The attention of those having sons to educate is called to the advertisement in the University of Alabama, to be found in another column. This institution under the direction of an able Faculty selected by the present efficient Board of Regents, has reached that high degree of excellence as an institution of learning, it enjoyed before the war. The President, DR. CARLOS G. SMITH, stands at the head of the educators of the South and hundreds of young men all over the country testify to his ability as a teacher. The cost of attending the University is as small as at any Institution of equal advantages in the South. Our young men should be educated in our own State, where they form associations and friendships of incalculable advantage to them in their future careers, in whatever business they engage.

The Agricultural and Mechanical College, located at Auburn, Ala. endowed by Congress and fostered by State legislation has an able energetic and industrious President and Faculty, who are using their utmost endeavors to carry out the intention of Congress in providing a fund "for the benefit of the industrial classes by furnishing five distinct courses. Surveying, Agriculture, Literature, Science, and Engineering.

An examination of the Catalogue will show the prominence given to Natural Science, and the practical elements associated with all departments of study. Botany, chemical physics and other departments of science will be taught with special reference to their relation to Agriculture and Horticulture. Instruction in Surveying embraces every variety of field work with actual use of instruments in leveling, dividing land and mapping.

There are two experimental farms connected with the College, one at Auburn, the other in the valley of the Tennessee, near Courtland. On these farms experiments in grasses, grains, textile and forage plants, vegetables, modes of culture, fertilizers, &c. are now in progress, designed for the instruction of students and the promotion of agricultural science. The analysis of soils, and fertilizers is practically taught in daily laboratory work to the students. The large majority of students pursue the course in agriculture and the mechanic arts, and not simply in literature. The light drill in military tactics each day does not interfere with study, while it improves the appearance and health of young men.

The expense does not average more than $250 for pay students and $210 for privileged students. This includes clothes, board and all academic expenses for the year. Indigent young men are not charged tuition, and two State Cadets are allowed from each county.

Few if any Institutions offer greater advantages to young men, in preparation for all the industrial pursuits, business and professions of life, and we are glad to learn that its advantages are being daily better understood, and that it is growing rapidly in public favor and patronage.

The principal feathers worn by the chiefs of the Winnebago nation of Illinois are tail-feathers, and those have been pretty effectually plucked by Mr. Jefferson Davis.

HOMESTEADS.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 24th '75. Hon. L. W. GRANT: I expect to be in Oxford on Friday evening and Saturday. I have been absent with my family, and just returned home yesterday, or I should have written you some days ago.

In case of adjoining farm homesteads, the party must prove continuous residence on his original farm and cultivation of the tract entered for adjoining farms.

As to the cost, it depends entirely how much land has been entered, where entered, and distance from Railroad. The cost, however, in any case will not exceed ten dollars, and will probably, in most cases, be between 5 and 10 dollars. This covers all expenses for all fees &c.

Very Respectfully, P. J. ANDERSON.

COUNTY LOCALS.

CROSS PLANS.—At a regular convention of the O. G. T. held in the town of Cross Plains Ala., on the 23rd day of August 1875, the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted to-wit:

Resolved 1st. That we have bowed down with grief and sorrow at this sad event, feeling that in her death a golden link has been severed from the chain that bound us together, and that this Lodge has been deprived of one of its most active and useful members and our society has lost one of its brightest ornaments.

Resolved 2nd. That our departed Sister has left us an example worthy of our emulation and in her happy triumphant death left the consoling assurance to her friends that the religion which she enjoyed in life, was a safe companion and sure comforter in the dark hour of death.

Resolved 3rd. That while we deeply mourn the loss of this dear and devoted member, we sustain in her death, we bow in humble submission to the will of our Heavenly Father knowing that our loss is her eternal gain.

Resolved 4th. That we tender to the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathies in this their great affliction; believing that the hope which our departed Sister's death has inspired in their hearts will all to cheer and console them all through life.

Resolved 5th. That we wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and that these resolutions be inserted in this their great affliction; believing that the hope which our departed Sister's death has inspired in their hearts will all to cheer and console them all through life.

An Ugly Aspect of Affairs.

We have received, through the kindness of Major Shelburn, a copy of an extra issued from the office of the Irwinton School, containing the following letter, which was brought to Irwinton on the 16th, by Mr. B. Hall. The letter was picked up near Williamson's store in Washington county, after one of the nightly drills of the negroes. Its genuineness is vouched for by Rev. Mr. Barker, of Irwinton:

Aug 6th, 1875. JAMES WALTERS: You and your company must start killing the whites on Aug. 23rd. Kill every one you can find. Tell Harrison Tucker to kill all the whites he can find, and go towards No. 11 station, and there will meet you Gen. Morris and his staff and Gen. Rivers and his staff.

You do as I tell you and Captain Tucker. This must be a secret. You tell neither Jack to kill every white man and get every gun he can. Make out to the white men that you are sorry they think we will hurt them, and if you know of any man that has got money him give it to your Treasurer, and send it.

Have all your companies ready. Kill with axes, hoes, pitchforks, and get gun powder and shot as you kill. So I close to depend on you.

CANDY HARRIS, Sr. By order of Gen. Morris and from Gen. Rivers.

After the letter was found the white people sent a spy to one of the negro meetings who, upon his return, confirmed all that was in the villainous document. The spy had no knowledge whatever of the existence of such a letter. A lady living in Jefferson county was warned by a negro man to seek a place of safety, as there was going to be a pretty soon. The lady took her children and got away. This is further evidence that the missile meant the worst kind of mischief.

A gentleman living in Jefferson county telegraphed to Macon last Saturday to ascertain if guns could be had for the use of the whites in defending themselves. Guns and ammunition were promptly sent down. A dispatch was also sent asking if they needed any men and they answered No. They thought they would be able to take care of themselves if they got the arms.

A widow lady named Letke living near Gold Ridge, Randolph county, Alabama, found a few days ago, on her farm a nugget of gold, weighing two and a half pounds, and worth about $600. This is the largest nugget we have ever heard of being found in Alabama. How is this for high? Oxford Tribune.

A NEGRO CONSPIRACY.

A Threatened Insurrection of Formidable Import.

A very formidable conspiracy was unearthed in the counties of Jefferson, Washington, Johnson and one or two other counties of this State last week among the negroes. Under the lead of three or four negroes the conspiracy has for its object the murder of all the whites who were to be murdered. The Atlanta Constitution says: The confessions which have been obtained thus far contain many interesting and startling facts, not the least of which is the fact that among the rewards to be repaid by the execution of the plot was to be a grant of land to each of the participants, and a guarantee of social equality.

Out of the one hundred and more prisoners now detained, it is thought that only about twenty-five will be tried as being the really guilty parties in inciting and undertaking to lead in the insurrection.

The plans to be pursued in exciting their designs, are fully proved to have included the murder of all the old and young women, the men and children, while all the handsome women were to be spared and reserved for base purposes, and the excruciating property captured by the movement were to be thrown in bulk, assessed and equally divided among the negro people reigning supreme over the conquered territory. Yet hellish as all this plot is now found to be, the measures taken for its suppression, and not a negro has been harmed. The people here have been cool, peaceful and law-abiding, but firm and determined in taking all necessary action. By this course they have effectually stamped out the instigation of passion, murder and rapine, and saved the state of Georgia from a fate and a reputation that might well have been deplored for many years to come. But happily the insurrection is ended without a conflict, bloodshed or loss of life, and quiet everywhere throughout the threatened territory.

Other arrests will be made among the ring-leaders, who are known to the officers, including the "Generals," Morris and Rivers, both of whom are fully implicated, but are still at large.

Special terms of the Superior Courts will be held in the counties, and the accused parties arraigned and specially tried.

The military are on duty at Sandersonville, guarding the prisoners, and are fully able to protect the lives and property of the citizens.

The Constitution's correspondent on the ground writes thus: "You may safely publish to the world that Radicalism, and the most distasteful phase of it, was at the bottom of this proposed foolish outrage upon the persons and property of this people, hoping that through its results they might obtain another opportunity to burn the shirts with which the Northern herd, and the falling prospects of their continuance in power. We have cause for congratulation that the villainous scheme was a miserable failure."

Special terms of the Superior Courts will be held in the counties, and the accused parties arraigned and specially tried.

A Very Rare Document.

EDS. ADVERTISER:—Below I hand you a circular sent through the mails to reliable Republicans throughout the State. As I do not belong to that class, I send you my copy, in publication—if you think it worth the space.

REORGANIZATION OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY OF ALABAMA.

At a consultation held in the city of Montgomery, to inquire into the causes resulting in the late defeat, the present condition, and the future prospects of the Republican Party of Alabama, an organization, having within itself the elements of final success, the following conclusions were reached:

That the defeat of the party in the late State election cannot be attributed to a want of votive element, but it must be considered as the legitimate result of divided councils, bad management, and a want of confidence in the party itself.

That at present the party is disorganized; it has neither unity of action or purpose, and that there is no reasonable or well-founded hope of its future success in any coming political contest, so long as some of its present leaders shall pre-termit its principles to serve their selfish purposes.

That the future success of the Republican party absolutely demands that it should "unload" itself of the political elements to whose account must be charged its recent defeat.

That there must be a thorough reorganization under the leadership of such Republicans as will inspire confidence, and who value party principle above their own personal advancement.

That to this end and purpose, we the undersigned Republicans of Alabama, advise and recommend the re-organization of the party, with a view of reconciling all conflicting interests and placing it once more upon the broad basis of peace, toleration of honest differences of opinion, and the restoration of fraternal feeling and harmony among the members of the party, and as a preliminary step, the Republicans of each county in the State of Alabama who favor this movement are requested to forward the name of one reliable Republican whom they shall select, to be placed upon the Republican Ex. Committee of Alabama, to Hon. Charles W. Buckley, Montgomery, Ala.

James O. Smith, John V. McDuffie, Joseph W. Burk, N. B. Cloud, Wm. H. Hunter, Robt. H. Knox, W. H. Back, Holland Thompson, Datus E. Cook, Hales Elsworth, Frederick Wolff, P. J. Smith, N. D. Staley, Robt. Barber, Patrick Robinson, Jacob Back.

LIABLE TO

[Vicksburg Herald.]

A prominent Republican politician whose local habitation is Vicksburg, and who bears the prefix of Judge, had a little score to settle with his wife the other day. He had been nursing his wrath to keep it warm, and when the servant appeared inside the door in the morning he accosted him with all the venality of manner of which he was capable.

"See here, Tiddy! did you tell—that I was a d—d Radical?" The darkey used awhile, and than, looking up, answered: "Well, I don't zactly 'member sayin' so Judge, but I see liable to."

The prisoners sent to Wetumpka yesterday on the steamer Peeries to serve their terms in the penitentiary, were seventeen in number, four of whom are white and the balance colored. Sheriff Parker himself had charge of the prisoners, and will in person deliver them to the warden of the penitentiary. Mobile Tribune.

A DISHONEST TREASURER GIRL.

[Boston Post.]

WASHINGTON, August 13.—An incident occurred at the Treasury Department today. One of the female counters, in that bureau yielded to the temptation to steal a twenty dollar greenback. Knowing that the deficit would be ascertained without fail by the end of the month, she should herself by reporting that she had discovered a deficit of that amount. At once the most rigorous examination was made, but in vain, to find who was responsible for the loss. The excitement that prevailed in the cash room when the $47,000 loss was announced was repeated on a small scale in Mr. Carter's bureau. Finally the woman who had stolen the bill arose from her seat and passed out of the room. In doing so the stolen bill slipped from the place where it was concealed about her and fell to the floor, leading to detection.

The confessed thief, a girl of the name of Carter, was a victim of poverty and destitution and pressing wants of a family dependent upon her for support that she was permitted to retain her situation upon promise not to do so again. Subsequently notice was served upon the employees of the bureau that a notice of this kind by any one would certainly meet with the severest punishment.

NORTH CAROLINA.—Both parties still claim a majority in the Constitutional Convention of this State, and it will certainly be known until the Convention meets which party has the ascendancy. The question will probably be determined without further dispute on the day of adjournment without any action if they have the majority—they take the ground that the Convention was called in an unconstitutional manner, and that consequently it can do nothing.

Leatherwood Heard From.

The Waco (Texas) Daily Examiner

request for aid in solving the mystery of LEATHERWOOD'S case says: We are credibly informed that Leatherwood now lives on the Bosque in this county. This is all we know in regard to the matter. It would seem only the part of justice for our man is the man they want before they hang the men in question. The mistake could not be remedied after the hanging.

If Leatherwood is on the Bosque he can be found. An item in our Alabama News column informs us that HAYCOCK OUNO, has returned to Waco to hunt him down.

Cutting Scrape in Alabama.

On Saturday last, at a place known as Milton Hollow, Cherokee county, Alabama, thirty-two miles from Rome by the usual road and twenty-two over the mountain, a serious cutting scrape took place at a picnic. It appears that a man named Redding was criticizing the picnic unavailing to another man named Cameron. Cameron replied that he had a plenty to eat—at the same time offering Redding a piece of bread he was eating from. This incensed Redding and he commenced cutting Cameron very severely, and the report says fatally.

A Negro Killed near Kingston.

We are informed that a negro was killed near Kingston on Saturday night near Mr. Roper's place. The negro and a son of Mr. Roper were walking along the road when a man on horseback rode up between the two and shot the negro. The man then took the white boy up behind him and carried him home. It is not known who the white man was. It seems to us that murder is the order of the day in this section. Cannot the laws be enforced and thus prevent these frequent murders that are disgracing this section of country?

GOATS, according to the bible, are more wicked than sheep; but they are smarter. These sheep-raisers of New Mexico employ goats as leaders to their herds of sheep, because they understand a person's voice so well and will come whenever they are called. The goats have to be trained, and the sheep will always follow them. This shows that the sheep know that hair covers more wisdom than wool, though the darkeys do not like to be told so.

At Blandon Springs, Chocta, on section day about 40 negroes registered in due form, & carried their registration certificates to the polls. Arriving there, all but one of them simply put in these certificates, without any ballot, thinking that was sufficient and went off satisfied that they had done their best against the convention.

HOPE '8 O'clock' HOPE. M EDWI GO L

"Behold I will stand before thee there upon the rock in Abraham's bow shall smite the rock and there shall come forth out of it that people may drink."—Ex.

Perhaps in no period of christian history from the days in which Christ astonished the multitude at the pool of Bethesda, has such an excitement, brought by the discovery of a fountain of mineral water which beyond all eludes the whole fraternity of the learned faculty in referring to original literature, every Oriental chronicler, and finding it impossible to accommodate the sick here, the proprietors propose to furnish the concentration medicine prepared by simply reducing the water by evaporation into a fine powder or mass, which possesses all the wonderful virtues of the water in a cheap and convenient form. The mass is a fine tonic, alterative and absorbent, and is especially useful to ladies suffering from irregularities and affections peculiar to their sex. It has been universally approved and endorsed by the Medical profession wherever introduced, both as a desideratum in their practice, and as a powerful remedy in the cure of Asthma, Coughs, Bronchitis, Catarrhs, Gout, Rheumatism, Gravel, Dropsy, Stricture, Hemorrhages, Kidney diseases, Ulcers, Loss of Appetite, Languor, Liver diseases, Ptery, Mental Depression, Nervous Debility, Neuralgia, Nocturnal Emissions, Night Sweats, Protrusion Uteri, Sexual weakness, Scrofula, Summer complaints, Venereal diseases, Worms, Whites, and all diseases which derive their origin from the Blood, Liver and Kidneys.

Dissolved in water it makes an excellent wash, gargle and injection, and incorporated with fresh bread, produces the most salutary case of Piles. The claims of this remedy cannot be over estimated in the cure of the diseases mentioned above. The analysis of the mass by Prof. Charles P. Chandler, Ph. D. of the College of Pharmacy, New York city, proves its perfect adaptation to every form of disease proceeding from the Stomach, the Liver, the Kidneys, and the blood.

ANALYSIS: Sulphuric Acid, Alumina, Oxide of Iron, Lime, Magnesia, Potassa, Soda, Carbonic Acid, Phosphoric Acid, Silica, Organic Matter.

The mass is harmless and may be used at will. Being fully analyzed by the popular judges existing against advertised remedies, we offer the mass under the following warrants, viz: 1st. That the medicine shall be what is claimed for it. 2nd. All packages sent by registered letters shall reach the purchaser in good condition and give satisfaction. 4th. That we hold ourselves responsible to return $500, if we violate any of these warranties.

Price—$2 postage paid by mail, or three packages for 25c. Six packages will be sent by Express for 29c, or it will be sent U. S. Mail with return charges added, if ordered in lots not less than one half dozen.
