MONEY

The Republican.

L. W. GRANT, Publisher.

SATURDAY, MARCH 5, 1892.

The New Party headed by Macune, Polk, Ben Terrell and others has issued a call for a National Convention at Omaha, Nebraska, July 4th, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President.

Larry Gantt, the former editor of the Alliance organ of Georgia says that he is against the third party; but that there is no use disguising the fact that seventy-five per cent. of the Alliancemen of Georgia will go with the third party.

Livingston has taken the stump in Georgia against the railroad ownership plank in the third party platform, as well as the plank which proposes to further bleed the South for the enrichment of the North by additional enormous bounties to Federal soldiers.

A clever writer says that if he was able to cartoon the late St. Louis convention, he would draw a sleek, well fed blue-bellied Federal soldier hugging to his breast a thin, ill-clad and ragged Confederate soldier. While tears would course their way over the fat cheeks of the Federal soldier, his hand would be in the pocket of the ragged Confederate hunting for whatever of value he had, been able to preserve from the ravages of war.

The estimate now is that to pay the Federal soldiers the difference between gold and greenbacks at the time they received their pay will take two thousand million dollars of money. Of this the South would pay about seven hundred million dollars, or more than the cost of running the state government of Alabama for seven hundred years; and yet the third party people expect southern men to accept this colossal swindle, through the efforts of Polk, Terrell and Macune. Not only this, they are expected to assist in wiping out the color line, which means the destruction of Southern civilization.

C. W. Macune, Ben Terrell, L. I. Polk, R. M. Humphrey, president of the National negro alliance, Mrs. Lease, the short-haired woman of Kansas, Anna L. Diggs another short-haired woman of Washington and various other parties have joined the Executive Committee of the People's Party in a call for a National Convention at Omaha, Nebraska, July 4th, for the purpose of nominating candidates for President and Vice-President. They invite all in favor of the platform (as set forth on the first page of this week's REPUBLICAN) to meet on the last Saturday in March to ratify the demands and organize for the election of delegates to the National Convention at Omaha.

State Alliance Lecturer Beck of Alabama says that he and Messrs. Adams, of Bibb, Brown, of Pike, and Bone, of Madison did not participate in the call for the third party convention; but with Livingston and Moses of Georgia, McDowell of Tennessee, Butler of North Carolina and several others walked out of the Convention before that was done. Yet, he says Mr. Adams will soon issue a call for a convention of all the labor organizations of Alabama to meet at Birmingham for the purpose of accepting or rejecting the platform put out by the Feb. 22nd Convention. If Mr. Adams and his crowd would not have anything to do with the new party movement, why does Mr. Adams call his Birmingham convention to consider their platform?

Judge Pete Turney of the Supreme Court bench of Tennessee, who has announced as a candidate for Governor of Tennessee on the Democratic platform of no secret societies in politics, is quite well known in Jacksonville and has many relatives here. He was a nephew of the late Dr. J. C. Francis, his mother being a sister of Dr. Francis and Mrs. E. L. Woodward. Col. G. C. Ellis first married a sister of Judge Turney. His father was one of the United States Senators from Tennessee. Judge Turney has been long on the Supreme Court bench of Tennessee and is now Chief Justice of that State. He is the man who summarily squelched the great flood of litigation between Union and Confederate people in Tennessee following the war. He is known throughout the State as "Old Pete" and is very popular.

The plan for primary election in Cleburne obligates both the candidates and the Democratic voters at the primary to support the nominees of the Democratic party, when the nominations are made, and a pledge to this effect is given both by voters and candidates. This is right. So-called Democrats who threaten to bolt the nomination in any case where the nomination does not suit them, ought not to be permitted to vote at the primary or participate in the beat meetings of the party. A man who would make the pledge and then break it would be dishonored, and few will do so. This is one election in which the Democratic party of Alabama proposes to take care of itself. Men who are fixing to jump the fence if the nominations don't suit them will be called on to say what they intend to do before they are permitted to help make the nominations.

THE CANVAS.

Tuscaloosa has gone for Kolb by 104 majority and he gets all the delegates. This county went for Kolb in the last convention. It has seven votes.

Bibb county has gone for Kolb. The county went for Kolb in the last State Convention. It has four votes in the next convention.

Dallas county has gone for Jones. This county went for Jones in the last State Convention. It has twenty-six votes in the next State Convention.

Bullock county convention meets to-day (Friday). Kolb has the convention by 6 or 8 votes and it will probably send a solid delegation for him. Bullock went for Kolb in the last State Convention.

Counting Bullock in the Kolb column, Kolb has gained eighteen votes this week and Jones has gained twenty-six and the count stands to date, Jones seventy-two and Kolb forty-one.

The Judicial Convention of this Circuit has been called at Talladega, July 15th. The candidates so far in the field are R. B. Kelley of this county, Judge L. F. Box, of St. Clair and Ex-Gov. R. W. Cobb, of Shelby. We name them in the order in which they announced.

Congressman Livingston and Moses have taken a stand against the third party in Georgia; but Congressman Tom Watson says they will be in bed with the third party gang before the racket is over.

Third Party Candidates.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The echoes of the St. Louis convention have scarcely died away ere the rank and file of the allied industrial organizations have begun to discuss the possible presidential candidates of the national people's party.

A convention for the nomination of candidates for president and vice-president will not be held until July 4th, at Omaha, and as both of the other leading parties will have made their nominations by that time the people's party is in a position to make the strongest possible nominations for the purpose of carrying doubtful states in which their organizations have in the past manifested the greatest strength.

General James B. Weaver, of Iowa, once a candidate of the greenback party for president of the United States; Hon. L. L. Polk, of North Carolina, now president of the National Farmers' Alliance; Hon. Ignatius Donnelly, of Minnesota; United States Senator Leland Stanford, of California; T. V. Powderly, grand master of the Knights of Labor; Hon. Alton G. Streeter, of Illinois, late candidate of the Farmers' Mutual Benevolent Association for United States senator from Illinois, are a few of those now being discussed as possible presidential and vice-presidential candidates of the people's party.

WHAT JERRY SIMPSON THINKS.

"In my opinion," said Representative Jerry Simpson, of Kansas, today, "General Weaver, of Iowa, is most likely to be the people's party candidate for the presidency; at any rate he has up to this time been the man most discussed in that connection. But I would not be surprised if sentiment in favor of Ignatius Donnelly assumed formidable proportions. He developed great strength out at St. Louis, and the preamble to the platform, which was written by him, is, in my opinion, one of the most vigorous and, at the same time, the most classic production of modern literature. I think there is no question but that President Polk, of the Farmers' Alliance, will be the candidate for vice president."

Representative Watson, of Georgia, candidate of the people's party representatives in the house for speaker, was compelled to remain in Washington to look after the legislative demands of his party, and did not attend the St. Louis convention. He is earnest in his approval of all that was done in St. Louis, however, and thinks that the various industrial organizations are now fairly united on a common platform and into one political party.

Alabama Delegates.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Feb. 26.—Five of the six Alabama delegates to the St. Louis conference have returned. They include President Adams and State Lecturer Beck, of the State Alliance; they left before the mass meeting which declared for a third party. They reiterate that they are Democrats, and propose to seek relief in that party. Their idea is to continue the effort to get the Democratic party to take up the conference platform, and if it fails they express the opinion that Alabama will give 60,000 white votes against the Democratic nominee. A convention will be called at an early date in Birmingham, to be composed of delegates from the Alliance and all other labor organizations, to ratify or confirm the platform adopted at St. Louis and to consider what shall be done in the event of a failure by the Democratic party to adopt a platform embodying the measures of relief demanded.

Russia is starving, Mexico is famine stricken in certain sections, Germany is agitated by bread riots, India's grain supply is short, and other foreign countries are uneasy about food supplies. America has been blessed with bountiful harvests and there is bread for all in this country, for which the nation and the individual should be profoundly grateful.—Anniston Hot Blast.

ALABAMA LABOR TO MEET.

MR. BECK TALKS ABOUT THE ST. LOUIS CONFERENCE.

And Gives Views of Grave Questions of Public Import.

Age-Herald.

Mr. R. W. Beck, State Lecturer of the Farmers' Alliance, returned yesterday from attendance on the great labor conference at St. Louis.

"It was a grand gathering of the people," said Mr. Beck. "While there were a few men present who fancy themselves leaders, but for whom the public has no great liking, an overwhelming majority of the 1600 delegates were direct from the people and thoroughly representative of the toilers of America. The need of reform they realized profoundly, and they came together to advise with one another as to the best means for giving relief where relief is most needed amongst those who toil for their bread.

"As to the platform adopted, the committee worked on it from 8 o'clock one evening till 9 o'clock the next morning. Some of us made the hardest fight against the proposed woman's suffrage and prohibition planks. Butler of North Carolina, McDowell of Tennessee, and I made the fight against the government ownership of railroads and telegraphs, and we made and signed the minority report against such ownership, thereby placing ourselves on record as opposing that feature of the platform as sent out to the country."

"What about the political aspect of the platform and the conference?" was asked.

"It means that there will be a third candidate for the presidency," replied Mr. Beck. "The national convention, called for the 4th of July, will put out a ticket.

"There was a strong conviction on the part of most of the delegates that the needed reforms, the absolutely essential relief, could not be obtained through either of the old political parties. The Democratic party was considered, but every body believed that Cleveland would be nominated, and that tariff reform would practically be the sole issue of the campaign.

"This, therefore, offered them nothing. Tariff reform alone cannot do much to better the condition of the farmers and working people generally. The troubles lie deeper than the tariff."

"Do you believe that the platform adopted points to any changes in the estimates as to the electoral college?"

"Certainly. It is claimed that the new movement will be endorsed by North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Texas in the south, and Iowa, Minnesota, Michigan, Wisconsin, Nebraska, Idaho and California in the west. That would mean much to the two great parties that have so long held sway in the country."

"Then the delegates who composed that conference must be considered as already outside of the two old parties?"

"Not at all. I am a democrat, and always expect to be, and I speak as a democrat. My remarks about the conference are impersonal. I think the danger very great, and I simply point it out.

"I never saw men more deeply, sincerely in earnest than were those delegates. With them, and with the great masses of the people they represent, this is a serious matter. That conference was not called together for fun, but for earnest action. The members realized the gravity of the situation as concerns the financial distress prevailing amongst such vast numbers of the working people of the country; they felt that relief must come, or there will be grave developments of a social and governmental character.

"The chief cause of this movement being independent of the existing parties, is that neither republicans nor democrats have taken the demands of the people reasonably or respectfully. The old leaders say, 'Your plans are wild, revolutionary, impossible of success.' Yet they fail to suggest any plan of their own. They will not meet the people in a friendly and patriotic spirit, but simply ridicule them. But time is past for that sort of thing to succeed. Personally I know the farmers, for example to be desperately in earnest. Their present condition here in the south is far more serious than people in the towns can realize. They are hopelessly in debt, have not sufficient of the necessities of life, and have no money. They are face to face with ruin. To them tariff reform means little. It is a question of bread. In Alabama the circulation of money per capita is less than $5. In New York and the eastern states the circulation is more than $50 for each man, woman and child.

"The democrats should give relief; but will they? I speak as a man who is and will continue to be a democrat, and who loves the party; and it is time for all true democrats to face the danger and speak out for the people.

"President Adams of the State Alliance," concluded Mr. Beck, "will shortly issue a call for a convention of all the labor organizations of Alabama to meet in Birmingham for the purpose of accepting or rejecting the platform put out in St. Louis. The call will be largely responded to, and it will be a great convention. It will, of course, be called to meet in Birmingham.

"You were not, of course, in the body that called the 4th of July convention?"

"No. The conference of which I was a member adjourned. It took no political action whatever. The call was made by a mass meeting held subsequently, in which we from the south, who propose to stand by the democracy, took no part. Mr. Adams, Dr. Bone, Mr. Brown of Pike and Mr. Brown of Bibb, were with me in this position, and we left St. Louis before the political mass meeting was held. Livingston and Moses of Georgia, McDowell of Tennessee, Butler of North Carolina and several others were with us."

A CONSERVATIVE ESTIMATE.

Gives The State Convention to Jones by 125.

MONTGOMERY, Feb. 28.—State politics being now the absorbing question, one of the most conservative public men, who is as well posted as any man in the state with Alabama politics, gives the following well considered opinion of the general situation:

The total vote in the state convention is 406, of which 234 is a majority. The following counties have already acted: Jefferson, Madison, Marengo, Butler, Clarke, Tuscaloosa and Fayette, resulting, Jones 46, Kolb 30. There are contests in Butler and Fayette, but it is generally conceded that the Butler delegates for Jones and the Fayette delegates for Kolb will be seated in the state convention. Estimates of the votes of counties which have not acted are: For Jones—Autauga 5, Baldwin 2, Blount 3, Calhoun 8, Dale 5, Dallas 18, DeKalb 5, Elmore 7, Escambia 2, Etowah 4, Franklin 3, Greene 6, Hale 13, Lamar 5, Jackson 8, Lauderdale 5, Colbert 5, Lee 8, Lowndes 17, Marion 4, Mobile 8, Monroe 7, Morgan 6, Montgomery 19, Perry 15, Pike 6, Russell 3, Sumter 8, Talladega 8, Walker 3, Washington 15, Wilcox 15, Winston 1, Cherokee 7, Coosa 4—in all 251 1/2 votes, which, with the 46 votes already cast for Jones, would give him 297 1/2 votes, or a majority of 173 votes.

The following counties may be considered doubtful: Barbour 17, Cleburne 3, Covington 3, Coffee 4, Geneva 3, Pickens 3, Randolph 4, Shelby 7—in all the doubtful, 46.

For Kolb—Bibb 6, Bullock 7, Chambers 7, Chilton 3, Choctaw 3, Clay 4, Conecuh 4, Cullman 3, Dallas 8, Etowah 4, Henry 6, Lawrence 5, Limestone 4, Macon 5, Marshall 6, St. Clair 4, Tallapoosa 9, Washington 11—in all, 89 1/2 votes.

To which add thirty already obtained, makes a total of Kolb votes of 119 1/2, including Tuscaloosa, though the official count may be required to decide the vote of that county. Where counties are mentioned as giving both candidates votes it is in consequence of pro votes. The chances are that Barbour, Covington and Pickens will go for Jones. The other doubtful counties will probably go for Kolb, except Shelby where there will doubtless be a contest.

From present indications the probabilities are that Jones will have a majority of at least 125 votes in the state convention on June 8.

LETTER FROM ATTALLA.

From a Former Calhoun Man.

ATTALLA, Ala., Mar. 1. Dear OLD REPUBLICAN and Calhoun County Friends: It has been a long time since I wrote you a few lines. We have had a good old time together and hope to have the same again. We are all good Democrats and both men running for Governor are good men and if politicians would not stir up the people, we would not have such noisy campaigns as is in Alabama now. If things don't change we will have bloodshed in this campaign. Let all of our Democratic papers go to work to have peace in our lines. If our leaders would do right it would not matter with the people who was governor of the two men in the field. Take our papers, or some of them in South Alabama, and strangers would think one of our candidates was a negro. Now brethren, I am for Kolb for Governor and David B. Hill for President, and I am not going to fall out with my neighbors for being for Jones or Cleveland. Now let us have peace, and be solid for Hill. If good Democrats that are in the lead now don't turn their way, our State will have a large Republican gain for 1892. Now we can't afford to do that. To be divided, we fall. Lay down the photograph papers and read the bible and ask God in prayer to direct our minds, and His will be done not ours. All things work for good to them that love God.

We have good Democrats out of the Alliance, as well as in the Alliance. So let us all come together. We are all the same and working for the same. If we haven't got men out, we can put them out, and unite from principle, not the party altogether. All good men must stand together. If we go it will lose our State for Hill. We can't afford to split.

Mr. Editor, what has become of uncle Sam Slim, of Oxford? We love to read good Democrats like Sam Slim, Rufus Sanders come in a good place. I would like to hear from some of my old Peaceburgh friends through your paper.

Yours, truly, D. W. C.

Judge Turney A Candidate.

HE IS BEFORE THE PEOPLE FOR THE NOMINATION FOR CHIEF EXECUTIVE.

His Platform, and What He Believes the Platform of the Democracy Should Be—Wanting to be Heeded.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 24.—Judge Peter Turney, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, in a card to the American, to be published to-morrow, says: "In response to numerous calls made by many citizens of the State, as well as by the press throughout the State, I have determined, in obedience to what I consider to be the demand of the Democratic party, to become a candidate before the convention for the gubernatorial nomination, and through you to say so to the people. In my opinion, however, the party is more in need of a thorough organization than it is of a candidate. I believe with legitimate and prompt organization the success of Democracy is assured. The basis of party action should be adherence to the principles of Democracy; no affiliation or compromise with schisms, isms, fallacies or false doctrines; no pandering to or coquetting with political pharisees. When we find Democrats in danger of falling unwarily into the snares and traps of designing men, who are organizing for selfish purposes and laboring to foist their heresies upon the Democratic party, let every true Democrat feel it to be his duty to reason with him sought to be entrapped, and point out the un-democratic character of the false leaders. Democracy has no secrets, noaths are not necessary to its existence. It is bold, open and candid; not afraid of light and publicity. Its principles are embodied in the constitution and bill of rights. It demands that every member of its family shall publicly subscribe to its faith, and not be ashamed to confess it. It can and will make no concession to unconstitutional tenets. It is the party of the people—the people's friend. There are other matters that might be touched upon, but which will be properly treated of in another mode hereafter. I hope the work of organization will begin at once with energy, and continue to consummation, for the fight is on us. In the work 'put none but Democrats on guard.'

Tuscaloosa for Kolb.

Special to The Hot Blast.

TUSCALOOSA, Feb. 28.—Tuscaloosa has gone for Kolb by a small majority, which cannot be determined until all the beats are heard from.

There were a good many surprises. Jones carried beats that it was thought would go for Kolb, and Kolb carried several that were put down for Jones.

The Kolb forces were better organized in Tuscaloosa than any county in the State, and while the Jones men regret that they lost the county, no one is surprised.

Very little bitterness has developed, and it is expected that the convention next Saturday will pass off quietly. A majority of the convention will be Jones men, but the primary decided the gubernatorial question.

County Election in Jackson.

SCOTTSBORO, Feb. 28.—A democratic primary election was held throughout Jackson county yesterday for a full county ticket. Nearly everybody participated in the election, and a large vote was polled.

W. B. Bridges won for probate judge and T. J. Robinson for sheriff. Wiley Frazier and John H. Bond for representatives, and William C. Beasley for senator for this and Marshall county. The alliance cut no figure in it.

TURNEY CHIEF.

Middle and West Tennessee Organizing for "Old Pete."

NASHVILLE, Feb. 28.—Chief Justice Turney's announcement of his candidacy for Governor seems to have electrified the whole State and is spreading as rapidly as the one started for Hon. E. W. Cornack, which was killed by his (Cornack's) refusal.

In West Tennessee in four towns Turney Clubs have already been organized and Memphis and Nashville, followed by many of the towns of Middle Tennessee, have issued calls to organize clubs. Expressions of exultation and congratulation are pouring into Chief Justice Turney's mail each day.

Simpson's Remarks.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 29.—"In my opinion," said Jerry Simpson today, "the new party will nominate for president either ex-Congressman Weaver or Ignatius Donnelly. Our convention will be held at Omaha, July 4, and as soon as we get a ticket in the field we shall begin hustling for a campaign fund, just the same as the old parties. No, we shall not nominate Senator Stanford in order to simplify the work of raising a campaign fund. If that was our line of action we could do better by taking up President Harrison's friend, Jay Gould, and then it would not matter whether our candidate or the Republican candidate was elected. Jay Gould would have a man in the White House just the same.

Hon. J. H. Caldwell has been visiting Montgomery and Birmingham on business. Who is going to get married soon? Mrs. Childers, of Cave Springs, Ga., has been visiting the family of Rev. M. H. Lane, this week. Gen. Burke now spends the most of his time in Chattanooga, looking after the interests of the Chattanooga Southern Railroad. Hon. H. L. Stevenson attended the meeting of the Executive Committee of this Judicial Circuit at Talladega Monday. A lady of our city has two sisters-in-law who are the daughters of Ex-Gov. Smith of Ala., and Ex-Gov. Hoadley of Ohio, respectively. In another column we publish an account of the death of Mrs. C. J. Clark from the Selma papers. Esq. Wm. L. Dale, of McFall, is in town Thursday and reports farming operations as active in his section of Calhoun. Quite a number of our folk have got together at Tampa Fla. Mr. Gaboury and wife, Mrs. Joe Frank, Miss Mamie Alexander, Charley Martin and Ed Nisbet. A gentleman representing guano manufacturers was in Jacksonville this week. Several cases of whooping cough are reported among our little folk but our place is threatened with an epidemic worse than whooping cough unless parents be decidedly brief and have those children photographed before Mr. Snapp, leaves our city. Norman School Items. And we begin with a question Why is it that the friends and patrons don't visit us? Is it because they are too busy with home affairs, or real estate? Or is it because they have unlimited confidence in the ability of the pupils to take care of themselves? Well, as you do not come to see us, we come to see you, and as you won't write to us we will write to you, and endeavor to tell you what we are doing. The seats are full and much good is being done. Mr. W. P. Duke, one of our Sophomores, has been ill with pneumonia. He is convalescent now, and we hope that he will soon let the light of his countenance fall upon us again. Miss Cora Driskill has been engaged to the gripper for 3 weeks; we hope it will soon be broken. Some of the boys are afflicted with an inordinate fondness for curls, to the extent that they bid a pound of candy for one curl. No trades up to date. Miss Marie Burke gave an Apron Party Monday evening, in honor of her Junior class-mates. John Hames, a senior, took the honors for the neat work. He took lessons from a professional all the afternoon. All the classes were highly pleased with their photographs. It was a case of "Snapp judgment." Step into the study halls some day, and see the bright, animated, pleasant expression on the faces of the "willing workers." There are four literary societies connected with the school. All are trying hard to be wise or otherwise. The "Girls' Chapter" is more progressive than ever before. Death of Mrs. C. J. Clark. The Times-Mail regrets to announce the death of Mrs. C. J. Clark which sad event occurred yesterday morning at the family residence corner of Washington and Dallas streets. This estimable lady was the honored wife of Dr. C. J. Clark, the distinguished physician of this city, and had for some time been an invalid. The tenderest sympathies go out from many friends in this city for the bereaved husband and other relatives of the deceased in their bereavement.—Selma Times-Mail. This morning the family of Dr. C. J. Clark was shocked by the sudden death of the invalid wife and mother. Though having been taught to expect such an end at any moment, yet the shock was no less intense. Mrs. Clark, exactly four years and four months ago was stricken with paralysis, which has rendered her speechless all that time and prevented the free use of her limbs. This morning as the nurse was attempting to lift her from the bed to the invalid's chair the end came and she expired before any one could be summoned. She was in her fifty-ninth year and was the mother of eight children, two of which have preceded her to the land beyond. Those now living are Mr. Percy Clark, now of North Carolina, Mrs. J. C. Ware, of Montgomery, Mrs. F. H. Lewin, Mrs. A. L. Harris, Misses Julia and Jessie Clark, of this city. Mrs. Clark was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, and before her affliction was noted for her good deeds and many acts of charity. The time of the funeral will not be set until a telegram is received from Mr. Percy Clark who is away.—Selma Journal. Children Cry for Pitcher's Castoria.

Weavers. Weavers, March 2.—We are having some very unpleasant weather, but the farmers are busy tilling soil. Mr. E. D. Kilgore has planted corn. Mr. Coker is ready for planting cotton. Weavers is looking for a boom in 1883. Dot Marston was bitten by a blue gum negro yesterday. Mad dogs in the country at present, some few have been bitten. J. E. R. Mr. W. J. Edmondson brought four bales of cotton to the city yesterday which he was not able to dispose of. The gentleman is not a cotton farmer but he obtained this from a tenant. During the day he also brought in three loads of ruta bags turnips and sold them readily for 60 cents per bushel. Sea the difference.—Anniston Hot Blast. Reduced Acreage of Cotton. GALVESTON, TEX., Feb. 28.—The Executive Committee of the Texas Bankers' Association has issued an address to the farmers and business men urging a reduction of the cotton acreage 25 per cent; giving as their opinion that the effect will be to raise prices 30 per cent. They cite the increase in prices of 10 per cent, in 1871 by a decreased acreage of 15 per cent, and refer to the example of the Brazilian coffee planters raising the price of coffee from 7 to 24 cents in 1880 by reduced acreage. When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria. The recently elected United States Senator of Georgia, General John B. Gordon, says: Mr. A. K. Hawkes—Dear Sir: The pantoscopic glasses you furnished me some time since give excellent satisfaction. I have tested them by use, and must say they are unequalled in clearness and brilliancy by any that I have ever worn. Respectfully, JOHN B. GORDON, Ex-Governor of State of Georgia. ### Non-Resident Notice

STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County,
In Chancery. At Jacksonville, Alabama, Ninth District, Northeastern Chancery Division.
Mary L. Gore, et als.
E. B. Dickerson, et als.
In this cause it is made to appear to the Register, by the affidavit of J. F. Croft solicitor for complainant that the defendant Wm Burges is a non-resident of Alabama and resides in Anderson County South Carolina, and further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the defendant is over the age of twenty-one years.

It is therefore ordered by the Register, that publication be made in the Jacksonville Republican, a newspaper published in the said County of Calhoun, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring him, the said Wm. Burges, to answer or demur to the same, within thirty days after the 22nd day of March, 1892; and failing so to do a decree pro confesso will be taken against him in said cause.

Done at office, in Jacksonville, this 20th day of February, 1892.
WM. M. HAMES,
Register.

EROS!

ARE YOU ONE OF US!

It seems almost like throwing the money away to pay tailors $40.00 for what you can get of us for $25 or $35. They rail and rant against ready made clothes—but it's the pricking of the consciousness of excellence. We've gone in to win the trade of a class of gentlemen who particular—but who are ready to give merit its dues. Have a look at a line of fine SUITS and OVERCOATS. If you've looked the best tail stock over you have seen the same grade of goods—with a third more, least, "tacked on" to the cost. The cheap tailors and the rest of the made clothiers haven't a suggestion of them even. Our's are in all the toil effects. Effects that you don't find outside of a dozen mills if you the world over for them. We put these fine fabrics right into OUR OWN TAILOR SHOPS and when they come out there's nothing choicer to had. We are willing to stake our reputation on the perfection of the fit, elegance and thoroughness of the finish and make. Try them on; it will cost anything but time; and we are sure you'll give us the endorsement we deserve. We never go "off half cocked." When we make a claim plant it in rich soil of facts, and it don't take long for it to bring forth fruit. Our efforts are telling on our trade. It's growing amazingly.

Such is our Success
Respectfully Yours,

WORK IN CONGRESS. THE MOST IMPORTANT MATTERS CULLED AND CONDENSED.

Notable Events in the Legislative and Executive Branches of the National Government. Monday, Feb. 29. In the house, Mr. Cullum...

Wednesday, March 2. The senate spent the day on the Idaho contested election case without arriving at any conclusion.

Thursday, March 3. In the senate today, the bill of Dubois to retain his seat was affirmed by a vote of 51 to 5.

Friday, March 4. Mr. Gordon offered a resolution for the payment to the estate of Alexander H. Stephens of Georgia...

Saturday, March 5. The urgent deficiency appropriation bill was taken up and passed without amendment or debate.

THE TERMINAL TROUBLE. Decline in Stocks Caused Excitement and Disturb in Wall Street.

New York, March 7. Wall street was flooded with rumors after the close of business, of serious troubles in the plan of reorganization of the Richmond Terminal company.

MR. CARLISLE'S VIEWS. He Expresses Decided Opinions on the True Policy Toward Silver.

Washington, March 5. Senator Carlisle said to the Washington correspondent of the New York World a few days ago.

THE CENTRAL RAILROAD. E. P. Alexander Has Been Appointed Receiver by Judge Speer.

Savannah, March 7. The Central railroad of Georgia is in the hands of a receiver, and General E. P. Alexander is the receiver.

The first intimation of the move that reached here was, when Mr. D. W. Rountree, as attorney for Mrs. Clarke a wealthy stockholder, arrived here.

Mr. Rountree was prompt to deny this. The filing of this bill, he said, he had the best thing that could have happened for the stockholders, and there is no reason for them to be panicky.

The main purpose of the bill is for the court through its receiver to hold the property and preserve it from any untoward acts of the board of directors.

Plaintiffs insist, therefore, that the contracts by which the Terminal company got control of the stock was void, and that they took no title to the same.

MARIE NEVINS-BLAINE. Her Talk to a Newspaper Man Regarding Her Letters.

Chicago, March 7. Some pungent utterances were given voice here by Mrs. Marie Nevins-Blaine in relation to the open letter she wrote the secretary of state.

DEMOCRACY IS IN DANGER. So Says Representative McAllister of the Anti-Sub-Treasury Alliance.

Jackson, Miss., March 5. Representative McAllister, chairman of the national committee of the Anti-Sub-Treasury Alliance, was asked by a press representative what he thought of the recent labor conference at St. Louis.

A WESTERN MAN. The Bright Presidential Outlook in That Direction.

New York, March 5. The Herald prints a table purporting to show how, as between Cleveland, Hill, and some western man, the delegates in the Democratic national convention will vote.

The estimates are made by Thomas A. L. Drayton, Washington correspondent of the paper, who says of it: This table has been carefully and accurately prepared.

Here is presented the table. Scan the columns closely, and it will prove a valuable factor in getting up the November slate.

The Republican.

L. W. GRANT, Publisher.

SATURDAY, MARCH 12, 1892.

The Democrats of Calhoun want no dark lantern politics.

Public measures that cannot bear the light of public discussion are entitled to no consideration at the hands of Democrats.

The editor has been most of this week in Cleburne county and this will account for lack of editorial matter this issue.

Some county candidates in the secret political meeting were unwilling to take their own medicine. A primary for county officers didn't suit them.

The North Carolina delegation to the late St. Louis convention have come out openly for the third party, in an address through L. L. Polk's paper. Polk himself is in the same boat.

All honor to brave Democrats in the secret political meeting here last Thursday who had the courage to repel attacks upon their party and uphold its principles.

Editor Lane of the Huntsville Mercury and one of Kolb's delegates to the State Convention, has written an open letter to Kolb declaring that he will drop him if he does not explain the Guice cotton transaction.

Some of the principal participants in the secret conclave proceedings at the court house Thursday are men who knifed Gen. Forney at the last election and who are disqualified under the ruling of the State Executive Committee from participating in the primary meetings of the party.

Gen'l Burke, Receiver of the Chattanooga Southern R. R. was visiting his family at this place last week. Gen. Burke's administration of the affairs of the road has been highly satisfactory to all parties interested up to this time, and there is no doubt but that he will leave the road in much better condition than when he took charge of it.

Editor Baltzell of the Alliance Herald and Judge Randolph had a personal encounter on the street in Montgomery, growing out of an article in the Herald as to a reputed visit of Judge Randolph to Washington in the interest of Col. Herbert. The combatants were quickly separated, but it is feared the difficulty is not over.

If the men who engineered the secret political meeting in the court house Thursday had believed they had any chance of carrying Calhoun against Gov. Jones or Mr. Grant they would never have suggested a prorate. They go upon the principle that it is better to take a little than none at all; and yet these fellows ramp the loudest about majority rule, and anything being Democratic that a majority of the people want.

Some of the gentlemen who assumed here Thursday that the Democratic Executive Committee of this county could not get along without their help, were loud in their denunciations of the party. Others have been conspicuously unfaithful to the nominees of the party in the past, and yet others the party if it does not accept the platform already occupied by the people's party lately born at St. Louis. There were some true Democrats there watching to guard the interests of the party and some not so true who were smelting the legs of delegates and barking around the Court house to see if they could not get the political wing of the Alliance to look at them. Some of these last-named little political flies would be happy if the Alliance would notice them far enough even to kick them.

A convention composed of the officers of the county and sub-alliances of this county met in the court house here in secret session Thursday and passed a resolution that the County Executive Committee order a primary and a prorata as to Governor, Congressman, and State Senator and Judge of this circuit. They declined to ask to have the claims of county candidates decided at this proposed primary. Doubtless the leaders preferred to have a field full of county candidates to make it easier for a secretly nominated county ticket to be elected. It was a very transparent trick, so thin in fact that a child could see through it. If a primary is ordered by the Executive Committee it will doubtless be ordered so as to cover the county offices as well as outside offices and the men who wish to vote at the primary, will, as in other counties, doubtless be required that they will support the nominees from constant up, before they will be allowed to participate in the primary. Calhoun has a faithful and loyal Executive Committee, who have the honor and safety of the Democratic party at heart, and when they meet it will be found that they will act with reference to the best interests of the party rather than in the interest of a lot of gentlemen who show a disposition to control the politics of the county by secret political methods.

CHATTANOOGA SOUTHERN.

SOME FACTS AS TO ITS INVASION OF NEW TERRITORY.

Possibilities in Connection With the Tredegar Mineral Section of Country Rich With Iron Ores—An Interesting Chat With Receiver Burke.

From the Chattanooga Times.

The Chattanooga Southern road is destined at no distant day to be an important factor in Chattanooga's prosperity. In conversation yesterday with Gen. Burke, receiver of the road, he said:

"I do not think it good policy to parallel railroads unless the country is exceedingly productive. It is better to seek new territory not tapped by other lines.

"In regard to the extension of the Alabama Trunk Line from Montgomery, Ala., to Round Mountain to connect with the Southern, that road is not at present a part of the Southern, but will be a valuable feeder to it.

"The Tredegar Mineral is a new road just being built from Jacksonville to Center, three miles of which began operations last week by the East & West Road. The road is being rapidly extended to Center, and it goes through a country that is remarkably rich in iron ores. A branch will be built immediately from Center to Whitten, on the Southern, a distance of five miles. This will give us a feeder twenty-five miles in length, from Whitten to Jacksonville. The Alabama Trunk Line will be built from Montgomery to Jacksonville, thus completing the link. This will put Chattanooga in direct communication with the brown ores, which are best for making steel, and will give Chattanooga advantages in that line that are unsurpassed.

"When I took charge of the Southern I was surprised at the richness of the ore field through which it runs. The country is literally a solid bed of ore from Gadsden to Chattanooga."

Gen. Burke is vice-president and general manager of the Tredegar Mineral Road and is intimately connected with the ore business in that section.

The two latest additions in the way of industries on the Southern are the firms of Nixon & Company, of 62 Dey street, New York, and Lilley & Hilsley. The latter began operations last week and are making plumbers' nails and fixtures. The plant is located at Kensington and the factory is shipping goods direct to the North and East. When the works are running full time about fifty hands will be employed. Nixon & Co. are the largest dealers in wooden handles for all kinds of tools in the country. They will locate at Kensington the largest branch of their New York factory. A car load of machinery for the factory has been shipped from Ohio, and several more are to follow. W. W. Woodburn, of Mount Vernon, O., will be the manager of the factory, which will be in operation in sixty days. Gen. Burke is in communication with other industries to locate on the Southern, and under his receivership the road will certainly prosper.

In addition to the Montgomery outlet the Southern will also seek connection with the Atlantic and coast lines.

FROM MEMPHIS.

ED. REPUBLICAN:—I have just returned home from a visit to your county. I found the public roads in the best condition that I have ever seen them and farmers seem to be further advanced with their work by at least two or three weeks, I think more than any previous year that I remember, but the liveliest I met on my trip was the Jones club, at Oxford.

While in DeArmanville beat I met Mr. J. W. Cuntwood one of your candidates for Tax Assessor I remember that while I lived in your county he was urged by his friends to try for some office, for as you know he is a cripple and cannot walk a step without his crutches. He does not like a scramble for office, and while he is a life long Democrat he knows nothing of the tricks of the politician. There are other candidates against Mr. Cuntwood whose records are spotless, men that are an honor to any county, and we know that Calhoun county is justly proud of them, but they cannot all be elected. Mr. Cuntwood has been slow to ask for office, has never asked before, and while it is a delicate question to choose from so many good men we believe that the good people of Calhoun county revere his fidelity to party and legitimate business will give him the reward he so justly merits. I think the good men that have been honored and have served the people before you would almost feel good to be defeated by Mr. Cuntwood. It is true, as I heard one man say, that he was able to live without the office. So could all the others. What he has made by hard work and fair dealing and he is a living example of what pluck and energy will do. With three long loud hurrahs for Jones and Cleveland, I lay down my pen and patiently wait for the glorious day of victory that will soon be heard all along the line.

A. J. PITTS.

Registration of voters for the town election will begin Monday and continue 6 days. Mr. S. J. Stevenson is the Registrar.

The Alliance and the Single Taxers.

From The Memphis Commercial.

The farmers can not have failed to make note of the many inharmonious and antagonistic ideas and elements represented in the St. Louis convention. They can not, if they read the proceedings, have failed to be impressed with the utter folly of any effort to secure united action where there is such irreconcilable antagonism of views and to understand that the purpose, and the only purpose, of this confederation, is to unite the voting power of the various organizations in order to get office. The presence of a large representation of single-tax men in a body composed mostly of farmers was so absurd a spectacle that it is in itself enough to overwhelm the whole movement with ridicule. Strange to say the single taxers declare themselves perfectly satisfied with the work of the St. Louis convention and declare that they are perfectly willing to "leave their future to the farmers"—meaning the Farmers' Alliance. If men who hold that the ownership of land is against natural right and seek to lay upon the farmers the burden of State and National taxes feel that their cause is safe in the hands of the Alliance it is high time for men who own land to ask whether it is a safe organization for them? It is an insult to the intelligence of the honest farmers of this country and a gross breach of their confidence for men whom they have trusted to enter into a confederation with an organization whose prime object is to confiscate the land of every farmer in the country. Nothing could so thoroughly exhibit the rank dishonesty of the leaders than a combination with a political force compared with whom the old bug and money-devil are angels. There could not be imagined two policies more antagonistic than that which seeks to virtually confiscate all land held in private ownership and that which would make the ownership of land a title to peculiar favor from the Government. The men who are controlling the Alliance have confederated with the worst enemies the farmer has, and sought to give strength and respectability to a movement on the part of a landless class to make land the common property of all. The Knights of Labor formulated a demand, covering the single-tax idea, but the Alliance people feared to adopt it in toto because they said the farmers were "divided" on this question! They did, however, throw them a sop by declaring that the land is a "public heritage," and the single tax men declare that they are satisfied that their cause, the cause of land confiscation, is safe in the hands of men who profess to be the chosen representatives of landowners!

MARSHALL MASS MEETING.

A Split on Qualifications and Two Delegations Elected.

GUNTERSVILLE, March 5.—The mass meeting was held today. The Marshall county executive committee unanimously decided on the proper qualifications of members, as prescribed by the state executive committee. It was so announced by the chairman of the committee, before the appointment of a temporary chairman. Dr. W. L. Thomasson, temporary chairman, requested those possessing these qualifications to take position on his right, whereupon Judge T. A. Street, leading the Kolb faction, called for all the supporters of Kolb to take position on his left. Two meetings were thereupon organized with two chairmen and two sets of officers upon the same platform at the same time. The larger number were on the Kolb side and declined to act under the executive committee's prescribed rules. Two sets of delegates were elected. One instructed to vote as a unit for Thomas Jones; the other in like manner for R. F. Kolb. About 1200 were present.

ANOTHER ACCOUNT.

HUNTSVILLE, March 5.—Marshall's mass meeting in Gunter'sville assembled around a platform built at noon. About 1000 were present. Dr. W. L. Thomasson of the county committee called the meeting to order, and stated that the participants must come under the requirements laid down by the state executive committee. It created some confusion. The chairman then called for all who possessed those qualifications to form on his right. Judge Street called for all the Kolb men to go to the left. In the division, about 600 were on Kolb's side and 400 on Jones' side. Kolb's faction elected W. M. Coleman chairman. Pandemonium reigned. No personal rows ensued. The chairman, secretary and speakers on both sides were on the stand at the same time. Colonel Street and S. W. Perkins were the principal Kolb leaders. The alliance was in full force, republican members among them. Both factions elected delegates, instructed for Jones and Kolb.

A Great Wrong.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 4.—At Gadsden to-day Talley Welch was convicted of murdering William Welch three years ago. Soon after the crime Lee Lancaster was convicted of the murder and sent to the penitentiary for life, the evidence being the testimony of his brother Warren, who turned State's witness. Last fall Talley Welch voluntarily came up and surrendered, saying he committed the murder and an innocent man was suffering. Lee Lancaster will now be paroled out.

SECRETARY'S COMMITTEE.

Held a Harmonious Session—Convention June 3.

COLEMAN, March 5.—The democratic executive committee, of which Mr. McMillan was chairman, met in the court house today at 12 o'clock. There was a pretty full attendance. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mr. McMillan, and he tendered his resignation, as he is a candidate for judge of probate. Mr. G. B. Deans, committeeman for beat 3, tendered his resignation also, as he is a candidate for probate judge. The vacancies were all filled. J. R. White was elected chairman of the committee and the committee proceeded to business.

A resolution was offered by J. E. Ruffin, that beat meetings be held on the 28th day of May to select delegates to a convention to meet on the 3rd day of June, to nominate county officers and select delegates to the various conventions.

Dr. J. H. Gano offered a substitute that a convention be held to elect delegates to the various conventions, and that a primary election be had at a different time to nominate county officers.

A motion was made that a committee, one from each beat, be appointed on resolutions.

The chairman appointed the committee, and in a short while the committee reported in favor of the resolution offered by J. E. Ruffin, and it was unanimously adopted.

Beat meetings will be held on the 28th of May, the convention on the 3rd day of June. The committee then adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman. The meeting was harmonious.

Those who did not vote the state and national ticket at the last election, are debarred from participating in the beat meetings.

Talladega Orders a Primary.

TALLADEGA, March 7.—The county democratic executive committee met here today. There was a full attendance of the committee and many citizens and candidates were present as spectators. A primary was ordered for April 9 and a county convention for the 11th of April. For county officers the prorated strength of each candidate will go up to the county convention. The delegates will be voted for direct to the state convention, and the set receiving a majority of the votes in each beat will have the beat delegation in the county convention. The meeting of the committee was very harmonious. The Jones and Kolb lines were not drawn in a single vote. The rules and regulations recommended by the state committee were indorsed by special resolutions.

THE RICHMOND TERMINAL.

NEW YORK, March 7.—The Evening Post says: "Several conferences have recently been held of various Richmond Terminal interests, for the purpose of expediting the issue of the Richmond Terminal plan, and it is stated by the parties interested in the reorganization that the obstacle which interfered with the issues have been removed. One of these was the inability to form a syndicate of $35,000,000 to underwrite the plan. It is now proposed to reduce the amount to be subscribed by the syndicate to about $2,000,000, which, it is claimed, can be raised, and the officers of the company state that this amount will be ample to insure the success of the plan. The stock declined on the published report that a receiver of the company would be asked for, but the securities of the company rallied, and advanced on the official denials of the reports."

HOW IT IS IN SHELBY.

COLEMAN, March 7.—The resolution adopted by the democratic executive committee at its meeting here Saturday last, fixing the qualifications of voters in the beat meetings to be held for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention, insures this county for Governor or Jones.

This resolution provides that those who voted against the democratic nominees in the state and federal elections in 1890 shall not participate in the beat meetings. It is thought to be chiefly aimed at those who voted for Butler as against Forney in 1890, when Butler, a member of the alliance, carried the county against Forney.

It is reported on good authority that the Pitts executive committee, which also claims to be the regular democratic committee, will order a primary election at an early date. The next state convention will then have to decide the same contest which was presented in 1890.

The printing press has made presidents, killed poets, furnished bustles for beauties, and polished genius and criticism. It has made worlds get up at roll call every morning, given the pulpit lungs of iron and a voice of steam. It has set the price on a bushel of wheat, and made the country postoffice the glimmering goal of the rural scribe. It has entailed the power of kings, grazed the pantry shelves; it has converted bankers into paupers, and made lawyers of college presidents; it has educated the homeless, and robbed the philosopher of reason. It smiles and kicks and cries and dies, but it can't be run to suit everybody, and the editor is a fool if he tries.—Georgia Hustler.

CHICOLOCCO, March 8, 1892.

ED. REPUBLICAN:—The Farmers & Mechanics Loan Association, through their General Agent, S. N. Milligan, organized a branch at White Plains, composed of the best farmers and merchants in the Valley. The following are the officers: J. C. Watson, President; Dr. G. C. Williams Vice-President; J. R. Hays, Treasurer; C. P. Evans, Secretary.

Directors: W. C. Whiteside, Prof. T. A. Anderson, James Cobb, J. C. Watson, G. C. Williams, J. K. Hays, C. P. Evans, Mrs. N. P. Scarborough, and Mrs. N. C. Boozer, also took a large share of stock. They are ladies that have made a success in this life. And they know a good investment. This is one of the largest local boards in the county, and composed of the best financiers in the county.

AGENT.

Tom Hewlett, the widely-known Birmingham detective, has got in his work with his pistol once more, and the consequence is that N. C. Bodey, of Woodlawn, sleeps in the grave. The difficulty occurred last Wednesday night on an East Lake dummy, when Bodey, who was simply a passenger, attacked Hewlett and attempted to eject him from the train for smoking. Hewlett put a pistol ball into Bodey's side, from the effect of which he died Friday night.—Talladega Mountain Home.

Colbert For Jones.

TUSCUMBIA, March 5.—Tuscumbia beat elects a full delegation for Jones, and for E. B. Almon for senator. The indications are all Jones. Not a beat heard from has shown Kolb in the lead. The county convention meets March 15.

SHEFFIELD, March 5.—The county has gone for Jones. No doubt about it.

A Long Word is Needed.

St. Joseph Herald: "Lochquellen-wasserlieferungsrohrfaktalitäten" is a single word used in Vienna to describe the bursting of a water pipe. That word is pretty nearly as long as the average bill of the average plumber. Here in America when the water pipes burst the unfortunate household usually starts in with an expensively monosyllabic that rhymes with ham.

Plant Less Cotton.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., March 4.—The merchants of Talladega, Ala., are moving in the interest of a smaller acreage for cotton the coming season. The dealers refuse to advance supplies unless the agreement is made that a much smaller yield of cotton be turned out and the farmers promise compliance. The lowest prices for cotton for several years have made this action necessary.

Boy Burned to Death.

ANNISTON, Ala., March 5.—A young son of J. C. McGibeny, a wealthy farmer of Shelby County, was burned to death yesterday. He was out hunting in an old field, ran a rabbit into a brush heap and then set the heap on fire to scare out the game. By some means he got too near the flames and his clothing caught on fire.

When found he was dead, with all his clothing burned off and his flesh cooked from head to foot.

Talley Welch, who has been on trial at Gadsden for the murder of Will Welch nearly two years ago, was convicted last week and sentenced to the penitentiary for life. He was convicted chiefly on his own confession, which he made when he gave himself up. Lee Lancaster is now serving a life sentence for the same offense, but application will be made to the Governor for his pardon.—Talladega Home.

Work has commenced on the Tredegar Mineral R. R. on that part of the line between the E. T. V. & G. track to the public square. It will be very convenient to the people in the western part of the county to take the E. & W. R. R. and land in Jacksonville within a few steps of the business centre of Jacksonville.

On Sunday a couple of tramp painters came to the Jacksonville Hotel and "put up." They painted several signs during their stay of two or three days, but Tuesday night they were missing. "Mine host," Stevenson, secured the aid of Detective Privett, pursued and captured them on the Alabama Mineral R. R. enroute for Gadsden, Ala. They satisfied Mr. S. for the board they had forgotten to pay, and were left to wend their way to pastures new. It takes a sharp man to beat Shell.

J. T. RILEY H. D.

An Old and Honored Citizen Passes Quietly Away.

Mr. John P. Riley, one of Floyd county's oldest citizens, died at his home about six miles from Rome yesterday morning.

Mr. Riley was a printer by trade having worked on the first paper ever published in Rome. At his death he was a farmer having given up his trade some years ago on account of his age.

He was at one time Past Grand Master of Cherokee Lodge, F. & A. M., and was buried by that order this afternoon at the "Old Camp Ground" cemetery in Texas Valley at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Riley had thousands of friends throughout this section, and not an enemy. Several weeks ago he accepted cases on the Hustler of Rome, for three or four days he did his very best, but it was no go, the type came slow, and the old compositor finally lay down his stick and admitted that his skilled hand had lost its cunning.

With a sad heart he asked the foreman to "cash" his last "string," remarking: "The old man's day is over."

Today the "proof" of his life work is being read by the Editor of the Universe and those who know him well, believe that the "galley" will be found ready to "dump" into an angelic "form."—Hustler of Rome.

Mr. Riley was for a number of years business manager and foreman of the REPUBLICAN office and never a more faithful or conscientious man lived. He was a devout christian, a man of elevated character and tastes, a loyal, golden hearted gentleman. He had hosts of friends and relatives in Jacksonville who will be pained to hear of his death.

IN MEMORIAM.

Watson—Calvin Watson was born in South Carolina, May 11, 1801; December 27, 1821, he married Miss Mary Hallbrooks; in 1823 he joined the Methodist Episcopal Church; December 24, 1891, he died at Weaver's Station.

He lived long because he lived well; for nature husbands his strength who obeys her. True, he had much native strength, but many of equal strength go down for bad living. "With long life will I satisfy him." His mind was as sound and vigorous as was his body, especially the representative faculty. Out of the deep treasury of his own memory he gave me the data above, and many other facts, dates and persons of history. And at this advanced age he remembered the current events. His greatest genius was manifest in piety. "The secret of the Lord" was with him. Regularly heaven heard his voice in prayer. Morning and evening, doubtless, angels listened to him reading the Holy Bible. He was wholly unselfish. When dying he forgot his pain, turned from the rapturous glory of the future to sympathize with a Methodist itinerant minister, asking how far to the new field, the expense of moving, the health of his family. Of children surviving him are James, John and Pink Watson and the eldest lady, Mrs. Martha Legend. Notably among grandchildren is J. C. Legend, a prominent physician of Anniston, Ala. "I, my last end be happy."

Tribute of Respect.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN: I ask for space in your paper to pay a last tribute of respect and love to the memory of our beloved friend and neighbor W. W. Deffrese who departed this life at his home near Grayton Ala., Jan. 12 1892. In the 37th year of his age. Deceased was married to Miss Bettie Nunnelly Dec. 18, 1884 with whom he lived happily till death severed the tie. He was a consistent member of the Baptist Church a man in whom there was no deception. Honest sincere and kind to his friends. Therefore his death is universally regretted every where he was known. He was a very quiet man. It was those who knew him most that loved him best. We realize that in the death of Bro. Deffrese the community has lost a good man, the church and Sabbath School a useful member and society a place which cannot be filled. He leaves a devoted wife an aged father and several brothers and sisters to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathies and especially his heart-broken companion who feels that this dispensation of Providence is almost more than she is able to bear. May God's richest blessings rest upon her in this bereavement and may she take consolation in thought that she will meet him in the courts of endless glory and be in perfect harmony with all the celestial surroundings, where there will be no more separation and sorrow in the congregation of the redeemed and that

In expectation sweet I'll wait and watch and pray.

Educational Resources of Our Country Youth.

The educational resources of our country youth was the subject of an interesting and timely lecture delivered at Duke last Saturday night by Prof. J. T. Ury, of the State Normal school at Jacksonville.

The recently elected United States Senator of Georgia, General John B. Gordon, says:

Mr. A. K. Hawkes—Dear Sir: The pantoscopic glasses you furnished me some time since give excellent satisfaction. I have tested them by use, and must say they are unequalled in clearness and brilliancy by any that I have ever worn.

A CALL.

To the Members of the County Executive Committee.

A meeting of the Democratic Executive Committee of Calhoun county is hereby called, at Jacksonville, Tuesday the 29th day of March, 2:30 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of transacting such business as may come before it.

H. L. STEVENSON, Chairman.

The activity of the Republican party in Alabama should be a warning to Democrats, against quarrels among themselves over specific measures.

Let all good Democrats pull together and settle their differences after the election. In unity there is victory for the party. In division there is defeat.

The Republican county convention here Saturday was composed almost wholly of negroes, there being only two white men present as participants. Many white people both from the town and country went to the court house to witness the proceedings; but the convention failed to realize expectations in the shape of a row. It was very harmonious. The chief cause of this harmony was the unanimity with which the convention came together in a determination to set down on Mosely. The convention unanimously endorsed Bill Stevens for chairman of the State Executive Committee. The chief speakers were also agreed on the proposition that the present dissection in the Democratic party of this State was the opportunity of the Republican party, and Democrats may well be warned by the utterances at that meeting. Our party is being narrowly watched by the Republicans and every mistake it makes will be taken advantage of. Moreover Republicans are losing no opportunity to foster and encourage dissension in our ranks in order to profit by it. Let Democrats be on their guard.

The Campaign.

Pike county convention sent delegates for Kolb; although Jones carried the county on the popular vote. Pike went for Kolb in the last convention.

Franklin county convention sent delegates for Kolb. This county has three delegates. In the beats the Governor secured a majority of the delegates, but it is charged that the sheriff of the county induced enough Jones delegates to stay at home to give the convention to Kolb, the ground of his action being the refusal of the Governor to furnish troops to help carry an election for removal of the court house. Be this as it may Kolb got the delegates and they go into his column. Franklin went for Jones in the last State convention.

Jones has carried Wilcox with her fifteen delegates. This county voted 5 for Jones and 10 for Kolb in the last State convention.

Etowah held a primary convention and Jones carried the county by a large popular majority. Jones gets 6 of the delegates and Kolb 2. This county went solid for Jones in the last State convention.

One of the strongest points made in the speeches of David B. Hill in the South is that the Democratic party cannot afford to take on any new issues at this juncture of affairs. He wants the fight fought out on old lines until the Republican party is destroyed. This is sensible. The Republican party is responsible for all the legislation that has fostered the interests of the wealthy classes at the expense of the poor. It has not only robbed the masses of the people to build up colossal fortunes for its pets, but it has twice sought, by means of force bills to subvert the liberties of the people. The great masses of the people are now in a righteous struggle with the money power for just and fair treatment in a government founded upon principles of justice and right, but which has been prevented under Republican rule. The continuance of the Republican party in power means a continuance of the wrongs under which the people are now suffering. The Democratic party stands pledged to right these wrongs. It proposes to protect all men alike—rich and poor—and give all equal chances in the race of life. It stands pledged not to filch the hard earnings of one class to enrich another class. It stands pledged to restore the government to its original purity and purposes. The fight is a hard and most unequal one. The money of the country is on the side of the Republican party which legislates in its interest. It is in possession of the government. The Democrats have only the justice of their cause to fight with. Then why handicap our party with new issues on which there is wide difference of opinion even among the white men of the South? Brother Democrats let us be wise and stand united upon the only platform on which we can unite—the destruction of the party that has robbed us and brought us to our present distress. When we shall have destroyed the Republican party and placed our own party in power, then and only then can the people ask of it any measures with any hope of relief. Then the people of the South can come to their own party with full confidence that it will do right by them and extend to them

The Guice-Kolb Matter.

Mr. Kolb's letter, published by the REPUBLICAN last week, drew from Mr. Guice a letter, in which he denies the correctness of some of Capt. Kolb's statements, and saying he is guilty as charged. To this Capt. Kolb has replied, denying the correctness of some of Mr. Guice's statements and speaking of him in most bitter language. To this Mr. Guice replies that he will publish the proofs in the case, which can no longer leave the matter a question of veracity between Capt. Kolb and himself, and here the matter stands.

A Steady Gain.

Before the memorable contest in Marengo, it was conceded by men at all familiar with the politics of Alabama that its loss meant the certain defeat of Capt. Kolb. No observing man has had cause to change that opinion. Occasional successes in holding his own, or in capturing a few votes here or there, have not altered the general course of events, or caused any revision of the estimates made by conservative men. Their only effect has been to keep up the fight.

Of the delegates so far elected Jones has 94 and Kolb 68, a lead for the former of 26. Taking only these into consideration as compared with the decisive ballot in the last State convention, Jones has gained 27 at the expense of Kolb, and Kolb 31 at the expense of Jones.

If that ratio of gain were kept up through the campaign, Captain Kolb would still fall short. But in addition to those counties which have selected their delegates, Wilcox, Chambers, Choctaw and Etowah have held their beat meetings, and out of the delegates which they will select Jones will gain ten in Wilcox and Etowah and one in Chambers. This leaves Jones with a gain of 37 and Kolb with a gain of 35.

Now, if all the counties had gone precisely as they did in 1890, Jones would have been elected by 37 majority. His net gain of two votes so far leaves Kolb with the necessity of holding his own and gaining 39 votes in Jones counties. Where is he going to get them? Can he so much as hold his own?

Of the 466 delegates, 195 have been decided. Of the 271 yet to be fought for, Jones must get only 120. That these are in sight, no sensible man can glance along the list of counties and fail to see. Indeed, so many are as secure already as if they had been elected and instructed, while every considerable Kolb county yet to act is on the doubtful list. The following counties that went for Captain Kolb in 1890 are today for the Governor by two chances to one: Barbour, Lowndes, Crenshaw and Pickens, with 46 votes. The following are fighting ground: Cherokee, Conecuh, Coosa, Covington, Dale, Monroe, Randolph, St. Clair and Tallapoosa, with 44.

Where is Captain Kolb going to pick up the 39 votes which he must win from Jones counties in addition to holding his own? Under the prorates he will get say seven from Perry, two from Walker and two from Lawrence. He has a fighting chance in Blount, Elmore and Russell. He might carry them all and still be 11 short of success. That Captain Kolb will continue steadily to lose there can be no manner of doubt, and even if his forces keep up the fight to the close, the Governor's assured majority exceeds 50. If Kolb's home county, Barbour, shall go back on him, as now seems likely, we may expect a landslide toward the Governor.

This is a conservative view of the situation up to date. To say that Captain Kolb has a chance for success would be to say that a revolution, of which events have given no sign, is a possibility.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

ETOWAH'S VOTE.

The Prorate Between Jones and Kolb—A Big Cleveland Club.

GALSDEN, Ala., March 21.—The Democratic Executive Committee of Etowah County met this afternoon and prorated the delegates for Governor as follows: Jones, 4 5-8; Kolb, 3 3-8.

The delegates are: W. H. Denson, R. A. Mitchell, O. K. Hood, W. P. Johnson, A. L. Woodliff, W. G. Hatchett, T. W. Lester, W. B. Beeson.

The latter three are Kolb men.

No Excuse For a Split.

Huntsville Mercury.

There is now not the faintest possible excuse for a split in the Democratic Party and we are happy over it. In other words we are delighted that the action of the State Executive Committee was authorized by the convention. We will have to fight to the finish under the requirements of the Committee. It was purely a question of party law and it seems that while the committee were innocent of doing right, still they stumbled on the law.

THE WILCOX VOTE.

Jones a Majority of the County Convention so Far as Heard From.

CAMDEN, March 21.—The fifteen beats heard from gives, Jones 78; Kolb 37; delegates to the County Convention. Four more beats to be heard from will run Jones up to about 95 and Kolb 10.

GUICE SPEAKS OUT.

He Writes a Card In Reply To Kolb's Letter.

EUFAULA, Ala., March 17.—The following appears in to-morrow morning's Eufaula Times:

I hoped it would not again be necessary for me to refer to the very unpleasant cotton transaction with R. F. Kolb. Owing to my high regard for his family, I have heretofore refused to give the facts for publication but since I have learned that Kolb is using my silence to my own detriment, in justice to myself I feel that the facts in the case should be made public.

Captain Kolb says: "This particular lot of cotton amounted to 105 bales." This is not true. It amounted to 125 bales. Captain Kolb says again: "I made out the invoice for same and forwarded to the firm in Savannah to whom I was shipping." He did nothing of the sort, I furnished the money to pay for the cotton, as my books prove, and I have other incontrovertible evidence besides my books on this subject, which Captain Kolb can get.

"No wrong was intended," says Captain Kolb, and again he says, "It was simply an oversight." Now I have this to say: When the short weights were called to his attention, he went to consult his books, and returning said the weights were right, and the Savannah people were trying to swindle him.

I then requested him to furnish me the weigher's certificate. In a day or two he furnished me what purported to be the certificate of the weighers in Cuthbert. I wrote to an agent in Cuthbert and got information that made me feel sure the weights had been doctored. My bookkeeper was then sent to Cuthbert, and the fact that the weights had been raised was proven.

Based on this information, I wrote Captain Kolb on the 27th day of October, 1879, the following letter:

Eufaula, Ala., Oct. 27th, 1879. Capt. R. F. Kolb:

Dear Sir:—On yesterday you informed me that you did not intend to be annoyed by me again about the weights of the Cuthbert cotton sold me. I am so confident that something is wrong in this matter that I regret to again trouble you. You stated to me yesterday that Hardaway had also gone over this bill, rechecking with you, and found the weights correct as rendered. I have just had a talk with him and he denies ever hearing anything about it before, that all that he has had to do in cotton matters is to class it. He used very emphatic language, and it will be to your interest to call at once and see me. Very truly,

J. G. GUICE.

Captain Kolb then came to see me, and when I insisted that he settle the short weights, he complained bitterly that I had pursued him in the matter and had doubted his honesty, and he was getting tired of it, and it must stop. Whereupon I handed him from my desk the certified weights. It had the desired effect. He cooled off and sat down, and then begged me to keep it quiet on account of his family. I told him I must have my money, and if it did not come, I would have him arrested. Before the close of banking hours that day he settled, and the books will show it. Afterwards in a conversation with Captain Kolb he exonerated Mr. Hardaway from any connection with the unfortunate weight transaction.

I challenge Captain Kolb to disprove any part of this statement.

J. G. GUICE.

'SOMETHING BETTER'

About Which the Sub-Treasury Advocates Talk.

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The alliance democrats of the house are preparing a bill which they believe, when perfected, can be adopted into a law, and which will give the financial relief the present condition of the country needs.

It is in the nature of a substitute for the subtreasury bill, which of course has never been seriously thought of as a practical thing.

The bill will be introduced within a few days. It will provide for the government issuing money to the states at 1 per cent interest upon collateral to the amount of three times the amount furnished the respective states. The states can then lend this money to its citizens at interest and upon collateral decided upon by the states.

The full details of the plan have not been decided upon, but the general plan for issuing the currency to the states is on the same principle as the national banking law. The general outlines of the plan have been submitted to some of the best posted and most successful financiers of this country, as well as to men of legal ability, and from all opinions to a large extent favorable have been received. The general plan it is agreed is good, but those who are most interested are having some difficulty in arranging the details. However, they are advising with men whose ability as financiers cannot be questioned, and a practical measure will come out of it.

L. W. Grant passed through the city last night on his way to the lower part of the district. If what The Hot Blast hears is so, Mr. Grant's fences are in pretty good shape and don't need a great deal of patching.—Hot Blast.

You must not expect from the general government too much. I have no sympathy with any party that wants to convert this government into a paternal one. There are some things that it cannot do and ought not to do. There are some evils incident to our social and political life which cannot be cured by legislation; there are evils which cannot be reached, but they must be endured. There will be hard times; there will be plenty of hard times; there will be times of prosperity; there will be times of disaster in business; there will be good markets and bad markets; legislation may aid us in the great race of life, but legislation cannot do all. We must not expect to run to congress every time there is a bad crop; we must not expect relief from every imaginable ill incident to a great republic like ours. Let us not run over to new and untried things. Let us hold fast to those which have been tested, and live up to those old principles. In the language of another, a distinguished predecessor of mine in the government of my own state. "We must build up a new prosperity upon the old foundation of American self-government, carry back our political systems toward the ideas of their authors, make government a constitutional organization, meddling little with private concerns of individuals, aiming at a fraternity among ourselves and with countries abroad and trusting to the people to work for home prosperity and happiness." (Applause.) This is not only true democracy but it is common sense. Upon these principles we can safely stand. The democratic party fights the selfishness of the country. I mean what is arrayed against us, the combined selfishness of the country that wants to get rich out of politics; that wants to use the government to build up their private interests at the expense of the people.—David B. Hill at Birmingham.

SIRE AND SON.

The One is Eighty-two Years, The Other Six Months.

The Hot Blast yesterday had a visit from Rev. D. D. Turner, one of the most interesting men of the day. The gentleman is nearing his eighty-second year and is the oldest citizen of the county, having moved here in 1832, when this was known as the Creek purchase. In the fall of that year it was made Benton county. The old gentleman informs us that Alexandria in these days was known as Collettown, and that it was there our county site, Jacksonville, was first proposed and that he is the only living witness of its naming, and is the only living man that voted in its first election. The good old gentleman has been preaching the gospel for near half a century. He has served as many as five churches. He still fills his regular appointments at his early church. His present wife was a nursing infant at one of his early sermons. He afterward married her to her first husband. Eleven years ago she became his wife, after a widowhood of several years, and now he exhibits the most wonderful curiosity of a smiling prating six months old boy, and a hoary haired father, over four score years.

We do not believe the county can show such another case. It is indeed remarkable. That son should be carried to the World's Fair, and by the side of his aged sire would attract the attention of hundreds of thousands of visitors.

Mr. Turner is remarkably well preserved for a man of his years. He doesn't look to be over sixty.—Anniston Hot Blast.

The Proposed Calhoun Association.

The question of forming a new association to be composed of the Baptist churches of Calhoun county has been considerably discussed and the Coosa River Association and the Tallahassee Association have passed resolutions granting letters to such churches as desired to enter the proposed organization, and several churches have also taken action looking to that end, sufficient to guarantee its success. The undersigned, therefore unite in calling a meeting for organization at Jacksonville, Ala., beginning on Friday, May 27, 1892, at 10 o'clock a. m. and continuing Saturday and Sunday, thus using the fifth Sunday; and we invite each church desiring to join the association to elect three delegates to attend that meeting. It is proposed to adopt the Constitution and Articles of Faith at this first session, and as there will be no committees to report, the remainder of the time will be devoted to a general discussion of denominational affairs in the nature of a missionary mass meeting. Representatives of all of our boards will be invited to attend and perhaps other brethren from a distance will be with us.

Each church is requested to take a special collection for missions to send up to this meeting, and also to make a contribution for the purpose of publishing the minutes, and to write the customary letter giving statistics of membership and finances of church and Sunday school. The Jacksonville church has kindly invited our first session, and delegates will, as soon as elected, please notify by postal card, Bro. P. D. Ross, clerk of Jacksonville church Fraternally,

E. F. Smyth, J. F. Potter, J. A. Scott, T. P. Gwin, Geo. B. Barger, C. C. Wright, W. H. Smith, C. B. Woodruff, Wm. A. Davis, J. H. Pope. March 19, 1892.

Qualifications in Walker.

Jasper, March 19.—Mr. T. L. Long, chairman of the democratic executive committee of the county, publishes an article in the current issue of the Eagle, in which he defines the qualifications of voters in the April primary. Prominent among these are, first: "All white democrats and white persons, who previous to Feb. 24, 1892, have made known their intentions and desire to affiliate with the democratic party;" second: "A man that will promise to support only a part of the democratic ticket in the next August election is not a democrat, and must not be allowed to vote."

It seems almost like throwing the money away to pay tailors $50.00 for what you can get of us for $25 or $35. They rail and rail ready made clothes—but it's the pricking of the consciousness. We've gone in to win the trade of a class of gentlemen particular—but who are ready to give merit its dues. Have a line of fine SUITS and OVERCOATS. If you've looked the stock over you have seen the same grade of goods—with a thin least, "tacked on" to the cost. The cheap tailors and the rest of made clothiers haven't a suggestion of them even. Ours are in fact, feel effects. Effects that you don't find outside of a dozen mills in the world over for them. We put these fine fabrics right into our TAILOR SHOPS and when they come out there's nothing else had. We are willing to stake our reputation on the perfection of elegance and thoroughness of the finish and make. Try them on cost anything but time; and we are sure you'll give us the end of deserve. We never go "off half cocked." When we make a plant it in rich soil of facts, and it don't take long for it to bring our efforts are telling on our trade. It's growing amazingly.

L. P. Hurter, the accommodating agent for the East and West road at this place, keeps his doors wide open to the traveling public both day and night.

The hill on Main street north of Mattons branch, is reported in a very bad condition, and should be looked after at once as much travel is done over this street.

The excursion from this place to Piedmont over the Tredegar Mineral and East and West road last Monday was a success. All who went up express themselves as highly pleased with Piedmont.

The grading on the Tredegar Mineral between the E. T. V. & G. tracks and the public square is being rapidly completed, and all trains over that line will run within a stones throw of the public square instead of stopping down at the old E. T. V. & G. depot.

The first regular schedule of the East and West over the Tredegar Mineral went into effect last Sunday which brings all trains over that line into Jacksonville. The present schedule now enables passengers going west to make connection at Duke with trains for Gadsden and Atlanta.

We are requested by Dr. T. W. Ayers, President of the Calhoun county medical society, to state that the regular meeting of this society will be held in the city of Anniston, on the first Tuesday in April, and that as this is the meeting at which the annual dues are to be paid, and delegates appointed to the State Medical Association, it is desired that all the doctors in the county attend.

The municipal ticket printed last week is not likely to have opposition. It is composed of gentlemen who will carefully look after the interests of the town. Mr. Arnold, the candidate for Mayor is a popular young lawyer, who will take pride in administering the affairs of the town and the board on the ticket with him is composed of our best men in the various walks of life.

A Novelty in Railroad Advertising. The passenger department of the East Tennessee Virginia and Georgia Railway has introduced an innovation in advertising in the shape of "Remarks by Bill Nye," a book of 501 pages, with 50 illustrations, containing the brightest and wittiest sayings of this world-famed humorist, issued especially for this great Railroad System.

The largest publication of the kind ever printed. Only 10,000 copies will be issued, so that people will have to "come early to avoid the rush." 25 cents in stamps or postal note to Mr. B. W. Wrenn, Gen. Passenger and Ticket Agent, E. T. V. & G. Railway, Knoxville Tenn., will secure a copy free.

FROM TEXAS. CALDWELL, TEX. MARI, IS, '92. DEAR REP.—It may be a matter of some interest to some of your readers to know of the death of Mrs. Judge Broadus, which occurred on the 23rd of January last at Cooks Point, Burleson county, Tex. She was the daughter of John and Isabell Worthington, of Calhoun county, Ala. She was raised and educated at White Plains and was married first in 1844, to William Elston, with whom she lived about ten years in Choctawhatchee valley. Mr. Elston died leaving her a widow with one little girl and a good estate. She wound up her business in Ala. and moved with her brother-in-law, Rev. N. A. Davis, to Texas and settled at Cooks Point. She was again married in 1860 to Mr. Allen Carr, a man of fine morals and a good property, but this relation was severed by death in about two years, and in December 1865. She was married to Judge Andrew S. Broadus, a native Virginia. Judge B. was a fine lawyer and had been honored as a representative in the State legislature, both in Virginia and Texas. Judge B. was a decided prohibitionist and a consistent member of the Missionary Baptist Church, and died just nine months to a day before Mrs. B. They had lived together twenty-five years here and were soon united again, we hope, on the shores of immortality. One thing noticeable is, that Mrs. Broadus was a member of the Presbyterian Church, and all of her husbands were members of the Baptist church, she was buried at Cooks Point cemetery and the little Elston girl Nannie, now Mrs. Taylor, is the only surviving heir to an estate of perhaps twenty thousand dollars.

Having once lived in Calhoun, would be glad to see a copy of the old acquaintance. Respectfully, Elder W. S. Lackey.

Mail Order Department of Ullman Bros. Having received a beautiful assortment of dress goods and trimmings, we hereby inform the ladies that our "mail order department" in charge of our Mr. A. Ullman, is now prepared to fill all orders for samples or any other goods you may desire. Every attention paid to the smallest detail. Respectfully, Ullman Bros.

New Line of Clothing. Our clothing department is now replete with the very latest styles in business and dress suits, for Men, Youths and boys, and at prices that defy competition. These goods were selected with great care and for neatness and style cannot be excelled. Ullman Bros.

From Wearers. Farmers are having some fine weather for farming at present. Prof. Jas. L. Bynum has a full school.

O. E. Bynum, our much esteemed assistant lecturer for Anniston last week to take his position on the electric line.

Miss Lela Harvey, of this place, is visiting her friends and relatives in Lafayette.

Dr. Harvey has gone to Miss., to spend 4 months. The farmers are going it on cotton. There has been twice as much gunn shipped here this year as there were last.

Weavers High school is preparing for an entertainment which will take place in a short while. We will also have a lecture from Mr. Ed. Caldwell at the same time.

We are looking for a big wedding in a few weeks in which the school is interested. One of our school boys has gone into the mercantile business with Harvey & Co., at this place.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria. When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria. When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

The recently elected United States Senator of Georgia, General John B. Gordon, says: Mr. A. K. Hawkes—Dear Sir: The pantoscopic glasses you furnished me some time since give excellent satisfaction. I have tested them by use, and must say they are unequalled in clearness and brilliancy by any that I have ever worn.

B. B. Dickerson, et als.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register, by the affidavit of J. F. Crook solicitor for complainant that the defendant Wm Barnes is a non-resident of Alabama and resides in Anderson county South Carolina, and further, that, in the belief of said affiant, the defendant is over the age of twenty-one years.

It is therefore ordered by the Register, that publication be made in the Jacksonville Republican, a newspaper published in the said county of Calhoun, once a week for four consecutive weeks, requiring him, the said Wm. Barnes, to answer or demur to the same, within thirty days after the 22nd day of March, 1892, and failing so to do a decree pro confesso will be taken against him in said cause.

Done at office, in Jacksonville, this 20th day of February, 1892.
WM. M. HAMES,
Register.

EROS!

Of course you have heard of Eros' BOOK STORE

but have you called at Eros' store? There are no cramped notions or stocks at Eros'. It's the store of liberal ideas in trading. It's the Book and Stationery Store in the full sense of the word, and of which any city would be proud of. New books almost as soon as the ink is dry. All the standard Periodicals and Weekly papers. School books and supplies which have to sell on their merit and for prices. Fine correspondence paper at lower prices than you pay for common stuff. If you can't come yourself a letter that tells nearly what you want will command the best attention and the goods will cost the same as if personally bought.

COMMERCIAL AND LAW STATIONERY,

Architect's and Engineer's materials. You can confidently call or write for anything in the above line. Whatever goods ought to be in a first class Book and Stationery store are here, and the prices are right.

Noble between 12 and 13 street, Anniston, Ala.

ARE YOU ONE OF US!

It seems almost like throwing the money away to pay tailors $40.00

$50.00 for what you can get of us for $25 or $35. They rail and rant against ready made clothes—but it's the pricking of the consciousness of excellence. We've gone in to win the trade of a class of gentlemen who particular—but who are ready to give merit its dues. Have a look at line of fine SUITS and OVERCOATS. If you've looked the best far stock over you have seen the same grade of goods—with a third more least, "tacked on" to the cost. The cheap tailors and the rest of the made clothiers haven't a suggestion of them even. Our's are in all the feel effects. Effects that you don't find outside of a dozen mills if you the world over for them. We put these fine fabrics right into OUR O

TAILOR SHOPS and when they come out there's nothing choicer had. We are willing to stake our reputation on the perfection of the fi elegance and thoroughness of the finish and make. Try them on; it cost anything but time; and we are sure you'll give us the endorsement deserve. We never go "off half cocked." When we make a claim plant it in rich soil of facts, and it don't take long for it to bring forth

Our efforts are telling on our trade. It's growing amazingly.
