THE SONG OF THE LOVER.

Scene:—Moonlight beneath the sky's window apparatus, the lover and together with guitar accompaniment.

Open thy lute, O my bright Gaze on the glim of early evening star
And list to the notes of my soft guitar.

Then the lady answered: "Who's going to weep?"
Go "with your fiddle, and let me sleep."

LOVER.
(Saddened but still hopeful)

Then sleep, dear lady; thy fringed lids close,
Pinnac the cherubs fan thy repose.
While through thy casement slightly ajar
Steal the sweet notes of my soft guitar.

Then the lady her secret pain confessed With the plaintive murmur: "Oh, give us a rest!"

LOVER.
(Slightly discouraged.)

Chide me not harshly, O, lady fair!
Bend from thy lattice and hear my prayer.
Singing for thee, I wander afar;
Mournfully touching my guitar.

And the lady answered: "You stupid thing,
If you've got the catarrh, stop trying to sing!"

LOVER.
(Filled with natural and righteous indignation.)

Cruel but fair one, thy scorn restrain!
Better death's quiet than thy disdain.
I go to fill in some distant war,
Bearing in battle my loved guitar.

Answered the lady: "Well hurry and go!
I'm holding the spell busy, ready to throw."

LOVER.
(Making immediate preparations to depart.)

False one, I leave thee: When I'm at sea,
Sift shall my memory haunt thy breast;
A special vision thy joy shall mar—
A skeleton touching a soft guitar.

From the lady's window her dulcet
On the night wind floated: "Go it old bones."

Then the lover in agony roamed afar—Till limp in the gutter and snatched his guitar.

THE GOLDEN SIDE.

There is many a rest in the round of life,
If we only would stop to take it;
And many a one from the better land,
If the querulous heart would wake it.

To the sun's beautiful trust we'er fail-The grass is green and the flowers are bright.

Though the wintry storm prevaileth, Butter to hope, though the clouds hang low.

And to keep the eyes still lifted,
For the sweet blue sky will soon peep through.

When the ominous clouds are lifted,
There was never a night without a day,
Nor an evening without a morning;
And the darkest hour, the proverb goes,
Is the hour before the dawning.

There is many a gem in the path of life,
Which we pass in our idle pleasure,
That is richer than the jeweled crown
Or the miser's hoarded treasure.

It may be the love of a little child,
Or a mother's prayer to heaven;
Or only a beggar's grateful thanks
For a cup of water given.

Better to weave in the web of life
A bright and golden filling,
And to do God's will with a ready heart,
And hands that are swift and willing.

Than to snap the delicate silver threads
Of our careers and scatter them
And that heaven blame for the tangled ends.

And sit to grieve and wonder.

ANECDOTE OF WEBSTER.—Just before Lafayette's last visit to America, Webster was on a fishing party in Massachusetts Bay. He had been selected to deliver the welcoming speech to the great Frenchman on his approaching visit, and during the piscatory occupation he seemed very abstracted. A gentleman who was fishing near to him addressed him several times without receiving a word in answer. By-and-by Webster began pulling in his line, hand over hand, with an effort which plainly gave a single gleam of that eager joy which usually accompanies such an event. At length he was seen approaching the surface, gleaming through the green water like a burnished silver; still Webster's face gave no sign of pride or gratification; but just as the fish left the water he burst out in tones of solemn rapture:
"Venerable man; Sagittarius and soldier. Representative of the hemisphere!
Welcome to our shores once more!"
And down dropped the monster cod upon the deck.

BEAUTY'S YOUR FARM.—The general aspect of the farm should be made neat and pleasing. A few shade trees in the fields are a relief to the eye, as well as a protection from the sun. A few trees which make the best appearance and are the least detrimental to crops are the shell-bark hickory and sugar maple. The hickory is perhaps preferable as its fruit is desirable; its roots run deep below the plow and do not interfere with the growth of grass. A large hickory is really but little more objectionable in a cultivated field by reason of the injury it does to the crops than a post of the same diameter would be. It forms a broad, handsomely shaped tuft, having dense leaves of dark green. The terminal and black walnut are among the best for the purpose. They are cultivated for their occupy an area of soil equal at least to the diameter of the top.
Besides having single trees in the field it is well to plant rows of trees with and to plant the margins of woods with suitable varieties. Permanent lanes, although they are not so desirable as many ways of making a farm beautiful of improving the landscape. Once the attention of the owner is directed to this work and he engages in it, new ideas will be developed and an interest will be aroused that will lead him to improve his farm in the right direction.

A Dastardly Crime.

Thursday last a negro man named Henry Cunningham, from Perry county, brought a bale of cotton to this city, and sold it to W. J. Schomburg for seventy-five dollars. The cotton was jointly owned by Cunningham and another person whose name we did not learn. Mr.
Schomburg paid the money, and delivered the bale of cotton to the warehouse of the city.

The transaction was witnessed by one Archie Kelly, a villainous black coun-terfeiter, who has been living on the rascally and dishonest. Archie had by ways known that the shirt negro thieves who plied upon the credit of the country stores, made the acquaintance of Cunningham, and had seen the money go into his pocket. He determined to have the money even if he had to commit murder to secure it. He took Cunningham aside and said that he Archie knew where a first class mule could be bought for twenty dollars and offering to accompany him. The poor dupe listened to the scoundrel and made an appointment to go early yesterday morning for the mule.

On an early hour yesterday morning they started to the place where Archie said the mule was, he Archie, having with him a double-barrelled shot-gun.
When they arrived at a point about one and a half miles from the city in the direction of the main road, Archie managed to get his victim slightly in advance of himself, and leveling his gun on the poor unsuspecting man fired both barrels into him. The shots took effect in the right side and made a ghastly wound which has been pronounced fatal. The poor fellow fell and Archie ran up to him took his pocket-book and ran away.

The shooting occurred about 8 o'clock yesterday morning. The poor man managed to crawl to where his cries were heard by some wood choppers and they went to his relief. They got assistance and Cunningham was brought to the city last night. Dr. C. J. Clark examined his wound and told the poor fellow that it was fatal and that he had but a few hours to live, and no doubt by the time this is in type he will have crossed the dark river.

Cunningham then proceeded to make his own statement before Mr. Sumter Sumter, one of the city council, and the facts above stated are derived from that source. Archie Kelly was still at large at the time of his arrest, but we sincerely trust he will be brought to justice.
It is a fearful horrible crime and when it is taken into consideration that the motive was the miserable sum of thirty-five dollars, it shows what terrible despiration exists in the black heart of this black race.—Selma Times.

Another Horrible Murder.

What an awful thing got into the heads of the negroes that they have resolved to exterminate themselves, from the number of murders that are taking place. We were called upon yesterday to record a most diabolical murder but a short distance from the city, and it again becomes a most atrocious and damnable.
It is a fearful horrible crime and when it
is taken into consideration that the
motive was the miserable sum of thirty-
five dollars, it shows what terrible de-
spiration exists in the black heart of this
black race.—Selma Times.

A few days since a negro man named Henry A. Fulmer, who lived in Pinefall, beat came to Selma with some cotton which he sold, and with the proceeds he bought a horse and a mule. On Thursday last he went to Pinefall and made some purchases and proceeded on his way home. He had gone between one and two miles down the road when two negroes came out of the woods on the side of the road and stopped him. After a short talk, the two negroes without any motive but that of which is to be found in the hearts of fiends who take human life for money, commenced to beat Fulmer with heavy clubs with which they were armed, and immediately fell him to the ground, apparently in a dying condition. The negroes in human shape to make sure work of it, continued their horrid work until they became satisfied that Fulmer was dead. They then robbed him and left him, as they supposed a dead man.
In this they were mistaken, for Fulmer was not dead, but he was so badly hurt that he could not move. He crawled a little while Fulmer regained sufficient strength to rise and walk to a negro house some little distance further towards his home. He reached the house a little after night fall, went in and the people there what had occurred to him. He said that the men that murdered him were strangers to him, and that he had no recollection of ever having seen them before their attack on him.
He gave, though, such a description of the villains as may probably lead to the discovery of the murderers. Fulmer said he was given a bed by his friends who did all they could for him, but his injuries were fatal, and during the night his soul took its flight to a better world and our calendar of crime contains one more case.

On Friday morning the jury held the jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts stated therein. It is thing to continue until we have organized bands of highwaymen rendering it unsafe to travel, the public highway without being loaded down with arms?

Selma Times.

A New Orleans judge riding in the cars recently, from a single glance at the countenance of a lady by his side imagined he knew her, and ventured to remark that the day was pleasant. She only answered:

"Yes."
"Why do you wear a veil?"
"Esk I attract attention."
"It is the province of gentlemen to admire," replied the gallant of law.

"Not when they are married."
"But I am not."
"Indeed!"
"Oh, no; I'm a bachelor."
They lady quietly removed her veil, and disclosed to the astonished magistrate the face of his mother-in-law.

He has been a raving maniac ever since.

HONOR TO JOHN FORSYTHE

As the people of Alabama have elected a Democratic Governor three-fourths of the Congressional delegation and a majority of the Legislature of the same faith, we beg to offer a suggestion to our friends over the line. Faithful among the faithful, in all our troubles, has stood John Forsythe, the THE MOBILE RE-FLECTOR. When the weak covered before the blast, when the cowardly ground his arms, and the venal and weak-kneed marched into the camp of the enemy, he drostly he upon the banner of the white Democracy and his clarion voice was heard throughout the land, calling upon the people to come up, like men, to the rescue of all they held dear. Care since the war, but the white plume of John Forsythe has streamed like a meteor before the serried ranks of our foes, and in every contest his voice has been more potent than the bugle horn of Rhoderick Dhu upon which one blast was "worth a thousand men."

There has been no time since the advent of a so-called peace Forsythe has not been worth many thousand men to the cause of true justice and liberty, and now when the State of Alabama is free, when the chains that bound her limbs are broken, she can do no more fitting and grateful act than to elect John Forsythe to the first vacancy in the Senate of the United States. His talents, his learning, his information, his character, and his unquestioned courage, will add lustre to the name of John Forsythe, of Georgia, Alabama has a duty to perform. Let her perform it. Her own honor is concerned.
[Vicksburg Herald.]

The Rumble of the Ballot-box.

THE PURE COURIER very sensibly advocates a purification of the ballot-box.
We fully agree with THE COURIER that something should be done to give a clearer and more accurate reflection of the popular will. The ballot, in a representative republic, is the best expression of power or weakness, of wisdom or ignorance, of virtue or vice. It is intended to "hold, as 'twere, the mirror to nature"; to show public virtue her own feature and public corruption her own image. If there is a crack in the glass, or if its surface is obscured and tarnished, the reflections become hideous and un-

Banner Presentation.

The Committee appointed by the Democratic club of Jacksonville, having awarded the Banner to Peck's Hill tent, Thursday 29th Nov. was appointed by them for its reception. The Banner, is very neat and handsome, was made by the young ladies of this place, having inscribed on one side "Democracy, the Hope of our Country," of the other, "The Banner Best of Calhoun."

After the presentation, the ladies and gentlemen assembled were invited to a bountiful and sumptuous dinner, prepared by the citizens of the neighborhood. After dinner Col. Parr addressed the colored people who were present. The day was bright and beautiful, and nothing occurred to mar the joyous occasion, as remarked by an old Democrat present, it was calculated to remind one of the good old days of the past.

It is not improper to remark here, that several other Banners in the County came within a fraction of one vote of obtaining the Banner; among them, Sulphur Springs, Madox, June Bug, Rabbit Town, and No. 8; and it was no easy matter for the committee to come to an impartial decision.

On Wednesday evening, a short time after dark, the cry of fire was heard, which was found to be at the one story frame dwelling back of Stevenson's corner, which is the Southwest corner of the public square. The alarm was occasioned by the bursting of a kerosene lamp, which had been left burning in the hall on a small table. The light was immediately noticed across the street and Mr. Ben Peck ran over, broke the door which was locked, and promptly extinguished the kindling fire. But for this, the building would soon have been in a blaze, and the whole western side of the public square burned.

A singular good fortune has attended this place about fire; no disastrous one ever having occurred since its first settlement; although in a number of instances, dangerous fires have started and been promptly extinguished before getting under headway.

We understand that the Hose, the chief dependence of the fire company, is in a totally useless condition; and we think this last warning ought to spur them to have its place supplied with a new one; or if they are unable, the town Council or citizens ought to help raise funds to purchase a new outfit. It is said that one half the size of the old one, would be more efficient and much cheaper.

What Congress can do this Winter. The thoughts and hopes of the country are directed to the coming of the assembling of the next Congress, with its opposition majority and its wealth of honesty and ability, that it seems to be quite forgotten there is work for the present Congress, now about to assemble to do a larger work than any body could expect. It is in our hands to do it if it please, in spite of the easily-sound membership and its inherent corruption. Mr. Garfield's Committee on appropriations is already reported to be in session, and in constant communication with the department of the Secretary of the Treasury. The country should know that, if these heads of bureaus, the Secretary and this committee do their duty in the most common-place and with the most common sense, they can reduce the expenses of the Government for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1876 (for which year appropriations are now in order), not less than $60,000,000. This we may observe, is work for the Republican majority to do. This work which the majority is quite capable of doing, and which the country at large should reasonably expect it to do, we have the very best Republican majority in the country for executing it. Their excellent light of Radicalism, while still unquenched, and before any of their rays were shorn away, in his seat in Congress on February 12, 1874, declared that it was both quite possible and necessary for his party to reduce the public expenditure in the same measure at least as they had raised them. "The purchasing power of money to-day," he said, "is greater than it was five years ago. The extraordinary expenses of the Government for the year 1873 were no more than they were in the time of war, when three dollars of our currency were scarcely worth one dollar of the world's standard. The duties incumbent upon the officials who have charge of the administration of public affairs are no more arduous than they were in the years that have gone by." Yet, in the face of these favorable and undeniable circumstances, Mr. Daves has offered the appropriations for public works last year "amounted to $14,000,000 in round numbers; they were $20,000,000 this year. That for the naval establishment last year was $18,000,000; this year it is $22,000,000. The military establishment was little over $10,000,000; this year it is $30,000,000; and so with some of the "smaller items."

After the first day of January next, papers received at post offices in the county of their publication will be free of postage. Last week we proposed to all subscribers in arrears, that the advance price, $2 per year, would be received from all who paid before the 1st of January. We now propose to subscribers living out of the county, who pay arrears and one year in advance, to pay the postage on their papers.

ALABAMA LEGISLATURE.

MONTEGOMERY, Nov. 26, 1874. The House after a session of six weeks, has adopted rules for its government. This morning Mr. Price's substitute for rule 22 of the rules reported by a committee appointed to draft them was adopted. The rules amended were then adopted without discussion. Before the negroes yielded to the will of the majority they made a desperate fight and gave notice of their intention, as well as that of all Republican members, to do all in their power to invade legislation. Grant of Calhoun, asked Quon, while speaking, if it had not been determined upon by the Republicans in caucus to impede legislation and then vote against prolonging the session for the purpose of nothing might be done, he denied that such action had been taken, but said if a disposition was shown to have the law the opposition would do all they could to impede unjust legislation.

NEW YORK WORLD'S NEWS SUMMARY.

The Secretary of the Treasury has ordered the Assistant Secretary at New York to sell $500,000 of gold on each Thursday during the month of December. The aggregate amount to be sold is $2,500,000. It is believed in Washington that there will be no Congressional action on the financial question this winter. A fight occurred yesterday near Shaners, Pa., between Italian miners and killed several wounded. The Spanish army it is said, numbers 200,000 men fully armed, and there are 400,000 more who are waiting for arms which have been ordered from the United States. A violent storm prevailed on the east coast of Scotland yesterday. Many castles, with heavy loss of life, are reported. Miss was celebrated yesterday for the first time in Berlin by a priest of the Old Catholic Church. The municipal election in Paris have resulted in the election of fifty-three Radicals, ten moderate Republicans, and eleven Conservatives. Kukulka I., King of the Sandwich Islands arrived in San Francisco yesterday. The sympathies with the Bishops of Pernambuco, Para, and Rio de Janeiro, published for violation of the Brazilian ecclesiastical laws, are creating serious disturbances. Troops have been sent to the scene of the trouble.

It strikes us that the Legislature is consuming a little too much time for the work it has done. The Democrats in the Legislature should keep in view the fact that the people of the State have great expectations from this Legislature, and will be justly impatient should they be disappointed. We do not wish to be officious, for we know that the majority in the Legislature have many vexatious obstacles thrown in their way by the Radical minority, but still it strikes us that the mounting blather-skites ought to be more summarily quenched. It will be a sad comment on the intelligence and ability of our Legislature, if a baker's dozen of white back and leather colored fellows should be allowed to impede the passage of legislation any longer. Squelch them gentlemen. Selma Times.

It has been estimated that of 12,000,000 women in America, 11,000,000 wear calico dresses; more or less, of the spirit of economy has, during the past year induced them to forego one dress apiece from their outfit; that the average calico dress contains eleven yards, and that, consequently, there has been a loss to the trade by the retrocession of an entire product of all the mills of Massachusetts for a year. —Montville Independent.

What a Single Bullet Accomplished. In 1830, Dan Stone, of Cincinnati, was admitted to the Legislature. Walking up Main street on the morning of the election, he met an acquaintance going to the polls, who intended to vote the opposing ticket. Stone, followed by the other, said to his friend, "I think you will show a friend that mark of kindness." Party spirit was then comparatively quiet. The voter replied, "Well, Dan, you are right, clever fellow, I don't care if I die." The next day Stone and gave a majority of one in the Legislature, which made Thomas Ewing United States Senator. Mr. Ewing's vote on the question of confirming Martin Van Buren as Minister Plenipotentiary to Great Britain, enabled the President to give the casting vote against it, and called Mr. Van Buren, first Vice President, and then President, and determined the general political policy of the country for four years. One vote accomplished all this.

Infallible and Quick Cure for Diphtheria. The Hamilton Spectator (South Australia) publishes details of the "Great-head" cure for diphtheria. The disease is declared by Mr. Greathead to be of the nature of a local inflammation of the throat, and is caused by a miasmatic atmosphere being inhaled by human beings. For a grown person four drops of sulphuric acid diluted in three-quarters of a tumbler of water; with a smaller dose for children. The acid is to be given in small quantities, the acid at once destroying the parasites and the patient coughing up the obstruction. The papers have testified with accounts of sufferers who had recovered in a few minutes by the use of the acid. One young child, previously stricken by a diphtheria, was declared to be playing about within ten minutes, and at a computation some forty or fifty of these sudden recoveries have been placed on record with full particulars.

It is a singular fact that every Radical slang-wainger in the House of Representatives disclaims all intention "to kill time" when he rises to speak. As none of the great orators of the opposition to an idea which was not put to a ten year old boy before a word on the subject was uttered, and as some of them consume from one to two hours in the discussion of "the principles of the Declaration of Independence" (the constitution before the House being some motion to amend the rules or to order a local bill to a third reading, forthwith,) we should be delighted to know what, in their opinion, would constitute the slaughter of the innocent. It is not clear that the body a colored carpet-bagger from Bullock is the most egregious. While others of his persuasion have sense enough to keep their ignorance concealed, he blunts his out on every and all occasions, for the amusement of his auditors; he is the only one that will apply to his case. —Mont. Ad.

HAVE YOU TRIED JURUBEBA ARE YOU Weak Nervous or Debilitated? Are you so languid that any exertion requires more of an effort than you feel capable of making? Then try JURUBEBA, the wonder tonic and invigorator, which acts so beneficially on the secretory organs as to impart vigor to all the vital forces. It is an alcoholic appetizer, which stimulates for a short time, only to let the sufferer fall to a lower depth of misery, but it is a vegetable tonic acting directly on the liver and spleen. It regulates the bowels, quiets the nerves, and gives such a healthy tone to the whole system as to soon make the invalid feel like a new person. Its operations are not violent, but are characterized by great gentleness; the patient experiences no sudden change, no marked results, but gradually his troubles "fold their tents, like Arabs, and silently steal away."

This is no new and untried discovery, but has been long and extensively used, and its results, as pronounced by the highest medical authorities, "the most powerful tonic and alterative known." Ask your druggist for it. For sale by W. F. KIDDER & CO., New York.

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. The leading American Newspaper. FOUNDED BY HORACE GREELEY. In the recent elections the people have declared in favor of honesty in politics and independence in journalism. The Tribune which years ago declared that it was not and never would be a party organ, claims the verdict as the popular vindication of its course and recognizes in the result the voice of the people for reform and integrity in governments, for candor and independence among newspapers.

It insists on peace throughout the whole country, the right of local self-government, and the protection of all classes in the exercise of their just legal rights. It advocates confidence and good feeling between North and South, and labors for an honest and abiding reconciliation. It maintains freedom and honor toward all public men and questions, and dignity and courtesy toward associates and rivals.

It publishes scientific news, reports, discussions and discoveries to a degree of fullness and accuracy never before attained by any paper.

It gives every week ten or more columns of the most carefully prepared agricultural matter during the year; much more in the entire contents of any other agricultural publication, and the whole forming a department of which an eminent agricultural editor said: "It has done more to make good farmers than any other influence which ever existed."

It has published a series of scientific and literary extras which have met a wider sale and more emphatic popular approval than any similar publication of the kind.

WHAT THE SOUTHERN PRESS SAY OF THE TRIBUNE. We consider THE TRIBUNE a very valuable paper.—(Asheville (N. C.) Citizen.)

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE, in its faithful and searching exposure of our corrupt slaveholders on Alabama and other States, has done immense service to truth and justice.—(Macon (Ga.) Telegraph and Messenger.)

We thank THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE for its manly and powerful words in denouncing the people of Alabama.—(Montgomery (Ala.) News.)

The best newspaper in the world is the NEW-YORK TRIBUNE. It contains the dignity and sagacity of the London Times with the representative news enterprise of American.—(Baltimore Bulletin.)

A paper to be admired for its independence of tone and its reliability of news.—(Briscola, Baltimore.)

Any one who wants a first-class paper which keeps fully up with the times in its news, news and news, should subscribe for THE TRIBUNE.—(Spartanburg (S. C.) Carolina Spartan.)

The imperial sheet of the world, THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.—(The Jacksonville (Fla.) News.)

To-day THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE is undoubtedly the first of American newspapers in whatever line. It is read by all who are interested in the progress of the country. It is dealing with all the topics of the day with a boldness and a freedom of speech which is a specialty of the great subject of agriculture. It becomes therefore a matter of vital importance to the country that the integrity of this Association should be maintained in able and conscientious hands and matter for congratulation has the high standing of THE TRIBUNE.—(The N. Y. South.)

THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE is doing a great work in popularizing Science, by the publication of cheap, reliable, and great daily.—(The Monthly Union, S. C.)

American newspaper enterprise is probably at this time more fully illustrated in the daily issues of THE NEW-YORK TRIBUNE than in any other journal.—(Wilmington (N. C.) Star.)

Unequaled in culture, dignity, comprehensive breadth, purity of expression, and intellectual richness by no party tie, boldness of opinion, and freedom of speech, it is a sensation.—(Raleigh (N. C.) Agricultural Journal.)

Surely the paper has maintained successfully the high standard which it has set for itself, and the name of an ably conducted and independent journal, which it now deserves more justly than at any time during Mr. Greeley's life.—(Va.) Index and Appeal.

The Whole Western Country. Can now be freely reached by the ATLANTA AND PACIFIC AND MISSOURI PACIFIC RAILROADS and their rail, stage and steamboat connections. These lines commence at St. Louis, Mo., at which point the Missouri Pacific is reached by the most magnificent Steel Bridge in the world, and traverses the whole length of Central and South-west Missouri, and a portion of Kansas and the Indian Territory, and thus furnish to the business man, pleasure-seeker and the emigrant, the most direct and comfortable route to all points in Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Colorado, New Mexico, Nebraska, Utah, Wyoming, California, Oregon and the whole Pacific Slope. Superior inducements are offered for those seeking new homes in the Far West in the form of transportation facilities, as regulated by any Western route. Everybody going West should give these roads a trial, and be convinced that the Missouri Pacific Through Lines and Atlantic Pacific Steamship Line are the really popular thoroughfares of travel. For maps, time-table, information as to routes, routes, etc., address E. A. Ford, General Passenger Agent, St. Louis, Mo. Reservations will be cheerfully and promptly Quansered.

If the Druggist Offers any kind of herb-flavored alcohol for dyspepsia, biliousness, or any other ailment, tell him that you want Medicine not a bar-room drink. Ask him for "Dr. Walker's California Bitters," the best regulating preparation known, and which you know is free from "Satan's Elixirs." Reject all the free "Tonics" and "Appetizers," and "Stimulants" that remedy "There is no medicine that compares with it."

"Waters" Concerto Parlor Organ. possesses a beautiful and peculiar tone. The Concerto to Stop is, without doubt, the best ever placed in any organ. It is produced by an extra set of reeds, peculiarly voiced from which the tone is most charming, and the intonation of the human voice is superbly reproduced in tone and orchestral effects. Has no equal.—N. Y. Times.

ALCOHOLIC Stimulants are taken into the blood the worse works faster, and this unnatural speed wears out the vital machinery. All intoxicating stimulants advertised as "tonics," "restoratives," &c., produce this disastrous effect, and should be rejected. Dr. WALKER'S VEGETABLE YIN-KANG BERRIES, an invigorant without the use of alcohol—is everywhere supplying the place of poisons.

THE GREAT SOUTHWEST! To all persons desiring Homes in the great and prosperous West, the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company gives a splendid inducement to visiting lands in Central and South-west Missouri, which possess all the requisites of a good climate, good soil, good water and good health, with long and cool summers, and short and mild winters. 1,000,000 Acres of Prairie and Timber Lands are offered for sale at low price and on long time—terms in fact made to suit purchasers who are furnished with Free Transportation from St. Louis.

For particulars in pamphlets with maps, address A. L. DANE, Land Commissioner and Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Co., 25 South 4th Street, St. Louis, Mo.

SATURDAY, DEC. 12th, 1874.

Editorial Correspondence.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Dec. 8, 1874.

Editor Republican:

I have not written a letter before, because I observed that you were copying the proceedings of the Legislature from the regular report, as published in the Montgomery Advertiser, and from the correspondence of the Mobile Register and the Selma Times. Besides, while it easy for an outsider to write freely of the proceedings of a body of which he is not a member, it is difficult for one who is a member of that body to do so; for, to play the critic, is to lose favor and influence. However, as I have promised to write, without going into details, I shall try to give you a general resume of the important work of the Legislature from the beginning until to-day.

At the very outset of the session, the Radical minority in the House began to delay and obstruct legislation by parliamentary tactics. It is proper that your readers should understand that the majority cannot oblige a minority over two-thirds or even four-fifths and do as they please, without doing violence to the constitution, and consequently their oaths. For instance we cannot cut off debate without doing violence to the constitution. Some men wonder why the negroes are allowed to talk so much, when indeed and in fact it is a constitutional right they have. Besides the House was working under the old rules until new rules were adopted, and at every step the majority found themselves hampered by these rules.

During this dead lock in the House most of the important bills were left to the Senate to pass. During this time and about the time the House ousted the Birbair county negroes, the Senate did a most righteous and important work, i. e. the unseating of Miller and the seating of Gen. Martin. This was a slap in the face for Spencer and may be the means of finally helping to oust him from his seat. The House also gave the little Suter a direct blow in refusing to recognize him as a Senator in a resolution that passed. Altogether the Radicals fare very badly with the present Legislature, and I may add local bills also. Local bills unless they have great merit command no earthly consideration.

During the last few days the House has done more work than for all the time previous, the Radicals having withdrawn all cautious opposition. Much work being cut out by the Senate and at hand the House can get through with it right away. Of course in a weekly letter it is impossible to enter into details of the legislation already accomplished, and if such were possible it would not greatly interest your readers as most of it, so far as content, has been shaped so as to protect the people of the black belt who have suffered so long and can taste the fruits of our victory until the Legislature come to their aid. We are well enough off in the white counties where we have honest officials and few thieves of any sort. The negroes jump all these bills, but generally fall flat. They feel that they are whipped out under our amended rules and now surrender very readily.

To-day Spencer was snubbed in the Senate as he was in the House a few days ago. A joint resolution was proposed memorializing our Senator and congressmen against the passage of the civil rights bill. Jere Harless wanted to amend by adding "Senators" but this was lost. The Senate plainly said by its action, "We have only one Senator—Goldwaite." A most stringent bill in relation to bonds of county officers was passed in the Senate and with some possible amendments will pass the House. It will throw many dishonest officials in the black belt. The remainder of the day was consumed in debate over Deere's right to spread his protest on the journal against the unseating of Miller.

The call of counties consumed most of the day and the number of bills introduced was innumerable, most of which were introduced and will never see the light of day from committees. In fact it is not more than one twentieth of the bills introduced that got through. The judiciary committee this morning reported favorably to four bills and adversely to ten and it was not a good day for adverse reports either. Most of the work is done in committees, the body of the House usually taking it for granted that the committee has thoroughly examined the subject in hand and have correctly reported. To-day the Ways and Means Committee slaughtered a large number of bills showing men to peddle without license and the House concurred in the Report of the committee. A bill was passed repealing the act authorizing the several counties, towns and cities in this State to subscribe to capital stock of railroads. To-morrow we will undoubtedly take up Senate Mes' s'gs and pass many bills. The Ku Klux act will also be reported in a few days—that is the act authorizing suits against counties, such as the Luke suit.

THE STATE GRANGE has not gone. The attendance was good and much important work was done. Bro. Jones was deposed. THE GRAND LODGE is in session here now. Many men from Calhoun and Cherokee county whom I know are here in attendance. L. W. G.

THE DISTURBANCE IN MONTGOMERY. At the latest date all was quiet at Vicksburg; but several negroes were reported to be massing at a point further off and threatening to attack and destroy the city. If they make the attempt starting news may be expected.

We take the following extracts from the journal of proceedings of the Legislature, 19th and 20th days, leaving out local and private bills, which could be of no interest to our readers. The two houses having settled the contested election cases, amended rules to prevent dilatory motions and debate, they will be able to get on more rapidly with important business. We are pleased too to see that committees are reporting adversely about nine tenths of local and private bills, such as making free dealers, relieving from disabilities of non-age, &c. All such cases should be settled by local courts at the expense of parties benefited. Several important bills have been passed; one to repeal the law requiring public acts to be published in a newspaper in Montgomery, another to restore the old price for State printing, which takes off 40 per cent, added by Radical legislation. These bills will save to the State annually, eight or ten thousand dollars each. Good movements are also making in relation to ascertaining the liabilities of the State for Railroads, and the appointment of Commissioners to compromise and settle State indebtedness.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. Out of 291 members of the House 228 were in their seats to-day. Messrs. Schell and Childress, of New York, and Carpenter, of South Carolina, new members to fill the vacancies were seated. Phelps, of New Jersey asked unanimous consent to bring a bill, (Hall, or New York) before the House. The President's message was received and read and listened to with attention. (It is very lengthy and we prefer to give a synopsis of its contents.) The gist of the message is the following: Our relations with all foreign powers are friendly and without disturbance. There is an unsettled question with Venezuela, which is a subject of the most serious character, and under the convention of 1853, Congress, it will be recalled, strongly expressed its sense on this subject in February, 1873. The President, in his message of that date, said that the interest of the United States in this respect is to recognize the claims, spring in part at least from the real difficulty in discharging them in connection with its obligations to other governments, and therefore the expediency of further negotiations. The President is of the opinion that it is believed to be worthy of Congress. In addition to Venezuela we have unsettled questions with Spain, growing out of the Virginia and other previous transactions on the part of the Spanish authorities. In connection with the insurrection in Cuba, the magnitude of the insurrection has not been reduced since the President's previous message a year ago, as this unsettled condition of affairs in Cuba cannot long continue, it may become necessary for the United States to begin to interfere to terminate the insurrection which has long prevailed, the Spanish government having unsuccessfully attempted to suppress it. Meantime the commerce of all countries, and especially that of the United States and England having been insulted. The President says the United States purchase about eighty per cent of Cuban exports, and therefore the duties paid by American citizens are to be withdrawn at once from the jurisdiction of the Treasury and turned over to the courts. Great economy is recommended in the expenditures for public buildings. The Secretary recommends Congress to go over the appropriations and estimate for these works with great care with a view to reducing some and wholly suspending others. He recommends all varieties of government notes, bonds and stamps be done exclusively at the Treasury Department. As regards the Treasury Department, the Secretary recommends that tax be taken off of bank checks, watches, cosmetics and drugs. This will raise revenue greater than now received from articles enumerated. The practical working of the tariff and coffee on the free list has been fully examined by the Treasury Department. Carefully prepared tables of prices in the foreign markets and prices to consumers and purchases subsequent to taxing of tax show that while the tariff is a source of revenue on the account of the removal of the tax simply added to the price in foreign markets, and has not benefited consumers here in the least. The Secretary recommends the restoration of the tax.

Mr. Grant, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported a bill for the relief of the United States and England having been insulted. As regards the Treasury Department, the Secretary recommends that tax be taken off of bank checks, watches, cosmetics and drugs. This will raise revenue greater than now received from articles enumerated. The practical working of the tariff and coffee on the free list has been fully examined by the Treasury Department. Carefully prepared tables of prices in the foreign markets and prices to consumers and purchases subsequent to taxing of tax show that while the tariff is a source of revenue on the account of the removal of the tax simply added to the price in foreign markets, and has not benefited consumers here in the least. The Secretary recommends the restoration of the tax.

Mr. Grant, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported a bill for the relief of the United States and England having been insulted. The President says the United States purchase about eighty per cent of Cuban exports, and therefore the duties paid by American citizens are to be withdrawn at once from the jurisdiction of the Treasury and turned over to the courts. Great economy is recommended in the expenditures for public buildings. The Secretary recommends Congress to go over the appropriations and estimate for these works with great care with a view to reducing some and wholly suspending others. He recommends all varieties of government notes, bonds and stamps be done exclusively at the Treasury Department. WASHINGTON, Dec. 7. Out of 291 members of the House 228 were in their seats to-day. Messrs. Schell and Childress, of New York, and Carpenter, of South Carolina, new members to fill the vacancies were seated. Phelps, of New Jersey asked unanimous consent to bring a bill, (Hall, or New York) before the House. The President's message was received and read and listened to with attention. (It is very lengthy and we prefer to give a synopsis of its contents.) The gist of the message is the following: Our relations with all foreign powers are friendly and without disturbance. There is an unsettled question with Venezuela, which is a subject of the most serious character, and under the convention of 1853, Congress, it will be recalled, strongly expressed its sense on this subject in February, 1873. The President, in his message of that date, said that the interest of the United States in this respect is to recognize the claims, spring in part at least from the real difficulty in discharging them in connection with its obligations to other governments, and therefore the expediency of further negotiations. The President is of the opinion that it is believed to be worthy of Congress. In addition to Venezuela we have unsettled questions with Spain, growing out of the Virginia and other previous transactions on the part of the Spanish authorities. In connection with the insurrection in Cuba, the magnitude of the insurrection has not been reduced since the President's previous message a year ago, as this unsettled condition of affairs in Cuba cannot long continue, it may become necessary for the United States to begin to interfere to terminate the insurrection which has long prevailed, the Spanish government having unsuccessfully attempted to suppress it. MONTEGOMERY, Dec. 14, 1874 P. M.

A bill passed both houses relieving Maj. St. Paul of Mobile of the disabilities incurred on account of insolvency.

A bill passed the Senate providing that the Board of Commissioners of Taxation, and other counties shall be considered in lawful money.

The bill providing for the appointment of commissioners for arranging for compensation and adjustment of bonded debt of State passed.

A resolution requiring the Governor to furnish all information in his possession of the Geological Surveyors' transactions, was referred.

A bill to extend the term of the Dallas Circuit Clerk passed.

A resolution to appoint a joint committee to supervise the acts of the Board of Education passed.

In the House, the Senate bill abolishing the Circuit Court of Dallas county was taken up. (Gwin and Harris opposed.) A suspension of the rules to give the bill a second reading.

Mr. Woolf called the people of Dallas in the bill passed. It was the desire of both parties that the bill should become a law. The Great Judge (Craig) had expressed to him a desire for the passage of the bill.

Harris said out of a population of 40,000 he could warrant no more than 5,000 men anything of the bill.

Conn said that the bill was founded in prejudice, and the opposition was because the present occupant of the office had a black skin. He would say that the present holder was a far more competent man than Craig. If the law could be heard from, he would warrant a majority of its members were opposed to the abolition of the Court or the ousting of the present incumbent.

The rules were not suspended and the bill goes over under the rule for a second reading to-morrow.

The bill extending the powers of the Gas Light Company of Selma passed.

The bill to compel Probate Judges and other officers to keep direct and reverse indexes, passed.

The bill to authorize the Mayor and Aldermen of Tusculoo to issue bonds in compromise of a certain chancery suit passed.

The Mission of the Democracy

Full of sound political counsel was the letter addressed by Judge Black to the Democratic Convention at the Convention Hotel, Philadelphia, on the evening of the 3rd inst. We make room for it in our columns.

Gentlemen—I am honored by your invitation to the dinner of Democrats to-morrow evening at the Continental Hotel, and I beg you to believe that nothing prevents us from attending but an imperative duty which calls us elsewhere.

I think I can understand how sincerely you all rejoice over the great political events of the last two months. If you wish to know what my feelings are I must decline to tell, simply because I cannot do justice to the Democracy—which is the common sense and common honesty of the nation organized for public purposes—was supposed by its enemies to be effectually killed. It was but natural that the heart of every patriot should burn within him when he saw it rising again, facing its oppressors with front as determined as ever, and denouncing corruption in high places with the same mighty voice which in former times went over the land like the tones of a trumpet.

But let us not merely congratulate ourselves upon the recent past. Think nothing done until the work is finished. The victories of this year will put only one House of the Federal Congress into our hands, and we must be prepared to realize even that. Our perfect independence must be achieved in 1875 by a struggle which will prove that we are worthy to be descended from the men who proclaimed the rights of the States and the liberties of the people in 1776.

It is our duty to prevent a report of the afternoon debate. Several able speeches were made in favor of and against the majority report. The bill will probably be disposed of when taken up again. The Board of Education has been extended one day longer in order to shape certain matters necessary in accordance with the action of the Legislature.

Editorial Correspondence.

Dear Republican: Since my last letter there have been many important measures introduced in the Senate and House, among them a Senate bill to authorize the Governor to appoint two Commissioners to examine and adjust the debt of the State.

To-day the House has consumed most of the day on the consideration of a bill introduced in the Board of Education by Mr. Francis, which provided for the disbursement of public school funds by the County Super's.

Yours, &c. L. W. GRANT.
