military, or naval previous to the rebellion cannot take the oath, but if he held no office either State or national previous to the rebellion he can legally take the oath, no matter what may have been his conduct during the rebellion.

Because They are the best combination ever made.

Because After years of experience and trial they have been proven to be a sure cure for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

Why Is it that Physicians use and recommend Dr. Roback's Sugar-coated Blood Pills?

Because They know the ingredients of which they are made.

Because The Blood Purifier is the only article in the market which contains the celebrated costly Drugs imported expressly from Sweden for its manufacture, and the Pills contain the active principle of Podophyllum (Mandrake Root) and is a substitute for Mercury.

Why Are Dr. C. W. Roback's Stomach Bitters, Blood Purifier and Blood Pills the three greatest remedies the world has ever known?

Because After eleven years' experience and trial the sales have increased each and every year, and thousands of letters (unsolicited) of the remarkable cures they have performed bear witness. Read the letters in Local Column of cures by these medicines.

Valuable Property for Sale. WILL be sold at private sale, on application, the Church property of the Chalkbluff Springs congregation, embracing 40 acres, with church building, near Middleton, Calhoun Co. Ala. Said property will be divided into one or more lots one acre on which are located the Springs and water works, so that no purchaser shall monopolize the use of the waters.

The Springs are Chalkbluff and Freestone, and have for many years been resorted to by invalids during the summer season, and are regarded by physicians and by those who have made use of them as highly medicinal, especially in chronic diseases.

Also upon the tract, near to the water, is a large bed of iron ore which has for several years been successfully worked, yielding a large per cent of iron, with water sufficient for steam power for Iron Works or Foundry.

About one half of the tract is well timbered with long leaf, suitable for building purposes; the other half oak. Parties desirous of purchasing will apply to JAMES MEHARG, L. COCKER, UPRIGHT GULLIDGE. Jan. 1870.

BLANK LAND DEEDS. By the single copy or quire; for sale at this office.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored. Just published, a new edition of Dr. CUTLER'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHOEA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Emission, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediment to Marriage, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, Rheumatism, and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance. Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the radical consequences of self-indulgence may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, and radically. This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also, Dr. Cutler's well-known "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publishers, CHAS. J. C. KLINE & CO., 127 Bowery, N. Y. Post Office Box 4,586.

ELECTIC MAGAZINE OF FOREIGN LITERATURE. New Volume begins January, 1870. NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE. The Electric Magazine is the best, most interesting, literary, and social, from the prominent English, French, and German periodicals. Its selections are carefully made from over fifty different works, and with many translations in the field, it remains the oldest and most reliable exponent of foreign contemporary thought.

SPECIALTIES OF THE ELECTIC. Science. It is believed that in this department the Electric is more comprehensive and complete than any other Magazine in the world not exclusively devoted to the subject.

Biography. In this department will be found the life of every man who in any walk of life has laid hold on Fame.

Belles Lettres. Polite Literature in all its branches is represented by the best selections which can be gleaned from a wide field.

Fiction. In this department the best current literature of this class is found, comprising occasional Serials by the best contemporary novelists, but chiefly the short stories for which the Electric Magazine is deservedly celebrated.

General Literature. This department, probably the most important of all, is represented by selections from the best Reviews, and contains the choicest current Essays upon Literary, Social, and Political questions.

Editorial Departments. The Editorial Departments have been thoroughly remodelled. The Reviews of current Home Literature are unusually full, and Art at home and abroad receives the attention which the growing public interest in the subject demands.

Illustrations. A very fine Steel Engraving on some subject of general interest, either Historic, Portrait, or Ideal, embellishes each number. These engravings are executed in the best manner and by the best artists, and are of permanent value.

TERMS: Single copies, 45 cents; one copy, one year, $5; two copies, one year, $9; five copies, one year, $20. Clergymen and Teachers supplied at club rates. Agents wanted to get up clubs. Send for Specimen Copy. E. B. SEATON, Publisher, 108 Fulton Street, New York.

Washington has broken down, step by step, the powers of the Supreme Court of the United States, so that Congress has become omnipotent. Without question as to constitutionality of its acts, amendments to the constitution surrendered to Congress powers essential to the States for the maintenance of republican government and the liberties of the people, are enforced by military authority, and States are created, destroyed and recreated accordingly as they submit to or oppose such aggressions.

The fight of the States to vindicate their rights, and everything connected with them, was very justly regarded as a fundamental article of republican government. It was left to the States to be fixed by their constitutions. By a pending amendment, attempted to be forced on the States in the manner I have indicated, Congress is conspiring to grasp and control this right, so that a body of men elected for a temporary period, and maintaining their seat of power at a distance from the great body of the people, may by force of law change the government, without question or redress, will never be dislodged by the people. When would such usurpers decree themselves out of power? It has been said that a State cannot withdraw its consent to such an amendment once given, however inconsiderately, even though the requisite number may not be obtained for a century. This cannot be. Let New York, when the right of States is called, announce that she does not consent to the amendment, and let Congress count her as consenting if it dare.

B. ROSENBERG is our Agent to contract for advertisements for the Republican in the City of Louisville, Ky.

We invite attention to the card, in another column of M. R. Thornton, Esq., Attorney at Law, of Edwardsville, Calhoun Co. Ala. Those having law business in the Counties in which he proposes to practice, will find him an energetic, prompt and reliable Attorney.

ACCIDENT.—We learn that our townsman, Mr. J. M. Wely lost two valuable mules at the Gadsden Ferry a few days since. In driving the wagon into the boat, the stub confining it to the bank pulled out, and the mules and wagon were pulled into the river. The wagon had a bed on it with three negro children in it. A negro man when the bed floated off the wagon succeeded in pulling it to the shore and saving the children, but the mules were drowned. The wagon was afterwards recovered.

Messrs. J. B. Turnley and Ed. L. Woodward wish to purchase all the Brown Corn they can procure in this section of country. They have procured a competent workman and ingenious and convenient machinery to manufacture Browns of superior quality on an extensive scale, for the supply at wholesale and retail of this and adjacent sections, which they will be enabled to do in a few days, upon terms very favorable.

This useful establishment will be deriving the liberal patronage of the public, and open a new source of revenue to those who have Brown corn on hand, or may raise it the ensuing season.

We have examined the machinery spoken of, and have seldom if ever seen any thing more complete or appropriate for the purpose intended.

Bring on your Brown Corn, and thereby keep the money at home, both for the raw material and manufactured article; and by so doing you will encourage home manufacture and industry.

As the season for Gardening is at hand, we call especial attention to the notice of Mrs. M. E. Rowland, who is the Agent for one of the largest and most reliable seed houses in the West. Those who may wish to procure fresh and genuine seeds and plants would do well to call upon her promptly, or send in their orders.

All persons wishing to purchase any description of wrought or cast iron pipe, or Tar, which is useful and valuable for many purposes, would do well to notice the advertisement of Messrs. Gartrell and Co., proprietors of the Gas Works in Rome. The well known character of Mr. Gartrell, as a competent and reliable business man, gives ample assurance that all orders will be promptly and accurately filled.

Are We in Earnest.
Our people talk much of the great advantages of large schools to the town—to every member of the community—to the Merchant, Mechanic and Professional man. Are we in earnest? do we mean what we say? Is our interest in the cause of education to be limited to mere words of idle boast?

Are we doing our whole duty to the Male Academy? We have at the head of this Institution, a gentleman of rare qualifications—a man of great experience—fine scholarly attainments—an excellent disciplinarian—one who comes to us with the prestige of splendid success in other communities.

If we are in earnest and intend to make Jacksonville the Educational Point in this portion of the State, we now have an opportunity of organizing a nucleus for the expected College.

Let every one who wishes well for the town and has at heart the education of his sons, support and sustain the Jacksonville Male Academy. If it is permitted to fail, what hope has it in the future.

Election in Chambers.
DR. BROWN TRIUMPHANTLY ELECTED.

Editors Advertisers; GENTS, The election in this County yesterday for Representative, passed off very quiet.

DR. W. T. BROWN, the Democratic candidate was re-elected by a majority of 604 (with one small precinct to hear from), over Toliver Towles the strongest man in the Republican party.

It will be remembered that Dr. Brown was expelled from the Legislature at its present session for no other known reason, save he was a Democrat, and this action of Chambers county in his reelection speaks to that insolent body in language not to be misunderstood that the choice of her people must and shall be respected.

Another friend and correspondent writes: The returns from the election from all the precincts are in, except one small one, and Brown's majority is over six hundred.

Brown's opponent was the Hon. Toliver Towles, who for years, was the most popular man in this county and is to-day, the most popular man in the Republican party.

The vote was a small one, the people did not turn out, and every thing was quiet. Towles voted but little if any over one hundred while Brown gets over seven hundred a few scattering votes for some others.

Of the vote received by Towles, they were one third of their whites and the balance colored.

I hope there will be no further objection to Browns taking his seat. He was fairly elected before by over 300 votes. He is now elected by over 600, and if Ward had been the candidate it would have been 700.

I write this in haste to let you know Brown is elected. Yours &c.

Democratic-Republican Meeting.

The Democrats and Conservative Republicans held a meeting in Atlanta on Friday, and resolved to unite their efforts to save State a Committee of five Democrats and five Republicans—the latter are J. B. Turnley, H. Caldwell and J. P. Bryan—was appointed to report. The following was passed unanimously.

Whereas, The Blodgett-Bullock faction are, as we believe, open enemies to civil government, and seek by use of their official influence and patronage to corrupt the people of Georgia, and by unauthorized and arbitrary rules, to intimidate and overawe her representatives, and oppress her people, and scruple at no means, however dishonest, to carry out their wicked purposes;

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting composed of Republican and Democrats, that all good patriots meet in this General Assembly, regardless of past party affiliations or present political convictions, with the desire to guard the Treasury of the State from plunder, and to preserve the good name and protect the interests of the people, to unite for the hour upon this common platform, to defeat the wicked and corrupt machinations of said faction. In uniting we make no surrender of our political opinions.

In order to allow the committee time to report, the meeting adjourned until 3 o'clock this evening.

The Georgia Legislature.

The Senate being Radical was allowed to organize without opposition. In the House, however, the Anti-Bullock sentiment predominated, and it was about to effect an organization by the election of an Anti-Bullock Speaker, when it was suddenly and perceptibly adjourned by the Clerk until next Monday. In the meantime, Gen'l Terry, the District Commissioner, has appointed a Board of five Army Officers to try certain Democratic or Conservative Members on the charge of perjury when qualifying for membership. A strange spectacle! The Legislature of a State, whose Representatives sit in the Congress during the last session, interrupted in its deliberations, its doors closed by the Army of the United States, while its members are being tried for Perjury by a District Court Martial. It is not possible that this country could be more disgracefully disgraced.

Such a proceeding is not simply a wrong—it is a horror. The steps of a good citizen start from the face of outraged Georgia are a reproach, not simply to the honor and intelligence of the People of the United States, but to the civilization of the age. Moreover, some of the States of the North and West had better prepare for their turn upon the rack and the wheel. The object of chaining and cooing Georgia is to use the power of the State hereafter against New York and Ohio, and other States in the North and West. Southern Reconstruction is but an incident in the progress of the Radical Party towards the great result at which it aims. This result will show the Northern States, unless it be counteracted, as thoroughly under the feet of Radical Tyrants as is the bleeding South today.—Montgomery Advertiser.

IMPORTANT REMOVAL FROM SPAIN.

—The Washington correspondent of the New York Herald says: A letter recently received in this city from Madrid affords some important information. The writer states among other things, that our minister in Madrid has sounded both Serrno and Irim also their willingness to sell Cuba to the United States, and that he has the highest assurance that both those prominent statesmen await favorable opportunity to consummate. Their objection to it at present is that the people are not in the mood to sanction such a grave step, and that the Ministry in its present precarious position would run too much of a risk by setting itself in an attitude of antagonism to the mass of the people on any great question of policy.

I have reason to know that our government was advised of that fact sometime ago, and caused a representation to be made to the Spanish government that the United States would only treat on the subject of a purchase of Cuba for a fair consideration. If our government is anxious to get Cuba by purchase it is evident that the financial embarrassment of Spain will greatly facilitate the negotiations; and hence it becomes our interest to use measures to prevent any furnishing "Don Quixote" with the needful.

An epidemic known to the technical as "famine fever," is now raging in the city of London, and spreading rapidly in spite of all on the part of the sanitary officers to check its progress. A curious feature of this malady is that, although it undoubtedly owes its first origin to privation and filth, yet once established, it becomes communicable to the cleanly and well fed as well as to the squalid and debilitated. Famine fever is entirely unknown in the medical profession in America.

WILLIAMS' PAIN KILLER 1840 1870 A Cure for Diphtheria! All interested, please read the following extract from a letter from Mrs. Ellen B. Mason, wife of Rev. Francis Mason, Tonghoo, Georgia: "My child was taken violently sick with diphtheria, cold chills, burning fever, and sore throat. I counted one morning ten little vesicles in his throat, very white, and his tongue, towards the root, in like a watermelon, full of seeds; the remainder coated as thick as a knife-blade. So many children have died around here, I was afraid to call a physician, and thought I would try your Pain Killer for a gargle, with small doses internally. I did so, and found the vesicles gradually out of the vesicles, and he ceased to breathe, and was covered with blood. He was taken on Sunday on Wednesday his throat was clear, and his tongue rapidly clearing off. I also used this Balmment, with castor oil and tannic acid for his neck. It seemed to me a wonderful cure, and I can not wish it could be known to the many poor children in this dire straits disease. I have found your Pain Killer one of the most valuable medicines ever used in Birmingham. Once I was stung by a very large black scorpion, the pain was insupportable. I immediately applied the Pain Killer, (for 1/2 ounce) and in half an hour my pain was gone, and in half an hour my pain was gone, and in half an hour my pain was gone. Dr. Walton writes from Cochenoa:—"Your Pain Killer cures this new disease—Diphtheria, or SORE THROAT—that is so alarmingly prevalent here, and for his neck. It seemed to me a wonderful cure, and I can not wish it could be known to the many poor children in this dire straits disease. Manhood: How Lost, How Restored.

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the Radical Cause (without medicine) of Strains, Gonorrhoea, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotence, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediment to Marriage, Stagnation of the Urinary Passages, and all the various diseases of the male sex, cured by self-indulgence of sexual excess, &c. Price, in sealed envelope, only 6 cents. The celebrated author, in his admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured, without the dangerous use of medical medicine, or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, and radically. This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land. Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on the receipt of six cents, or two postage stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the publishers, CHAS. J. C. KLINE & CO., 127 Bowery, N. Y. Post Office Box 4,686

SEXES 1.

Old Gent.

Good morning little miss. What have you in your hand that looks so nice?

School Girl.

A new Book sir. Old Gent.—It is very nice, where are you going with it?

School Girl.

To School sir. Old Gent.—To what School Miss?

School Miss.

To the Female Academy sir. Old Gent.—Who are your Teachers?

School Girl.

Capt. Harrison, Miss Fullinwider and Miss Broyles. Old Gent.—How do you like your school and your Teachers?

School Girl.

Very well sir, I am delighted with my Teachers. No wonder we all learn so fast, and love them so much, they are such good Teachers.

Old Gent.

Oh I am so glad to hear that Miss, how far along is your school, and do not lose any time from so precious an opportunity.

Exit both of them.

SEXES 2.

Countryman.

Can you tell me where I can engage a boarding for my daughter? I want to send her to your Female Academy this year. I hear you have some of the best Teachers to be found any where, and that the pupils all love them, and are learning fast.

Merchant.

That is all very true sir. Our Teachers are at least equal to the best, and the school is prospering finely. I am glad you are inclined to patronize them. I am also happy to be able to tell you, that the citizens are more generally disposed to take boarders, than formerly.

Countryman.

Fourteen profane boarders at almost any place you may desire I believe. Messrs A B C D and E, and many others are taking boarders.

Countryman.

Choose I will see Mr. A about it, Good day, sir. M. Good day.

Countryman.

I selected a friend from her brother at Lebanon, DeKalb county Ala. says that a few days ago, a negro man (or boy) struck a young lady at Lebanon on the head with a stick, fracturing her skull, of which she died a day or two after, then when she died, caught, and hung, without trial, by the infuriated populace, and all approve of the hanging.

BLOOD

Dr. Roback's Blood Pills are unsurpassed by any Pill manufactured for a similar purpose. One trial invariably establishes them as favorites with all who use them.

PURIFIER

The reasons why Dr. Roback's Blood Pills should be kept in every family are: Because they can be employed in all cases where a "family physic" is required, and are perfectly safe in their administration at all times; Because they are made both with and without sugar-coating, thus adapting them to the use of everybody; Because
