The Old Sleeping Room.

BY REV. JOHN THEO. ETTERS.

I come, a pilgrim wan and worn;
Back to the house where I was born—
I softly tread to-day!
My heart bears, as a holy thing,
The many memories I bring
From life's long, weary way.

Familiar are these stars indeed,
Which to the second story lead—
How natural to me!
Just as of old—I do declare—
The knot-hole in the wainboard there
'Tis open still—just see!

Nine steps—I need not count them through—
I'll lay you what you will, 'tis so;
The short flight there has four.
This hand-rail on the entry-side—
What sport for boys adown to slide,
As we were wont of yore.

The window, at the head, is seen,
Venetian shutters, painted green.
And they are closed up still.
The ghostly light of evening falls
So pale upon the stairs and walls,
I feel a timid child!

Half smiling now, and now half sad—
Half weeping now, and now half glad,
Do I ascend the stairs.
I reach the top—I touch the door—
It opens as it did or yore—
I did it unawares!

The dear old room! how many a night,
From evening hour till morning light,
Here, child and boy, I slept!
There, in that corner stood my bed—
Here was the foot, and there the head!
All this my memory kept.

How sweet our childhood sleep appears;
One rests not so in after years—
Ah! this too well I know!
Life fills the anxious heart with cares;
A wakeful head the pillow bears,
And night's dull hours move slow.

The moon is up, 'tis full and bright—
It pours its mellow flood of light
Upon the bed and floor;
What moves upon the wall about?
The shadowy play of trees without—
I've seen that oft before.

All, all is still—save but the wail
Of lonely crickets' evening tale,
Hid in the window sill.
Hark! in the closet—tick—tick—tick!
It is the death-watch's ghostly click
I wish that worm were still!

If there be ghosts—ah! who can tell?
This place, this hour, would suit them well—
Perhaps some may be near!
I see naught with my eyes that's real;
Yet, in my spirit's sense, I feel
As if they might be here.

Yes, ghosts are here from realm's holier
They have no home, nor care, nor power.
And give me pressing pain.
They mother to my heart the hopes
Of all my early days and ways
Which cannot come again.

Angels are here, so pure and bright,
They play upon the moonbeams light,
They glide along the wall
Back to the past, the future's night,
They bring such specters of delight
I fain their blessing call.

Specters of joy, of love, of hope!
Specters of faith, of trust, of peace!
Have we not felt, dear sister and,
They watch'd our night and guard our bed,
Most certainly they do!

This did our mother often tell;
We children all believed it well,
And did as we were told,
You don't believe? your wisest—you?
Then mother and the Bible too?
Such folly makes you bold.

For me this faith wrought like a charm,
I slept quite free from fear or harm,
In peace bid morning light.
I hold it still—I will believe,
That they who pray this prayer receive
An angel-guard at night.

I've often wished I were again
A Child, a creature as then—
But that can never be;
So I will keep, as best I can,
The side of childhood in the man—
The child-like nurse in me.

But, see, high up has gone the moon—
How long I've wandered here alone!
'Tis time for me to leave.
Good-by, my little room, good-by—
Hold there is something in my eye!
This parting makes me grieve!

I Wonder Why.

BY M. D. BAINE.

I wonder why this world's good things
Should fall in such unequal shares;
Why some should taste of all the joys,
And others only feel the cares!
I wonder why the sunshine bright
Should fall in paths some people tread,
While others shiver in the shade
Of clouds that gather overhead.

I wonder why the trees that hang
So full of luscious fruit should grow,
Only where some may reach and eat,
While others faint and thirsty go!
Why should sweet flowers bloom for some,
For others only thorns be found?
And some grow rich on fruitful earth,
While others till the barren ground?

I wonder why the hearts of some
O'erflow with joy and happiness,
While others go on their lonely way,
Unblest with aught or tenderness!
I wonder why the eyes of some
Should ne'er be moistened with a tear,
While others weep from morn till night,
Their hearts so crushed with sorrow here?

Ah! well; we may not know, indeed,
The whys, the wherefores of each life!
But this we know, there's One who sees
And watches as through joy and strife.
Each life its mission here fulfills;
And only He may know the end,
And loving Him we may be strong,
Though storm or sunshine He may send.

UTILIZING A JACK RABBIT.

While my friend Clyde and myself were out in the hills of the Golden Gate Park last week, a jack rabbit came along and stopped to look at us.

'If I had thought to bring my revolver along we would have jack on toast for breakfast to-morrow,' I remarked.

'Not with my consent,' he replied.

'What reason can you give for not consenting?'

'A rabbit saved my life, and I have not killed one since, and shall never kill one again.'

'How did he manage to save your life?'

'Three years ago I was living in Montana. A smelter had just been built, and it created a demand for silver rock. I owned an interest in a lead that had been sunk on 40 feet. Thinking the time had come to make it available, I concluded to go there and get some ore and have it tested. I did so; and reached the place just in time to take shelter in the mine from a terrible hailstorm. I lighted my candle, went to the bottom and went to work. I had not been there more than five minutes when I heard a noise that sounded like a cannon. The rock over my head shook, and in a moment the shaft behind me caved. You can imagine my feelings better than I can describe them, when I found myself buried alive. I tremble even at this distant day when I think of it at moment. The roof of the shaft was rocks, and when they came down they did not pack so tight but what the air came through. There was nothing that I could do to release myself. I knew that if relief did not come from the outside I must perish. No one knew I had gone there. A road ran past the mouth of the shaft, but it was not traveled much and I was not likely to attract attention by calling; nevertheless, I shouted at intervals all day. The following morning I commenced calling again, and all day, whenever I thought I heard a sound I shouted.

'When night came again all hopes of being released had abandoned me One thing added great bitterness to my sufferings. I owned quite a large amount of money, and should my fate remain unknown, my creditors would think I had fled to defraud them and my name would be stigmatized.

'I will not dwell on the agonies I endured; I am sorry I cannot forget them.

'The morning of the fourth day of my imprisonment I heard something crawl into my grave. I ignited my candle and saw a rabbit. There was only one aperture large enough to admit him; I closed it to prevent his escape. I saw in him food to appease my hunger, and my hand was raised to kill him, when a thought occured to me that prevented the blow from descending. I had two rush lines; their united length would reach to the root. I took off my shirt tore it into strings, tied them together, and on to the rush line. I wore a long, gold watch chain; I tied it on to the part of the line that would cross the roof. I then cut several leaves from my diary, wrote on them my condition, and tied them on to that part of the line that would be outside. I then tied the rest made out of my shirt around Jack's neck and let him out. He soon reached the end of the line, and I knew by the way he was pulling that he was making desperate attempts to escape. Soon the tugging stopped, and knowing gnawing to be Jack's cruel accomplishment, I thought the had cut himself loose. About three hours afterward I felt the line pulled, and some one called; I tried to answer, but the hoarse noise I made died in the cavern. I then pulled the line to show that I was not dead.

'All grew still again, and I knew the man had gone for assistance. Then came the sound of voices; I pulled in the line, and it brought me food. It took all the men who worked in shaft nine hours to reach me.

'A very large pine tree that stood near the shaft had been the cause of my misfortune. It had been dead a number of years, and the storm had blown it over. The terrible blow it struck the ground had caused the cave.

TOAST WITHOUT BUTTER.—Thicken milk with flour and stir in a well-beaten egg, mix well before putting in the toasted bread; it is better.

HOME PUDDING.—One pint of milk, yolks of two eggs, three crackers rolled fine, and bake. Use three-fourths of a cup of sugar and the whites for frosting spread over the pudding, and return to the oven a few minutes.

GRAVY FOR ROAST MEATS.—Save all the nice bits of roast in a jar for the purpose—then you are never at a loss for gravies; take some of these pieces and cut them very small, and put them into a saucepan; pour over them one pint of boiling water: let it simmer very slowly, tightly covered, for an hour; strain through a sieve, and add this to melted or drawn butter. Send to table in a sauce-boat. A careful cook will always save all the meat gravies left, and have a vessel for keeping them.

WATERY POTATOES—If potatoes have proved watery, put a piece of lime into the pot the size of a hen's egg; and when the water is poured off they will be dry and mealy.

TO REVIVE old kid gloves, make a thick mucilage by boiling a handful of flax-seed; add a little dissolved soap; then when the mixture cools, with a piece of white flannel wipe the gloves, previously fitted to the hand; use only enough to take off the dirt without wetting through the glove.

TAKE three carrots and grate them; place in a vessel and cover with lard, without salt, if convenient; boil thoroughly, and strain, add sufficient beeswax to make a paste. This is a most invaluable ointment for cuts, burns, scalds, or wounds of any kind.

The people, misled by designing and cunning men, have yielded to their delusive appeals, until, standing on the vortex of ruin, plundered by a rapacious set of bloodsuckers, and every avenue closed to their just appeals for a purer government, save the ballot-box, they are now awakening to the dangers that surrounded them. The victories of the present are but the harbingers of a future success which is filled with hope for the country.—New Albany Ledger.

Mystery and Excitement.

We have a letter from Maj. G. W. Malone, of Lebanon, DeKalb county, dated 13th inst., in which he informs us of a mystery in the immediate vicinity of that place, which is attracting general attention and exciting unusual wonder. Mr. Malone says that Mark Sprewell, who lives with his father-in-law, Groves Burt, had a child, Robert by name, aged nineteen months, which died recently, after an illness of many weeks.

Prior to the death of the child, the family gave it coffee from a saucer, which covered the teacup containing the coffee which was kept near the fire. After the saucer was used in giving the child coffee, and it was set back on the cup as plain a figure as ever an artist drew—the picture of a woman of saintly appearance, was seen in the bottom of the saucer. Major M. continues the narrative by stating that he, Judge Harralson and lady, Judge Hoge and one hundred others or more, have visited and seen the strange and mysterious figure, a drawing of which he sends us and is now at our office.

Maj. Malone says he is not superstitious, but is rather a skeptic on the subject of wonders, but insists this is a wonder beyond his comprehension. He describes the figure as strongly resembling the Castilian ladies he saw in Catholic churches in Mexico, wearing a black turban covering the head, and extending down to the floor. He says the figure is still there and can be seen, and is being seen daily by persons, who go to the place for that purpose. Our townsman Mr. John Ellis, a good and truthful man who carries the mail from this place to Lebanon, visited the place and saw the figure, and endores Major M's representations generally, so far as relates to the description of the mysterious picture in the saucer.—Scottsboro (Ala.) Herald.

The following is from the Carroll County Times: The undersigned and family and Mr. John Handly and family visited the figure or likeness yesterday, Oct. 2d, 1874. Though about twelve months old, the picture in the saucer still stands plain, as when it was put there by that invisible hand.

Capt. W. L. Bragg.

This distinguished gentleman, as Chairman of the State Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party of Alabama, has rendered most valuable services in his important position. By his untiring zeal, indomitable energy, unwavering perseverance he has succeeded in conducting the most thorough and effective campaign that has ever been known in Alabama. He is but in the prime of life, and a long life of usefulness is yet before him. To him will the people be greatly indebted for what success the party may meet with in the election. To the neglect of his own personal business he has given undivided attention to the duties of his high office as Chairmen of the State Executive Committee. So let the people accord all due honor for the part he has acted so well.—Tuskegee News.

"NERVINE."—This is worth knowing: The worst toothache, or neuralgia coming from the teeth, may be speedily and delightfully ended by the application of a small bit of clean cotton, saturated in a strong solution of ammonia, to the defective tooth. Sometimes the late sufferer is prompted to momentary nervous laughter by the application, but the pain has disappeared.

The New York Syracuse Standard, a Republican journal, says:

We do not speak unadvisedly when we say that leading men in the Republican party are alarmed at the intrigues going on among a few office-holders, in immediate sympathy with the President, to force him upon the next Republican National Convention for a nomination for a third term. The most painful feature in this whole programme is the probable sympathy of the President with it, from beginning to end.

The Southern papers generally are rejoicing over the Democratic victories in the West. These results, we trust, are the harbingers of happier times, when the sun-flower of Constitutional Liberty shall turn its face to the South as often as it does to the North, and when, forgetting the hatreds of the late unpleasantness, we can all gather round the whiskying of Fraternal Reconciliation and drink oblivion to the past.—Brooklyn Argus.

A Richmond negro went to steal hens caught his foot in a trap, and cut a toe off rather than have daylight find him there. It was an untoward affair for him.

There are at present 214 prisoners in Washington City jail, which is seventy-nine more than have been confined in that institution at any one time since the war.

Talk From the Soldiers.

The Gem of the West, a publication of Chicago, wholly in the interest of discharged soldiers and volunteers of the Federal armies, in the number for October says, truthfully as forcibly that:

"The blacks of the South have not only distrusted the whites of the South; but they have distrusted their best friends in the North, and instead of taking counsel from such, they have listened to the oily tongue of base scoundrels who have gone among them merely to eat out their vitals. Instead of heeding the warning voice of such men as Horace Greeley and Charles Sumner they sent them to premature graves. Instead of showing a friendly feeling toward those with whom Providence designed they should live as neighbors and friends they have shown a spirit of hatred and revenge unparalleled in the annals of history; and they have not only done this, but they have foisted upon southern whites such scalawags (and tools of corrupt rings) as Kellogg, Pinchback, Spencer and hundreds of others, whose names have brought disgrace upon the nation. We trust a brighter day may soon dawn for the blacks of the South, but a brighter day can never dawn while they ignore the rights of white brothers and claim for themselves, and a horde of carpetbagging thieves, all the places of trust and emolument. We write these lines as an old abolitionist, with no interest to subserve, but that of justice. As in days gone bye we demand justice for the whites.

War Predicted.

Father Hyacinthe and Victor Hugo have joined Mr. Disraeli and the pope in prophesying the approach of a tremendous war which shall rage all over Europe and elsewhere. Mr. Disraeli perdicted that it would be a religious one and that it would convulse the globe. The pope described the impending as one between the armies of the Archangel Michael and the host of Satan. According to the prognostication of Father Hyacinth, the coming war will be three fold, and will include a fearful conflict between popular rights and the power of capital, in which the combatants will tear each other to pieces. According to the vaticination of Victor Hugo; the great and invitable encounter is to be "between two principles: republic and empire."

There is no ingredient in cooking cabbage that gives it quite as good a flavor as a heaping teaspoonful of sugar. Cook the usual way, cream, butter, pepper, salt, a sprinkle of flour if you like, but don't forget the finishing touch that is found in sugar.

GREAT DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

[Special Telegram to the Selma Times.]

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 2, 1874, 8:30 p. m..

The Democrats have carried this city by 12,000 majority. They have also carried the State by not less than 9,000 majority. They have elected four of the six Congressmen, and will have a good working majority in the Legislature. A great many negroes voted the Democratic ticket. We are under the providence of God, redeemed.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1874.

Our Great Victory.

It is with inexpressible pleasure that we can say to our readers that the power of the Radical party is at last broken, and that Alabama is again in the hands of her own true sons.

The triumph of the Democracy last Tuesday was complete, not only in Alabama, but throughout the whole country North and South. The Radical party has been utterly swept away in a day and the Democratic party is now beyond question the dominant party in the Government.

It is hard to realize that the two thirds Radical majority in Congress has been destroyed and replaced by a Democratic majority of fifty-six, but it is nevertheless a pleasing reality.

It is hard to realize that the next Congress will be made up of our friends, and that there will be no more vindictive legislation affecting the South, but such is the case.

It is hard to realize that the whole Northern world has forsaken the Radical party, and that States which in the last election went Radical, by majorities of fifty and a hundred thousand are now decidedly Democratic, but it is even so.

It is hardest of all to realize that old Massachusetts is a Democratic State by eight thousand majority, and that old spoon thief Ben Butler has been badly beaten for Congress by a Democrat, but it is a fact and Heaven be praised for it.

In Alabama the Democrats have carried the State by a majority of from ten to twelve thousand, have twenty majority in the House of Representatives and seven majority in the Senate; have elected six and perhaps seven congressmen out of eight; have elected a Supreme Court; have elected nine Circuit Judges out of twelve and three or four Chancellors out of five. In short, the Democracy have complete controll of every department of the Government, executive, legislative and judicial. The victory is complete.

The following States went Democratic either in the State or Congressional elections last Tuesday:

Arizona (Ter.) Arkansas, Alabama, Delaware, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nevada, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia

Nine of these States have chosen legislatures that will elect Democratic or anti-Administration U. S. Senators.

The Radical party by hard work succeeded in carrying the following States: Florida, Kansas, Wisconsin, Vermont. They, under permission of the devil, were allowed to go radical that the carpet-baggers might have some place of refuge. On the whole Tuesday was a bad day for Radicals.

Amid the general rejoicing and handshaking all around, we cannot forget to congratulate the Democratic party in Calhoun upon the noble part it has played in the memorable contest just ended. Never before in the history of the county was the party organized better for the fray, and never before did people more readily respond to the call made upon them for work or more ably second the efforts of those engaged in canvassing the county and organizing the party. In every nook and corner of the county clubs were formed and worked efficiently. Almost without exception more than ordinary large crowds greeted the speakers wherever and wherever they appeared. Party organization was preserved and men turned a deaf ear to the appeals of friendship and the promptings of near relationship to stand by the authorized standard bearers of the party. The result has vindicated the wisdom of their action. At every point, even where the enemy massed his whole force, our standard has been borne victoriously. Men said it was not possible to increase the Democratic vote of Calhoun, for she had always done her level best; but the result shows that efficient work has brought out an increased Democratic vote of about four hundred and sixty eight, throwing our majority up to the neighborhood of nineteen hundred. This is something to be proud of. Boys we have all done well. Bully for us!

It is a fact that more negroes voted with us in this contest than ever before. We would be glad if some men at the boxes would send us their names. We want to publish the list and specially recommend them to our people. They have shown themselves friends to us, let us show that we are friends of theirs.

Talladega county has gone Radical by about 250 majority. The gallant white people of that county are deserving of a better fate.

Next House Democratic! How does that sound ye disconsolate scalawags?

Some men who did their level best to disorganize the democratic party in this county throughout the campaign and who never said a word for the cause that anybody could hear of, and whose chiefest associates were radicals, are now out on the streets smiling and felicitating everybody and telling people how the democratic party ought to act. How we apples do swim.

The battle is fought and the victory won; and now friends be as magnanimous in the hour of triumph as you were brave and unflinching in the hour of trial. We do hope that the accession of the Democracy to power will be marked by no excesses or vindictive retaliatory measures. While we can never forget or forgive the men who fought so hard to keep the negro on top of our prostrate people, let us spare them all bodily harm. They have their punishment in the humiliation of defeat and disturbed conscience for past offences against decency and right.

Our neighbor, Cleburne county, acquitted herself splendidly on her vote for county and State officers. The following is her vote for Governor, Congressmen etc.

For Governor and State ticket a democratic majority of 510. Lewis and Forney for Congress-at-large a majority of 750. Caldwell, a majority of 510. For Board of Education, Francis a majority of 905.

The vote of Cleburne county for Circuit Judge stands as follows:

Whitlock, 668; Turnley 527.

Let all the animosities engendered among Democrats by the political contest be buried with the Radical party. The contest was vital and it was necessary to speak plainly, touching the policy of the party in certain matters. The Republican has not hesitated to speak on all occasions, but everything said was said safely in the interest of the cause, and not because the paper had any individual preferences. Men were nothing to us—principles everything. We have seen the triumph of those principles and are satisfied.

Just as we go to press, we learn from a private telegram received at this place that CHARLES HAYS, the Radical Congressman elect from the 4th. District, was killed on yesterday, in an altercation with W. B. JONES, the Radical Probate Judge elect of Marengo County.

The next Legislature is said to be Democratic on joint ballot by about thirty six.

Under this State of things it is more than probable that Mr. Arthur Bingham, who has so slandered the people of Alabama through his paper, will loose the State printing.

Radical papers North say that the "outrage" business in the South did their party in the North incalculable damage. They are cursing the scalawags for lying so. How do you do, Mr. Parsons, President of the Chattanooga outrage Convention.

One of our Radicals has been asking negroes if they were not intimidated into voting the Democratic ticket. So far he has found no intimidated negro. If he has any notion of trying the enforcement act on anybody, we advise him to jump Isaac Frank who tried to intimidate Rev. Mr. Turner.

Friday ended the last term of our present commissioner's court. As they go out of office we desire to say that they have been faithful and efficient public officers and have always looked to the good of the county in their official acts. They reduced the taxes of the county one half and leave the county nearer out of debt than it has been in many years.

Those colored men who voted the Democratic ticket are invited to be present Tuesday night and participate in the celebration of our great victory. Let them report to Maj. J. H. Francis, President Democratic Club, at the courthouse early Tuesday night. White people will please read this to colored voters.

Come in boys and all to the jollification Tuesday night.

The election is over and the liars and sneaks can resume their avocations. The "drunk since the convention" and "Fister" stories are no longer in demand.

About the most surprising thing in the recent election was the fact that Massachusetts went Democratic, and the defeat of old spoon thief Butler for Congress by a Democrat.

Last week we ventured a prophesy that the regular county ticket would be elected by upwards of a thousand majority. Well, it is even so.

Col. Caldwell is undoubtedly elected to Congress from this District over Shelfield by a majority of twenty-five hundred or three thousand.

Nobody rejoices more over our victory than the colored democrats. They find themselves on the strong side at last.

Those white men who were making their arrangements to go over to the Radical party have concluded to stay with us.

There will be four members of the old Tenth Alabama Regiment in the next Congress.

Our Democratic barber now shaves the Radicals here by the yard

Pink Crook says he didn't run for anything.

Send in the names of the negroes who voted Democratic.

John DeArman dreamed that judgment day had come last Thursday, and awoke to find it even so.

We would be glad to hear Gen. Burke orate on the glorious Republican party.

Sheets is affectionately requested to retire.

John DeArman has abandoned his intention of changing the post master at Cross Plains.

Isaac Frank says he is disgusted with his party,

A DEMAND FOR JUSTICE:

The following remarks from that splendid journal, the N. Y. Tribune, are exactly opportune to the vital merits of the grand question of the time. It has certainly become necessary to vindicate the principles of our Republican Institutions, not only at the Polls, as the People of the United States have done, but in the Courts of Justice of the country. It has become necessary, from no poor matrow, mean idea of personal animosity personal vengeance, but from the highest sense of patriotic impersonality, to bring the conspirators against the peace and liberties of the State and people of Alabama—one of the great States of the American Union—to the seat of stern and implacable Judgment. Geo H. Williams and his confederates, both in Washington and Alabama—conspiring to insult and oppress citizens of the United States, and of the State of Alabama must be indicated for their unpardonable crimes against the Genius and substance of American Liberty, and must be sent to the Penitentiary!

In the meantime, we thank the New York Tribune for its manly and powerful words in this connection.

The people of the United States have been too lenient with all the Radical scoundrels, temporal and ecclesiastical. We are opposed, of course, in the reasonable and humane spirit of the Age, to punishments, or to punitive prosecution on account of mere honest political opinion, or for differences of opinion involving forms of government; but for moral crimes, or the insolent infliction of party political tyrannies, there should be no condonation and can be no pardon. Colfax and Wilson should have been sent to Jail for their Credit Mobilier scoundrelism, and kept there. Henry Ward Beecher should be forced (hard enough torture, Heaven knows,) to hide himself from the stare of the populace, and not allowed again to appear before the footlights of the Plymouth Varieties. Oakes Ames and others, including Ben Butler, and a thousand or two of the radicals peculiar to the lengthened episode of Radical insanity through which the country has passed since 1861 should be Jailed for the rest of their lives. But Williams, who in the "Department of Justice," as Attorney General of the United States, has wilily and maliciously concocted lies, oppressions, and conspiracies, with the purpose of sacrificing the peace and freedom of citizens of Alabama and other States, should unquestionably be disgraced, brought before a competent Judicial Tribunal, and if possible, committed to the gallows or to prison. His accomplices also, both high and low, should be subjected to appropriate penalties as the accomplices or hirelings of a venal Tyrant. Read the words of the New York Tribune. They re-express, in better language, our own heretofore published sentiments. The Tribune says:

Morning News:

No commentary can add force to the clear and dispassionate review of the Sumter county arrests furnished by our correspondent in Alabama this morning. The lies of Chas. Hays, the vaporings of the Department of Justice, the feigned terror of Southern Deputy Marshals the night-riding of political Cavalrymen, all sink into insignificance by comparison with the crime against personal liberty committed by the Federal officers in Alabama. Arbitrary arrests for partisan purposes are so little known in this free country that we hardly believe they can be perpetrated, or fail to take in their full enormity when they are described by authorities which we cannot fairly question. But there can be no doubt as to the real character of the Marshal's recent prosecutions which have just collapsed at Mobile, and unfortunately they prove that a republican government can be quite as despotic, as cruel, as wickedly oppressive as the most absolute rulers of the old world.

Whether the purposes for which these arrests were made has been accomplished or not, is of slight importance. If the Administration has won any advantage by them in Alabama it has doubtless lost in other places a great deal more than it has gained there. But it is of the first importance, if this Republic is to last, that an instant stop should be put to such practices, and an example made of those who have been guilty of them. When Congress meets we trust that an official investigation may be ordered into this Alabama campaign, so that it can be ascertained under what instructions the detectives, marshals, and commissioners have been acting, and whether the real culprits are not higher functionaries than any in Alabama.

Cheap Railroad.

That portion of the Selma, Rome & Dalton R. R. extending from the Alabama line to Dalton, a distance of about 64 miles, as well as all property, rolling stock, etc., on that part of the road, was yesterday sold at Sheriff's sale for $195,000 It was bid in by Mr. Cowan, of New York, representing the bond-holders. This part of the road is now free from all embarrasments. It will still be controlled by the officers now managing it. The Alabama portion of the road will be sold sometime next Spring. The embarrasments of that end of the road are much greater than were those of the Georgia part.—Rome Commercial.

NEWS FROM ALL PARTS.

ELECTIONS.

The Democratic Tidal Wave Rolling On!

A GAIN OF FIFTY CONGRESSMEN!!

The following is a summary of the great Democratic victory in the States as given in dispatches to the Atlanta Herald:

The Elections yesterday show that the tide of a Democratic victory has been rushing upon a flood tide.

Massachusetts, the very Gibralter of Radicalism elects a Democratic Governor and reports a gain of four Democratic Congressmen out of the hitherto unbroken Radical delegation of eleven. And to crown the victory, Butler is reported defeated.

Illinois reports two Democratic Congressmen gained, changing the present status of fourteen Radicals and five Democrats to twelve Radicals and two Democrats.

Tennessee changes her present status from seven Radicals and three Democrats to two Radical and eight Democrats; a gain of five Democrats.

Virginia does her duty, changing her nine Representatives from four Radicals and five Democrats to two Radicals and seven Democrats.

Vermont continues her Radical Congressman.

Wisconsin reports no change of her six Radicals and two Democrats.

Alabama reports a gain of two Democrats; changing five Radicals and three Democrats, to three Radicals and five Democrats.

Louisiana, at present, has a square Radical representation in Congress. She now elects four Democrats; and possibly five.

South Carolina has done gloriously, reducing her five Radical Congressmen to three.

New York, reversing the great Radical majorities of 1872, elects Tilden, a Democratic Governor by 40,000 majority. At present New York has twenty-four Radical Congressmen and nine Democrats. The New York Tribune asserts that the Democrats have elected fully two-thirds of the Congressmen.—This would make a change to eleven Radicals and twenty-two Democrats, or a gain of thirteen.

New Jersey increases her installment of one Democrat out of seven to two.

Michigan smashes a clean Congressional slate by electing three Democratic Congressmen.

Texas and Kentucky send their full Democratic delegations.

Maryland with two Radical and four Democratic Congressmen, now changes to one Radical and five Democrats, gaining one.

In Pennsylvania there are Democratic gains, but how much is not known.

Georgia rolls in an unbroken Democratic delegation of Congressmen and can plume herself on the splendid result.

So far as the returns go there are about 50 Democratic Congressmen certainly gained and the number will probably be swelled. This is glory enough for one day.

(Special to the Republican.)

State O. K. Radicals gain 9,00 each in Greene and Sumter. We gain as follows: Mobile, 1,000; Montgomery, 1,300; Barbour, 800; Bullock, 400: Russell, 400; Lee, 1,000; Talladega, 300; Blount, 300; Selby, 300; Chambers, 100; Jackson, 800.

(Special to the Republican.)

Jefferson, 1,000; DeKalb, 200; Morgan 300; Limestone, 300; Madison, 400; Lauderdale, 300; Pike, 300; Dallas, 400; Marion, 300; Calhoun, 400; Randolph, 300; Conecuh, 500. Net gain so far 9,960 over coming Radical majority. Our majority in the State will reach 6,000. Whole Northern world gone Democratic including Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and probably Michigan. We gain over forty Congressmen. C.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, November 4.

The Democrats claim to have 68 members of the General Assembly to 40 Republicans. The Republicans persist in the assertion that the State will give a Republican majority of 10,000, & that they will elect 5 Congressmen and pass the constitutional amendments. The country is rarely ever heard from under two weeks as vast areas are without either railroad or telegraphs. Recent frosts have started sugar-making all over the State.

WASHINGTON SPECULATIONS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4.—Shrewd calculators give the Democrats twenty-five majority in the next House. Republican officials look as if they were sorry for themselves.

The Democrats claim Pennsylvania by six thousand majority. The Democrats probably have the Legislature.

NEW JERSEY.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—Judge Biddle is elected Governor by ten-thousand. The congressional delegation stands four Democrats and three Republicans. The Senate is unchanged. The House is overwhelmingly Democratic.

SOUTH CAROLINA.

Democrats claim the election of Chamberlain for Governor by a majority of from one to two thousand. The Republicans claim the State by a small majority. A certain decision will require full returns. Congressional delegation will probably stand five republicans to four Democrats.

Come in Tuesday night to the JUBILEE.

That delightful piece, "Romance of a Poor Young Man," now playing at Wallack's, is, so the play bill says, an adaptation from the French by the joint labor of Messrs. Lester Wallack and Edwards Pierrepont.

The great success of the piece has induced Judge Pierrepont to write the following romantic dramas:

"Romance of a Poor Bloody Shirt."

"Romance of the Poor Broken-Laws."

"Romance of the Poor Alabama Scalawage."

"Romance of the Poor Carpet-Baggers."

"Romance of the Poor Usurpers."

"Romance of a Poor Man Seeking a Third Term."

"Romance of a Poor $50,000 Fee."

"Romance of a Poor Spy Who Made $500,000 in Four Years."

"Romance of the Poor Custom-House People who Lost the Moieties."

"Romance of the Poor Stubborn Contractors."

"Romance of the Poor Adventurers who Tried the Santo Domingo Scheme."

"Romance of a Poor Old Office-Holder for Sixty Years in his Country's Pay and Service."

"Romance of a Poor Shepherd who was Saved from being Nabbed by the Miraculous Interventions of St. Ulysses."

"Romance of a Poor Old Man who Made the Gag-law."

"Romance of Poor Carpenter (anywhere)."

"Romance of the Poor Salary-Grabbers."

These will do for the present, and as it is deemed certain by Mr. Pierrepoit that the new plays will meet with great success, more of the kind are promised.

New York World.

The administration method of reconstruction is commented upon by the Louisville Courier-Journal: "The South is sick of this sort of surgery. It is being tortured and ruined by it. It will never recover its health if it be not subjected to a different treatment. Louisiana already asks a military government and martial law in prefrence to the corrupt civil government which she tried to displace. South Carolina would welcome an emperor. All of us would prefer an empire if we were sure of no escape from the intolerable aggressions of the Radical policy; and that is all that we have ever said touching a third term, which we should deplore as the beginning of the end of free government in America.—Our love for free government is only the more ardent as we see it sliding away from us; it is our faith that has waned until it has nearly died out."

The Collapse of the Republican Party.

The returns of yesterday's election, to which we this morning surrender nearly all our space, indicate the final collapse of the once all-powerful Republican party. The verdict of Massachusetts, to say nothing of that of New York, N. Jersy, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana, Texas, Kentucky Tennessee, and other Commonwealths, is crushing. Massachusetts gave birth to that party. Since the mother has repudiated, disowned and condemned it let no other State give it shelter. Let it be blotted out as a hideous memory—a dreadful dream of death, debt and destruction.

The control of the Republican party machinery fell in bad hands, and was abused. This covers the whole case and accounts for the wreck which we this morning find lying all around us, from Massachusetts in the East to Wisconsin in the West. East of Illinois the Republican party retain control of but three States—Maine, Vermont and South Carolina. What a fall was there, my countrymen!"

At this time our hearts are too full of rejoicing to speculate. We present the naked facts, as they have been revealed to us by the wires and bid them speak for themselves. We rejoice to know that the instrument of our oppression is broken. We rejoice to know that the war clouds have all departed. We rejoice to know that hatred of the South is no longer the superior inspiration of Northern majorities. But above all—yes, far above all—we rejoice in the assurance that the Union has at last been restored, in fact as well as in fiction, and that the bonds of union are no longer the bayonet, but the subtle indissoluble ligaments of mutual, fraternal regard which stretch from heart to heart all over this great, glorious and free country. By this generous token the South will now strike hands with the North and re-echo the words of the immortal Webster, "Liberty and Union, now and forever, one and inseparable."

Montgomery Advertiser.

The New Senator.

The elections of last week disposed of three Senatorial chairs in the next Congress. Tipton, Liberal Republican of Nebraska, will be succeeded by some regular Republican who will not be a partizan of Grant In Indiana Pratt, Republican, will retire and a Democrat who is accepable to the thirteen Independents in the Legislature will take his place. Boreman Republican, of West Virginia, will be supplanted by a Democrat.

These changes call to mind the important fact that the ensuing elections in New York and three of the adjoining States involve seats in the Senate. The terms of Fenton, Liberal, of this State; Stockton, Democrat, of New Jersey; Washburn Republican, of Massachusetts; and Scott, Republican, of Pennsylvania expire next March. Portions or the whole of the Legislature which select their successors are to be elected in November.

Illuminate your houses next Tuesday night.

Let every man prepare his own transparency for Tuesday night.

Keep sober Tuesday night.

Begging that is too Common.

The following letter which reached us yesterday is a specimen of a class of applications that are altogether too frequent:

"Richmond College, Oct. 19, 1874.

"Messrs, Editors: The reading rooms of Richmond College and supplied with reading matter by the gratuitous contributions of the various journals of the country.

"At the commencement of each session a committee is appointed from the literary societies to solicit contributions. If you send us your paper free of charge you will thereby increase its circulation and aid in the promotion of a liberal culture add interest to our reading room, and greatly oblige, yours, &c.,

"A. F. CHAPHELL, Committee."

We dare say there is not one of the young men connected with Richmond College who would wish to stand with his hat in his hand at a street corner begging from the passers by; and yet that is substantially what they do.

Do they get their board for nothing? Do they get their clothes for nothing? Do they travel in railroad cars for nothing? Do physicians prescribe for them for nothing? Are they deadheads at all the theatres? Do clergymen marry them and undertakers bury them for nothing? And if they have to pay for all or any of these things, is there any reason why they should not pay for their newspapers also?

It seems to us that the President professors, and tutors of Richmond College fail to instruct their students in one important thing, and that is the feeling of self-respect. To healthy, capable young men able to work begging is disgraceful and those who practise it without shame are in an unfortunate and degraded moral state. It would indeed be sad to have to go without the benefit of newspapers, but it is far better to do that than to beg for them. The lesson we would most earnestly inculcate upon the students of Richmond College, and upon all other young men, is, Pay your way, earn your own living, and when you cannot get what you want without debasing yourself, go without it like a man.—N. Y. Sun.

Texas Gift Concert Association

This Association at Denison, Texas, is now fairly established and orders are pouring in daily from all parts of the United States and with the many large gifts there is no doubt but that every ticket will be sold within the specified time advertised, and with the low price of one dollar a ticket every one should try his luck.

☞Just received by B. F. Carpenter, a choice and genuine article of Sugar House MOLASSES.

A SWINDLE.—We were shown the other day a box of bogus Jewelry, which had been forwarded to a young lady of this county, the daughter of a widow. The whole batch was a most miserable fraud, not worth ten cents, which she received for ten dollars forwarded to George Simson & Co., art publishers, Portland, Maine She had received a pamphlet circular, describing the jewelry in glowing colors as equal to gold, and almost a fortune for ten dollars. The perpetrators of all such frauds richly deserve the penitentiary. We caution the people against them, and hope the newspapers generally will pass them round.

We recently had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. Wiley P. Mangham, formerly of this county now of Louisiana, Mr. M. is editor of the Richland Beacon, published at Rayville, and Recorder of Richland Parish. He was raised in this county and his Father and Mother lie buried on the banks of Ohatchie.

It affords us gratification to state, that through all the wrongs, oppressions and outrages of the Radical party of Louisiana, aided by the general Government, the editor of Richland Beacon has remained the firm and fearless advocate of democratic doctrines and principles, and aided no little in the achievement of the late glorious democratic victory in that noble but much oppressed and outraged State.

Of perhaps fifty or sixty who have gone out from the old Republican office, who are now scattered from Maine to California, we have never heard of a single one who changed his democratic principles for that of any other political party.

It is proposed to have a little jubilee in Jacksonville Tues'd. night, in honor of our recent victories in State and United States. The boys are preparing the transparencies, banners, etc., for the occasion. Friends from the country & adjoining towns are invited to be present. Come together folks and lets burn a little powder over the state of things.

We in common with his friends throughout the country, sympathize with Mr. John Y. Henderson and his estimable wife, in the loss of their beautiful and sprightly boy, Dickie Henderson. Elsewhere we publish obituary notice

One of the most active workers we had here on the day of election was Mr. J. B. HUDSON. He voted twenty-seven or thirty negroes for the straight Democratic ticket.

There was a big election riot in Eufaula on the day of election. Four negroes were killed and about thirty wounded. Four or five white men were wounded. The fight grew out of an attempt of some Radical negroes to kill a Democratic negro.

We are deeply pained to have to announce the death of Mrs. Julia Francis, wife of Dr. M. W. Francis of this place. She was universally beloved by all her acquaintance, friends and relatives, and her loss will be deeply felt in this community. The bereaved husband and children have our sincerest sympathy.

A Radical negro drew a pistol on a Democratic negro here on the day of election. Others have since threatened negroes who voted the Democratic ticket. Let the white people stand up to the black men who voted with us. Radical negroes are warned not to interfere with men of their race who voted with the white people.

Have you purchased a ticket in the Texas Gift Concert Association? If not; do so at once before it is too late. Call on the local agent in this who will furnish you with full information, $50,000 is worth trying for and either of the other Gifts would certainly be acceptable.

OBITUARY.

It has fallen to the lot of the undersigned to pen a last tribute to the memory of DICKIE HENDERSON, son of John Y. and Lue Henderson, of Calhoun county. Little Dickie was an interesting and sprightly boy of only five years and four days—was very devoted and fond of his parents, and especially his mother, who in turn fondly doted upon the son. About the 1st of October, 1874 his parents gave their consent for him to accompany his uncle Z. Henderson on a visit to Carolina. He left them—left them never to return home alive. This jewel was gathered up by angels on his way back home, and transplanted to a better one far above the storms and wrecks of this world, and his fond parents and devoted relatives were called upon to endure a bereavement and affliction of which none—none have any conception, unless they had met with something exactly the same. On his return home with his uncle and cousin, he was attacked with sore throat or diphtheria; and by the time he reached Rome, Ga. had become dangerously ill. His devoted uncle stopped there and secured medical aid, and everything possible was done to overcome the disease for two days, when the physician gave the case up. His father and mother were then telegraphed, and requested to meet them at Anniston, for which place they started on the 24th of Oct. 1874. Soon after they arrived his father came, and notwithstanding Dickie was so near the end, he recognized him and sprang forward, clasping his arms around his neck, asking where his mother was, who had not yet arrived; and it is a sad fact that before she could possibly reach him, he died. He told all present good-bye, and passed quietly into the sleep of death. He was carried home by his friends for interment.

He bloomed as the roses bloom:
Was loved, admired, caressed,
Then by Angels softly borne,
To the land of eternal rest.

Fond parents weep not for the loved one,
Though he can come to you no more,
Ere long you may clasp your darling
On the happy golden shore.

The Devil-Inspired Party.

By this time everybody ought to know what a bad party the democratic party is but as the election is very near we think it proper to call attention to the fact once more. Once strong hopes were cherished that it would die of wounds received during the war, but unfortunately it had a vigorous constitution and suvived. Its conduct since has been scandalous, and shows a mean spirit of interference with the other party. Were it not for the annoying behavior of the democracy everything would go smoothly the government would be run without trouble by General Grant and the wise men he has called around him; Mr. Conkling would govern New York State with dignity and ease; Mr. Kellogg would not be annoyed in Louisiana, and Mr. Chamberlaine would find South Carolina a charming place of residence. But the democratic party will let nothing remain as it is; it meddles continually in public affairs, and gives that worthy man, our President, cause for great uneasiness. Just now it is particularly disagreeable; indeed it behaved disgustingly in Ohio and Indiana, and the venerable Gerrit Smith expressed the prevailing opinion at Washington when he said it was "a devilish party," and a "devil-inspired party," and warned the country of the terrible consequences if it should ever obtain control of the government.

Democrats, in fact, as viewed by the unfavorable administration eye and by the spectacles of Mr. Smith are a dangerous set of men: If all that is charged against them be true they are no fit to live in this country, if indeed in any country whatever. Anxious to ascertain how many of these devilish democrats there are we referred to the popular vote for President in 1872 and found they numbered then 2,863,297. It is shocking to think that nearly three millions of Americans are inspired by the devil and only wait for an opportunity to ruin the Republic. The situation is made more alarming by the fact that in that year the republicans outnumbered the devilish democrats by only 730,812, and since then this majority has been largely depressed by the murders committed by the Ku Klux, whose ravages, no doubt caused the reduced republican vote in the West. No wonder Mr. Smith trembles. Let us tremble with him. It has been demonstrated that one half a little more or less, of the voters in the United States are under the dominion of the devil, and that this half is composed of democrats only. We must try to keep them out of power, but how can we help it if they choose to vote themselves in? This devil-inspired party shows no disposition to die but is on the contrary, in devilish good spirits, and and if it must go to the infernal regions is likely to stop at Albany and Washington on the way.—New York Herald.

A HEAVY DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY IN THE NEXT CONGRESS.

We figured up from yesterday's dispatches a Democratic gain of forty eight in the next Congress. Owing to circumstances over which we have no control we must revise and enlarge our figures as follows: New York, 12; Massachusetts, 6; New Jersy, 4; Pennsylvania, 9; Maryland, 2; South Carolina, 1; Georgia, 3; Alabama, 8; Louisiana, 5; Tennessee, 6; Kansas, 1; Illinois 5; Michigan, 3; Missouri, 1; Arkansas, 2; Nevada, 1. This sums up a Democratic gain in this weeks' elections of 65 Congressmen. With the 16 gained previously in North Carolina, Ohio, Indiana, Iowa and West Virginia, the total gain to date is 81. In the present Congress there are 195 Republicans to 88 Democrats, besides 4 Liberals and vacancies. The subtraction of 81 from the Republican membership and its addition to the Democratic will reverse the figures in the next Congress thus: Democratic 169, Republicans 114—giving a Democratic majority of 55. It will be noticed from the dispatches that tables compiled in New York make our majority 56.—Nashville Union & American.

Hon. Samuel S. Cox, in his speech accepting a re-nomination at the hands of his Democratic friends in the Sixth New York District, said: "My votes against the salary bill and the return of the moneys degraded me from my proper position on committees and in the House. I trust that those who enjoyed my discomfiture and rendered my last session, socially and personally, uncomfortable, because of the salary bills, have had a pleasant time among their constituents. Most of them remain at home to glide the calm current of domestic bliss."

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—The contents of the Eclectic for November present the usual combination of entertainment and solid instruction, as a glance at the table of contents will show: Finger-rings: Professor Tyndall's Address before the British Association at Belfast (in full); Woman Suffrage; A Reply to Mr. Goldwin Smith; Montalembert, by the Duc d'Aumale; A Roman Funeral; Charles Sumner—In Memorian, by W. W. Story; The Greek Fool; The Spectre of the Rose; Star Gauging; Herschel's Two Methods, by Richard A. Proctor, F. R. S.; A Witch Trial in the Fourteenth Century; Two German Crusoes; and Dean Stanley, of whom there is also an excellent portrait.

There is also several more chapters of the striking story, Far from the Madding Crowd; and the Editorial departments are very full and interesting, especially those devoted to literature.

The Season of Intermittents.

All miasmatic complaints, in other words all disorders generated by unwholesome exhalations from the earth or water are prevalent at this season. In every section subject to the visitation of fever and ague or other forms of intermittent disease the causes which produce these maladies are now actively at work. This therefore is a period of the year when the inhabitants of such districts should prepare their systems to meet the unwholesome condition of the atmosphere by a course of tonic and alterative treatment. Foremost among the invigorants, recommended by time and experience as a means of fortifying the system against all endemic and epidemic maladies, stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Whoever have traveled in the West or South knows full well the esteem in which this incomparable preventive and restorative is held throughout those regions. It is liberally a domestic staple in the swampy and mephitic localities which lie on the borders of many of our large rivers and in the neighborhood of our southern bayous and lagoons. Now is the time when the inhabitants of all malarious districts should put their systems and constitutions in good defensive trim by a course of this powerful vegetable antidote. By this means the feeblest resident of an unhealthy soil may escape the sickness which without the aid of this potent ally of nature, will be apt to overtake the strongest. Chills and fever billious remittents, constipation, rheumatism dyspepsia and many other complaints are frequently brought on by the caprices of temperature and alternations of dry cold and excessive moisture common in our climate at the commencement of spring. Let all who desire to avoid these distressing ailments take the Bitters as a safeguard.

Manhood: How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of Dr. Culverwell's Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, IMPOTENCY, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately and radically.

The Source of Many Ills.

In all the ailments, bodily and mental which torment the human family could be traced to their primary sources, it would probably be found that three-fourths of them originated in the failure of the stomach and the other organs by which the food is converted into nutriment and applied to the purposes of life, to perform the tasks allotted to them by nature vigorously and regularly. This being the case the vast importance of a medicine which compels these organs to do their whole duty thoroughly and efficiently, become at once apparent. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly characterized as a preparation of this kind, indeed as the only one which can be implicitly relied on as combining the properties of a stomachic an alterative and an aperient in such proportions as to produce simultaneously the desired effect upon the disordered stomach liver and intestines. The conclusion is warranted by the celerity and certainty with which the Bitters afford relief in chronic cases of dyspepsia, torpidity of the liver and constipation. The same idea that these complaints and others that grow out of them, could be cured by fierce cathartics has at last; it is hoped been thoroughly explored. The sick during the last hundred years have swallowed thousands of tons of mercury scammony gamboge croton oil jalop, &, and tons of thousands of graves have been prematurely filled thereby. But ever since the principles of renovation, as embodied in in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters was arrayed against the principle of prostration, as represented by mineral salvants and furious purgatives, the latter has steadily and surely fallen into deserved contempt. The outcry against stimulation by which concoctors of depleting drenches hoped to give eclat to their disgusting and dangerous compounds has only served to increase the demand for the wholesome stimulant, tonic and alterative which for twenty-five years triumphed over all opposition and is now the most popular medicine in the Western hemisphere.

If the Druggist Offers any kind of herb-flavored alcohol for dyspepsia, billiousness, or any other ailment, tell him that you want Medicine not a not a bar-room drink. Ask him for DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA BITTERS, the best regulating preparation known, and which you know is free from "Satan's Elixir." Reject all the fiery "Tonics" and Appetizers," and cling to that remedy. There is no medicine that compares with it. dw

"Waters' Concerto Parlor Organ" possesses a beautiful and peculiarly soft tone The Concerto Stop is, without doubt, the best ever placed in any organ. It is produced by an extra set of reeds, peculiarly voiced from which the effect is most charming, and its imitation of the human voice is superb. For sweetness of tone and orchestral effects it has no equal."—N. Y. Times.

Best Organs for Easy Payments.

The new scheme of easy payments for Cabinet Organs offered by the well-known Mason & Hamlin Organ Co. has these advantages:

1. An organ may be obtained by a first payment of ten dollars or more.

2. If it dose not prove satisfactory or the party taking it gets tired of it, he may return it after six months, having paid nothing more than the rent of it.

3. If he concludes to purchase and pays for it in the course of a year, the whole cost to him is but five to ten per cent, more than if all cash had been paid.

Dealers say this will ruin the business of organ selling, as they cannot afford to compete with such terms. The Mason & Hamlin Co. know so well the quality of their organs and that scarcely any will be returned to them that they believe they can afford such terms. Circulars can be obtained with full particulars by writing to the Company for them to Boston, New York, or Chicago.

HEALTH! BEAUTY!!
STRONG AND PURE RICH BLOOD—INCREASE OF FLESH AND WEIGHT—CLEAR SKIN AND BEAUTIFUL COMPLEXION SECURED TO ALL.

DR. RADWAY'S
Sarsaparillian Resolvent
THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

HAS MADE THE MOST ASTONISHING CURES: SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES THE BODY UNDERGOES UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE, THAT

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates throughthe Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other Fluids and juices of the system the vigor of life, for in it, are the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumorous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Blotches, Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all wasting and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonderful Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the waste and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of waste, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excel all known remedial agents in the cure of the Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney & Bladder Complaints,

Urinary and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the small of the back and along the loins.

VINEGAR BITTERS

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, the VINEGAR Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Ala. Gold Life Insurance Co

OF MOBILE, ALA.

All who desire to make a safe and certain investment for the future, should not neglect the opportunity of doing so while in sufficiently good health to secure a life policy in a good and reliable company. Such a one is the Ala. Gold Life, conducted in the management by officers of acknowledged ability and integrity, well known to the people of Alabama. But that which gives the company its strongest claim to patronage and support is the fact that it is a Home Institution, using its earnings at home among its policy holders. This company is now doing a very large and rapidly increasing business all over the South.

I will be pleased to see my friends and show them the advantages the company offer for Life Insurance.

THE LAST.

The last kiss—
Whose fond lips will give it?
The last joy—
What blest heart will live it?
The last moon—
What bright eyes will will see that?
The last man—
What poor soul will be that?

The last pang—
Whose sad heart will know it?
The last smile—
What fair face will show it?
The last boon—
Who will give it kindly?
The last fault—
Who will pass that blindly?

The last hope—
Fancy drops the curtain!
Of things last
Only two are certain:
The last aid—
This will be a true man's;
The last work—
That will be a woman's.

THE RESULT.

It is estimated that eighty negroes were wounded, and nine killed, in the riot that occured here last Tuesday. The ten white men wounded at that time, are in better condition than was at first reported. We hope the negroes will learn a lesson from this, and understand that they cannot run "ruffshod" over white men, and go unpunished. The white people knew the right, and maintained it. It was by the teachings of such men as Kiels and his ilk, that caused the negroes to step beyond that bound which has no limit, hence the result; as above stated. We were present and noticed particularly that United States Marshal Williford made every effort to stop these Radical negroes from abusing negroes who desired to vote with the Democrats, but all was of no avail, they kept it up until it culminated in the trouble which these leading Radicals have all along desired.

We now state it as our solemn conviction that every drop of blood shed on Tuesday was the natural, the inevitable result of the murderous midnight teachings of that arch fiend of darkness E. M. Keils. Time and again he has told these hordes of ignorant barbarous negroes to come to the polls enmasse, and "not to fear the Democrats, that they would not shoot a frog!" By every effort on his part has he incited the negroes to bloodshed! And in the name of justice and humanity E. M. Keils is solely and entirely responsible for the blood of these poor deluded, ignorant negroes, and for the blood of those white men poured out on Tuesday. In the name of God and justice is there no way to reach the conscience of this fiend in human shape? Will not the ghastly dead faces of these wretched negroes fill his soul with bitter remorse when he well knows that they met their fate solely on account of his bad advice? If this will not reach him let the blood of his poor boy whom he placed before him to protect his own coward carcass at Spring Hill—let this sad lesson sink deep in his soul if he has one.—Eufaula News.

Exit Bingham.

The Montgomery Journal is mad—mad with all the world, mad with the United States, mad with Alabama, and maddest of all with the Columbus Enquirer. It says that our paper has been "more reckless of truth and fairness than any of the reckless Democratic organs of Alabama," that we are "more unjust than the rabid New York Tribune," &c. Now we would pleasantly suggest to Bingham, that after having admitted to the Congressional Investigations Committee that he had told gross falsehoods about Judge Busteed simply because he did not like him and wanted to get even with him, he is a very exemplary saint to be charging injustice and recklessness of truth upon others. After having beaten Hays and Pelham in their "outrage" fabrications, the best thing that he can do is to make a square confession, as he did in the Busteed case and then retire to some solitude where party prejudice or personal malice will no longer tempt him to bear false witness against either individuals or a party that he may happen to dislike. Salt river is the place for you, Bingham. If its waters have any purgatorial as well as curative properties in your case, we will not despair of the ultimate purification of any politician in the land.

Whom Grant Protects.

Said the late Gen. Hillyer: I asked the President if it was really true that Williams had taken the contingent fund to purchase his wife a carriage?

He replied that such seemed to be the fact. When I heard of it, I got Babcock to look into it, and I believe it is so. Then Mr. President, he will be defeated. Oh no, he replied quietly, I shall not withdraw his name.—This is only one instance out of hundreds. From the first hour of his executive existence, when he sold the official patronage of his District to Sayles J. Bowen, to reimburse said Bowen for the loss of $25,000, until the present moment he has been the associate of rogues and the patron of rogues, the recipient of gifts which he paid for in office, the supporter of his own incapable family at the public treasury, and all with a self satisfied complacency worthy a born Bourbon. "Why Gen. Schenck," he said to that distinguished gentleman, who was remonstrating with him for putting an incapable person in office over Schenck's head, "Why, Gen. Schenck do you not know that the man you object to is a relative of mine?"

Of couse, what more could be said?

Cleveland Herald on election returns "Another dam disaster in Massachusetts."

Hays, the champion liar, is re-elected by an increased majority, by fraud, intimidation and force, and his competitor Capt. James T. Jones, ought to contest his election on these grounds.—Huntsville Democrat.

Butler has gone from Congress, but he still has a hold on the country in the Beecher libel suits.

OUR VICTORY IN ALABAMA.

The following telegram from Mr. John Forsyth, the well-known editor of the Mobile Register, to a friend in this city, was intended to have been read at the meeting of the Manhattan Club on Thursday evening, but through a misdirection reached its destination only yesterday morning. Our readers will be glad to learn from it in an absolutely authentic form the extent of the victory won in Alabama on Tuesday last over the common enemy of good government freedom, and true progress in all sections of the Union.

"Tell the Manhattan Club that Alabama has elected a Democratic Governor, Supreme Court and State officers. All these by at least ten thousand votes. We have elected six Democratic Congressmen, and in the city and county of Mobile the whole Democratic ticket wins by a majority of seventeen hundred voters. The Legislature also is largely Democratic. Our people are overjoyed at their deliverance.

JOHN FORSYTH.

As well indeed they may be! If we except Louisiana and South Carolina, the Ireland and the Poland of Republican misrule, no State in the Union has suffered so terribly from the corruptions and the brutalities of the Administration party as Alabama. It was upon Alabama that Landaulet Williams, surrending himself, and with himself the Federal Government, to such ruffians and rogues as Munchausen Hayes, concentrated the whole power of his temporary despotism. In Alabama the atrocious crime of belonging to the party which has chosen Tilden, the slayer of Tweed, to the Governorship of New York, and Caston, the slayer of Butler to the Governorship of Massachusetts, was punished by Landaulet Williams and his tools with lawless manacles and with unwarranted imprisonment. Respectable citizens were seized in Alabama by United States soldiers in broad daylight, handcuffed, and sent off hundreds of miles from their homes for the express purpose of preventing them from helping to organize a peaceable, lawful opposition to the party which has sent back that branded liar Hays to Congress, and which has made the public securities of all the Southern States it has been allowed to curse with its control to become a hissing and a reproach in all the financial markets of the world.

Rightly indeed, then may the honest people of Alabama rejoice not exult in this their great "deliverance." It is a great deliverance which the victories of Tuesday last have given us all, both at the North and at the South, and it brings with it substantial reason to hope for a greater deliverance still two years hence. But it is in the Southern States above all, that this great deliverance should be hailed with a religious thankfulness. Now that the battle has been won, honest men, contemplating the causes which made it necessary that the battle should be fought, will devoutly wonder that courage to fight it at all should be found in a people given over as the Southern people for ten years past have been given over, to the absolute tyrany of an irresistible majority wielded by an irresponsible Administration. To all intents and purpose the rule of Grant and of his officials over the Southern States has been an absolute tyranny. The majority of the nation for ten unhappy years has positively refused to entertain any question as to the conduct of the Federal Administration in its dealings with the South. Scoundrels like Kellogg, and Bullock, and Moses have been assured of perfect impunity in any possible extravagance of official rascality by the simple fact that they worked their wicked will within the geographical limits of the States which fourteen years ago attempted to withdraw from the Union. The people upon whom these scoundrels have thus insolently and openly preyed might really have been forgiven if they had abandoned all hope of answer or redress. That they have clung like men through all this trial to their faith in the ultimate justice and brotherhood of the Northern people, resolved, in the magnificent language of SHELBY, to ——"Hope till hope creates

From its own wreck the thing it contemplates,"

is one of the grandest features of contemporary history, and our children's children will appeal to it, long years hence, as an enduring witness to the vitality of the principles of American liberty.—New York World.

FIFTH CONGRESSIONAL DIST.

In this District Col. Caldwell and Sheffield have majorities as follows:

	Caldwell.	Sheffield.
Calhoun,	1901
Cherokee,	2080
St Clair, (proper)	344
Marshall		895
Cleburne,	492
Jackson,	1025
Madison,		1425
DeKalb, proper	270
	6112	2140

Caldwell's entire majosity 3972. In this calculation is not included the portion of Etowah formerly St Clair and DeKalb. These when in will throw Col. Caldwell's majority to over 4, 100, which will bring it within two hundred of his majority over the Radical Campbell two years ago.

Sherman and Thurman are most named, but John Henry's wife says she prefers her man to any of them.

SATURDAY, NOV. 14, 1874.

Colored Democrats.

The following comprises a list of the colored men of Calhoun county who voted the Democratic ticket, so far as they have been sent in to us. We wish the white people of Calhoun to bear the names of these men, who have proven themselves our friends, in mind, and, all things being equal, to give them preference in employment and the distribution of favors. We will publish the names of others who voted with us throughout the county as fast as they are sent in to us; and we ask the white people of the various beats to forward their names as an act of simple justice to them. If by mistake we have published as a Democrat any negro who voted the Radical ticket, we desire that some one acquainted with the facts make the proper correction through the paper.

From Maddox' beat we have reported the names of Sol Anderson, Jack Castleberry, Jack Nicholson and Wesley Cooper.

From Kansas Beat, (Etowah county,) Ned Greene and Dick Martin.

From Alexandria, Henry Peters, Swift Linder. Ben. Green, Charles Kirkpatrick, Gilbert Bush, Mack Saddler, Til. Green, Tom Hanna matthew Crook, Jere Crook Wm. Johnson, Lee Green, Frank Green, Larkin Green, Abb Green, Mote Whatley, Daniel Whatley, Jerry Crook, Lewis Peters, Joseph Page, Joseph Clark and Henry Whatley.

The following voted Radical:—Guss McGinnis, Charley Pierce, John Walker. Sang Walker and Jack Hampton.

From Peek's Hill, Sanity Whisenant, Asa Phillips. Reno Thompson, Jeff. Woodley, Wm. Gore, John Saturn, Paul Brewton, Rich'd Douthit, Jordan Whatley and Osborne Lloyd.

We will publish a list of the colored Democrats of Jacksonville and other beats next week. Don't fail to send in their names. election managers.

Official Changes.

In the changes of county officers, consequent upon the recent election, the Hon. A. Woods has surrendered the office of Judge of Probate to Hon. B. W. Cannon. Judge Woods has held the office without intermission, through peace and war, through times of prosperity and adversity, for twenty-seven years. The late Grand Jury was the fifty-seventh that have examined his books and records, always, not only with approval, but with words of commendation. We believe that in the history of the State no other man has held, uninteruptedly, the office of Probate Judge for so long a time. During all this time no stain has ever rested upon his personal or official integrity; and we may safely say that no county in the State, through all the changes and vicissitudes we have passed, has been more fortunate than Calhoun in having a good and efficient officer.

We may further state, as worthy of note, that during the time above specified, Judge Woods has been twice married, and has raised a family of seven daughters and three sons.

The Radicals have been in caucus at Montgomery pretty much ever since the election, trying to cheat the white people of the State out of their victory. They won't be able to do it. The people are in no humor to be trifled with, and the result of any such attempt on the part of the Radicals will be fraught with great danger to the persons engaged in it.

Maj. J. H. FRANCIS, of this place, as special correspondent of the NEW YORK WORLD, has done much to set Alabama right before the readers of that widely circulated journal, thus contributing no little to the success of Democracy North in the late elections.

The Legislature meets next Monday. We will endeavor to keep our readers posted from week to week on the most important proceedings of that body.

Real estate has risen rapidly in value since the recent Democratic victories. Parties from the Northern cities are writing letters to parties all over Alabama, and promising to make investments here soon.

From the N. Y. Tribune, Ind.

The verdict of the people against Grant is delivered. There were only two great questions before the people at this election. One was whether the administration deserves the public confidence and the other was whether it ought to be perpetuated. They have both been answered in the negative, so loudly that even the President must hear the verdict. It is not anywhere a mere democratic victory. It is the protest of all classes of citizens against an administration which supported Jayne, which enriched Sanborn, which lobbied the salary bill through Congress, which established its Kelloggs in the South by perjured judges and misused bayonets, and tried to sustain them by slandering an injured people, and which had just put itself forward with the insolent claim for a perpetuation of power. The public had grown weary of six years of rule remarkable for nothing but blundering and greed. The demand for an indefinate extension of such misrule was too much for good nature. It needed the sharp answer it has received. This is the end of Granitism. It is not the revival of the rebellion nor the definitive rehabitation of the Democratic party. It simply eliminates Grantism from politics as an impertinent factor, and leaves the two parties confronted—so evenly marched that both must hereafter be careful to make no mistakes. The future belongs to the one who shall earn it.

The election passed off very quietly indeed at this place. No difficulties on the day of election at all. Though on Wednesday evening, a difficulty occurred between W. L. Echols and J. B. Liddell, in which the latter was shot by the former in the thigh by a pistol. No serious damages done.—Gadsden Times.

[Special Dispatch to the World.]

WASHINGTON, November 4.—It was not until to-day that the Republicans and Administration officials here realized that the Democratic deluge of yesterday had engulfed them all. They went home dismayed last night, but with a faint hope that later returns this morning might possibly restore Massachusetts to the Republican column and lift Ben Butler from the disgrace of his defeat. To-day, however, consternation sits in the face of every Radical. They concede a Democratic House of Representatives.—They fear, also, investigation in the departments, and other exposures which are sure to be made. Indeed, the longer they contemplate the results of the Democratic triumph the more are they led to fear a Democratic President in 1876.

On the other hand, the jubilation of the resident Democrats here knows no bounds. To-day they have received congratulations on every hand, and to-night they turned out in immense force lighted the streets with bonfires, and filled the air with music. These must have been unpleasant sights and sounds in the the shadow of the White House to "the third-term candidate," who has denied himself all day to visitors and remained secluded with his own thoughts and disappointments.

At 9 o'clock a band of music, followed by a large crowd, left Tenth street and proceeded to Fourteenth street, which was illuminated by bonfires, where the Washington office of The World and other newspapers are located. After several inspiriting airs were performed, the crowd, largely augmented, gave cheers for Governor Tilden, Governor Gaston, the city of New York, The World, and the Sun, and their correspondents here, and for New Jersey, the Forty-fourth Congress, and the long line of yesterday's triumphs. They then proceeded to Senator Thurman's residence on New York avenue, where the vast crowd gave vent to the greatest enthusiasm by cheering and calling for that distinguished Democrat. In a few moments after a serenade he was greeted with round upon round of applause. In reply to calls for a speech Mr. Thurman responded as follows:

I thank you most heartily, my friends, for the honor of your serenade and the opportunity you offer me to participate in your rejoicing, and yet when I think of it, is it not a dreadful thing and calculated to bring terror to every loyal bosom to see you here with drum and fife and trumpet and cymbals, rending the air with your shouts and exclamations because the State of Massachusetts has been conquered by the Ku Klux?—(Great applause and laughter.) Was it not enough that those awful fellows by intimidation so frightened the amiable, the civil, the peace-loving carpet baggers and scalawags as to obtain the mastery over the fair portion of the Republic?—Was it at all necessary that they should come North, and by intimidating the Republican party in the States of Oregon and Ohio, West Virginia and Maryland, Delaware and New Jersey, and to cap the climax, overthrow the State of New York and put the State of Massachusetts in their breeches pocket?—(Cheers and laughter.) Why, my friends the editors and politicians are all scratching their heads to find out the cause of what they call a "revolution," when every man that has read the history of Southern outrages, the manifestoes of Attorney-General Williams, the proceedings of the Chattanooga Convention, the affidavits of Major Merrill, and the telegrams of Marshall Packard, knows full well that there was but one cause for this, and that was intimidation. (Laughter.) Yes, my friends, from Passamaquoddy Bay to the Rio Grande a loyal, peace-loving party called the Republican party has been so intimidated that many of them in sheer terror have voted the Democratic ticket, and more of them refused to vote at all. Now, you all understand the cause of our carrying the election, and when any of the people ask you for that cause you have only to reply in one word, "intimidation." (Applause, and cries of "How about Ben Butler?") Now that reminds me of another thing. This election has been carried by a party which that venerable Christian statesman Gerrit Smith, calls "the Devil-inspired party," and these Devil-inspired men have such a large respect for persons, and such a large regard for virtue, that they dared even to penetrate the Essex District, and laying their profane hands on the virtuous Butler—(cheers)—said to him, with shriek whose disloyalty makes me tremble while think of it, "Benjamin get out." (Laughter.) Well, now, if anybody were to ask me in dead earnest what are the causes of our triumph, if the opportunity were good, if it was not a time of jollification, but a time of serious and reflection I might reply But let me say that you must not think—I hope you will not—that because I speak in this vein I am in a frivolous mood. Why, my friends, year after year the Radical party have carried the elections at the North by the very cry of Southern outrages and intimidation at the South. Member after member of Congress, duly elected, elected by triumphant majorities, have been turned out of their seats in that Capitol, or refused their seats under their false pretense of Southern outrages. And this very year, when the foundations were slipping away from under them, when their house rocked to its fall, and they felt that an earthquake was about to destroy them, they get up this mill for the manufacture of Southern outrages, with the Attorney-General of the United States as chief miller. (Cheers.) Now, I referred to General Butler, and if I had not intended to do so your cabs would have made it proper that I should do so. But there is a property in my referring to the man. When he accepted his last nomination to Congress he gave as his chief reason for doing so that he had the will and ability, if he occupied a seat in Congress, to still further repress and subdue the Southern people. He raised the black flag of persecution, and, fighting under that flag, he sought to maintain his power; but the people raised the white flag, not of defeat but of peace, and said to him, "Persecutor, stay there at thy home." And now, my friends, what are the causes of our great victory. I can tell you a single sentence the cause—discontent with Radical rule. And that cause is universal. It is felt on the shores of the Atlantic and the shores of the Pacific. It is felt in old New England, and it is felt on the borders of the Rio Grande—(cheers, and cries of "in this district")—and everywhere where there is a heart, native or naturalized, that beats with American sentiments, there is a feeling of discontent with Radical rule. (Cries of "Good, good!") And now, if you ask me whether there are any good reasons for this discontent—if you say, "Whence comes this success?" I answer you it is because within the last nine years our Radical rulers have set at nought every instinct, every feeling, every habit, every teaching of the American people and of our forefathers. (Cheers.) The American people are a constitution-loving people. Show me one valuable provision of the Constitution of the United States that has not been violated by our Radical rulers in the last nine years. The American people are a liberty loving people, but liberty has been trampled under foot from one end of the republic to ther other by this Radical party. The American people are a Home Rule loving people, but Home Rule has been treated with scorn and contempt by our Radical rulers, and the doctrine is now acted upon persistently by the American Congress that it may exercise as omnipotent power the Parliament of Great Britain. The American people are an economy-loving people, but our expenses are such that a man looks around in despair when he sees the face of the tax gatherer. The American people are an honesty-loving people, but Credit Mobiliers, Sanborn contracts, Custom-House frauds, the secret service division (cheers) have made corruption a synonym for Government in the United States. No wonder there is discontent.

Let no man think it is an ordinary earthquake. Let no man think its effects will soon pass away. No, my friends, the foundations of the splendid victories achieved this year. The foundation of the victory obtained this year in Ohio was laid by the thorough victory we obtained in the hour of supreme need last year—(three cheers for Ohio)—and the wave has only acquired strength in 1874. But, my friends, it is not high tide yet—(cheers)—not by a good deal. It is only a rise of about six feet; that I think, is about spring tide in Washington. In 1876 it will be a Bay of Fundy high tide of sixty feet—(cheers)—my friends, and then will the misrule under which these people have been persecuted so long, I believe, and I trust God may grant, be swept away forever.

At this point Mr. Thurman paused, and was about to retire when loud inquiries were made about the third term. Thereupon he resumed:

My friend up here in the White House hasn't had the slightest idea of the third term, yet he is going to fight it out, on that line if he takes it a year ahead. Now, it is my opinion that the third term is such a sickly infant that it never had any chance of being raised, and all the milk bottles that my friend Conkling and some others can get together to nurse that infant won't prevent it from dying before 1876. (Laughter.)

Now, my friends, that General Grant has desired to have a third term it's simply useless to deny. If he don't want a third term why in heaven's name don't he say so? I saw the other day in the newspapers that they had been talking in Cabinet council about it, and Grant don't consider it consistent with his dignity to notice this thing, and the newspaper went on to say that it was only a newspaper sensation got up by editors of several newspapers, and proceeded to paint portraits of the editors of these papers which were by no means flattering. Well now, it was said that it did not suit the dignity of the President because it was a newspaper sensation, but there was a Republican State Convention in South Carolina that had solemnly nominated him for a third term. Didn't that authorize him to speak, or did he consider the Radical party in South Carolina so utterly contemptible that it don't become him to take any notice of it? If that is his view of it then I am with him, but I am going to leave that with my friends. When Congress meets I am going to sit back in my seat and see the third-termers and the anti-third-termers manifest how sweet it is to dwell together in unity. (Laughter.) Now, my friends, I have spoken a great deal longer than I intended. Just think of our being in Congress with only two Yankees in sight. But these Yankees are coming out right. They are terrible fellows to keep up a thinking. Last spring you saw New Hampshire come out straight and Connecticut followed her, and now Massachusetts has come into line. It's a great victory, but though it should be but a meteor that flashes across the sky, it shows, my friends, that there is a heaven above. Now, my friends, I hope you will let me bid you good-night.

Calls were made for something about the independent press, to which Mr. Thurman responded:

Why, to be sure, the press has done a work that was immediately serviceable to this country, and that shall redound to its honor as long as the press shall last.

At this point cheers for Massachusetts were interjected, and somebody called out, "How about the press and Butler?"

Mr. Thurman replied:

I have no quarrel with Butler, but I will say that between the press and old Ben he will surely get the worst of it, and I have a sort of sympathy with the weaker party. I go for the under dog in the fight. Didn't newspaper row send him a telegram to day? Whenever the procession starts may I be there to see. My friends, I am glad to see you here in this city that bears the name of the father of his country and the President of that convention that framed the Constitution of the United States. It is worthy of you, citizens of this city, to come forth and manifest a decent and orderly rejoicing, not of a faction, not of the prosecutor, but of liberty and of the American people. (Cheers.)

SHOOTING OF YOUNG KEILS.—The accidental shooting of master Willie Keils, a lad of fourteen years, and son of E. M. Keils, Judge of the Eufaula City Court, is the subject of regret among all classes of our people, and he and his family relatives have the sincere sympathy of all who have spoken to us about it, both male and female. We would not in this connection allude to the circumstances under which the little boy was shot; but would say what all must know that the shot that struck him was intended for his father, and that no one desired to harm little Willie.—Eufaula News.

Another fire in this county near Sulphur Springs occurred on the 3rd inst. The dwelling house of Mr. K. Simmons was entirely consumed, and two of his children, aged two and four years respectively, were burned to death. Mr. Simmons' wife died about six weeks since, and his sister, who was living with him, had gone to the spring, which was some distance from the house, and the statement of the oldest child, who escaped the conflagration, is that in the absence of their aunt the children set a straw bed on fire.—Ashville Aegis.

This Association at Denison, Texas, is now fairly established and orders are pouring in daily from all parts of the United States and with the many large gifts there is no doubt but that every ticket will be sold within the specified time advertised, and with the low price of one dollar a ticket every one should try his luck.

NEW DRY GOODS STORE.—We understand that a new Dry Goods establishment has been opened up in Alexandria, under the firm name and style of Crook & Bro. Mr. Emmet Crook, who has had a large experience went to New York in person and purchased the Stock, which is described as a very full one and tastily selected. Both the young gentlemen of the firm are well known throughout the county for their integrity, courtesy and other qualities that go to make up the successful merchant, and we predict for them a very large measure of success in business. Look out for advertisement of the new firm next week.

Illumination and Torchlight Procession.

A HIGH OLD TIME.

Never before in the history of Jacksonville has there been a more imposing demonstration of popular delight over any political victory, than occurred here on Tuesday night. Men were here from Cleburne county, the adjoining towns and the country surrounding to mingle with our people in shouts of exultation over the redemption of Alabama from misrule.

At an early hour in the evening the illumination of private residences began, our patriotic fellow-citizen, Prof. Cottrell of Calhoun College being the first to beautifully illuminate his residence.—Soon the church bells of the town pealed out joyously and the large crowd began to assemble about the court house where an abundance of rich pine torches had been provided, and the procession began to form with marshals in front and citizens in vehicles and on horseback following. After these came the Fire company, citizens on foot, colored Democrats, etc. After formation, the gay procession moved off down the brilliantly lighted streets to the sound of music furnished by the Jacksonville Minnehaha Cornet Band. Among other airs improvised for the occasion the band played "the Radical Breakdown" and "Carpet bagger's Retreat." Interspersed here and there were numberless transparencies with apt designs and mottoes, many of them witty and exceedingly appropriate. We cannot find room for all or any of these excellent designs now.—En route the procession halted at the residences of Col. Caldwell, Congressman elect, Gen. Forney. Congressman elect, Judge M. J. Turnly, L. W. Grant, Representative elect, Capt. Wm. M. Hames, Hon. James Crook, H L. Stevenson Esq., Judge Thos. A. Walker, L. W. Cannon, Probate Judge elect and perhaps others, where to each in turn rousing cheers were given by the delighted and patriotic crowd.

Returning to the public square the procession moved to reservoir hill where big guns were fired in honor of our victory. After the burning of powder came the speeches from the South portico of the Court House. The first speaker introduced was Capt. James Crook, who was followed in quick succession by Gen. Forney, Judge Turnley, Col. Caldwell, L. W. Grant, J. T. Martin, Capt. Wm. M. Hames and Jno. Caldwell in order. We cannot attempt in the brief space alloted us to give a synopsis of the speeches, all of which abounded in patriotic allusions and counsels to moderation in the hour of triumph. Each speaker in turn was introduced in felicitous terms by Maj J. H. Francis, President of the Central Democratic Club, under whose auspices the demonstration was made

At a late hour the crowd dispersed to their several homes to take that rest necessary after the excitement of the evening. Among all the throng none enjoyed the evening more than the colored Democrats who were given an honored place in the procession.—It is a matter of congratulation that no accident of serious consequence happened. The thanks of the entire community are due those gentlemen who closed their liquor dealing establishments during the evening and thus contributed greatly to the peace and harmony that prevailed.

During the procession Tuesday night the finest transparency was the one made by C. C. McAlister the great Sewing Machine Man. The funniest turnout among the citizens in vehicles was the sulky containing Hal Forney, Pete Harris, Jimmie Farmer and Bob Cantrell. The back of the mule drawing it was embellished with a chinese lantern, and all went jolly until the thing broke down and spilled its freight upon the ground, and squelched the enthusiasm of the young patriots.

As the smoke of battle clears away our victory appears more signal and sweeping. Alabama has gone Democratic by a majority approximating sixteen thousand and the Democrats have a majority in the next Congress of between seventy-five and eighty.

Now that the election is over we hope that all those indebted for announcement of their names for candidates, or for tickets, will come forward promptly and settle.

Torchlight Procession and Jollification at Oxford.

MESSRS. EDITORS:

Oxford was ablaze on Saturday night last. For several nights previous, the inexpressible glories, resulting from the recent elections were meritoriously celebrated with fire works, big guns & Illuminations, and on Saturday night it was understood there was to be a Grand Torchlight Procession, through all the streets of Oxford and to Woodstock and back. At 7 P. M., on the night appointed a large crowd had collected in front of the "Oxford House," mounted on horseback with bridle rein in one hand and a fine torch sixteen feet long in the other. Through the accommodating patriotism of of our good townsman John Hendrick, all wishing to partidipate were furnished torches.

In half an hour all were mounted and ready to march. A perfect wave of cheer rose and swelled from front to rear. The front was headed by a hack, from which was erected a pole, perched with a beautiful red rooster, and just in front sat the democratic clown for the occasion. As the column moved on in double file it presented to the eye a beautiful scene, magnificent when we contemplated the circumstances attending the occasion. Beautiful girls of Oxford waved their handkerchiefs and lent their delicate voices, to the wild chorus of cheers. Lovely maidens stood ever ready to welcome us with smiles and tender greetings, and even the old men whose ability to cheer justice would question, hollowed to the top of their voices. "Three cheers for Oxford. Calhoun, and Alabama!!" Three cheers for Massachusetts, Louisiana and the death of Civil rights!!"

After parading the streets of Oxford, the brilliantly lighted procession moved on its way to Woodstock, cheer after cheer rose in the distance behind us, and until they grew faint and died. Crowds of boys white and black rushed along either side of the road, and gazed as if upon some panorama of oriental splendors. A sad misfortune however befel us just before reaching Woodstock. A terrible gale arose and extinguished all our lights except a very few, and we found it very impracticable to continue our march. So briskly did the wind blow that by the time we reached the Woodstock store all the lights with but one or two exceptions were entirely extinguished and could not well be relighted. Our march was thus unfortunately brought to an end while up to that time we had enjoyed one of the grandest jubilees that it has ever been the pleasure of the Oxford people to participate in. B. D. NEXT CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The Democratic majority in the Forty-fourth Congress is now 77 with 17 members from California, Mississippi, Connecticut and New Hampshire to be chosen next spring.

The Democratic party may keep the ascendency which it has gained. But it must continue to show that it has fewer fools and rascals than the other party if it does.—Courier-Journal.

Nine millions of gallons of wine in California this year. Pew! Even this Democratic jubilation can't dispose of all that. "Steady, boys" as Watterson would observe.—Cincinnati Times.

"A bull with a human arm" is a late importation from Calcutta. Pity it isn't a cow, now—it could milk itself.

[From the New York Herald, Ind.]

This election is not merely a victory but a revolution. The United States pronounces in favor of conservative purposes. We are weary of war and its bloody instructions. The practical lessons to be learned cannot fail to be of the very gravest importance. The canvass closes the political career of Gen. Grant. We can understand that the time will always come in the history of administrations when the people become restless and impatient and crave a change.

But Grant has invited the severest censure, not merely by what he has done but by what he has failed to do. He has permitted the presidential office to drift away from that was intended by the founders of the government. The presidency is no longer the constitutional head of a representative republic, but the absolute chief of a dominant party. The cabinet is no longer composed of repute selected because of administrative fitness, but of staff officers, taken because they pleased the presidential fancy. The disposal of patronage has been largely a matter of personal preference. The party has passed into the control of politicians who have shown their appreciation of public responsibilities by Credit Mobilier, back pay and other suspected and dishonable transactions.

Domestic remark of the past two evenings—"Shtayed up count 'leckshun returns, m' dear, Shplendid Democratic victory."

The Lee Memorial Monument.

The latest news from the Lee Memorial Association is that Prof. Edward V. Valentine, the sculptor has procured from Vermont a block of pure white marble, from which he is now fashioning a recumbent figures of Gen'l Lee, to be placed on the grand monument that is now being erected at his tomb at the Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. The figure represents Gen'l Lee reposing in an easy position upon a couch, his head and shoulders slightly raised above the body his left arm outstretched by the side of his sword, his right arm laid across his breast. He were full Confederate uniform including boots and gauntlets, and a sight drapery covers nearly the whole form. The appearence is natural and graceful, indicating peaceful slumber rather than death.

This monument when surmounted with such a fine work of art, will be a lasting memorial to one of Virginia's noblest sons and patriots. The members of the Association are gentlemen well and favorably known by the entire community who will see that nothing is left undone that will add to the beauty and finish of this great work. We are advised by the Secretary, Mr. Charles A. Davidson of Lexington Va., that no sufficient funds have yet been subscribed to fully complete the monument. In order to further this object they have issued a life-size steel engraved portrait of Gen'l Lee, to be sold only by subscription through authorized agents; the proceeds of such sales to be applied toward the completion of the work. They and we feel that this is an opportunity for all not only to procure a superb life like portrait of the great General at a very reasonable price; but also enables every person to aid in the erection of a lasting monument to his memory. Each subscriber will receive a certificate, signed by the Secretary and Chairman of the Lee Memorial Association.

We commend this valuable portriat to the public, and predict for it an immense sale. Some energetic person should secure the agency in this action to assist id the noble work. W. W. BOSTWICK & Co., Nos. 177 and 179 West Forth Street Cincinnati, O., have been appointed General Managers of all Agencies in the United States. All communications addressed to the above firm for circulars, certificates and terms to agents will receive their immediate attention.

DR. RADWAY'S

Sarsaparillian Resolvent.

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

HAS MADE THE MOST ASTONISHING CURES: SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES THE MOST UNDERMINED, UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE, THAT

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT contains the Blood-Making, Life-Giving, and other Principles combined with the Resolvent Elements of the Sarsaparilla Root, for it repairs the waste of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Boils in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Strumous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Blotches, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancer in the Womb, and all wasting and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm, and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curable range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it for either of these forms of disease its great power to cure them.

If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the waste and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in living long enough, and repairs the ruins with new material, made from healthy blood, and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain. For in such cases, this remedy commences its work of purification, and according to a diminishing the loss of waste, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food eating better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN Resolvent exceed all other remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases, but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney & Bladder Complaints,

Urinary and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are black, cloudy, ropy, milky, or bloody urine, or brick dust deposits, or mucous and slimy discharges, or ropy sediments, or white particles like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and leaden pale or sallow face, with alternate redness and paleness of the cheeks, and frequent desire to pass it, or pain, weakness, or dragging sensation in the small of the back and along the loins.

Tumor of 12 Years' Growth Cured by Radway's Resolvent.

VINEGAR BITTERS

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

The Source of Many Ills.

If all the ailments, bodily and mental which torment the human family could be traced to their primary sources, it would probably be found that three-fourths of them originated in the failure of the stomach and the other organs by which the food is converted into nutriment and applied to the purposes of life, to perform the tasks alloted to them by nature vigorously and regularly. This being the case the vast importance of a medicine which compels these organs to do their whole duty thoroughly and efficiently, becomes at once apparent. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly characterized as a preparation of this kind, indeed as the only one which can be implicitly relied on as combining the properties of a stomachic an alterative and an aperient in such proportions as to produce simultaneously the desired effect upon the disordered stomach liver and intestines. The conclusion is warranted by the celerity and captainty with which the Bitters afford relief in chronic cases of dyspepsia, torpidity of the liver and constipation. The false idea that these complaints and others that grow out of them, could be cured by fierce cathartics has at last, it is hoped been thoroughly explored. The sick during the last hundred years have swallowed thousands of tons of mercury scammony gamboge croton oil jalop, &, and tens of thousands of graves have been prematurely filled thereby. But ever since the principles of renovation, as embodied in in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters was arrayed against the principle of prostratcon, as represeated by mineral salvants and furious purgatives, the latter has steadily and surely fallen into desetaed contempt. The outcry against stimulation by which concoctors of depleting drenches hoped to give eclat to their disgusting and dangerous compounds has only served to increase the demand for the whole some stimulant, tonic and alterative which for twenty-five years triumphed over all opposition and is now the most popular medicine in the Western hemisphere.

If the Druggist Offers any kind of herb-flavored alcohol for dyspepsia, billiousness, or any other ailment, tell him that you want Medicine not a not a bar-room drink. Ask him for Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA BITTERS, the best regulating preparation known, and which you know is free from "Satan's Elixr," Reject all the fiery "Tonics" and Appetizers," and cling to that remedy. There is no medicine that compares with it. 4w

"Waters' Concerto Parlor Organ" possesses a beautiful and peculiarly soft tone The Concerto Stop is, without doubt, the best ever placed in any organ. It is produced by an extra set of reeds, peculiarly voiced from which the effect is most charming, and its imitation of the human voice is superb. For sweetness of tone and orchestral effects it has no equal."—N. Y. Times.

Best Organs for Easy Payments.

The new scheme of easy payments for Cabinet Organs offered by the well-known Mason & Hamlin Organ Co. has these advantages:

1. An organ may be obtained by a first payment of ten dollars or more.

2. If it dose not prove satisfactory or the party taking it gets tried of it, he may return it after six months, having paid nothing more than the rent of it.

3. If he concludes to purchase and pays for it in the course of a year, the whole cost to him is but five to ten per cent, more than if all cash had been paid.

Dealers say this will ruin the business of organ selling, as they cannot afford to compete with such terms. The Mason & Hamlin Co. know so well the quality of their organs and that scarcely any will be returned to them that they believe they can afford such terms. Circulars can be obtained with full particulars by writing to the Company for them to Boston, New York, or Chicago.

The Season of Intermittents.

All miasmatic complaints, in other words all disorders generated by unwholesome exhalations from the earth or water are prevalent at this season. In every section subject to the visitation of fever and ague or other forms of intermittent disease the causes which produce these maladies are now actively at work. This therefore is a period of the year when the inhabitants of such districts should prepare their systems to meet the unwholsome condition of the atmosphere by a course of tonic and alterative treatment, Foremost among the invigorants, recommended by time and experience as a means of fortifying the system against all endemic and epidemic maladies, stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Whoever have traveled in the West or South knows full well the esteem in which this incomparable preventive and restorative is held throughout those regions. It is liberally a domestic staple in the swampy and mephitic localities which lie on the borders of many of our large rivers and in the neighborhood of our southern bayous and lagoons. Now is the time when the inhabitants of all malarious districts should put their systems and constitutions in good defensive trim by a course of this powerful vegetable antidote. By this means the feeblest resident of an unhealthy soil may escape the sickness which without the aid of this potent ally of nature, will be apt to overtake the strongest. Chills and fever bilious remittents, constipation, rheumatism dyspepsia and many other complaints are frequently brought on by the caprices of temperature and alternations of dry cold and excessive moisture common in our climate at the commencement of spring. Let all who desire to avoid these distressing ailments take the Bitters as a safeguard.

A REMARKABLE POEM.

[The following lines were written by a prominent citizen of Springfield, Illinois, the home of Abraham Lincoln, and are founded upon the report that Stanton, then secretary of war, ordered the remains of J. Wilkes Booth to be taken to sea, and thrown overboard in mid-ocean. They have never before been published.]

Oh! give him a grave as broad as the sweep
Of the tidal waves measureless motion
Lay him to sleep in the arm of the deep
Since his heart was as wide as the ocean.

It was liberty slain that maddened his brain,
To avenge the dead idol he cherished;
So 'tis meet that the main, never curbed by a chain,
Should entomb the last freeman, now perished.

The dust of the brave could not rest in the grave
Of a land where blind force hath dominion,
But the step of the slave never soiled the proud wave
That spurneth the hamper and pinion.

He who dared break the rod of a blackamoor's god,
All the hosts of the despot defying,
May not sleep in the sod, by a nation's feet trod,
That he shamed with his glory in dying.

Yes, hide him away from the sad eyes of day,
In the coral of sea-green abysses—
Where the mermaidens gray, as they fly thro' the spray,
Shall purple his pale face with kisses.

As the ocean streams roll from the gulf to the pole,
Let them moan him with musical dirges;
Let the tempest-bell toll the repose of a soul,
More sublime than the sound of its surges.

He hath written his name, in letters of flame,
O'er the parkway to Liberty's portal;
And the serfs that now blame will crimson with shame
When they learn they have cursed an immortal.

He hath died for the weal of a world 'neath the heel
Of too many a merciless Nero:
But while there is steel every tyrant shall feel
That God's vengeance but waits for its hero.

Then give him a grave as broad as the sweep
Of the tidal wave's measureless motion;
Lay our Baron to sleep in the arms of the deep,
Since his heart was as wild as the ocean!

RESIGNATION.

LET nothing make thee sad or fretful,
Or too regretful:
Be still—
What God hath ordered must be right,
Then find in it thine own delight,
My will.

Why shouldst thou fill to-day with sorrow,
About to-morrow,
My heart?

One watches all with care most true,
Doubt not that He will give thee, too,
Thy part.

Only be steadfast, never waver.
Nor seek earth's favor,
But rest;
Thou knowest what God wills must be
For all his creatures, so for thee,
The best.

PAUL FLEMING (1609-1640.)

Sutler Spencer Invited Home.

Nebraska sends greetings to Alabama in the shape of a letter from Hon. Lorin Miller, of Omaha, to Col. Ed S. Shorter, of Eufaula. The writer of the letter, a gentleman eighty years of age, says:

"The nation breaths again peace to the States and good will to all the people whose united voice in thunder tones has rebuked the robber-band at Washington which is sometimes called the Government; and which God for inscrutable purpose has permitted to reign over us for these long years. Now carpet baggers down and out! You who have been the scourage and curse to the good people of the South, come and realize the contempt and scorn in which you are held by all good people. Mr. Senator (!!!) Spencer, sutler to the Nebraska First, come to your own Omaha and see and hear of your ignominous failure; send him along my friend, we may need him when our Rev. Infidel clergy shall have inaugurated another civil war. I have never seen a more terror-stricken set of creatures than these late defiant Grantites are.

"The friends of good Government are full of joy at the downfall of the most brutal administration that ever cursed a civilized nation and the voice of peace is heard from Maine to Texas which will be established between States, and love and good will take the place of clerical and lay bigotry and hate. Accept our congratulations and faith in the final reunion of these States."

COL. JOHN FORSYTH.

The Alabama Legislature meets on Monday next and in behalf of the editorial fraternity we take the liberty to nominate that veteran of the quill, and true Southern patriot, Hon. John Forsyth, of the Mobile Register, for Speaker of the House. Refusing liberal offers to remove to the North, he has nobly stood by this section throughout her dark night of gloom, and now that day is breaking, let him not be forgotten in the rewards of the faithful.—Troy Messenger.

The above are words of sober truthfulness, and we are heartily glad to know that the ballots of a glorious constituency were powerful enough to send Col. Forsyth to the capital of the State there to assist in making laws for us all. Col. Forsyth will fitly honor any station no matter how exalted and we hope yet to see him in the Senate chamber of the country.—Montgomery News.

THE RIGHT SORT OF TALK.

My Friends of the Manhattan Club:

This is not the first time that I have tested your welcome, and I know how gracious and kind it is. It is not the first time that my hand has sought yours, that my eyes have met yours, in hearty, sincere congratulations over honest victories in politics. We had an April shower in Connecticut and New Hampshire, but it strikes me that it was something like an equinox over the whole country. The first was like the scattered drops of that which was to follow. This is a deluge of rain most welcome. Never before did the thirsty and parched earth so long for a gracious shower; never was anything more needed or welcome than has been this change in the political sentiments in the hearts of the American people. It has been long looked for, and, thank God! it has come at last, and come to stay, and not to be a mere passing shower, the effects of which are to be forgotten. No, gentlemen, it is to produce rich crops, and our children, to the last generation, shall gather and rejoice in them. I wish I could only say to you kind words; I wish I could shake your hands with the cheerful joy I feel in contemplating what has occurred.—But in this beginning we cannot realize what it all means, and in the face of such things as have happened, mere individual joy is a short-lived joy. We should not be rashly, idly, jubilant, but substitute a deeper feeling. Who can cast his eye over this broad land, whether it reaches the unemployed men of the North asking for bread and laboring to find it, or whether the thousands of Southern mothers who turn their eyes to heaven and see safety and relief for themselves in the victories made in the Northern contest without feeling that it is a mere temporary idle joy besides this, and therefore, however joyful I may feel, I can only say that I stand here grateful rather than joyful. There is much we must take into consideration if we would be wise, standing on the threshold of what appears to be a lease of political power. Let us have some little conception of the responsibility which comes with the powers that are likely to be intrusted to our hands. This is a lesson which we of the Democratic party should especially grasp, for this is not a mere party victory, and the man who thinks so has very little apprehension of the truth. Let us learn this one great truth, that however necessary a party organization may be; however excellent and powerful political machinery may be, it is not so when the popular confidence is withdrawn from it. What stronger party has there been than that which was overthrown in the voting of a single day, the 3d of November? I have been a witness to that party in its higher councils, and I have seen the personal manners of the members absolutely wither before the demand of party discipline. Never was a party more thoroughly organized. And what is the cause of all this array of power, this army of officeholders—what is it that has caused them almost to disappear? Simply because the popular confidence was withdrawn from them; and let us learn that if we will perpetuate the power which is likely to come to us, we must keep the confidence of the American people. This I believe to be essential—a thing we must study to do. We have gained their votes; we must gain and keep their confidence.

THE MAIN LESSON OF THE ELECTION.

But, my friends, among many things to be counted as one of the results of this election, the great thing is that it will revive the belief and hopes of our people in the reality and permanence of our form of government. I have been a very anxious and watchful observer of the course of this Government. One thing in it has been the growing distrust and disbelief in the reality and permanence of the form of government under which we live. We have seen tyranny so often, we have seen the wise care of our ancestors brought to shame almost, we have seen the popular vote apparently sustaining these things, until hope almost sickened & died. Now, thank God, all that has been removed. I believe the lesson to our people is, that no abuse, that no intrenched power, that no wrong can stand in the way of the public sentiment of this country when once justly aroused, and I think that one conviction will send us all home, the more ready to sustain the Government and the Republic. Almost all great struggles, epochs of the world's history, have been distinguished by some culminating fight, some one of the Waterloos of the world, in which the whole political canvass is changed within a day. I believe that in the history of the United States the election that took place on the 3d day of November, 1874, will be as marked a day in the annals of this country as the 18th of June, in which the battle of Waterloo was fought. It was not the clash of armed men—it was more than that. It was the clash of moral forces arrayed under the form of law.—There is to my mind a great hopefulness in this struggle. It has shown our people that so long as we can preserve the mere forms of voting, so far we have the hope to redress ourselves from any wrong or suffering which ignorance or bad government may have put upon us. There will be the lesson. I confess I do feel revived and strengthened.

I believe that the Government will be perpetuated because the American people have shown that when they wish to draw themselves away from any party, that party must lose. And so, one word here, my brother Democrats. Why has this party come to us? Why has the trust of power been drawn from the Republican party and deposited with the Democratic party and those who have acted with it? It is because of distrust of Radicalism. It is because of disgust in Radicalism; there is no doubt in fact, but it is given to us to try us. It is only to be a permanent gift provided we prove worthy of it. If ever a party was called upon to stand a test, now is the time. If there have been evils, and we know there have been many in the last fifteen years of this government, evils increasing from year to year, worse evils in time of peace than in time of war, the Democratic party tried to prevent them but they were too feeble and powerless to do so. Therefore whatever there may be of evil, they can not be held responsible for it, and the people have justly held the Republican party responsible for it and have withdraw from it. There are only two great organizations in this country, and so the American people, withdrawing their power from the Republican party, turn back to the Democratic party and say, "We must repose this in your hands. You have been untried in the last nine years, but we believe that your professions will be carried out. We believe that powerless though you have been, for the country's good, you still have shown your desire to throttle evil. Now we will take you at your word, and we trust you." [A voice—"We will keep our professions."] Therefore I say to you that while we look with joy, with deep and grateful joy, upon the results of this election, I nevertheless look forward with anxiety lest the party in the flush of its triumph may possibly forget the conditions under which this power is attained by them, and may forget the conditions upon which it may be held and consolidated for the benefit of our entire country in generations to come.

What is the first thing that you wish to accomplish in the matter? It is to see that the agents who exercise these powers shall be men fit to be trusted, and the class of men we want at this time throughout the whole of this country, who shall take this Government in charge, are not the self-seeking politicians, but that class of men who can only be great as they save or serve the State. These men do exist in this country. They must be found in this country, for the institutions of any country which prohibits the recovery of its really great men will not stand.

But I have gone much further than I intended. I wanted to say to you only words of joyous congratulation, for you could not refuse, of course, that I should take part in the general joy of our entire country. I have been led to say what I have because there yet has been no time for a man to roll up all the consequences of this victory. That it includes the election of a Democratic President in 1876 I can not reasonably doubt. It seems to me we voted on last Tuesday for a Democratic President in 1876. (Applause.) We, however, know, my friends, such is the desperation of those now in power, that if the House of Representatives and the Senate had remained in their hands, their shameless threats previously made would very likely have been carried out, and though the electoral votes come, they may, as they have done before, lawlessly refuse to count them; and we might have had the spectacle of a Vice President sitting in two Houses and saying that he would not allow them to be counted because his party would not allow him to do so. So was it with Mr. Wade, of Ohio. One thing is certain. The elections of last Tuesday will prevent its being done in 1877, when the votes come to be counted. This is no time, my friends, to attempt to gather up and recite to you the consequences of this election or what may be or what may not be. The next House of Representatives gives to the Democratic majority the control over the purse of the nation. It gives them the power to do what has not been done in these last ten years, to inaugurate, not to go through the form of investigation. Investigations shall occur which shall be real. And I tell you my earnest belief is that when the American people shall come to know the secrets of these departments of the city of Washington, there will scarcely be found a man to vote to continue in power a party which has so forfeited its claim to trust. Republicans and Democrats, white as well as black, a good government covers all. Let us remember that there is something higher than the claims of party, and that is the welfare of our whole country. [Applause.]

Ten Rules for Farmers.

1. Take good papers and read them.
2. Keep an account of farming operations.
3. Do not leave implements scattered over the farm, exposed to snow, rain and heat.
4. Repair tools and buildings at a proper time, and do not suffer subsequent threefold expenditure of time and money.
5. Use money judiciously, and do not attend auction sales to purchase all kinds of trumpery because it is cheap.
6. See that fences are well repaired, and cattle not grazing in the meadows or grain fields or orchards.
7. Do not refuse to make correct experiments, in a small way, of many new things.
8. Plant fruit trees well, care for them, and get good crops.
9. Practice economy by giving stock shelter during the winter; also good food, taking out all that is unsound, half rotten or moldy.
10. Do not keep tribes of dogs and cats around the premises, who eat more in a month than they are worth all their life time—Morning Star.

The Judges Elect.

Now that the smoke of battle has lifted from the field, we find that where there was two weeks ago, an almost unbroken line of Radical Judges, the Democratic and Conservative party have succeeded in electing a line almost, if not quite as unbroken. The Judges elect are:

OF THE SUPREME COURT.

Thmas J. Judge, Amos R. Manning, Robert C. Brickell.

OF THE CHANCERY COURT.

H. Austill Southern Division; Neill S. Graham, Eastern Division; H. C. Speake Northern Division; Charles Turner, Middle Division; A. W. Dillard, Western Division.

OF THE CIRCUIT COURT.

1st Circuit—G. H. Craig, of Dallas.
2d Circuit—James Q. Smith of Montgomery.
3d Circuit—William S, Mudd, of Jefferson
4th Circuit—William B. Wood, of Lauderdale.
5th Circuit—Lewis Wyeth, of Marshall.
6th Circuit—Harry Toumlin, of Mobile.
7th Circuit—Luther R. Smith, of Sumter.
8th Circuit—Henry D. Clayton, of Barbour.
9th Circuit—James E. Cobb, of Macon.
10th Circuit—John Henderson, of Talladega.
11th Circuit—John K. Henry, of Butler.
12th Circuit—W. L. Whitlock of Etowah.

The names of Republicans in this list are printed in italics.

Although the Republicans still hold two Chancery Divisions and three circuits the Judges elect in the five are perhaps the best men of their party in the State. All in all, it would be hard to find in any State a finer or more competent bench.—Montgomery Advertiser.

Fire at Calera.

At an early hour yesterday morning it was reported in town that the hotel at Calera had been burned. The report was subsequently confirmed on the arrival of the Selma, Rome & Dalton train. The fire originated in the kitchen of the restaurant belonging to the South and North railroad, and was discovered about 2:40 yesterday morning, just as the Rome train arrived. In this building were the ticket office of both roads, and express and telegraph offices.

The building being a frame one was soon destroyed, and in a few minutes the fire crosssed the track and went to work on the large new hotel belonging to Messrs. Welch & Brother, which was also destroyed in a very little while. The fire is thought to have been accidental. The tracks of both the South & North and Selma, Rome & Dalton were badly damaged at that point.

The Rome train got through before the fire got under headway, but the train on the other road was not so fortunate, and did not reach that point till the work of destruction was nearly complete. It had consequently to lay over till the track was repaired, and remained there nearly all day.

The total loss aggregates about $15,000, and we are sorry to state that $12,000 of the amount falls upon Messrs. Welch & Brother, who were without any insurance on their property. This is certainly a very serious loss at such a time as this. Their hotel was new, and was well furnished, and we sincerely sympathize with them.—Selma Times.

A JOB'S COMFORTER.

The New York Herald has published a call for a National Convention of defeated candidates, and claims that it would be just the thing. The Herald says:

The convention would be a perfect success, notwithstanding the fact that every member of it is an utter failure, for it must be remembered that although a man may be defeated for Governor, Senator, Representative or legislator his usefulness may not only survive that defeat, but may actually be increased. There is a dignity in private life which is often far above the dazzling honors of mere political success and no spectacle in nobler than that of men bearing adversity with magnanimity, and finding perchance, consolation in the sight of each other's distresses. There is no more touching picture in the Bible than that of Job sitting among ashes and bewailing his boils. Solomon in his glory may be admired, but we love Job. It may not be irreverent either to the parriarch or to the republican candidates if we say that their conditions haved a certain likeness. Yet Job had no companions in his misfortunes, and was deprived of that soothing consciousness which the republicans possess. Forty or fifty Jobs sitting on the same ash heap and eace afflicted with an equal number of boils would have refreshed him in his misery, but even that privilege, alas! was refused to the aged man.

Too Much Credit.

Col. John H. Dent, of Floyd county, Ga., who has been a very successful farmer since the war, says in a recent letter to a leading agricultural paper:

"There are three lessons that our farmer must learn before they will become successful again. The first is to reduce the area of the farms, and what they undertake to do, do well; plant less land, prepare it thoroughly, manure profusely cultivate judiciously and make one acre produce what three now do. The second to make the farm self sustaining—that is raise their supplies, and stop buying them; and the third is to stop the credit system and pay as they go."

Don't Go to Law.—Every Pa who calls his fellowfarmer "brother," before going to law, go to his wife and there try to settle amicably with his brother. Of all the various kinds of middleman there is none in this there is found such a superabundance as in the profession of law. Were the principles of the Grange carried out in the community generally, there would be found more than one lawyer where there are now 100. The saving to the people in such an event would be almost beyond computation.

SATURDAY, NOV. 21, 1874.

The Late Election.

The returns of the late election are nearly all in, and the numerous outbursts of rejoicing at the unparalleled Democratic victory are gradually subsiding. The Democratic majority for the State ticket is about 14,000; and we have, for the first time since the war, a good working majority in both branches of the Legislature—in the Senate seven, and about thirty in the House. but which cannot be definitely known until some contests are settled. The Legislature has met, organized and gone earnestly to work, as we believe, in the right spirit. Our readers can learn from the correspondence of the Selma Times, published in this paper, the proceedings thus far; and in future we design to keep them posted by letters from Montgomery, and extracts from the daily journals.

The advantages of political as well as military victories are often lost by want of gathering their legitimate fruits. Many causes might be enumerated for this failure; but we shall refer here to only one, which we have noticed for many years past, as prominent; and that is, the impatience of the people for immediate results on occasions of party victories and accession of new officials to power. This was eminently the case after the election of 1870. Too many seemed to hold the Democratic House of Representatives responsible not only for what they did do, but for what it was impossible for them to do, owing to the old Radical Senate holding over.

The evils of eight or ten years of bad and corrupt legislation cannot be remedied in a day, or a week, or a month; especially, as in our case, when such legislation is fortified and reform hampered by constitutional enactment, sustained by a partisan judiciary. When our legislators fail to vote right or to earnestly sustain measures of needed reform, let us hold them to a strict accountability, but not in our impatience repeat the supreme folly of playing into the hands of our political adversaries and enemies, by joining them in recrimination, and often unjust censure of our own party officials. Such a course is about as wise as that of a man afflicted with a long-standing chronic disease changing his physician every day because he was not cured.

Another Arkansas Muddle.

Arkansas Radicalism is truly irrepressible. Notwithstanding the emphatic expression of the will of the people by 70,000 majority in the recent election, the late Lieut. Governor Smith, a creature of the Clayton-Dorsey faction, pretends to have discovered a trifling informality, and thereupon attempted to usurp the State Goverment as the successor of Baxter, issued a proclamation, and called on Grant for help. Attorney General Williams is gravely holding the case under consideration. Gov. Garland has arrested Price one of the conspirators, but Smith and his bogus Secretary of State, Wheeler, are hiding out, a reward having been offered by Governor Garland for their apprehension. A dispatch from Little Rock says that neither Gov. Garland nor the Legislature, now in session, will appeal to either the President or Congress, the State authorities being fully able to protect the Government. Meanwhile it is reported that the conspiring faction are massing troops at Helena, to establish there temporarily the would-be usurpers. This is the way Radicalism proposes to guarantee to a State a republican form of government—when beaten by the ballot, they appeal to the bullet. They show their true character in their dying throes.

The House Organized—Hon. D. C. Anderson Elected Speaker.

Special to the Selma Times.]

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 16, 1874.

The Legislature met to-day at 12 M., amid the booming of artillery. Upon the call of the roll of the counties, in the House, ninety-one members answered to their names. Of this number about twenty-five are negro and fifteen white Radicals, leaving about sixty Democrats. Granny Rice had issued certificates of election to the negro members from Barbour, and they were seated. This will, however, all be arranged in a day or two, and the rightful members will take their places.

Mr. Clements, of Tuscaloosa, was made temporary Speaker; Ellis Phelan temporary Clerk, and old Jack Cocke, of Perry, temporary Doorkeeper.

In the permanent organization, Mr. Anderson, of Mobile, was nominated Speaker by Mr. Bierne, of Madison. Gen. Bruce, Radical, of Wilcox, was nominated by Coon, of Dallas. A vote was had, and it appearing that Bruce was badly beaten, Wood, of Talladega moved to make the election of Mr. Anderson unanimous. This motion was seconded by Bruce, who said he preferred him to any man of his party in the State, and amid great applause, Mr. Anderson was declared unanimously elected. The temporary Doorkeeper and Clerk were elected permanently. No other officers were elected by reason of the passage of a resolution appointing a committee to inquire into the number of officials necessary for the transaction of the business of the House.

Mr. Anderson, on taking the chair, returned thanks for the unanimity with which he had been elected, and said it was with great diffidence that he entered upon the duty of presiding over the deliberations of the body. He said the people expected much of the Democratic party which has just obtained possession of the State government. On account of our heavy public debt we must continue to bear the heavy burden of taxation, but by a better revenue system, by the encouragement of emigration and of manufacturing industry, by retrenchment of unnecessary expenses and a better domestic financial policy we can increase the resources of the State, distribute more equally and at the same time distribute the burden of taxation. We can thus demonstrate to the world that our people though poor are not bankrupt, that they are a liberty loving and honorable people, full of energy, courage and patriotism.

He recommended a change in the election laws and a revision of the constitution. He wanted the colored people satisfied that the Democratic party were not hostile to their rights. He rejoiced in the victories throughout the nation as the harbinger of happier and better days for the country. He concluded amid applause.

The house then adjourned till 12 M., to-morrow. J. H. F.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 17.

The time of the House was consumed to-day in organization, and the discussion of the Barbour county contestants.

Cecil Whitman was elected assistant clerk over Phillip Joseph, negro, from Mobile.

A memorial from the members of the Legislature from Barbour county, whose seats are at present occupied by three usurping negroes, was presented. A resolution to refer the memorial to a select committee, and also to examine into the records of the Secretary of State, aroused in the mind of Coon of Dallas, as he expressed it, the idea that the cat had been let out of the bag; and that it was not the intention to go into a full investigation of the question of the election of the Barbour members. Several negroes, among the number Harris of Dallas, made speeches for the admitted purpose of consuming time, in order, as they alleged, that the matter might go before the Committee on Privileges and Elections, instead of before a special committee. As soon as the House can act the legally elected members from Barbour will be seated. Pending consideration of the question the House adjourned.

In the Senate Mike Wooks, the Secretary of the Senate at its last session, was thrown overboard, and Mr. Brewer, of Montgomery, elected in his stead. Pat Doran takes the place of Col. Clarke as Doorkeeper.

McKinstry announced that the count of the votes for State officers would take place Friday.

A message from the Governor to both houses has been sent in. It is a miserably poor affair, recommending nothing upon which legislation can be based. He makes a strike at Lindsay's administration, by saying he has sold bonds to pay $180,000 of debts contracted by him. That there are on hand of the bonds issued under various acts one million and seven hundred thousand dollars. The remainder of the message amounts to but little more than a statement of facts already known.

It is the general impression that expenditures of every kind will be cut down. Useless positions in every department have been abolished by the Legislature and the Board of Equalization, and the Public Printing will be brought down to a figure amounting to nothing more than the charge made by the printer doing the work.

Messrs. Hewitt, Bradford and Williams, Congressman elect, Mr. Bromberg, present member, and many other distinguished gentlemen are in the city. FLASH.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 18, 1874.

The time of the House was consumed to-day in the discussion of the Barbour election case, without any conclusion. Craig reached here before adjournment. A civil rights bill, introduced by some negro, met the fate of its predecessors and was sent where the woodbine twineth. A bill to prevent the sale of liquors in the State met the same fate.

A bill was introduced into the Senate by Mr. Carmichael, providing for the reduction of the salaries of Judges of the Supreme Court, Chancellors Circuit Judge, Officers of the Supreme Court [illegible] dollars. The bill was was held.

Major Jere Williams, to-day, received his certificate of election as a member of Congress elect from the Second Congressional district. FLASH.

[St. Louis Republican, 4th.]

DOWNFALL OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

Echoes from the Election.

Like all organizations builded upon fraud and falsehood, the Republican party's downfall has been sudden and crushing. It has stood for years an immense hollow shell, needing but the punching of a few holes in it to crumble into fragments. It is not too much to assume that the Republican party of yesterday; the party of salary grabs and Credit Mobiliers and pious-eggs; the party of bribery and forgery and perjury; the party of dragonnades and midnight raids upon defenceless citizens; the party of Shepherd rings and custom-house rings; the party of Sanborn moiety swindles and Jayne customs-revenue black-mailings; the party of monopolies and land grants and grabs; the party of Butler, of Cameron, of Chandler, of Williams, of Pomeroy, of Harlan, of Patterson, of Hipple-Mitchell, of Poland, and of Carpenter; in fine the party of all imaginable men and things that are infamous and odious; it is not too much to assume that this Republican party never can be resuscitated as a controlling power in American politics. Its sole prestige was in its power. Violent, rapacious, venal; knowing no policy but expediency, and no principle but that of self-perpetuation; appealing to no motives save those of popular prejudice or of individual greed; its support was simply an army of mercenaries ready to desert its standard the moment the pay-chest was empty and the commissary without supplies, together with a horde of fanatics whom one defeat was certain to turn into a panic-stricken rabble.

It has outlived its usefulness for years. Founded upon one of the grandest ideas that ever animated an organization, the realization of that idea left it without a purpose. When its true purpose was accomplished, its statesmen left it to seek new objects and to accomplish new purposes, whereupon its organization was seized upon by as graceless a crew of adventurers, pirates and freebooters as ever besmirched the history of a nation.—It has taken this foul crew just eight years to exhaust the magnificent resources of a party which won a war and triumphi in a revolution. It has taken them eight years to turn such words as loyalty and patriotism into synonyms of that contempt which men always cherish for cant and hypocrisy. It has taken them eight years to so debauch the heritage which Greeley and Sumner left them that New York and Massachusetts, in which the party was cradled, and whence it has always drawn it brains and its morale, now spit upon it and trample it into the dust. What it has done of evil could not be recounted upon this page. What it has failed to do of good could not be summarized upon the next page. But its work for good or evil is almost done. Its beaten and demoralized cohorts are to-day disorganized, routed and scattered. Its whipped, spurred and repudiated leaders are hopelessly ruined. Let no man who has led in the later infamies of Republicanism ever hope to lift his head again among the people, for the odium the party has incurred will fasten upon its individual leaders just as those individual leaders fastened upon its spoils. The Republican party will follow its old prototype, the Federalist party, into historical infamy. Its name will become a synonym of everything that should be shunned in political life and banished from political affairs. The men who, like Blaine and Morton and Conkling staked their personal ambitions upon its perpetuity and clung to it even while it was going to pieces, will sink with it into places where oblivion will be kindlier than memory.—As for the lower and meaner brood of the Butlers and their kind, the kennel-keepers and whippers-in of the party's curs and spaniels, they are too dead to characterize. The time is one for genuine rejoicing. It is auspicious of a better, purer and happier era. It gives assurance that the Great Republic will enter upon its second century of existence with a new lease of life, before which all the shadows of centralism, despotism, and, it must be said, even possible monarchy, must vanish, never again to cloud the future in our time.

A Thrilling Situation.

The following story, which is given as a fact, can hardly be surpassed even by the imaginary situations that mark many specimens of the modern drama:

Near the city of Detroit a man by the name of McArthur was crossing the railroad track in the night time, when his foot caught fast in a "frog," and his efforts to extricate it were of no avail. His boot fitted so closely that he could not draw his foot out and at length he could hardly move his leg from pain. He found that he must either be run over by the next train or make known his situation. He shouted himself hoarse, but no one came. After having been prisoner for upward of an hour he heard the whistle. He had a match-box in his bundle, and the idea came to him to signal the train. Tearing the papers off his bundle and getting at some letters he rolled them into a heap and for fear the flames would die out too suddenly he added his clothes. The bundle was then made fast to the end of his walking stick, and he waited until the headlight of the locomotive should appear. It finally greeted his vision and he struck his match but a gust of wind blew it out. Another match was struck, and in an instant he waved his signal back and forth and just when he thought death was certain he heard the whistle for brakes. He was saved, but the engine had only thirty feet more to go to crush him.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.

A special dispatch to the Chronicle, represents affairs in Arkansas as on the verge of war. Several State officers claiming State offices under Lieut. Gov. Smith have been arrested and warrants are out for others. There is no intimation as to the intention of the Federal Government in the matter.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 15.

John G. Price, of the Republican, was arrested for printing and distributing Smith's proclamation. The Sheriff then searched the city for Smith and Wheeler, but could not find either, whereupon Price was released on $6000 bail.

The State House to-night is guarded by armed men.

LITTLE ROCK, Nov. 17.

All is peace and quiet here—perfectly So I will have no collission unless it be forced on me by resisting the process of the law or attacking me.—All classes of people of all parties are supporting me and I cannot find Smith and his party to arrest them with warrants and no one knows where they are.

Another dispatch from Garland dated to-day says: Only one arrest has been made (Price) and on examination he was discharged. The guilty ones. Smith and Wheeler, are fugitives and cannot be found. All quiet and the Government is moving on well and admirably.

The Returns.

Our tables are now nearly comlete. The only Counties not reported are Washington, Bibb and Sanford. Not including these the totals are: Houston 105.105; Lewis 93,484; Houston's majority 11,621; total vote 198.589. Each of the counties not reported giving Houston an average majority of 600, making his total majority 13,421. The average aggregate vote of each was 1,100—making the total vote of the State 201,886. This, in defiance of all silly estimates to the contrary.—Mont. Adv.

The Season of Intermittents.

All miasmatic complaints, in other words all disorders generated by unwholesome exhalations from the earth or water are prevalent at this season. In every section subject to the visitation of fever and ague or other forms of intermittent disease the causes which produce these maladies are now actively at work. This therefore is a period of the year when the inhabitants of such districts should prepare their systems to meet the unwholsome condition of the atmosphere by a course of tonic and alterative treatment, Foremost among the invigorants, recommended by time and experience as a means of fortifying the system against all endemic and epidemic maladies, stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Whoever have traveled in the West, or South knows full well the esteem in which this incomparable preventive and restorative is held throughout those regions. It is liberally a domestic staple in the swampy and miasmatic localities which lie on the borders of many of our large rivers and in the neighborhood of our southern bayous and lagoons. Now is the time when the inhabitants of all malarious districts should put their systems and constitutions in good defensive trim by a course of this powerful vegetable antidote. By this means the feeblest resident of an unhealthy soil may escape the sickness which without the aid of this potent ally of nature, will be apt to overtake the strongest. Chills and fever billious remittents, constipation, rheumatism, dyspepsia and many other complaints are frequently brought on by the caprices of temperature and alternations of dry cold and excessive moisture common in our climate at the commencement of spring. Let all who desire to avoid these distressing ailments take the Bitters as a safeguard.

Patrons of Husbandry—Cornelius Granger.

In pursuance of a call of the master L. L. Allen of the aforesaid grange to convene in the council rooms on the 5th inst. The object of the called meeting stated, to-wit, the death of our Beloved sister Kittie Hudson, consort of J. G. Hudson and daughter of Allen and Martha Elston, all of Calhoun Co., Ala.

Whereupon the following committee was appointed, to wit:—Elder M. Garrett, N. B. DeArman and Martin Fowler to write and publish obituary notice.

We, the aforesaid committee for and in behalf of the Patrons of Husbandry of said grange, do declare and set forth the following facts, viz:—that we greatly sympathize with our brother J. G. Hudson and the father, brothers and sisters of the said dearest sister and her friends generally, and declare their and our loss to be irreparable.—Kittie, the subject of our notice, was a subject of early piety; she remembered her Creator in the days of her youth. She embraced and realized the saving efficacy of the redemption of Jesus Christ very young, and joined the Baptist Church at Harmony in early life, lived a consistent christian and died the death of the righteous. She was born on the 30th of Oct. A. D. 1837, married J. G. Hudson the 4th of Nov. 1868, was the mother of two children, both boys, died the 5th of Nov. 1874, of pneumonia, diptheria or scarletinia. She died as she lived a consistent christian, a loving wife, a devoted mother, a kind and affectionate neighbor, universally loved by all that knew her, because she professed much of the Spirit of the meek and lowly Jesus. Resolved that we tender her husband, father and friends our condolence and that we wear the usual badge of mourning 30 days. And that a copy of these resolutions be furnished the Jacksonville Republican for publication and that the Selma Argus please copy.

M. GARRETT.

For particulars in pamphlets with maps, address A. L. DEANE, Land Commissioner Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Co., 25 South 4th Street, St Louis, Mo.

If Alcoholic Stimulants are taken into the blood the heart works faster, and this unnatural speed wears out the vital machinery. All intoxicating nostrums advertised as "tonics," "renovators," &c., produce this disastrous effect, and should be rejected. DR. WALKER'S VEGETABLE VINEGAR BITTERS—an Invigorant without the curse of alcohol—is everywhere supplanting these poisons. 4w

The Source of Many Ills.

If all the ailments, bodily and mental which torment the human family could be traced to their primary sources, it would probably be found that three-fourths of them originated in the failure of the stomach and the other organs by which the food is converted into nutriment and applied to the purposes of life, to perform the tasks allotted to them by nature vigorously and regularly. This being the case the vast importance of a medicine which compels these organs to do their whole duty thoroughly and efficiently, be comes at once apparent. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly characterized as a preparation of this kind, indeed as the only one which can be implicitly relied on as combining the properties of a stomachic an alterative and an aperient in such proportions as to produce simultaneously the desired effect upon the disordered stomach liver and intestines. The conclusion is warranted by the celerity and certainty with which the Bitters afford relief in chronic cases of dyspepsia, torpidity of the liver and constipation. The false idea that these complaints and others that grow out of them, could be cured by fierce cathartics has at last, it is hoped been thoroughly explored. The sick during the last hundred years have swallowed thousands of tons of mercury, scammony gamboge croton oil juice, &, and tens of thousands of graves have been prematurely filled thereby. But ever since the principles of renovation, as embodied in in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters was arrayed against the principle of prostration, as represented by mineral salvants and furious purgatives, the latter has steadily and surely fallen into deserved contempt. The outcry against stimulation by which concoctors of depleting drenches hoped to give relief to their disgusting and dangerous compounds has only served to increase the demand for the wholesome stimulant, tonic and alterative which for twenty-five years triumphed over all opposition and is now the most popular medicine in the Western hemisphere.

If the Druggist Offers any kind herb-flavored alcohol for dyspepsia, bilious ness, or any other ailment, tell him that you want Medicine not a not a bar-room drink Ask him for DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA BITTERS the best regulating preparation known, and which you know is free from "Satan's Elixir," Reject all the fiery "Tonics" and Appetizers," and cling to that remedy. There is no medicine that compares with it. 4w

"Waters' Concerto Parlor Organ" possesses a beautiful and penetrating soft tone The Concerto Stop is, without doubt, the best ever placed in any organ. It is produced by an extra set of reeds, peculiarly voiced from which the effect is most charming, and its imitation of the human voice is superb. For sweetness of tone and orchestral effects it has no equal."—N. Y. Times.

Best Organs for Easy Payments.

The new scheme of easy payments for Cabinet Organs offered by the well-known Mason & Hamlin Organ Co has these advantages:

1. An organ may be obtained by a first payment of ten dollars or more.

2. If it does not prove satisfactory or the party taking it gets tired of it, he may return it after six months, having paid nothing more than the rent of it.

3. If he concludes to purchase and pays for it in the course of a year, the whole cost to him is but five to ten per cent, more than if all cash had been paid.

Dealers say this will ruin the business of organ selling as they cannot afford to compete with such terms. The Mason & Hamlin Co. know so well the quality of their organs and that scarcely any will be returned to them that they believe they can afford such terms Circulars can be obtained with full particulars by writing to the Company for them to Boston, New York, or Chicago.

DO YOU WANT PROFITABLE EMPLOYMENT

If so, write to Major R. O. RANDALL, General Agent of the Mobile Life Insurance Co., Gadsden, Ala., giving your references, with a view to obtaining an agency for that popular Company.

The Lee Memorial Monument.

The latest news from the Lee Memorial Association is that Prof. Edward V. Valentine, the sculptor has procured from Vermont a block of pure white marble, from which he is now fashioning a recumbent figures of Gen'l Lee, to be placed on the grand monument that is now being erected at his tomb at the Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. The figure represents Gen'l. Lee reposing in an easy position upon a couch, his head and shoulders slightly raised above the body his left arm outstretched by the side of his sword, his right arm laid across his breast. He were full Confederate uniform including boots and gauntlets, and a light drapery covers nearly the whole form. The appearence is natural and graceful, indicating peaceful slumber rather than death.

This monument when surmounted with such a fine work of art, will be a lasting memorial to one of Virginia's noblest sons and patriots. The members of the Association are gentlemen well and favorably known by the entire community who will see that nothing is left undone that will add to the beauty and finish of this great work. We are advised by the Secretary, Mr. Charles A. Davidson of Lexington Va., that no sufficient funds have yet been subscribed to fully complete the monument In order to further this object they have issued a life-size steel engraved portrait of Gen'l Lee, to be sold only by subscription through authorized agents; the proceeds of such sales to be applied toward the completion of the work They and we feel that this is an opportunity for all not only to procure a superb life like portrait of the great General at a very reasonable price, but also enables every person to aid in the erection of a lasting monument to his memory. Each subscriber will receive a certificate, signed by the Secretary and Chairman of the Lee Memorial Association.

We commend this valuable portrait to the public, and predict for it an immense sale. Some energetic person should secure the agency in this section to assist in the noble work. W. W. BOSTWICK & Co's. Nos. 177 and 179 West Forth Street Cincinnati, O., have been appointed General Managers of all Agencies in the United States. All communications addressed to the above firm for circulars, certificates and terms to agents will receive their immediate attention

Sarsaparillian Resolvent
THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.
HAS WROUGHT THE MOST ASTONISHING CURES: SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES THE BODY UNDERGOES UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE, THAT
Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.
Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other Fluids and Juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular diseases, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Nodes in the Glands and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, Scrofulous discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Pimples, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Rightness, Loss of Sperm and all wastes of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonderful Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to many persons being in for either of these forms of disease its potent power to cure them.
If the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, succeeds in arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does accomplish—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and succeeds in diminishing the loss of wastes, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger, the food digesting better, appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.
Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT accomplish the most wonderful remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for
Kidney & Bladder Complaints,
Urinary and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's Disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the small of the Back and along the Loins.

VINEGAR BITTERS
PUREL. VEGETABLE. FREE FROM ALCOHOL
DR. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
EUREKA
VINEGAR BITTERS
Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.
No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.
Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.
Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.
Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.
Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.
For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.
Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.
For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.
Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.
For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.
Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Ala. Gold Life Insurance Co
OF MOBILE, ALA.
All who desire to make a safe and certain investment for the future, should not neglect the opportunity of doing so while in sufficiently good health to secure a life policy in a good and reliable company. Such a one is the Ala. Gold Life, conducted in the management by officers of acknowledged ability and integrity, well known to the people of Alabama. But that which gives the company its strongest claim to patronage and support is the fact that it is a Home Institution, using its earnings at home among its policy holders. This company is now doing a very large and rapidly increasing business all over the South.
I will be pleased to see my friends and show them the advantages the company offer for Life Insurance.

FOR THE AGED.

Is life's evening long and dreary?
Gone the treasure once possessed?
Is thy spirit faint and weary?
Dost thou long to be at rest?
On the sweet promise fix thy sight;
At evening time it shall be light.

Light is sown for thee and gladness
Even in this vale of tears;
Soon shall pass the night of sadness,
Direct with thy morn appears;
Still to Faith's strong illuminated sight;
At evening time it shall be light.

Look not on the ills around thee,
Earth grows darker every hour;
Let not crime's increase confound thee,
Limited is Satan's power.
Look to regions pure and bright;
At evening time it shall be light.

Dwell not on the growing weakness
That precedes thy frame's decay;
Rise above depressing sickness;
Catch the dawn's approaching gray.
Faith can discern the Day Star bright,
At evening time it shall be light.

See thy Saviour bending o'er thee,
Even to old age the same,
Set life's one chief end before thee,
Still to glorify His name;
While on Himself is fixed thy sight,
At evening time it shall be light.

Mr. Price offered a resolution which was adopted authorizing the doorkeeper to place some person in the gallery who will preserve order and arrest any person making disturbance pending.
The Speaker announced as the committee of the House to act with Senate Committees, for examination of offices of the Comptroller and Treasurer, to be Messrs. Hamilton, Purcell and Wood, of Talladega.
Baldwin moved to adjourn until 10 o'clock Monday.
Mr. Rice hoped the motion would not prevail. He wanted the fullest and freest investigation and discussion of this matter. Although the colored people in his section knew him well, yet they had an ill-defined dread of what he and his party associates might do on this floor. He wanted to let them know that no right they have is in danger, and that no legislation of this General Assembly will work to their detriment. Therefore, he wanted the motion to adjourn voted down and rules adopted so that work can be done and the good of the entire people of the State advanced.
G. S. W. Lewis opposed the substitute and said if that was adopted it would hurt the Democratic party two years hence.
House adjourned under rule at 2 p. m. until Monday at 10 a. m.

The Board met pursuant to adjournment, Mr. Howard, President, pro tem, in the chair.

Mr. Foster moved to amend by making the election by the people take place the same day that the trustees of school districts are elected.
The resolution and amendment were referred to Committee on Revision.
Mr. Gibson, a bill to be entitled an act to provide for the election of county superintendents. Referred.
Mr. Smith, by leave a bill to be entitled an act to extend the term of office of county superintendents. Referred.
Mr. Oliver, from committee to whom was referred the question of inquiry as to the authority by which the sum of $64 was paid to June Wright as fireman for the Board of Education for last session, reported that by reference to the certificate in the Auditor's office, they ascertained that June Wright was fireman for the House of Representatives, and that warrant 978 was through mistake made out on blank for Board of Education, instead of General Assembly blank, as shown by said warrant in the Treasurer's office and comparing with the certificate in Auditor's office. The said amount should be charged up against the General Assembly fund instead of the Educational Department.
Report received and concurred in.
Mr. Oliver called up bill to be entitled "an act to define the authority and prescribe the duties of the Board of Regents of the State University," which was read twice upon yesterday. After discussion and offering various amendments the bill was read a third time and passed.

Resolved, That Dr. C. G. Smith, President of the State University, be invited to a seat in this Board, and that the privilege be extended to him of taking part in its discussions.

THE CARPET-BAGGER.

A Withering Description of the Monstrosity by Senator Norwood

From the Savannah News.]

In his masterly speech at the theatre, on Monday night last, Hon. Thos. M. Norwood indulged his audience with a most graphic and truthful description of that modern monstrosity, the carpet-bagger. In our hurried synopsis of the points of the speech we were unable to give the picture in "full length" which so excited the admiration and mirth of the audience. As considerable desire has been expressed for copies of the picture, for preservation, and as the carpet-bagger will shortly become an extinct species in Georgia, we have taken pains to reproduce Senator Norwood's sketch, not omitting the nice touches of the artist, which bring out the striking and peculiar characteristics of the creature in such bold relief. Coming in the course of his speech to the carpet-bagger, Senator Norwood said:

"The reconstruction acts have wrought immeasurable evils, but perhaps the greatest of all is the production of the carpet-bagger. I have great admiration for the genius who first used that word, carpet-bagger. What can be more expressive? His like the world has never seen, from the day of Cain or of the forty thieves in the fabled time of Ali Baba. Like the wind, he blows, and we hear the sound thereof, but no man knoweth whence he cometh or whither he goeth.

Natural historians will be in no doubt how to class him. Ornithologists will class him, because in many respects he is a bird of prey. He lives only on corruption and takes his flight as soon as the carcass is picked. In other particulars he resembles the migratory crane. For when driven by the frigidity of social circulation from the North he flies with ominous embrace of his African mates and peers among the swamps of our Southern shore. As the crane fills his craw, so this creature fills his bag, for the flight. And as the crane, when the days grow hot, flaps his wings and screeching through the air, returns to the North, so this ill-omened biped, when times become warm in the South, gathers up his legs and flying with screams and shrieks away, perches on the wooden head of figure of justice commonly known as the Attorney General and drowns the air with croakings about Southern outrage and wrong.

In the other respects he is like the marsupial family of quadrupeds, for as they are named from the pouch or bag in which they carry their young so he derives his name from the bag he carries and in which are stored all his earthly possessions. The opossum is of the marsupial family and the carpet-bagger, like that animal does all his traveling at night.

Solomon was a wise man, but he did not know everything. He was wrong in saying "there is nothing new under the sun." The world has swung on for thousands of years through wars and pestilence, through famine and plagues has been visited by tempests and earthquakes frogs and flies murrain lice and grasshoppers, but never until the year of our Lord 1867 was any portion of the globe afflicted by a carpet-bagger. Solomon did not know him, nor did David or Jeremiah conceive of such a calamity. If they had, the songs of David and the Book of Jeremiah would have been lost to mankind, for they would have fled the face of mad at the bare conception of such a woe.

Though he sprung into existence soon after the war, the carpet-bagger is no offspring of that martial coition. The time was not gravis Marte when he was hatched or littered. There is no look of Mars, but there is infinite speculation in his eyes. A reward as large as that offered by the Roman Emperor for a new and savory dish could not tempt the most abandoned perjured negro to swear that he has ever known a carpet-bagger to stand the fire which has so often drawn by his incendiary work. His courage oozes out at his departing heels. During any little unpleasantness the Yankee becomes, as by magic, a Publican for he takes his stand "afar off." He is no product of the war. He is "the canker of a calm world" and of a peace which is despotism enforced by bayonets. His valor is discretion; his industry perpetual strife and his eloquence "the parcel of a reckoning" of chances as he strells out a path which may lead from the White House to a Custom House a post-office, the Internal Revenue Bureaus or perchance, to either wing of the Federal Capitol. His shibboleth is "the Republican party." From that party he sprung as naturally as maggots from putrefaction. His relation to that party is that of pimp, to a bawd, for his meretricious service is rewarded in propotion to the number of innocent negro victims he inveigles to gratify its lust for power. Like Wamba and Gerth, he never travels without wearing his master's collar; and he is equally content whether turned loose to chase like a sleuth hound the monarch of Southern soil, or called by a way of the fingers to eat the garbage of party. His collar is his passport to roam at large, and it matters not with what persistence he may break into a Southern gentleman's closet his master will not permit him to be muzzled for he is "the ox that treadeth out the corn" as well as "the ass that knoweth his master's crib."

Wherever two or three or more negroes are gathered in the name of Grant he like a leprous spot is seen and his cry, like the daughter of the horse leech, is always "give—give"—no office. Without office he is nothing; with office he is a pest and public nuisance. Out of office he is a beggar, in office he grows rich till his eyes stick out with fatness. Out of office, he is, hat in hand, the outside ornament of every negro's cabin, a loafer and the nation's lazarence; in office he is an adept in "addition division and silence." Out of office he is the orphan ward of the Administration and the general signpost of penury; in office he is the complaining suppliant for social equality with Southern gentlemen.

His former neighbors in the unknown region whence he fled, wonder, not at his flight, but at his escape and concealment. But when as sometimes happens, he reaches Washington labeled as "Senator" or "Representative" from the province of Louisiana, or South Carolina, or Alabama, or Mississippi, and invoiced and consigned to President Grant or some of his henchmen, the romance of the transfiguration so veils his identity that those neighbors gather in the Capitol and with field glasses in hand they wrangle and swear (?) in the galleries in angry dispute whether the official automaton is Tourbone or his counterfeit. He is at best but Cinderilla at the ball!

We wonder at his slippers, his face, clothes and his hair,
But the greatest wonder is, how he ever got there.

Our wonder however is not as great or distracting as his own. For, when he thinks of the fairy Reconstruction, which wrought this marvelous change in him, and then sees the familiar pumpkin, which he, from early and fond association, has come to regard as an elder brother, suddenly transmuted into a carriage and gayly caparisoned horses and examines his glass slippers, and then timorously ventures to look down, down, into depths where his fairy found him among the cinders and ashes of Southern desolation his head swims and he instinctively leans heavily on Prince Ulysses' arm, and counting his own identity, begs not to be called Senator or Representitive, but to be called by his his own name so familiar in Sleepy Hollow—Schneider.

DETROIT FREE PRESS.—We learn that a Treasury clerk lost $8,000 on the result in New York State, and now we suppose there'll soon be another move made to raise the salaries of the poor over-driven scribes who have to live in garrets.

Republican

SATURDAY, NOV. 28, 1874.

☞ Our standing, and weekly-published terms, for near two years have been, two dollars in advance, or three dollars at the end of the year. We are aware that many readers of newspapers seldom, if ever, notice the terms, and never think of paying more than the smallest sum mentioned. For this reason we will, here say to all who owe for one or more years, that if they will settle up before the first day of January next, they will be charged only the advance rate, two dollars per year. If, after this fair notice, they continue to neglect payment, they cannot justly complain if they are charged the highest price mentioned in our terms.

We have recently had subscriptions settled which had run on from nine to twelve years. In such cases, the interest on the amount expended for paper, type, ink and work is worth more than the entire amount of yearly subscription.

☞ The storm, which was so destructive at Tuscumbia and Montevallo, (the melancholy details of which we give in another column,) prevailed with more or less violence all over the country. In Tennessee and in several of the Northern and Eastern States its track was strown with the debris of ruined property and sprinkled with the blood of human victims. It extended far out to sea, wrecking and sinking many vessels. It was the most wide-spread and destructive storm that has swept over our land within the memory of old inhabitants. Many lives and millions of dollars' worth of property were lost in it.

The Political Outlook.

There is not much political news since the election returns are about all in; and not much of a political character to write about. In Arkansas and Louisiana the Radicals are still busy in scheming to cheat the people out of their victory. Should they succeed in so doing serious difficulty is apprehended. In this State the Radical papers are consoling themselves in their defeat, and encouraging the hope of recovering lost ground, by recounting the mistakes which the Democrats are to make, and their own mistakes in the past which they are to rectify. In both these things we think they are doomed to disappointment. At least in the first, judging from the earnest manner in which our Legislature has engaged in the work of retrenchment and reform. As to what they may do in changing their own policy we cannot conjecture. But it is said to be "hard to learn old dogs new tricks." And if they were even to change their whole policy to one of justice and magnanimity, it would take them many years to recover the lost confidence of the people.

The great body of the Democratic party has never proven untrue or faithless to the principles of constitutional liberty and the best interests of the people in the past, and we have no fear that they will do so in the future. It is true, isolated individuals, like Beast Butler, have proven recreant; but for this a whole party cannot and ought not to be held responsible. All that the Democratic party has to do, is to prove true to the trust and confidence reposed in them by the late elections; and so long as they do so, there is no danger that the people will change it for new experiments, or such a party as the Radical, which has proven itself to be such a deep and enduring curse to the country.

Tribute to the Alabama Democracy.

In the New York World of November 23d we find the following highly complimentary allusion to the Democrats of our State:

The Democrats of Alabama have from the first kept up such an able and persistent opposition to radical rule that notwithstanding the ravenousness of carpet-baggers, the State now comes under the control of its legitimate rulers not burdened with a hopelessly unmanageable debt. In January, 1861, the entire bonded debt of the State was $3,445,000. By 1867 the original debt had increased, through default of the interest which was funded in that year, to $4,066,100. Since 1867 radical mismanagement, extravagance, and jobbery have made almost yearly inroads upon the treasury, until the bonded debt of the State is now within a fraction of $9,000,000. Other Southern States where the Radicals have had fuller sway have not come out of the reconstruction mill so easily. Under the direction of the unsurpassed common sense and executive ability for which the substantial merchants, and professional men of Alabama are noted, this debt will doubtless be well and satisfactorily managed, and the credit of the State firmly re-established. Of course the Radicals leave an additional legacy of county and municipal debts to embarrass their Democratic successors in Alabama, as they have left in every Southern State; but with patience, fairness and wisdom this load will also be gradually lightened. With crippled resources the load is heavy enough. That it is not far heavier, is due to the sagacity of the people of Alabama in perceiving early in the history of carpet-bag rule that every blow in a political battle has its effect, and to their energy and persistence in dealing a blow at every Radical scheme of plunder that came to light.

Calhoun College and Jacksonville Female Academy.

We are truly gratified to learn that the number of students in these institutions is on the increase. The President of the College and teachers have thus far proven themselves eminently qualified, and have been industrious, energetic or faithful in the discharge of their duties. The pupils have made rapid and substantial improvement; and although the present Principal and assistants commenced their labors under the most discouraging circumstances, there is every reason to hope that these institutions will be established upon a foundation of substantial and enduring prosperity.

TORNADO!

Terrible Hurricane at Tuscumbia!

Many Persons Killed.

WIFE AND TWO CHILDREN OF SENATOR MOORE AMONG THE KILLED!

From the Morning News Extra, Nov 23.

At 10 o'clock last night, while one of the editors of this paper was conversing with Governor McEnery, of Louisiana, on the balcony of the Exchange Hotel the following startling dispatch addressed to Hon. J. Burns Moore, of Tuscumbia, the newly elected Senator from the Second Senatorial District, was received:

TUSCUMBIA, ALA., Nov. 22—9:35 p. m. HON. J. B. MOORE—Montgomery: Terrible hurricane here to-night.—Many persons killed. Amongst them your wife and two youngest children. Balance safe.

JOHN D. RATHER.

The contents of this dispatch were imparted to Mr. Beall, the clerk, before the telegram was delivered to Mr. Moore so that he could break this terrible news to the sorely afflicted husband and father. Mr. Beall requested Gen. O'Neal of Florence to deliver the dispatch, and this request was complied with, though as we suppose, quite reluctantly, considering the circumstances.

Gentlemen who were present when Mr. Moore received the news of the sudden death of his wife and two youngest children whom he had left a few days ago in the enjoyment of good health describe the scene as perfectly heart-rending.

Full Details of the Tuscumbia Storm.

Many Narrow Escapes—Loss More than $500,000.

TUSCUMBIA, Ala., Nov. 24.

In the storm Sunday about three hundred persons were deprived of houses and total loss to the town and private individuals is estimated at $500,000. Memphis and Charleston Railroad company loses twenty thousand dollars. The storm come on while most of the people were supping; came like the sound of rushing thunder, and passed over immediately. Houses were blown down in many places. Streets and roads were everywhere filled with crumbling walls and shattered timbers. The people immediately organized and appointed a leader and set about relieving those hurt by falling timbers and recovering the bodies of the killed.

In addition to the killed and wounded mentioned in yesterday's Nashville dispatch, thirty persons were injured. Soon after the storm had blown over it was discovered that the iron railway bridge over Spring Creek, about a half mile from town, had been completely destroyed. At the same time it was remembered that a train from Memphis was expected to arrive at any moment. The utmost confusion prevails. No one seemed to know what to do. At length a young man named Wamble seized a large stick of pine wood and after thrusting it in the fire from a house near by, he rushed toward the broken bridge waving the blazing wood over his head as he went along. He had almost reached the creek when his torch was extinguished by the rain which was falling in torrents. At the same time the whistle of an approaching train was heard and the next moment the head light flashed through the darkness and young Mr. Wamble called with all his might but the engineer heard nothing but the sound of the storm and before any warning could be conveyed to him the engine, baggage car and one passenger coach went over the embankment fifty feet down into the Creek. The rear passenger cars did not go off the track it being blocked up by the wreck of the foremost ones. The engineer, fireman and bagigage master went over with it they were cut out of the ruins after two hours, hard work. They were very dangerously burned and bruised—but are expected to recover. Several of the passengers were slightly injured but none of them were prevented from proceeding on their journey. They were delayed three hours.

The searching party first removed the ruins of State Senator Moore's house. Mrs. Moore was found on a bed with two heavy timbers lying across her and two of her children under her bed, all crushed out of shape. Two other children were rescued alive.

John Hodgkins was blown out of the second story window. His house was blown down, burying his brother's family. On cutting through the wreck, Mr. Hodgkins and his wife and four children were all found crushed to death. The mansion of Mrs. Winston was blown down and she was found killed by a heavy wardrobe and other furniture. The house was valued at over forty thousand dollars. Her son-in-law, ex-Gov. Lindsay, occupying a portion of the house was unhurt.

The Cyclone at Montevallo.

Two Killed and Many Wounded—More than Twenty Houses Destroyed—Loss from $30,000 to $50,000.

Special to the Selma Times.

MONTEVALLO, ALA., Nov. 23.

About one o'clock this morning a terribly violent cyclone struck this town, doing immense damage to property, and alas! taking the lives of two persons, and wounding seriously from ten to fifteen, and slightly many others.

The direction of the cyclone was from southwest to northeast. Its duration was only about one minute, and it burst upon us in all its horrors without premonition or warning, and the damage was almost instantaneous. A brisk wind had been blowing for several hours, but it was not violent, and there were no indications of the impending catastrophe. About the hour above mentioned the sky became suddenly overcast by an intensely black cloud, accompanied by rain and lightning, and in the twinkling of an eye the cyclone, in all its howling, raging fury, commenced its terrible work of destruction and completing it, swept onward in its resistless march.

The killed are Mr. W. H. Young and Miss Mamie Morrow. It is impossible even at this time to procure a list of the wounded, but it is stated that from ten to fifteen are seriously, some of them probably fatally, and many others slightly wounded.

The following houses were totally demolished and destroyed, viz: Methodist, Episcopal and colored Baptist churches, Masonic Hall, Walker's and Wells' tanneries, one large storehouse, one large barn, the town bridge, the railroad carpenter's shop, and some fifteen private residences. These were totally destroyed. A large number of stores and residences were also badly damaged. A large number of horses and cattle were killed. Shade trees, fences, signs, &c., were blown away, and marks of the visit of the storm-king are visible in every direction.

The path of the cyclone was about a half mile in width, and its track is marked by uprooted forest trees and the debris of farm fences. The telegraph wires were prostrated; but are again all right. Montevallo has never experienced such a disaster as this has proven, and it will be many months before she recovers from it. Hundreds of hairbreadth escapes are reported, and I could fill your columns with thrilling details of the giant's visit.

The storm came from the southwest, and crossed the Selma, Rome and Dalton railroad at this point. It continued up the road for a short distance, when its course was northeasterly. It passed to the left of Calera, but struck the railroad again at Shelby Springs, twelve miles above here.

At Shelby Springs a part of the hotel of Mr. Norris was blown down, and some of the cottages badly damaged. The summer residences of Dr. Caston Drake, Hugh a Haralson, John Haralson and the Joseph Lapsley residence were completely demolished. Fortunately no one at the Springs was killed or seriously hurt, though a number were slightly wounded. Hundreds of the grand old forest trees were leveled with mother earth, and the wreck of fences in the storm path is general. From the Springs The course of the storm was northeast, but I have not heard from beyond that point.

The damage at Montevallo and vicinity is variously estimated at from twenty to fifty thousand dollars, though it is not possible at this time to form anything more than a guess. The night was one of horror, and its recollection will never be effaced from the memories of those who passed through it.

FROM MONTGOMERY.

[Special Telegraphic Correspondence Selma Times.]

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 23d, 10 p. m.

Both Houses went to work this morning. The discussion of the rules was pretermitted.

In the House a large number of bills were introduced on a call of the counties, many of them of a local character.

The following bills were read twice and referred: To re-arrest persons at large on their own recognizance, to abolish the County Courts of the several counties of the State, to repeal the act allowing parties to be released on their own recognizance, to repeal the ku-klux act of 1868, to lower the rate of taxation to one half of one per cent, to reduce the mileage of the members of the General Assembly twenty cents and per diem to four dollars, joint resolution to appoint a committee on alleged outrages in the 4th District, to better protect stock along the line of railways. The Speaker announced the Committee on Privileges and Elections.

A resolution to adjourn on the 25th inst., in accordance with the President's proclamation for observing thanksgiving day, was adopted.

In the Senate the following bills were read twice and referred: To reduce the fee of tax collector, to punish the larceny of stock, hogs, &c., as a felony, to give agricultural laborers a lien on the crop, to break up deadfalls, to appoint a committee to find out the debt of the State, and to liquidate the same created by reason of endorsement of railway bonds, a committee to find out the bonded debt of the State and report a plan for closing up liabilities.

Mr. McElroy to-day took his seat as President of the Board of Education.—A bill was introduced in the Board to pay teachers from the years 1868 up to date. A resolution was passed investigating the conduct of mileage Foster.

The city is full of visitors; among them are Gen. W. H. Forney, Hon. Jno. H. Caldwell, Col. Pugh, and others. The grand inauguration ball comes off Thursday night. Gov. McEnery was in the city this morning.

The news of the great storm in North Alabama casts a gloom over the people here. Measures of relief are on foot.

In the examination of a witness before a special committee of the Senate on a local bill affecting Lowndes county, it was testified that out of a poll tax of forty-five hundred dollars only about two hundred was collected.

The Liberte says that a subscription, amounting to two hundred thousand francs has been got up by the Arab chiefs of Algeria for a memorial to the late Emperor. The memorial will take the shape of a flag ornamented with precious stones. It has just been ordered in Paris, and when finished will be taken to England by an Arab deputation and deposited over the tomb of Napoleon III.

The Inauguration Jubilee

AT MONTGOMERY.

The pageant at Montgomery on Tuesday last, at the inauguration of Governor Houston and Lt. Gov. Ligon, was the grandest ever witnessed in that city. The procession was of great length, and the military part it embraced companies from Mobile, Selma, Birmingham, and other places. A conspicuous feature in the procession was the Limestone Colored Club of Athens, the home of Governor Houston. It is estimated that there were twenty thousand spectators, and the inauguration took place amid the booming of cannon, clapping of hands, and enthusiastic manifestations of joy. The Selma Echo has the following special dispatch from the Capital, dated Tuesday:

The city is thronged with people.—Trains on all the railroads crowded. The military made a magnificent display; procession the largest ever seen in this city. At 2 o'clock Governor Houston delivered the following inaugural address:

Inaugural Address of Gov Houston.

FELLOW CITIZENS:—In pursuance of a long-established custom I appear before you to be inducted in your presence into the official oath prescribed by the constitution of the State of Alabama for her chief executive officer, and to assume the high and responsible duties of the station, to which I have been called by the voice of her people. Notwithstanding the years of experience in the public service, through which it has been my fortune to pass, I am free to confess more than mere distrust of my own ability to discharge the many grave and responsible duties of the office into which I am now to be inducted. But with a firm determination to respect and maintain my oath of office, which shall be a seal to my conscience, I unhesitatingly undertake to perform such duties as it imposes, and I will regard it as one of my highest and most sacred obligations to see that the laws "are faithfully executed" and the rights of all citizens, "without regard to race color or previous condition," duly guarded and protected.

Let this occasion inspire the conviction that we live in a land of liberty, regulated by law, without which the citizen would have no security against domestic discord or violence; and that our duty to preserve such laws in their constitutional purity and power, should not and cannot be avoided.

We have just passed through an active and intensely earnest political contest; and while it is both an honor and a pleasure to me to congratulate you and the country on the glorious and decisive victory achieved by the good and true people of this once more proud and noble State, yet in our congratulations and rejoicing we should be controlled by a wise and patriotic sense of duty, both to the country at large and our own immediate fellow-citizens.

Let us dismiss from our thoughts and forget whatever acrimonies there may have been engendered by the severe conflict in which we have been so recently engaged, and draw from it only lessons of moderation and wisdom, which shall be exercised for the improvement of the present and for our guidance in the future. We should understand our victory, and so employ it as to profit by its results. Our rejoicing should not be alone because of a triumph over a defeated adversary, but also because of the success of those great principles which we believe essential to the successful administration of good government; and in the day of our gladness we must not forget our obligations and responsibilities to the State, imposed upon us by our success.

Alabama is embarrassed—her indebtedness is great, and her people are impoverished. Time will be necessary to correct errors of the past and establish confidence in the future. We must restore the credit of the State to its former high and honorable position—preserve inviolate her good faith, and at the same time protect her people against excessive, unjust and improper taxation. Wise legislation is required to accomplish these ends.

The expenses of the administration of our State Government should be reduced in such mode and to such extent as the wisdom of the legislators, in view of proper economy, may suggest. We will not have discharged the high trust committed to us by the people, if we fail to abolish every unnecessary office and prevent every unnecessary expense.

All the departments of the State Government are now to be placed in our hands and it is eminently our duty to correct abuses, and introduce those necessary reforms, which, while they will give greater efficiency to the administration of the State Government, will at the same time curtail its expenses.

To you, Senators and gentlemen of the House of Representatives, the country will rightfully look, and I trust not in vain, for that just and wise legislation without which the great interests of the State and her people will languish and become paralyzed. Such laws faithfully and properly enforced command the respect and confidence of the people and give assurance that security and protection are to be afforded to all classes of our citizens.

In the attainment of these desirable ends I will regard it as my duty, as it will be my pleasure, cordially to co-operate with the legislative department of the State Government. In our complex system of Government, Federal and State, it sometimes occurs that powers not granted by the Constitution are claimed and exercised. Now while it is not my purpose on this occasion to discuss questions of Federal policy or authority, yet as powers destructive of the liberties of the people, have been claimed, and exercised by the use of the bayonet in a time of profound peace, I trust I may express the confident hope that, as one of the fruits of the recent political revolution, our State has escaped the dangers that seemed to threaten her existence as a State of our common Union. We may certainly hope that by a proper and just administration of her State Government, avoiding on our part any claim of power to which we are not clearly entitled thus giving no pretence for such dangerous usurpations, Alabama may not in the future have cause of apprehension, or grounds of complaint in this regard.

The preservation of the just rights of the States, as well as those of the Federal Government, is, in my judgment, essential to the maintenance of our Republican system of Constitutional Government; and every departure from these principles, established by our fathers, weakens the faith of the patriot and excites the fears of every friend of American freedom.

Alabama is destined, at a day not distant in the future, to become one of the most prosperous and wealthy States of the grand sisterhood. She has uncounted millions of wealth embedded in her mountains and her valleys, as well as in her agricultural fields, of unsurpassed fertility, producing every variety of crop known to this latitude. The commercial, mechanical and other interests of her citizens will, it is hoped, speedily emerge from the depression that has for a time retarded their prosperity.

Manufactories of all kinds are gradually building up in all parts of the State, which, turning to account this mineral wealth and increasing the value of our agricultural productions, must rapidly advance the State of Alabama to that high rank among the States to which her vast natural advantages entitle her.

Immigration and Capitol are necessary aids, in the development of these different interests. These aids may be invited and encouraged by such prudent and wise legislation as will give just assurance that they will be properly respected and rightfully guarded.

The diffusion of knowledge amongst the people promotes their prosperity and happiness, as well as the success of the Government. The more universal and thorough their education the wiser and more permanent will be the Government. We should therefore give such encouragement to the education of the children of our State as may be consistent with her other duties and obligations.

Governments are made by the people to secure their happiness and to protect their rights, and it is the duty of those who may be elected to administer them to do so with reference to the attainment of these ends. So far as it may be in my power as the Governor of the State of Alabama I shall regard it as a sacred duty unceasingly, to use all proper means for the accomplishment of these grand purposes.

"With malice towards none, and charity for all," the citizens of Alabama truly desire peace and a perfect restoration of fraternal relations between all sections of our common country. They are loyal to the Government of the United States, and will readily yield a cheerful obedience to its authority and laws; they only ask to be permitted, under the Constitution and laws of the Country, to exercise, secure from unwarrantable interference, the right of local self-government.

Fellow-citizens, I have thus briefly and imperfectly indicated the line of policy which I, as the chief executive officer of the State, will feel it my duty to pursue in the administration of the State Government.

It only remains for me to reassure you of my unalterable purpose firmly and faithfully to discharge my duty towards all the people of the State; invoking in this behalf the aid of an all-wise and kind Providence.

The reading of the address was followed by the firing of artillery, music and applause of the people. The other officers were regularly installed.

Editors Republican:

DEAR SIR:—In the classification of Circuit Judges elect in Alabama, as published in your last issue, the Hon. W. L. Whitlock is represented as a democrat. How is this?

He not only refused to co-operate with Alabama in 1861 to 1865; but from and after the surrender, he acted and co-operated with the Radical party, and was recognized as a member of that party.—And about 20th of January 1868, he was nominated as a candidate for Judge of the 12th Circuit, by the Radical party, in convention assembled, in the Court House in Jacksonville, composed mostly of several hundred Loyal League negroes presided over by H. A. Sanford, and manipulated by a carpet-bagger, T. D. Phister and John A. DeArman, and perhaps two or three other Southern white Republicans. He accepted said nomination, and at the election beginning on the 4th February, 1868, was elected to that office by the truly loyal, and at the same time, he voted to ratify the constitution of Alabama, which disfranchised large numbers of good white men of Alabama, and enfranchised the negroes. Thus paying the negroes and Radicals a quid pro quo for his own election.

And in 1874, and but about two or three months before late election, he appointed a Radical of the most objectionable status, to the office of County Solicitor of St. Clair county.

One who is said to be entirely innocent of such moral and legal attainments as to qualify him for the office, and against whom there were then pending sundry indictments in the same court. There is no Democracy in all this.

The Democratic party and history should be true to themselves, and not do violence to facts.

You will therefore please insert this in your next issue.

Respectfully &c.,
A DEMOCRAT.

From the Huntsville Democrat.]

Confession of a Radical.

Editor Democrat:—Of all men I am most miserable, and I feel that unless I make a full and unreserved confession, I cannot survive the weight of guilt that presses so heavily on me. I have no doubt you will be surprised at this, but tel it I must. (Lord have mercy on me!) I am the son of a white man, was born in the Democratic faith, and have lived in a gospel-enlightened community, but from evil associations and the promise of office, in an evil hour, I allied myself to the Radical party, (Lord have mercy on me?) and Esau-like, sold my country and family for a mess of pottage. I feel that I have forever disgraced myself, wife, children and my race. I fear that it will be a reproach to my children in after years. (Lord have mercy on me and mine!) Oh, how wicked in me to vote for a man who distributed bacon in the mountain counties, designed for the suffering in the overflowed districts—when I voted for a man that said he "lied against his fellow man to get even with him," and for others equally guilty. (Lord have mercy on me!) Mr. Editor, I am willing to repent in sackcloth and ashes (if I can get forgiveness) for the lies I circulated among the ignorant negroes, a few of which I will mention: "You will have no more Baptist Associations and feet-washings, if the Democrats get in power; your children will be sold at ten years of age, can't go to see your wives only on Saturday nights will not be allowed to vote; and last, but not least, that Spragins (that good man) would pass a stock law (Lord have mercy on me, the chief of sinners!) I felt and still feel, that when a white man or woman meets me on the streets, they are thinking of my evil deeds, and would have felt no worse had they said "you traitor to your race." To be candid, Mr. Editor, I felt more at home with negroes. (Lord have mercy on me! Have I come to this? Help me confess!) When I go to any public gathering, I find my associates to be ticket scratchers—men that for money or the promise of office were bought over to the Radical party; men who falsely pledged themselves to support the nominees of their party. Mr. Editor, if you will say nothing about it, I will tell you when I come to town who the so-called Democrats were in the eastern part of the county that assisted in defeating Gurley and Hereford, and the amount they received for it. With such men I can no longer associate. I have prayed the Lord to forgive me. I wish all my old friends to forgive me. I will do better in the future, and for the encouragement of like sinners I refer you to that passage in the Bible which says, "While the lamp holds out to burn the vilest sinner may return."

Persons wishing to purchase valuable town property in this place would do well to notice the advertisement of the sale of Hoke's corner in this paper. We know from the price which has been named to us that a good bargain is to be obtained in its purchase.

Chair and Bedstead Factory.—It will be seen, by reference to the advertisement of Mr. E. G. Morris, that he now has his factory, with new machinery, in complete and successful operation. We have purchased a set of his chairs, and can safely say that we have never seen them surpassed for neatness and durability.

Mr. Morris has been long known as one of our most industrious, energetic and liberal fellow citizens. If we had a sufficient number of such, we should soon cease to hear the disagreeable cry of hard times. Give him a liberal patronage, and thereby promote your own interest in the purchase of good articles at a fair price, and at the same time encourage domestic manufactures.

The attention of all persons having law business is invited to the card of Judge Woods, in another column; who will in future devote his attention to the practice of law.

MARRIED—At Oxford on the 18th inst by Rev, E. T. Smith, John A. Christian and Miss Georgia A. Borders.

We congratulate our friend Christian upon his success in attaining the Governship of "Georgia," as it would be with difficulty that he could be crowded away from the borders of his present honorable position, without her interference.

We wish our friends all the happiness that this world can bestow, and may they realize that

This is a bliss beyond all that the minstrel told,
When two that are linked in one heaven ly tie,
With heart never changing and brow never cold,
Love on thro' all ills, and love on till they die.

The Source of Many Ills.

If all the ailments, bodily and mental which torment the human family could be traced to their primary sources, it would probably be found that three-fourths of them originated in the failure of the stomach and the other organs by which the food is converted into nutriment and applied to the purposes of life, to perform the tasks alloted to them by nature rigorously and regularly. This being the case the vast importance of a medicine which compels these organs to do their whole duty thoroughly and efficiently, be comes at once apparent. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly characterized as a preparation of this kind, indeed as the only one which can be implicitly relied on as combining the properties of a stomachic an alterative and an aperient in such proportions as to produce simultaneously the desired effect upon the disordered stomach liver and intestines. The conclusion is warranted by the celerity and certainty with which the Bitters afford relief in chronic cases of dyspepsia, torpidity of the liver and constipation. The false idea that these complaints and others that grow out of them, could be cured by fierce cathartics has, at last, it is hoped been thoroughly explored. The sick during the last hundred years have swallowed thousands of tons of mercury calamony gumboge croton oil jalop, & , and tens of thousands of graves have been prematurely filled thereby. But ever since the principles of renovation, as embodied in in Hostetter's Stomach Bitters was arrayed against the principle of prostrateon, as represented by mineral salvants and furious purgatives, the latter has steadily and surely fallen into deserved contempt. The utterly ogalhet stimulation by which concoctors of depleting drenches hoped to give relief to their disgusting and dangerous compounds has only served to increase the demand for the wholesome stimulant, tonic and alterative which for twenty-five years triumphed over all opposition and is now the most popular medicine in the Western hemisphere.

The Lee Memorial Monument.

The latest news from the Lee Memorial Association is that Prof Edward V. Valentine, the sculptor has procured from Vermont a black of pure white marble, from which he is now fashioning a recumbent figures of Gen'l Lee, to be placed on the grand monument that is now being erected at his tomb at the Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va. The figure represents Gen Lee reposing in an easy position upon a couch, his head and shoulders slightly raised above the body his left arm outstretched by the side of his sword, his right arm laid across his breast. He were full Coefederate uniform including boots and guantlets, and a sight drapery covers nearly the whole form. The appearence is natural and graceful, indicating peaceful slumber rather than death.

This monument when surmounted with such a fine work of art, will be a lasting memorial to one of Virginia's noblest sons and partriots. The members of the Association are gentlemen well and favorably known by the entire community who will see that nothing is left undone that will add to the beauty and finish of this great work. We are advised by the Secretary, Mr. Charles A. Davidson of Lexington Va., that no sufficient funds have yet been subscribed to fully complete the monument. In order to further this object they have issued a life-size steel engraved portrait of Gen'l Lee, to be sold only by subscription through authorized agents; the proceeds of such sales to be applied toward the completion of the work They and we feel that this is an opportunity or all not only to procure a superb life like portrait of the great General at a very reasonable price, but also enables every person to aid in the erection of a lasting monument to his memory. Each subscriber will receive a certificate, signed by the Secretary and Chairman of the Lee Memorial Association.

We compend this valuable portriat to the public, and predict for it an immense sale. Some energetic person should secure the agency in this action to assist id the noble work. W. W. BOSTWICK & Co., Nos. 177 and 179 West Forth Street Cincinnati, O., have been oppointed General Managers of all Aencies in the United States. All communications addressed to the above firm for circulars, certificates and terms to agents will receive their immediate attention.

Best Organs for Easy Pamnints.

The new scheme of eas payments for Cabinet Organs offered by the well-known Mason & Hamlin Organ Co. has these advantages:

1. An organ may be obtained by a first payment of ten dollars or more.

2. If it dose not prove satisfactory or the party taking it gets tired of it, he may return it after six months, having paid nothing more than the rent of it.

3. If he concludes to purchase and pays for it in the course of a year, the whole cost to him is but five to ten per cent, more than if all cash had been paid.

Dealers say this will ruin the busines of organ selling as they cannot afford to compete with such terms. The Mason & Hamlin Co. know so well the quality of their organs and that scarcely any will be returned to them that they believe they can afford such terms. Circulars can be obtained with full particulars by writing to the Company for them to Boston, New York, or Chicago.

The eason of Intermittents.

All miasmatic complaints, in other words all disorders generated by unwholesome exhalations from the earth or water are prevalent at this season. In every section subject to the visitation of fever and ague or other forms of intermittent disease the causee which produce these maladies are now actively at work. This therefore is a period of the year when the inhabitants of such districts should prepare their systems to meet the unwholsome condition of the atmosphere by a course of tonic and alterative treatment, foremost among the invigorants, recommended by time and experience as a means of fortifying the systems against all endemic and epidemic maladies, stands Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Whoever, have traveled in the West or South knows full well the esteem in which this incomparable preventive and restorative is held throughout those regions. It is liberally a domestic staple in the swampy and mephitic localities which lie on the borders of many of our large rivers and in the neighborhood of our southern bayous and lagoons. Now is the time when the inhabitants of all malarious districts should put their systems and constitutions in good defensive trim by a course of this powerful vegetable antidote. By this means the feeblest resident of an unhealthy soil may escape the sickness which without the aid of this potent ally of nature will be apt to overtake the strongest. Chills and fever, billious remittents, constipation, rheumatism dyspepsia and many other complaints are frequently brought on by the caprices of temperature and alternations of dry cold and excessive moisture common in our climate at the commencement of spring. Let all who desire to avoid these distressing ailments take the Bitters as a safeguard.

If Alcoholic Stimulants are taken into the blood the heart works faster, and this unnatural speed wears out the vital machinery. All intoxicating nostrums advertised, as "tonics," "renovators," &c., produce this disastrous effect, and should be rejected. DR. WALKER'S VEGETABLE VINEGAR BITTERS—an invigorant without the curse of alcohol—is everywhere supplanting these poisons. 4w

Sarsaparillian Resolvent

THE GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER.

HAS WARNER'S MOST ASTONISHING CURES; SO QUICK, SO RAPID ARE THE CHANGES, THE BODY UNDERGOES, UNDER THE INFLUENCE OF THIS TRULY WONDERFUL MEDICINE, THAT

Every Day an Increase in Flesh and Weight is Seen and Felt.

Every drop of the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT communicates through the Blood, Sweat, Urine, and other Fluids and Juices of the system the vigor of life, for it repairs the wastes of the body with new and sound material. Scrofula, Syphilis, Consumption, Glandular disease, Ulcers in the throat, Mouth, Tumors, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworm, and other parts of the system, Sore Eyes, the various discharges from the Ears, and the worst forms of Skin diseases, Eruptions, Fever Sores, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Acne, Black Spots, Worms in the Flesh, Tumors, Cancers in the Womb, and all weakening and painful discharges, Night Sweats, Loss of Sperm and all waste of the life principle, are within the curative range of this wonder of Modern Chemistry, and a few days' use will prove to any person using it the fact of these forms of disease in its power to cure them.

In the patient, daily becoming reduced by the wastes and decomposition that is continually progressing, and food is arresting these wastes, and repairs the same with new material made from healthy blood—and this the SARSAPARILLIAN will and does secure—a cure is certain; for when once this remedy commences its work of purification, and progresses in diminishing the loss of waste, its repairs will be rapid, and every day the patient will feel himself growing better and stronger; the food digesting better appetite improving, and flesh and weight increasing.

Not only does the SARSAPARILLIAN RESOLVENT excels all known remedial agents in the cure of Chronic, Scrofulous, Constitutional, and Skin diseases; but it is the only positive cure for

Kidney & Bladder Complaints,

Urinary and Womb diseases, Gravel, Diabetes, Dropsy, Stoppage of Water, Incontinence of Urine, Bright's disease, Albuminuria, and in all cases where there are brick-dust deposits, or the water is thick, cloudy, mixed with substances like the white of an egg, or threads like white silk, or there is a morbid, dark, bilious appearance, and white bone-dust deposits, and when there is a pricking, burning sensation when passing water, and pain in the Small of the Back and along the Loins.

Tumor of 12 Years' Growth Cured by Raddway's Resolvent.

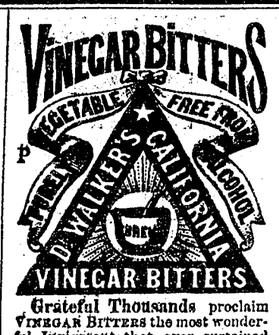
VINEGAR BITTERS



Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain long unwell, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and vital organs wasted beyond repair.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the region of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. One bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled Neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc. In these, as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Gout, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have no equal. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Type-setters, Gold-beaters and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS occasionally.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ringworms, Scald-head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that improvement is soon perceptible.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

OF MOBILE, ALA.

All who desire to make a safe and certain investment for the future, should not neglect the opportunity of doing so while in sufficiently good health to secure a life policy in a good and reliable company. Such a one is the Ala. Gold Life, conducted in the management by officers of acknowledged ability and integrity, well known to the people of Alabama. But that which gives the company its strongest claim to patronage and support is the fact that it is a Home Institution, using its earnings at home among its policy holders. This company is now doing a very large and rapidly increasing business all over the South.

I will be pleased to see my friends and show them the advantages the company offer for Life Insurance.
