Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wailes. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black tibets, fancy cassimeres, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.

GOVERNOR JONES SHOWS HOW IT IS IMPOSSIBLE.

Gives Views on the Situation.—The Conditions Existing Now Cannot Obtain in the Presidential Contest.

The Atlanta Constitution of Friday contained this interview with Governor Jones:

I do not see how it is possible to cut my majority down under 15,000, and I believe it will exceed that. This majority represents a white majority, for it is idle for any one to deny that Captain Kolb through the state received a majority of the black vote. With a few exceptions, every republican of any note in Alabama gave Kolb secret support in the beginning and towards the close of the campaign threw off their masks and gave open aid. Chairman Moseley, who preferred in the beginning that he was neutral, in the last days of the canvass issued a circular stating that the plank in our platform in favor of virtue and intelligence controlled the government was intended to disfranchise the negroes and to disfranchise the whites, and that if the regular ticket was elected to a condition little less preferable to slavery. The regular ticket was fought by the republican party, the third party, the independents and by many alliance democrats, who thought that in some way Captain Kolb represented their demands or principles. The contest was exceedingly bitter and the leading opponents of the regular ticket used nearly every weapon or argument possible to inflame prejudice and passion between the classes and races and sections of the state to compass our overthrow. Though our majority is not as large as expected, all things considered it is a splendid triumph for organized democracy and is a death blow to the hopes of the republicans and third parties in this state. One of the pleasing features of our contest was that a large majority of the alliance members were earnest supporters of the regular organization.

In the first place, owing to the short time elapsing between the nomination and the state election there was hardly time to reach and inform the people on the real issues. Second, a large number of democrats voted for Kolb because he had not been fairly treated in the convention of 1890 and the primaries of this year, and they thought they ought to resent his personal grievance and also what they considered too strict party discipline.

On these grounds many democrats supported Captain Kolb, although they knew he was running independent. There were many other democrats who voted for him because they believed his claim that he was the regular nominee, and on no other grounds. For instance, it had been widely told and believed by many of them that Kolb delegates had been absolutely refused admission to the capital, where the regular convention met. Nine-tenths of all these voters are democrats from principle. When it comes to the Presidential election there will be no doubt as to who the regular nominee is, and they have no wrongs to avenge against the party. In spite of all that can be done to prevent it, over half of these men will come back to our standards, and if, as I favor and believe, a wise and conservative course is adopted concerning their participation in party councils over 75 per cent of them will be back with us in sixty days.

Third—Every officer in the state, from governor down to justice of the peace in each beat, was elected last Monday. There were probably 7000 candidates for the various offices. The Kolb men generally swapped off many of the other offices for a vote for him, while the supporters of the regular ticket, believing it would receive a large and assured majority, often swapped it off for votes for local and county offices. The regular ticket lost over 10,000 votes from this one cause in the sixty-six counties. Tallapoosa and Limestone counties were conspicuous instances of this. The regular county ticket in the former was beaten only 100 or so votes, while the state ticket was defeated by over 2000 majority. The same thing occurred in Limestone where the bulk of the regular organized democratic county ticket was elected, and yet the state ticket was beaten about 1500 votes. Trading alone effected this result for the county offices, especially the probate judgeships, which are generally very valuable and the state ticket, strong to sacrifice the state ticket, especially when it is believed it will not be harmed. All this trouble will be removed in the presidential election. There will be 500 less persons interested in swapping than there were in August.

Fourth—We have a majority of Democrats from principle in Alabama. They will all be called on in ocratic, a republican and a third party electoral ticket. There will be no way to confuse them on this point, as was done by Captain Kolb, who claimed in our late contest to be a better democrat even than I was. There are hundreds and hundreds of democrats who voted for Kolb last Monday who would not have done so if they had known or believed that Moseley, the republican chairman, was taking such a lively interest and part in his campaign. The best proof of this feeling is the fact that Moseley, who knows a good deal, dared not openly aid Kolb until it was too late to find it out, and prove it on him before election day. In the November election we will have no plank about "virtue and intelligence," with which the fears of the ignorant can be played on, as was the case in our state election. Misrepresentation of that plank, commonly known as the "hinterland plank," lost us at least 15,000 votes in the state contest.

Further than this or people are bent on resisting by all constitutional means the force bill, the very threat of which retards our prosperity more than dread of a pes silence; and they feel the grinding inequalities and burdens of the McKinley bill. They know that a third party ticket, even if successful, would only result, practically, in beating down our defense against both these assaults upon our autonomy as a people, and our whole material and industrial prosperity. For that reason, a few of our people will vote for a third party, whatever may be their ideas about its final theories. For the same reason, nine-tenths of the men who have heretofore voted with us will be bitterly opposed to the republican ticket. A third party ticket might draw from the republican ticketsome men who would otherwise vote for it. With our natural majority of democrats, the third party will not harm us. We are sure to beat the republican electoral ticket whether it runs a fusion or a straight-out ticket. Every issue with us fades away in the face of the force bill and the tariff issue, and many of the democrats who have been prejudiced against Mr. Cleveland because his views on silver have been misrepresented to them, and who threatened to vote against him, will change their minds because of other more far reaching issues, and as many more will change when Mr. Cleveland's true attitude on the silver question is made clear to them by the press and by the discussions on the stump. Alabama will go for Cleveland by 50,000 majority, no matter how many electoral tickets are run, and no matter how much money republican committees see fit to pour into Alabama. Indeed, most of the labored efforts now being made to prove Alabama an uncertain state are the work of politicians, who hope thus to induce aid from the republican national executive committee in the November election, that they may have the handling of it. The democrats in Alabama hope that the committee will spend some of that money here, for it will draw off that much of their resources from points where it might do more harm.

There cannot be any difficulty about the organization of the legislature. Our laws provide an easy and certain mode of ascertaining who constitute the members. The judge of probate, clerk and sheriff in each county constitute a board of supervisors, who make a correct statement from the returns of the votes cast for each officer, including members of the house, and file certificates of the result with the probate judge and also forward as soon as they ascertain the result a like statement to the secretary of state of the result as to senators, and the governor, the secretary of state and attorney-general open and count the vote as returned, and the governor is required to issue a proclamation as to the persons elected, and they also receive certificates of election from the secretary of state. The persons so certified by him in accordance with the returns, constitute, with the hold-over senators, the persons who are entitled to participate in the organization of the two houses, and they are the only tribunal to settle the matter. Under our constitution the president of the senate and the speaker of the house hold over until their successors are qualified, and they organize their respective houses. Our constitution is very explicit that the legislature shall meet at the capitol, in the senate chamber and in the hall of the house of representatives (except in case of destruction of the building or epidemic). No lawyer doubts, in view of the language of the constitution and the decisions of our supreme court on provisions not so mandatory, that an assembling of even the lawful general assembly at any other place except in two instances specified, would be illegal, and its acts utterly void. Of course I've seen a good deal in the papers about the probabilities of two legislative bodies, and I have heard, as you suggest, some threats that if the majority for governor and state officers was close or contested, and the complexion of the members as returned was not satisfactory, that some of the legally elected members who favor Captain Kolb would join with some others who claim to have been elected and support Captain Kolb in his claim to the governorship and call on the president to recognize him as such. I have not paid any attention to these threats and if they have been made I don't think they were seriously intended. I do not think Captain Kolb entertains such an idea, and even if he does the vast majority of the members-elect who supported him are too patriotic and dertaling. The only tribunal under our constitution to settle a contested election for governor is the general assembly, after it shall have organized, and passed laws for that purpose. This general assembly elected in both branches is largely opposed to Captain Kolb politically, and a majority in neither house would attempt to go into organization with men claiming to be elected but not having been so declared. If the members of either house should attempt to set up with others a rival legislature, the sergeant-at-arms of the rightful legislature at the capitol would easily compel the presence of the absentees and their house would deal with them by expulsion or other procedure.

The provision of the constitution about the meeting place was put there to meet the very case of rival legislatures set up by men claiming to be elected but not having proper certificates. In conjunction with other members who were elected, George E. Spencer, in carpet-bag days, organized a rival legislature in the old United States court room to elect himself United States senator, and Grant even declared to interfere, but suggested a plan of reorganization to which the democrats of the capitol agreed, as they were not recognized as the rightful legislature by either the governor or the supreme court. The spectacle of rival legislatures was very humiliating to the people and did vast harm to Alabama; and the framers of the constitution determined to prevent its recurrence in the future.

The governor's term expires on December 1, and the legislature must meet on Tuesday after the first Monday in November. It is scarcely necessary to say in view of our constitution that no governor could recognize a body claiming to be the legislature which was convened elsewhere than at the capitol or which was organized by election from the proper officers. I have heard of no complaints, even of any county election, so far as concerns members of the legislature, and know of none who claim to be elected who will not receive certificates of election. I cannot conceive it possible, therefore, that there will be any attempt to organize two legislatures. I only mention the matter because you ask me and with the hope that by showing the impracticability, the absurdity of such a proceeding and the lack of reasonable pretext for it, that the apprehension of such a thing will disappear. The very agitation of it has done harm to Alabama. We Alabamians, in a heated and bitter contest, often say things which we ought not; but, after all, most of us desire the prosperity and welfare of the state, and are law-abiding. I don't think it possible to find ten men in the whole general assembly-elect who would dream of emulating the carpetbaggers, whom Spencer induced to set up a seceding legislature. If, however, such a thing could happen, the conditions are so different now that the rights and authorities of the state would have no trouble in promptly compelling obedience to the law, and doing so speedily.

Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion fates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black thibets, fancy cassimeres, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, etc. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.

"ETERNAL VIGILANCE IS THE PRICE OF LIBERTY"

A FATAL MALADY.

A NEW JERSEY TOWN UNDER A DARK CLOUD.

A Disease Like Cholera Killing the People—It Is Confined to the Foreign Population.

New York, Aug. 15.—New Yorkers troubled with apprehension when they learned through the newspapers that cholera had made its appearance in the little village of Helmetta, forty miles distant in New Jersey, and that already there had been more than a score of deaths from the terrible scourge.

An investigation of the reported outbreak showed that it had not been exaggerated. The local physicians look grave as they give it as their unanimous opinion that the disease is not Asiatic cholera, but an acute form of dysentery which develops some what similar to it. However that may be, the mortality in Helmetta and the surrounding villages shows conclusively that the situation is critical, and that although the disease may be given some other name, it is painfully like cholera in its dread results.

Helmetta is situated 10 miles south-east of New Brunswick, N. J., on the line of the Pennsylvania railroad. The population of the village is about 400, and is made up almost entirely of foreigners, Poles and Hungarians being the dominant nationalities. Nearly all the people are employed in the sawmill factory of G. W. Helmetta, who practically owns the entire village. They live in small and for the most part poor houses, and these are crowded with boarders. Sanitary laws are disregarded entirely. Of the 400 inhabitants more than 175 have been attacked with the prevailing malady and 21 have died, 10 of whom were adults and the remainder children.

Already the epidemic has traveled to Spotswood, two miles east of Helmetta, and several families are suffering with the disease there. To the west of Helmetta is Jamesburg, a village of 400 inhabitants. Seven deaths have occurred there, and there are now about twenty cases under the treatment of the local physician.

THE FLOOD BENEFITS.

Some Good Will Come Out of the Recent Western Overflows.

Alton, Ill., Aug. 15.—A trip over the lately submerged district known as Missouri Point, reveals the fact that the recent floods have in reality been of untold benefit to the land, which has not in many years received anything in the way of fertilization. All the high and worn out ground has been rejuvenated by a deposit of from two to three inches of the finest black sandy loam, while the depth of the deposit in lower places reaches to eighteen inches, wonderfully increasing the fertility of this already unsurpassed soil. The crops that were saved were immense, and the grass in the pasture lands is knee deep. The roads left by the river are full of fine fish, crabs and bass, with an occasional German carp, and fishermen are gathering a harvest, although bitter complaint is made of illegal seining. In the opinion of many, the damage by the water of the river is far eclipsed by the later resultant benefits.

Yellow Fever at Tampa.

JACKSONVILLE, Aug. 15.—A Tampa special gives the following regarding the report current here of yellow fever at quarantine station: Yellow fever has developed on board the four-masted American schooner Eva Douglas, which arrived at the Mullet Key quarantine station on the 5th, from Havana, on her way to Port Tampa to load sugar. The schooner was thoroughly fumigated and then placed in quarantine for five days.

A Cool Robber in New York.

New York, Aug. 15.—A cool robber drove into the dock when the Diamond arrived, Tuesday, and presented an order alleged to have been issued by Cohen & Co., of Water street, for fifty-six bales of tobacco consigned to the bonded warehouse. He loaded the fifty-six bales on the truck and drove off. The investigation showed that the thieves had stolen a Havana warehouse, and had forged an order. The value of the stolen bales aggregates $12,000.

Some Reciprocity Points.

GRAND FORKS, S. D., Aug. 15.—E. E. Reynolds of Toronto, an expert on international law, in a letter to the chamber of commerce, proposed as points in the coming reciprocity convention, no duty on natural products, free use of canals in both countries, free railroad right of way, collection duties at point of consignment, exchange of coin at par, equal rights in vessels and equal rights to citizens to carry on occupations in either country.

Confession of a Fire Victim.

STOUT CITY, Iowa, Aug. 15.—Robert Thompson, a bar-keeper, long in the employ of Bill Leech, the leading saloon-keeper in Covington, Neb., and alderman, has made a confession that he set incendiary fires which destroyed so much property in Covington and Stanton during the last two years at the instigation and pay of Leech, who adopted a plan to destroy rival saloons and avenge himself upon his enemies.

Cholera in St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—That cholera is now here is officially admitted. A report just issued shows 154 cases and 31 deaths in the city between Aug. 1 and 12. Thus far only the working people have been attacked by the scourge, the conditions among them being very filthy, and through ignorance they passively resist the endeavors of the authorities to improve their sanitary conditions.

Cheap Fare for Workmen.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The Mail and Express contains a leading editorial proposing a railroad fare of $1 to Chicago during the World's Fair, for all the workmen in the United States living within 1,500 miles of Chicago, and showing how the railroads can carry the business with a margin of profit.

CARLISLE'S POSITION.

He Gives His Views on the Silver Coinage Question in Full.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—Senator Carlisle has addressed a letter to John A. Lyne, of Henderson, Ky., in answer to his question whether Carlisle had heretofore been in favor of the free coinage of silver, and whether his views on the subject had undergone any change. Carlisle quotes from his own speech in the house in 1873 when the original Bland bill had been amended by the senate. A part of the quotation reads: "My position upon this subject is briefly this: I am opposed to the free coinage of silver, but in favor of the unlimited coinage of both metals upon terms of exact equality. No discrimination should be made in favor of one against the other, nor should any discrimination be made in favor of holders of silver bullion and against the great body of people who own other kinds of property. A great government should treat all its citizens alike, and whenever it attempts to do otherwise it will engender a spirit of discontent which sooner or later must disturb harmony, if not the peace of society."

Carlisle says this paragraph shows precisely what his position then was and always has been on this subject. In conclusion, Carlisle says he will support any measures that will fully remunerate silver and insure the equality of dollars coined from the two metals and he sincerely hopes that the approaching monetary conference will be able to reach such an agreement as will meet the approval of all the governments participating in it.

MOB IN ALABAMA.

The Kolb Men Found Obnoxious Tampering with the Ballot Boxes.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 11.—A Birmingham, Ala., dispatch says: Rockford, the county seat of Coosa county, is in a panic. The county seat for Kolb on election, and the Kolb men assert that they caught Jones, probate judge and sheriff, tampering with the boxes after they had been returned to the court house, by which their majority was reduced. Wednesday one hundred armed Kolb men marched into town and declared their intention of killing the probate judge, sheriff and circuit clerk, who constituted a returning board, and declared vengeance on all Jones men. The sheriff summoned a posse and they proceeded to return Monday next prepared to execute their will.

Robt Will Contest.

MONTGOMERY, Aug. 11.—Ex-Commissioner Kolb, into Alliance candidate for governor, is out in a published letter disputing the claims of Jones' election. The letter concludes: I have been fairly and honestly elected by over 50,000 majority, and the people of my native state recognize the fact and will see that justice is accorded by placing me at the head of our state government for the next two years.

RYDER'S CONFESSION.

He Induced His Wife to Make False Statements in Court.

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 13.—Henry B. Ryder, the United States consul here, who is under arrest charged with having misappropriated the sum of 200,000 kroner, has confessed that he is guilty of embezzlement. In his confession Ryder says that he produced false receipts and that he induced his wife to make a false statement when he was arraigned in court. Mrs. Ryder also under arrest, but it is probable that she will be released. The receipts which Ryder now admits are forgeries purport to be acknowledgments of the payment of money by the persons to whom Ryder, in his official capacity, should have paid it. These persons have always claimed that they never signed such receipts, though Ryder at first strenuously protested that the signatures were genuine.

C. P. Huntington's Enterprise.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—C. P. Huntington is to furnish a part of the capital for the construction of a railroad in Honduras to complete a line from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Mr. Huntington, in speaking of the proposition, said: "It is too early to talk much about the project now. It is true that I have gone in with others to build a line about 100 miles long, which will run right between what points the road will run, or what it will cost, but it will take at least $2,000,000 or $3,000,000 to build it. The concession from the government has already been obtained. The grades will be easy and the lands valuable, and there is need of a shorter route across the isthmus. It looks as if the Nicaragua canal will not be built and the Panama canal is simply an illusion."

After Twenty-Six Years.

SAN ANGELO, TEX., Aug. 13.—Archibald Houston, an old and prosperous farmer in Comanche county, has been arrested by State Ranger C. L. Browne, charged with murdering James Ozien in February, 1866, near the present town of Moody in McLennan county for the purpose of robbery. Mr. Houston is now nearly 70 years of age, and is regarded as an honorable citizen in his community. He is one of the Comanche county leading politicians in the People's party. Houston has been fully identified as the man wanted, and the evidence against him is thought to be very conclusive. The prisoner will be taken to Waco for trial.

Shot Her Lover and Took Poison.

BREVIDERE, N. J., Aug. 13.—Patrick Quinn, telegraph operator at Delaware station, is lying at his home in Oxford suffering from two pistol-shot wounds in the head and neck, inflicted by Miss Hattie Acres, of Crocus, Pa. Miss Acres regarded Quinn as a lover, and it is said the shooting was the outcome of a desertion of the young woman. The girl, after the shooting, took poison, but recovered. She said that Quinn wronged her, and that she wished they were both dead.

PETER TURNEY NOMINATED.

Tennessee Held the Shortest gubernatorial Convention on Record.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 11.—The state Democratic convention met here, with about 150 delegates being present. It was more of a ratification meeting than a convention, only one candidate, Chief Justice Peter Turney, being before it. Bullock was temporary chairman and made an address. After the appointment of committees and speeches by Senator Harris, Congressman Patterson, the ex-governor, the convention adjourned until 120. During the afternoon session speeches were made by Senator Bate, Congressman Washington and others while waiting for the platform.

Judge Turney was placed in nomination and upon roll call by counties received all the votes cast except 37. He was brought into the hall and made a brief speech of acceptance. A new executive committee was appointed and the convention adjourned at 6 p. m., having held the shortest session known to a gubernatorial convention. The platform adopted ratifies the Chicago platform and declares in favor of Cleveland and Stevenson. As to state affairs it calls for an economical government, reduction of taxes and retrenchment in expenses and declares against favors shown public officers by corporations.

POLITICAL ACTION.

Work of Conventions in Several States.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 12.—A Commercial Gazette special says: The Republican convention of the 18th district nominated J. L. Walker of Wayne county for congress.

WHEELING, W. Va., Aug. 11.—J. Nelson Wisner, the editor of the Martinsburg Independent, has been nominated for congress by the Republicans in the Second district.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 12.—A special to the Sentinel says: T. M. Merring, of Richmond, was nominated by the Democrats at the convention of the Sixth district of Indiana.

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 11.—J. V. Cockrell, a brother of Senator Cockrell, has been nominated in the Thirteenth district, by the Democrats, for congress.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Aug. 12.—In Henderson, Capt. W. T. Ellis, Democrat, was nominated for congressman in the second district.

BRAINARD, Aug. 12.—The Democrats of the Sixth district have nominated U. R. Baldwin of Duluth, for congress.

THE COTTON OTTLOOK.

Statistical Reports the Commissioner of Agriculture.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The August report of the statistician in the department of agriculture shows a reduction in the condition of cotton during July from 89.9 to 82.3. This is the lowest average since August, 1886, when the general condition was one point lower. The reason has been that almost everywhere there has been too much rain, though in South Carolina and Georgia alterations and excessive rainfall and blustering sunshine have been injurious. In Texas need of rain is reported by some correspondents. The natural result of these conditions appears in grassy fields, rank plant growth and small fruitage, with considerable shedding. Grass worms and caterpillars have appeared in the more southern and western states, no material damage has yet resulted.

State average of condition are Virginia, 83; North Carolina, 82; South Carolina, 81; Georgia, 81; Florida, 81; Alabama, 80; Texas, 80; Arkansas, 79; Tennessee, 79. South Carolina's Railroads. The railroads of South Carolina, in addition to their troubles with the state, are in a bad way financially otherwise. Fifteen of them are in the hands of receivers, as follows: Asheville and Spartanburg, Atlanta and Charlotte Air Line, Columbia, Knoxville and Western, Charleston, Sumter and Northern, Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta, Cheraw and Chester, Chester and Lenoir, Columbia and Greenville, Laurin and Royal and Augusta, Port Royal and Western, Carolina and Carolina Railway, Spartanburg, Union and Columbia. These roads represent more than one half of the total railroad mileage of the state, or 1,219 miles of a total mileage of 2,535.12 miles. Considerably more than half of the roads are already in the hands of the courts, simply because they cannot make money with as good or better management than most businesses have.

The Flag Did Not Protect Them.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 12.—Letters from Honduras report a big battle in the interior between the government and the revolutionary forces. The latter were defeated and retreated toward Nicaragua, at Celala. Foreign residents complain that there was no notice given of the intended bombardment and several innocent persons were killed. The residence and office of the American consul at Toca was riddled with bullets, two men being shot on the premises. The stars and stripes were floating before and during the bombardment. The residence of the agent of the Oleri American line had the American flag flying, but that and the residences of the French and Spanish residents were badly wrecked by the bombardment.

To Resume Work on the Canal.

LONDON, Aug. 10.—The Standard's Paris correspondent says that M. Moncheux, the liquidator of the Panama Canal company, has signed a convention with a syndicate of financiers and former Panama Canal contractors to resume work on the canal. It is rumored that the liquidator will be made to the public for funds until the work is well advanced.

Arraigned for Murder.

FALL RIVER, Mass., Aug. 13.—Lizzie C. Borden was arraigned on a charge of homicide, arising from the killing of her father and step-mother. She pleaded not guilty. The trial was continued until Aug. 22.

A PROCLAMATION.

THE CIVIL SERVICE COMMISSION CAUTIONS THE OFFICIALS.

Employees Must Not Be Embarrassed by Assessments for Campaign Purposes.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 13.—Good Government, the organ of the National Civil Service Reform League, published in its issue of August 15th the following proclamation: "UNITED STATES COMMISSION. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 27, 1892. "At the outset of the political campaign which is now pending, this commission feels it to be its duty to call public attention to the provisions of the civil service law in relation to political assessments and contributions, to inform government employees of their rights in the premises, and to warn those not in the government's service, of whatever political party, not to infringe upon their rights. Political assessments under any guise are prohibited by law. The provisions of the law on the subject are in substance as follows: "That no government officer or employee shall directly or indirectly solicit or receive in any manner whatever any contribution for political purposes from any other government officer or employee. Second, That no government officer or employee shall make contribution for political purposes to any other government officer or employee. Third, That no person shall in any manner solicit or receive for or receive contribution for political purposes in any room or building occupied by the government employees in the discharge of official duties. Fourth, That no superior officer shall discriminate against or in favor of any government officer or employee on account of his action in reference to contributions for political purposes. Government employees are left absolutely free to contribute or not as they see fit, and to contribute to either party according to their preferences; and no employee refusing to contribute need not be discriminated against because of such refusal. "It is the duty of the commission to see that the provisions of this law are enforced, and it will employ every available means to secure the punishment of whoever may violate them. The commission request any person having knowledge of any violation of this law to lay the facts before it, and it will at once take action upon the same. (Signed: Charles Lyman, Theodore Roosevelt, George D. Johnston, commissioners.) This is the first time since the establishment of the civil service commission that its members ever issued an official announcement of this sort."

A RECEIVER APPOINTED.

Fort Payne Coal and Iron Company in the Hands of W. R. Sheldon.

BOSTON, Aug. 10.—President Rice, of the Fort Payne Coal and Iron Company, at Fort Payne, Ala., has received a telegram that W. R. Sheldon, of Fort Payne, had been appointed receiver of the company on application of the minority bondholders. Mr. Rice says the move is undoubtedly made for the benefit of the bondholders, and is undoubtedly to turn the property over to them for the small amount they have invested, about one-tenth of the cost of the property.

The action is an outrage on the stockholders and all the parties who have money invested in the Fort Payne, and this move will result in a total loss to 1,750 stockholders. No notice was given to the company that such a move was to be made. Owing to this no defense could be offered, and the company was debarrd from showing to the court that the applicants had not good grounds for the application. This action is an insult to the committee of fifteen who were selected to act for the interests of the stockholders, and who were given full powers.

KING'S SENTENCE COMMUTED.

He Will Serve Out the Balance of His Life in the Pen.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 10.—Governor Buchanan in Nashville has commuted the sentence of Colonel H. Clay King who was to have been hanged next Friday for the murder of David H. Poston, on March 15 last, on the public streets in this city.

Unusual pressure was brought to bear on the governor for the past few days. Petitions signed by thousands from Tennessee and Kentucky reached the chief executive. Delegations from military and civic societies visited him. The wife and daughter of the condemned man and the wives and daughters of other prominent citizens made personal appeals. Senator Harris and other leading politicians made several calls upon him, and succeeded in securing the desired commutation. The prisoner heard the news with little interest. He has been indulging in stimulants of late and seemed indifferent to what was transpiring.

THE KANSAS CORN CROP.

Unfavorable News from the State Board of Agriculture.

TOWNSHIP, Aug. 10.—Since issuing his regular July crop report Secretary Mohler of the state board of agriculture, has received advices that a large part of the corn crop in the central and western parts of the state is in so critical a condition that it will turn out a nearly complete failure unless copious rains fall within 25 hours. Abundant rains fell the latter part of July. Since that time, however, no rain has fallen, and the weather has been intensely hot. In addition, the dreaded hot winds have been blowing with their usual deadly effects upon corn. Secretary Mohler says the corn shows a strong, vigorous growth, but that the ears cannot mature under the present condition. A rain within the next two days will save the crop. Without it corn in the central and western districts will be a total failure.

ROBBED A FARMER.

Two Masked Men Held Up John Weston and Obtained $1,200.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Aug. 10.—John Weston, a well-to-do farmer, living in the upper portion of Burke county, was robbed of $1,200 at a station on the Central railroad, fourteen miles from Augusta. Weston came to Augusta and drew from the bank $1,200 to carry home to pay a debt he owed. He left on the night train with the money for home, and got off at a station known as Bennett's Mill. His horse was six miles from the station, and as he turned into the road two men with masks on confronted him with drawn pistols and commanded him to shell out. When told he had no money, they threatened to kill him, but he knew better, that he had $1,200. They then secured the money and backed off into the woods and disappeared. Weston has no idea who the robbers were. Detectives are now on the case.

NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS.

W. R. Kemp Will Lead the People's Party in the First Georgia.

SAVANNAH, Aug. 11.—The People's party convention met here and nominated W. R. Kemp of Emanuel, as its congressional candidate in the first district to oppose Colonel Rufus E. Lester, the Democratic candidate. There were but twenty-five delegates present, Effingham, Bryan and McIntosh counties being totally unrepresented. Burke county sent a negro among its delegates and he was given a cordial reception. He was placed on the committee on resolutions, which reported a number of things, a resolution denouncing lynch law, which was unanimously adopted by the convention.

Cleveland to His Namesake.

GROVERSVILLE, N. Y., Aug. 12.—Ex-President Cleveland has written the following letter to his namesake, Grover C. Cleveland, who will be 3 years old November 10 next: "DEAR LITTLE GROVER: I am very much pleased to receive your letter of congratulation. I am satisfied that this far you have been properly instructed in political affairs, and that you are already well grounded in the Democratic faith. I hope you will never be less a Democrat than you are now. Very truly yours, GROVER CLEVELAND."

The Cause of Canadian Emigration.

MONTREAL, Aug. 9.—Mr. Tetreault, member of the provincial parliament, and one of the members of the commission appointed before the close of the last session at Quebec to inquire into the causes of the emigration of farmers to the United States, has made known the conclusions at which he has arrived. Ranged as follows: Poverty, French-Canadians, large families, difficulty of establishing homes, defective cultivation of land, taste for luxury, seizure of household effects and mortgages for debt, and the plague of peddlars.

The Republics of Georgia.

ATLANTA, Aug. 13.—The Republicans of Georgia met here in state convention R. D. Locke, of Macon, presiding. The following electors at large for the Harrison ticket were named: J. W. Lyons and C. W. Arnold electors; H. L. Johnson and J. C. Brittain alternates. Resolutions were adopted setting forth that it was inexpedient to nominate a state ticket. This was fought vigorously, but finally passed by an overwhelming vote.

Political and Diplomatic.

Senator Ransom says North Carolina is safe in the Democratic column. Gladstone has his state made out, and will present the list to the queen next week. Congressman Watson is to stump Speaker Crisp's district against the speaker's re-election.

General Stevenson has published his campaign program. He will be in North Carolina and September 1. All of the newly elected officers of the North Carolina Farmer's Alliance are avowed People's party men. The Republicans do not believe the report that the People's party is to take the stump for the People's party. The division in the English house of commons on the motion of "no confidence" in the government was carried by a vote of 350 to 210.

Speaker Crisp was welcomed to his home at Americus, Ga., by a grand gathering of people. Blount, speaker of welcome were delivered, to which the congressman made a fitting reply.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

GROVER CLEVELAND.

For Vice-President,
A. E. STEVENSON.

CAMPAIGN RATE.

For twenty-five cents, strictly in advance, the REPUBLICAN will be sent to any address from now until the 1st of January 1893. This period will cover the Presidential Campaign; the meeting of the State Legislature and the gubernatorial contest before that body. It will cover the most interesting period of the State for years. Can any man in Calhoun afford to be without the paper at this price? Remember no name will be booked at this low rate without the cash.

At the meeting of the Executive Committee of the People's Party in Birmingham the 16th inst., it was determined to put out candidates for Congress in every district in the State. So says Secretary Manning.

Gen. Forney returned from Washington last week. He says the prospects for Democratic success in the East and West is better than ever before. He does not think the defection in the South will be sufficient to break its solid Democratic column.

The advice of the Alliance Herald to resort to violence has been checked by the conservative Alliancemen of Coosa county. Following the action of the mob which met at Rockford and threatened the lives of the county officers, these conservative men met in Rockford and spoke out for law and order and rebuked mob violence.

Avoid the counsels of violent men. The laws of Alabama provide adequate remedies for all grievances. If any man has been defrauded in the election, the laws provide a way by which he may have his rights declared and adjusted. The safety and honor and welfare of the people depend upon the preservation of law and order.

The official count for Supreme Court Judges and Commissioner of Agriculture was made in Montgomery the 16th. Lane, for Commissioner, received 129,100 and S. M. Adams received 113,183. Lane's majority being 16,917. The vote for Governor and other State officers will not be canvassed until the meeting of the Legislature, as required by law.

The Democratic State Convention of Texas, the 16th, was very inharmoneious and finally split. At one time several fights were in progress on the floor at the same time and knives and pistols were freely drawn. At this writing two conventions were in progress and the result will be two candidates for Governor. The Republicans of the North seem to have gotten in their work all over the South in the division of the Democrats.

Propositions are passing between the two Executive Committees of Tallapoosa county with a view to the adjustment of party differences and harmony and the movement meets with the approbation of the people. The majority of both wings of the party in Tallapoosa will vote for Cleveland, and they see no reason why the fight over Jones and Kolb should longer be continued. That is now a matter for the courts and the Legislature to settle, and all law-abiding men should leave it there. Popular discussion of the past campaign cannot settle any rights in the premises and only serves to perpetuate bad feeling and prevent reconciliation between neighbors.

The Kolb and Jones Executive Committees in Marengo county appointed five men to arrange a basis by which the Democratic party in Marengo might be harmonized. The Committee agreed to make as qualified voters in the primaries all who should support Cleveland and the Congressman nominated by the Democratic party in that district; and further that negroes who have supported the Democratic candidates shall be considered competent to vote in the primaries. On this basis an adjustment was had and the party in Marengo is now united and harmonious.

The People's Party State Convention of North Carolina, the 16th inst., nominated Harry Skinner for Governor. In accepting the nomination Mr. Skinner declared that if he saw that the third party would cause such a division of the white people of the State as to let the Republicans into power, he would have to warn them and bid them turn from their danger. This was greeted with mutterings of discontent and Mr. Skinner was called three times before the convention, as the delegates were not satisfied with his position. His third speech not being more satisfactory, there was much discontent and he was taken off the ticket.

Democrats can draw their own conclusions.

A gentleman who supported Capt. Kolb in the late election, said in Jacksonville a few days ago that he did not want to see Kolb Governor if he has not been fairly elected. Neither do the Jones men want to see Jones Governor if he has not been fairly elected. So on this head it may be taken as a fact that honest men on both sides are agreed. Why not then agree to stop fighting word battles over the late contest and await the determination of the matter as will be provided for by law. We undertake to say that Governor Jones would not have the office if it could be shown that he was not fairly entitled to it by the fairly expressed will of a free people. All these appeals to passion by Mr. Bowman and the ill-advised counsel of the Alliance Herald to the followers of Capt. Kolb to resort to violence and refuse to pay taxes, is the merest bosh and is only calculated to get men into trouble. No friend of the people will counsel them to violence, where the law provides a remedy for the ascertainment and preservation of their rights.

The issue between the State troops in Tennessee and the miners has just been joined in battle and blood has flowed freely. The situation is a very grave one. The lessons of the convicts are talking of surrendering their leases. It is time for them to do so. When it comes to employing two soldiers to guard one man at work a change is evidently necessary. The whole difficulty grows out of greed for money. When men who control vast aggregations of capital shall learn to let labor have a just reward for the sweat of the brow, there will be no more strife. Men do not fight and lay down their lives for nothing. There must be a great wrong at the bottom of a system which makes labor so restless and so desperate.

As we go to press, desperate fighting is going on in Tennessee, between the miners and troops at Coal Creek, and thousands of armed men on both sides are hurrying to the scene. The whole militia of the State has been called out. There has been great loss of life and the most intense excitement reigns throughout the State.

Gov. Buchanan, of Tennessee, having been overwhelmingly beaten by Judge Turley for the Democratic nomination is an independent candidate for Governor.

The REPUBLICAN printed last week the official vote for Commissioners of the First District. Below will be found the vote for the various candidates in the Second, Third and Fourth Districts:

The goodly news which comes from the election in Alabama is truly grateful. The people there have shown that they know that the only hope is in the old tried simon pure democracy, and not in experimenting with new third party ideas. Let North Carolina do likewise.—Raleigh (N. C.) News and Observer.

Battle at Oliver Springs.

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 16.—A bulletin just received from Knoxville says: After a desperate fight at Oliver between the troops and miners, the former were forced to retreat, and now have 200 convicts, bringing them to this place.

Governor Buchanan announces that he does not know what he will do concerning the convicts who have been sent back to this city. The Governor inclines to the opinion that the Board of Prison Inspectors should declare the lease void, because the lessees claim that the authorities do not protect them against mobs and insurrections, and that until they are protected in their working of convicts they will not pay for the support of convicts.

SOUTH CAROLINA

Will Go For Ben Tillman And Grover Cleveland.

Mr. W. A. Bowman of Sumter, S. C., is in Birmingham on a visit to his brother, Mr. P. G. Bowman. He reports that South Carolina will elect Ben Tillman governor and give her electoral vote to Cleveland by a safe and solid majority. The Alliance people of the Palmetto State are democrats and will stand by the ticket.

THEY HAVE FUSED.

Kolbites and Populists Make a Coalition.

The Kolb state executive committee met in this city yesterday. So did the state executive committee of the populists. Chairman Bowman presided over one and Chairman Gaither over the other. There was a full attendance of the Kolb committee. Captain Kolb himself was present. There was also a good attendance of the populists. Each committee discussed among itself how it loved the other committee.

All was love and harmony, and there was finally a unanimous resolution that "we be brethren." Then they got together and embraced. Then they concocted a plan to try and beat Cleveland in Alabama. Some prominent republicans were in town. What they had to do with it was not announced. Chairman Mosely doesn't give away his hand. But it was stated by those high in authority that the republicans loved both the Kolbites and the Populists too well to intrude upon the marriage ceremony.

The members of the Jeffersonian democracy and the people's party of Alabama are requested to meet at the court house of their respective counties, or such other place as may be designated, on Saturday, September 10, 1892, in mass meeting or convention for the purpose of expressing their indignation on account of the frauds and outrages perpetrated in the recent state election in Alabama, and also to appoint ten delegates to a state convention to be held in Birmingham on Thursday, the 15th day of September, 1892, to nominate candidates for congressmen for the respective districts and presidential electors, and also to transact such other business as may come before said convention. The apportionment of representation will be fixed by said convention, and the delegates from each district respectively will nominate the candidate for congressman from that district.

In counties where delegates have already been selected, their ratification by these mass meetings, or conventions will be sufficient and meet the demands.

P. G. BOWMAN,
Chairman State Democratic Executive Committee.

GEO. F. GAITHER,
Chairman People's Party Executive Committee, State of Alabama.

The announcement was made yesterday by Mr. Gaither that General Weaver himself would be in Alabama on September 14, and that an invitation to address the convention on the 15th would undoubtedly be accepted. Accordingly, General Weaver will be invited and will no doubt be present.

There is high authority for saying the republicans will join with the coalition in voting for its congressmen and electoral ticket.—Age-Herald 17th inst.

Lawlessness Rampant.

There is a tribunal ordained by the Constitution of Alabama for the trial of contests over the governorship. That tribunal is the most august body that meets in the State, the General Assembly of the representatives of the people. Before that high court, the contesting candidate for Governor will carry his case. The Jeffersonian Democratic party, as it calls itself, will there meet in combat the organized and regular Democracy of the State, prepared to assert itself to the uttermost and make good its title to the victory it has won. So far as the organized Democracy is concerned, the charges of fraud and unfairness putter as harmlessly against its unbroken ranks as the showers upon the shields of a Roman army. As we have said before, the Democratic party of Alabama, nor any other party that ever lived, will fail to meet a charge like that and repel it, and maintain the power won at the ballot box. If the Kolb faction have the case they profess with unending tongue, why fear to meet their adversary in the forum ordained by law?

Instead of trusting their cause to its merits, they plot and plan organized revenge outside the law. They scheme in secret and mouth in public for the mean revenge of defeating in November their opponents who were victorious in August, even though the party to which they profess to belong go down in disaster, and the party of the Force bill rear its triumphant column in our midst. They propose to violate the fundamental principle of Democracy and trample on everything held sacred in the South, by invoking the aid of a Federal army to set them up in a Government of their own upon the soil of a Southern State. They openly advocate and urge that the people refuse to fulfill their plain and sacred duty to support the Government and the execution of law, by ignoring the levy and collection of taxes. Claiming that the law gives them rights, they declare against all law and all Government, and are preparing to reduce, if they can, the proud commonwealth of Alabama to the condition of a Central American Republic or the Island of San Domingo itself.

THE AFTERMATH

The Republicans Planning to Capture Alabama For Harrison.

The New York Commercial-Advertiser, now one of the most bitter republican papers in New York, has the following in reference to the Alabama election: "There will be an aftermath of the election in Alabama. Jones, the regular democratic candidate for governor, claims to have beaten Kolb, the alliance and republican candidate by 10,000. This majority is said to have been obtained in the so-called 'black belt' of the state. Honest voters of the north will be furnished with evidence of the glaring frauds perpetrated to save Alabama to the democratic party. This evidence will be obtained by a contest in the Alabama courts, and possibly in the United States courts. Prominent republicans who have been interested propose to see that the whole affair is thoroughly ventilated."

"A gentleman connected with the management of the national campaign said this morning: 'Kolb was elected governor of Alabama. We can make this clear at the proper time. Southern democrats are shrewd and desperate, but they have overreached themselves at last. This election will be carried into the courts, and we will prove that Jones was beaten. We will not have to do this by the testimony of blacks alone, but by the evidence of the best white men in Alabama, and the testimony will be appalling to the voters of the north.'"

"Kolb's plans were well laid. He knew his strength among the whites and when he asked for republican assistance it was granted. It was understood that the 'black belt' would be the scene of the democratic fraud. Recognizing this, the Kolb men and the republican leaders requested the negroes to refrain from voting, to stay away from polling places entirely, for if they voted they would be counted for Jones."

"All this was done quietly and it worked effectively. Not 10 per cent of the negroes voted, but we did not guess the extent to which the democratic managers would go. Return from the 'black belt,' as furnished by the democrats, show an increased vote over the previous elections."

"Now this will be brought out in the courts of Alabama. We hardly expect a favorable or fair decision there, but the fight will be made anyway. Eminent lawyers believe that a technicality can be introduced at the trial by which a writ of error can be brought in the United States court. Presumably this would be based on the section of the constitution of the United States guaranteeing to each state a republican form of government."

American Investments has the following to relate touching some victims of the Tallapoosa villainy:

"Chicago parties holding over $100,000 of the stock of the Georgia-Alabama Investment and Development Company, represented by about 500 people, had a meeting the other day which was somewhat of the nature of a Fiji Island picnic. Of those present one-third were women. The purpose of the meeting was to devise some method whereby the suffering stockholders could realize a little on their investment. Mr. Norton, the receiver, rehearsed the status of the company, which was not flatteringly bright. The women present were compelled to listen to talk about assets consisting of glass and iron furnaces, vacant lots, etc., etc., which certainly must have been edifying. The general tone of those present was to the effect that they had been swindled. We don't undertake to say what is best for these poor stockholders to do, but we do say, and that with great emphasis, that if there had been a little investigation made before this $100,000 stock had been subscribed and paid for, not a stockholder would have been lost. The stockholders need blame no one but themselves."

Alabama has blazed the way for the rest of the south. The result of the state election there Monday was a sweeping victory for the straight democracy over the combination of the bolters, republican and third parties. A supreme effort was made to break the solid south, but it proved futile, and Alabama will stand in November in the forefront of the democratic column. Her work on Monday should prove an inspiration to the democrats of all the other southern states.—Richmond Dispatch.

DR. PETER BRYCE DEAD.

The Flag Ordered at Half Mast out of Respect.

MONTGOMERY, Aug. 14.—The news of the death of Dr. Peter Bryce, for so many years the honored head of the State Insane asylum at Tuscaloosa, was received in this city this morning and created profound sorrow. The flag on the state house was ordered by the governor to be placed at half mast out of respect to the deceased.

Within fifteen years James Weaver has been a member of five different political parties—the Republican, Greenback, Democratic, Union Labor and Populite parties. It will not be two years longer before he will have disbanded his present organization and started on the road with a brand new aggregation.—Anniston News.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS.

Full Text of the Law Granting Them Pensions.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 9th '92
Editor Advertiser:—I enclose to you the act of Congress approved July 27th to pension the soldiers of the Indian wars, which I hope you will publish and that it will be copied by all the newspapers in the State for the information of those interested therein. I took a deep interest in the bill and aided its passage through the House of Representatives, knowing that there are many old men and women, in very needy circumstances in our State who will be benefited thereby. Every one entitled to a pension under this act should apply to Hon. Green B. Raum, Commissioner of Pensions, Washington, D. C., for blank forms of application and instructions, and then get up their proof to sustain such application; and when completed, forward the same to General Raum. Each one will have to wait his turn, and it will be several months—perhaps a year—before all the cases are reached and acted upon, so great is the volume of business in the Pension Bureau.

Any one who wishes to apply for pension and will follow these plain directions, need not write to any member of Congress or Washington attorney. Most of the lawyers at home will fill out the blanks for these applicants without charge.

Very respectfully,
Wm. C. Oates.

The following is the full text of the law:

An act granting pensions to the survivors of the Indian wars of eighteen hundred and forty-two to eighteen hundred and forty-two, inclusive, known as the Black Hawk war, Creek war, Cherokee disturbances, and the Seminole war.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Interior be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to place on the pension roll names of the surviving officers and enlisted men, including marines, militia and volunteers of the United States, who served for thirty days in the Black Hawk war, the Creek war, the Cherokee disturbances, or the Florida war with the Seminole Indians, embracing a period from eighteen hundred and forty-two to eighteen hundred and forty-two inclusive, and who were honorably discharged, and such other officers, soldiers, and sailors as may have been personally named in any resolution of Congress, for any specific service in said Indian wars, although their term of service may have been less than thirty days, and the surviving widows of such officers and enlisted men: Provided, That such widows have not married: Provided further, That this act shall not apply to any person not a citizen of the United States.

Sec. 2. That pensions under this act shall be at the rate of eight dollars per month, and payable from and after the passage of this act, for and during the natural lives of the persons entitled thereto.

Sec. 3. That before the names of any person shall be placed on the pension roll under this act, proof shall be made under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Interior may prescribe, of the right of an applicant to a pension; and any person who shall falsely and corruptly take any oath required under this act shall be deemed guilty of perjury, and the Secretary of the Interior shall cause to be stricken from the pension roll the name of any person whenever it shall be made to appear by proof satisfactory to him that such name was put upon said roll through false and fraudulent representations, and that such person is not entitled to a pension under this act. The loss of the certificate of discharge shall not deprive any person of the benefits of this act, but other evidence of service performed and of an honorable discharge may be deemed sufficient.

Sec. 4. That this act shall not apply to any person who is receiving a pension at the rate of eight dollars per month or more, nor to any person receiving a pension of less than eight dollars per month, except for the difference between the pension now received (if less than eight dollars per month) and eight dollars per month.

Sec. 5. That the pension laws now in force, which are not inconsistent or in conflict with this act, are hereby made a part of this act, so far as they may be applicable thereto.

Sec. 6. That section forty-seven hundred and sixteen of the Revised Statutes is hereby repealed, so far as the same relates to this act or to pensions under this act.

The Kolb Convention At Goodwater Goodwater The Lawless Mob.

GOODWATER, Aug. 15.—No disturbance occurred at Goodwater today. About 200 Kolbites assembled and transacted their business in an orderly manner. Resolutions were passed condemning the acts of the lawless mobs. Congressman Cobb was present and delivered a conciliatory address of considerable length, which was well received.

The people would like to know on what theory it is that Kolb, Adams and Bowman, swear that when the negro vote comes up for Jones in certain counties, the returns are fraudulent, while in other counties when the negro vote comes up for Kolb, the returns are honest and fair? They have to take the advanced position that a negro vote for Jones is necessarily fraudulent, while one for Kolb is necessarily honest and fair. Do they think they can hoodwink the people with such stuff as that?—Montgomery Advertiser.

Alabama is one of the several southern states where the farmers' movement has gained a foothold. The failure of Kolb, the bolting democrat, supported by the third party and many republicans, and the coalition of which he was representative, seems to throw a wet blanket over the attempt to break the solid south by a blank movement. So long as the force bill is a menace to the peace, order and prosperity of the whole country the south will be solid.—Washington Special to Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Alabama Republicans.

Anniston, Aug. 16.—W. J. Stevens, chairman, has called a meeting of the republican state executive committee in Selma September 1, for the purpose of discussing the political situation, completing the electoral ticket, advising as to candidates in the several congressional districts and determining the course to be pursued by the republicans in Alabama.

A Duel to Death.

Montgomery, Ala., Aug. 12.—A fatal shooting affray occurred at Whitehall in Lowndes county, today. Will Weatherly, a young man who had formerly resided in this place, and a druggist by profession, was shot and instantly killed by Henry Dantzler, a young farmer.

Both men attended a dance at Whitehall last night and became involved in a quarrel over some small matter. The fuss was resumed this morning. Weatherly drew his revolver and fired at Dantzler, striking him in the leg. Dantzler fired and missed his man. Weatherly fired a second shot without effect and Dantzler again responded, shooting Weatherly through the breast and causing almost instant death. Dantzler had a preliminary trial and was acquitted. Both men are of good family.

Verily, the people of Alabama, the honest, debt-paying, law-abiding and patriotic people of Alabama are day by day learning the lesson of thankfulness for their deliverance from such masters, and may well prepare to sing unending praises and say ceaseless prayers that the deliverance may be eternal.—Birmingham Age Herald.

There are eight cases of fever in the house at Germania. Two of which are of a continued type. These are the only cases we have heard of, our neighborhood. This has been exceptionally healthy this spring and summer.

Our doctors have been unusually busy during the summer, we see their faces on our streets at all times, in fact we scarcely ever miss one from town. This speaks volumes for the salubrity of our climate.

The city council, by request of the citizens of Jacksonville, has revoked the licenses of the beef market men, their consent, and the people of our country are now at liberty to sell their own meat, to the satisfaction of all in any quantity.

Old Dr. Clegg, of Flat Rocks, Clay Co., was visiting friends at Germania this week. The Dr. is about eighty years old and is as active and spry as some of our youngest M.D's. He is fair to count his hundred years. A long life to the good old man.

Notwithstanding the hard times Jacksonville continues to improve. Ranganum has just completed iron from two story brick store the public square and is pulling down his old business house to build another, and Mr. R. L. Vansandt is building a beautiful store finished brick store house on depot street.

State Normal School Announcement.

BYHALIA, MISS., Aug 8, 1902.

A long spell of sickness of a month or more has compelled me to send out a simple announcement of the State Normal School instead of the regular catalogue.

This, while unavoidable, is to be regretted, for it is a deplorable fact the public, in judging of the comparative merits of schools and teachers, are often, though perhaps unconsciously, influenced by elaborate catalogues and commencement displays.

The announcement has, in a concise form, all the necessary information in regard to the school, and will be given or mailed to any one who will take the trouble to ask or write for it.

AT REST.

In Memory of our Mother.

Once more the golden bowl is broken, the silver cord is loosed to admit another reasoned soul through heaven's pearly gate! Francis Dickie, wife of Washington Dickie, was born N. C. in 1832, removed to Alabama with her parents, James and Drady Browning 1837, died June 18th 1892, 59 years, 11 months and 9 days.

A good and kind wife, affectionate mother and grandmother, 31 years of her life she walked a christian path at the foot of the cross and to day she wears the white robe of the saint and the bright crown of glory. When that precious tongue would utter words of consolation, "children I can not stay with you much longer but I don't fear death; I only hate to leave you; my road is bright and clear; my home above." We do not feel like we have lost our mother. Still we know she is gone from us, but not forever. We only feel like we have given her back to Him that giveth, and while we know we have no mother on earth and feel like our earthly comfort has fled, may we, by the grace of the living God, realize that we have one in heaven while we know her body silently sleeps beneath the sod. She left the sweet comforting and consoling words that we know her soul rests on sweet beds of peace in heaven's eternal light. She has gone home from a world of sorrow to a world of joy and peace. May we meet the fair, the pure and loving one beyond this vale where there will be no parting, no more farewell tears shed. Mother has gone to the loved one that crossed the cold stream of death before her—the loving brother.

We feel that we will no more on earth meet her bright and cheering smiles nor grasp her strong faithful and loving hand, nor hear her tender and ever sympathizing voice and it fills our hearts with sorrow; but father, brothers and sisters why do we weep over the absence of the loving and loved one? Remember she was willing to die. While upon her death-bed she would say "I am ready and willing to die," and she craved for the hour to come when the snow-white angels should hover round her dying bed to bear the weary spirit home where saints immortal reign. Minister Harden attended her funeral services and the song: "Why do we mourn departing friends" was sung. While we know by death's unsparing hand we must part, how sweet is the thought one by one we are going home; that Jesus conveys us safely home to loved ones not lost, but gone before.

Written by two sad and lonely daughters who weep over the absence of the loving mother.

Nature should be assisted to throw off impurities of the blood. Nothing does it so well, so promptly, or so safely as Swift's Specific.

LIFE HAD NO CHARM.

For three years I was troubled with malarial poison, which caused my appetite to fall, and I was greatly reduced in flesh, and lost all its charms. I tried mercurial and potash remedies, but to no effect. I could get no relief. I then decided to try Swift's Specific. I used it for a few days, and the medicine made a complete and permanent cure, and I now enjoy better health than ever.

Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wailes. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black tibets, fancy cassimers, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.

LABOR TROUBLES.

NORTHERN RAILROADS GUARDED BY STATE TROOPS.

To Prevent Striking Switchmen from Further Depredations—Great Loss of Property.

BUFFALO, Aug. 26.—For the past six days, switchmen have been on strike on the New York Central and Lehigh Valley railroads, and business has been almost entirely suspended. Troops in New York and New Jersey have been called out to suppress the almost continuous rioting that followed the strike, caused by strikers trying to prevent others from taking their places. Whole trains of cars have been burned in the yards, and immense damage has been done, both to property and to the railroads.

Eight thousand troops now guard the property of the railroads, and frequent skirmishes take place. Last night the strikers took place in which bayonets played a prominent part.

They Had a Fight.
BUFFALO, Aug. 26.—"We are covering too much territory for our numbers," remarked Captain Kirby in command of the provision regiments on the Central tracks. "Our lines are too thin," he added. This fact was demonstrated about midnight at the William street crossing of the Central tracks. The locality was picked out only by Captain Wilson and thirty-four men from Geneva.

An angry crowd caught the situation about 11 o'clock, began pushing in upon the picket lines. Jeers and abuse were heaped upon the men, and finally the point was reached when Captain Wilson believed there would be an encounter. He hurried a courier away to get reinforcements, and the men with an appeal for help on their lips.

Kirby acted promptly and quickly twenty-three men of the Auburn company under Lieutenant Nellis and Sergeant Wilson were on their way to the scene. Captain Kirby, who was in command of the provision regiments, and finally Captain Wilson strode forward, drawing his pistol as he did so.

"The men who were beyond that bank will get lead," he shouted in the face of the crowd. There was a pause, and an angry impulse was checked by the officer who stood in lamplight with outstretched arms, and pistol barrel glittering in the terrible gloom. Even as he stood, there came a sound of hurrying footsteps. Relief from Captain Kirby was hurrying along the cinder path between the tracks, and finally making a dash for the command, and the Auburn men did charge.

The pistol came down as Lieutenant Nellis brought up his men. "Disperse," commanded Nellis, "if you resist, you are certain as heaven." Those in rear of the turbulent crowd, then numbering fully 3,000 persons, were enough. "Charge!" sprang forth the command, and the Auburn men did charge.

These in front broke and turned upon those behind, and a scattering followed. Bayonets, and many legs in the air, and the Auburn men were in the hands of the strikers. The strikers came and stoning continued. The gang was on Erie street, and then the order to fire was given. A volley was fired, and the men fled and they scattered. Another volley was fired and the men broke and ran under cover of darkness. They were pursued but escaped.

The Firemen Will Strike.
It is stated to be almost certain that all the locomotive firemen on the Lehigh, Erie, Lake Shore, West Shore and Central roads will go out by Sunday morning, and that the strikers and conductors will follow them.

The Engineers to Be Likewise.
The most important movements in the strike are the practical termination of the locomotive engineers to a sympathetic strike, and the proposal of Mr. Sweeney to the strikers to arbitrate. The roads will not arbitrate.

A FEARFUL MISTAKE.

A Mother Shot and Killed Her Lovely Daughter in Richmond.
RICHMOND, Aug. 26.—The beautiful 16-year-old daughter, and the only daughter, of Mrs. Lizzie Hicks went to get something unknown to her mother, and not taking a light. As she returned her mother, who is a widow, seized a loaded revolver and shot at the supposed daughter.

The ball entered the young lady's breast just above her heart. She had strength enough to rush into her mother's arms and kiss her, saying that she knew it was a mistake and she forgave her. They fell dead at her mother's feet. The poor lady afterwards attempted suicide, but failed. It is feared she will be a maniac.

The American Hog House.
BRUNN, Aug. 26.—Orders have been issued by the ministers of the interior, agricultural and mechanical affairs, declaring that, inasmuch as examination proves that many American hogs and sides of bacon contain trichina, imports of such products are not to be placed on the market until they have been examined by the Prussian authorities.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.

The Jailor Walked Into the Trap of Four Desperate Prisoners.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., Aug. 18.—Gus Miller, a new jailor, about 7 o'clock at night, opened a cell to admit the wife of one of the occupants. The cell contained William and Thomas Whitson, charged with murder; Pink Creamman, charged with robbery; and Hubert Garmon, charged with larceny. As soon as Miller opened the cell door, he was attacked by the four men. A pistol was taken from him and he was slashed with a razor, which one of the prisoners had previously borrowed from the recorder. He was finally overpowered and bound and gagged.

The four prisoners then rushed out of the cell and out of the jail. Mrs. Miller attempted to stop Pink Creamman, and was severely choked by him. Almost as soon as the fleeing men left the cell, Miller managed to release himself and started in pursuit. He overtook one of the Whitsons just outside the jail, knocked him senseless with a bunch of whistles, and secured him. The other Whitson was apprehended not far from the jail. Creamman and Garmon have not yet been caught.

THE TEXAS ALLIANCEMEN.

They Are in Convention at Austin and Will Hold Several Days.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 18.—A Times-Democrat, Austin, Tex., special says: At the state alliance convention assembled here, the address of welcome to S. Ashby on the part of the association. Ashby claimed that the order numbered seven million in the United States. President Evans Jones, alluding to the question, deplored the fact that so much public money was being sent into the hands of foreign syndicates.

He contended for the government ownership of railroads as an ultimatum question, and the transportation question, and the alliance movement in sufficient quantities to perform the function of circulation. The convention will be in session several days.

HENRY W. JAEHNE.

The Former Treasurer of the New York Alderman Board.

SING SING, N. Y., Aug. 19.—Henry W. Jaehne, who has been serving a ten-year sentence here for his part in the Broadway railroad boodle scandal in New York in 1884, is looking forward to Oct. 15, when he will be released. Jaehne has been a prisoner, and by good behavior has shortened his sentence to six years four months and twenty-five days. He has aged visibly, and would hardly be recognized as the "big" man of eight years ago. He will join his family in Greenville, N. Y., on Oct. 15 and go to work at a proper and honest occupation. He is in company with several other prisoners, although Jaehne claims he did not get a cent of Jake Sharpe's boodle.

STEVENSON TO THE IRISH.

The Illinois Ancient Order of Hibernians On a Picnic—Admit Spoken.

BLOOMINGTON, Aug. 18.—The annual picnic of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Bloomington was held at the fair grounds, with General Adlai E. Stevenson one of the speakers. "I believe," said he, "that a better day is coming for the land from which you and your ancestors came. The time is in the near future, when under the leadership of Gladstone, the people of Ireland will enjoy the same freedom and liberty that we have here in blessed America today. When that day comes, but in that rejoicing all America will take part."

FUSION IN ALABAMA.

Kold Men and the People's Party Leaders Call a Convention.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 17.—The Kolb executive committee and the People's Party executive committee have held a joint session here. They worked together in perfect harmony and would be setting a joint call for a joint convention to put candidates out for congress and presidential election. The fusion convention is to be held in Birmingham on September 15th. General Ingham on September 15th. General Ingham, candidate for president, is announced to be present and make a speech. The chairman of the Kolb committee announces that the Republicans will take down their electoral ticket and this is confirmed by leading Republicans.

A Woman's Busy Brain.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 19.—Mrs. N. E. Beasley, of this city, is the inventor of a grain pipe line for carrying small grain. The project is still in its incipient stage, but Mrs. Beasley is confident of the final success of the invention. The scheme is to lay pipes from Chicago to the Atlantic coast. The grain is to be carried in continuous ventilated shafts, it is claimed, without friction, twelve miles an hour. The power stations are to be twenty-five miles apart, and the sections between that length, and the sections between that length are to be erected in Chicago this fall. The cost, estimated, is $200,000 for a line from Buffalo to the coast.

The Chinese Are Getting Mad.

BERLIN, Aug. 19.—According to reliable diplomatic information received here, China has addressed strong representations to Russia protesting against the occupation of Panin country by the Russians as a breach of the treaty of Livadia, which fixes the frontier 100 miles north of Altshai, where the Russians are encamped.

The governor of Chinese Turkestan has sent troops to protect the frontier.

Depredations in West Virginia.

KINCAID, Aug. 19.—Great excitement prevails over the Cooley depredations here. The store of Merchant Elicott, at Decatur was raided and robbed of nearly $1,000. A number of other depredations are reported. The sheriff is out with a large armed force. If the outlaws are captured summary justice will be dealt.

A NOVEL LAWSUIT.

An Atlanta Man Tried to Buy an Office and Failed.

ATLANTA, Aug. 16.—One of the most remarkable cases on record in any court has just been docketed in the Fulton county clerk's office.

The matter dates back some three or four months, when Judge J. Gadsden King, then a justice of the peace of 1026th district, G. M., for and in consideration of six promissory notes of $75 each, and one of $50, signed by Judson Woodard, endorsed by City Clerk Park Woodard, tendered his resignation as aforesaid justice to the grand jury of Fulton county, and the same was accepted.

Upon the resignation of Judge King he was accepted by the grand jury, Mr. Glenn at once became a candidate before that body for the office vacated by Judge King, and it was for the chances of obtaining said office that the notes were made to Judge King.

The grand jury, however, much to the chagrin of Mr. Glenn, elected another applicant for the place, and left Glenn out in the cold.

Woodard the first note became due, Mr. Woodard, who was then employed by the same office of the salary of Glenn, was working for Mr. Woodard on a salary of $75 per month.

Mr. Glenn, through his attorney, Mr. R. M. Jordan, and files a petition, praying that Mr. Woodard be enjoined from paying any more of the said notes to Judge King, and praying that Judge King be restrained from accepting the notes, and that he be required to produce the same in court that they may be cancelled as they are illegal papers, because of the fact that the contract between them was illegal and void.

THE VETERANS' COMMITTEE.

They Will Take Step to Obtain a True History of the War.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 16.—George W. Moorman, assistant general has announced that General J. B. Gordon, general commanding Confederate Veterans, has appointed the following committee, as directed by the unanimous vote of the convention of delegates assembled at New Orleans on April 8 and 9, 1892, as an historical committee, and on southern school history, "to formulate a plan to secure true and reliable history of the late civil war, and to select a proper and faithful history of the United States to recommend for use in public and private schools in the South."

Lieutenant General E. Kirby Smith, chairman, Sewanee, Tenn.; Professor J. N. Shibley, Vicksburg, Miss.; Professor J. W. Nicholson, Baton Rouge, La.

THE CHILIANAS SATISFIED.

All Claims of American Citizens Will Be Promptly Settled.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.—The president has appointed W. Woodville Fleming, of North Carolina, a member of the commission to negotiate with the Chilean government the claims of American citizens against the Chilean government. The situation at all the mines and coke works, where convicts are worked is not a pleasing one, and a suit of distance seems prevalent in all mining districts. Neither convict, lessee or authorities have decided upon any plan of action, and the miners at Tracy City are in full control with plenty of arms.

A NEW PAPER.

To Be Started in Memphis in the Interest of the People's Party.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 16.—It has been learned here that the People's party has decided to start a morning newspaper in Memphis on or before the first of September. It is said that John H. McDowell will be the editor in chief. General James G. Field, the People's party candidate for congress, is now in Memphis looking over the ground, and his followers in making necessary arrangements to start the paper.

Governor Buchanan, it is said, will announce himself as an independent candidate for governor Aug. 18, on which day the People's party convention meets here. Buchanan will be endorsed by the People's party, and the Memphis press will support him. The newspaper will be called The Gazette.

PROTECTING HIS SISTER.

A Texas Lad Kills the Man Who Would Abuse His Sister.

FR. WORTH, Aug. 16.—George Dorton was shot and instantly killed by George Myers, a boy of seventeen. Dorton had attempted a forcible assault upon the girl's mother, and she screamed and pursued Dorton, followed soon by the hands of his mother and grappled with Dorton, who was pleading his innocence. Myers fired, the ball striking Dorton in the forehead. The boy screamed, and was locked up, but there is little question of his guilt. Dorton was a local agent, and had been in the city a couple of days.

An Iowa Girl's Tragic Death.

MAHARISHI, Aug. 16.—Phoebe Imman, an 18-year-old daughter of Samuel Imman, a farmer living a few miles east of here, met a most shocking death while returning from Legrand with a horse and cart. The animal became frightened and ran away, throwing Miss Imman from the seat with her head broken and one ear torn off. She was broken and one ear torn off. She was broken and one ear torn off. She was broken and one ear torn off.

An Explosion Barely Averted.

PANAMA, Aug. 16.—A box filled with gun cotton, placed in the center of a mass of petroleum with a battery fuse attached, was found in the basement of the law courts in Panama. The discovery was made just in time to prevent the explosion.

THE MINERS AGAIN.

TROUBLE IN TENNESSEE OVER THE CONVICT LABOR.

The Massing of Troops Going on, and a Desperate Conflict with the Miners Is Expected.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Aug. 16.—Labor troubles in Tennessee are assuming a very grave aspect. Early in the morning a large number of miners left Whiteswell and Victoria for the Indian mines in Sequatchie valley, twenty-five miles west of Chattanooga, for the avowed purpose of burning the stockade and releasing the 200 convicts confined there. All the mines in the vicinity have been except those of the Postal company, whose nearest office is ten miles from Indian, and details cannot be obtained. The miners are guarding the telegraph operators and linesmen. It is also reported that the extra guards ordered to Tracey by Governor Buchanan have been turned back by the miners at that place.

Information has just been received here that the train carrying additional guards to Indian was captured at Victoria by miners and turned back. The 275 convicts at Indian have been shut off from all communication with Indian, and trouble similar to that at Tracey City is expected.

A telegram just received from Victoria states that the miners captured the 275 convicts at Indian and brought them to Victoria for shipment to Nashville. No property was injured.

News from Nashville.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 16.—At Tracey City quiet, though much anxiety is shown by the miners as to what steps the mine owners and state authorities will take. Governor Buchanan announces his determination to use every lawful means in his power to preserve order when appointed in proper form is made to him by the civil authorities. Governor Buchanan has received a telegram from Oliver Springs, stating the stockade there was attacked at three o'clock a. m., and that the mob was repulsed after two of the guards were slightly wounded. The telegram also stated that another attack was expected.

Governor Buchanan at once ordered a company of soldiers from Chattanooga and one from Knoxville to go to Oliver Springs.

Mr. Baxter, of the Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railway company, who asked that the matter, said this would not make any difference whatever to the company.

The Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railway company, it is reported, ordered that the stockade at Indian, which was greatly damaged by the miners, be torn down. The miners at Indian said that if the convicts are taken back there they will burn the entire place. A good force of miners have resumed work at the Whiteswell mines.

In Full Control at Tracy City.

The Tennessee Coal, Iron and Railway company's officials intimate that they will reconquer their mines in a few days, so soon as they can organize a force to work the coal mines, and that convicts may not be used at these mines.

The situation at all the mines and coke works, where convicts are worked is not a pleasing one, and a suit of distance seems prevalent in all mining districts. Neither convict, lessee or authorities have decided upon any plan of action, and the miners at Tracy City are in full control with plenty of arms.

A Victory for the Miners.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Aug. 19.—The miners captured an engine and four cars at Jellico at 10 o'clock at night, loaded it with armed men, went to Coal Creek, captured two engines and six cars, filled them with armed miners of Coal Creek, and went to Oliver Springs, cut the wires on both sides of Oliver's and tore up the railroad track for some distance on both sides of Oliver's.

A detachment of twenty-seven soldiers from this place, under Major Chandler, arrived at Oliver Springs in safety. Colonel Woodard, with a detachment of 60 men arrived from Harrodsman from Chattanooga at 1 o'clock in the morning. The engineer of the train on the East Tennessee and Georgia branch refused to haul the train.

Supt. Inger says he will not turn a wheel unless ordered to do so by the governor.

Nobody has been killed so far as can be learned, but it is thought that a fight took place shortly after day light. The wires are cut and absolutely nothing can be secured. The Chattanooga soldiers are forty miles from the seat of trouble.

The Situation Very Serious.

KNOXVILLE, Aug. 18.—A special from Coal Creek says 600 miners at Jellico captured a train just before midnight at Jellico.

The engineer refused to pull it out, but close proximity to his head of danger looking Winchester made him quickly obey all commands made upon him. They ran over fifty miles an hour through tunnels and over bridges to Coal Creek, having just arrived at the time the dispatch was sent. All but a few alighted at Coal Creek, a few keeping possession of the train and going on to Clinton.

Troops to the Scene.

At 3 o'clock a. m., a special train with about 100 troops and civilians left for East Tennessee in response to the governor's call for assistance.

Late Wednesday night, after a consultation with the adjutant general and his attorneys, Governor Buchanan ordered all the organized militia in the state to the scene of the troubles in the mining regions.

He then made requisitions on the sheriffs of Davidson, Hamilton and Knox counties for posses of 1,000 men each, and to the sheriffs of Anderson, Morgan and Marion for 500 more. If they can raise them, the penalty for a sheriff refusing to obey his order is a term of imprisonment and a fine of $10. All the troops will march at once to Knoxville and from there to Coal Creek.

The Militia and Others Fight.

KNOXVILLE, Aug. 19.—A committee of miners waited on General Anderson and asked him to surrender. They said they had had enough of bloodshed and

The Republican.

L. W. GRANT, Publisher.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 27, 1892.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND.

For Vice-President,
A. E. STEVENSON.

CAMPAIGN RATE.

For twenty-five cents, strictly in advance, the REPUBLICAN will be sent to any address from now until the 1st of January 1893. This period will cover the Presidential Campaign; the meeting of the State Legislature and the gubernatorial contest before that body. It will cover the most interesting period of the State for years. Can any man in Calhoun afford to be without the paper at this price? Remember no name will be booked at this low rate without the cash.

THE SITUATION.

Last week the REPUBLICAN said the Jones men did not want to see Jones Governor if he had not been fairly elected and declared that Gov. Jones would not have the office if it could be shown he was not fairly elected to it by the fairly expressed will of a free people.

That we did not underestimate the Governor is shown in an interview, published elsewhere, which he had a few days ago with Mr. Chapel Cory, editor of the Birmingham Age-Herald.

The constitution of the State from the earliest years of its existence has required the legislature to pass laws governing a contest for State officers, but for some reason it has never been done, and today there is no provision by which the title of any State office can be contested. All the legislature can do is to open the returns and declare the result as certified from the counties. According to these returns, as shown in the case of Lane and Adams, Jones has received nearly sixteen thousand majority, and, in the absence of any action on the part of the Legislature, will inevitably be the next Governor.

But the correctness of these returns has been challenged by Kolb, Bowman and others. They declare that if Kolb could contest and properly sift these returns, it would be found that Kolb is elected by a large majority.

This is precisely what Gov. Jones proposes to afford him an opportunity of doing. At the last session of the Legislature, two years ago, Gov. Jones sent a message to the Legislature calling the attention of that body to the fact that a law providing for contests for State offices should be enacted. That such a law was not passed then is no fault of the Governor. Mr. S. M. Adams and the Alliance people cannot be heard to complain that it was not done, because the Alliance had eighty-five out of one hundred members of the House and Mr. Adams was the leader of the Alliance forces in the House. Why they did not respond to the suggestion of the Governor, they can best tell.

So, the present situation is in no way chargeable to the Governor; yet he comes forward, of his own motion, and declares that he believes he is honestly elected; but if not he doesn't want the office, and promises to urge the Legislature to provide Mr. Kolb a means of contest, and if the sixty days session is not enough time for him to make his contest in local the Legislature in extra session at the end of the regular session and give him all the time he wants.

What can be fairer than this? Is not such a course a manly one? Is it not bound to win the respect of all fair men on both sides?

In view of this attitude of the Governor, fair men, who desire to see the right prevail, cannot longer tolerate the efforts of Bowman and the Alliance Herald to keep alive the fires of anger between the late contending wings of the Democracy.

The action of the State Executive Committee of the organized Democracy in wiping out old lines and declaring that a man's attitude as to Jones and Kolb shall be no test of future participation in the best meetings and primaries and higher conventions of the party went far in the direction of reconciliation and showed a disposition on the part of the Jones men to have peace with their brethren who voted for Kolb. This friendly advance was met by Bowman and the Alliance Herald with the statement that it was easy for the Jones men to offer to "make friends," since they proposed to hold on to the fruits of the victory, which they had cheated the Kolb men out of; and that there could be no reconciliation as long as the Kolb people were denied their rights. There was something in this claim, if these parties really believed Kolb had been elected; but now comes Gov. Jones and says a tribunal for the trial of the issue will be provided by law and he is willing to submit the whole case to that, and that he does not want to be Governor if it be found he has not been fairly elected. This knocks the last prop out from under the men who are engaged in fomenting strife in the party.

Now we submit to our readers the question, what more could the Jones men do towards reconciliation than they have done? If the Kolb men do not accept the olive branch thus tendered, will not the responsibility ticket in Alabama and the possible election of a Republican president be upon their heads?

When all causes of complaint is thus removed, if men support Weaver or Harrison, will it not be because they really desire to go out of the Democratic party?

To such as really desire to go, we say this is a free country, but, after the fair overtures of the Jones wing of the party, you cannot truthfully say you were driven out of it by the unfairness of your late opponents.

The recently elected Probate Judge and county officers in Tallapoosa and Coosa counties on the Kolb ticket have declared in favor of Cleveland. So has Thos. Tunlin, lately elected Senator from Cherokee and DeKalb counties on the Kolb ticket; and it is said most of the county officers elected in Cherokee are with Mr. Tunlin; as well as the rank and file of the Kolb party in Cherokee. So it will be all over the State. Democrats may have differed as to Kolb and Jones, but when it comes to going out of the Democratic party for good and all, it is a different thing.

FOURTH DISTRICT CONVENTION.

The Fourth District Convention at Calera nominated Mr. Gaston A. Robbins, of Dallas, on the seventy-first ballot. The names placed in nomination before the convention were Lane, of Calhoun; Browne, of Talladega and Robbins, Burns and Irwin of Dallas. The convention was harmonious. The nominee is a good Democrat and accomplished gentleman, who will represent the District well in Congress.

At a late county convention of the Kolbites in Cherokee county, fidelity to the National Democratic party and Cleveland, its nominee, was pledged in the following ringing resolution: Resolved (1), That we stand with both feet, without flinching, on the Chicago platform of 1892.

SETTLED BY LAW.

GOVERNOR JONES MAKES A SIMPLE STATEMENT.

He is for the Constitution—A Declaration that Will Satisfy Every Honest Democrat in Alabama.

Montgomery, Aug. 26.—A few days after the recent election the Age-Herald stated in a brief paragraph that the only plan of settling existing difficulties in the political situation was based on the pure patriotism and statesmanlike character of Thomas C. Jones. I have never for one moment doubted how Governor Jones felt about the situation, and that when the proper time came he would declare himself along the only right line in such plain and unmistakable terms as to set at rest the cavils and doubts and desires of every honest man, whether he voted for Jones or voted Kolb. Governor Jones could no more rest in the office of governor under the wholesale imputations of political fraud that are being made against his supporters than he could, as a private citizen, rest under an accusation that he held by a false and fraudulent title the house which shelters his family. The man is built that way, and in using this homely phrase I mean no descent from the dignity surrounding this subject.

I have never believed for a moment that all the clamor of all the people of Alabama combined in one persistent and loud roar, could shake his determination to hold the rights which the people gave him at the ballot box and discharge whatever duties that trust carried with it. I have never for moment believed that all the pressure the entire democratic party could bring to bear, if it should differ with him, would swerve him from the constitutional path or prevent him from seeking at the hands of the next general assembly a vindication of his title or a declaration of the issue according to the truth and the law. Not two weeks before the election, in a conversation regarding the evident purpose of the Kolb leaders to raise the cry of having been cheated, Governor Jones told me that he has called to the attention of the last general assembly the failure to enact laws for making operative the section of the state constitution relating to contests for governor, and had recommended that this important duty be no longer neglected. The fact that such failure to provide by law for a constitutional contest might now inure to his interest, would be certain as death or taxes to bring from him a renewal of his recommendation to the incoming legislature and a prompt demand for a settlement of the issue made against him by the opposition, in the forum ordained by the constitution.

Indeed, a declaration of such a purpose on the part of Governor Jones was not needed to assure those who know the man what he will do. But in the present constitution of affairs such a declaration is all that can be done to satisfy the honest minds of the opposition and to assure the supporters of organized democracy that the purity and honor of the party as a party of the constitution will be maintained. No honest man in Alabama questions or will ever question the sincerity and honesty of any statement from Governor Jones.

Believing this way, and being in Montgomery today, I went to the capitol and called on Governor Jones. I found, as I expected, that he had already determined on his course and stated it in conversations and correspondence with his friends. He believes, as organized democrats everywhere believe, that when the clamors of the multitude shall be sifted and whatever of wrong may have been done on either side shall be gotten out of the way of the honestly expressed will of the majority of the people, the title of the ticket of the organized democracy will be made clear in the eyes of men. With his own hand he is prepared to wipe away the technicalities that would make a contest impossible, and in his own sense of honor and right, challenges the fullest and fairest settlement of every question according to the constitution and the law.

Sitting in his private office at the capitol and discussing the future, the governor said he had not felt called upon heretofore to make public any declarations on the point at issue. He had supposed that no one would doubt his attitude. Besides, in the temper of the times and the bitter hostility with which the leaders of the opposition had pursued him, his motives and purposes in whatever he might say were sure to be perverted.

However, in view of the studied clamor of fraud, which has been raised for a purpose not far to see, and the evident desire of those who made use of it to keep alive discord and resentment within the party and among the people, to promote ulterior political operations, by insisting that wrongs had been suffered by the people under the forms of law, for which there was no legal or peaceful remedy, he did not hesitate to say for publication what he had freely said in conversation with his friends. He ended the interview with these words:

THE GOVERNOR'S POSITION.

"You may say I have no doubt that the entire state ticket was fairly elected, and that it received a considerable majority of the entire white vote of the state, as well as an overwhelming majority of the democratic white vote. If I am not fairly elected I do not want the office. I intend to renew my recommendation, made in February, 1891, to the ensuing general assembly, to pass laws to provide for contests before the general assembly of elections for governor and the other state officers. There can be no doubt that such a law will be passed.

"You may say further that if the limited session allowed by the constitution will not give sufficient time to hear and decide such contests as may be brought, that I will not hesitate to convene the general assembly in extraordinary session for that purpose.

"I have neither reason nor motive to use the power of the office of governor to hinder or embarrass investigation; but were it otherwise, investigation to this great trust would have no room for doubt as to the pathway of duty and honor, when the happiness and contentment of the people lay in the balance against partisan success or personal triumph."

THE GOVERNOR'S SPECIAL MESSAGE.

From the journals of the last legislature I take the following copy of the message sent by Governor Jones to that body on this subject:

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER,)
Montgomery, Ala., Feb. 4, 1891.)
To the General Assembly.)

I recommend to your consideration the following subjects upon which legislation is recommended:

SEC. 4, ART. 5, OF THE CONSTITUTION.

Section 4 of article 5 of the constitution provides that contested elections for certain state offices shall be determined by both houses of the general assembly, "in such manner as may be prescribed by law." In one instance, at least, in the past history of the state, the absence of such regulations prescribed by law caused serious contention, and was made the excuse for attempting to enjoin an officer, whose election had been duly declared by the general assembly, in accordance with the constitution and laws, from performing his functions as governor, as well as to prevent the declaration of the result itself.

THOMAS C. JONES, Governor.

The message from which this extract is taken recommended legislation to make effective these other constitutional provisions. In the hurry of the session and the numberless matters engrossing the attention of the members, no action was taken on the message, beyond its reference to committees.

The provision in our present constitution as to contests is a verbatim copy from the constitution of 1819, except that it uses the word "may" for "shall" in the words "may be prescribed."

What is the Force Bill?

The Republican declarations in 1890 in favor of a bill regulating elections; the recommendations in the messages of President Harrison which brought forth the Lodge-Davenport bill; the reaffirmation in the Republican platform of 1892 of a demand for such a bill, and a declaration to the effect that the party will "never relax" its efforts until such a bill is secured, makes it necessary for every Democrat, whether he intends to vote for Weaver or Cleveland, fully understand the nature and the scope of the measure.

The Courier-Journal has published this bill several times, but it takes a lawyer to analyze such a bill and show how it would operate. The best dissection of the Force bill from the standpoint of the lawyer is that made by Speaker Crisp. In a letter to his constituents, acknowledging his recommendation, Mr. Crisp calls their attention to the three great issues upon which Republicans and Democrats divide. These are the Tariff, the Force bill and economy in public expenditures. In discussing the Force bill Judge Crisp says:

"The Republican party is pledged to the enactment of a Federal Election law. I have before me, as I write, the bill passed by the last Republican House on that subject. This bill may be fairly considered as an authoritative expression of the kind and character of law which Republican success at the next election will inflict upon us.

"I cannot, within the proper scope of such a letter as this, enumerate all its remarkable provisions.

"It gives to the Judges of the United States Circuit Courts the power of appointing election officers of the States. It gives to the election officers so appointed the power to designate an unlimited number of Deputy Marshals, who may be employed for a number of days prior to each election, at $5 per day. (A thousand or more might be appointed in each Congressional district in Georgia.)

"It authorizes the use of armies of the United States to preserve the peace at the polls.

"It gives to judges of the United States Courts the power of appointing a canvassing or returning board for each State, who shall certify whom the people have elected to Congress.

"It requires the Clerk of the House of Representatives to place on the roll of members-elect the names of the persons holding such certificates, so that they may participate as members in the organization of the House.

"It authorizes officers of the United States to supervise and control the registration of voters.

"It authorizes such officers to make a house-to-house canvass, to ascertain the legality of any registered voter.

"It provides for the payment of all these officers out of the Federal Treasury, and authorizes the employment of many of them for as much as eight days before an election.

"And finally, it makes permanent appropriation of your money for the execution of the law.

"This enumeration of the provisions of the bill, meager though it is, must make it plain to all men that if it were enacted into law, the people would lose all voice in the selection or control of the officers who manage and certify the result of their elections.

"A Judge of the Circuit Court of the United States, who is himself appointed by the President and holds his office for life, appoints the election officers. All these Judges, save two, are Republican in politics. If election officers abuse or betray their trust, they are not responsible to the people. The source of their power and authority is the Judge who appointed them. If a Republican Judge, to advance the interests of his party, abuses his trust, he would not—should this bill become a law—be responsible to the people. Our Constitution intended that he should be, and that that end lodged in the people's representatives in Congress the power of impeachment, but this law removes that responsibility by permitting the appointee of the Judge to determine who is your duly elected Representative. If a partisan Judge appoints partisan election officers, who falsely certify that he whom you have defeated at the polls in your duly elected Representative, what remedy have you? The partisan election officers are alone responsible to the partisan Judge, and the partisan Judge can only be impeached by Representatives in Congress who hold their offices by virtue of a certificate from the partisan election officers. This is a mockery of responsibility."

Let every Democrat cut out this statement concerning the Force Bill and ask every Harrison or Weaver candidate for Congress or for Elector, why he thinks such a measure dead, why he can do anything or say anything to make the passage of such a bill possible.

Remember that every vote for Weaver is in effect a vote for Harrison, and the election of Harrison means

The government at Washington spends $450,000,000 a year. Of that sum, making all due allowances for our poverty, which disables our people, so many of them, from buying all they need of the comforts of life, Alabama paysfully $9,000,000. Our State government costs us about $1,500,000 a year; so that we pay into the federal treasury about six times as much as it takes to carry on our State. Of this $9,000,000 that we pay to the federal government, very little ever comes back to us. Take for instance the $750,000,000 now being paid for pensions. Of this we pay fully $2,500,000 a year, and practically all that is taken from us by the hands of the law is distributed up North. But this continual drain upon us to supply the government is only part of the system that is keeping us poor. The drainage does not stop with the expenditures of the government at Washington. Where we pay one dollar into the treasury, we pay at least two or three to the favored classes of manufacturers. Not only do we in Alabama pay it, but all the farming States, North and South, pay this same tribute.—H. A. Herbert.

Mr. Benson Nominated.

The first Democratic candidate for Congress to be nominated in this State is Hon. William H. Benson, who won the prize in the Seventh district convention at Fort Payne yesterday. Mr. Benson is one of the best known and most influential public men of Alabama, and he will make an able representative. He is a man of strong personality and of acknowledged ability. Under Mr. Benson in was United States district attorney for the Northern district of Alabama, and while otherwise he has not held important office the Democratic party has repeatedly trusted him with places of high honor.

Mr. Benson will succeed Gen. William Henry Forney, for eighteen years an honored member of Alabama's delegation to the lower house of Congress. On account of advancing years and the natural weariness arising from such long and arduous public service, General Forney declined to be a candidate for re-nomination and voluntarily retired to the well earned repose of private life.—Age-Herald.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORTNIGHT for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevrons, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevrons, black thickets, fancy cassimeres, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.
