THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE,

In Relation to the A. & C. Railroad.

Appreciating the magnitude and importance of the trust thus imposed, as well as my individual and official accountability for its successful execution, I proceeded in person to the city of New York, where the bonds were supposed to have been negotiated and the interest payable, and and at once instituted the necessary and contemplated investigation availing myself in its prosecution of every certain and available avenue and source of information. Soutter & Co., bankers, and at a previous time financial agents of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad company, furnished me with a sworn statement, transcribed from their books, showing that between the 7th day of April, 1869, and the 1st day of October, 1870, they sold and delivered four thousand first mortgage bonds of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad company of one thousand dollars each, indorsed by the Governor of the State of Alabama, and sealed with the seal of the State; that about one thousand of said bonds went into the hands of the American public, and the remainder were sold in Europe. Their statement further showed that they had sold and delivered, between the 21st day of April and 19th of May, 1870, two thousand bonds of the State of one thousand dollars each, issued to the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad company, numbered from 1 to 2000, consecutively, and that none of said bonds, either State or indorsed, were sold for less than ninety cents on the dollar. This statement was sworn to before a commissioner of Alabama, by Robert Soutter.

From August Goettel, of the firm of August Goettel & Co., German bankers, I received a statement sworn to by him, showing that on different days, ranging from April 1st to May 19th, 1870, they had purchased from Soutter & Co., the State bonds loaned to said railroad company, amounting in the aggregate to two thousand bonds, ($2,000,000) by order and on account of Emile, Erlanger & Co. of Paris, and paid for the same at the rate of ninety five cents on the dollar in gold, and accrued interest.

From other sources which I considered perfectly reliable, I obtained corroborating information, all of which satisfied me that four thousand endorsed bonds, and two thousand direct bonds of the State were purchased by, and were on the 1st of January, 1871, the property of innocent and bona fide holyers, who have not participated in and fraud upon the State or were cognizant of such. My predecessor had acknowledged in his communication to the Senate, that he had endorsed four thousand bonds Robert Soutter had sworn that he had sold that number. August Goettel had sworn that he bought the two thousand direct bonds. Robert Soutter and August Goettel being men of unimpeached veracity and high financial standing, and without interest in the matter, I awarded to their statements the highest credit. This testimony, confirmed in all its features by other facts, circumstances and information from financiers cognizant of the transactions, convinced beyond a reasonable, or indeed any doubt at all, that it was my imperative duty, under the law controlling me, to recognize the two thousand State, and four thousand endorsed bonds and to provide for the interest accrued, and due thereon.

The law required me to investigate, and ascertain where said bonds were, and to pay the interest on all the bonds of innocent and bona fide purchasers. This I did, and no more. I pursued the strict letter and spirit of the law—a law clear, definite, and intelligible in its provisions.

The investigation disclosed the further astounding fact that my predecessor in the executive office had indorsed bonds of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad company, to the amount in value of five millions three hundred thousand dollars—or five hundred thousand dollars in excess of the amount on which the company could every by any reasonable construction of law, become entitled to indorsement. The railroad being incomplete and the history of the bonds numbered from 4000 to 4720 not being sufficiently satisfactory, I could not pay the interest due upon them. The bonds numbered from 4720 to 5300 were so clearly the offspring of fraud and villainy their indorsement so utterly without the warrant of lawful authority, and being only by inference, as far as I could ascertain, they were, therefore, in every aspect they might be considered, excluded from recognition by the statute which prescribed my authority, and confined the payment to interest on bonds in the hands of innocent and bona fide purchasers on the 1st day of January 1871. I may here be permitted to add that in all this matter I had to pursue one of two courses—to refuse altogether to pay the interest due on any of the bonds, or to investigate and pay on those in the hands of innocent and bona fide bondholders. The law did not invest me with the power of repudiation, and I certainly had not the will nor the inclination to wantonly usurp it.

The default on the part of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad company and the payment of the interest by the State, invested the State with new rights and imposed upon her corresponding duties and responsibility. By the statute above cited I was authorized to proceed "under any of the statutes providing a summary remedy in such case, or according to any forms of law deemed best and safest for the interest of the State to recover the amount so paid." By the statute of 69-70 the right to seize the road and property of the delinquent companies was given. The seizure of the road, if it had been practicable, would at that time have been signally unwise and profitless. My right, or at least my power to take possession extended only to the limits of the State of Alabama. The portions of the road within the State of Mississippi, Georgia and Tennessee were beyond my official jurisdiction and control; a large portion of the road within the State of Alabama was unfinished. To have seized and held possession of a road thus incomplete and deprived of its termini and connections would have been an exhibition of the grossest folly, as long as there remained the remotest hope of the company fulfilling its obligations to complete the road, if not of its refunding the interest paid. Had such reasons not influenced me. there existed another and a stronger one to control—I may say compel—me to abstain from seizure at that juncture. By the statute fixing the two million bonds, it was provided that before issuance and delivery thereof, the company should, among other things execute and deliver to the State a bond of equal amount, with undoubted personal securities, and conditioned to complete and equip the entire road, on or before the first day of June, 1871. This bond had been executed, and was then in the treasury of the State, signed by D. N. Stanton, J. C. Stanton, Lewis Rice, A. C. Lippit and F. B. Loomis, as the personal security. A seizure before the first day of June; and the consequent prevention of the company's fulfillment of their contract; might have worked a release of the obligors, and I refrained from the risk. Had I destroyed the efficacy of the bond my conduct would have justly merited severe public reprehension. I may here very properly and pertinently remark that the Stantons, Rice, Lippit and Loomis, constituted in fact the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad Company, and were surely cognizant of this statuatory barrier to my seizure of their road—confident I would not attempt to interrupt their possession, or secretly anxious that I should and thereby relieve them from the terror of a two million bond. At all events, influenced alone by my convictions of duty and expediency—and totally ignorant of their villainous machinations—of their falsely and wickedly alledged expectations, on which their confederates and allies have dwelt with such wanton malice and pertinacity I left the road in their possession, hoping that the two million bond would impel them to strain every nerve to finish it by the first day of June.

Upon petition filed by one of its creditors on the 31st of May, this railroad company was declared an involuntary bankrupt in the District Court of the United States, sitting in Montgomery and by an order of that court the road and its property transferred to the possession and management of a special custodian. On the——day of June following, the Circuit Court of the United States reversed the decree of the District Court and ordered the surrender of the road back to the company. In the bankrupt proceedings the State of Alabama was not a party, and therefore had no participation therein except through her attorneys to watch her rights and to be ready to intervene when their protection demanded it. During the pendency of the bankrupt suit I strenuously endeavored to induce the Alabama and Chattanooga Railroad Company to convey the road to the State believing that by such voluntary conveyance prolonged and complicated litigation would be avoided, and the interest of the State and that of all other creditors better subserved. With a view to bring about more certainly and speedily a consummation so desirable, accompanied by the late Gen. James H. Clanton as counsel and attorney, I visited New York where the president and directors of the company would be accessible. Having great reliance in the sagacity and earnestness of General Clanton I confided the accomplishment of our object almost entirely to him.

It is not necessary to occupy your attention with an extended narrative of our combined efforts to obtain in this manner, possession of the road; suffice it to say, that if there was at any moment a probability of our success, that probability resting as it did on the terror inspired by the bankrupt court vanished when the action of the circuit court of the United States was announced through the telegraph.

Soon after my return to the Capitol and at the very earliest hour that I believed myself justified by the law and the facts I proceeded to seize the road and its property. This course alone promised safety to the State and the promptitude with which I embraced it, in my opinion defeated combinations not only antagonistic to the interests of the State but whose very formation aimed at their total sacrifice. I instructed my private secretary to repair to the road and take possession of it in the name of the State. This important mission I intrusted to Col. Gindrat, chiefly because he was a constitutional, recognized and already salaried officer of the government. I deemed it of the greatest legal importance that the road should be strictly in possession of the State and the acts of the receiver or agent under my direct official control. To the decision, judgment and discretion with which Col. Gindrat has so constantly and invariably discharged his onerous duties, may be attributed in no small degree the favorable results now so far achieved in the possession and operations of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad throughout its entire length, from Meridian in the State of Mississippi to Chattanooga in the State of Tennessee.

The conflict has been long, and on the part of the adversary cunningly, unscrupulously and desperately waged; yet steadily and singly, looking to one great paramount object the maintenance of the interests and rights of the State of Alabama—my efforts have been rewarded with success and my cherished hopes of ultimate and complete triumph confirmed.

The magnitude and complications of the question involved, rendered it proper for me to seek counsel and guidance from lawyers, eminent for their experience and wisdom—and I did not hesitate to employ them. My official right, or rather power, of seizure terminated with the limits of the State. To gain possession of the portions of the road in Georgia, Tennessee and Mississippi, I caused suits to be instituted in their respective State courts, which gave speedy possession to Col. Gindrat in Tennessee & Mississippi, but the seizure by Gov. Bullock, of Ga., of the part within the counties in that State, prevented the opening of the entire line of road until Governor Conley, taking a different and certainly a wiser and more courteous view of the matter, removed the obstacle.

From the very first instant of my struggle with the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad to the sad and melancholy hour of his death, I was cheered and strengthened by the advice and determination of the noble and lamented Clanton. Faithful, zealous and unselfish in his devotion to Alabama, with an unwavering fortitude, he labored to promote her interests, and, shrinking from no sacrifice ever sought to vindicate her honor. It is a reflection of mingled sorrow and pleasure that my course received the co-operation and sanction of such a generous and earnest patriot. Remote from home when he perished, and in the service of the State, no admonition from me is necessary to prompt the General Assembly to render a just tribute to his memory and an adequate recompense to his bereaved family.

In all my transactions with this railroad in the payment of its interest, in gaining possession and all subsequent operations, it has been my constant him to incur no expense, not absolutely necessary; and in this regard the result has been singularly satisfactory.

The General Assembly, at its last session, was pleased to appropriate a contingent fund of ten thousand dollars. From that fund I have paid all amounts drawn from the State treasury, on account of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad company, including expenses in and about the payment of interest: all the expenditures of the government for twelve months usual drawn from that fund several hundred dollars for unpaid items the year ending September, 1870, and transferred a balance of $1,442,16 to the contingent account of the current year. This is the very best that economy could do, and will not compare unfavorably with the history of contingent funds in former years.

It is to be remembered that all moneys paid or liabilities incurred by the State for the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad, are claims on that company, and I have reason to hope that the Receiver will soon be enabled, out of the income of the road, to refund its indebtedness to the contingent fund, as well as provide ample means to pay the fees of all attorneys employed. This I will urge. The payment of the interest due on the bonds was to redeem the pledged faith, and to maintain the credit of the State; the seizure and possession of the road to prevent as far as possible ultimate loss, to indemnify the past and secure the future, and to cease when that was achieved. It would be an erroneous policy and dangerous alike to her financial, political and social morality were the government of Alabama to embark permanently in railroad operations.

The earliest possible adjustment, therefore, of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad matters is exceedingly desirable.

Repayment of all interest and expenses paid by the State entitled the company to the right of repossession. This was not done, and the company has again been declared bankrupt. I do not apprehend any increased embarrassment from the bankruptcy of the company.—The extensive jurisdiction of the bankrupt court may give to its proceedings in this behalf an efficiency and a value scarcely to be hoped for in the courts of four States. The State is, of course, no party to the bankrupt suit, yet the Hon. Richard Busteed, presiding judge of the district court, recognizing judicially the vast interests of the State involved, by special order constituted Col. Gindrat the State receiver, the custodian under the court. I have great confidence that the district court will sustain the validity and priority of the State's lien on the road and property of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad company, and will, as expeditiously as the rules of the court and law permit, bring the matter to a final determination. The road and its property, real and personal, according to all estimates and information, are intrinsically of a value greater than the liabilities of the State, and whenever a clear and unencumbered title can be perfected more than one company of capacity and capital will be found ready to purchase it, and by the purchase relieve the the State from liability.

To raise funds to pay the interest on the bonds of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad company I resorted to temporary loans, amounting in the aggregate including premium and interest to the sum of $545,000. For the payment of these loans I executed my official obligations and placed them in the hands of Duncan, Sherman & Co., the financial agents of the State, who received the proceeds thereof and paid the interest due in January and July upon the bonds proven to have been in the hands of innocent and bona fide purchasers on the 1st day of January, 1871, and on none others; and Duncan, Sherman & Co. inform me by letter; that a balance remains of $22,452.37 against coupons not presented. I recommend that the General Assembly make prompt provision for repayment of the sum borrowed by an act authorizing, in the alternative, an extension of the time, or raising by a new loan the amount necessary to meet it. The propriety of such an act is suggested by the existing condition of the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad and the hope that the income and proceeds of the property thereof may prove adequate to meet all the State's liabilities.

I herewith transmit communications from Col. Gindrat and others, of great interest and value in connection with the Alabama & Chattanooga railroad.

On the 1st day of November, 1871, the right of railroad companies to State indorsement, became by operation of law, limited to companies which had, from their own resources, and prior to that date, built and equipped twenty miles of road. This confines future indorsement to the bonds of the following companies: South & North; Montgomery & Eufaula; Selma, M. & M. road; Selma & Gulf; Savannah & Memphis; East Alabama & Cincinnati; Selma & New Orleans.

With the completion of these roads nearly every section and every industrial interest will have reaped the benefits of the system, and the credit of the State strained to its capacity. Any future indorsement should be special, not general in its character.

ROBERT B. LINDSAY.

☞In a speech at Columbus, Ga., Hon Samuel Barnett said the South, by producing 4,000,000 bales of cotton, lost forty million dollars; whereas, if the crop had been restricted to 2,500,000 bales, the profits would have been equal to one hundred million dollars.

But fell by selling his birth-right,
At quite a paltry price.

The grave-man on Court street,
Will doubtless have his funeral preac'd
By the Reverend Peter Goode;
That he'll be dead and bury'd soon—
About the next change of the moon

When that piece of unbleach'd Holland
Was hung up on the fence.
Much on hith might have depended,
If he had only condescended
To teach them better sense.

Women Should Read News Papers.

An exchange very truly says that it is a great mistake in female education to keep a young lady's time and attention devoted only to the fashionable literature of the day. If you would qualify her for conversation; you must give her something to talk about, give her education to the actual world and its transpiring events. Urge her to read the newspapers and become familiar with the present character and improvements of the age. History is of some importance; but the past world is dead; we have nothing to do with it. Our thoughts and our concerns should be for the present world; to know what it is, and improve its condition. Let her have intelligent opinions and be able to sustain conversation according to the mental, moral and religious improvement of the times in which we live.

Some time ago a young man of culture and good taste went to hear a well known ranter preacher.—Getting disgusted before the sermon was half through, he left his seat, and was going on tiptoe to the door, when the preach roared out "Young man, had you rather go to hell than hear me preach?"—Somewhat startled at first, the young man faced about, and with a graceful bow responded. "On? the whole, parson, I think I would."

At Steubenville, Ohio two little pauper children dug a grave and caught a little helpless cripple and buried him in it alive; holding him down and piling on him dirt and stones until he ceased to struggle and died. These two playful little boys were taken and sent to the Reform School, and no doubt will be educated for missionaries to the Southern blacks or as first class carpet-bag politicians.

The best farm in England is kept by a woman; and took the first prize recently offered by the royal Agricultural Society. It is a farm of 400 acres, devoted to pasture, grain and stock. The soil was originally poor, but had been much improved by skillful treatment. The produce sold during the past year, realized $15,865.

☞The St. Louis Republican, one of the ablest and most influential Democratic papers in the West, publishes a revised list of the Democratic newspapers in Missouri, forty-nine in number, which favor the policy of making no Democratic nominations for the Presidency and Vice Presidency in 1872.

☞J. Foss, Emigrant Agent, writes from Foteborgden, under date of the 3d inst., to the Atlanta Constitution, that he will be in Georgia by about the 1st of December with one hundred and twenty-five Swedish servants; and says that, provided those brought over are kindly treated, he can procure any number of the very best.—They are represented as quiet and industrious, and easily managed. Is not this question worthy the attention of the people of other Southern States? Have they not had enough vexation in procuring domestic help to feel desirous of a remedy?

ATLANTA, GA. November 22.—The Legislature passed the election bill for Governor over the acting Governor's veto, by more than a two-thirds majority.

THE fact that Governor Scott has "gobbled" a cord or two of South Carolina bonds ought not to be used against him to the extent that we regret to see, some of our cotemporaries are carrying it. These bonds are only worth twenty eight cents on the dollar, and with the prospect of a square repudiation will soon be worth nothing; and, like owning land in Vermont the more he has the worse he is off.

Another link has been added to the telegraphic girdle that one day will completely surround the globe. A cable has been successfully laid from Batavia, Java to Port Darwin, Australia, and in a few days the tariff of messages from New York to Australia will be announced.

JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN

JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA.

SATURDAY, DEC. 2nd, 1871.

THE LEGISLATURE.—A great many bills have been introduced in both Houses this week; but few have reached a point of final passage. The bill to pay the widow of Gen. Clanton $20,000 for services rendered the State as Attorney by him, was discussed until adjournment Thursday, and enough was revealed to make it certain the bill would pass. Friday there was no session, that being the day appointed by the Governor as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. The Jacksonville water works bill passed the Senate early in the week. There was considerable local opposition to the passage of this bill and a protest against it, signed by some fifty seven people, was sent to the Senate; but it reached Montgomery after the passage of the bill we understand. Both those of our people who favor and who oppose water works are honest in their opposition; both having the interest of the town at heart, and it is to be hoped that the discussion of the subject pro and con has not been the means of creating any hard feelings between citizens.

The bill to empower the Commissioners Court to keep up roads over Blue Mountain, has been defeated in the House

The question whether we are to have a change in our Constitution in relation to our public school system is under discussion. Also the question as to the time when the payment of taxes becomes due and taxpayers become delinquent.

Among the sundry bills introduced are many to make women free dealers and boys men. It is to be hoped that some plan may be fallen upon to get through with legislation of this character with less expense to the State.

The bill alluded to by our Oxford correspondent has been defeated; but we cannot forbear to deprecate the spirit which characterizes his remarks touching the same. If no improvement is to be allowed by Oxford because Jacksonville is to be benefited thereby or by Jacksonville because Oxford is to be benefited and so on throughout the county; we find ourselves at a standstill with no remedy but that all suffer together.

Had Jacksonville opposed the building of the four bridges across Choccoloco creek, at a cost of one thousand dollars to the county, because Oxford was the recipient of the benefits, everybody would have said it was a narrow and selfish policy. Live and let live is the correct motto.

Mr. DeArman, the former Treasurer, requests us to say that he will make his report to the next Commissioner's Court.

While we dissent from some of the views of our correspondent on the Presidential outlook for 1872, we invite the attention of our readers to it. It is a question the party will, no doubt, have to face, and every man ought to inform himself as well as possible and be prepared to give an intelligent opinion upon when called on, as one of the Democratic party for such opinion.

Communicated.

A Political Lookout for 1872.

In a short time active preperations must be made for the Presidential campaign of 1872. The prospect is indeed gloomy if not utterly hopeless for the Democratic party. The late State elections North, contrary to all expectations, show large Republican gains, and no one can now point to more than six States, and these comparatively small ones, that will be certain to cast their vote for the Democratic candidate in 1872. If we could carry every State, which the most sanguine Democrat would class as doubtful, we shall still lack something like a hundred electoral votes of being successful. If we go into the contest then, on strictly party principles, with party leaders, we are certain to meet with a Waterloo defeat, and the Democratic party like the Old Guard, will be disorganized—annihilated. Not a man will ever rally to its standard again. Republican rule—the Grant dynasty, will be fastened upon us forever. The only escape from which will be anarchy, or imperialism, one or both. The Democratic party already gives unmistakable signs of dissolution. There is discord and disunion in our ranks. The New Departurists, and old line Democrats are arrayed in bitter hostility against each other. In fact there is a wider difference politically, between these two wings of our party than there is between the New Departureist and the Republicans. The Tammany ring, which corrupt as it was, constituted the back bone of the Northern Democracy, which in the last Presidential campaign, controlled the national party has gone, under the vigorous assaults of the Republicans, and the Reform Democrats. It is yet strong, even in its death agonies, and will not tamely loose the grasp of power it has wielded so long. There never was any cordial union between Northern and Southern Democrats. In the South, Democracy meant State rights. In the North, the spoils of office. Now the two sections are wider apart, politically, than ever. But could we heal all our dissensions, close up our ranks, and move forward in a solid column, we are marching to certain defeat and death.

What then is the remedy? We can see but one, which although liable to serious objections is still the only one, by which we can escape the evils that loom up gigantically before us. The only one by which we can preserve what of constitutional liberty is yet left us, what is valuable of Democratic principles, and restore the prosperity, happiness, and greatness of our whole country.

We know it to be a fact, there are thousands of men in the ranks of the Republicans, and these the most intelligent, patriotic and influential of their party, who alarmed at the corruption of the Government, its desregard of the Constitution, the strides it is making towards centralism and dispotism, are willing to unite in an honest vigorous effort to rescue the constitution and the country from ruin, to drive out the money changers from the Temple, and when once in possession of power, to repeal all the oppressive and unconstitutional laws, by which the Southern States have been placed under the iron heel of the tyrant, and to welcome the South as an equal in all the rights, privileges and immunities of sister States in the American Union.

If this plan is carried out, success is certain, and Grant will be the worst defeated man that ever ran for President. The incoming administration will be substantially democratic, for it will plant itself on the supremacy of the Constitution and the equality of the States. Democratic Statesmen will be called into its counsels, and will to a great extent shape its policy. We accomplish much, if not all we desire.

We may, if we choose, preserve one distinct organization. The Democratic National Convention, can, if they think proper, meet and lay down their platform of principles, and adjourn without putting forward a candidate, recommending to the party to support the candidate of the moderate, conservative Republicans. If then there is any thing in the magic of a name, and "if a rose by any other name will not smell as sweet," we need not abandon the distinctive appellation of Democracy. Though if we reflect a moment, our party in the days of Jefferson, and at the formation of the Constitution was known as the Republican party, however much that word has since been desecrated and lost its original meaning.

This is one course we may pursue; or we may call a National Convention of conservative men, at some certain city, without regard to party, some time in the Winter, for conference, and after consultation agree upon the programme for the approaching campaign. Probably this can be done informally, at the meeting of Congress in December, when not only the members of Congress, but Representative men, from all parts of the country can meet, and if actuated as they should, and we trust will be, by patriotic and honest motives, they can unite on a course which will defeat Grant and save the country.

There will be some restiveness manifested at first by the old Bourbons who forget nothing or learn anything. But they may as well open their eyes and look the situation boldly in the face, and make up their minds to sacrifice some of their preferences and prejudices, to accomplish a great good, for "to this complexion it must come at last."

(Communicated.)

We have in full given the message of the Governor on the subject of the A. & C. R. R., bonds, and as far as the Governor has gone in the investigation, he seems to make a strong case in his favor. In his message the Governor reproduces in full the act which conferred power upon him "to inquire into, and ascertain the amount of bonds loaned to and indorsed for the A. & C. R. R. That act specially provides, "that no interest shall be paid upon any of said bonds not proved to have been held on the 1st day of January 1871, by innocent and bona fide "purchasers," and further provides, "It being the object and intent of this enactment, to pay interest only to innocent and bona fide purchasers of valid claims against the State."

The Governor is quite satisfactory on one point. He found the bonds in the hands of innocent purchasers as shown by Souter & Co. financial agents of the A. & C. Railroad Company, and the agent of Erlanger & Co.

The main point in the case, which is the git and object of the investigation was to "investigate and ascertain" which and how many of these bonds were valid claims against the State. On this point his Excellency has inadvertantly said nothing. His entire constituency would be pleased to hear from him on this subject, and have him state which, and how many can be found valid claims against the State? How many bonds that were issued in violation of and contrary to law, before the road was built? How many bonds that were obtained by fraud and bribery, and that did not receive the concurrence of two thirds of the members of each house as provided in the Constitution?

His excellency will remember the innocent tax payers charged, that at least three-fourths of the indorsed bonds were invalid and void, because they were issued contrary to and in violation of law, before the road was built to cover them. And further the $2,000,000 of State bonds were not valid but void, because they were obtained by fraud and bribery, and did not receive the concurrence of the votes of two-thirds of the members of each House of the General Assembly.

The valid part of these claims against the State, seems to have been overlooked by his excellency, and we are fearful the impression will spread abroad he did not do his full duty, in hastily paying interest on bonds that are not only invalid, but void.

Would it not be well to explain this point, and show about when the bonds were issued? And how many miles of road were finished when the bonds were issued in bulk? How many were issued according to law? How many in violation and contrary to law? If this is done, it will then be very easy to separate the valid claims from the invalid claims. And when this is done, the tax payers will march up and sholder the valid claims and pay them.

The other invalid indorsed bonds they will retire, until the Railroad company finishes the road according to the statute, then let new bonds issue according to law. This seems to us to be eminently fair and just; any thing short of this, will not be satisfactory or tolerated. Then retire invalid claims or bonds until the road is finished according to law. All invalid claims are not legal or just claims against the State.

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE,

Last week we alluded briefly to this paper, and this week we give in full, on the outside of the REPUBLICAN, that portion of the message bearing directly on the A. & C. Railroad embroglio. For the remaining portion, we avail ourself of a condensed statement, at the hands of Osborne, of the Stevenson New Era—as follows:

This is a grave time. Alabama's present and distant future prosperity depends on your fidelity and prudence.

Legislation should conform strictly to the State and National Constitutions. Believe you will do this.

* * *

Bear in mind the words of the Constitution: "No bill shall have the force of law until on three several days it be read in each house and free discussion be allowed thereon," &c.

* * *

Don't waste precious time as you did last session with minor matters.

We need capitol and labor. Suggest the establishment of a Bureau of Immigration.

Eufaula & Montgomery Railroad completed. The North & South R. R. is completed to Elyton—200 miles of railroad built this year. When work is complete Alabama will have 3000 miles of railroads.

From the report of State Supt, of Education, you will see the Auditor made an error of $277,911,60 in estimate of School fund.

The Auditor says the State direct debt is $8,791,917,37 an increase of $2,83,906,62 over last year, This is not so. The debt is $5,442,300, according to his own statement.—He adds the University fund, Patton certificates, and unsettled Auditor,s accounts to make the additional $3,319,617-00. This is wrong.

The Auditor says $171,900 00 State bonds have been sold and not certified in the Treasury. Lehman. Durr & Co., Financial Agents, sold these bonds—$12,-400 00, bond value $102,741 66 was used to pay interest long prior to my administration. Bonds $59,500 00, value $1.994 74, used to pay interest due 1st Nov. last. None were used to pay this year's liabilities.

* * *

The Auditor refers to a $40,000 warrant in favor of Selma & Gulf Railroad. It was drawn under Smith's administration. I refused payment. It was not paid until completed by mandamus, June 1st, 1871.

* * *

The Auditor's advice and elaborate views in regard to taxation, etc., worthy of consideration.

* * o

The Treasurer's report show receipt larger last year than ever before, the period of war and proceeds of loans excluded. Still he has not been able to pay all demands.

The current expenses of the government have been reduced.

The present rate of taxation is sufficient, if taxes were collected well.

* * *

The Executive Department should be empowered to make temporary loan to meet deficats.

Our public School system was organized in 1853-4. The total funds for 1871 was $727,200,93 to be paid out of revenue of 1871.—$211,218,79 is unpaid—this with the fund for 1872, to be paid out of revenue of 1872, is $509,34 81!! only $30,000 less than the yearly income of the State from all sources! ! !

By re-adoption of revised Code the School fund claimed and got $100,000; This is wrong. Superintendent recommands sale of bonds to pay school liabilities.—I also recommend repeal of section under which the $100,000 is claimed. School system needs wise attention.

Applied to General Government got Alabama's quota to land scrip—240,000 acres——sold it 90 cents per acre. $50,000 has been paid into the Treasury.

* * *

There is a conflict between the Auditor and Commissioners—application of statuary fees collected by him You can settle this.

No material change in the Penitentiary. Lease expires June 5. 1872. Lease system is cheapest.

No report from Insane Hospital.

No report from Deaf and Dumb Institution.

No report from Freedman's Hospital.

War Department. Washington informed me that under Act of Congress, 1808, Alabama was entitled to large quanity of arms, &c. I sent Gen. Wm. H. Allen my Adjutant General, who obtained them Enclosed is his report.

Hope providence will preside over you deliberations and render them conclusive to the welfare and prosperity the State.

Our school-books are electrotyped printed and bound in Louisville They are the work of Southern Authors. Ours is the ONLY Publishing House South of the Ohio engaged in the publication of school-books. These facts should incline teachers of the South and West to examine our books before coming to a conclusion. We invite a careful comparison with others, feeling satisfied that our publications will more fully meet the wants of our people than those of any other house. They are now in use in the most important schools of Virginia, Kentucky, North Carolina, Tennessee, Missouri, Georgia, Alabama Mississippi, Louisiana, Texas, and California.

LOCAL COLUMN.

Cotton worth, on the streets of Jacksonville, this week, from 16¾ to 17¼ cts.

Capt. Hames has left upon our table a couple of turnips that will compare favorably with any that has yet come in; sent us by Mr. Genadus Robertson, of Oxford. They measure one 22 inches in circumference and weighing 4¼ pounds, which is ahead of any yet, we believe.

Nancy's Creek Local has been heard from but his communication is crowded out of this week. This for our Ladiga friend who don't come up to time himself this week.

The new Treasurer gives a statement of the tax payers of Calhoun this week that will be found interesting.

Some of our correspondents as well as a full matter of ours own is crowded out this week by the circus advertisement. We hope to be able to get them all in next week.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

THE EDITOR REPUBLICAN:

We learn through your local editorials from Oxford, Cross Plains and Ladiga, of the much of their status, and prosperity heretofore not known by us.

We are truly glad to hear from them, those editorials are always read by us, with interest, as they doubtless are by every citizen of Calhoun, and all must be proud of the prosperity and growing importance of these pleasant towns. May great and continued success, and prosperity attend them.

We were gratified to see interest manifested in some of the Oxford editorials of their Sabbath schools. We deem these the nurseries of morality and religion—the instruments in the providence of God, of much good, aiding in the salvation of many souls. Parents who love their children, should not neglect these schools.

Parents, though they may not be christians, want their children to go to Heaven. How dare they then, not only set evil examples before the child, but neglect to send it to these places of religious instruction? What avail will it be to them, when they find the child is finally damned, (which some will find if they continue to neglect their duty to their children,) that they, themselves were not christians, and did not feel it their duty, to place the child in these schools? And how will it alleviate the horrors of the soul, on seeing that lovely child writhing in the torments of hell, and hearing its shrieks and groans of unutterable dispair? We have here, four interesting Sabbath schools. And should like to have the Sabbath schools of Oxford, Cross Plains, Ladiga, and this place, and others in reach, to have a some suitable point, at some not distant day, a grand concert, and jubilee. Shall this be done? When and where? What say you Mr. Editor? And what say the Locals of our sister towns?

ALL OF US.

OXFORD LOCALS.

LARGE TURNIPS.—Mr. Robertson had, a few days ago, on exhibition at the store of D. P. Gunnels & Co., two of the largest turnips we have seen for years. One of them weighed five pounds, the other four and a half. These were grown by Mr. Robertson of this place, and says that there are many more as large as the ones he had on exhibition. The seed were purchased of David Landreth Son. Philadelphia.

To the farmers, we would say, that present indications are that you will be able to realize good prices for your wheat next year. I see an article in one of the Rome papers, stating that Mr. Cothran of that place, is offering one dollar and fifty cents per bushel for all the wheat raised in that county, delivered to him by the first of July next. Also, Mr. Tumlin, of Bartow county offers to give two dollars per bushel for all the wheat raised in that county, delivered by the first of July. I know those men and know them, to be responsible men, and will do all they say. Then if these men offer such prices, we may expect it to be worth that and if you can realize $1,50 per bushel, it seems to me to be as profitable, to say the least of it, as raising cotton at the average price of that article since the surrender. I would urge the great importance of raising enough wheat, to meet the demand for home consumption at least.

Cotton has been in good demand for the last week. Prices ranging from 17 to 17¼. The number of bales shipped from this point is a little short of last year at this time. The sales of this season, will not reach that of last, probably at the end of the season—and yet control a much larger area of country than at any year previous. Showing a great falling off in the crop this year.

I see from an article in the last issue of the Republican, that a bill has passed the House authorizing the Commissioners of this county to keep up the road leading from Jacksonville across blue mountain. The passage of this bill certainly meets the disapprobation of at least nine-tenths of the voters and taxpayers of Calhoun county. It is an appropriation of the public funds, for the benefit of only a few, and not for people of the county at large. It is an imposition upon her people. It is an appropriation of its funds to build up certain localities at the expense of the county. We oppose all such measures from a sense of justice to all. The voters and tax-payers oppose such, and they will speak out at the next election for a representative from this county. We want a man who will look after the interest of the people at large, and not to the interest of a few only.

BRICK.

CROSS PLAINS LOCALS.

A renegade Georgian, whose law-breaking propensities had been overlooked by the officials of his State, made his appearance on our streets recently, in the character of "big I, and little U." His stay was of short duration. The last heard or seen of him, he had taken the "back track," and was going with the speed of a dislocated magnet, seeking the pole.

Our colored people have built a nice frame church near the suburbs, and are regular in their attendance on divine worship.

We understand several of our young men, are affected with (symptoms at least) of the "Texas fever." Hope the "ounce of prevention" may be obtained and administered before the crisis arrives.

Business brisk. Some cotton passing. Average 16¾. Our merchants are receiving small stocks of winter goods. Customers will do well to waint for the arrival of C. J. Sharp & Son's splendid stock, before purchasing elsewhere. Their goods will be the best and cheapest in the market, and our handsome young friend Tom, will be as willing and ready as ever to accommodate and wait upon all, with his usual polite assiduity.

SHENCK'S SULPHER SPRING LOCALS.

This locality being familiar to many of your readers, as affording gratification to the pleasure seeker and relief to the afflicted, its present status, detailed under this heading, may be read with some interest. Mr. John Shenck, the proprietor, is still at his post, ready to receive and entertain all those that are fully convinced that sulpher water is a panacea for all diseases, real or hypothetic, physical, mental or moral. He is also prepared to furnish lumber and meal, at short notice, having a Saw and Grist Mill, in running order.

Crops are not so good as usual, but our people have a good supply of hogs and with the aid of the mast, will be independent of the pork dealer. Our tables are supplied at present with wild shoat, from the energy and skill of our big boys and their faithful canine companions.

Our church facilities are not very good. We have a union Sunday School in successful operation in the school house near the Spring. Mr. Vandzant is Superintendent. About forty scholars in regular attendance. No day school at present. A Miss Stewart, is offering her services in that capacity for the ensuing year, which will doubtless be accepted.

Mr. Josh Dillard is constructing a bridge across Tallassahatchee Creek, at the ford near Mr. R. Alexanders, on the Greensport road. We hope our newly elected Commissioners will afford us such assistance in this respect, as the financial condition of our county, and the solvency of its citizens will authorize.

Mr. Hosea Pettit and family, accompanied by Messrs Harrison and Wm. Allen, John and Lawson Holmesly, David Boozer, Joe White and Frank Abernathy, left this neighborhood, a few days ago by gravel train, for Texas. Mr. Adison Allen and family, will leave in a few weeks for the same destination, by Railway. A Mr. Merrit, from Georgia, is the purahaser of Mr. Pettit's farm, and is now in possession with his family. Col. Sheid of Alexandria, will occupy Mr. Allen's farm as tenant.

Quite an excitement was produced in our community about ten or twelve days since, by the passing of a train of ten railroad carts, en route to Gadsden, for the purpose of commencing work on the Griffin and Gadsden Road, the survey of which passes through this section. The prophecy of Joel, quoted by Peter on the day of pentecost, is being literally fulfilled. The sons and daughters of this section are prophecying as to the time of arrival of the Locomotive and various incidents therewith connected. The young men are seeing visions of pleasure, gayety and mirth, while the old men are dreaming pleasant dreams of the transformation of their pine forests into actual cash, and the realization of all the comforts and luxuries of life, that cash will procure.

We hear frequent allusions to social parties of various kinds, from the sedate conversational, to the always lively and sometimes boisterous egg nogs, mediated both with the time honored play party at which a modest salute of ruby lips (antithetic as to sex of course) is not considered a violation of decorum, and with the gay and all enchanting dance; and here, by way of information, we would notify any spinster or widow, not supplied elsewhere, by the privileges granted to the gentler sex next year, that we still have a supply of four resident widowers, and a non-resident batchelor who spends a portion of his time in these parts.

The Human Body, its Waste and Repair.

The body is undergoing continual waste, both in the voluntary processes of labor and action generally (mental as well as physical) and also in the involuntary processes (respiration for example) This waste must be repaired by the blood, as it continually circulates and comes into contact with the various portions of the system and the losses of the blood must be supplied from food. As the material of the body is derived from the substance of the food, so all vital power is derived from force stored up in the food. Food is organic matters in a state of molecular tension; and when, in digestion, it becomes decomposed, this tension is given out in the form of physical forces, such as muscular power, animal heat and the like. Every thought that we think, every breath that we draw, every slightest motion or gesture that we make, wears away the organized tissues to some extent. In a healthy condition this waste produces a proportionate degree of appetite and of digestive vigour. But in imperfect health it is not so. Either the appetite is deficient, or the forces of the digestive organs are not adequate to convert into nutritious blood that amount of food which the appetite craves. Now Dr. Fisch's Bitters is a tonic and stimulant adapted by its ingredient to create an agreeable appetite, and also in like degree to stimulate the digestive powers. When this much is accomplished, and the system once put in the way of appropriating nourishment for itself. we may look upon the cure as already effected. Time and careful living will do the rest.

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter,s United States Almanac for 1872, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States, and all civilized countries of the western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish language, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetter,s Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages. which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

A REALLY GOOD INVENTION.

It is very seldom we commend to the public in chisway patent improvements and iventions, which belong more properly to our advertising columns. What we have to commend, however, so deeply concerns the health, happiness and comfort of our American women, that we make no apology for giving it our most emphatic approval and endorsement. The invention referred to is the great American Washer, which is claimed to be in every conceivable respect superior to any other "washer" extant.

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most easily operated, and is not at all liable to get out of order. Its construction is so simple, that even a child can be successfully taught to operate in an incredibtable space of time.

Some of the most prominent and desirable features in this "washer which is an inducement in itself, are worthy of especial commendation. They are these: It is always ready for use; there is no adjusting; no screws to confuse and annoy, and no delay whatever in adapting it. Everything seems to have been done that ingenuity could suggest; and in our estimation it is simply a practical sensible and beautiful invention, and only requires to be appreciated, which cannot fail to please the tast of the most fastidious.—Philadelphia Weekly Press.

Womans' Rights.—One who has long studied this absorbing subject now presents to the woman of our country the result of his investigations. He is happy to say that he has at last discovered "Woman's Best Friend." It is adapted, especially, to those cases where the womb is disordered, and will cure any irregularity of the "menses." Dr J. Bradfield's Female Regulator acts like a charm in "whites," or in a sudden check of the "monthly courses" from cold trouble of mind, or like causes, by restoring the discharge in every instance. So also in chronic cases its action is prompt and decisive, and saves the constitution from countless evils and premature decay. This valuable preparation is for sale at $1.50 per bottle by all respectable Druggist in the land. Prepared and sold by L. H. Bradfield, Druggist, Atlanta, Ga. A thousand women testify to its merits.

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

A little less than one year, when this grand enterprise was organized in Atlanta, Georgia, many sagacious people predicted failure in its infancy; but the unprecedented success crowning it, everywhere it has been, has satisfied them of the error of their judgment. No exhibition on the road has given greater satisfaction, and none has achieved as great a degree of popularity. Neither labor or money has been spared to make it the most expensive and choice exhibition on the road, and the almost daily tremendous audiences, applauding the feats of the different artists have served to stimulate the managers to even greater efforts. Throughout the Middle States and New England, the Dominions of New Burnswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward's Island, Cape Breton and New Foundland, there has been but one voice from the press and public as to the intrinsic merits of this mammoth enterprise. Messrs. WOOTTEN & HAIGHT, feel an excusable pride in thus referring to their repeated triumphs and praise of the world which has but one verdict as to the HIGH CHARACTER & SUPERIORITY of this first class arenic and zoological combination.

TWO MAMMOTH PAVILIONS.

One for the Circus Performance, and the other for the Menagerie and Museum —all for the price of admission—one ticket entitles the holder to see the whole exhibition.

THE AMRICAN WASHER. PRICE, $5 50.

The American Washer Saves Money, Time, and Drudgery.

The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attantion to this little machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated.

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready fo. use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one-half longer then by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket. Three shirts at a time, washing thorsughly! In a word, ablution of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally within the capacity of this LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any time and taken off at will.

No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleansing efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once become the fast friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low that it is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.

All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER is a fair trial. We guarantee each machine to do its work perfectly.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored

Just published, a new edition of DR CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure, (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty year's successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide" price 25 cents.

VINEGAR BITTERS

VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL — PURELY — CALIFORNIA — WALKER'S — EUREKA

VINEGAR BITTERS

R. WALKER, Proprietor. R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists & Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal. and 32 Commerce St., N.Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take the Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and of all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION. Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They Invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequ lled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and cast it out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS AND DEALERS.

Ayer's
Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous, and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

Dr. GOTTLIEB FISCH'S BITTERS.

(Shape of the Bottle.)

This preparation of the great Scientist, Dr. Gottlieb Fisch, of Germany, is based on the fact that, as all materials of the body are derived from Food, so all Vital Force, or Health, is derived from the Force stored up in Food. Dr. Fisch's Bitters enables the System to liberate and appropriate these Forces, creates Appetite, cures Dyspepsia, with its resulting Debility and lack of Nervous Energy; so tones the Stomach and Liver as to make Constipation and Biliousness impossible; reinforces the System so it can throw off the results of changing climate, water, &c., and better endure the demands often unexpectedly made on its Force and Energy. Ladies in delicate health, aged persons, and all emaciated and weak after sickness, will rapidly strengthen by using this great preparation.

MESSRS. J. & S. BONES, Dear Sirs

I have given the 16 inch Mill (Clemans) bought of you, a thorough test, and can but express myself perfectly satisfied. The power was the running gear to my gin, which although in very bad order, was sufficient to grind one bushel (by the watch) in eleven minutes, I find no trouble to do my grinding before breakfast. Several of my neighbors were present at the time, and all were satisfied with the result, and were astonished at the quantity and fine quality of the meal produced in so short a time, I prefer the meal to any steam mill meal. The 16 inch mill I bought of you for the Foster Farm, and used since the above was written proves equally satisfactory. It is a complete mill.

THIRTY YEARS EXPERIENCE
IN THE TREATMENT OF
CHRONIC AND SEXUAL DISEASES.
A PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE.

The cheapest book ever published—containing nearly three hundred pages, and one hundred and thirty fine plates and engravings of the anatomy of the human organs in a state of health and disease, with a treatise on early errors, its deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by a report of cases tried. A truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertained doubts of their physical condition. Sent free of postage to any address, on receipt of twenty-five cents in stamps or postal currency, by address Dr. LA CROIX, No. 31 Maiden Lane, Albany, New York. The author may be consulted upon any of the diseases upon which his book treats, either personally of by mail and medicines sent to any part of the world.

HEALTH! BEAUTY!!

Strong and pure rich Blood—Increase of Flesh and Weight—Clear Skin and beautiful Complexion secured to all,

DR. RADWAY'S
Sarsaparillian Resolvent

Has made the most astonishing cures: quick, so rapid are the changes the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine; that

Every day an increase in Weight and Flesh is Felt
THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulceration of the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Erysipelas, Tetters, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm, and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wasts, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this repair dy commences its work of purification, it succeeds in diminishing the loss of waste its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better in stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and weight increasing.

Not only does the Sarsaparillian Resolvent excels all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for Kidney and Bladder Complaints, Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, there is a morbid, dark, billious appearance, and when bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

PERFECT PURGATIVE PILLS,

Industrial Resources $500, Supt. Public Instruction $2500) To amend section 4240 revised code. (Relieves State from payment of Sheriff's fees in certain cases). In relation to the public printing (re-enacts the law in force before the war.) A bill providing that resident physicians shall have lien on patient's property for fees. To provide for the holding of circuit court in absence of circuit Judge (provides that the bar may elect one of their number to serve pro tem.)

RESOLUTIONS.—To authorize Governor to negotiate a loan of $200,000 or issue bonds to that amount for purpose of paying off claims to that amount—adopted.

To provide certain amendments to constitution. 1st. To abolish office of Lt. Governor and substitute President of the Senate. 2nd, To abolish existing educational system. 3rd, To prohibit the Governor endorsing bonds of individuals or corporations. 4th, To abolish Bureau of Industrial Resources. 5th, To abolish all registration or other test oaths as qualifications of the right of franchise. (Other resolutions looking to amendment of the constitution have been introduced both in House and Senate.)

BILLS CARRIED OR LOST.—To reduce pay of members of General Assembly—lost. [The House ought at least to have given this bill the chance, before a committee, that that body gave the bill reducing pay of Governor &c.] To pay the widow of Gen'l. Clanton $20,000 for services rendered the State by Gen'l. Clanton as Attorney—lost by 54 nays to 26 ayes.

Board of Education.

A bill to fix the minimum compensation of County Superintendents (shall be $400 instead of $300) was passed.

A bill providing for the education of three of Gen. Clanton's sons at the University of Alabama, free, was passed; and the act reflects great credit on the Board of Education.

To apportion school fund equally to every child in the State—referred.

To authorize County Superintendents to make supplemental reports of teacher's claims.—Referred

Bill that no Township trustee shall be a teacher of a public school—passed.

Saturday, Dec. 2, 1871.

SENATE—No session.

HOUSE.

BILLS REFERRED.—To Regulate attachment suits. To authorize Governor to draw on Treasurer for any amount due Gen. Clanton for legal services rendered the State. To consolidate Georgia R R Co. with Memphis Branch R R Co. To repeal an act regulating the issue of garnishments against towns and cities.

BILLS PASSED.—A substitute for a bill providing a more expeditious way of suing R R companies. To prescribe duties of County Solicitors with amendment. To prohibit gift or sale of spirituous liquors to persons of unsound mind. To prevent corporations from suing State. Repeal of sections 3306 and 2377 of Code. To require Notaries and Justices to make stated settlements with county Treasurer.

BILLS LOST.—To require administrators to make biennial instead of annual settlements. To regulate and contest claims against insolvent estates. To facilitate investigation of claims by grand juries. To repeal section 2336 of Code. To repeal subdivision 5 of section 2061 of Code. To amend subdivision 4 of section 144 code. To amend section 4340 code. A bill to authorize the firm of Stone, Clopton & Clanton (Gen Clanton) to bring suit against the State, after ten day's notice, for any amount that may be due said firm for legal services rendered the State in the A. & C R R matter, was laid on the table by a vote of 52 ayes against 10 nays.

Several important bills set for Monday.

ALABAMA LEGISLATURE.

MONDAY, DEC. 4TH, 1871.

SENATE.

To amend the act regulating elections in this State read once. To repeal section 1858 of the code—referred. To change boundry line between Randolph and Clay counties—referred. To repeal that part of code appropriating $100,000 to school fund—referred. To prevent killing of buzzards or carrion crows—referred. To allow outgoing tax collectors until April 1st, to collect assessments in their hands—referred. Committee reported favorably on House bill to keep school fund separate from other funds.

HOUSE.

BILLS REFERRED TO COMMITTEE.—To repeal subdivision 1 and 4 of section 957 of code. To repeal section 66 of the act regulating elections. For the better protection of plantations. To authorize the Gov. to draw on the Treasurer for $10,000 in favor of heirs of Gen Clanton. To amend sections 2660, 1718, 3513, 3101, 3706 of the code. To authorise Sheriffs to serve processes issued by Notaries Public. To repeal the act enabling certain officers to collect their fees. To repeal in part section 4438 of code. To relinquish all claims by the State to lands sold for taxes interior to 1871 and bought by the State.

There was considerable discussion as to the location of the proposed Agricultural and Mechanical College, but nothing definite was determined.

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

Bill to provide for quarterly instead of monthly reports of teachers—passed. The bill to allow teachers to make supplemental reports of teacher's claims was virtually defeated. Claims of many teachers to compensation for services rendered were presented and referred to committee. The question was raised whether a patron could be garnished for the services of a teacher, and was referred to a committee. Bill for reduction of teachers of colored schools was [illegible]. Bill was introduced to prohibit the [illegible] of pupils of township schools.

[From the Atlantic Monthly for December.]

LONGFELLOW'S LAST.

THE LEGEND BEAUTIFUL.

"Hadst thou stayed, I must have fled!"
That is what the Vision said.

In his chamber all alone,
Kneeling on the floor of stone,
Prayed the monk in deep contrition
For his sins of indecision,
Prayed for greater self-denial,
In temptation and in trial;
It was noonday by the dial,
And the Monk was all alone.

Suddenly, as if it lightened,
An unwonted splendor brightened
All within him and without him
In that narrow cell of stone;
And he saw the Blessed Vision
Of our Lord, with light Elysian
Like a vesture wrapped about him,
Like a garment round him thrown.

Not as crucified and slain,
Not with bleeding hands and feet,
Did the Monk this Master see;
But as in the Village street
In the house or harvest-field,
Halt and lame and blind, he healed,
When he walked in Galilee.

In an attitude imploring,
Hands upon his bosom crossed,
Wondering, worshipping, adoring,
Knelt the Monk in rapture lost.
Lord, he thought, in heaven that reignest,
Who am I, that thus thou deignest
To reveal thyself to me?
Who am I, that from the centre
Of thy glory, thou shouldst enter
This poor cell, my guest to be?

Thus amid his exultation,
Loud the convent bell appalling,
From its belfry calling, calling,
Rang through court and corridor,
With persistent iteration
He had never heard before.

It was now the appointed hour
When alike, in shine or shower,
Winter's cold or summer's heat,
To the convent portals came,
All the blind and halt and lame,
All the beggars of the street,
For their daily dole of food
Dealt them by the brotherhood;
And their almoner was he,
Who upon his bended knee,
Rapped in silent ecstacy
Of divinest self-surrender,
Saw the Vision and the Splendor.

Deep distress and hesitation
Mingled with his adoration;
Should he go, or should he stay?
Should he leave the poor to wait
Hungry at the convent gate,
Till the Vision passed away?
Should he slight his heavenly guest
Slight this visitant celestial,
For a crowd of ragged, bestial
Beggars at the convent gate?
Would the Vision there remain?
Would the Vision come again?

Then a voice within his breast
Whispered, audibly and clear,
As if to the outward ear:
"Do thy duty; that is best;
Leave unto thy Lord the rest!"

Straightway to his feet he started,
And with longing look intent
On the Blessed Vision bent,
Slowly from his cell departed,
Slowly on his errand went.

At the gate the poor were waiting,
Looking through the iron grating,
With that terror in the eye
That is only seen in those
Who amid their wants and woes
Hear the sound of doors that close,
And feet that pass them by;
Grown familiar, with disfavor,
Grown familiar, with the savor
Of the bread by which men die!
But, to-day, they knew not why,
Like the gate of Paradise
Seemed the convent gate to rise,
Like a sacrament divine
Seemed to them the bread and wine.
In his heart the Monk was praying,
Thinking of the homeless poor,
What they suffer and endure;
What we see not, what we see;
And the inward voice was saying:
"Whatsoever thing thou doest
To the least of mine and lowest,
That thou doest unto me!"

Unto me! but had the Vision
Come to him in beggar's clothing,
Come a mendicant imploring,
Would he then have knelt adoring,
Or have listened with derision,
And have turned away with loathing?
Thus his conscience put the question,
Full of troublesome suggestion,
As at length, with hurried pace,
Towards his cell he turned his face,
And beheld the convent bright
With a supernatural light,
Like a luminous cloud expanding
Over floor and wall and ceiling.

But he paused with awe-struck feeling
At the threshold of his door,
For the Vision still was standing
As he left it there before,
When the convent bell, appalling,
From its belfry calling, calling,
Summoned him to feed the poor.
Through the long hour intervening
It had waited his return,
And he felt his bosom burn,
Comprehending all the meaning,
When the Blessed Vision said,
"Hadst thou stayed, I must have fled!"

The Puzzles of a Printing Office.

The new novel of B. L. Farjeoil, "Joshua Marvel," which has met with a warmth and unanimity of commendation exceedingly rare in the English press, and been reproduced here, first as the opening number of Osgood's new series of popular novels, both in muslin binding and in paper, and subsequently by Harper & Brothers as one of their "Library of Select Novels" abounds in passages of a very powerful realism and great tenderness, recalling to the critics DeFoe and the "Vicar of Wakefield," but his [illegible] is hardly less remarkable. The very first chapter [illegible] account of a new or fundboy in a printing-office which is highly amusing. The narrative runs.

"Looking as sharp as he could Joshua walked up stairs, and found himself in the composing-room of the establishment. A number of men and boys, decorated with aprons with large bibs, were playing a mysterious game with hundreds and thousands of small pieces of lead, which they clicked with marvellous rapidity, but without any apparent meaning against an instrument they held in their hands. He looked in vain for the swords which he had heard printers were allowed to wear, and he was covered with confusion at finding himself in the midst of so large an assemblage, who one and all appeared as if they were playing on a number of pianos without any tune in them. Going up to a youth whose head, covered with a profusion of red hair, looked as if it were in a blaze, Joshua asked to whom he should give the proof. 'To Snooks' was the prompt reply. For which piece of information he received a slap on the side of his head from some person in authority, who, taking the proof from Joshua, directed him to sweep up the room. While performing this task, he surveyed the scene before him. There were sixteen men and four boys at work. All the men had the same dissipated look that he had observed upon the countenance of their master. Their faces, otherwise, were very clean; but the tips of the right handforefinger and thumb of each hand were black with dirt, caused by the types which they picked up with those extremities from the case before them. Not a word was spoken except what appeared to have reference to the business, and the conversation proceeded somewhat in this wise: One of the workmen, walking to a slab of iron placed in the middle of the room, took therefrom a sheet of manuscript, and looking at it negligently, shouted.

"Number three!"

"Another voice at the end of the room cried out:

"Awful collision!"

"Joshua stopped in the midst of his sweeping and waited for the shock. But as none came, he proceeded with his work, and thought that the second speaker was crazy. In the meantime the dialogue continued.

"Speaker number one: 'End a break.'

"Speaker number two: 'All right! with a growl.

"Speaker number one: "What type?'

"Speaker number two, with another growl: 'Minion!'

"At the word 'minion,' which Joshua considered was a term expressive of anything but respect, he expected speaker number one would walk up to speaker number two and punch his head. Instead of which the insulted individual went into his corner again and recommenced playing his tuneless piano in the meekest possible manner. The overseer then going to a part of the room where long rows of type were placed in detached pieces, asked.

"How long will this Dreadful Suicide be before it's finished?'

"Done in five minutes, sir,' was the reply, in a cheerful voice.

"Who's on the Inquest?' asked the overseer.

"I am, sir.'

"Be quick and get it finished; you've been long enough over it. Now, then, how long is this Chancery Court to remain open?'

"Close it up in two minutes, sir.'

"And Joshua gazed with a kind of wonder at the individual who spoke, as if it were as easy to close the Court of Chancery as to close his hand.

"It was the day on which the paper was sent to press; the publishing hour was three o'clock in the afternoon; and as the work was behind-hand, everybody was very busy. In the centre of the room was a large iron slab, and at one time the hammering and beating on this slab were, terrific. Two or three excited individuals, with mallets and iron sticks in their hands advanced toward the type, which was laid upon the slab, with the apparent intention of, smashing it to pieces. They commenced to do this with such extraordinary earnestness that, Joshua was on the point of rushing down stairs to the master to inform him that his property was being wantonly destroyed but as the other workmen appeared to regard the proceeding quite as a matter of course, Joshua checked himself, and thought it would perhaps be as well for him to say nothing about it. The overseer also continued to superintend strange, hardheaded proceedings, and during a slight cessation in the hammering, he peremptorily ordered the workmen to 'lock up that escaped Lunatic, and be quick about it.' At another time he gave directions to lay the Female in Disguise on the stone (meaning the iron slab), to unlock the Old Bailey, and to correct the Chancelor's Budget. Joshua grew perfectly bewildered. The information that there was an Escaped Lunatic in the room did not so much astonish as alarm him; but as to the Female in Disguise, he could not identify her and he waited in amazement to see what disguise she wore, and where she would be brought from, at the same time entertaining the idea that to lay any female upon a stone was a decidedly improper proceeding—While in this state of mental perplexity, the overseer cried out.

"Now then, who has the Female in Disguise in hand?'

"I have, sir,' a voice replied.

"Bring it here then' ordered the overseer, 'and finish the corrections on the stone.'

"All right, sir.'

"Joshua started and looked round to catch a sight of the female; in his agitation he stumbled against a workman who held a column of type in his arms. The type fell to the ground, and was smashed into thousands of pieces. In an instant the whole office was in confusion.

"You've done it this time, youngster!' the workman said, in dismay, looking at the scattered type on the floor.

"Joshua did not exactly know what he had done, but felt that it must be something very bad. He soon received practical proof of the extent of the mischief, for the master rushing into the room, kicked him down stairs, and told him to go about his business. Which Joshua did in a state of much bewilderment."

ALABAMA.

A double daily train now runs on the North and South Railroad.

Wilcox county elected a negro sheriff; but he was unable to qualify, and so the Governor has commissioned Mr. McWilliams, the Democratic candidate.

There is a wild pigeon roost near Tuskaloosa, and the boys are having a fine time. The Observer says a small party killed eight hundred pigeons on Wednesday night of last week.

The old Tennessee and Warrior River Railroad Company has re organized and elected N. L. Whitfield, of Tuskaloosa, President.—They talk like putting the road through forthwith.

Some of the solid men of Montgomery are taking steps looking to the erection of an extensive cotton factory at that city.

Hiram W. Gregory, aged forty two years, was thrown from his mule in the streets of Carrlton last week and injured to such an extent that he died soon after. He was a strict member and a highly esteemed citizen.

A farmer living near York Station in Livingston county, killed three wild-cats in the course of one short hunt a few days ago. So says the Livingston Journal.

The North Sumter News reports large numbers of "movers," now passing through Gainesville on their way to Texas.

A party of negroes stole a bale of cotton near Eaufaula last week, and took it into the woods to divide the spoils; but before they got through with the business the owner of the cotton got on their trail, summoned assistance, and arrested them. As usual, one of them turned State's evidence.

The people of Sumter county are sorely annoyed by cotton and corn thieves.

The fine residence of Mr. Bruce Harris, at Columbia, was burned on the morning of the 28d.

The new gas works of Huntsville are completed, and the city is now lighted up as in the days of old.

Acquittal of Captain Forrest.

Some eighteen months ago a difficulty occurred near Brenham, Texas, between Captain W. H. Forrest, brother to Gen. Forrest, and a man named James Holt, in which the latter was killed. Captain Forrest acted in purely self-defence, and did not shoot Holt until he himself was shot and badly wounded. For this he was arrested and tried at Brenham a few weeks since. Of Captain Forrest's trial and acquittal, a correspondent of the Memphis Appeal says:

The trial commenced in Brenham on the 14th, and ended on the 18th. The trial was prosecuted with great bitterness on the part of the Radicals. It was clearly established by the defense that Forrest killed Holt in self-defense. The jury took about five minutes to make up their verdict. It was composed of eleven white men and one negro. After they handed in their verdict, they proceeded to the court room, which is a large brick building, and was filled to excess, resounded with cheers, and it took some time before order was restored. Gen. Forrest was here during the trial. When it was known in town that he had arrived, it was not long before dozens of his old soldiers gathered round him and remained with him until he left.

Mr. Colfax, in expressing his views to a Baltimore editor, yesterday, took occasion to give his fellow-Republicans some sound advice. He said that he had great confidence in a Republican triumph in 1872, but that the canvass would be exciting and sharply contested, and, he added, that unity and wise legislation this Winter would put it within the power of the Republican Party to command success against all combinations. The advice of Mr. Colfax becomes the more pertinent when we remember that a few weeks since he published a letter in which he pointed out the necessity of reforming the revenue and the civil service and extending amnesty to the South. If Congress and the President shall do these things within the next six months—and we believe they will—Mr. Colfax's frankly expressed hope that President Grant will be re-elected will be placed beyond peradventure.

New York Times, (Radical).

A Sound Journalistic Creed.

[Maj. Bundy, in New York Evening Mail.]

To tell the news fairly, honestly and interestingly; to aid in all good causes; to represent the most liberal thoughts and highest tendencies of the time; to welcome all schemes that promise good; to encourage all human enterprises; to stimulate the love of knowledge, a taste for art, and the culture of all the better parts of our natures; to sustain good government & honest rulers, and to condemn the bad—these are a few of the requisites of a newspaper that has no quarrels with its neighbors, and that sticks closely to its purpose of living in peace with all mankind. A journal that uses these means of making itself interesting and useful, with any decent degree of ability, will not fail because it is free from abusive & controversial articles.

We take the following from the N. Y. Sun which, though radical, has some faint gleams of common sense at times:

The Louisville Courier Journal publishes an account of a society formed in some of the Southern States, for the purpose of getting rid of such negro thieves and desperadoes as can be induced by money to quit the country by shipping them to the Northern States; and thinks the device of paying marauders to go elsewhere instead of Ku Kluxing them a good idea, although perhaps unjust to the Northern communities to which it is proposed to send them. There is no occasion for any compunctions of conscience on this score. There is no probability that the society will ever send as many thieves North as we have sent South; and moreover it is not asked that we shall make them transported rascal Governors and members of Congress, or give them control of our State finances. It will require a lively export of thieves to the North to turn the balance of trade against us.

A Duel Probable.

CINCINNATI, December 1.—[Special.]—A difficulty occurred today, at Covington Kentucky, between Colonel O'Neal and General Burbridge, in which the latter struck O'Neal. It is believed by many, that a duel will grow out of the quarrel. Friends of both parties are said to have been busy since the occurrence, but whether this quiet preparations for a hostile meeting or not is unknown.

The Camden Times says:

"Doctor Drake, the President elect of the Alabama & Chattanooga Railroad, is the plantation Bitters man, and we suggest that he pay off the floating debt in that stimulating preparation.

The Selma Times has found out what the Governor issued his thanksgiving proclamation for. It is as the Times thinks specially in behalf of Selma, in getting rid of the notorious Cadn, who has been appointed United States Consul for Rio de Janeiro.

The Selma Times says work on the new cotton factory in that city is progressing finely. The building timber is to be put in place, and the interior departments are hastening on toward completion.

JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN

JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA.

SATURDAY, DEC. 9th, 1871.

How Men Change with the Times.

In looking over an old copy of De. Bow's Review, some days ago, we found the following from a correspondent of the New York Herald, incorporated in a article treating of cotton and wool Factories at the South The correspondent alluded to had visited the Saluda Factory near Columbia South Carolina, which was at that time run exclusively by slave operatives. After quoting the Superintendent to show that such labor was undoubtedly cheaper than the free white labor employed in the North he says:

"We dislike the idea of drawing a comparison between the labor of the fair and virtuous daughters of the north and that of the blacks of the south in the cotton mills. It is unpleasant to put them on the same footing even in the cotton mills, though one mill may be in Massachusetts, exclusively occupied by the amiable, industrious, intelligent, and educated daughters of the old Bay State, and the other may be in South Carolina, worked by negro slaves. We regret it; we have that sort of respect for the sex of our own race, which makes it painful to bring them to the same level with the colored races, though both may be employed in the same service."

Yet the Herald and kindred sheets and, maybe, this fastidious correspondent himself, have exerted a powerful influence to place this despised race above and masters of the sons and daughters of South Carolina.

It may be, though, that locality made all the difference with the Herald and its correspondent and than even then, while so dainty as regarded Massachusetts, they could have borne with resignation not only negro equality, but negro supremacy in South Carolina; and maybe after all they have not changed much and maybe our heading is after all, mal a propos.

The President's Message.

This document is entirely too lengthy for our columns, therefore we give in full only so much of it as may be of immediate interest to our readers and epitomize the remainder.

It opens up with an expression of gratification that "during the past year, success has so generally attended the effort to execute all laws found upon the statute book." His policy has been, he says, "not to enquire into the wisdom of laws already enacted; but to learn their spirit and intent & execute them accordingly." Inasmuch as he had power to veto such bills as the Kuklux bill and did not do it, we may infer his endorsement of them, and the adroit attempt to shift the entire responsibility that may attach to the same onto the shoulders of Congress, will fail with the people.

The country is felicitated that the past year has been one of general prosperity to the nation, but as every sweet has its bitter, so have parts of the country been desolated by fire and storm, thereby giving the benevolent a chance to "show their hands,' which the President did in a pitiful subscription to the sufferers, not so large as that donated by some Southern gentlemen whose sections had been desolated by fire and sword at the hands of the "sufferers."

The U. S. Government, is friendly with foreign nations. The Washington treaty has done and is going to do great things for the country—according to Grant. An appropriation for the purpose of determining boundary line between the United States and the British North American possessions, is called for. Nobody offended at the policy pursued by our Government in France during Franco-Prussian war — the Emperor William still friendly. Pesident has recognized the removal of capitol of Italy to Rome. New treaty of commerce between U S and Italy ratified. The treaty provides that private property at sea be exempted from capture, in case of war between the two powers. A commission to adjudicate claims of United States citizens against Spain, growing out of the Cuban troubles has been organized. Russia and United States friendly, as evidence the arrival of Alexis, the third son of the Emperor of the Russias. The country is informed that Mr. Catacazy the Russian minister has his walking papers, and that the management of the affairs of the Imperial legation has passed into other hands. This has been brought about, it is charged, by the ladies of the Court at Washington because Catacazy's wife was objectionable to them, but the President assigns other reasons of state. We are cordial with Japan and many citizens of the United States have been called to office under the Japanese Government. Admiral Rogers punished the Coreans and the honor of our flag has been vindicated. The Republic of Mexico is still treating the U. S. Government contemptuously, but the President hopes for better things. We are cordial with South American Republics. We must meet our treaty obligations with Venezuela. Extradition treaty with Nicarauga ratified. He is glad that Brazil has initiated steps to abolish slavery; but he regrets that they do not do it a la mode Yankee. He regrets that Spain does not follow suit in her West India Colonies. He wants a law restraining citizens of the United States from dealing in slaves even if they are residents of foreign countries. He alludes in terms of regret to the condition of affairs in Cuba, but intimates no intention of interfering further than to protect American citizens there; and hopes for continued peace with Spain. It is recommended to send and support eight American youths in China and Japan to serve as part of our official family in each of those countries. The national debt has been reduced $86,057,126,80 within the last year, and through the sale of bonds at reduced rate of interest, our interest account has been reduced to seventeen millions less than on March 1st 1869. A modification of both the tariff and internal tax laws is urged; that all taxes from all sources be abolished except those collected from liquors, tobacco and stamps, and that medicines and such other things as will least disturb home industry be admitted duty free. It would be bery desirable if a fixed value could be given to our currency.

The fixing of the number of officers in each grade in the staff corps of the army and that vacancies be filled by promotion, and that vacancies in the navy above the rank of captain be filled by selection and not by promotion is recommended. During the past year the navy has covered a large cruising ground, has supplied the men and officers for the coast survey, and has completed the survey of the Isthmus of Darien and Tehauntepec and has sent out an expedition to explore the unknown ocean of the North. The operations of the Post Office Department are gratifying, although it is not yet self-sustaining. The postal telegraph system is recommended. We here quote in full from the message:

There has been imposed upon the executive branch of the Government the execution of the Act of Congress approved April 20th, 1871, and commonly known as the Ku-Klux law, in a portion of the State of South Carolina. The necessity of the course pursued will be demonstrated by the report of the committees to investigate Southern outrages. Under the provisions of the above Act, I issued a proclamation calling the attention of the people of the United States to the same and declaring my reluctance to exercise any of the extraordinary powers thereby conferred upon me except in case of imperative necessity, but making known my purpose to exercise such powers whenever it should become necessary to do so for the purpose of securing to all citizens of the United States the peaceful enjoyment of the rights guaranteed to them by the Constitution and the laws. After the passage of this law, information was received from time to time that combinations of the character referred to in this law existed, and were powerful in many parts of the Southern States; particularly in certain counties in the State of South Carolina. Careful investigation was made, and it was ascertained that in nine counties of that State such combinations were active and powerful, embracing a sufficient portion of the citizens to control the local authority, and having, among other things, the object of depriving the emancipated class of the substantial benefits of freedom, and of preventing the free political action of those citizens who did sympathize with their own views. Among their operations were frequent scourgings and several assassinations, generally perpetrated at night by designing persons. The victims in almost all cases were citizens of different political sentiment from their own, or freed persons who had shown a disposition to claim equal rights with other citizens. Thousands of inoffensive and well disposed citizens were the sufferers by this lawless violence. Thereupon, on the 12th day of October, 1871, a proclamation was issued in terms of the law, calling upon the members of those combinations to disperse within five days, and to deliver to the marshal or military officers of the United States all arms, ammunition, uniforms, disguises and other means and implements used by them for carrying out their unlawful purpose. This warning not having been heeded on the 17th of October another proclamation was issued suspending the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus in nine counties in that State. Direction was given that within the counties so designated persons supposed, upon credible information, to be members of such unlawful combinations should be arrested by the military forces of the United States and delivered to the marshal to be dealt with according to law. In two of said counties, York and Spartanburg, many arrests have been made. At the last account the number of prisoners thus arrested was one hundred and sixty-eight. Several hundred, whose criminality was ascertained to be of an inferior degree, were released for the present. These have generally made confessions of their guilt. Great caution has been exercised in making these arrests, and notwithstanding the large number it is believed that no innocent person is now in custody. The prisoners will be held for regular trial in the Judicial tribunals of the United States. As soon as it appeared that the authorities of the United States were about to take vigorous measures to enforce the law, many persons absconded and there is good grounds for supposing that all of such persons have violated the law.

The Mormans are to be made to relinquish all their wives but one apiece; and an enabling act looking to the legitimatizing of the children is suggested. Liberal appropriations are recommended to carry out the Indian peace policy.

The public lands must be regarded as a heritage to our children to be disposed of only to actual settlers.

The Agricultural Department has worked well.

Heads of Bereaux and officials holding offices of responsibility ought to be better paid.

Again he approaches the South as if the fascination, which it is said draws the murderer to revisit the scene of his great crime, possessed him; but now he bears an olive branch. He does not recommend the removal of disabilities as a matter of justice, but because, he don't see the "advantage" of their further continuance. We quote the portion of the message in full:

"More than six years having elapsed since the last hostile gun was fired between the armies then arrayed against each other, one for the perpetuation and the other for the destruction of the Union, it may be well considered whether it is not now time that the disabilities imposed by the Fourteenth Amendment should be removed. That amendment does not exclude the ballot but only imposes the inability to hold offices upon certain classes. When the purity of the ballot is secure majorities are sure to elect officers reflecting the views of the majority. I don't see the advantage or propriety of excluding men from office merely because they were, before the rebellion, of standing and character sufficient to be elected to positions requiring them to take an oath to support the Constitution, and admitting the eligibility of those entertaining precisely the same views but of less standing in their communities. It may be said that the former violated an oath while the latter did not have it in their power to do so. If they had taken that oath it cannot be doubted that they would have broken it as did the former classes. If there are any great criminals distinguished above all others for the part they took in opposition to the Government they might in the judgment of Congress be excluded from such an amnesty. This subject is submitted for your careful consideration.

The condition of the Southern States is unhappily not such as all true patriotic citizens would like to see. Persecutions for opinion sake, personal violence or threats towards persons entertaining political views opposed to those entertained by the majority of the old citizens, prevents immigration and the flow of much needed capital into the States lately in rebellion.

It will be a happy condition of the country when the old citizens of these States will take an interest in public affairs, promulgate ideas honestly entertained, vote for men representing their views and tolerate the same freedom of opinion and ballot in those entertaining different political conversations."

The territorial Government of the District of Columbia works well.

A liberal appropriation is recommended to rebuild the Government buildings in Chicago.

A law by which better treatment of emigrants may be secured is recommended.

"It has been the aim of the administration to enforce honesty and efficiancy in all public offices"!!! Many of the thieves have been prosecuted. A law restraining men from making bad nominations is much desired.

As much however as he desires civil service reform, he admits that up to this time he has scarcely inaugurated it under the act approved March 3rd 1871.

The Democrats of Montgomery, have elected a majority in the city Council and the Radicals have elected the Mayor.

Our Oxford Correspondent writes us that too much business on his hands deprives him of the pleasure of furnishing us our locals from that city this week. He promises to be on hand in our next issue. The communication of ... came in after such a crowd of matter had been received that it was impossible for us to give it a place. We hope to hear from him next week, as per promise and we would say to him, as to all who write for newspapers, to say what he has to say briefly and to the point. Many communications miss insertions in every newspaper because of their length and because the editor does not feel authorized, in the absence of instructions, to cut them down.

The Water Works Question.

THE VIEWS OF AN OPPONENT.

JACKSONVILLE, ALA.

Mr. Editor Republican:

Will you allow me, through your much esteemed paper, to give a few brief reasons why I was, and am, opposed to the Incorporation of the town of Jacksonville, Ala., issuing bonds, from the sale of which she expects to get money, for the purpose of constructing water works. This sir, is a question that certainly does demand of every real estate owner within our corporate limits, a serious and impartial consideration. And sir, if the town of Jacksonville contracts a bonded debt, to the amount of ten or twelve thousand dollars, it will have an influence in shaping her future destiny, either for good or evil. Either it will give to her people prosperity with conveniences, or a failure coupled with increased taxation.

I assume the latter side of the question, and in doing so, I do it with due respect and the very kindest of feelings for those who have and may yet differ with me. And further I assure you that it is foreign from my intention to do or say anything calculated to choke down the energy of any person or enterprise of any description, where I think the interest of the masses will be promoted. In the enterprise I do not believe the best interest of our whole tax-paying population will be promoted. First, I do not believe that a general necessity for water works exists. Our town will compare favorably with almost any in the State, with her present supply of water. We have as fine, pure, cold a spring of water as can be found anywhere, with sufficient quantity to supply twenty-five thousand people, if properly distributed. With but few exceptions (perhaps one dozen) the improved lots of our town have good wells of pure, cold water on them, sufficient for all present demands. We now also have a public well, on the public square, that promises to yield an abundance for the business portion of our town.

I will admit, that a partial necessity does exist and that some of our most beautiful locations in the south-east part of our village are rather dry. But the question arises, is it right and proper for the Incorporation, at the expense of ten or twelve thousand dollars, to supply the deficiency? or would it not be more equitable for a private stock company to construct water works (the Incorporation taking a reasonable amount of stock,) for the purpose of supplying those who are in need. Our town is so situated and built, that it would necessitate a very great expense before there would be anything approximating a general benefit resulting from the erection of water works, being located as it is principally along Main Street (or the public road) and Broad Street running at a right angle with and from Main to Depot. The distance from our common centre, north and south is three-fourths of a mile and from Main Street to Maj. Abernathy's, is three-fourths of a mile, making some two and one quarter miles of main piping requisite, (to say nothing of family piping after the water has been brought upon the square) before it will be of general utility. Hence we say, that where the public revenue of any community is invested in any enterprise whatever, the said enterprise should confer upon that people general good; otherwise, injustice will be done. But I hear it said, in this enterprise we do not propose to use the revenue of the town or to increase the revenue, either to meet the interest on the bonds—or to pay the bonds when due.

Well how is that to be avoided? The answer is that the revenue derived from the water tax will meet the interest and accumulate a sufficient amount to pay off the bonds when due. In answer to which, I can assure you that it looks very flattering indeed, and at first glance seems very plausible; but I think it beyond a reasonable calculation for us to expect so brilliant a success. The simple interest on ten thousand dollars will be eight hundred dollars annually. So you see we will have to sell water to thirty-two persons at twenty-five dollars each, or sixteen at fifty dollars each, in order to meet the interest alone, to say nothing of the cost of superintendent of the works, annual repairs &c. We all know the usual sagacity monied men use in seeking investment; and think you that any sane man would invest his money in our bonds, looking only to the result of the enterprise for the security of his money? Rarely not. But sir when our Council and Mayor are legally authorized by a special act of the General Assembly of the State to issue bonds, and they do so, their action is a valid one, and the Incorporation can be sued at law and the amount of bonds collected—not by the selling of real estate directly, but by an increase of revenue and appropriating a sufficient amount annually, until said bonds are satisfied.

Our revenue is raised by various licenses and a direct tax on real estate. Hence, you see that in case of a failure upon the part of the enterprise to do what is proposed to be done, then the real estate of the Town is indirectly responsible for the payment of the bonds.

Well, but says, an advocate of water-works, this is an age of progress, of advancement, and most of our neighboring "cities" have water-works, and why not we have them also? In answer to which, I say that I am very much in favor of progression, and a warm friend to all private enterprises, which tend to benefit those interested, and not detrimental to others; and also the friend of public enterprise, where the masses are benefited. If we had a population of five thousand people, then a bonded debt of some ten or twelve thousand dollars would not be quite so objectionable. Well but says one, would it not be grand indeed for us to have water meandering all our streets and all the private families to be supplied in their cook-rooms with an abundance of fresh pure water, by simply turning a fancy cock?

I admit that it would be grand, and looking at the question from a purely selfish stand point, I would be in favor of the enterprise, knowing as I do that my interest would be promoted as much almost as any person in our town and much more than many others. But sir, I oppose it because I do not believe the general interest of our real estate owners will be promoted. And furthermore, I believe the powers conferred upon the Council to be a dangerous one. A power to contract debts for a whole community is one that can be much abused, as the present financial condition of our much beloved State of Alabama will testify. And not only Alabama, but all the States, will give the same testimony, where irresponsible adventurers have had control of public affairs, who were not identified in interest with the masses of their people. And sir, you know, with our present liberal voting privileges, that we are liable to have men elected to do our public business, who are not identified with the real estate owners in interest. Hence, in my opinion, if our town is compelled to have water works, they should be built by private subscribed stock and not by the Incorporation against the wish of a large majority of real estate owners. But says one, if built by a private company, they would extortion upon their patrons, by exorbitant charges for water. I concede that when individuals combine with their money for the purpose of speculation, they usually anticipate a reasonable dividend on the amount invested, but I cannot think for a moment that a company organized in our village would expect more than a reasonable per cent on their capital, which of course would be regulated by the consumption of water. So the difference in the plans is this: One has nothing outside the success of the enterprise to make good the investment, while the other, has all the tax-paying people as security.

I have been informed that some of my friends (I hope I have no enemies) are very much astonished at my being opposed to this enterprise, consequently I respectfully ask you to indulge me, by publishing my feble and unpolished explanations.

I am sir, very aespectfully,
J. D. HAMMOND.

Alabama Legislature.

HOUSE.

MONDAY, DEC. 4TH, 1871.

(A portion of the Proceedings of Monday is printed on the outside of the REPUBLICAN.)

BILLS PASSED.—To prevent Railroad companies in Ala. from discriminating between local and through freight, except as authorized by law.

To authorize sale of stock committing trespass to pay for damage, notwithstanding exemption law.

To change boundary lines between Calhoun and Etowah.

To require Railroad ticket offices to be kept open 1 hour before trains leave.

To make a five foot fence without stakes and riders a lawful fence.

To repeal the act allowing cities, towns and counties to subscribe to the capital of railroads.

ALABAMA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

Tuesday, Dec 5, 1871.

The following House bills were taken up and disposed of as follows:

To amend act for relief of delinquent tax payers—passed.

To make a display of weapons endangering the lives of others a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of $500 to $1000 and imprisonment in jail—referred.

Bill to give additional powers to Judges of Probate was defeated.

To amend section 774 of the code—referred

Board of Education.

Committee reported adversely to bill to provide for equal apportionment of free public school moneys to every child in the State, on ground of unconstitutionality.

Alabama Legislature.

Wednesday, Dec 6th, 1871.

SENATE.

Mr. Sandford introduced a bill to reduce salaries of Governor and other State officials and members of the General Assembly, almost identically the same as that introduced in the House.

To amend section 2739 of the code—referred.

The adverse report of the committee on the following bills was concurred in:

To regulate hours of sale of agricultural products. House bill to regulate Sheriff's sales. House bill to require County Sups. to keep township funds separate.

HOUSE.

BILLS REFERRED.—To give Registers in Chancery power to appoint a pro tem chancellor in the absence of that officer. To repeal act amendatory of act regulating publication of legal notices. A bill forbidding the sale of mortgaged corn or cotton on which other lien exists without leave of mortgage, under penalty and also punishes any one purchasing such property knowingly. To authorize removal of fences after they are shown by survey to be on land of another. To [illegible] garnishment of a judgment debtor. To prescribe manner of introducing a party to a suit as witness. To amend sections 1361, 2794, 2792, 2910 of the code.

BILLS PASSED.—To declare Stella Crandall of Calhoun county the adopted daughter of E A Crandall and competent to inherit his estate. Senate bill to repeal the act to repeal and amend subdivision 10 of section 750 of code. To require Probate Judges to give sureities persons living in their own counties. To give married women under 21 same rights as others over 21. To repeal Ku Klux act. To pay wife and heirs of Gen Clanton $10,000 for services rendered the State by him as attorney.

Bill enlarging powers of Probate Judges again brought up by reconsideration, and made special order for tomorrow (Thursday.)

A bill to regulate privileges and elections was laid on the table and 150 copies ordered printed.

A bill to tax bachelors and dogs 50cts each was defeated.

Among other local bills the Governor approved the Jacksonville water works bill.

Board of Education.

The Governor has approved the following bills passed by this body:

To repeal section 984 of article 4 chapt 1, 2 of code. To repeal sections 14 & 15 of article 10 of the school laws. To authorize Supt. of Pub. Instruction to make supplemental apportionment. An act relating to township trustees. To provide for 3 beneficiaries of State University (the sons of Gen Clanton.)

Committee reported a bill to provide for a University for colored students—(sic.)

The Perils of Teaching Grammar.

The following has been "going the rounds" of late:

"I have been sendin' my dartor Nancy to skool to a schoolmaster in this neighborhood. Last Friday I went over to the the skool to see how Nancy was getting along, and I seed things I didn't like by no means. The schoolmaster was larnin her things entirely out of the line of eddycation, and, as I think, improper I set a while in the schoolhouse, and heered one class say their lesson. They were spellin', and I thought spelled quite exceedingly. Then cum Nancy's turn to say her lesson.—She said it very sory. I was shok't and determined she should leave that skool. I heared that grammer was an uncommon fine study, but I don't want any mor grammar about my house: The lesson that Nancy sed was nothin' but the foolishest kind of talk; the rediclist word she said was, 'I love.' I looked right at her hard for being so improper, but she went right on and sed, 'thou loves.' And I reckon you never heared such rigermarole in your life—love, love, love, love, love, nuthin' but love. She sed one time, 'I did love.' Sez I' who did you love?' The scholars, lafted, but I wasn't to be put off, and sed, 'who did you love Nancy?' the schoolmaster, Mr. McQuillister, put in, he said he would explain when Nancy finished the lesson.—This sorter pacified me, and Nancy went on with her awful love talk. It got wus and wus every word. She said, 'I might could or would love.' I stopped her again, and said I reckon I would see about that, and told her to walk out of that house. The schoolmaster tried to interfere, but I would not let him say a word. He said I was a fool, and I nok't him down, and made him hollor in short order.—talkt the strate thing to him. I told him I'd show how hede larn my darter grammer. I got the nabors together, and we sent Mr. McQuilister off in a hurry, and I rekon tharl be no more grammer teaching in these parts soon. If you know of any other oldish man in your region that don't teach grammer, we would be glad if you would send him up. But in future we will be keerful how we employ men. Young schoolmasters won't do, especially if they teach grammer.—It is a bad thing for morals.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 4.

Both Houses have organized.—Beck offered a resolution asking the President certain questions regarding the execution of the Ku-Klux law which meeting a storm of objections was referred to the committee on Insurrectionary States. Connor and Hancock of Texas were sworn in. Other Texas credentials were sent.

In the Senate Blair offered resolutions of enquiry (the same as Beck offered in the House regarding the inforcement of the KuKlux law, which went over under objection, though the message was ready and the Senate adjourned.

Senate Anthony introduced a bill amending the election Act, making it criminal to use any writing, device, token word or gesture with intent to intimidate voters or counselling or indirectly procuring the use of such measures of intimidation:

Robertson endeavored to introduce an amnesty bill but was declared out of order. Adjourned.

House—apportionment bill was sprung no conclusion was reached.

From KuKlux Committee, Stevenson offered a resolution for the removal of political disabilities, and extending the time within which the writ of habeas corpus may be suspended, and making every member of the Ku-Klux and other treasonable conspiracies responsible for the cruelty and criminal acts of his fellow members.

CHEROKEE COUNTY NEWS.—It is said that McElrath and Hinton have formed a partnership in the practice of the law at Centre.

Hunters tell us that Ball Play swamps abound with turkey, deer and duck.

We are informed that the citizens of Cherokee county purchased $10,000 worth of fruit trees from the Kentucky nursery.

A heavy snow fell at Centre on Thursday last.

Quite a number of families in this county are preparing to move West.

John Daniel is to be the new Jailor.

Corn is worth 60 cents per Bushel in Broom Town Valley.

The Concert given by Mr. Cather at Centre Academy was quite a success. There was only one thing that marred the pleasure of the large crowd in attendance, and that was the appearance of some person in disguise during the exercises. The person came in at the front door, and walked up the aisle, pistol in hand. The occurence is lamented by all good citizens of the county. Some of the audience went to their homes, procured fire arms & returned, determining to resist a like disturbance.

It is really becoming dangerous to walk out on the street in Centre after night on account of the frequent firing of pistols and guns. It is to be hoped the next Grand Jury will look into this.

The election yesterday was characterized by more turbulence and a greater disposition to riot than we have seen manifested here since the days of Wager Swayne. For a while when a negro attempted to vote the Democratic ticket he was insulted and otherwise maltreated, and in one case at least, attempted to be beaten. The case referred to was in Ward No. 5, where a crowd of negro vagabonds had gathered to "carry the election at all hazards." Some white democrats who were present interfered to protect the negro who was assaulted, whereupon one of the impudent scoundrels shot into the crowd of white men, attempting, as it seems, to kill Mr. Tilghman Offutt. The shot missed Mr. Offutt, but struck and killed a negro man. Another negro fired a shot, which struck Mr. Rike in the face, and it is said still another shot struck a negro man in the side.

The negro who fired the fatal shot escaped. Fortunately the row ended here, or there might have been a terrible difficulty. Under all the circumstances it is a matter of thankfulness and congratulation that no further disturbances occurred.—Montgomery Advertiser.

Republican

LOCAL COLUMN.

Mr. Hammonds discusses this week through the REPUBLICAN, in a temperate spirit, the water works question. That it is susceptible of argument will be hardly denied. No question in the range of speculation can be sprung but what men will differ on it. That this question was fully discussed before the election ordered by the Council is a matter of fact also; and the people decided at that election by a majority of almost three to one in favor of water works. If the majority of the people of the town want the water, why that is an end to the question after all, for majorities rule. If it proves a bad investment for the town that majority will suffer in common with the minority.

Mr. Hammonds goes on the assumption that those having wells will not be benefitted by the water. The advocates of water works correctly argue that the whole town will be benefitted in the increased facilities such works afford for the extinguishment of fires, reduced rate of insurance and the rapid increase of population resulting, as well as the enhanced value of every foot of land improved or unimproved in the town.

For us, we are in favor of the people of the town doing as they please in the matter, but we want them to do something. Without water or something else as essential and life inspiring Jacksonville will dry up soon.

On Friday evening of last week about 7 o'clock, Messrs Jones Bush and J. D. McAuley of Alexandria, rode out to the fox chase, having with them a fine chance of dogs. In a very short while they started a red fox near Mt. Zion, and, running it to the banks of the Coosa, a distance, of fifteen miles, back again, up and down, round and round, sixty miles, they finally caught it. Thomas Pelham's Sparta started it and was assisted throughout the race by Jake Green's Queen and Jones Bush's dogs Whalebone and Plutarch. Hurrah for hoora.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN HO! HO!!—Those excellent gentlemen merchants. Messrs. Draper & Johnson, having had the good fortune to secure his valuable services, now boast themselves of having a clerk,

At once obedient to the call
Of fat and lean and short and tall,
Come one come all!!

JIM IN THE CORNER.

We are indebted to the Commissioner of Agriculture as well as Rev E. T Read who used his influence with that official to procure them for us, for two thrifty and beautiful tea plants. We have placed them in a hot house for the winter and will take them out and plant them next Summer and test the experiment as to whether tea can be grown successfully in this part of Alabama.

Several of our subscribers have signified to us the interest they take in reading the locals furnished us each week from nearly every nook and corner of the county, by our clever and intelligent correspondents; but nothing has pleased us half so much as this incident furnished us by a gentleman the "other" evening:

The REPUBLICAN had no sooner been announced than there was a scramble for it among the children. The youngest, a beautiful little girl of some ten or twelve years, got it, however, when she said: "Give it to me ma, I want to read the locals."

Last week the notice of the advertisement of Messrs. McDONALD & Co., Clothing Merchants, Montgomery, Ala., was crowded out. They are too clever though to be passed by without a further introducrion to our readers than their bare advertisment affords. Their establishment is the most immense of its kind in the city and their prices the lowest. Both proprietors and attaches are justly held in the highest esteem by customers who have dealt with them for their liberality, hospitality (for they make customers feel at home while in their establishment) and hightoned courteous manners. Besides the proprietors, and we presume, employees, are "straight" Democrats a considerable recommedation to the people of the "hill country around adout" Jacksonville.

Mr. Hammonds says we have a sufficient quantity of water to supply twenty five thousand people; if properly distributed.

This is so, and the water works advocates, we understand, propose to properly distribute it.

Mr Smith Lipscomb has been reappointed Notary Public in Calhoun Co., by his Excellency, Gov. Lindsay.

The Columbiana Guide wants to know who that old lady was that had the baby in that town, and which our Oxford correspondent was "responsible" for.—Answer Mr. Oxford local. It is your baby, not ours.

Our Young people (and old ones too) will not forget that next Friday is the day on which Wooten & Haight's circus will be on hand. Mr. Durand, the gentlemanly agent, has been around and left us an advertisement to which the attention of our readers is invited. The show is well spoken of everywhere it has been.

Cotton worth, on the streets of Jacksonville, this week, from 17 to 17¾ cts.

I have a great many small accounts, (and some for postage) which I desire to close up, and respectfully request all who owe me to call and settle.

Respectfully.
W. T. ALEXANDER.

The members of the Athenian Debating Club will engage in public debate at College Hall, on the evening of 29th inst. Public invited to attend.

Go and see Ed. Woodward before buying your Groceries.

ALEXANDRIA LOCALS.

COMING IN—We notice on our streets to-day, several wagons loaded with the "Staple." The farmers in this part of Calhoun, are finding out that Alexandria is "THE" market for them. Our cotton buyers always pay the highest prices, while our active and energetic merchants sell goods at the very lowest figures.

OFF TO GA.—Mr. S. J. Whatley with family, leaves to-day (Thursday), for his new home, purchased in Floyd Co., Ga., some time since. In this removal Alexandria sustains a loss from which she will not soon recover. He has the best wishes of countless friends for his future prosperity.

MARRIED—On the 28th, at the residence of the brides father, near Alexandria, by Rev. T. P. Guin, M. C. Hindman and Miss Fannie Glann. All of Calhoun County.

Fox hunting is the sport of the season with us. Won't Messrs. V. & S. bring down that wagon load of bloodied dogs they have—Jacob is very anxious to show them what he can do.

We had the pleasure of a call from Mr. John M. Caldwell the other day. He was as usual looking elegant. We hope John will make his visits more frequent in future. His old friends would be glad to see him at any time.

The energetic farmers of our Valley have taken advantage of the favorable fall we have been having, and put in large crops of wheat, all of which up to this time looks quite promising.

We have a splendid school house, but at this time we have no school. Why is this? There are plenty of children in and near Alexandria to make a good school, and a teacher not hard to get. No excuse. So go to work, ye lovers of education.

Many, both old and young, are in our midst from the oppressed counties of South Carolina. Their reports and the reports we get from the papers are about the same. They are welcomed by all, with feelings of sympathy.

Our fellow townsman Mr. Wm. G. Ledbetter is now absent, in Montgomery attending Grand Lodge. He represents Lodge No 208.

Cotton brisk. We see our merchants paying from 16¾ to 17¼ cents for cotton, and proposing to close out large lines of their goods at cost.

SUCCESSOR.

NANCY'S CREEK LOCALS.

The health of our valley is very good, except that of Mr. Peter Bolinger and Wilson Gilmer; both have been and are in very feeble health. Mr. B., is now termed an octogenarian. But few, comparatively, live to that age.

We are nearly done gathering and some are done sowing. We have had and are having our cotton crops ginned and packed, hoping the price will soon get up to 20 cts. I must here state that there is a bale at J. B. Smith's gin, which contains the lint of 2300 lbs., (seed cotton). Who can beat it? Mr. Smith is an experienced ginner and very accommodating, and gives full satisfaction to his many customers; his is a water power, and he well affords to gin for the 15th.

LADIGA LOCAL.—Your No. 11 does not fill the measure. Write out the descriptive list again, and probably you may hit it. That brick kiln is all sold but a few soft ones, (and most of them); that new framed building is now occupied by the proprietor; acorns are still in abundance, and the hogs are living fat. I presume you have bottom land to cultivate brother neighbor, and have sometime had it hung up to drip by your heavy firing down the creek. Be careful how you shoot. Don't load too heavy, and don't shoot up the creek. If you do, raise your sights.

If you want goobers, go to Peter Diffy. He has 'em. He is an old goober grabbler. He plants extensively and raises "oodles" of 'em.

There is one of those disappointed candidates in this valley, who wishes to tender his thanks to his friends that supported him in the hour of trouble, notwithstanding their inability to save him (at the polls).

Corn Grove Locals.

[We received these several days ago, they were crowded out last week; and since they have been delayed so long, we take the liberty of dropping out the reflections of our correspondent on the election, in which he congratulates the candidates and urges them to "be true," "be faithful" &c., We wont leave out what he says about the energics of a Rip Van Winkle, though, oh! no.—Ed, Rep.]

DEAR LON.—Speaking of grass reminds me that Clover is being raised successfully in this locality.

Corn is going at $1.00 per bushel.

The Rail road men are close on us—sorter lost—will find the right way before long.

Our portion of the County is quite thrifty and will compare favorably with any other portin of Calhoun. We have a fine school and an excellent teacher, two good stores—(one at Teague's X Roads, and the other at Davisville;)—blacksmith shops, a carriage shop and a saddlery, harness and shoe shop; but instead of one shoe shop we might have a dozen; instead of buying "brought on" cloth, we might make it. Oh! that the energies of a RIP VAN WINKLE might wake up the Choccolocoans! We have the means, we have the locality, we have the water-power, we have every thing but some energetic man to put the ball in motion.—What does Capt. McKibbon say? Let us hear from him. We have now waiting one hundred bales of cotton to be subscribed to such an undertaking, and that beats narrow-gauge all hollow.

"CAPT. BENTEY.L"

WEAVER'S STATION LOCALS.

[These were received last week; but were crowded out with others. We would be glad to hear from the station every week.—Ed. Rep.]

MR. REPUBLICAN.—We see that nearly every town in the county are sending in locals; and if it be agreeable we beg room for ours.

The population of our town is not large, but bids fair to rapidly increase, as almost every day, buisness men are here hunting business locations.

We have an excellent depot building erected by Mr. D. F. Weaver at his own cost. In connection with that he has erected a fine gin house in fifty steps of the depot, where he gins, buys, sells and ships cotton, or attends to business in any way in his usually satisfactory manner. He is the principal cotton-buyer here and pays the best price.

This is a beautiful location for a town; Though as yet not many buildings have gone up; there are many in contemplation. We will burn the sedge off the public square, as soon as it gets dry enough and that will add considerably to our town.

We will have a Post Office here soon.

One hundred bags of cotton shipped from here this season; but this is only a dribble, Dark Corner not having sent in any yet.

Uncle Ladiga, we have no acorns

CLAY.

SHENCK'S SULPHER SPRING LOCALS.

We omitted to mention, in our last, that our worthy and well known fellow-citizen, Ab Littlejohn, has selected a beautiful site on the north side of the Jacksonville and Gadsden road, 3 or 3½ miles from the former, and is erecting thereon a commodious, comfortable and neat cottage dwelling. He expects to complete it and move in about Christmas, and has promised the "old and young folk" the privilege of christening it. A glorious old time that will be, won't it Jake?

We also omitted to mention that Mr. Jack Woodly and lady have removed some ten miles north of this, on the head of Ohatchie creek and Mrs. Wyly Turner, his sister, occupies his dwelling—a temporary exchange for convenience.

We also feel privileged to mention the Sunday school at Union church, located three miles southwest from the spring. It is a prosperous and efficient school, under the superintendence of Rev. James Webster. Near the church is the neighborhood burial place, the appearance of which, at all seasons, but more especially in the Spring, indicates an intelligent, high-toned and devotional community.

The show bills have been circulated among us and a very interesting debate in several households is the result. Mama thinks that men who don't work ought not to be patronized. The children claim the right to see the works of nature and papa desiring to gratify his own love of fun, decides the children in the right, and mama at last gives in that it is no harm to go and look at the animals. The question of funds next arises. The little girls get their charm strings and parade from 15 cents to a whole quarter of a dollar, with a promise to perform many wonders in a short time, if papa will make up the deficit; the little boys go to trapping and hunting to raise the needed sum by sale of the game taken. George has succeeded.—He has already caught eleven birds and got his coveted 50 cents. This reminds us that it is time for netting birds. Tom and Taylor, Dan and Julius are having and will have their sport through the season.—The birds congregate for comfort and social enjoyment in Winter, while their foes, the girls and their beaus pair off two by two, male and female, indulging in all the pleasantries of flirtation, moderate or excessive, depending on her ingenuity or his gallantry. The only injunction we will place on you is Sambo's advice to his ebony offspring: "Young folks better be 'ticular."

Cross Plains Locals

I wonder if any other local in the county will say anything about the weather this week. Well sir, that's all we have to talk about now, with the exceptions of a few striking remarks occasionally about our neighbors just to vary the monotony. Not sir that our good people mean to slander each other; but then—well "People will talk you know." But the weather it—has indeed been cold, icy, chilly, wintry, raw, miserable, freezing, terrible, excruciating, awful—but I give it up, there is no word to express it. Messrs. Thomas and Jeremiah and Mr. Gin Sling have been doing all in their powor to keep the people warm, but its no go. We are like one big ice-berg.

Speaking of keeping warm reminds me that there were in this vicinity on Thursday night last, two weddings and one grand dancing party. Being a married man, of course I went to the party. It was decidedly the best thing of the season. The music was enchanting, the supper delicious and the ladies—but I fear my wife will see this. Of the weddings I have not yet heard enough to report; but will do so fully when the cake arrives.

We fully concur in the sentiment of the poet, so touchingly set forth in the following elegant lines.

"I would not die in Autumn,
With oysters fit for eatin,'
When buckwheat cakes is comin' on
And candidates is treatin',
When sasage meat is fryin',
And hickory nuts is thick;
O, who would think of dyin',
Or even gettin' sick!'

According to the estimate of a statistical exchange there are fifty-five Republicans, sixteen Democrats, one SCHURZ man and one BLAIR man in the Senate; and one hundred and fifty Republicans and one hundred and three Democrats in the House.

HAVANA, Dec. 4.

A letter says only desecration of Castenon's grave consisted in braking a glass case covering the nich, removing Immortells and substituting wreaths of Garlic. For this 8 students were shot and 11 sententeneed to 6 years in chain gang; 19, to 4 years on china gang, and 4 to 6 months imprisonment. The College asserted it was a mere frolic, but volunteers ruled the hour who raided the streets all day shooting 8 Cubans. Condemned students were not allowed an hour's respite to see their friends.

The Human Body, its Waste and Repair.

The body is undergoing continual waste, both in the voluntary processes of labor and action generally (mental as well as physical) and also in the involuntary processes (respiration for example) This waste must be repaired by the blood, as it continually circulates and comes into contact with the various portions of the system and the losses of the blood must be supplied from food. As the material of the body is derived from the substance of the food, so all vital power is derived from force stored up in the food. Food is organic matters in a state of molecular tension; and when, in digestion, it becomes decomposed, this tension is given out in the form of physical forces, such as muscular power, animal heat and the like. Every thought that we think, every breath that we draw, every slightest motion or gesture that we make, wears away the organiged tissues to some extent. In a healthy condition this waste produces a proportionate degree of appetite and of digestive vigour But in imperfect health it is not so Either the appetite is deficient, or the forces of the digestive organs are not adequate to convert into nutritious blood that amount of food which the appetite craves. Now Dr. Fisch's Bitters is a tonic and stimulant adapted by its ingredient to create an agreeable appetite, and also in like degree to stimulate the digestive powers. When this much is accomplished, and the system once put in the way of appropriating nourishment for itself, we may look upon the cure as already effected Time and careful living will do the rest.

Womans' Rights.—One who has long studied this absorbing subject now presents to the woman of our country the result of this investigations. He is happy to say that he has at last discovered "Woman's Best Friend." It is adapted, especially, to those cases where the womb is disordered, and will cure any irregularity of the "menses." Dr J. Bradfield's Female Regulator acts like a charm in "whites," or in a sudden check of the "monthly courses" from cold trouble of mind, or like causes, by restoring the discharge in every instance. So also in chronic cases its action is prompt and decisive, and saves the constitution from countless evils and premature decay. This valuable preparation is for sale at $1.50 per bottle by all respectable Druggist in the land. Prepared and sold by L. H. Bradfield, Druggist, Atlanta, Ga. A thousand women testify to its merits.

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter,s United States Almanac for 1872, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States, and all civilized countries of the western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welch, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish language, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetter,s Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

PROSPECTUS OF THE OXFORD CHRONICLE.

The undesigned proposes to commence about the first of January next, the publication of a weekly newspaper, in the Town of Oxford Ala., to be called the "OXFORD CHRONICLE"

Our paper will be Democratic in sentiment, Conservative in tone, and keeping, always in view the welfare of our Sunny South, will labor zealously and faithfully to promote the prosperity of her people.

The Great Political Question

soon to agitate the country, we will indeavor to discus in that spirit of calmness, moderation, prudence, forethought and firmness, the exigences of the hour seem to require.

While striving to promote the best interest of our whole people, the development of the natural, agricultural and mineral resources of our own immediate section, will claim a large share of our attention.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the victim on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and of all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

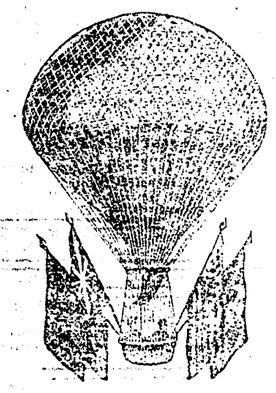
CIRCUS, MENAGRIE AND BALLOON.



ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.

A little less than one year, when this grand enterprise was organized in Atlanta, Georgia, many sagacious people predicted failure in its infancy; but the unprecedented success crowning it, everywhere it has been, has satisfied them of the error of their judgment. No exhibition on the road has given greater satisfaction, and none has achieved as great a degree of popularity. Neither labor or money has been spared to make it the most expensive and choice exhibition on the road, and the almost daily tremendous audiences, applauding the feats of the different artists have served to stimulate the managers to even greater efforts. Throughout the Middle States and New England, the Provinces of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward's Island, Cape Breton and New Foundland, there has been but one voice from the press and public as to the intrinsic merits of this mammoth enterprise. Messrs. WOOTTEN & HAIGHT, feel an excusable pride in thus referring to their repeated triumphs and praise of the world which has but one verdict as to the HIGH CHARACTER & SUPERIORITY of this first class arenic and zoological combination.

THE AMRICAN WASHER.
PRICE, $5 50.

The American Washer Saves Money, Time, and Drudgery.

The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attention to this little machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated.

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready to use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one-half longer than by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket. Three shirts at a time, washing thoroughly! In a word, addition of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally within the capacity of this LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any time and taken off at will.

No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleansing efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once become the fast friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low that it is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.

$5.50.

All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER is a fair trial. We guarantee each machine to do its work perfectly.

Why not get well!

It is an established fact, convincingly proved by the highest testimony, and by the practical test of 10yrs successful experience, that Dr. Crook's Wine of Tar has been administered with the most extraordinary success in all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, performing many very remarkable cures of Cases pronounced incurable.

Such a remedy merits a trial from all who are afflicted and vainly seek the relief. Will you let prejudice prevent you from trying it?

The Druggists write that "all who try it rec ommend it—many having several bottles the second time, and stating they would not be without a bottle in their house." It cures all Coughs, Colds and Chronic Coughs, and its many cures of Asthma and Bronchitis, of long standing—when other remedies have failed—have caused it to be considered a specific for these complaints. Throat Ailments require but a few doses. Consumptives, and all suffering with Pulmonary Affections, of any kind, should not fail to gain the relief and cure afforded by Dr Crook's Wine of Tar. Try one bottle. It is safe to take at any time, and under any circumstances, whatever.

Permit no other remedy to be palmed off on you for Dr. Crook's Wine of Tar, for it is this remedy which is performing the many wonderful cures—and you want IT, and not an untried medicine with a similarity of name. Sold by Druggists.

MESSRS. J. & S. BONES, Dear Sirs

I have given the 16 inch Mill (Clemans) bought of you, a thorough test, and can but express myself perfectly satisfied. The power was the running gear fo my gin, which although in very bad order, was sufficient to grind one bushel (by the watch) in eleven minutes. I find no trouble to do my grinding before breakfast. Several of my neighbors were present at the time, and all were satisfied with the result, and were astonished at the quantity and fine quality of the meal produced in so short a time, I prefer the meal to any steam mill meal. The 16 inch mill I bought of you for the Foster Farm, and used since the above was written proves equally satisfactory. It is a complete mill.

Yours Truly,

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure, (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty year's successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous are of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide" price 25 cents.

HEALTH! BEAUTY!!

Strong and pure rich Blood—Increase of Flesh and Weight—Clear Skin and beautiful Complexion secured to all,

DR. RADWAY'S
Sarsaparillian Resolvent

Has made the most astonishing cures; so quick, so rapid are the changes the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that

Every day an increase in Weight and Flesh is Felt.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Erruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wasts, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of waste by its repairs will is rapid, and every day one patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and weight increasing.

Not only does the Sarsaparillian Resolvent excels all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney and Bladder Complaints,

Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

DR. RADWAY'S
PERFECT PURGATIVE PILLS,

perfectly tasteless, elegantly coated with sweet gum, purge, regulate, purify, cleanse, and strengthen. OF Foreign Literature Science And Art
Twenty-seventh Year—Seventy-sixth volume.
New Volume begins January, 1872
NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.
The ECLECTIC reprints the best Essays, Reviews, Stories, and Scientific Articles, from the prominent English, French, and German periodicals. Its selections are very carefully made, and for more than a quarter of a century it has maintained its position as the leading exponent of foreign contemporary thought.

SPECIALTIES OF THE ELECTIC.

Science.
It is believed that in this department the ELECTIC is more comprehensive and complete than any other Magazine in the world not exclusively devoted to the subject.
Biography.
There is no department of Literature more important, and at the same time more generally interesting than Biography. In this department, therefore will be found sketches of most of the famous men of present and past times.
Belles Lettres.
Polite Literature in all its branches is represented by the best selections which can be gleaned from the whole field of periodical literature aboard.
Fiction.
In this depprtment the Best Current Literature of its class is found, comprising occasional Serials by the best contemporary novelists, but chiefly the short stories for which the English Magazines are deservedly celebrated.
General Literature.
Under this head are embraced all those subjects which elude special classification—for instance, the able Essays on Political, Social, and Literary Topics, which fill the English quarterlies and monthlies.
Editorial Department.
The editorial Department are Literary Notices, Foreign Literary Notes, Science, Art and Varieties. They have been remodelled and extended, so as to embrace every possible topic and there is no other eclectic publication which even attempts such a synopsis.
Illustrations.
A very fine Steel Engraving on some subject of general interest, either Historic Portrait, or Ideal, embellishes each number. These engravings are executed in the best manner and by the best artists and are of permanent value.

Terms Single copies, 45 cents. One copy, one year, $5 two copies one year $9, five copies one year, $20. Agents wanted to get up clubs. Address.

How the Soldiers Like It—A Little Drama of Yorkville Jail.

[Spoken by a Veteran Regular, Nov. 1, 1871.]

I say, call Calhoun Jones. What you?
Can such a freckled, tow-head boy—
(Derned if he ain't pigeon breasted: too!)
Air you the bold Kukluxer's Joy.
The Captain of the Gallopin Klan'
The Grand Cyclops of the head Pan-Jan?
Oh, pshaw!

You never killed worse than a coon,
I'll swear you didn't. You ain't nineteen,
Hardly? I thought so. You marry soon,
You low down crackers. Don't you know it's clean
High treason agin the government
To breed young rebels to this extent,
You cuss?

A wife and child! and you in jail,
You piny-woods young, goober, you!
Air you the sort to make us quail
And shake the pillars of State, for true?
"You did'nt think it was treasonable
To vote agin' the Rads?" Such gabble!
Of course it is!

Mis'rable mean conspirator!
I've half a mind—what made you knock
Squire Cæsar Smif's eye-tooth out for?
"He sassed your wife," eh? Well, my cock,
Squire Cæsar Smif objects to your vigor,
And he goes for you, does that old nigger,
Savage!

"Chief of the midnight assassins!"
They've got it on you, dead, you see!
Serves you right for breaking your shins
Agin that old nigger's loyalty
What right has rebs to go and attack
And worry the nation's new gimcrack,
I'd like to know?

Know a lady named Sally Jones?
She's got a baby an't weaned just yet—
Oho, you know her, I see at once!
"She's your wife," eh? She's game, you bet!
I reckon it's dipping such loads of snuff—
Ain't it?

Saw her this morning! Went down there
At daybreak, with a squad of men;
Searched for Kuklaxes every where,
Could't smoke the sign of a Den;"
Opened the cupboards, busted the drawers,
Turned the old shanty half out of doors,
In a jiffy!

Skewered the beds with bayonet:
Prodded the cock-loft through & through;
Madame she laughs and down she sits,
And dips, and eyes us scornful—phew!
And then the child in the cradle wakes,
And cries—because of the noise we makes,
You know.

She snatched it up, but not to nuss;
She spanked it till its meat was read;
"You misable, low-down, po' white cuss,"
(Them was the very words she said!)
"Why wern't you born a nigger," said she,
"To grow up 'spectable, safe, and free?"
Gee-whack!

Got us rather, didn't she, now?
An able woman, your wife!—I say.
Here's a key she gave me—said as how
It unlocked one of the cupboards—hey!
What makes you roll up your eyes at me?
(Stupidest cuss I ever did see.)
Take it!

Say—see here, Jones! I'm guard to-night
From twelve to one; so, darn your skin,
Don't wake me up! It's my delight
To curl up, peaceful and serene,
And spend in jolly old snoring naps
The time between the corporal's gapes!
So mind now!

And, Jones!—your wife allowed she'd hitch
Your mare to-night up to a tree,
Close by old Kershaw's boundary ditch—
You know the place?—(Hush! hide the key Here comes the sergeant!) O, cuss away!
You damned old rebels have had your day!
(You git!) [World.

Alabama Legislature.

SENATE.

Thursday, Dec. 7, 1871.

Mr. Sevier of Franklin, offered joint resolutions proposing certain amendments to the State constitution. [Forbids the State to aid in works of internal improvement, or to pledge its credit for the same; provides for election of a Solicitor for each judicial circuit; returns control of the school system to the Legislature: exempts $300 of property from levy and sale.] Read once.

Also, to establish a State Board of Health. Referred to a committee of five. [Appoints two physicians from Montgomery and 5 from other portions of the State, to hold 7 years, one term expiring each year, to act as State Board of Health; to confer with all Boards of Health and hospitals throughout the State; make investigations as to causes of sickness, epidemics, &c., &c.; make such suggestions as may be deemed necessary; gather vital statistics, report as to effects of intoxicating liquors upon the prospects of the State; of sewerage, prison arrangements, &c.; report to each session of the Legislature, and meet at the capitol every four months. The President shall reside at the capitol, secretary to receive a salary of $1200; others to receive actual expenses.]

To authorize the resignation of guardians—Passed.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES.

Also, adversely to House bill to amend Sections 1285 and 2568 of the Revised Code Concurred in.

Also, favorably to House bill to amend Section 3306 of Revised Code—Passed.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The Senate then resumed consideration of the reports from Internal Improvement Committee, in relation to appointment of committees to investigate the Governor's action in relation to the A & C Railroad endorsement of bonds, &c.

There was some discussion over the majority and minority reports.

Mr. Mabry moved to indefinitely postpone the whole matter. Lost

Mr. Bromberg moved to recommit to Committee on Finance and Taxation both reports. Carried.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thursday, Dec. 7th, 1871.

CALL OF THE COUNTIES.

On the call of the counties bills were introduced and disposed of by the House as indicated below.

To better secure the payment of land rents in the State of Alabama. Referred.

To amend Sections 4181 and 963 of the Revised Code—Referred

To regulate business in the Circuit Courts of the State. Requires Clerks to put cases on docket as brought and to commence docket at each term where it was left off at the term proceeding. Referred.

To amend Section 6 of the act authorizing counties, towns and cities in this State to subscribe to the Capital stock of Railroads. Referred to Committee on Internal Improvements.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Committee, also reported favorably to the bill to repeal Chapter VII, Title 3, of Part 4 of the Revised Code. (This is the bill that abolishes County courts.)—Passed.

Also favorably to define and restrict the operation of the exemption laws of the State of Alabama. Passed.

Favorably to the bill authorizing married women to mortgage their statutory separate estates for certain purposes. Passed.

Committee reported a substitute for 3 bills. The substitute makes it a misdemeanor, fineable in $500 and punishable by imprisonment in jail, to remove, injure or sell mortgaged property without the consent of the mortgagee.

Also, favorably to the bill to amend section 1860 of the Revised Code; amends the section by stating definitely what the rights and remedies of parties making advances (to assist in cultivating and making crops, &c.) are. Passed.

Also, favorably to the bill to repeal an Act for the relief of laborers and employees, approved Oct 10, 1868. Passed

Also favorably to the bill to declare valid the Acts of Notaries Public in certain cases, (makes valid all legal Acts performed by those officers since August 11th, 1868.) Passed.

Board of Education.

Thursday, Dec. 7th, 1871.

Mr. Smith from committee, reported favorably to a bill to prescribe the manner of electing township trustees—Passed.

The President (Mr Harrison in the Chair,) offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Board of Education appreciates the liberal and patriotic sentiments with which the committees upon Education of the two Houses of the General Assembly have entered upon the difficult task of relieving the Department of Public Instruction from the embarrassments which have surrounded it, and which are not within the control of this Board, and we hereby express our confidence that the General Assembly will sustain a liberal system of Public Instruction and provide for the payment of all sums which now stand to the credit of the several counties of the State for Educational purposes.

An Act to provide for drawing school funds by county Superintendents of Education—Passed.

An Act to provide for the pay of Co. Superintendents of Education—Passed. (The bill provides that Supts shall receive 5 per cent. on amounts apportioned to their counties, and three dollars per day while visiting Schools. No Supt. is to receive more than $100, in any one year for visiting schools, and not less than $400 in the aggregate as Supt and Director of Schools)

An Act to amend section 15, article 9, of the school laws of Alabama—Passed. [The bill provides that where 2 directors fail to agree in recommending a person to be appointed Supt. to fill a vacancy, the Supt. of Public Instruction may appoint without recommendation.]

An Act to provide for the pay of school trustees. Laid on the table on motion of Mr Clayton.

An Act to provide for the transfer of children—Passed.

An Act to prescribe more fully the duties of County Supts.—Passed.

An Act to pay traveling expenses Co. Superintendents of Education—Passed. [Bill allows Superintendents 8 cents per mile for visiting Montgomery on official business—such mileage not to be allowed more than twice a year.]

Mr Speed introduced a bill to repeal sec 16 of Art 9 of the laws relating to the public schools of Alabama, 1871.

The President, (Mr Harrison in the chair) rose to a personal explanation. He read an extract from an editorial of the State Journal in which it was alleged that he stated in a speech before the Board a few days ago, that it were better that all the free schools of Ala. should go down, than that the University should fail. He said that he took no such position, and made no such declaration, that he thought both the university and the common schools ought to be and would be sustained.

Alabama Legislature.

Friday, Dec. 8th, 1871.

SENATE.

HOUSE MESSAGES

To authorize and empower the Auditor to draw his warrant on the Treasurer for pay for legal services rendered by the late Jas. H. Clanton. Referred to Judiciary.

Mr. Stowe offered a resolution calling on the Governor for the names of the Attorneys employed in this State or elsewhere in connection with the A. & C. Road, and what amount they are to receive or have already received. Adopted.

Mr. Lambert, a bill to pay Mrs. Parthenia A. Clanton whatever amount may be found due the late Jas. H. Clanton, for services rendered the State. (It recites that the Legislature cannot vote any specific sum until a bill in proper formils rendered for that amount). Referred to Judiciary Committee.

To compel Probate Judges and other county officers in each and every county in this State to give as sureties on their official bonds, persons residing in their respective counties.

Mr. Farden thought sureties on bonds could be reached in any county of the State & moved indefinite postponement.

Mr. Worthy, opposed indefinite postponement but waswilling to let it be referred.

Mr. Pennington thought the bill ought to be passed and that a man elected to office who could not give sureties in his own county was unfit to hold office.

Mr. Sibley wanted to know what county had suffered under the present law.

Mr. Pennington replied that he was already sued on account of his suretyship on bond of an officer not living in Lee county.

Mr. Stow thought the bill a good one and hoped it would pass.

Mr. McAfee, said that many persons would not attempt to collect money or bring suit because the bonds of Sheriffs and other officers in many instances were mere ropes of sand and worthless. That the people ought to be protected against those men who would collect large sums of money and not hesitate to run away.

Mr. Lambert opposed indefinite postponement and argued in favor of the passage of the bill.

Mr. Mabry thought the Senate was ready to vote on this question, and wanted the ayes and noes called, to let their constituents know how each Senator voted on this important matter.

Mr. Coon expressed his astonishment that Senators who are indebted to the Republican Party for their seats on this floor, should favor a proposition of this kind. It was, he said, a fact that Republicans elected to office, had great difficulty in making bonds, because they were Republicans, and not from bad character. This was a party measure to legislate out of office Republicans who could give good bonds outside of their counties, but who from political prejudice, could not do so in the counties where they reside. That if this bill became law, a great many Republicans would be turned out of office.

Mr. Worthy asked Mr. Coon if the Sheriff of Dallas did not have on his bond, two good Democrats, and the only responsible names, at that, on the bond.

Mr. Coon said if Democrats were on the Sheriff's bond he was not aware of it.

Mr. Farden said he could see no reason for such a law as this. He expressed surprise at the arraignment of many office holders by the Senator from Talladaga, who spoke of robbers and thieves, and plunderers in first class style—that the arraignment of Cataline by Cicero was scarcely more scathing. That he was informed there was a sort of conspiracy to prevent the Sheriff of Talladega receiving his proper fees and commissions.

Mr. Oliver thought there was no reason for the passage of the bill and favored indefinite postponement.

Mr. Pennington thought the cry of not being able to give bond because of being a Republican was about "played out." That the Republican officers elected in his country had always been able to give a good bond and that this bill ought to pass for the protection of the people at large.

Mr. Sibley thought there was no occasion for the passage of this bill. It would not apply to Talladega county, even if it passed, as the bondsmen of county officers there were all residents of Talladega county.

By leave Mr. McAfee stated that his object was to correct the evil in relation to official bonds throughout the State, and that it was a fact known to every respectable person in Talladega that the bonds of the late Sheriff, Tax Collector and Tax Assessor, were not worth a lead pencil.

Mr. Sibley thought Senators should not forget that it was at one time odious to go on bonds of Republicans and that in some localities it was still so, and for this reason Republican Senators should be careful about passing acts likely to legislate many of them of out of office.

Mr. Worthy, said that, party, had nothing to do with this thing. That some Senators had lugged it in, but that he would scorn to belong to a party that had to be legislated for; that when an honest man is elected to office, be he Democratic, or Republican, he will not fail to give a bond, that this bill had nothing to do with politics, but it was intended to protect the people against irresponsible officials who give straw bail and leave the people of their counties in the lurch, and that a man who could not give a good bond of his neighbors and the citizens of his own country ought to consider it disreputable to have to go outside and hunt up strangers to make his bond. He thanked the Senators from Lee, Coosa, Talladega and other Republicans who opposed the indefinite postponement of the bill.

Mr. Oliver said it was a little strange that the gentlemen who complained of inadequate bonds, have to admit that in each case complained of the bondsmen lived in the county with the officials, and that not a case was cited where there was a failure on the part of officials where bondmen lived out of their county limits.

Mr Richards thought the bill if passed would work a hardship and wrong.

Mr. Barr opposed the bill in a speech of some length. Upon a call of the roll the motion to indefinitely postpone was carried by yeas 20, nayes 9.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

FRIDAY, Dec., 8, 1871.

CALL OF THE COUNTIES.

Mr. Lewis introduced, a resolution to raise a Special Committee on the part of the House to investigate the following matters, viz: The endorsement of the railroad bonds; the payment of interest on railroad bonds; the seizure of the A. & C. R. R.; the appointment of a receiver and the pledging the State as his security by the Governor; the sale and lease of property by such receiver, pertaining to said road; the adjudication of said A. & C. R. R. Co., to be a bankrupt and the means by which the receiver of the State became the assignee of the bankrupt; the condition of the railroads that have received the aid of the State, and the forfeitures and penalties incurred by reason of the breach of any bonds or conditions given or provided for the protection of the State; that said committee report to the House all information than can be obtained on the foregoing subjects; and further report by bill or resolutions, such measures as may be necessary to save the State from loss by reason of the present embarrassing and complicated relations of the State to said A. & C. R. R. Co. It also provides for a clerk and sergeant at arms for said committee, with power to send for persons and papers. The resolution was adopted without debate or division.

Mr. Dustan moved to reconsider the vote by which the bill to amend the act regulating appeals from Justice's courts was lost on yesterday.

Carried and the bill was placed among the general orders.

By leave, Mr. Ashurst introduced a resolution instructing the doorkeeper of the House to place the portrait of the lamented Gen'l J. H. Clanton immediately above the Speaker's chair. Adopted.

At the hour of twelve the regular order of business was on motion, suspended in order that the reports of the committee of Ways and Means might continue.

Committee reported adversely to the bill for the relief of delinquent tax payers anterior to 1871.

Mr. Moore thought this a very important bill to the poorer and laboring classes; and hoped the House would not concur in the report. He wanted to hear the reasons of the committee for making adverse report to the bill and therefore moved that the bill be postponed until 12 M. next Wednesday.

Mr. Coon expressed his astonishment that Senators who are indebted to the Republican Party for their seats on this floor, should favor a proposition of this kind. JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN.

JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA.

SATURDAY, DEC. 16th. 1871.

Stop Thief.

Grant has got hold of one plank in the Democratic National Reform platform, and is trying to steal it out and carry it over to his camp—one of the best planks at that: Universal Amnesty. Now tote fair General. That plank was lying around loose for a year or two; but after we have dove-tailed it into our platform and spiked it down, it is a little hard for the enemy to try and steal it out.

BAYONETS AND LOGIC. GRANT AND RADICALISM.

Men of the sword, when they attempt to be logical always make a sad mess of it. Thus President Grant says:

"It may be well considered whether it is not now time that the disabilities imposed by the Fourteenth Amendment should be removed. That amendment does not exclude the ballot but only imposes the inability to hold offices upon certain classes. When the purity of the ballot is secure majorities are sure to elect officers reflecting the views of the majority. I don't see the advantage or propriety of excluding men from office merely because they were, before the rebellion, of standing and character sufficient to be elected to position, requiring them to take an oath to support the Constitution, and admitting the eligibility of those entertaining precisely the same views but of less standing in their communities. It may be said that the former violated an oath while the latter did not have it in their power to do so. If they had taken that oath it cannot be doubted that they would have broken it as did the former classes. If there are any great criminals distinguished above all others for the part they took in opposition to the Government they might in the judgment of Congress be excluded from such an amnesty. This subject is submitted for your careful consideration."

Now this is all very well in its way; but don't Grant see that it there is no sense a now for excluding men from holding office "merely because before the rebellion they were of standing and character sufficient to be elected to position," there never was any sufficient reason for imposing such disability. If he intends it as a rebuke to his own party for passing the 14th Amendment, it is a scathing and terrible one, but we have no idea he intends it as an arraignment of the Radicals, unless he too is paving the way to join the National Reform party, which may be the case. On any other hypothesis his logic is awfully slipshod; for in other parts of his message he says, "the ku-klux are getting worse down South," and consequently the rebels are less entitled to amnesty and favor now than they were at the close of the war.

A bill passed the House on last Saturday to reduce the salary of the Commissioner of Industrial Resources to nothing, and it is the opinion of [illegible] always be a Democrat, the Senate will pass it also. We see no other way of [illegible] for taking away the salary of this office until the office is [illegible] abolished, then we could [illegible] the per diem pay and [illegible] of the Board of Education [illegible] before the people dispense with them in the constitutional way.

In the discussion on the Revenue bill in the House, on Monday, Mr. Cate thought that if a certain amendment of Mr. Lewis, "exempting property to the amount of $500, to be selected by the head of the family" should be rejected, it would loose the Democratic party 10,000 votes in the next S[illegible] [illegible] consideration we think Mr. Cate is not to have dragged into the debate. Let all bills stand or fall on their merits. There has been by far too much dodging in legislation in the interest of parties, and too much log-rolling in legislation for the fear of party. For the welfare of the country. We of the South know how it is ourselves.

In the debate in the Senate over the bill requiring officials to give as bondsmen, persons residing in the same county with such officials, Conover observed that in many counties this was impossible, owing to the specific [illegible] against the Radical [illegible] which would admission by no means [illegible] to his party.

ALEXANDRIA LOCALS.

Our town has for a long time felt the need of railroad advantages, and her people are now deeply interested concerning the East Alabama and Cincinnati Railroad. We thing it will cross our valley at this point, and if so the town of Alexandria bids fair not to outstrip the old city founded by Alexander the Great, B. C. 332, and which was designed by him to be the metropolis of his Western Empire; but to be a town of no small note. Her people are now arousing themselves from that state of lethargy which so resembled the nap of Rip Van Winkle, and like the Ptolemies will continue the work commenced far them years ago. Already there are many evidences of improvement and enterprise in our little village. Every natural advantage contributes to its prosperity. The climate and site are singularly healthy. No prettier spot for a town can be found in the State; and the large spring of pure water, which has furnished a cooling and refreshing draught to thousands of weary travelers, is noticed and remembered by every passer-by: its beauty and purity is surpassed by none in our country, and equaled only by one.

Alexandria Valley, in the centre of which is situated our beautiful little town, is eight miles in length and three in breath, in which is to be found some of our richest lands, in fact the whole valley is filled with rich elegant farms, gardens of vegetables, and orchards of all kinds of fruits watered by fountains which burst forth in various parts, and flow westwards in refreshing streams.

On these farms reside some of Alabama's best and noblest people, people who are energetic enterprising hospitable and kind. There are houses and lands here far many more, and we cordially invite good people to visit our town and valley, and if we and the country please them to make their homes with us.

When the E. A. & C. R. R. is complected, we will have a good town, many more families will be added to our already good society; we will have good schools churches &c. In truth, we can now see rising above the bright horizon of futurity glowing prospects for Alexandria, and then as Moscotis was an inland haven for the merchandise of Egypt and India, so will Alexandria Valley be a haven of plenty for her people.

DEATH.—Mr. Lewis S. Mclarg departed this life at his residence, near Middleton, on the morning of the 11th. in his death his friends and family have lost a true, honest and faithful man, one who will be missed by all who knew him.

Mr. Adison Allen and family left Monday morning for Texas; also Mr. John S. Wakefield, leaves this morning (Thursday) for the same State. He goes for the purpose of looking at the country with the view of moving out next Spring.

All members of Alexandria Lodge No. 208, are requested to be present at the next regular communication, which is on the 23 inst., business of importance.

SUCCESSOR.

GRENICK'S SULPHUR SPRING LOCALS.

MRS LOCAL.—It is time, Mr Local, you were writing your items for the REPUBLICAN.

LOCAL.—Yes, it is time, but it will be a failure this week. There is nothing new to write, and if Lon Grant thinks I'm going to set down and make "tence like," as the boys and girls do, when they kiss their hands at each other to save the trouble of walking a few paces to enjoy the thrilling reality, he is very much mistaken. I won't do it. He may just stick a little closer to his sanctum and write such stuff for himself. I'm a "matter of fact" man as to the sex of Feeling is feeling, and tasting is tasting. "Contact," Mr. Local, "contact" is my motto.

MRS L.—But I think there are several items, Jake Noah raised his house yesterday.

L.—So I heard Hairy Bill say; but then Mr Noah is a clever, quiet gentleman, guided by the landmarks of his ancient ancestor, the great architect, and he wouldn't like to have his private affairs made public. So I will not say anything about the house raising.

MRS L.—Well Mrs E——had a house raising yesterday too and Uncle Mercer Woodruff has one today.

L.—That's so, but then I won't say a word about that for Mrs E——is a gent and amiable lady, with indefatigable energy, wholly devoted to her children: and as to Uncle Mercer, if I should say anything about him, he would find out who did it and crack a joke at my expense. Those Woodruff's you know are high-strung, and if I were to mention Aunt Labras and Mrs Sallie's sumptuous dinners, they might change them and I wouldn't like that if they did think it for the better.

MRS L.—Can't you tell about Miss Kate Webster's marriage to night to Mr Trotter.

MRS L.—Well tell about Taylor Powers and Tom Broyles having so many patent bee guns.

L.—The truth is Taylor and Tom are both cultivating a species of Bee without wings (I won't say without sting,) that yields a very delicious kind of honey; but it has no chemical affinity for "Peach" and as I like the old sort best, I won't say anything of them or their bees.

MRS L.—Can't you tell how ugly Big Sis looked at little Sis and Pa, the other day, because they laughed at her for peeping through the window to see if her bean was coming?

L.—No, I won't tell that, for Big Sis may look uglier than ever at little sis and Pa and your humble servant catch a flogging besides.

MRS L.—Can't you say something about Uncle Davy. (I don't mean Pap) catching his pet rooster in his bird trap?

L.—No, nor about that other rooster that the dog killed. Uncle Davy might get choleric.

MRS L.—Can't you say something about the question you saw in the Almanac, "Who is dying for love?"

L.—I'll just let the old widowers and bachelors answer that.

MORE ANON.

OXFORD LOCALS.

Cotton has been firm for several days with a gradual upward tendency until this evening. (Wednesday). We quote 18@18½; but a little dull at the time of this writing. Trade has been very good since my last report, two weeks ago.

MARRIED, at the residence of the brides father, on the 3rd inst., by Rev. E. J. Smyth, C. G. Morgan Esq., and Miss Carrie Johnson. All of Calhoun county. Peace, prosperity and happiness attend them through life's journey.

The brick work, on the M. E. Church is now about finished, and we hope soon to see the roof on the same. This building, when finished, will reflect credit on this community; and especially the denomination which built it. There are but few church buildings in north, or middle Ala., better buildings than this one.

Dr. L. C. Williams, who has been, for several days laboring under a severe attack of Pneumonia, and who it was thought for several days by the attending physician, (Dr. Allen) would not recover, is much better to-day than for several days passed. His many friends will be glad to learn that he is now considered about out of danger.

The examination commences, in our school to-morrow, and will continue one week: at the expiration of which time the fall term will close.

Our young folks, and some of the older ones, too, are preparing for a merry christmas. I will probably, say something more of this next week.

I will try to be present at the examination as much as possible, and give you some dots of passing events.

Mr. Editor. I wish, if you see that Guide man, down in Shelby, you would tell him that that was "Aunt Salley's" baby he was inquiring about. Of course he knows her perfectly well—every body, more, knows her.

Mr. Editor. I believe I will compromise on the road question and say noth. ing more about it, if you will agree for the Commissioners to appropriate a few thousand dollars to our Railroad, and help us out. We look upon this as a fair proposition, and think of course you will accede to it readily. Your interest is yours in keeping up wagon roads, and we will invest ours in Railroads. What say you Mr. Editor, ain't this fair?

[Yes, we'll agree to that provided you don't draw the money until the Road reaches Oxford. Aint this we would consider a good bargain.—Ed. Rep.]

To all those having canines and felines, which they wish to barter for fun, on reasonable terms, can do so, by calling on J. R. Draper and E. W. North, at Oxford, on or by the 24th or 25th of this month, and bringing their animals along with them. They desire 500 of the felines and something less of the latter. Not particular about age, size, or color. They propose giving a free show. All persons who may desire to enjoy themselves by seeing the meandering of these creatures over the streets, with fire crackers, roman candles and such like things attached to them, can do so free of cost by being on hand at the right time. "BRICK."

LADIGA LOCALS.

Business very lively in our town the last few days; cotton bringing 17@17½. New goods arriving, and selling briskly. A few lots of pork have been sold at 7½.

NANCY'S CREEK LOCAL.—I know No. 11, was not the measure, but did not wish to give the full measure at first outset; but would now advise you to call for the box. Heavy firing down the creek will cease so long as we can hear from you. We have plenty goobers at present, but if you have any good colelards up your way, we want 'em.

WEAVER'S STATION LOCALS.—Dear Nephew, I am sorry to hear you have no acorns. My advice to you would be to raise pens, for a substitute. If you have no acorns put up to your Uncle, you shall be supplied. I wish you could see your Uncle's new coat.

BALL PLAY LOCALS.—Wake up, or there will be heavy firing in your camps soon.

Old and young, are very anxious up our way to see the REPUBLICAN, to read the local news.

Cross Plains Locals

Everybody on the "qui vive" for christmas. The shops are beginning to display their multiplicity of charms, to the never eyes of merry girls and boys, and "what we'll do christmas holidays" is freely discussed. May they all have a jolly time.

A few of our enterprising citizens are putting pluck perfected for a new Railroad. You needn't think we can't have Railroads too. The completion of this road will settle the aged dispute "whether the moon be actually made of green cheese." Another "clique" are attempting to form a company for insuring icebergs against fire. Hope they may succeed. People will have hobbies.

The pupils of the Cross Plains Institute are to have a festival, on Friday night 22nd of this month. It is to excel anything ever yet produced by this estimable and highly commendable Institution. We understand they are to have a "Christmas Box." Something quite new, in which all of the guests will participate. Besides this they will have two Commediettas, and delightful music. Cards of invitation will be issued.

Cotton ranges at about Rome prices, our merchants never letting any pass—country produce finds ready sale, for whether they want it or not, our friends C. I. Sharp & Sons, or Faughender and Teague, will never let wagons go home with their pork, fish, potatoes or goobers. Town people know where to go to get something good to eat.

Why did you not publish what we said in answer to that Rome Commercial man?

[Being crowded we laid it over for a week, and it would have appeared in the present issue of the REPUBLICAN, had we not, in the meantime, come across the following amends honorable in the colums of the Commercial. When our Cross Plains neighbors get used to GRADY's style they will like him. He is a capital fellow.—Ed. Rep.]

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL AT CROSS PLAINS.—We learn that the Sunday School at Cross Plains is a very large and well conducted one. The Superintendent, Dr. G. W. Munroe, is a gentleman of large heart and intelligence, and deserves credit for the good work he is engaged in. As we have said before, it is a flourishing little village, and the only fault, (if that can be a fault), it ever had was that it hated the Radicals with a little too much vigor.

Rome Commercial.

As expected, the Justices Court for this beat has been removed to Ladiga. This will be rather inconvenient in many instances, to a majority of the citizens. Our business men want the Intendant to hold regular courts for the trial of civil cases—will he, or will he not, that's the question?

"SICH IS LIFE."—We had a splendid boot maker working in Faughender's shop, but alas for our hopes. John Barleycorn got the better of him and showed him the way to the Caraboose. He came out, or paid out; but being overcome with shame or something of the sort left us. He is one of the amalgamated kind.

We learn that we are about to loose our S. S. Superintendent Dr. Monroe, having decided to spend the winter North. It will be hard to find a suitable gentleman to take his place.

COLUMBIA, Dec, 13.

In the Ku-Klux Court to day a witness confessed that he was a member of the Klan which he said was formed in 1868, for self defense, and to prevent intermarriage. The Town of Yorkville was threatened to be destroyed by the negroes, and many gin houses had already been burned. The defense produced witnesses to show the urgent need of organization for defensive purposes.

WASHINGTON, Dec 13.

In the Senate the entire day was consumed in an argument upon the appointment of a retrenchment Committee without action. Spencer introduced a bill granting land in aid of the Florida R. R's. Adjourned.

House.—Hoar, from the committe on education and labor, reported a bill providing for the appointment by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, of a commission of three, to hold office for two years, unless their duties shall have been sooner accomplished, who are to investigate the subject of the wages and hours of labor and of the division of the joint profits of labor and capitalists, and the social, educational and sanitary condition of laboring classes of the United States and how the same are affected by existing laws, regulating commerce, finance and currency. The commissioners are to receive a salry of five thousand dollars each, and many employ a clerk, and shall report the result of their investigation to the President, to be by him transmitted to Congress.

A discussion showed favor for the bill from all sides, but it went over with the morning hour.

CONCORD, Dec. 13.

The Democratic Convention was organized by electing B. B. Rand of Lisbon, President; with one Vice President from each county.

President Rand made an extended speech reviewing the present administration, attacking it severely, contrasting the records of the Republican and Democratic parties. Among other things he manifested willingness to join with the moderate Republicans, such as Schurz & Brumbull, or even Horace Greeley, in order to defeat the Kuklux legislation.

Governor Weston has accepted the renomination for Governor in a short speech.

Resolutions were adopted and the Convention adjourned.

NEW YORK: December 11.—The police arrested six of the Internationals who attempted to parade yesterday. A meeting of the International Society was called and inflammatory speeches made at six o'clock this morning in the square fronting the police station where the prisoners were being arraigned. Large numbers, including women, visited the prisoners in theirs cells last night.

The Cosmopolitan Conference, at a meeting last night passed a resolution denouncing interference, and recommending the Internationals to parade next Sunday, and raised money to defend the prisoners.

The New York Herald's special from Madrid says there is tremendous excitement over Grant's message regarding Cuban affairs. The Government has resolved to maintain a firm attitude.—Reinforcements of 40,000 men, 2 Generals, and 4 Ironclads will be dispatched immediately to Cuba.

The Human Body, Its Waste and Repair.

The body is undergoing continual waste, both in the voluntary processes of labor and action generally (mental as well as physical) and also in the involuntary processes (respiration for example.) This waste must be repaired by the blood, as it continually circulates and comes into contact with the various portions of the system and the losses of the blood must be supplied from food. As the material of the body is derived from the substance of the food, so all vital power is derived from force stored up in the food. Food is organic matters in a state of molecular tension and when, in digestion, it becomes decomposed, this tension is given out in the form of physical forces, such as muscular power, animal heat and the like. Every thought that we think, every breath that we draw, every slightest motion or gesture that we make, wears away the organized tissues to some extent. In a healthy condition this waste produces a proportionate degree of appetite and of digestive vigour. But in imperfect health it is not so. Either the appetite is deficient, or the forces of the digestive organs are not adequate to convert into nutritious blood that amount of food which the appetite craves. Now Dr. Fisch's Bitters is a tonic and stimulant adapted by its ingredient to create an agreeable appetite, and also in like degree to stimulate the digestive powers. When this much is accomplished, and the system once put in the way of appropriating nourishment for itself, we may look upon the cure as already effected. Time and careful living will do the rest.

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1872, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States, and all civilized countries of the western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish language, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses and extraordinary sanitary, effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading-matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

JOB WORK DONE AT THIS OFFICE.

GEORGE D. PRENTICE.

Interesting Reminiscences of the Poet, Editor and wit—His Grave.

Louisville Correspondence Cincinnati commercial.

Mr. Prentice was often visited by strangers desirous of seeing him and when busy at any writing, would sometimes, after showing great politeness to his visitors, grow manifestly bored if they overstaid the limits of a good taste in calling upon editors. Then, sometimes, he would offer them nervously the privilege of reading his exchanges, when, if they accepted, he would soon grow restive and manage to make his desire of being left alone felt. One reason of a peculiar sensitiveness in this respect was that a paralysis of his writing fingers made dictation necessary in all his longer articles (he generally wrote his paragraphs, as they occurred, with his own hand), and the presence of a stranger disturbed him greatly during this process. In connection with this subject, a former city editor of the Journal, told me recently how, one day a certain Kentucky country editor called upon Mr. Printice and oversaid the latter's patience. After the bore finally left him," my informant related, the old man come into the room, where I was at work, and addressing me by my full name, as he was accustomed to do; he said very deliberately, yet brokenly and nervously, as if he were very angry but had concluded not to show it if possible: "Oliver Lucas.—do you—know—Mr.——of the——————?'

"Yes I told him, 'I am somewhat acquainted with Mr.——?'

"Well, Mr.——,of the——is an excellent man—a very excellent man—socially, I mean. But—as an editor—Mr.——of the——lacks sense. And that—in an editor—is—a—very—serious—lack. After which, without saying another word, he went hurriedly back to his room."

Mr. Prentice always seemed to have a certain embarrassment in presence of strangers. And, although he appeared as a lecture a great many times during the five or six years previous to the war, he told me once that he always felt as much trepidation in going upon the stage to speak as he did when he was a boy at school. I remember, once when he was on his way to Cincinnatti, where he was to lecture, that he spent a great part of the afternoon on the upper deck of the mail boat, jealously alone, repeating his lecture, and using what he thought appropriate gestures.

I went to pay the only visit I could make my old friend at his grave in Cave Hill Cemetery. A correspondent last Summer described what he supposed to Mr. Prentices' monument. It was that of his son Courtland. Mr. Prentice has no monument. On the small head-stone placed merely to indicate the grave there is no name or letter; and his wife's grave is like his own, anonymous. Mr.—Prentice loved his eldest son, and erected a handsome monument over his grave, with sword and lyre, and epitaph and urn. His own grave is unmarked, except by a rose-bush (planted before the grave was made, I believe,) at the head. But the pious hand of a lady in Louisville has kept a little silver basket of flowers at the head of the grave during the proper season of flowers. A single violet planted on the grave mound put me in mind of Mr. Prentice's well known poem (perhaps the most perfect and sweetest he ever wote) "Written at My Mother's Grave," In which he says:

"The violet, with its blossoms blue and mild,
Waves o'er thy head—when shall it wave

As a wit George D. Prentice had no superior during his lifetime, I believe. As a poet he was especially happy in the more tender and graceful touches of sentiment—some of his brief poems are as perfect in their way as stars or flowers: his more serious poems, generally in blank verse, had a sort of kindred character to those of Bryant (whom he always spake of admiringly,) although something more of emotion and the color of feeling was mingled with then.—As a critic I never thought Mr. Prentice deserved very high rank—he always felt and acknowledged what was good, but he did not seem to discriminate readily between the good and bad in writing. So, although the Louisville Journal published some verses that deserved praise (for instance nearly all of Force the Willson's poetry was first printed in its columns, including. "The Old Sergeant," which appeared in its New Year address, January 1, 1868) the great mass was worthless. But Poe as a critic of poetry, erred in the same way highly praising some of Mrs. Welby's pieces, which were generally common place, praised & published previously by Mr. Prentice.—Among modern poets, Mr. Prientice preferred Shelly. I believe having an special fondness for "Epipsychidron. As a politician, he associated with politicians all his life, but never liked politics or politicians and their ways. In a lecture on "American statesmanship," delivered in 1858-9 he denounced the corruptness of politics in the North and South, and was called morbid, and a croaker, for prophesying the great storm before it came. "I am a prophet," he used to say to me in a half serious, half humorous way and some of his prophesies had become historical facts before his death. A lady who held his hand in hers at his last hour, asked me:

"What do you suppose Mr.—Prentice meant in his last expressions? Just before his death he seemed to arouse himself and said, we heard him distinctly: 'I want an o.' and then again 'I want an i.' We supposed he said, at first. 'I want to go.' and these were reported to have been his last words; but I have often thought of them, and doubted what could have been his meaning."

Knowing Mr. Prentice's long habit of dictation in writing, and his manner of correcting the manuscript, which he always seemed to overlook carefully while walking to and fro or sitting at his table, I told her that I thought perhaps Mr. Prentice was in a slight delirium at the time, and supposed himself dictating an article. And (setting aside the natural tendency to wish one's friends to die with a religious longing on their lips I think this explanation more characteristic, and that the noble old editor died correcting his copy. Yet he always kept in sight his early religious education and I know that he fully intiacipated his death, and did not dread it.

VINEGAR BITTERS

PURELY VEGETABLE — FREE FROM ALCOHOL

DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR BITTERS

EUREKA

J. Walker, Proprietor. R. H. McDonald & Co., Druggists & Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 Commerce St., N.Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and of all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

THE AMRICAN WASHER.
PRICE, $5.50.

The American Washer Saves Money, Time, and Drudgery.

The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attantion to this little machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated.

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready to use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one-half longer than by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket. Three shirts at a time, washing thorsughly! In a word, ablution of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally within the capacity of this LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any time and taken off at will.

No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleansing efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once become the fast friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the abject promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low that it is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.

$5.50.

All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER is a fair trial. We guarantee each machine to do its work perfectly.

Why not get well!

It is an established fact, convincingly proved by the highest testimony, and by the practical test of 10 years successful experience, that Dr. Crook's Wine of Tar has been administered with the most extraordinary success in all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, performing many very remarkable cures of Cases pronounced incurable.

Such a remedy merits a trial from all who are afflicted and vainly seek the relief. Will you let prejudice prevent you from trying it?

The Druggists write that "all who try it recommend it—many having several bottles the second time, and stating that it would not be without a bottle in their house." "It cures all Coughs, Colds and Chronic Coughs, and its many cures of Asthma and Bronchitis, of long standing—when other remedies have failed—have caused it to be considered a specific for these complaints. Throat Ailments require but a few doses. Consumptives, and all suffering with Pulmonary Affections, of any kind, should not fail to gain the relief and cure afforded by Dr. Crook's Wine of Tar. Try one bottle. It is safe to take at any time, and under any circumstances whatever.

Permit no other remedy to be palmed off on you for Dr. Crook's Wine of Tar, for it is this remedy which is performing the many wonderful cures—and you want IT, and not an untried medicine with a similarity of name. Sold by Druggists.

NEAR CEDAR BLUFF Feb., 28, 1871

MESSRS. J. & S. BONES, Dear Sirs:

I have given the 16 inch Mill (Clemans) bought of you, a thorough test, and can but express myself perfectly satisfied. The power was the running gear to my gin, which although in very bad order, was sufficient to grind one bushel (by the watch) in eleven minutes. I find no trouble to do my grinding before breakfast. Several of my neighbors were present at the time, and all were satisfied with the result, and were astonished at the quantity and fine quality of the meal produced in so short a time. I prefer the meal to any steam mill meal. The 16 inch mill I bought of you for the Foster Farm, and used since the above was written proves equally satisfactory. It is a complete mill.

Yours Truly,
H. H. MILLER.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure, (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of erby youth and every man in the land.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide" price 25 cents.

SHULAR & HARTWELL,

Cotton Warehouse, Factors,

—AND—

GENERAL

Commission Merchants,

MONTGOMERY, ALA,

We would inform our friends and the planting community generally, that we have leased the Brick Warehouse on the corner of Commerce and Bibb streets, and are prepared to do the Storage and Factorage Business in all its branches. Our charge for Storage will be fifty cents per bale for the first, and twenty-five for each successive month. Our charge for selling cotton will be one dollar per bale. We are prepared to make liberal advances on cotton in store, or for shipment to our friends in New York, New Orleans or Mobile. We will furnish Bagging and Ties, or other plantation supplies at the lowest market price. From our long experience in business, and prompt attention to all matters entrusted to us, we hope to merit a share of patronage.

DR. RADWAY'S
Sarsaparillian Resolvent

Has made the most astonishing cures so quick, so rapid are the changes that are undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that

Every day an increase of Weight and Flesh is Perceived

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Ringworms, Scald Head, Ring Worms, Erysipelas, Acne, Blotches, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancerous Humors, Wounds, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm, and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonderful power of Modern Chemistry, and a few days use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is constantly progressing, succeeds in arresting these wasts, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—as the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does—a cure is certain; for when once the REMEDY commences its work of purification and succeeds in diminishing the loss of substance by its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing in flesh and stronger, the food digesting better and appetite improving, and weight increasing.

Not only does the Sarsaparillian Resolvent excels all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney and Bladder Complaints,

Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, billious appearance, and when bone-dust deposits, and when there is pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

DR. RADWAY'S

perfectly tasteless, elegantly coated with sweet gum, purge, regulate, purify, cleanse and strengthen. "A non-partisan, non-sectional, and non-sectarian Magazine"
THE
Eclectic Magazine
OF
Foreign Literature Science And Art
Twenty-seventh Year—Seventy-sixth volume.
New Volume begins January, 1872

NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.

The ECLECTIC reprints the best Essays, Reviews, Stories, and Scientific Articles, from the prominent English, French, and German periodicals. Its selections are very carefully made, and for more than a quarter of a century it has maintained its position as the leading exponent of foreign contemporary thought.

SPECIALTIES OF THE ELECTIC.

Science.
It is believed that in this department the ELECTIC is more comprehensive and complete than any other Magazine in the world not exclusively devoted to the subject.

Biography.
There is no department of Literature more important, and at the same time more generally interesting than Biography. In this department, therefore will be found sketches of most of the famous men of present and past times.

Belles Lettres.
Polite Literature in all its branches is represented by the best selections which can be gleaned from the whole field of periodical literature aboard.

Fiction.
In this department the Best Current Literature of its class is found, comprising occasional Serials by the best contemporary novelists, but chiefly the short stories for which the English Magazines are deservedly celebrated.

General Literature.
Under this head are embraced all those subjects which elude special classification—for instance, the able Essays on Political, Social, and Literary Topics, which fill the English quarterlies and monthlies.

Editorial Department.
The editorial Department are Literary Notices, Foreign Literary Notes, Science, Art and Varieties. They have been remodelled and extended, so as to embrace every possible topic and there is no other eclectic publication which even attempts such a synopsis.

Illustrations.
A very fine Steel Engraving on some subject of general interest, either Historic Portrait, or Ideal, embellishes each number. These engravings are executed in the best manner and by the best artists and are of permanent value.

Terms:Single copies, 45 cents. One copy, one year, $5 two copies one year $9, five copies one year, $20. Agents wanted to get up clubs. Address.

NEW POEM BY BRET HART.

[We are indebted to advance sheets of the Atlantic Monthly for January, which will be published in about ten days, for the following new poem by Bret Harte.]

GRANDMOTHER TENTERDEN.

(Massachusetts Shore, 1800.)

I mind it was but yesterday—
The sun was dim, the air was chill;
Below the town, below the hill,
The sails of my son's ship did fill—
My Jacob, who was cast away.

He said, "God keep you, mother dear,"
But did not turn to kiss his wife;
They had some foolish, idle strife;
Her tongue was like a two-edged knife,
And he was proud as any peer

Howbeit that night I took no note
Of sea nor sky, for all was drear;
I marked not that the hills looked near,
Nor that the moon, though curved and clear,
Though curd-like scud did drive and float.

For with my darling went the joy
Of autumn woods and meadows brown;
I came to hate the little town;
It seemed as if the sun went down
With him, my only darling boy.

It was the middle of the night,
The wind it shifted west-by-south;
It piled high up the harbor mouth;
The marshes, black with summer drouth,
Were all abroad with sea-foam white.

It was the middle of the night—
The sea upon the garden leapt,
And my son's wife in quiet slept,
And I, his mother, waked and wept,
When lo! there came a sudden light.

And there he stood! his seamen's dress
All wet and dripping seemed to be;
The pale blue fires of the sea
Dripped from his garments constantly—
I could not speak through cowardness.

"I come through night and storm," he said:
"Through storm & night & death," said he,
"To kiss my wife, if it so be
That strife still holds twixt her and me,
For all beyond is Peace," he said.

"The sea is his, and he who sent
The wind and wave can soothe their strife;
And brief and foolish is our life."
He stooped and kissed his sleeping wife'
Then sighed, and, like a dream, he went.

Now, when my darling kissed not me,
But her—his wife—who did not wake,
My heart within me seemed to break;
I swore a vow! nor thenceforth spake
Of what my clearer eyes did see.

And when the slow weeks brought him not,
Somehow we spoke of aught besides;
For she,—her hope upheld her pride;
And I,—in me all hope had died:
And my son passed as if forgot.

It was about the next spring-tide,
She pined and faded where she stood;
Yet spake no word of ill or good;
She had the hard, cold Edwards' blood
In all her veins,—and so she died.

One time I thought, before she passed,
To give her peace, but ere I spake
Methought, "He will be first to break
The news in Heaven," and for his sake
I held mine back until the last.

And here I sit, nor care to roam;
I only wait to hear his call;
I doubt not that this day, next fall,
Shall see me safe in port; where all
And every ship at last comes home.

And you have sailed the Spanish main,
And known my Jacob?.....Eh! Mercy!
Ah God of wisdom! hath the sea
Yielded its dead to humble me!
My boy!.....My Jacob.....Turn again?

For the Republicen.

Our Loved One who has gone before.

INSCRIBED TO MRS. DEAN.

BY MONONIA.

Fair Angel child thou ne'er shalt be forgot;
Thy bright young smile is still in memory seen:
Thy little hood, thy cape and tiny cot,
Are for remembrance kept where they have been.

God who sent thee to bless us for a time,
In wisdom took thee to His heart again.
He knew our boy could live not in a clime,
Where joy must needs give way to grief and pain;

Where seeming friends are direst foes at heart;
Where Sorrow reigns supreme, without a peer;
Where loving wife from husband kind must part:
Where all doth perish that we hold dear.

Great God, in taking from us all we lov'd,
Taught us a lesson; a lesson kind & just.
He knows that all His children thus reprov'd
Will recollect they come of humble dust.

He has ta'en thee to His home of peace & rest,
Where Sin dares not enter to mar the joy
That fills the Spirit Souls, by Jesus blest.
In Heaven rests our darling, our lov'd, our Angel Boy.

The Doom of the Republic.

The Washington Patriot in an article full of alarm at the proposition of the Government to monopolize the telegraph lines of the country under the postal telegraph system, after alluding to the fact that then all communication between the people, save by private travel and messages, could be cut off under the direction of one man, the President, both the mail and telegraph lines being in the hands of the Government, says:

We declare, on something more than surmise, that this power is asked in the interest and for the purpose of a sodition; that the plot is framed and the programme sketched out; that the "winding sheet of our liberties is woven and its coffin made." But supposing that such a design has not been compassed. Let us for a moment consider such a power, and the proof that under it, literally and absolutely, the forbearance of those in authority would be the sole dependence of the people for their free institutions.

All Selma is greatly rejoiced over having received, per Atlantic cable, an order direct from England for 100 bales of cotton.

General Forrest has employed 100 convicts of the Tennessee penitentiary to work on the Selma, Marion and Memphis Railroad.

Financial Plan,

Adopted by the North Ala. Conference, at its Session of 1870.

1st, Let the stewards meet early in the Conference year, and assess the church, if a station, or churches, if a circuit, an amount sufficient for the support of the ministry, as provided for in the Discipline.

2nd, Let the steward, or stewards of each church, together with two or three discreet members, apportion the assessment among the entire membership, both male and female, according to ability to pay.

3rd, Let the assessment thus apportioned, be read at the first church conference, where objections will be heard, and alterations may be made, if the assessment is unequally distributed.

4th, Let the steward or stewards of each church, keep a book, in which are the names of all the members, with the amounts assessed to each. This book should be kept in account form.

5th, Let the stewards present to each individual member his or her account quarterly, monthly, or weekly as the Quarterly Conference may decide, and credit the amount paid.

6th, It shall be the duty of the stewards, near the close of the conference year, to report to the church the amount assessed, and the amount paid by each member, showing any deficiency that may exist, and devise means, if possible, to make up such deficiency.

A committee of Laymen appointed at the last session of North Ala. Conference, to revise the financial plan adopted by the Conference of 1870, submitted the following report, which was adopted, viz:

Your committee appointed to revise and recommend such amendments as may be necessary for the more effectual working of the financial plan adopted by the last Annual Conference report.

1st. In the opinion of the committee, the difficulty in raising the amount necessary for the support of the ministry is not so much in the plan, as in the failure by the stewards to carry out the plan.

2nd. Our experience, and the experience of the church generally, fully settles the question, that the assessment plan is the most equitable, and most efficient. We therefore recommend, that the plan adopted at the last session of our Conference, continue in force.

1st, Therefore resolved, That it is the duty of the stewards of every station, circuit, or mission to carry out this plan in its letter and spirit; and the failure to do so can only be excused after an earnest and conscientious effort.

2nd. That the collection of the finances being one of the most important duties of the stewards as laid down in the Discipline, the failure to discharge this duty, is a violation of their official and religious obligation, and unless providentially hindered, are derelict in duty, and ought not to be continued in office; and furthermore, that the Presiding Elder should inquire specially into this matter, and if any steward has wilfully, or negligently failed in duty, urge his removal from office.

3rd. That the stewards be required whenever practicable to take up a dime collection at the regular appointments, for the purpose of raising a contingent fund to defray other necessary church expenses.

Alabama Legislature.

MONDAY, DEC. 11TH 1871.

SENATE.

The only bill of importance passed in this branch was one authorizing the Governor to make a temporary loan of $250,000 to meet current expenses of the State.

Joint resolutions for joint committees reverse the election laws of the State was adopted.

HOUSE.

The bill to regulate and relieve the finances of the State was taken up and discussed at length. The bill proposes to raise one million of dollars by sale of bonds to pay the liabilities of the State now due. Mr Boyd moved an amendment to the effect that no part of the funds arising from the sale of said bonds should go to the liquidation of the debt created by Gov. Lindsay in July last to meet the interest due on the A & C R R Bonds. Mr. Boyd's amendment was supported in speeches by Mr Boyd himself, Mr. Crook and others, and, opposed by Messrs Oats, Bullock, Bradford, Toulmin and others. A motion to lay the amendment on the table was carried by a vote of 65 ayes to 14 nays, Messrs Bulger, Ashurst, Boyd, Calaway, Crook, Ellison, Etheridge, Henry, Holmes, Leath, Payne, Raisler, Semmes & Smith voting nay. The amendment thus disposed of, the bill was then put upon its third reading and passed by a vote of 71 ayes to 12 nays.

The Revenue bill was then taken up and discussed section by section. The section exempting lands granted to Rail Roads from taxation was stricken out. A motion to strike out the seventeenth sub-division exempting hogs from taxation was lost. The motion to amend by exempting property to the value of $500 to be selected by the head of the family was lost. The motion to strike out the whole of sub-division 9 was laid on the table. The motion to amend by adding "provided the value of the E-tate exceed that amount" was lost. During the pendancy of the amendment to exempt "all wearing apparel" the Special order was announced.

Speaker Hubbard then took the chair, and, the hour of eleven having arrived, announced that the special order, viz: The bill to regulate elections in this State would be taken up.

Mr Crook introduced a substitute for the bill, providing for the following changes in the existing law, viz:

1st For removing disabilities of electors.

2nd For challenges, and for punishing for illegal voting.

3rd For prohibiting the Board of Supervisors from rejecting votes for certain reasons.

4th Prohibiting a party contesting an election from recovering the cost incident to such contest from the party whose election is contested.

5th Repealing section 84, providing for the voting by electors for President and Vice President of the United States.

6th Repealing sect 99, which repeals all election laws passed prior to the 8th October 1868.

7th Repealing section 100, which provides for furnishing each board of Supervisors copies of the election equal to the number of voting precincts.

8th Repealing sec 101 which provides for notice by Governor's proclamation of election to be held on the 3d November.

9th Repealing sec 102, which declares votes illegal cast on the 3rd day of November, except for certain officers therein mentioned.

10th Prohibiting any elector from voting more than once for any one candidate on the same day.

The substitute was adopted—ayes 36, nays 27—and thereupon the bill was ordered to be engrossed for a 3rd reading to-morrow.

Board of Education.

An amendment to the bill to establish a negro college, in the shape of a resolution was passed. Sundry bills and amendment thereto providing for the sending of agents to Washington to solicit a grant of lands for the benefit of the negro University was lost. A committee was appointed to prepare a memorial to Congress on the subject. A bill to cut down the professorship at the State University was lost.

A REVOLUTION IN MINIATURE

MR. GLADSTONE, in a late after dinner speech, described Belgium as "that little State, a model for Europe as much by the admirable behavior of its Sovereign as by the good sense of its people and the admirable administration of his affairs." This opinion undoubtedly reflects the judgment of most people who know anything about the little group of mediæval principalities which has figured for the last forty years as the Kingdom of Belgium. Within the past few days, however, the subjects of King LEOPOLD—so far, at least as the inhabitants of the capital can be supposed to represent them—seem to have been seized with a brief madness. Brussels is as near revolution as an angry mob kept in check by a solid phalanx of troops can make it. The city is known in Europe as "the little Paris," and it seems as if "the red fool-fury of the seine" had really migrated from its parent soil to stir the blood of the somewhat phlegmatic burghers of the old capital of Brabant. The cause of the pother, of whose progress the cable has kept us advised, cannot be very clearly explained. This much only is intelligible: M. de Decker, a prominent man in Belgian politics for the last thirty years, was appointed by the present Ministry, which is Conservative and Catholic, to the position of Governor of Limburg, one of the nine provinces composing the Kingdom. M. de Ducker occupied for two years, 1855–57, the position of head of the Belgian Cabinet, and endeavored to conciliate all parties on the base of an alliance of moderate opinions and a general consent to be satisfied with half measures. Educated among the jesuits he has never been charged with bigotry, and thought a steady ally of the Catholic Party, he has never been a favorite of the Ultramontanes. Nevertheless, he has incurred a deep and lasting popular dislike, and the threatning nature of the demonstrations in the streets compelled his resignation, albeit the majority of the House of Representatives stood by him, and the King showed no symptoms of yielding to the popular outcry.

The resignation of the obnoxious Governor has not however, satisfied the people. Having tasted of the fruits of power, the mob has taken up the cry, "Let the Ministry resign." This ministry, it may be stated, rests on a somewhat peculiar busis. The Frere Orban Cabinet which preceded it was Liberal, but not progressive enough. The Radical Party was not strong enough to elect a majority of their own; but in default of getting the Belgian Whigs to move fast enough they were sufficiently strong to defeat them by forming a coalition at the election, and in the House with their political opposites—the Clerical or Conservative Party. This alliance has probably not been a very satisfactory one for either party. It is tolerably certain that the people of the capital have regarded it with very special dislike. The chief strength of the Catholic Party is drawn from the Flemish speaking provinces. Almost the only large city which supports them is Antwerp, the centre of Flemish influence, just as Brussel is the centre of the French tendencies of Belgium. There is one additional reason to incite the Brussels mob to play the role of the Parisians, and it is this. A population of some five millions is practically governed by the small minority of about 120,000, which represents the total of those having the property qualification of voters required in Belgium. Very certainly, however, the action of the inhabitants of Brussel will be resented by the Catholic peasantry and the people of Antwerp and the other purely Flemish towns. The old feud of the French-speaking and Flemish speaking population may thus be revived, and what the historical significance of that may be, it does not require any very intimate acquaintance with the present position of Belgium among European States to determine.

A young lady with a number of others who were injured by a railroad accident near Boston, was carried to a hospital. The surgeon came round and said to the fashionable miss: "Well, madam, what can I do for you?" "Doctor one of my limbs is broken." "One of your limbs?" said he; "well which one is it?" "Oh I can't tell you doctor; but it's one of my limbs." "One of your limbs," thundered the doctor, out of patience; "which limb is it—the limb you thread a needle with?" "No sir," she answered with a sigh; 'its the limb I wear a garter on.' The doctor attended to her, and said: "Young woman, never say limbs again in a hospital; for when a woman gets as fastidious as that, the quicker she dies the better."

The Democratic and Conservative Party in the State of Alabama.

Having been called together to select a chairman in place of our lamented Clanton, and to transact such business as might come before us, we deem it proper, before separating, to address a few words to our friends.

In the death of our gallant chief, the Party and the State have sustained an irreparable loss. We can pay to his memory no prouder tribute than to say that, to his efforts, more than to those of any other we are indebted for the redemption of Alabama from Radical rule.

We now send your greeting and congratulation on the successes that have crowned your efforts since the day when you last met in convention. Last year your efforts, enhanced by the peril of your situation, redeemed the State from the domination of an alien power, inimical to her interests, and odious to her people—and stayed the hand of fraud and peculation that was fast en iching our oppressors with the hard-earned fruits of our labor.

The government of Alabama had become a mere fiscal contrivance for tax-gathering and our officers the middle-men of non-resident speculators, both preying remor closely on our substance. Utter ruin would soon have been our portion had you not come to the rescue and expelled from the seats of power the most dangerous of our rulers and law-makers, and replaced them with friends and citizens.

The Executive officers of the State, with one exception, are filled by men of your own choice.

In the House of Representatives you have a large majority of members who truly represent the people of Alabama.

To the Senate of the United States has been elected, for the first time since the war, a citizen of Alabama.

In very many of the counties, the offices are now filled by men of your own party. If all these results can be accomplished in one election, may we not confidently expect that at the election to take place, in November next, the last vestige of the Radical party in Alabama will forever disappear? Then you can elect all the State officers, a majority of the Senate and House of Representatives, and Alabama will then once more stand erect, with her destiny in the hands of her own sons.

It is a matter of congratulation too, that these results have been brought about by quiet work and peaceful voting, without force or intimidation, and in spite of election laws made purposely to invite and cover fraud.

The prospects of the party in the State are most encouraging; and to maintain the ascendency already won, it is only necessary to be true to your colors.

Let no local jealousy—no supposed personal grievance cause you to become lake-warm. The Democratic and Conservative organization is the only breakwater between you and the worst of political fates.

With its success, you have an honest and economical administration of affairs; with its defeat, you have a corrupt administration, high taxes and reckless expenditure of money.

We ask you then to organize in every county in the State, so that when the hour arrives, you may strike a final blow at the monster which has been attempting to crush you.

JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN

JACKSONVILLE, ALABAMA.

SATURDAY, DEC. 23rd, 1871.

The Montgomery Advance, edited by Col. Jos. Hodgson, suggests that as Congress "shows fair symptoms of removing political disabilities," Col. Robert Tyler of the Advertiser be selected by the people as Congressman at large from Alabama, under the new apportionment.

We most heartily concur in the suggestion, and urge upon the Democratic party of the State, his nomination, by all means, in event political disabilities are removed. His place of residence, his position as editor in chief of the leading Democratic organ of the State, his excellent and high qualifications for the place, all point to him as the one particular man in Alabama the Democratic party should choose as representative in Congress.

COLONEL ROBERT TYLER.

The Advertiser, under the business management of our friend, W. W. Screws, Esq., and the political management of Col. Tyler, has won, deservedly, a foremost place in the rank of Southern journals The railroads radiating from Montgomery render her a focal point for dissemination of information over the State. For a town of this size no other city of the South; nor indeed of the Union, can boast a paper so substantially planted or so ably edited. While we have often, in days gone by, and in these later days when, as a journalist, we have made politics merely a by-play, differed from Col. Tyler upon politics presented for our party support, we have never refused him our most cordial sympathy and encouragement in the great work in which he is enlisted.

A gentleman of enlightened views, liberal culture, a patriotism unstained by a suspicion of selfishness, and a courtesy and kindness which wins the love of all with whom he is brought into contact, he may well be likened to that knight who is represented as having a hand of iron in a glove of velvet.

Col. Tyler possesses many of the remarkable qualities of his illustrious father, who ripened with age and expired in a blaze of new glory. During the life of Clanton, Col. Tyler possessed the unlimited confidence of that gallant leader of the people. There are those of the press who have sometimes attacked the views of Col. Tyler with apparent virulence. To all such, we can say that if there is a man in the Union who is high removed above all selfish ideas, whose loyalty to his people is unblemished by a tremor, and who would not "flatter Neptune for his trident, nor Jove for his power to thunder," Col. Robert Tyler is the man. Now, that Congress shows fair symtoms of removing political disabilities, we propose to pay our part of the debt we owe him by nominating him as Congressman at large (under the new apportionment) from the whole State of Alabama.

Advance.

For the Republican.

Printing and Printers.

Printing, the art of stamping or impressing figures and letters upon paper, cloth and other materials was first known in Europe about the year 1440—though said to have been invented by the Chinese 500 years previous. It was invented first in Europe by John Guttenberg and subsequently much improved by Peter Scheffer and John Faust.

In its incipiency this art was regarded as so extraordinary that the servants of Faust, who went to Paris to sell some of their master's earlier productions, were accused of witchcraft and their books were committed to the flames by order of Parliament. Louis IX, however, condemned this judgment and decreed an equitable remuneration to Faust for his loss.

Before the invention of printing, every book was a manuscript which took days, weeks, and even years to transcribe, consequently books were rare luxuries—obtainable only by the most wealthy.—There were few libraries and even a single book was a valuable possession.

The famous library at Oxford founded by Humphrey, Duke of Gloucester, contained only six hundred volumes, and a part of this small number was brought from France as trophies of war. The Royal library at Paris contained but four classical works.

The world has produced many Printers celebrated for profound learning. At the head of these stands Aldus Manutius one of the earliest Italian Printers, whose services to literature, and even to civilization have been invaluable. He was learnedly educated, passing the early part of his life in literary pursuits and among the most noted scholars of his time. The amount of work performed by this man in the course of 20 years is astonishing. He published all the productions of the Greek and Roman authors then known, transcribing the text from old manuscript which required an infinite degree of learning and patience to decipher; he was, in short, the editor of every work he published.

But for the untiring labors of Manutius many a valuable classical work would have been lost which still delights the scholar and the progress of enlightenment would have been retarded. for it is to the writings of the Greek and Roman authors that we owe the beginning of our existing refinement.

Preserving to the world, however, these valuable productions did not form his sole occupation besides giving to the world the writings of his cotemporaries he also sent forth from his press many productions of his own pen, remarkable for erudition, among these were grammars of the Greek and Latin languages, and a Greek and Latin Dictionary in folio, the first book of that kind ever published. He also founded at his house a literary Society known by the name of the "Aldine Academy" and delivered lectures on Greek and Roman literature.

His son Paul was equally distinguished as a printer and a man of letters. The younger Aldus, grand-on of the first, did not sustain the reputation of the family. Under him the printing office fell into discredit and on his death the valuable library collected by his father and grand father was sold for the satisfaction of his creditors.

Contemporary with the Manutii of Italy were the Estiennes or Stephenses of France who were celebrated as Printers for a hundred and fifty years and about twelve of the family were noted for literary attainments. Robert Stephens was remarkable for the purity of his style. His son Henry was one of the most learned men that ever lived. He edited many of the classics adding learned prefaces and commentaries. His greatest work was his Thesaurus or Greek Dictionary which production required twelve years of labor. This great scholar died after many misfortunes in an alms house at Lyons, A. D. 1598.

Want of space will not allow a more extended mention than merely the names of such men as Simon de Colines, Badius Froben and Thomas Ruddiman and Richardson, the novelist, of later date, who were also celebrated for their learning and proficiency in this noble art.

The advantages we owe to Printing and Printers are inestimable; the few works of the ancients remaining to us serve only to make us regret what we are sure we must have lost of their knowledge. But Printing assures us that there will never again be retrograding steps in science. All science will henceforth advance.

CALL OF THE COUNTIES.

On the call of the counties the following bills were introduced and disposed of as indicated below:

By Mr Dustan, a bill to prevent illegal voting, as follows:

Be it enacted, &c., That any person who votes more than once at any election held in this State, or deposits with the managers of any election in this State more than one ballot for the same office as his vote at such election, shall be guilty of a felony, and on conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary not less than two nor more than five years.

Sec. 2. Be it further enacted, &c., That any person who is hereafter willfully and knowingly guilty of any other kind of illegal voting than that mentioned in the first section of this bill, shall be indicted therefor, and on conviction thereof shall be imprisoned in the penitentiary for not less than one nor more than three years at the discretion of the jury trying the case.

Sec. 3. Be it further enacted, &c., That it shall be the duty of each presiding judge to give this act specially in charge to each grand jury.

Mr Dustan moved to suspend the rule in order to put the bill on its 3rd reading and passage.

Mr. Dustan is a Republican and this bill elicited quite a debate, some of the Democrats claiming it to be a snare and intended to operate alone against the Democratic party (how we can't see) while yet others thought it an excellent bill and that it should pass. The bill was finally referred to a joint committee of House and Senate.

LOCAL COLUMN.

KIRTLAND & TOURTELOTTE, wholesale and retail dealers in boots, shoes, &c. Montgomery, Ala.—We invite the special attention of our readers to the advertisement of this excellent and reliable firm, which has been engaged in business in Montgomery over 19 years; and which during all this time, has been highly esteemed for correct, energetic and liberal mode of transacting business. The extent of their business, and the fact that they make it a speciality, unconnected and unembarrassed by other branches of business, enables them to sell articles of superior quality at moderate prices. Our friend in this section of the State while visiting Montgomery, can be furnished by these polite and courteous gentlemen, with the neatest and most fashionable style of goods in their line. They will also fill orders with accuracy and dispatch. Call upon them, and examine their superb stock.

We are indebted to Montgomery Bros. for a box of fancy candies and a pack of fine segars. They have the finest lot of fancy candies ever brought to this market, and moreover they are the only firm that has as yet sent into the printer christmas presents.

Some 25 or 30 of the young men will ride as a company of fantasties on Monday, Christmas day; and we make this notification that they may not be mistaken for Ku-Klux.

"Go for" Montgomery Bros., and get your christmas "trix" toys, &c. &c.

About the only bill of importance that has passed both houses of the Legislature this week is the bill entitled an act to relieve and regulate the finances of the State, which provides for the issue and sale of one million dollars of bonds, in order to pay off the outstanding liabilities of the State.

The entertainment given by the pupils of the Female Academy was charming, and all present were highly pleased.

Attention boys!!! A choice lot of the best fire works, at Montgomery Bros.

The Shenk's Sulphur Springs Local has gone into christmas quarters. We will hear from him again in January.

Best hulled Buckwheat flour for sale by Montgomery Bros.

We are requested by our Superintendent to notify teachers that on the 1st Monday in January 1872, the Board of Directors will meet in Jacksonville. Teachers are requested to forward all Reports for the past quarter. Those who have license to teach primary schools will please be present for re-examination.

A fresh lot of French and stick candies at Montgomery Bros.

"Aunt Violet" requests us to say that she has fruit cakes, pound cakes, Sponge cakes &c. &c., in large quantities for sale at moderate rates. She will bake for any one desiring her services. Her cakes are at Montgomery Bros.

According to custom and in order to give our printers the holidays, we shall not issue a full sheet next week.

Santa Claus has his headquarters at Montgomery Bros.

With the beginning of the year 1872, we will commence the publication of a beautiful novelette, translated from the German, by a young lady of Jacksonville, for the Republican. We have read the initial chapter and are much pleased thereat.

MRS. M. E. PINCKARD, of Georgia, visits this place, for the purpose of getting Subscribers for a Book, entitled "BREAD OF HEAVEN AND HUSKS OF SWINE." It is a good story—a work of her own composition and has been favorably noticed in the Savannah, Charleston, Atlanta, Cartersville, and Rome papers.

The authoress having lost her sons, property and means in the late war, she is seeking aid to get the Book printed. The price is ONE DOLLAR per copy, which she wishes paid in advance, by any person who feels inclined to do so. The Book will be Bound and Illustrated.

The sale of the work is to benefit bereaved ones— her own self—a widowed; soulless Mother—and to educate her little fatherless grand sons, made fatherless by the casualties of war. It is hoped that she will gain numerous subscribers among us. She will have the Book before the public during the incoming year.

A FRIEND.

OXFORD LOCALS.

MR. EDITOR:—We promised to be present at the examination as much as possible and so we have; but owing to other business which called our attention off, we could not attend as we desired. But we will proceed to give you some information about what we saw while in attendance.

We fully agree with all those whom we have heard speak of the examination that the teachers and pupils, all acquitted themselves in a manner alike creditable to themselves. It was evident to all present, that the teachers had done their whole duty as such toward their pupils; and that the pupils on their part, showed that they had been under the tutilage of those whom they delighted to honor by the proficiency they had made in their respective studies.

We cannot forbear mentioning the name of a few who seemed to have taken more interest in advancing themselves than others in their respective studies; or at least, to have made greater proficiency than others. Among the number of young ladies, we would mention the names of Misses. Millie Draper, Emma Williams, Lula Motes, and Mollie Williams, and there are a few others whose names we do not know, whom we would mention in this connection if we knew them, and those whose names are not mentioned will do us the kindness to pardon us for the omission.

Among the boys—or we might say young men, or both; we would mention the names of Messrs. Broughton, Hayse Trimble, Sinnitt, Eugene Watkins, Jones and Chas. McLane. There are others we would mention in this connection, but do not know the names of all. And we wish it understood that we only speak of those whom we saw examined, and not of those we did not. But for the want of space and time we would take a few of the above names and give the particular branches we heard them examined on; but our time and space forbids.

And lastly, but not least, we would notice the class taking music lessons. This class is a little larger than common we believe, and the proficiency they have made in this branch, certainly speaks well for the one who has had charge of it; and no less so, for those who have been under her tutilage. The teacher and pupil each seem to have worked together earnestly—one to import, and the other to receive all the instruction possible.

Miss Ida Cartrell who has been in charge of this class, for the two last terms, will not remain any longer, to fill the place she has so laudibly filled, and with so much satisfaction to all parties concerned.. She has made many more friends, among her associates in school, and not a few out of it, during her stay at this place. And she carries with her the best wishes of all who know her, for her prosperity and happiness through life. The institution that is fortunate enough to secure her services, if any, as music teacher, will certainly have cause of congratulation, in being so fortunate as to secure the services of one so universally admired.

We welcome in our midst Messrs. Hughes & Christian, who are opening a nice selected lot of dry goods, hardware, cutlery, &c. We bespeak for these young men, a liberal trade.

We also welcome Messrs. Shropshire and Wilson from Ga. They have purchased a business lot here, on which they intend erecting a house at once, for the purpose of going into the mercantile business. If we are not mistaken in the men, they are men who understand their business. They know what they are doing; and as an evidence of the above they have made choice of Oxford as a business place. This is good evidence in our judgment.

While on the subject of improvement we would say that we expect soon to have a neat little house to go into our own selves. 'Tis under contract, and commenced.

And furthermore, we would take occasion to speak of the extensive machine shop of James McCibbon. 'Tis now about completed, and as we said it is an extensive arrangements. We had the pleasure of looking through this shop a few days ago, Mr. M——, told us that he was prepared to put up any thing now from an awl handle to the finest bureau. The whole is run by steam.

Dr. L. C. Williams, is still improving. We hope soon to see him on the streets again.

Cotton a little under last week's quotations. It is ranging from 17½ to 18½ cents.

Mr. Grant, you may tell the county Commissioners, to be laying up money in the treasury, we will soon want to make a draw on them. The Railroad is bound to come to Oxford soon.

The thermometer will indicate a degree to-morrow morning about Zero, if we are not very much mistaken.

Wishing you a merry Christmas, we bid you good night.

BRICK.

LADIGA LOCALS.

We have but little to write about this week. I hear but little said about christmas among the young people. The year 1871 is fast drawing to a close; we should be thankful to the Great Ruler of the Universe, for his kind protection during the past year. Let us go back in our imaginations and review the past year, and see where we have erred; then see how many improvements we can make in the year 1872, both spiritual and temporal.

We have had no Sunday school at Ladiga, for the past year—rather a bad feature for such a community as this. It is owing to the carelessness of the citizens of this place, and some of the surrounding ones living near by. Too much business—no time for Sabbath schools. We too often wait for Sunday to attend to a part of our business, to save a little time. Just a little encouragement from some of the oldest citizens, we could have an excellent Sunday school. What say you brother neighbor? Shall we have one, or spend the day in hunting green backs, and let our children perish for spiritual food?

We are glad to hear of a new local springing up in the Dark Corner and Cane Creek regions. He is some on the letter (K). He has more (K's) than Carter had oats. Blow your horn Bro., Local, as long as there is a fat opossum in your quarters.

Married at, and by S. M. Pendland, Esq., Mr. Jos. Sagers to a Miss Bridges, all of Nancy's Creek, Calhoun county. May they live a long and happy life together.

One of the defeated candidates living in this portion of the county, requests me to tender his thanks to his many friends of this county; notwithstanding their inability to save Tom at the polls, and that he also has resumed his old ocupation on the farm, and is now burning off an old sage field.

Why don't you say something about Railroads in your town? Or does the water works question consume all the time?

It is reported that Tweed's interest in the Washington Patriot cost him $25,000, and was sold for $7,000.

TERRIBLE AFFAIR NEAR ROME!

A Negro Fiend and his Antics!

Dock Williams a negro living at Col. H. W. Deans has developed terrible traits in the last day or two. He ravished his step-daughter, beat his wife very cruelly, threatened to kill her did strike her over the head and left her for dead and then ran to Alabama.

On Sunday he came back to Dean's and Dean arrested him and locking him up in the smoke house, put a fellow negro to guard him, intending to send him to Judge Perry as soon as possible. The negro called for warter, and while Dean was getting it for him the negro threw a brick at him striking him in the eye proberly knocking the eye-ball clear out, and certainly inflicting a terrible wound; the negro then jumped on Dean and attempted to get his gun, when in the scuffle Dean got hosession of the gun, and shot the negro through the back.

The fellow was then overpowered and brought to jail, where Dr. Holmes dressed his wound.

Mr. Dean is in a terrible condition, and will suffer a long time.

Rome Commercial.

Here is a recipe for making tatlers. Take a handful of the weed called Runabout, the same quantity of root called Nimble-tongue a sprig of the herb Back-bite (either before or after dog days,) a tablespoonful of Don't-you-tell-it, six drachms of Malice, a few drops of Envy, which can be purchased at the shops of Miss Nancy Nightwalker. Stir them well together and simmer them half an hour over the fire of Discontent, kindled with a little Jealousy; then strain it through the rag of Misconception, cork it up in the bottle of Malevolence, and hang it upon a skein of Street Yarn, shake it occasionally for a few days, and it will be fit for use. Let a few drops be taken before walking out, and the subject will be able to speak all manner of evil and that continually.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Columbia, December 20.—Pending the resolution impeaching Gov. Scott. Bowen spoke two hours declaring himself terribly in earnest and that he meant to impeach all guilty Statate officers.—He stated that Scott confessed to twenty two millions of fraudulent bonds and within three days the State Treasurer, Parker, defied the Legislature to proceed against him, because of Legislative to proceed against him, because of Legislative corruption. In order to obtain a two-third vote, Bowen moved a postponement of the Impeachment resolution until after Christmas, in order that the measure come before a full house, and if it was rejected he would resort to the courts, and pledged himself to assist with evidence and other means to convict Scott and other guilty officials.

It is rumored that Scott, admitting conviction by the Senate, if impeached by the House, will resign.

Augusta, December 19.—The election for Governor to fill the unexpired term of Rufus B. Bullock, was the quitest ever held in Georgia. Only about a thousand votes were polled in Richmond county and all for James M. Smith The Republicans took no part in the election. The vote in the State is about 200,000, but there no opposition to the Democratic opposition to the Democratic candidate it is believed that not more than 6,000 votes have been polled in the State.

The Human Body, its Waste and Repair.

The body is undergoing continual waste, both in the voluntary processes of labor and action generally (mental as well as physical) and also in the involuntary processes (respiration for example.) This waste must be repaired by the blood, as it continually circulates and comes into contact with the various portions of the system and the losses of the blood must be supplied from food. As the material of the body is derived from the substance of the food, so all vital power is derived from force stored up in the food. Food is organic matters in a state of molecular tension; and when, in digestion, it becomes decomposed, this tension is given out in the form of physical forces, such as muscular power, animal heat and the like. Every thought that we think, every breath that we draw, every slightest motion or gesture that we make, wears away the organized tissues to some extent. In a healthy condition this waste produces a proportionate degree of appetite and of digestive vigour. But in imperfect health it is not so. Either the appetite is deficient, or the forces of the digestive organs are not adequate to convert into nutritious blood that amount of food which the appetite craves. Now Dr. Fisch's Bitters is a tonic and stimulant adapted by its ingredient to create an agreeable appetite, and also in like degree to stimulate the digestive powers. When this much is accomplished, and the system once put in the way of appropriating nourishment for itself, we may look upon the cure as already effected. Time and careful living will do the rest.

THIRTY YEARS EXPERIENCE

IN THE TREATMENT OF

CHRONIC AND SEXUAL DISEASES.

A PHYSIOLOGICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE.

The cheapest book ever published—containing nearly three hundred pages, and one hundred and thirty fine plates and engravings of the anatomy of the human organs in a state of health and disease, with a treatise on early errors, its deplorable consequences upon the mind and body, with the author's plan of treatment—the only rational and successful mode of cure, as shown by a report of cases tried. A truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage, who entertained doubts of their physical condition. Sent free of postage to any address, on receipt of twenty-five cents in stamps or postal currency, by addressing Dr. LA CROIX, No. 31 Maiden Lane, Albany, New York. The author may be consulted upon any of the diseases upon which his book treats, either personally of by mail, and medicines sent to any part of the world. dec16—1m.

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter,s United States Almanac for 1872, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States, and all civilized countries of the western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welsh, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish language, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses and extraordinary sanitary effects of Hostetter,s Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold in every city, town and village, and are extensively used throughout the entire civilized world.

A SNAKE IN THE GRASS.

BY JOHN G. SAXE.

Come, listen awhile to me, my lad,
Come, listen to me for a spell!
Let that terrible drum
For a moment be dumb,
For your uncle is going to tell
What befell
A youth who loved liquor too well.

A clever young man was he, my lad,
And with beauty uncommonly blessed,
Ere with brandy and wine
He began to decline,
And behaved like a person possessed;
I protest
The temperence plan is the best.

One evening he went to a tavern, my lad,
He went to a tavern one night,
And drinking too much,
Rum brandy and such,
The chap got exceedingly "tight,"
And was quite
What your aunt would entitle "fright"

The fellow fell into a snooze, my lad;
T'is a horrible slumber he takes—
He trembles with fear,
And acts very queer;
My eyes! how he shivers and shakes
When he wakes,
And raves about horrid great snakes!

T'is a warning to you and to me my lad!
A particular caution to all—
Though no one can see
The viper but he—
And hear the poor lunatic bawl,
"How they crawl
All over the floor and the wall!"

Next morning he took to his bed, my lad;
Next morning he took to his bed,
And he never got up
To dine or to sup,
Though properly physicked and bled;
And I read
Next day the poor fellow was dead!

You've heard of the snake in the grass, my lad,
Of the viper concealed in the grass;
But now you must know,
Man's deadliest foe
As a snake of a different class!
Alas!
T'is a viper that lurks in the grass!

Applicable to all weekly Papers.

Probably many of our readers wonder why articles of general, but no special interest, are published in our columns, when those of special interest are omitted. For the information of all such we state that the outside—(first and fourth pages) of the paper is put to press on Tuesday morning.—which renders half the paper unavailable after Monday evening if people knew more of the way things are done in newspaper offices they would not be so ready to complain, if an article in the publication of which they feel a special interest, is deferred a few days.

Dr. GOTTLIEB FISCH'S BITTERS.

(Shape of the Bottle.)

This preparation of the great Scientist, Dr. Gottlieb Fisch, of Germany, is based on the fact that, as all materials of the body are derived from Food, so all Vital Force, or Health, is derived from the Force stored up in Food. Dr. Fisch's Bitters enables the System to liberate and appropriate these Forces, creates Appetite, cures Dyspepsia, with its resulting Debility and lack of Nervous Energy; so tones the Stomach and Liver as to make Constipation and Biliousness impossible; reinforces the System so it can tide over bad results of changing climate, water, &c., and better endure the demands often unexpectedly made on its Force and Energy. Ladies in delicate health, aged persons, and all emaciated and weak after sickness, will rapidly strengthen by using this great preparation.

VINEGAR BITTERS

R. H. McDONALD & Co., Druggists & Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 32 and 34 Commerce St., N.Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take the Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and of all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They Invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed.

THE AMRICAN WASHER.
PRICE, $5 50.

The American Washer Saves Money, Time, and Drudgery.

The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attantion to this little machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not posses ed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated.

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready to use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one-half longer than by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket. Three shirts at a time, washing thoroughly! In a word, ablution of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally within the capacity of this LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any time and taken off at will.

No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleansing efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once become the fast friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unweildy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low that it is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.

$5.50.

All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER is a fair trial. We guarantee each machine to do its work perfectly.

Why not get well!

It is an established fact, convincingly proved by the highest testimony, and by the practical test of 10 years successful experience, that Dr. Crook's Wine of Tar has been administered with the most extraordinary success in all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, performing many truly miraculous cures of cases pronounced incurable. Such a remedy merits a trial from all who are afflicted and vainly seek for relief. Will you let prejudice prevent you from trying it?

The Druggists write that "all who try it recommend it—many having several bottles the second time, and say they would not be without a bottle in their house." It cures all Coughs, Colds and Chronic Coughs, and its cures of Asthma and Bronchitis, of long standing—which other remedies have failed—have caused it to be considered a specific for these complaints. Throat Ailments require but a few doses. Consumptives, and all suffering with Pulmonary Affections, of any kind, should not fail to gain the relief and cure afforded by Dr Crook's Wine of Tar. It's one bottle. It is safe to take at any time, and under any circumstances, whatever.

Permit no other remedy to be palmed off on you for Dr. Crook's Wine of Tar, for it is this remedy which is performing the many wonderful cures—and you want IT, and not an unrefined medicine with a similarity of name. Sold by Druggists.

MESSRS. J. & S. BONES, Dear Sir:

I have given the 16 inch Mill (Clemans) bought of you, a thorough test, and can but express myself perfectly satisfied. The power was the running gear fo my gin, which although in very bad order, was sufficient to grind one bushel (by the watch) in eleven minutes, I find no trouble to do my grinding before breakfast. Several of my neighbors were present at the time, and all were satisfied with the result, and were astonished at the quantity and fine quality of the meal produced in so short a time, I prefer the meal to any steam mill meal. The 16 inch mill I bought of you for the Foster Farm, and used since the above was written proves equally satisfactory. It is a complete mill.

Yours Truly,

Manh How Lost, How Restored

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure, (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

Price, in a sealed enaclope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty year's successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid on receipt of six cents, or two post stumps.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide" price 25 cents.

GENERAL

Commission Merchants,
MONTGOMERY, ALA,

We would inform our friends and the planting community generally, that we have leased the Brick Warehouse on the corner of Commerce and Bibb streets, and are prepared to do the Storage and Factorage Business in all its branches. Our charge for Storage will be fifty cents per bale for the first, and twenty-five for each successive month. Our charge for selling cotton will be one dollar per bale. We are prepared to make liberal advances on cotton in store, or for shipment to our friends in New York, New Orleans or Mobile. We will furnish Bagging and Ties, or other plantation supplies at the lowest market price. From our long experience in business, and prompt attention to all matters entrusted to us, we hope to merit a share of patronage.

HEALTH! BEAUTY!!

Strong and pure rich Blood—Increase of Flesh and Weight—Clear Skin and beautiful Complexion secured to all,

DR. RADWAY'S
Sarsaparillian Resolvent

Has made the most astonishing cures; so quick, so rapid are the changes the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that

Every day an increase in Weight and Flesh is Felt.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt-Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wasts, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of the its repairs will be rapid, and every day as patient will feel himself growing stronger and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and weight increasing.

Not only does the Sarsaparillian relieve, excels all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for Kidney and Bladder Complaints, Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Retention of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are sediment deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and bricks dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

DR. RADWAY'S
PERFECT PURGATIVE PILLS,

"A non-partisan, non-sectional, and non-sectarian Magazine"
THE
Eclectic Magazine
OF
Foreign Literature Science And Art
Twenty-seventh Year—Seventy-sixth volume.
New Volume begins January, 1872
NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE.
The ECLECTIC reprints the best Essays, Reviews, Stories, and Scientific Articles from the prominent English, French, and German periodicals. Its selections are very carefully made, and for more than a quarter of a century it has maintained its position as the leading exponent of foreign contemporary thought.

SPECIALTIES OF THE ELECTIC.
Science.
It is believed that in this department the ELECTIC is more comprehensive and complete than any other Magazine in the world not exclusively devoted to the subject.
Biography.
There is no department of Literature more important, and at the same time more generally interesting than Biography. In this department, therefore will be found sketches of most of the famous men of present and past times.
Belles Lettres.
Polite Literature in all its branches is represented by the best selections which can be gleaned from the whole field of periodical literature aboard.
Fiction.
In this depprtment the Best Current Literature of its class is found, comprising occasional serials by the best contemporary novelists, but chiefly the short stories for which the English Magazines are deservedly celebrated.
General Literature.
Under this head are embraced all those subjects which elude special classification—for instance, the able Essays on Political, Social, and Literary Topics, which fill the English quarterlies and monthlies.
Editorial Department.
The editorial Department fare Literary Notices, Foreign Literary Notes, Science, Art and Varieties. They have been remodelled and extended, so as to embrace every possible topic and there is no other eclectic publication which even attempts such a synopsis.
Illustrations.
A very fine Steel Engraving on some subject of general interest, either Historic Portrait, or Ideal, embellishes each number. These engravings are executed in the best manner and by the best artists and are of permanent value.

Terms Single copies, 45 cents. One copy, one year, $5 two copies one year $9, five copies one year, $20. Agents wanted to get up clubs. Address.

DANGEROUS FIRE.—On Sunday night last, near 12 o'clock, fire was discovered in the basement story of the REPUBLICAN office, occupied by George White, as a confectionery and restaurant, which if it had not been promptly extinguished, would certainly have destroyed the entire row of buildings on the western side of the square. It was first discovered by Mr Hugh Frazier, who was sleeping in the room above, and awakened by the suffocating smoke. He immediately ran down, gave the alarm, broke open the back door, and with the assistance of Mr W. C. Land, succeeded in putting out the fire, which had made considerable headway. Several hundred persons, however, had collected and such the amount of heat and smoke in the upper rooms, that the floor and ceiling, were cut in several places before fear and apprehension subsided. Much credit is due Messrs Frazier and Land, for their energetic and successful action, and many thanks to the citizens for their prompt and willing, tender of assistance.
The fire was occasioned by setting a box of ashes, taken up in the morning in one corner of the room.

☞The managers of the late Christmas Festival, given to the S. S. pupils of St. Luke's Church, desire to make their public acknowledgment of thanks to Mrs. E. L. Grant, for the kind favor of a generous contribution of rare exotics for decorating the church.

☞The Sunday School Festivals of the Episcopal and Methodist churches passed off very pleasantly and agreeably, a more extended notice of which will appear in our first regular issue for 1872, and also of the examination exercises in the Jacksonville Female Academy at the close of the first session under the superintendence of Miss Clem Snow.

☞The attention of the public is invited to the Notice of the new cash terms adopted by E. L. Woodward's Son, in his GROCERY trade. These terms will be invariable and without exception, and we have no doubt the system of buying and selling for cash will result in mutual benefit of both proprietor and patrons.

☞See notice of sale of valuable Land in Cleburne county by James D. Thompson, Administrator.
Also, Executor's sale of valuable land near White Plains, by Thomas A. Kerr, Executor.

☞Attention is respectfully invited to notice of commencement of next session of Select Female School, by Mr. and Mrs. Bellamy.

☞Most of the Locals are omitted this week, and will appear in the regular issue for January, 1872.

☞We issue a half sheet this week, in order to keep up the regular issue of legal advertisements, and also to give the printers as well as others some opportunity for rest and recreation during the Christmas festivities. To this we know our generous patrons will not object.

Read! Read!
On and after Monday, January 1st '72 my terms will be Strictly Cash. I buy my goods for Cash, and can not afford to sell them at as short profits as I do, on time, but must have the money when the goods are delivered. No deviation.
E. L. WOODWARD'S SON.

LADIGA LOCALS.

Christmas Gift, Lon, you can send by Express or Telegraph as you like.

Well, to-day (Monday), Christmas, a beautiful day is passing off quietly, only the little boys and dogs all mixed up together are having a fine time with their fire crackers, while Jeff our little Tailor is standing on the portico bawling at the top of his voice for Dilsey to come and get the ashes from his fire place said he had sold them to her for washing and wanted them out of the way, at the same time calling to old Rock for a chew of tobacco—declaring he would not drink a drop of the overjoy to-day.

Some few of the 15th amendments are around cleaning up what little Red rim and busthead there is on hand.

While some of the Locals have gone into Christmas Quarters, our Nances Creek Local has gone into winter quarters.

The Great Pictorial Annual.

Hostetter's United States Almanac for 1872, for distribution, gratis, throughout the United States, and all civilized countries of the western Hemisphere, will be published about the first of January, in the English, German, French, Norwegian, Welch, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages, and all who wish to understand the true philosophy of health should read and ponder the valuable suggestions it contains. In addition to an admirable, medical treatise on the causes, prevention and cure of a great variety of diseases, it embraces a large amount of information interesting to the merchant, the mechanic, the miner, the farmer, the planter, and professional man; and the calculations have been made for such meridians and latitudes as are most suitable for a correct and comprehensive NATIONAL CALENDAR.

The nature, uses and extraordinary sanitary, effects of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the staple tonic and alterative of more than half the Christian world, are fully set forth in its pages, which are also interspersed with pictorial illustrations, valuable recipes for the household and farm, humorous anecdotes, and other instructive and amusing reading matter, original and selected. Among the Annuals to appear with the opening of the year, this will be one of the most useful, and may be had for the asking. The proprietors, Messrs. Hostetter & Smith, Pittsburgh, Pa., on receipt of a two cent stamp, will forward a copy by mail, to any person who cannot procure one in his neighborhood. The Bitters are sold by druggists and dealers, and

Dr. GOTTLIEB FISCH'S BITTERS.

(Shape of the Bottle.)

This preparation of the great Scientist, Dr. Gottlieb Fisch, of Germany, is based on the fact that, as all materials of the body are derived from Food, so all Vital Force, or Health, is derived from the Force stored up in Food. Dr. Fisch's Bitters enables the System to liberate and appropriate these Forces, creates Appetite, cures Dyspepsia, with its resulting Debility and lack of Nervous Energy; so tones the Stomach and Liver as to make Constipation and Biliousness impossible; reinforces the System so it can tide over bad results of changing climate, water, &c., and better endure the demands often unexpectedly made on its Force and Energy. Ladies in delicate health, aged persons and all emaciated and after sickness, will rapidly strengthen by using this great preparation.

VINEGAR BITTERS

R. H. McDonald & Co., Druggists & Gen. Agents, San Francisco, Cal., and 31 Commerce St., N. Y.

MILLIONS Bear Testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and A LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE, a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to directions and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing, also, the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and of all the Visceral Organs.

FOR FEMALE COMPLAINTS, whether in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood or at the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters have no equal.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid Liver and Bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effect.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE, and other WORMS, lurking in the system of many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle, printed in four languages.

THE AMRICAN WASHER.
PRICE, $5.50.

The American Washer Saves Money, Time, and Drudgery.

The Fatigue of Washing Day no Longer Dreaded, but Economy, Efficiency, and Clean Clothing, Sure.

In calling public attantion to this little machine, a few of the invaluable qualities, (not possessed by any other washing machine yet invented,) are here enumerated.

It is the smallest, most compact, most portable, most simple in construction, most easily operated. A child ten years old, with a few hours' practice, can thoroughly comprehend and effectually use it. There is no adjusting, no screws to annoy, no delay in adapting! It is always ready for use! It is a perfect little wonder! It is a miniature giant, doing more work and of a better quality, than the most elaborate and costly. One half of the labor is fully saved by its use, and the clothes will last one-half longer then by the old plan of the rub board. It will wash the largest blanket. Three shirts at a time, washing thoroughly! In a word, ablution of any fabric, from a Quilt to a Lace Curtain or Cambric Handkerchief, are equally within the capacity of this LITTLE GEM! It can be fastened to any time and taken off at will.

No matter how deep rooted a prejudice may exist against Washing Machines, the moment this little machine is seen to perform its wonders, all doubts of its cleansing efficacy and utility are banished, and the doubter and detractor at once become the fast friends of the machine.

We have testimonials without end, setting forth its numerous advantages over all others and from hundreds who have thrown aside the unwieldy, useless machines, which have signally failed to accomplish the object promised in prominent and loud sounding advertisements.

It is as perfect for washing as a wringer is for wringing. The price another paramount inducement to purchasers, has been placed so low that it is within the reach of every housekeeper, and there is no article of domestic economy that will repay the small investment so soon.

All that is asked for this GREAT LABOR SAVER is a fair trial. We guarantee each machine to do its work perfectly.

Why not get well!

It is an established fact, convincingly proved by the highest testimony, and by the practical test of 10 years successful experience, that Dr. Crook's Vine of Tar has been administered with the most extraordinary success in all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, performing many remarkable cures of Cases pronounced incurable.

Such a remedy merits a trial from all who are afflicted and vainly seek relief. Will you let prejudice prevent you from trying it?

The Druggists were that "all who try it recommend it—many having several bottles the second time, and stating they would not be without it, if it cost $5 per bottle." Cases of Coughs, Colds and Croup quickly cured. Cases of Asthma and Bronchitis of long standing, in other remedies have failed—have caused it to be considered a specific for these complaints. Great Attention requires but a few doses. Consumption and all suffering with Pulmonary Affections, of any kind, should not fail to gain the relief and cure afforded by Dr. Crook's Vine of Tar. Only one bottle. It is safe to take at any time, and under any circumstances, whatever.

Permit no other remedy to be palmed off on you for Dr. Crooks Vine of Tar, for it is the remedy which is performing the many wonderful cures—and you want it, and not an untried medicine with similarity of name. Sold by Druggists.

MESSRS. J. & S. BONES, Dear Sirs:

I have given the 16 inch Mill (Cleman-) bought of you, a thorough test, and can but express myself perfectly satisfied. The power was the running gear fo my gin, which although in very bad order, was sufficient to grind one bushel (by the watch) in eleven minutes. I find no trouble to do my grinding before breakfast. Several of my neighbors were present at the time, and all were satisfied with the result, and were astonished at the quantity and fine quality of the meal produced in so short a time, I prefer the meal from my steam mill meal. The 16 inch mill I bought of you for the Foster Farm, [illegible] since the above was written proves equally satisfactory. It is a complete [illegible]

Manhood Lost. How Restored

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure, (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY, and FITS, induced by self indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price, in a sealed enaclope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty year's successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerour ure of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide" price 25 cents.

HEALTH! BEAUTY!!

Strong and pure rich Blood—Increase of Flesh and Weight—Clear Skin and beautiful Complexion secured to all,

DR. RADWAY'S
Sarsaparillian Resolvent

has made the most astonishing cures; so quick, so rapid are the changes the body undergoes, under the influence of this truly wonderful Medicine, that

Every day an increase in Weight and Flesh is Felt.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Scurfiness, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Cancers in the Womb, and all [illegible] and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it, either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continuly progressing, succeeds in arresting these wasts, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss, with its repairs will be rapid, and every patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and weight increasing.

Not only does the Sarsaparillian Resvent excels all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitution and Skin diseases, but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney and Bladder Complaints,

Urinary, and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are bricks dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, there is morbid, diseased, or broken down [illegible] bone-dust deposits, or there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the small of the Back or along the Loins.

DR. RADWAY'S

perfectly tasteless, elegantly coated with sweet gum, purge, regulate, purify, cleanse and strengthen. Radway's Pills, for the cure of all disorders of the Stomach, Liver, Bowels, Kidneys, Bladder, Nervous Diseases, Headache, Constipation, Costiveness, Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Biliousness, Bilious Fever, Inflamation of the Bowels, Piles, and all Derangements of the Internal Viscera. Warranted to effect a positive cure. Purely Vegetable, containing no mercury, minerals, or deleterious drugs.

A few doses of RADWAY'S PILLS will free the system from all the above named disorders. Price, 25 cents per box. Sold by Druggists.
