A Card Party.

On Wednesday evening last a coterie was gathered under the hospitable roof of Mr. O. S. Hubbell in the enjoyment of a game of progressive euchre, given by Mrs. Hubbell, complimentary to her beautiful and accomplished guest, Miss Maggie Grether of St. Louis. Those in attendance were as follows: Misses Clark, Rowan, Forney, Crook, Burke Williams, Frank, Messames Gaston, and Ona Frank, Messrs Dean, Caldwell, I. Arnold, Montgomery, Forney, Stone, Burke, Pitner, Hurter, and Gaston, and of these, Mrs. Gaston and Mr. Burke received the first prizes while Miss Grether was awarded the second, all of which were both elegant and tasteful. Near the conclusion of the game, those present were regaled with most delicious refreshments, and although the pleasures were carried almost into the "wee sma' hours" yet it was the unobtrusive expression of every one that they had never met with a more pleasing and hospitable reception, nor had the hours ever passed more pleasantly by.

One Armed Practical Farmer.

Our old friend, Hon. J. H. McLendon, of Naflet, Ala., is a candidate for the appointment of Commissioner of Agriculture at the expiration of Capt. Kolb's term. Mr. McLendon is an experienced practical farmer, who makes his own living on his own farm. He practices what he preaches—improved methods; and he always takes the prize for the best individual display of home-raised farm products. He teaches the members of his family the practical methods of housekeeping and farming. His daughter is the best cook in Alabama.
If McLendon gets to be Commissioner and can induce every farmer in the State to do his duty, poverty and debt and mortgage will be no more forever in Alabama.—Jackson Alabamian.

To the Lady-Readers of Daily Hot Blast.

Gail Hamilton of Harper's Bazar fame once said: "My sisters if you find out anything good, real good, let all the sisters know of it." Well, there is something real good in your midst, my sisters, and perhaps you know of it.

It is the National Garment Cutter—one of the most perfect, most complete and satisfactory systems, for the cutting and making of every garment, that has yet found its way here.

Doubtless, you have already heard this, but if you do not avail yourself of it, you may be losing the opportunity of a life time; at least, something that will be of value to you while life lasts.

When first the agent called I "froze" him, as is the custom. Who can blame us? poor, humbugged women that we are. But I have an enterprising little friend, of broader views and more trusting nature; yet withal, business-like and bright as a silver dollar. She quietly requested the agent to explain the system and draft her a pattern. Then she carefully examined the outfit, the printed directions, etc., and the result was that she "took lessons"—and I wish you could see the lovely, stylish black silk dress—out and made entirely by the nimble but somewhat awkward fingers that never made a dress before.

Now! Side I have told this, my conscience acquits me of that agent-froezing affair. And really, my sisters, if you wish to be self-reliant and independent you should not fail to get the garment cutter and have that patient, kind little Mrs. Rumbly at 1316 Wilmer street, teach you to make beautiful dresses. Even for these hard times, it is a grand investment; and it gives me pleasure to say this, unsolicited by the garment cutting people, who truly deserve the thanks and honest praise of a grateful pupil.

The branch school at Jacksonville is meeting with popular favor as similar schools have done elsewhere. Don't fail to investigate the Garment Cutter for it must be seen to be fully appreciated. Mr. Thompson or Mr. Wiggins will take pleasure in explaining it to any one wishing to investigate. We also want 100 gentlemen and 100 ladies (good responsible parties to handle the cutter in this and adjoining states. Call on or address

Pigeon Shooting Match.

Thursday evening a team from the Jacksonville Gun Club had a match shoot at Blue rock Pigeons with a plucked team from the town, with the following result:

Gun Club 31 out of a possible 100
Town Team 52 out of a possible 100
The rules governing the shoot were as follows:

1. The shoot shall begin promptly at 4 o'clock.

2. The Gun Club shall adhere to the regular rules of the club.

3. The Town team shall have the following special privileges:

1 They shall stand at what distance they shall elect from the trap.

2 They may lie down, stand up, take rest, or shoot off hand as they choose.

3 They shall elect at what angle the birds shall be thrown from the trap; provided that the Gun club shall shoot that round at the same angle. They may change the angle as often as they elect; but always the Gun club shall shoot that particular round at the same angle, and the trap shall not be changed until the next round.

Restrictions on the town team.

1 They shall not shoot the bird in the trap.

2 They shall not load their guns until they take the stand.

3 The gun shall not be put to the shoulder before the word "pull" is given by the ground manager-this to protect the trap loaders.

4 10 single birds shall be shot at by each man of the Gun club, and twenty birds shall be shot at by each man of the town team.

W. T. ALLEN, Manager

It will be seen that the Gun club only shot 5 men about 20, and that they shot at 15 yards distance from the trap. The Gun club did the best shooting it has ever done and has every cause to feel proud of its shooting. Lack of space prevents a more detailed account.

THE DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.

Appoints a Committee to Issue an Address.

Montgomery, July 6.—The meeting of the democratic state executive committee held in this city, to-day was well attended, and unusual interest was manifested in its proceedings.

The proceedings were characterized by firmness and conservatism and a patriotic desire to promote harmony in the party and to do nothing that would create discord.

One or two speeches were made which were ill-timed and out of place; but on the whole the result of the meeting is calculated to do no harm and, perhaps, some good. The action was a compromise, and seemed to be perfectly satisfactory to all the members.

The following members met in the law offices of Messrs. Tonkins & Troy at noon today:

G. B. Clarke, Mobile; J. D. Roquemore, Montgomery; D. R. Burgess, Mobile; John H. Minge, Faunessdale; Isaac Grant, Grove Hill; D. D. Hall, Tensas; R. E. Steiner, Greenville; T. L. Fraser, Auburn; B. M. Stevens, Elba; A. M. Tustall, Greensboro; Shirley Bragg, Lowndesboro; J. J. Altman, Birmingham; W. D. Windham, Pikeburg, and J. R. McQueen, of Greene.

The chairman explained the object of the meeting was to discuss the advisability of putting speakers in the field to discuss the issues of the approaching campaign, out of which grew a warm and heated debate.

Mr. Steiner thought the question was, whether we should give up and be swallowed up by the rains in our own hands. He favored, open, bold and free discussion of the issues of the day by speakers appointed by the committee.

Mr. Grant doubted the proposed policy and thought it would prove dangerous and hurtful.

Two other members followed Mr. Grant in his opposition to the suggestion of Mr. Steiner, when Mr. Clarke arose and made a speech at length, urging the committee to take action and put speakers in the field. He thought the situation not only serious, but grave.

Mr. Altman opposed action by the committee. He had no objection to candidates going into the field on their individual responsibility, with no credentials from the committee. When candidates are nominated by the party, then it was the duty of the committee to take charge of their interests and see that they were elected.

If speaking were desirable it could best be had through the club system.

Mr. McQueen spoke at length against any action at this time by the committee, as he believed such discussion would be hurtful and dangerous to the party and would needlessly antagonize the farmers, who were good democrats.

Mr. Fraser wanted discussion. He thought the third party was showing its head in Alabama, that the farmers were being misled and they ought to be instructed in good old democratic doctrine.

Mr. Roquemore made a strong speech opposing the committee taking any part between good democrats for office, and made a strong appeal in behalf of the farmers and defending the attack upon their democracy.

A telegram was read from H. D. Clayton, in which he said that he thought discussion at this time would be unwise and unnecessary.

John B. Knox of Anniston also telegraphed, advising against the committee putting speakers in the field.

Chairman Tonkins said that he regarded the situation very serious, but it was one in which the committee could not act hastily. He doubted whether it would be advisable for the committee to take official action in the premises now, but preferred for the committee to act on its own judgment. He had called them together for that purpose.

Messrs. Thompson, Roquemore and Clarke were appointed a committee to issue an address to the democracy of Alabama requesting the formation of democratic clubs, and that these clubs as they see proper invite speakers to discuss the questions of interest to the party in this state.

The committee then adjourned sine die.

Bropped Dead.

BIRMINGHAM, July 4.—David D. Smith, son of Ex-Governor Smith, and one of the most prominent young lawyers in Birmingham, dropped dead at the Alabama Club rooms late this evening of apoplexy, while conversing with a friend. He was a candidate for the New United States Judgeship.

Constipation, blood-poison, fever! Doctors' bills and funeral expenses cost about two hundred dollars: De Witt's Little Early Risers cost a quarter. Take your choice. Sold by Dr. J. M. Crook.

The Republican.

SATURDAY, JULY 18, 1891.

With the tariff to the front and the issues of 1890 as the battle cry there is no reason why the great victory of last year should not be duplicated in November of next year.—Montgomery Advertiser.

The Counties Journal is of the opinion that the careless New York girl who has swallowed a 50-cent piece in these days of money stringency should be severely reprimanded by the Treasury Department.

CONGRESSMAN ENLOS, of Tennessee addressed his constituents at Jackson in that State, on July 4. His utterance against the sub-treasury scheme were plain and to the point. He said he regarded the measure as "clearly unconstitutional and absolutely impracticable, and the discussion of it as irrelevant." Mr. Enloe says "the first and most important step toward financial relief is by the adoption of a just system of taxation."—Montgomery Advertiser.

A great many in the Fourth congressional district favor Hon. L. W. Grant, editor of the Jacksonville Republican, for congress. Just now we need such men as Editor Grant to lead the democratic hosts. If we ever win another presidential race we must do it by carrying northern states for the democracy, and if we will put our best men forward as leaders, men who are true, polished, conservative and firm, we can win them over to the cause of democracy.—Gadsden Times-News.

Brother Grant, of the Jacksonville Republican, is in New York spending a few weeks. In his usual keen, observing mood, he is writing some interesting letters to his paper. We read from a recent letter that he is daily praying to feel more humble. We have never thought Brother Grant to be a proud man, but if he were, we think that the surroundings in New York would be sufficient to make an Alabama editor feel exceedingly humble, without asking the Lord to help him.—Tallahassee Mountain Home.

Texas Siftings: "Well, Mr. Slickers," said the doctor to a patient he had not seen the day before, how are you getting along? "Nearly starving to death." "Why, didn't you have oysters?" "No, I couldn't get them the way you said, and I was afraid it would be dangerous to eat them." "I told you you could eat stewed oysters with impunity." "That's just it. I could get the stewed oysters easy enough; but I sent to all the restaurants in the neighborhood for impunity, and the blamed fools said they never had such a thing on the bill of fare."

Democrats are being aroused and the principles of Jeffersonian-Democracy are beginning to assert themselves. The people are Democratic at heart because that party has always favored their interest and been in touch and sympathy with promotion of their every welfare and lasting happiness. Just so soon as they are made to understand that they are drifting away from the tried and beaten paths will they begin to turn back and soon return to the faith of the fathers, ever afterwards remaining more staunch and true to a party they know to be their only safeguard and only guarantee of liberty.—Montgomery Advertiser.

An enterprising farmer of Madison County, Tennessee, has been making an experiment with the Sub-Treasury plan on his own account and without Government interference. On the 23d of December last he hauled fifty five bales of cotton to Jackson to sell but the prices were too low to suit him and he decided to store it. After keeping it in the warehouse for over five months he sold it. His losses were estimated as follows: Insurance $59.40. Difference in price $275. Interest on the money advanced $25 Total $420. This particular farmer has made a practical test of the Sub-Treasury plan which should not commend it to the members of the Alliance who insist upon declaring that they are in favor of special privileges to none and equal rights to all.—Anniston Hot Blast.

A Fan of Many Towns.

Mobile Register.

Mr. M. P. Levy, of Mobile lives in more cities at the same time than any other man in the United States. Not very long ago Mr. Levy told The Register that he had one of the thirteen silver half-dollars pieces which were struck by the confederate government at New Orleans. The Register made mention of the fact. An interior paper copied the item without giving this paper credit and without changing the wording, so Mr. Levy became a citizen of "this city," namely Birmingham. Later he was a citizen of Richmond, Va., then of Columbus, O., then of Chicago, later of Louisville, and now, finally, he is said to reside in Melville, Ark., where his sister half-brother is rightly regarded as one of the honored curiosities of the place.

SENATOR GEORGE WINS.

Barksdale's Stronghold Goes for George and Walthall Both.

JACKSON, Miss., July 11.—The United States senatorial campaign which, up to date, has been the hottest contested one ever occurring in this State, now looks like it is virtually settled and that George and Walthall will be their own successors.

It seems the people are determined to re-elect Walthall notwithstanding his letter of some months since saying that he did not want another term. He has the same number of votes that George has with the exception, possibly, of one county which held its primary when it was thought Walthall would not be voted for and which endorsed one of its home candidates.

Following on the heels of the other disasters to Maj. Barksdale's success, Yazoo county to-day endorsed George and Walthall. This county was conceded to Barksdale and he has always carried it. He has great personal popularity in the county, but his friends could not stem the tide of opposition to the sub-treasury plan, which he advocated. It is generally regarded here that the vote in Yazoo county yesterday, settles the contest, and that it means George and Walthall will continue to represent Mississippi in the United States Senate, unless Walthall should write another letter saying he would refuse the position if voluntarily tendered.

Clark Lewis, the other foremost advocate for the sub-treasury scheme and who is Barksdale's running mate, is polling a small strength.

In counties that have taken final action the result to date stands, George, thirty-nine; Barksdale, seven. Walthall has about the same vote as George, while Clark Lewis has only four instructed votes.

Speaking of the result in Yazoo county today the Clarion-Ledger, a strong supporter of Barksdale, says: "The result in Yazoo is a great surprise to the friends of Major Barksdale. The county was confidently claimed for him, and his failure to carry it can only be charged to the weakness of the sub-treasury. Placed on an equal platform he could have beaten any man in Yazoo county outside of his own citizenship."

CLASS OF 1891.

DEAR CLASS:—I take great pleasure in writing this, my first letter, to you. I would have written sooner but since school was out I have been very much like a bird that has just escaped from a cage and I have not had time to think of anything in particular but many things in general. My vacation so far has been pleasant in every respect, and I have been enjoying it to its fullest extent. Since town, Ga., Esom Hill, Ga., Tecumseh, Ala., Palestine, Ala., Borden Springs, Ala., Oak Level, Ala., Edwinstown, Ala., Rock Run, Ala., Spring Garden, Ala., and Piedmont, Ala., and I was thinking of visiting White Plains via Jacksonville at an early date.

I hear that many of the class will be commencing teaching soon and I wish here to express my most sincere and earnest wishes for their success.

I was very much gratified to learn that the same faculty have been chosen to serve another term. It will be hard for me to stay away in September when school takes up again. Most pleasant indeed was my school life at the dear old college, and very near and dear are all the teachers and the "Class of '91."

The little city of Piedmont is as calm and quiet as a lamb, and on the streets are sometimes heard people talking about "hard times," the sub-treasury scheme, the next presidential election and many other things that a school boy knows but little about. Many plans have been proposed by these people to upset the present sub-treasury scheme and at the same time bring relief to the farmer and establish prosperity, peace and plenty over all this smiling land of ours. But as yet none of these plans have proved sufficient to stand the test of investigation. All these things seem very strange to me, but I am very diligently reading the Post and the Inquirer and hope soon to be better "Post-ed," and yet in those columns I find some things that are not in strict harmony with geology, moral philosophy, nor astronomy, and I suppose shall will be the case till the Class of '91 begins to wield the mighty scepter, and then the world will move on in all her glory and splendor till she reaches the high ideal that we learned to aspire to in days of yore.

Hoping to hear from you all in due time, I remain,

Sincerely yours,

REGDA.

In a nutshell.

The Clarksville, Tenn., Tobacco Leaf, in speaking of the sub-treasury scheme, sounds this keynote of warning, which should have the thoughtful consideration of every lover of his country and section:

"The Southern farmers can now take their choice. Democracy, or the sub-treasury and the Force bill, or rather sow to the sub-treasury delusion and reap the Force bill. There is no question about it, a division in the South will ensure the re-election of Harrison, and the loss of a Democratic Congress, and, certain as we live, the Reed-Harrison dynasty will never lose another opportunity to pass the Force bill, and then farewell to freedom."

Will Make Sugar From Beets.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 12.—C. E. Wood, of Chicago, and B. E. Noble, of St. Louis, brother of Secretary Noble, are now in Pomona waiting for the starting up of a new beet sugar factory at Chino, near there, to determine whether they will start a sugar factory in the valley. Wood says he represents a Chicago syndicate with seven millions capital, and that the money will be ready for use as soon as he decides that the sugar beet in California can do what is claimed for it. If the Chino beet sugar factory, which starts up on the 1st of next month, demonstrates that sugar can be made with profit, then he will order machinery worth $2,000,000 and the factory will be ready for work next year. It is learned from private sources that sugar beets on the Chino ranch are not developing saccharine as well as expected. The ground is too rich and the beets have made too heavy growth. Experts think it would be better to try the beets on old wheat land rather than on virgin soil.

ASSAULT IN CLEBURNE.

One Editor Assaulted by the son of Another—Stick and Pistols.

HEFLIN, July 11.—About 10 o'clock this morning John W. Hunnicutt attempted to assassinate W. A. Porter, editor of the Cleburne New Era, on the streets of Hefflin. Last week Hunnicutt's father made a bitter and unprovoked attack on Editor Porter through the columns of the Cleburne, and this week the New Era made Hunnicutt's father, and he armed himself with a large hickory stick and a pistol and took a seat at Callahan's bar room door. Editor Porter was standing at the store door of Mr. W. G. Milligan, and J. W. Tumlin asked him to go to the New Era office with him on some business. Not knowing that Hunnicutt was sitting there he approached him until he came near enough for Hunnicutt to strike him, when the latter rose up and dealt Porter three blows, two over the head and one on the left arm, then drew his pistol and attempted to shoot. As he struck the first blow with the stick he said, "I have a settlement to make with you."

To save himself from being brutally murdered, and being unarmored in any manner, Porter took refuge in the store of W. G. Milligan. There were fifteen or twenty persons who saw the difficulty. It was brutally cowardly on the part of Hunnicutt, who is a young man, while Editor Porter is about fifty years old.

Armies of Grasshoppers.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 13.—Startling reports from Eastern Colorado and Western Kansas about the reported grasshopper invasion were received here yesterday. The grasshoppers cover an area of 400 square miles where the Santa Fe road crosses the Colorado line. They are young and not able to fly, but they are hopping eastward at the rate of two miles per day, and much damage is anticipated in the region infested by the hoppers. Fields of corn and wheat have been swept clean.

Cutting Fences in the Nation.

GAINESVILLE, TEX., July 12.—Indian Agent Bennett and the Chickasaw militia have arrested and placed in camp over fifty families of whites, charged with being intruders, who will be put across Red River into Texas, with orders not to return to the Indian territory again under heavy penalties. A cattle tax of $1 per head is being collected by the Indian militia from the whites, and the wire fences around big pasture are being cut. There is great alarm among the whites.

To Go to Mississippi.

Rev. J. K. Spence, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Weavers, who is well and favorably known all through this section, will soon leave to take charge of a church at Holly Springs, Miss. The North Alabama Presbytery will meet in call session at Birmingham, on the morning of the 24th, to transfer him from this Presbytery to the North Mississippi Presbytery. Mr. Spence is an able minister, an indefatigable worker, and will be greatly missed in this section.—Anniston Hot Blast.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. M. A. Parker was born, raised and died in this county, was 49 years old and for nearly 30 years lived a true Christian.

We, the Baptist church at Okatchie, feel that we have lost one of our most faithful members. The seat that sister Parker filled is like many others, is vacant and will be filled no more by her. How sorrowful it is to see so many vacant places that have been filled by such faithful Christians, but there seems to be written on the wings of time these words: "We are passing away." The prayers that mother Parker prayed will be heard no more. The advice she gave her children will be given no more, and she is no longer at the old mansion to counsel with her husband. But husband and children we ask you to think of these words. She is in the land of rest waiting and watching for you. Let us think of the sister who passed away ask ourselves the question: Are we prepared to meet the Savior in peace as the sister did? Brethren, even the earth with all its beauties must fade and the time will come when we too must, as the sister did, lay our weary frames on the bed of affliction and say "The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away and blessed be the name of the Lord."

How often, oh how often, has the voice of the deceased sister been heard ringing out in praise to God while the ministers were pointing sinners to the lamb of God.

The last words of the sister were a positive evidence of her home in heaven. She called her husband and children to her bed and made known to them in the most composed manner that she was crossing the river of Jordan, and asked them in a most prayerful tone to be prepared to meet her in heaven.

One Hundred More Workers Wanted.

Most persons when about to engage in any particular line of business will very naturally inquire as to whether or not it is legitimate and honest, light or heavy work and whether or not it will yield good profits.

The National Garment Cutter Company are wanting hundreds of agents to go in various parts of the United States to introduce their work. They are offering rare inducements to those who have energy and pluck. Many persons are making large sums of money out of this work and the field is getting better every day.

Under no circumstances, the first query it must be in connection with practical observation to satisfy any one that the business is legitimate and honest. The large number of people who daily investigate the workings of this system proves it to be a lawful business; else, if otherwise, it would have long since been detected and set aside.

And to settle the question of honesty we need only to take note of the large number of citizens who are engaged in buying, selling and using this system, it being as universal in its use where ever thoroughly and properly introduced as the sewing machine. This alone proves most conclusively that it is an honest calling, and that those who are engaged in the sale of it are honest and are selling honest goods.

The nature of the work, aside from any other testimony, shows it to be light and pleasant, but in order to be successful must be pursued as any other business—intelligently, industriously and perseveringly. As the farmer, merchant or mechanic, in order to be successful, must each follow out these lines, so in this business.

The only other point now for the agent to be satisfied of is whether or not the business will pay. As to this, hear what our agents at different times and places have said. One says:

"I will make my report in the interest of the National Garment Cutter company. Last Thursday sold three Cutters, Friday three, and Saturday I canvassed only in the forenoon and sold one Cutter, instructed in the afternoon and sold one Cutter after supper. Today I have sold three more, making eleven Cutters since last Thursday morning. My profits equal twice as much in four days as I was getting a month when I commenced this work. I regard it by far the best business I was ever engaged in, and have never been so well satisfied."

Another writes: "I have sold 27 Cutters in ten days. Have had years of experience in traveling business, but have never met anything equal to the National Garment Cutter."

Another reports: "I feel much pleased with the work on the start for it brought me in a week's wages before I had fairly closed the bargain."

Another: "I canvassed one day and my orders net me $21. Pretty good for a man who never canvassed for anything before."

Another took four orders the first day.

These are samples of hundreds of letters received and that are still coming in from day to day. For further information apply to

Of course you have heard of Eros' BOOK STORE

but have you called at Eros' store? There are no cramped notions or stocks at Eros'. It's the store of liberal ideas in trading. It's the Book and Stationery Store in the full sense of the word, and of which any city would be proud of. New books almost as soon as the ink is dry. All the standard Periodicals and Weekly papers, school books and supplies which have to sell on their merit and low prices. Fine correspondence paper at lower prices than you pay for common stuff. If you can't come yourself, a letter tells nearly what you want will command the best attention and the goods will cost the same as if personally bought.

LAW STATIONERY,
Architect's and Engineer's materials. You can confidently call or write for anything in the above line. Whatever goods ought to be in a first-class Book and Stationery store are here, and the prices are right.

The medical board of the province of Hanover has prohibited the use of the Koch lymph in hospitals under their jurisdiction. The efficiency of the lymph in private practice in many cases is not questioned by the board, but they do regard it as fitted for miscellaneous hospital administration.

Mr. Gladstone has written a letter in support of Mr. Brand, who is a candidate for Wisbech, and took occasion to remark: "My physicians will restrain me for some months to come from the public use of my voice. I hope the election will be held before my voice is restored to me. I will endeavor to shake off the incubus of the Irish question."

WHILE SEINING

To the Tennessee River Five Men Were Drowned.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 20.—While seining in the Tennessee river, near Murray, Edward Brown, Walker Strader, John Meader, Dick Eaves and John T. Brane were drowned. The party numbered eight.

They tied one end of the seine to the bank, and stretched the netting nearly straight into the river. Stationed at intervals near the outer end the eight men, with only shoes, hats and coats, swam with the poles toward the shore. Not one of them was well acquainted with the river, and they swam into the swift, cold current. Suddenly one was seized with cramps. A panic followed. The seine was dragged in, and Brown, Brown and Strader became entangled in it. Meader and Eaves were swept under by the current, while the other three floated in sight. All the men drowned were well known citizens near Murray. Eaves and Meader have not been found.

A DEPENDENT MOTHER

Shoots Herself and Her Three Little Children with a Shotgun.

NASHVILLE, July 20.—Tom Lockridge, a prosperous young farmer living near Spring Hill, made a horrible discovery when he returned from church, finding his wife and three little children lying side by side, each with a ghastly hole torn in the breast by a shotgun.

Mrs. Lockridge had written a long letter, bidding her husband farewell, assuring him health as the cause for her crime. She had then pulled the clothing of each child up over its shoulders and discharged the shotgun against its breast.

The three children were aged 4 years, 3 years, and 4 months. Mrs. Lockridge was a sister of J. J. Obit, of this city, and was thirty years old.

The Source of Salt Lake Found.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 20.—Engineer Swain of the Southern Pacific had returned here, and reports that about twenty miles south and east of Flowing Wells, his party came to the stream which supplies the desert lake at Salt Lake, which flows at this point north and south. The river was found to be all the way from 200 feet to several miles wide and averaged about two feet in depth. The current was rather slow, though considerable water was flowing through the channel. The party was not able to cross the river, and the extent of the lower or Indian Wells basin was not ascertained, but it was thought to be larger than that at Salt Lake. The lower lake is connected by Hardy's Colorado with the Gulf, and the water flows with the tide. Said does not think it possible to repair the breaks in the canyon near the mouth of the river. The view of the flood, and considering the road track in no danger. He thinks the stream from the Colorado is a permanent one, and there is a good deal of water in the lower lake. The water will be rendered valuable by the availability of water for irrigation.

McKinley's Campaign Plan.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., July 20.—In an interview here, Major McKinley, Republican candidate for governor of Ohio, said that he was more than satisfied with the result of the Cleveland campaign, on account of the fractional feeling against the party. He said the weakest candidate that could have been selected. Mr. McKinley said that he had received information from Mr. Hanna that led him to believe that the president would not be re-elected, and he did not expect his aid in his canvass. He will open his campaign about the middle of August in southern Ohio, and proposes to average a speech a day till the general election. He does not believe that the third party will cut much of a figure in the fight, and thinks the votes will be drawn as largely from the Democrats as the Republicans.

Grief Out in the Corn.

PATTERSON, July 20.—For ten days past, Mary, a young daughter of John DeRyter, has been suffering from scarlet fever. The doctor gave the child up, and all present believed she had died. The body was removed to the cellar and laid under a board, where a quantity of ice was placed. Undertaker Pronounet was called and began to prepare the child for burial. He was placing the body in the coffin when the child cried out, and the board was removed, covered that the child was not dead, but had only been in a trance. He hurried upstairs with the child in his arms and gave her to her mother, who was overcome with joy. A physician was hastily summoned, and at last accounts the child was in a fair way to recover.

Families Without Servants.

WASHINGTON, July 20.—A letter to the bureau of the American Republic says: Since the emancipation of slaves in Brazil, the domestic service as well as agricultural labor in the republic has been greatly demoralized, and many families find themselves without servants, the negroes—former slaves—refusing to work for low wages. The city council of Rio Janeiro attempted to regulate the domestic service by an ordinance which prohibited a servant from leaving a household in thirty days, but the measure has been disapproved by the minister of the interior.

Quay to Come Down.

PROSPECTS OF THE HARVEST.

Summarized Report of the Harvests of the Entire Country.

LOXSDON, July 20.—The Times summarizes the harvest prospects of the world as follows:

In Russia a grave deficit, the peasant starving and small hope of relief. In India serious anxiety of a famine prevails over a considerable portion. There is a drought in Bengal, and more rain is urgent.

Bombay alone promises a good harvest. The American harvest is good in quality and amount, but with the failure of the Indian and Russian supplies it is of the utmost importance that the English crop should be a bumper.

The prospect for wheat is good. In the chief wheat counties the crop is above the average, and other countries up to the average. The harvest will be late and prices high.

There is therefore a good outlook for the English farmer to break the long perils of disastrous years.

FREE FROM INJURY.

A Baby Picked Up Laughing After a Fall from a Third Story.

CHICAGO, July 20.—Two-year-old Elsie Diettie dropped out of a third-story window while at play, and Alderman Haines, who was passing, rushed forward to pick up her mangled corpse from the flagstones. To his amazement the child, seated upon the smashed remains of a window screen on the pavement, was crying with the force of her fall. A physician was called, and after examination, pronounced the child wholly free from injury.

The Ladies of Georgia on Whisky.

SOCIAL CIRCLE, July 20.—The following petition has been presented to the people of Social Circle and community by a committee of ladies, who report a wonderful interest manifested by all classes of people, both male and female:

"We, your petitioners, in view of the great whisky traffic cause in Georgia, and its rapid increase and tendency to ward vice and financial bankruptcy, do most earnestly petition and pray your honorable body to pass some measure of relief, either in a general law, or at least suppress the barroom traffic throughout the state, or some other law that will most effectively suppress this great evil that is more potent for evil than all other evils now cursing the nation."

The ladies have "taken the stump," so to speak, and say they will win the fight.

A Fight at a Barbecue.

LITTLE ROCK, July 20.—Particulars of a bloody encounter in the Creek nation has been received here. Partisans of Chief Pipechee and Wesley Smith, candidate for principal chief, came together at a barbecue near Fisher. While Smith was making a speech the followers of his opponent precipitated a fight. Guns, pistols and knives were used with terrible consequences, and four persons were fatally wounded. The opposing candidates, with united efforts, pacified the different factions, preventing further trouble.

He Was About to Marry.

GLASTON, July 20.—While Albert Klatt, of Houston, a German cabinet maker, was about to marry Miss Annie Lawrence, of this city, a warrant was served upon him by Detective James Cahill, and he was placed in jail on the charge of theft. Marshal Windom, of Houston, arrived in the city and carried away the would-be bridegroom, much to the surprise of the pastor, who held his marriage fee and license, and to the disgust of the blushing bride. Klatt did not deny the charge made against him.

Dropped Dead While Plowing.

WINTON, N. C., July 18.—R. W. Calvert, chairman of the county commissioners of Wilkes, dropped dead while plowing in his field. He was a prominent citizen and his demise is greatly deplored.

"SHE'S A SCRAPPER!"

A Negro Woman Knocks Out Four Others and a Man.

MILLEDGEVILLE, Ga., July 18.—A colored excursion from Milledgeville, Easton and other points, brought about 3,000 negroes to this city, and this number was largely augmented by the crowds from the country. A fight at the dinner table, at Powell park, in which a negro woman whipped out a half dozen other women and a man, was the sensation of the day.

Four women became jealous of the attention shown this one by some of the elon gallants, and attempted to exterminate her, when a general fight ensued. Four women and a man on one side and she alone against them, having fought fist and skull like a tiger, she at last shashed out a knife and carved up each of her opponents. After knocking them down, stabbing and stamping them, she mounted a dummy and came to the city. Sentiment was great in her favor. No arrests were made. A number of other fights were reported, but no other serious results.

A STORY OF WANT.

A Mother's Horrible Doings in the Great North Woods.

PINE CITY, Minn., July 18.—A fishing party from this city has just returned from the great pine forests of Snake river, and brings with it a wild woman and her 16-year-old daughter.

The daughter tells a story of terrible suffering and privation. She says that the husband and father of the family was eaten by wolves while in an intoxicated condition, last March. Since that time they have had no food in their humble cabin.

The three younger children died of starvation, and were cooked and eaten, one by one, by the mother and eldest daughter. The mother's mind finally gave way, and she is now a raving maniac.

BOLD CATTLE THIEVES

Doing a Wholesale Business All Over Wyoming.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., July 18.—There is more cattle stealing going on all over the state at this time than for years. In but one county can a rustler be convicted, and they have grown very bold. In some localities there is quite open. Bunches of stock are driven to Montana, Utah and Nebraska, and stolen beef is marketed in nearly every town. The future of the industry is threatened. Several stockmen will leave the state. In Cook county one thief has been lynched, and hanging is threatened in Cheyenne county. One man followed a bunch of stolen horses 320 miles, and is certain that the animals were rail roaded by a line of thieves. He recovered eleven head, finding them all along the range. Another man, after his property was advised to turn back or get killed.

The Storm at West Superior.

DULUTH, July 18.—At West Superior five men in all were killed by the falling of the new hotel. Four men were severely injured, of whom one will die. Half a dozen more were badly hurt. Assistant Chief Kellogg of the fire department, had his leg broken. Twenty-five people had sought refuge in the building from the storm. So thick was the debris that it was three hours before the last body was reached. The new store building of William Mosher, on Ohio avenue, was blown down, and its occupants escaped with their lives. A building on the corner of Snodgrass and Eighteenth streets and two buildings on Lockwood street were also demolished. At West Duluth several small buildings were unroofed.

Hot and Cold Air Company.

KANSAS CITY, July 18.—Several of the richest men in Kansas City have organized for the purpose of supplying cold air throughout the city through conduits. At a meeting of the common council, a company was granted a franchise to build mains and works to carry out the proposed enterprise, the first of its kind ever attempted in this country. The projectors of the scheme are confident of its success, and will sell fresh air to any party and remove impure atmosphere at a very low cost per square foot. The work of laying mains will begin at once, and, except probably, by next summer the company will be ready to supply fresh air in cool blasts. In the winter hot air will be sent through the pipes.

Always Plenty of Suckers.

SALEM, Ills., July 18.—While Sell's circus was here, a sharper outside the canvass deceived a number of farmers out of considerable cash with the old "shell" game. Several farmers lost from $5 to $50; one $30, one $45, and still another $100. The sharper must have made $150 to $200. One of the heaviest losers was a well-to-do farmer and a prominent church member, and another was a county supervisor from a rural township. The same game has been played here many times in the past few years, and the gamblers always find plenty of suckers.

Washington Two Chilly.

NEW YORK, July 18.—The Herald's Washington special says that it is reported that Senators Mont and Vassar, the representatives of the congressional party in Washington, have concluded that the official and social atmosphere of this city is too chilly for them and that they will seek recognition elsewhere.

He Hypnotized Her.

A CHALLENGE ISSUED

And Accepted for a War of Words on the Substratum.

CHARLESTON, S. C., July 18.—Senator Butler has received a challenge from President Stokes, of the state Alliance of South Carolina, to meet him at Prosperity, July 29, the day of the Alliance picnic at that place, and enter into a joint discussion of the substratum bill. The challenge has been accepted.

Senator Butler in generally known as strong in his opposition to the measure, but says that it is proper that the bill should be discussed freely and fully before the people, and that he is ready to meet any of its advocates in debate upon the subject.

It is expected that the discussion will be a very lively one. It may mean that the president of the Alliance is to oppose Senator Butler for re-election. Everybody in the Alliance circles and out is on the qui vive to see what will be the outcome of the promised joint debate between Governor Ben Tillman and Alliance Lecturer Ben Terrell on the substratum bill.

Terrell challenged Tillman to the discussion some weeks ago, and the governor promptly accepted. Up to a few days ago it was expected that the debate would take place in public during the meeting of the State Alliance, which convenes at Spartanburg on the 22d inst., but President Stokes recently gave forth a declaration that the debate must take place in secret Alliance sessions.

The question now is, will Tillman consent to be choked off in this way? A good many believe that he will not. At any rate, there will be a big crowd at the Spartanburg meeting, and some lively times are expected.

LIGHTNING'S DEADLY FLASH

Strikes Three Persons, Killing One and Others Will Die.

WINSTON, N. C., July 18.—Neal Sample, a promising young man of Hopeville, this state, Edmund Anderson, a colored man aged 80, and a colored boy were struck by lightning.

Anderson was killed instantly. Mr. Sample and the boy are still living, but are expected to die at almost any moment.

They were running from the barn to the house to seek shelter from the coming storm when stricken. Mr. Sample is one of the most prominent citizens of Hopeville.

A Woman Wanted to Kill Him.

ASBURY PARK, N. J., July 18.—Mrs. James Logan of West Asbury Park, was arrested for attempting to shoot James A. Bradley, the founder of Asbury Park. Mrs. Logan purchased a revolver and went to Park Hall. She asked the clerk in the office for Mr. Bradley. Being informed that Mr. Bradley was at the beach she whipped out her pistol and declared that she would go to the beach and put a bullet through the founder's head. "He has injured my boy," she said, "and I will kill him." Mrs. Logan left the room building and was making for the beach when she was intercepted by an officer, who attempted to arrest her. The woman struggled and screamed, but the policeman succeeded in overpowering her and taking the revolver away from her. She was given a hearing, and bound over for trial. Mrs. Logan's son, James, was arrested last week on a serious charge, and the mother believes that Mr. Bradley is responsible for his hard luck. The affair has created great excitement.

A Double Accident.

CHAUTAUQUE, N. Y., July 18.—Joseph Godfrey, of Brooklyn, N. Y., met with a double accident here. In company with Ralph Harris, of Fredonia, N. Y., he rowed out into the lake with a view of bagging some of the small game that infest the lake. Each carried a Smith & Wesson revolver. In the vicinity of Sandy Bottom the boat tipped almost over, pitching young Godfrey overboard. In the struggle that ensued it was by the hardest work that Harris was able to keep the boat in an upright position. Finally he succeeded in pulling Godfrey in, but in the excitement of the moment a 38-caliber revolver he had in his hand was discharged, the ball entering the leg of Godfrey just above the knee. The wound was dressed by Drs. Anderson and Enger, who pronounce it a very painful but not a serious injury.

Killed His Own Brother.

BENNETT, Ga., July 18.—About five miles below Washington, David Pickett was cursing his father, when an older brother, Green asked him to desist, whereupon David picked up an ax and struck Greene with it, cleaving him asunder. Greene is not expected to live. He was an engineer on the Georgia railroad, and was at home on a vacation visiting his father's family.

Received the Contents of a Shotgun.

MCDONOUGH, Ga., July 18.—Nelson Tomlinson and Al Tomlinson, both negroes, had some words at the depot here. Nelson went for his gun, and meeting Al on the square, gave him the contents of his shotgun. Al is painfully, though not dangerously, wounded. Nelson is in jail.

The Republican.

SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1891.

RESOLUTION.

Whereas, our brethren B. G. McClellan and D. P. Williams were requested by the County Alliance No. 1001 to address them on the Ocala resolutions and the sub-treasury bill, and whereas they did so and by order of said Alliance their addresses were furnished the Jacksonville REPUBLICAN, and whereas Hon. L. W. Grant, editor of the Jacksonville REPUBLICAN, commented upon them in the editorial column in a way that we deem an injustice not only to them but to the Alliance.

Therefore be it resolved, That we denounce in unmeasured terms the terms "uninfluential gubbers and following after butterflies and shadows" in the connection he uses them, and resolve further that as the said editor admits our troubles are real which we complain of, we demand of him as we understand there is a prospect of a candidate for Congressional honors something better than butterflies and shadows as he terms them. Unanimously adopted.

R. G. RAGAN, Sec.

Among all the mass of correspondence we find on our desk upon return home we give place to the resolution of our friends of the Alexandria Alliance, both in order to correct a wrong impression and to make a prediction. If they will refer to the files of the REPUBLICAN they will find that we treated both Mr. McClellan and Mr. Williams with courtesy while disagreeing with those portions of their addresses which we thought were calculated to dissuade men with the Democratic party. The terms to which the Alexandria Alliance object were not applied to Messrs. McClellan and Williams at all, but occurred in an editorial review of Mr. Pitts' letter and had general reference to the third party advocates who are so glib in their denunciation of that party of which both the editor of the REPUBLICAN and the great body of the Alexandria Alliance are members. Surely the men who voted the above resolution do not intend to be understood as wishing to curb the freedom of the press, especially when that freedom is exercised in defense of their own party? We do admit the troubles of the farmers and we not only admit them but in common with all right thinking and right feeling men in this country we are ready to fight with them for a juster and fairer administration of the government as affects their interests. We are bound to them by every tie of interest and affection. Whatever in the past we have ever asked at their hands has been freely extended and we should feel that we were not ready to stand by them and aid them in a fight for a betterment of their condition. Like them we want to see an abundance of money in the country for the easy transaction of business and the needs of every avocation. We believe that when the Democratic party shall come into power it will take up their fight and give them relief, and in giving them relief will benefit the whole country. Believing thus we naturally do not want the fair prospects of that party marred by division among the white people of the South. We want to see the battle fought upon lines upon which there can be no disagreement and to leave the details of measures of relief to the chosen servants of the people after they shall have been elected. As it is we are like the prospective heirs of an estate who quarrel over the division before the inheritance is theirs. With the advent of the Democratic party to power the farmers and all others who have been discriminated against through Republican legislation will for a fact get something more than butterflies and shadows. Now comes the prophecy. By this time next year the white voters of Calhoun will stand united upon a common ground of Democratic principles and Democratic policy. We have no fears that any considerable number of them will go after the strange gods of the third party. We have an abiding faith in the sound Democracy, the hard common sense and sterling honesty of the voters of Calhoun, and it is on this conviction that we make the prediction of a united front in 1892. Meantime let us all remember that this is a free country where freedom of speech and freedom of the press is guaranteed by the constitution. Let us all accord each to the other honesty of purpose. Let charity prevail and let discussion proceed with toleration and with patience. Passion is the enemy of reason. No good can come of heated discussion. Through good tempered and honest discussion truth can be reached, and when truth is found all good men will give it adhesion.

Mississippi is mainly made up of farmers. In that State the sub-treasury bill was strong, but after fair discussion the farmers went back on it and George and Walthall will be re-elected.

The Geneva County Alliance has formally resolved itself out of the Democratic party and into the third party. We are willing to let a peck of gobbers that the County Alliance of Geneva do not represent correctly the wishes of the mass of Democratic Alliancemen in that County.

A business man was found the other day in Talladega, who said he had read as much as a column of the REPUBLICAN in two years, and he could read it.

THE COUNTY ALLIANCE.

The County Alliance held a session here Wednesday and Thursday. Jacksonville received the farmers with open handed hospitality. Owing to the fact that delegates had not been assigned homes up to that time, a dinner was spread in the court house, which was ample not only for the delegates present, but for the three or four hundred outsiders who had come in to hear the speech of State Lecturer Groce in the afternoon.

Dr. Groce made a speech of an hour and a half, which was fairly well received. He made an elaborate defense of the sub-treasury bill, but failed to show how it would add permanent increase to the volume of currency. He did not discuss that part of the bill which requires the destruction of the currency issued under the bill when it is paid back to the government by the farmer when his crop is sold. As it is now enough money comes into the country to move the cotton crop, and it comes from all over the world, and what is good about it, it is not destroyed as soon as it is used in moving the crop. It remains in the country as a permanent part of our circulating medium. All classes in the South are agreed with the farmer that we need very much more money in circulation, but all do not agree, even among Alliancemen, that the sub-treasury bill will accomplish that result. In fact, they believe that the very terms of the bill itself preclude that result, and therefore they do not favor it as a means of getting an increase of circulation. We presume the county Alliance will adopt it, however, more as a means of forcing some sort of measure of relief than with the hope of getting that specific measure. Very recently in the county three, if not more, of the sub-alliances have renounced it. Meantime outsiders should not concern themselves as to what Alliancemen believe on this question. So long as they remain true to the Democratic party, (and they will) no harm can come to good government in Alabama. It is the duty of the press to discuss these questions in good temper and with fairness that the people may see all sides of the argument. This done, there need be no fear of the result. The good sense of the people will answer for the result. But we have digressed, in discussing Dr. Groce's speech. It was in perfect good temper and not offensive to any class of people who go to make up the citizenship of our common country. He demonstrated what the REPUBLICAN has often of late said, to-wit: that we are all in the same boat and suffer or prosper, stand or fall together. Hence the necessity of unity not only among the Alliancemen, but among white men and Democrats in Alabama. We are all wanting the same thing, more money and the repeal of obnoxious and discriminating laws. Why quarrel over the way we are to get the things that we want? All Christians are agreed that they want to get to heaven, but they differ widely in matters of belief, and travel to the heavenly Canaan by many different routes; but will be none the less happy or none the less brethren when they get there, because they have differed here as to the best means of serving God and getting to glory.

At night our citizens took delegates to their several homes and cared for their wants with that hospitality that has ever distinguished them. As we close this paper the meeting is still in session, and no report has as yet been furnished the press of its proceedings. We trust that their labors may be characterized by wisdom and moderation, and that its results may be beneficial to our common country.

In an article touching the meeting of the County Alliance here the REPUBLICAN expressed the hope that the counsels of the same might be marked by wisdom and moderation. Subsequent developments showed that this wish was vain. The extreme men of the order got the swing and over-ruled all moderate counsel. The body resolved not only adhesion to that part of the Ocala platform known as the sub-treasury bill, the land loan bill and Government ownership of railroads, but went a step further, and separated themselves from the great majority of the Democratic voters of Calhoun by declaring that the Alliancemen of Calhoun will support no man for office, from constable to President, unless he shall subscribe to those demands. They have proscribed not only the great mass of democratic voters outside the Alliance, but fully one-third of the voters inside the Alliance, for there are fully that many Alliancemen in this county who do not subscribe to those demands. It will be but natural for the proscribed classes to refuse in turn to support men who hold such views and thus we have a division precipitated in this county by a few hot headed men in the Alliance. We regret this action both on account of its effect upon the Alliance and the cause of white unity in Calhoun; but there can be but one result. The side which has the most votes will win the fight. At this present writing those in Calhoun who do not support that portion of the Ocala demands alluded to above are numbered those who do about three to one. Get out your arithmetic and figure the result.

Rev. F. H. Brewster, a prominent farmer and Allianceman, has written a strong letter to the Piedmont Post against the sub-treasury bill. Mr. Brewster was editor of the Post, and it was the county Alliance organ.

Congressman Jerry Simpson, of Kansas, made two speeches in Birmingham the 21st. In an interview with a reporter of the Birmingham News he said plainly that he was for a third party. At this point he was interrupted by Capt. Kolb, who said that the Alliance in this State did not want to separate from the Democratic party. At night Simpson made a speech in front of the Florence hotel which was interpreted by many as a severe thrust at Capt. Kolb. He denounced the politicians who try to ride two horses and swallow the principles of two parties. He spoke harshly of the alleged Democratic leaders trying to seek office through the Alliance and at the same time remain loyal to the Democrats. As Simpson was an original Republican there is nothing strange in the fact that it irritates him to see Alliancemen of Alabama remain faithful to the Democratic party.

Our latest advices from South Carolina show that the Farmers' Alliance in that State is undergoing a very decided change from what it was a year ago. Our readers will remember that Gov. Tillman has accepted a proposition for a series of debates with the most popular of the Alliance lecturers on the question of the sub-treasury scheme. The first of these was held recently at the county seat of the Governor's own county, Edgefield. At the close of the discussion a vote was taken on the Ocala platform, including the sub-treasury plank, and there was a very large majority against its endorsement. As this platform is to all intents the only basis of the third party movement, the significance of this vote can be understood. The Alliance in Newberry County has adopted a like vote.

The Alliance Herald says Senator George "capitulated" to the alliance. Senator George agreed to those portions of the Ocala platform except the sub-treasury bill, land loan scheme, government ownership of railroads, as Democrats all over this State now do. He has fought the sub-treasury bill and land loan bill and government ownership of railroads all over Mississippi before the farmers' and Alliancemen of that State and he has whipped the fight. The Herald may call that "capitulating" if it wants to but it is not very comforting to sub-treasury.

A great number of communications accumulated on the editor's table while he was absent nearly four weeks from the office. All of them could not be printed without filling two weeks' issue of the paper at least. To print some and fail to print others would be unjust discrimination and hence, with the exception of the Alexandria Alliance resolutions we print none. We trust that this will be satisfactory to the authors of all the communications.

When the democratic party surrendered the reins of Government something more than two years ago, it left a full treasury, harmony and good will between the sections and the whole country prospering. How is it now? Force bill, empty treasury, financial depression, paralysis of industry and revival of sectionalism tell the tale.—Fort Payne Journal.

A man—yes, a Talladega man, went to bed Thursday night smoking a lighted cigar. He also went to sleep but the cigar did not. He was awakened later by being burned, when he found that the cigar had fired the bed and the fire had burned sheet, comfort and mattress clear through and even the pillow. The only wonder is, from the universal use of cigars, pipes and cigarettes, that many more such things do not occur.—Talladega News Reporter.

The Texas State Alliance has divided on the sub-treasury bill, and the anti-sub-treasury wing of the order has called a National Convention in St. Louis in September or October.

The Della Plain, Tex., Review displays the following couplets at the sides of the head in its first page:

Little drops of printer's ink,
A little type displayed,
Make our merchant princes
Withal their big parade.

Little bits of stinkiness—
Disseminating printer's ink—
"Busts" the man of business,
And sees his credit sink.

Mississippi Democrats.

JACKSON, Miss., July 16.—After nominating a candidate for Railroad Commissioner, the Mississippi Democratic Convention adopted the following platform:

1. We are Democrats, and as such, without equivocation, evasion or mental reservation, we proclaim our steadfast devotion to the principles of the Democratic party and pledge ourselves to labor in season and out of season to secure its supremacy.

2. We believe that no permanent prosperity can be assured to the American people until this Government is administered in accordance with the doctrines of this great party which demands equal rights for all and denounces all class legislation as harmful and wicked.

3. We believe the depression now bearing so cruelly upon the agricultural interests of this country is largely caused by unjust discrimination against them in behalf of favored industries where the few are enriched at the expense of many. Monopolies have been treated and robbery made lawful, and we believe that this depression will continue until all class legislation has been repealed and the taxes equally and fairly laid and with no other purpose than to defray the expenses of the Government economically and honestly administered. We believe that individual prosperity can only come from individual industry, intelligence and frugality, and that all schemes for the enrichment of the people by legislation are chimerical and utterly incapable of realization. The policy of the United States Government for the last thirty years has been and is now especially destructive to the agricultural interests of the country.

The farmers have been unduly taxed; they have been made the bearers of the burdens imposed for the benefit of the manufacturers while the prices of their chief products are fixed by the prices in Europe. The protective system has been so arranged as to restrict the markets and thus reduce the prices of such products and at the same time enhance the prices of what the farmer has to buy. We declare it to be the highest duty of the government to render due justice to the agricultural and laboring classes, the real producers of wealth. To this end we favor the repeal of the heavy taxation on the necessities of life and the extension of our foreign commerce. In this connection it must not be forgotten that though the Democratic party has not for thirty years had entire control of the government and therefore has not been able to give relief to the people by repealing class legislation and enacting just and honest laws, yet it has ever manifested its purpose to give this relief when it shall have the power to do so; and it is the part of wisdom to hold up its hands and not condemn it until it has had opportunity and failed to take advantage of it.

4. We believe that gold and silver should be coined on the same terms and conditions, and when the government shall cease to discriminate between them they will freely circulate side by side and be equally useful and acceptable. We also believe there should be an additional issue of treasury notes, interchangeable with coin sufficient to transact the business of the country and to relieve the present financial depression.

5. We believe that every legitimate power of the government should be exerted to provide the people with cheaper facilities for transportation inasmuch as a large proportion of their earnings is now taken from them to pay the cost of marketing their products; we therefore demand liberal appropriations for the improvement of our rivers and harbors, regarding the their improvement, as an absolutely essential step toward the accomplishment of the desired end.

6. We denounce as unconstitutional, revolutionary and infamous the force bill attempt to be passed by the Republicans of the Fifty-first Congress, whereby they would take from the States the right to hold their Congressional elections through the agency of their own officers, as they have done since the beginning of the government and by subjecting the white people of the Southern States to the domination of ignorant negro hordes, would have perpetuated their party in power. Believing, as we do, that the Democratic party alone can secure us against such disaster, we beseech all Democrats to stand by its colors and to avoid all issues which might create dissension, and by disrupting that party place the South at the mercy of its enemies.

7. We extend our thanks and congratulations to the Democratic senators, led by that able and patriotic statesman, Senator Gorman, and the Republican senators who assisted them, for the defeat of that infamous, sectional and partisan force bill, and we take special pride in the splendid fight by our own able and honored senators, George and Walthall, and we endorse their course as senators. We take pride in the fact that the Democratic party has always been the opponent of class legislation, the greatest evil of the times in which we live and of all the paternal and centralizing tendencies of the Republican party. We are opposed to what is known as the sub-treasury scheme as violative of the time honored principles of the Democratic party and a violation of the Democratic idea of proper construction of the constitution, and we regret that the discussion of the same has been thrust into the politics of our State. We regard it as being not only undemocratic but impracticable and not calculated to furnish the relief claimed for it.

LECTURER WILLET'S VIEWS.

Certain That the Democrats Will Elect The Next President.

ABBEVILLE, S. C., July 12.—National Alliance Lecturer J. F. Willet was one of the earliest organizers of the Farmers' Alliance last winter, at the National Alliance meeting at Ocala, he was elected National Lecturer. Since that time he has traveled 14,000 miles, passed through fourteen States, and organized three State Alliances—Iowa, Ohio, and New York. The Times' correspondent had a long talk with him to-day on national politics. He thinks Cleveland will be the next nominee of the Democratic party. This view he was compelled to adopt by his observation of feeling and sentiment in the various States through which he has passed. Cleveland made lawful, and we believe that this depression will continue until all class legislation has been repealed and the taxes equally and fairly laid and with no other purpose than to defray the expenses of the Government economically and honestly administered. Dr. Grubbs' Cow Story.

We have it from a reliable source that a farmer of one of our neighboring counties sold his son-in-law one-half of a cow and then refused to deliver the milk, claiming that he had sold the front half of the beast. He also required his son-in-law to provide all the feed the animal consumed, and compelled him to carry water to her three times a day. Recently the cow hooked the old man and he is now suing the son-in-law for damages.

The readers of the REPUBLICAN will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in the doing of her work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers, that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
