

The Republican.

L. W. GRANT, Publisher.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 3, 1892.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND.

For Vice-President,
A. E. STEVENSON.

For Congress:
GASTON A. ROBBINS.

CAMPAIGN RATE.

For twenty-five cents, strictly in advance, the REPUBLICAN will be sent to any address from now until the 1st of January 1893. This period will cover the Presidential Campaign; the meeting of the State Legislature and the gubernatorial contest before that body. It will cover the most interesting period of the State for years. Can any man in Calhoun afford to be without the paper at this price? Remember no name will be booked at this low rate without the cash.

Cleveland has constantly raised his voice for the reduction of the taxes of the people.

Cleveland is the only President since the war who has had the courage to condemn the pension bill.

Cholera has reached New York and it is feared it will spread through the United States in spite of all precautions.

Cleveland is for the repeal of protective tariff laws which rob the farmers for the benefit of the manufacturers.

Give Robbins a hearty support for congress. He is an honest and deserving man and good democrat and will serve the people faithfully in congress.

The press of the Fourth District accept the nomination of Mr. Robbins for Congress in good spirit. Every-Cleveland Democrat in the District should vote for him.

With the election of Cleveland the South will see good times again. With the election of Harrison or Weaver, if Weaver had any chance, the South can hope for no improvement.

South Carolina primaries gave Gov. Tillman a majority of ten thousand. The canvass has been bitter and exciting. It is said that Tillman is for Cleveland and the State will go for him.

The Republicans of the Fourth District held two conventions Thursday, one at Selma and the other at Calera. The Selma convention was composed of the Mosely wing and the Calera convention was composed of the Bill Stevens wing.

It is reported that a Weaver club of seventy-two has been formed in beat 8 of this county. For the honor of the beat, we hope this is not true. All sensible people know Weaver has no chance and that any support given him only helps Harrison.

Dr. Groce, President of the State Alliance, is reported in the Talladega Mountain Home as having said that he would work and vote for Weaver, if he knew it would turn the State over to Harrison. He proposes to make one third party speech in each county in the State.

Asiatic Cholera is spreading throughout Europe and it will be a miracle if it does not reach the United States. The port cities of this country are taking active steps to prevent its introduction by foreign vessels, and it is greatly to be hoped they may succeed. The prevalence of cholera in the United States would result in frightful loss of life and hundreds of millions of dollars by the paralysis of trade.

Col. H. C. Thompson has beaten Col. Wiley, in Montgomery county for the Congressional Delegation from that county to the District Convention of the Second District. This will very likely give Col. Thompson the nomination. Col. Warren S. Reese, of Montgomery, says he will run if nominated by the Birmingham third party Convention the 15th of Sept. A negro Republican also has announced his intention to run.

The Third Party people meet in Jacksonville the 10th inst., in mass convention to select delegates to a State Convention to be held in Birmingham the 15th inst., for the purpose of putting out an electoral ticket, nominating Congressmen and aiding the Republican party generally. The Third party will get beautifully wiped up in November and then there will be a good many people in Calhoun very heartily ashamed of themselves.

A letter from Edwardsville says that Mr. Eichelberger has instituted a contest in Cleburne for the seat of Senator elect Porter. It is understood that Eichelberger bases his contest on an alleged defect in the ticket on which Porter's name was printed. Eichel will learn in the course of the contest that the law will not take notice of the size of the ticket, unless it appears that the voter intended to defraud by the use of an oversized or undersized ticket.

A dispatch from Anniston to the Chattanooga Times on the Calera convention does both Gen. Forney and Mr. Grant an injustice by classifying them as candidates before that convention. Gen. Forney was at no time a candidate for the nomination. He had, on the contrary, in response to every overture, declared that he was not a candidate and would not be under any circumstances. Mr. Grant had been a candidate until his county delegation was put up against him on a combination now well understood throughout the State. After that he determined not to go before the convention, but the fact was not announced for reasons not necessary to mention. When the convention met Chilton county cast her vote for Gen. Forney, whose name was not before the convention, and Cleburne county, which had been instructed, cast her vote for Mr. Grant, whose name was not before the convention. This lasted all evening. At night, Cleburne, after consultation with Mr. Grant, ceased to vote for him and cast her vote around impartially among the candidates. Chilton adhered to Gen. Forney, casting an occasional vote for Robbins, of Dallas. Six of the Dallas delegates had refused to vote for Robbins up to a late hour of the night, and it looked as if it would be impossible for him to get the nomination even with the vote of Chilton and Cleburne. Suddenly Dallas cast 22 votes for Gen. Forney and Chilton cast 5 votes for him, bringing him within two of a nomination. While it was generally known that the Calhoun delegation had been fixed solidly against Mr. Grant by the employment of convenient proxies and otherwise, it was thought the delegation would readily accept Gen. Forney and determine the contest in favor of Calhoun, since it was apparent to all that the man they were backing had no earthly chance of the nomination; but to the surprise of the whole convention they paltered with their opportunity and at the very moment when the Calhoun delegation could have nominated Gen. Forney, an adjournment of ten minutes was had, the motion for which was voted for by the Calhoun delegation. Meantime a combination was threatened which would have resulted in the nomination of neither Gen. Forney nor Mr. Robbins. This served to bring the Dallas delegation together, and when the convention reassembled and resumed the ballot her solid vote of 23 was cast for Robbins. This with the 5 from Chilton nominated him, and the delegations from other counties fell into line and made it unanimous.

The Duty of Democrats. It is the solemn duty of Alabama Democrats to cease wrangling over the late election. What the object or purposes of men were before the first Monday in August no longer concern us; the election is over and nothing is to be gained by talking about its methods, its consequences, its ultimate import. The people have now got to elect a President and members of the lower house of Congress. These are to be chosen upon National issues, and these issues in no way concern our "family quarrel" here in Alabama. It is the duty of the Democratic party, the Republicans will not so much as consider the demands of the farmers, as every intelligent farmer in Alabama is well aware. The Third Party is the party of sore-heads, discarded politicians, and adventurers, and even if that party were successful it wouldn't do anything for the people it so loudly and so confidently claims to represent. In the next Congress there will not be a dozen Third Party men; but even if there were twenty times that number they could accomplish nothing in the face of a hostile Senate and an unfriendly executive. No sane man believes that a political party that chooses such a cheap fellow as Weaver for a leader can ever become respectable. It is a party of wild and absurd theories—a sort of blind party blindly beating about the bush for blind voters. What we have got to do here in Alabama is to carry the State for Cleveland and elect nine Democratic congressmen, and we must cease gabbling like leaderless geese, and get down to business. For the moment we have got nothing to do with an election held a month ago.—Age-Herald.

On next Thursday the Republican convention of the Fourth Congressional District will meet in Selma for the purpose of nominating a congressman for that party. Ben Turner, R. A. Mosely, Geo. H. Craig and Wm. J. Stevens will probably be candidates before the convention. From the lights before us the result is in no wise certain, but if "Chairman Bill" decides to make the race in earnest before the convention the rest of the horses had better look out for Bill is a regular "Nancy Hawks" when it comes to manipulating a convention.—Selma Journal.

Mr. Gaston A. Robbins, the democratic nominee for congress in the 4th district is one of the ablest of Alabama's young democrats, and with thorough organization and faithful, steady work he will be elected by a handsome majority. Every democratic club in the district should go to work now and do every thing possible to secure for him an overwhelming majority.—Calera Journal.

Mrs. Stings—Last night you came home with a story of sitting up with a sick friend. Now what excuse have you this time? Mr. Stings—To-night, my love, we (he) all gathered (hic) round his beer.

The General. In these days of turmoil and strife it is pleasant to turn from garulous place-seekers and quarrelsome time-servers to one man who has borne himself bravely and well, and who desires now to lay down the burden of office for the rest and peace of a home where the flowers blossom and the trees lend their shade; a man whose name is stainless, whose life-record gives no hint of wrong done or evil contemplated, but is bright with good deeds and duty performed. That for which so many men are struggling, scheming and praying he would gracefully put away from him, having grown weary of honors. He would put place aside as one might lay off a mantle that had been worn many seasons. It is very graceful, very beautiful. It is poetic in its suggestiveness, not unlike ideals that float through the space of our dreams when we dream of men that are manly.

William Henry Forney is a name very dear to this people, for they have been proud of him and glad to honor through many and many years, and now that he seeks to lay down his commission as their servant in the councils of the land, many loving spirits and many souls that admire will feel some sense of personal loss, some sense of emotion in reflecting that the years are crowding thick upon him whom they have so long and with so much affection thought of and spoken of as The General. It comes to few men in the public life of any land to inspire so much of reverence and love as this great-souled, knightly, honest, smiling old Roman father of the Alabama people. Being brave, he knows how to be tender; being honest, he knows how to be truthful. Men of that stamp are not always successful in this material world, but the measure of The General's success has been full, and the affections and confidence of his people bear witness that all people are not ungrateful.

That tall, slightly stooping figure; that clean face, something like parchment, if it were not wrinkled with smiles and seams with benevolence; that long powerful nose, reminding of an eagle's beak; that broad, firm mouth with full lips that constantly move with spirit; jaws so forceful as to suggest angles; eyes deep-set, kind, generous, always enlivened, and shaded by a brow very nearly beetling—The General looks like a man whom a Washington might love, whom the world might trust, No knight of the boudoir he, but one who sprang full-blown, full-brained, full-souled from the many-headed People. Trusted of the old, he is the ideal of the young man who is brought within the sphere of contact. Cool, reliant, imperturbable, he is a figure that appeals to youth and reassures age; a right knightly old man, who looms up in these troublous days an exemplar, a guide, a father.

No speech-making man, The General. He has always been a man of action. For full fifty years he has followed duty, and for more than seven times ten years he has lived worthily. His speeches fill pages of the record of national legislative proceedings while the talk of less useful men fill volumes. Whenever he has spoken he has had something to say—no flood of words barren of ideas; but short, quick-spoken, practical words that concerned the people's business. Upon the floor of the House he sat motionless, listening; learning, if there be anything to learn, which was seldom. In the committee room, where the laws are framed and decided upon, he has been for nearly twenty years a potent force, listening patiently to the theories of other men and disposing of them with a word sometimes, often with a sentence. A most useful legislator while.

But The General's legislative work is nearly done. It pleases him to quit that gilded chamber at the capital in which he has so long labored, where he has done so much in the interest of the whole people, and nobody will deny him the right to rest.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

A Puzzling Question.

Would it be better for us to have an aggressive foreign policy than to have so much discontent and disorder at home. Perhaps this question assumes too much. It implies an improvement in our home affairs, when we begin to make our activity felt abroad. Many people entertain this view. It is seriously argued that if we pursued an aggressive policy of territorial expansion, maintained a large army and navy, and adopted England's way of seizing everything in sight, our discontented and dangerous classes would find new fields of action and enterprise abroad, and would be less active at home. If our statesmen were dominated by the British ideas of expansion and conquest, Canada, Cuba, Mexico and Central America would be annexed, and a protectorate would be established over the South American republics.

Undoubtedly, such a policy would, for generations to come, be profitable to us in a material sense, and it would stimulate national pride and wipe out the last vestige of sectionalism. As our army and navy would necessarily be maintained most of the time on a war footing, very few able-bodied men in this country would remain out of employment, unless they preferred to be tramps or criminals. Our industries would boom, and the currency would undergo an expansion, if not an inflation.

But the final result? There's the rub. In the course of time, perhaps in a century or so, there would be nothing more to acquire, or conquer, and our people, unable to fight outsiders, would begin fighting among themselves. Then would come the breaking up of this vast republic, or it would give place for a time to a despotism. Upon the whole, it is plain that periods of domestic discontent must come, no matter what policy is adopted. Our government, by war-like aggression abroad, could make things easy at home for a while, but it would be only a temporary makeshift. We can expect no continuous, unbroken prosperity. There will be occasional touches of depression, and then a reaction.

Fortunately, our era of hard times seems to be nearing its end, and for the next few years, if nothing unexpected occurs, it is likely that general prosperity will prevail. The nations have no philosopher's stone, and, like individuals, they must have their reverses as well as their successes.—Atlanta Constitution.

THE TIN PLATE FRAUD.

Philadelphia Times. Mr. Molin, one of the young voters of the country, very naturally wants to know what the people get in return for the tariff tax of $10,000,000 levied upon every family of the land ostensibly to protect the tin industry. He submits the following pertinent inquiries: "Will you kindly state in the columns of the Times what the annual consumption of tin is in the United States, how much we produced before and after the McKinley bill; how many people are employed, what the quality of the tin compared with the imported, and whether the plates, etc., are all made here or some imported and only dipped here. By stating the above with any additional information you will greatly oblige a young voter. Yours very respectfully, J. W. MOLIN, S. E. corner Twenty-fourth and Oxford streets, Philadelphia, Aug. 22, 1892.

1. The annual consumption of tin in this country is 680,000,000 pounds. 2. We produced no tin plate in this country prior to the passage of the McKinley tariff. 3. The official report from the Treasury Department for the year ending June 30, 1892, gives the production of American tin as follows: For the three months ending Sept. 30, 1891, 826,992 pounds for the next three months, 1,409,821 pounds, and for the next three months ending March 31, 1892, 3,004,087 pounds. 4. The total production of tin plate in this country for the nine months since its alleged manufacture in the United States was 5,240,830 pounds. The American consumption of tin is about 2,260,000 pounds per day of eight hours, and the American product of nine months would supply the American market less than three days.

5. The tariff tax on the tin consumed in the nine months under the McKinley bill was about $11,220,000, all of which was paid by the American consumer. The tariff tax to protect American tin, estimated on the nine months' American product, amounted to about $2 per pound on what we produced. 6. It is impossible to estimate the number of people employed in American tin establishments. The N. & C. Taylor Co., of this city, reports to the Treasury Department that, with the latest improvements, two boys can make seventy boxes of tin plate per day. At this estimate, 580 boys could produce our entire annual consumption, and allowing each boy to earn $400 per year, the total wages would aggregate $232,000, while the tax on the people would be about $16,000,000.

7. How the tin plate factory progresses after it is established under the inspiration of a direct tax of $16,000,000 on the people, may be learned by the official Treasury reports. The first summary for Sept. 1, 1891, shows that Cronmeyer produced 139,000 pounds the first quarter, 161,000 pounds the second and 129,000 pounds the third. The Pittsburgh Electroplating Company produced 550,000 pounds the first quarter, 255,000 pounds the second and 98,000 pounds the third. Marshall Brothers produced 450,000 pounds the first quarter, 259,000 pounds the second and none the third. The second summary to Dec. 31, 1891, shows that William P. Simpson produced 7,500 pounds the second quarter and 995 pounds the third. Fleming & Hamilton produced 225,000 pounds the second quarter and none the third. The Apollo Iron Company, Apollo, Pa., produced 31,000 pounds the second quarter and none the third. The McKinley Tin Plate Company, of Pittsburgh, advertised samples of tin plate in May last and a month thereafter Dun's Mercantile Agency of June 4 announced that the corporation had "dissolved on a vote of the stockholders."

8. Not only nearly or quite all the plates used in the alleged manufacture of American tin plate are imported, but the pig tin is imported and the skilled workmen are all imported. So-called American tin is, therefore, as a rule simply foreign block plates imported; foreign tin dipping pots imported, and all the American industry about it is the dipping shed, and for that luxury the people are taxed some $16,000,000 a year on their dinner pails, kitchen ware, roofs, fruit cans, etc. It is not an American industry at all; it is a palpable, flagrant fraud and simply oppressive taxation on all without compensation to any.

Hon. F. L. Pettus, of Dallas, is a candidate for Speaker of the House of Representatives. Mr. Pettus is an able legislator, and would if elected make a fine officer.—Calera Journal.

The Democratic Party and The Farmer.

The Democratic party in Alabama is responsible for providing for the farmer as a class, laws as follows: 1. Exemption from taxation of libraries other than those of a professional character, one yoke of oxen, one cart or wagon, two cows and calves, 20 head of stock hogs, 10 head of sheep, all poultry, all agricultural products of the preceding year which are on hand, in the hands of the producer, provisions and supplies on hand for the current year for the making of the crop, farming tools to the value of $25.

2. Stringent laws on weighing and sampling cotton by brokers and purchasers; 3. Double damages against fire-hunters killing cattle, and owners of sheep killing dogs; 4. First lien to landlord for rent and advances, and balances carried over—superior to the strongest mortgage the merchant can draw; 5. Lien in favor of agricultural superintendents and laborers; 6. Ten dollars for each tree cut down, denuded or girdled; 7. Seller of guano without attached tag showing analysis, loses the guano and the farmer gets it free of charge. Seller also guilty of crime; 8. Hirer of laborer or servant under written contract, made guilty of crime unless person discharged on notice. (Really intended to bind to involuntary servitude, until crop is made); 9. Grand larceny extended to cover stealing cattle without regard to value; 10. Stealing an ear of corn or a lock of cotton made a felony; 11. Special penal laws on changing marks, taking cotton from bale by factor or other person, conversion of cotton samples, injuring cotton bales by cutting, broker failing to pay planter for cotton purchased; 12. Killing or disabling domestic animals; 13. Burning woods; 14. Selling farm products after dark.

These laws are wise and good. But the charge has been made that the Democratic party is working against the interest of the farmer and in favor of other classes. The unanswerable reply to this is the statute book may be scanned page by page and line by line without showing it. If the Democratic party in Alabama can be justly charged with the offense of enacting class legislation, on the plea of guilty, she would have to say: "Yes, in favor of the farmer only."

"DEMOCRAT."

Absolute Free Trade.

The hired slaves who frisk about the muddy skirts of the hired harlot of high tariff insist upon and persist in calling the Democrats free traders. Let them do it, if it please them. If to fight against the most burdensome taxation that afflicts any Christian nation be a battle for free trade, let the millionaires and their subsidized organs make the most of it. If to stand up for the humble laborer in Carnegie's mills, against that blatant humbug and loud-mouthed demagogue who now spends his day surrounded by hired slaves in a hired palace of Scotland, be free tradeism, let all honest men proclaim their adhesion to free trade.

If it be free trade to stand by the workingman whose tin dinner pail is heavily taxed and who is deprived of high tariff of the dinner to fill that pail, be free trade, then may the gods bless the free traders! If to advocate a system of laws that will make it possible for the workingman to lie down at night under blankets unburdened with the blood money of millionaire manufacturers, let us make the heavens ring with the cry of free trade.

It is time for Democrats to cease denying that they are free traders. They, all of them, know that they are not such, but the imputation that they are laboring for "absolute free trade" can do them no hurt. Better free trade than the riots at Buffalo, at Homestead and at other places, every one of which is the direct offspring of that system of taxation which has made a thousand millionaires and a million paupers. We can well afford to go before the people on this issue.

The high tariff of today is working ruin to the country. It is piling up wealth for the wealthy and bringing about absolute poverty for the men who have to labor for their daily bread. We are ground down by taxation, the sole aim of which is to enrich a few men whose purpose is to buy the Presidency for Harrison and to crush American liberty. Better a thousand times "absolute free trade" than the present condition of things!—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Carnes has identified nearly one thousand individuals who have been engaged in rioting in Anderson County. They have been found out through the cowardly leaders who "squeaked" to save themselves. Not less than 500 have been arrested. These facts give the lie to the talk of sympathizers with the rioters, to the effect that there were not more than a few score men in Anderson County breaking the peace and the laws at any time.—Chattanooga Times.

He—I never was so shocked as I was at young Twiggan's suicide. Only last week he told me in confidence that he had made up his mind to propose to Miss Becker. She—That is the secret of it, I think. You see, she accepted him.

DEATH OF CURTIS.

END OF THE CAREER OF A FAMOUS AMERICAN.

George William Curtis Breathed His Last at His Late Home on Staten Island.

He was conscious to the end and suffered no pain. Dr. Frank G. Curtis, his son, was in attendance, and Mrs. Curtis was by his side.

He was born in Providence, R. I., Feb. 14, 1824, and after obtaining a common school education there passed four years at the academy in Jamaica Plain, Mass.

Strictly speaking he never took a college course, yet his scholarship was usually sound and thorough. His mother having died in his early boyhood, his father married again, and in 1839 removed to New York city.

George William was destined to a slow growth. His father died when he was a child, and he was placed in a mercantile career for him and placed him as clerk in a German importing house. We need say no more as to the judgment of the elder Curtis. His son's year in that office was decidedly the unhappiest period of the lad's life. "He cut the shop," as they say in those days, in sheer desperation, and with an older brother joined the noted Brook Farm community in West Roxbury, Mass.

Brook farm and most of its early history, since the first smart of disappointment was eased, joined in the laugh.

After Brook Farm the Curtis brothers remained two years in Concord, Mass., and vicinity, working a farm, studying and writing, and at the end of that time George William had acquired a standing as a writer, which enabled him to go abroad. He went in 1846 and returned in 1850. The result appears in his famous works on Syria and Egypt, which caused him to be known for many years as "Howard," or "Pillgrim."

He had written for the New York Tribune and the Courier and Enquirer, and returned to New York to find himself in the front rank of young writers.

Yet his first independent ventures were disastrous. For three years on the Tribune, joined with Mr. Parke Godwin and Mr. Charles Briggs in the editorial management of Putnam's Monthly. It was too good for the times. Or perhaps it had too many good managers and lacked the controlling energy of one direction.

After the business manager, Dr. Edwards, Mr. Curtis considered himself morally responsible for a share of the mismanagement, and resolutely toiled until he had paid every dollar of it.

For the next ten years he labored as no literary man had done since that wonderful achievement of Walter Scott in paying the indebtedness of the bankrupt with which he was connected.

Mr. Curtis was several times elected to National Republican conventions, and was a member of the constitutional convention of New York, and was chairman of the committee on education. He declined the consul generalship to Egypt, tendered by President Lincoln.

Mr. Curtis was a strong advocate of civil service reform. He declined the position of German, offered by President Hayes, and declined to name any foreign minister. He might like to fill. In 1884 Mr. Curtis was chairman of an independent Republican convention held in New York to protest against the nomination of Mr. Blaine for president, and he has never been a staid Republican. He supported Mr. Cleveland 1884, and has been a Democrat in national politics ever since.

FROM MASSACHUSETTS.

Fred. O. Prince, of Boston, Says They Are Going for Democracy.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—The veteran politician, Frederick O. Prince, of Boston, who was for so many years secretary of the National Democratic committee, believed the party had a good chance of carrying Massachusetts. He says:

"We are going to surprise the Democratic party by the vote in Massachusetts. The first time we are relieved of the necessity of paying a poll tax as a qualification for voting. Although this tax is a small one, still, with many of the rank and file of the Democracy in the state, it is often inconvenient to pay it. I expect the Democratic party in the state will be greatly aided in its vote by the removal of this tax."

His record has greatly increased his popularity.

MILLS IN A DILEMMA.

DALLAS, Sept. 8.—Roger Q. Mills is reported in a desperate situation. His term in the senate expires next March, before the meeting of the Houston convention. He ran with the Clark faction. To their disgust, now, he has come out for Hogg. He has already withdrawn the People's party and the Republicans, and Hogg being a candidate for the senate himself, just from what Roger Q. Mills expects support is hard to get. The Clark men are bitter against him, and accuse him of treachery to them and to the Chicago platform. Mr. Mills says that he will have nothing to do with the state campaign and the Hogg campaign, but will go to the northwest and help elect Cleveland and Stevenson.

A Bank Failure in London.

LONDON, Sept. 2.—The London and General Bank, limited, of 20 Bridge Row, Cannon street, E. C., has suspended payment. The bank was founded in 1882, and had a capital of £1,000,000. To Sept. 30, 1891, the sum of £117,720 had been subscribed to the capital. In 1891 the bank paid 3 per cent. The failure has created no little excitement here.

MILLEN'S SIXTH MURDER.

MILLEN, Ga., Sept. 2.—There seems to be an epidemic of murder in Emanuel county. The sixth murder has been arrested here. As the Macon and Savannah mail reached this point a negro named Coleman knocked the brains out of a negro named Howard, with a pick.

TALTON HALL HUNG.

The Noted Desperado in the Mountains of Virginia, Pays the Penalty.

WISCONSIN, Wis., Sept. 3.—Talton Hall, the slayer of ninety-nine men, spent his last night on earth in restless sleep, and awoke almost completely broken up.

His sister visited him in his cell, and when she left, she was heard to say: "They shall all suffer for this."

Two hundred determined men well armed, guarded the jail all night, and although it was not thought likely that an attack would be made by Hall's friends, every precaution was taken to prevent his being rescued, should it be attempted.

Hall made a speech on the scaffold. The drop fell at 12:34, and Hall was dead eleven minutes later. His neck was broken by the fall.

Hall spent a sleepless night, and when he was called for breakfast he appeared very nervous and broken. He refused to eat anything at breakfast, but called for whisky.

Father Luckie, his spiritual adviser, remained with him from 8 o'clock till the sheriff was ready to take him to the gallows.

Dr. Marshall Taylor.

As much interest is centered in Dr. Marshall Taylor as there has ever been in any desperado in the mountain region of Southwest Virginia and Kentucky. He is as desperate and lawless a man as Talton Hall. Chas. Jones or Little Talton Hall.

He is now guarded in a cell adjoining that occupied by Talton Hall, charged with the brutal and cowardly murder of five people at one time. Those people were all paralytics. They were the sons of a woman and her idiotic daughter, his wife and brother. A woman and a boy, who were with the company, all of whom were crossing Cumberland mountain at the time. Twelve miles from here, were the only ones who escaped with their lives.

The woman swears that Dr. Taylor is the murderer, because of the peculiarity in his walk. The trial will be called the morning of Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Judge Morrison's court, and he is almost certain to be convicted and hanged on the same scaffold as erected for Hall.

LIVELY IN TENNESSEE.

She Has Four Candidates in the Field for Governor.

NASHVILLE, Sept. 2.—With four candidates for governor in the field, the campaign in Tennessee this year will be the most exciting in many years. Judge Turner, chief justice of the supreme court, is the Democratic nominee. Geo. W. Winstead has been nominated by the Republicans. Judge Edward H. East is the representative of the Prohibitionists, and Governor John P. Buchanan has announced himself as an independent candidate for re-election. He has been endorsed by the People's party. All have made opening speeches except Governor Buchanan, who is now busily engaged in laying plans for an active canvass.

In response to invitations sent out a large number of friends of Governor Buchanan met in secret session in this city for the purpose of electing an executive committee and discussing the work of the campaign.

Those who were in attendance upon the meeting declined to talk. An executive committee consisting of one from each congressional district and five from the state at large was elected.

THE FLORIDA SITUATION.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—Col. Stockton, of Jacksonville, in an interview on the situation in Florida, says:

"A new political condition is presented in our state this year. Since the last presidential election Florida has become an October State. We have separated the congressional and presidential elections from the election for state officers. This was done in anticipation of the probable passage of the force bill by the first congress. If there is no doubt that Florida will go Democratic, and look for a majority up to 15,000. For the state election the gubernatorial contest is between Judge H. L. Mitchell, of Tampa, our candidate, and A. P. Backus, the People's party candidate. We realize that the election is not one which our opponents will allow to go by default, but we have no doubt whatever of the Democratic result, and the Republicans will not succeed in transferring their whole strength to the People's party nominees."

ALABAMA POLITICS.

The Outlook for That State as Viewed from the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2.—Alabama politics still continue to receive the attention of the national committee. All the advice received is of an encouraging nature. Editor Screws of Montgomery, points out the fact that in the recent election the full Democratic vote was not brought out. He says: "It is believed that there will be but one electoral ticket in Alabama in opposition to the Democracy, and, if not at the start, before election day, some of the names on it will be Republicans. This will, in itself, cause many of Kolb's supporters to vote for Cleveland and Stevenson electors. The great bulk of this non-voting element in August will be at the polls and vote for Cleveland and the Democratic nominees for congress in November. In the Mobile district the presiding officers of the Kolb convention have come into line."

SPECIAL INSPECTORS.

The Government Makes Arrangements to Guard the Canadian Border.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31.—Surgeon General Wyman of the Marine hospital service, and his assistants, have been busy in perfecting their arrangements for the establishment of the cordon of the Canadian border. The Canadian border will be guarded by two special inspectors stationed at twenty-two places along the frontier where immigrants are likely to be brought into the country either by water or by rail, beginning at Salt Lake and Port Huron and extending across the country to the eastern borders of Maine. Already six or eight of the new officials have been appointed and are at work, while the remainder will be appointed soon. At the more important points there will be several of the medical inspectors stationed with authority to employ assistance if necessary. The complete list of places at which the Canadian border will be guarded in the Canadian border will not be ready for publication for a day or two. So far no cases of Asiatic cholera have been reported as occurring in this country.

THE QUARANTINE.

STRICT REGULATIONS ADOPTED TO KEEP CHOLERA OUT.

Charleston Will Heartily Co-Operate with the Government—Cool Weather Helps Paris.

New York, Sept. 3.—President Harrison's order caused a sensation among the steamship agents in this city. The president's circular letter will practically stop all immigration while the cholera epidemic lasts. The steamship agents recognize the fact that they will have to give up the steerage traffic, to the detriment of their business. Captain Underhill, of the Guion line, said:

The president's proclamation will practically stop immigration to the United States but I think it will not effect those who go to Montreal and come across the border to the United States. My opinion is that we will have cholera, but not until next spring.

The other agents had nothing to say, and many have called for instructions which will probably be an order discontinuing the traffic until further notice, the traffic from this side to continue as usual.

It is estimated that steamship companies will lose $2,000,000 a month with the twenty days quarantine regulations are being carried out, $1,000,000 representing the loss from steerage traffic alone, while the remainder represents the loss arising out of diminished steaming cabin passengers, and loss of freight and incidental expenses.

Joseph Etminski, of 55 Orchard street, who Dr. Beck reported as a cholera suspect, is now infected with the pest. His illness is due to overeating after being nearly starved in Russia. He was all right this morning. For dinner Thursday, Etminski ate almost two pounds of corned beef, a small mountain of cabbage and two watermelons, at least his sister says he did.

A CITY IN EXCITEMENT.

Troops Will Have to Be Called Out to Preserve Order.

New York, Aug. 31.—A special cablegram to the Herald from the Buenos Ayres correspondent says that the city is in a wild state of excitement. Meetings were held Sunday in honor of President-elect Suenz Poma. There were 30,000 radicals present. They interrupted the meetings by shouting for Allen and Irigoyen. There were several collisions, the police attempting to disperse the radicals and a riotous demonstration ensued. The radicals slowly retreated, but made another stand at plaza San Martin. The city is stirred up, and the troops will probably be called out to preserve order.

FIGHT ABOUT POLITICS.

A Debate in Arkansas Broke Up in a General Row.

CONWAY, Sept. 2.—Senator James K. Jones, Democrat, and J. B. Butler, People's party, met Wednesday night in a joint debate. While Jones was speaking, John Ingram, People's party, became enraged at some of Jones' remarks, and attempted to break up the meeting. He insulted several Democrats, one of them being Ben Durham, who retaliated by shooting Ingram.

A general row ensued, in which a number on both sides were injured. The excitement continued, and more trouble is feared.

Spanish Fever in Kansas.

EXPOSURE, Sept. 1.—Great excitement prevails among cattle men in Chase, Greenwood and Lyon counties over the reappearance of Spanish fever. Dr. Richards, a veterinary surgeon of this city, went to Greenwood county and examined some cattle on H. C. Jones' cattle ranch in the south fork of the Verdigris. The result of the Spanish fever was established. A large number of the cattle in that vicinity have been exposed. Mr. Jackson has lost about 40 head of fine cattle that would average 1,200 lbs. each. There have been reported deaths of 90 head which will average at least $20 per head, making the total loss nearly $20,000.

Winstead Will Not Withdraw.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 1.—The story that negotiations are pending for the withdrawal of George W. Winstead, the Republican nominee for governor, in favor of Governor Buchanan, the independent candidate, is without foundation. Of the two, Mr. Winstead has decidedly the most strength, and he even entertains hopes of election. It is announced by Chairman James Jeffreys, of the Republican executive committee, that Mr. Winstead will resume his canvass next week and speak at every place of importance in middle and west Tennessee.

A Negro Desperado's Death.

DALLAS, Tex., Aug. 31.—Joe Hayes, a well known colored Democratic politician, shot and killed Rev. Peyton Hooker, also colored and head cook at the St. George Hotel. He then mounted a horse in waiting and made his escape. Hayes claims that Hooker wrote insulting letters to his wife.

Thursdays Hooker whipped Hayes, and was fined in the police court. The killer is a fiery chap, and it is said while he was with the Rangers he participated in all their battles with frontier desperadoes, and is known to have killed three men.

Agitated Man's Death.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Professor Jean Roemer, soldier and scholar, vice president of the College of the City of New York, and half brother of the late William H. King of Holland, and at one time talked of as successor to the throne, was found dead in his room at the Curtis house, Lenox, Mass. He was 38 years old. Heart disease was the cause of his death.

Thursdays Hooker whipped Hayes, and was fined in the police court. The killer is a fiery chap, and it is said while he was with the Rangers he participated in all their battles with frontier desperadoes, and is known to have killed three men.

Agitated Man's Death.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—Professor Jean Roemer, soldier and scholar, vice president of the College of the City of New York, and half brother of the late William H. King of Holland, and at one time talked of as successor to the throne, was found dead in his room at the Curtis house, Lenox, Mass. He was 38 years old. Heart disease was the cause of his death.

MILLEN'S SIXTH MURDER.

MILLEN, Ga., Sept. 2.—There seems to be an epidemic of murder in Emanuel county. The sixth murder has been arrested here. As the Macon and Savannah mail reached this point a negro named Coleman knocked the brains out of a negro named Howard, with a pick.

BLOODSHED IN LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 31.—The northern switchmen's strike, which has been on since the 14th inst., took a serious turn shortly before midnight and terminated in four employees and one striker being shot.

The shooting occurred near the main track in the yard on Press street. The wounded were:

W. R. Smith, foreman of the switch engine gang; George Sprague, night yard master; J. J. Jones, engineer of a switching engine; James Septon, one of the striking switchmen; Jones, Sprague, Smith and Jones were all members of the night gang.

They were seated on the rear of a coach in the center yard, in conversation. Without warning of the approach, Smith and a comrade appeared before the quartette and began abusing them for scabbing.

Suddenly there was a loud report, and two men lay groaning on the ground. A half dozen or more shots were fired, and the two assailants started to run away, one going towards the river and the other towards Canal street. Soon a crowd had gathered about the scene and the greatest excitement prevailed.

The police soon arrived, and four employees were placed in an ambulance and taken to the hospital.

Sexton was found on Royal street lying near the sidewalk. He was found to have been shot five times. He was also taken to the hospital. Beginning of trouble resulted in the dismissal of night yardmaster who had been employed temporarily, when his place was made vacant the company brought one of their old employees from Meridian.

BLOODSHED IN WARREN.

Negroes Fight Over Black and Watson. One Was Killed.

NORWOOD, Ga., Aug. 31.—The first blood shed in the political campaign of Warren county occurred in or near the northern part of the county, at a negro camp meeting, where a large crowd of negroes had gathered. It is reported that they were fighting all day about politics, and by 1 o'clock the political fever was running pretty high. Two of the leaders in their discussions got into a dispute, which resulted in a deadly combat. Two bull dog revolvers played a conspicuous part.

One of the negroes was a Watson man and the other was for Black. The Watson man was Jim Collins, and the other was Jim Gressum, and the other was Jim Collins. Jim Gressum received a fatal shot about the left breast. He was taken to a physician, but died on the way.

Collins received two wounds—one in the arm and the other in the leg. Gressum seems to have been the aggressor in the affair. Collins ran off, and has not been seen or heard of since.

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND.

For Vice-President,
A. E. STEVENSON.

For Congress:
GASTON A. ROBBINS.

CAMPAIGN RATE.

For twenty-five cents, strictly in advance, the REPUBLICAN will be sent to any address from now until the 1st of January 1893. This period will cover the Presidential Campaign, the meeting of the State Legislature and the gubernatorial contest before that body. It will cover the most interesting period of the State for years. Can any man in Calhoun afford to be without the paper at this price? Remember no name will be booked at this low rate without the cash.

There can be no relief for the people of the South outside the success of the Democratic party.

Congressmen Cobb and Bankhead have been renominated in their districts, and will be elected.

The appointments for speaking by Hon. Gaston A. Robbins, which appear in this issue are for his first appointment. Later in the canvass he will make other appointments and speak in other places in the county.

The Republicans are plotting to elect the Congressman from this District. If the white people divide to any great extent they may do it. What are you Southern born white men going to do about it?

The State Democratic Executive Committee at its last meeting, appointed a state campaign committee and placed at its head that true and tried Democrat, Hon. C. M. Shelly, of Birmingham. The rank and file will have courage to fight under such leadership.

Hon. Gaston A. Robbins, nominee of the Democratic party for Congress, in this District, was in Jacksonville Thursday, on matters connected with his campaign. He is very sanguine of election. If the Democracy of the district is true to itself, he will be our next Congressman.

At the last meeting of the Democratic Congressional Executive Committee of this District, Dr. T. W. Ayers, of this place, was elected chairman of the committee, with authority to select a secretary. He has chosen for that position Mr. J. J. Arnold, also of this place, an active and working young Democrat.

The Democrats of Georgia are proving by the Confederate records that three of the prominent leaders of the People's party in that State were deserters from the Confederate army. It is no wonder these men are so ready to desert the Democratic party, which is the shield and safeguard of the Southern people, as was the Confederate army.

If the Third party platform should be enacted into law, it would involve the issue of billions of dollars of bonds, the interest on which would have to be paid by the sweat and toil of the millions of working people for the next hundred years, and raise up a class of rich bond-holders whose children would live off the toil of the masses for many generations. And yet this Third party professes to be opposed to plutocracy.

The Third party platform provides for the purchase of the telegraph lines by the Government at great expense to the people. New telegraph lines, the daily press and the commercial classes mainly employ the telegraph and are willing to pay existing rates. A farmer does not send a message a year. What justice is there in taxing the farmers to buy the telegraph lines in order that rates may be cheapened to the gamblers in cotton and grain, the daily press and the railroads?

So long as the pension steal draws thirty-six millions of dollars from the South annually and the tariff robbery draws twice as much more, the South will be poor, and no amount of inflation of the currency will restore the equilibrium. Inflation will only make millionaires instead of millionaires and the scheme would finally wind up by retiring vast sums of the currency into bonds, of which the rich would get the benefit, and the poor would be left in more hopeless slavery than ever.

Commissioners Court has been in session this week reviewing the tax list was patiently hearing reasons from the tax payers why their valuations should not be increased. The members of the court are just and fair men, and will not knowingly put an extra burden on any man. If the Court makes any mistake in this direction it will not be of our intention. The public are too ready to ensure public officers for faithful discharge of public duty, especially where it touches the pecuniary interests of the aforesaid public. The Commissioners did not make the tax laws. Their duty only is to execute them in so far as their office is con-

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

Hon. Gaston A. Robbins, the Democratic nominee for Congress in the Fourth district, and Dr. B. D. Williams, the Democratic elector for the Fourth district, will address the people of Calhoun county on the political issues of the day at the following places on the dates mentioned:

Four Mile, beat 3, Sept. 20; 10 a. m. Jacksonville, beat 1, Sept. 20; 8 p. m. Asbury Church, beat 5, Sept. 21; 10 p. m. White Plains, beat 11, Sept. 22; 10 a. m. Choccolocco, beat 12, Sept. 23; 10 a. m. Oxford, beat 13, Sept. 24; 10 a. m.

T. W. AYERS, Chairman,
JOS. J. ARNOLD, Secretary,
Democratic Executive Committee 4th District.

The man who says he won't vote for Cleveland just because the Jones crowd are going to vote for him makes an admission that he is not worthy to be entrusted with the sacred privilege of casting a ballot. Each man is morally bound to vote for the best interest of his country, irrespective of what others may do, and any one who admits this his vote is determined by his prejudices and his own unfitness as an elector.

In the State of Arkansas, the People's Party made a great clamor and pretended to have great strength. In that State the People's party and the Republicans fused, and yet the Democrats carried the State by a large majority.

We commend this fact to the prayerful consideration of the People's party crowd in Alabama, who are now claiming that they have the world by the tail.

Harrison's Letter.

President Harrison's letter accepting the Republican nomination for the Presidency is the longest document of its kind made public in many years, and for the most part it is a dry and lifeless plea for the mercy of the American people.

By far the most notable passage is that referring to the recent Alabama State election, which he uses as an argument in favor of the Force bill. "Our old Republican battle cry, 'a free ballot and a fair count,' comes back to us, not only from Alabama, but from other states," says this champion of Federal bayonets at the polls. And we are right glad that he thus delivers himself. He makes the Force bill and High tariff the supreme issues of his party, and Democrats everywhere will agree with him that these are the great purposes of the party which is seeking to destroy the freedom of the free.

If Democrats ever doubted that the state of affairs when federal bayonets sustained thieves and knaves in their ruinous rule of the South, they can no longer doubt. Mr. Harrison's word is added to the infamous pledge of his party. With him and his party it is a fight to the death. They would forever deprive the South of honest voice in the councils of the nation.

With the State election in Alabama Mr. Harrison has got nothing to do. He simply uses the wild talk of defeated place-seekers to turn a cheap political trick. Alabama means to control her own affairs.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Plot Thickens.

The Age-Herald this morning prints Chairman Bowman's call for a meeting of the Jeffersonian Democratic State Executive Committee to be held in Birmingham September 14.

On the same day one or both of the Republican State Executive Committees will meet in this city.

And on the same day the Committee of the Third party will meet here.

All of these committees come together at the time of the arrival of delegates to the Third party convention of the State.

The plot seems to thicken, doesn't it?

There is a story out that Chris Magee, who is coming to pay us another visit about the 14th, submitted to the Third party bosses two propositions.

One was that the Republicans should name four candidates for electors and the Third party people seven candidates; the consideration being that the Republican vote would be cast for the fusion ticket. The proposition is said to have met with a discouraging reception, whereupon the astute Magee submitted:

That, the Third party name all the eleven electors, and the Republican vote would be cast for them; provided, that, if the emergency arose, rather than see the election of President thrown into the House of Representatives, the Alabama Third party, or Weaver, electors would vote for Harrison in the electoral college.

We cannot vouch for the truthfulness of these things, we are perfectly free to say; but they appear to bear a very reasonable resemblance to fact.

As a matter of course, everybody knows the Third party within itself amounts to nothing in Alabama. There is probably not a beat in any county of the State that it can control, but, combined with the Republican party and unfaithful Democrats, it might be able to carry a few counties. As for carrying the State, non-

SOUTHERN REPUBLICANISM.

Its Utter Lack of Principle Abetted by the National Committee.

New York Times.

It is many years since the Republican organization in the South has stood for any principle or attempted to serve any beneficial purpose among the people of that section. It has been in the hands of a few politicians in each State whose main inspiration has been a desire to divide among them the Federal offices and patronage, and, in return, they have used it chiefly to control delegates to the National Convention in the interest of some one from whom they have expected to receive favors in the future. Under the present administration Federal appointments in the South have not been so made to build up the party in any legitimate sense of the term. That is, to say, there has been no effort to appoint men who would command confidence and win intelligent support for the party, and no effort to give strength and vitality to the organization as a means of promoting its policy. Patronage has been practically furnished out to certain leaders who were expected thereby to keep the organization in hand for the control of conventions and the making of delegates when the time came. It is a notorious fact that President Harrison made his nomination sure through this kind of control over an organization which served only to give effect to the desires of its managers. Without the Southern delegations, which represented no popular choice, but were in effect chosen by Federal office holders and largely made up of them, the President could not have secured his renomination.

And now this Southern Republican organization is used in the most unprincipled fashion under the direction of the National Committee. There is no expectation of securing the electoral vote of any one of these States by the fair means of building up a direct support of the national candidates so as to gain for them a plurality of the popular vote. If in the division of the Democrats between the regular party organization and the People's Party, which has grown out of the Farmers' Alliance movement, the Republicans could, by sticking to their principles and upholding the policy of their party, win a State here and there, it would be to their credit. At least they would not be subject to criticism for taking advantage of the situation and trying to accomplish something for the national cause. But nowhere are they working on that plan, but they are making bargains with the People's Party whereby they hope to strengthen it and help it to defeat the Democrat electoral ticket in some States, and in others to trade support of its State ticket for votes for the Republican national ticket.

In operations of this kind all principle is lost sight of. These tricks, it is to be remembered, are played in the interest of the National organization, and are instigated and supported in the North. The Third Party of the South is for the Omaha platform, with all its wild demands, the Sub-Treasury scheme, the free coinage of silver at the present ratio, Government ownership of railroads, and all the rest; and it is against the Force bill policy and the tariff policy of the Republican party. In fact, the Republican party professes to be opposed to everything that the People's party represents, and to regard its policy as dangerous. And yet it is encouraging all manner of unscrupulous combinations with it in the South, thereby effecting its own principles and policy in the hope that it may manage somewhere if only in a single State, to wrest the electoral vote from the Democrats. Such bargains and alliances attest an utter lack of principle and of scruple in party methods, and they could not be employed where members of the party were supposed to be attached to it from conviction and out of regard for its professed policy. That they are resorted to is further evidence that the Republicanism of the South is without the vitality of political faith of any kind, and is a mere instrument in the hands of politicians to effect their objects.

There is every reason to believe that all these schemes and bargains for giving support to the People's party and getting support from it for the chance of possibly grasping the electoral vote of some State supposed to be doubtful for the Republican Democrats or keeping it from the Democratic candidates will miscarry. The Farmers' Alliance in the South made up chiefly of Democrats, and they know full well that the only practical effect of such plots must be to endanger Democratic success in the nation. They know that the success of the plotters would mean the continuance of McKinleyism, a revival of the Force bill, and a menace to the peace and prosperity of the South, and they will not permit them to succeed by giving support to any Republican-Third-Party conspiracies. But after these schemes have proved futile, in what condition will the Republican party of the South be left? It will be more than ever demoralized, and will become a paralytic member of the National organization, without vitality or utility, a burden and a hindrance.

Election in Arkansas.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 5.—The state election came off here today. The vote was tight and the chances are all in favor of the regular Democratic state ticket by a majority over the fusion of the Third party and Republicans. The Australian ballot law prevented many negroes voting, as they could not make out the ballot in five minutes.

Magee Coming Back.

The Age-Herald two or three days ago informed the people of Alabama that Chris Magee, Harrison's personal representative in Pennsylvania, was amongst us, and that he had probably come at the President's suggestion.

It is significant that Mr. Magee, while in Selma, held a conference with the leaders of the anti-Moseley wing of the Alabama Republicans. The object of that conference could have been nothing less than to make peace between the factions, and we believe that the wily Pennsylvania succeeded in his object. The Moseleyites and the anti-Moseleyites may make a show of war hereafter, but it will be a mere blind, intended to confuse the Democracy. Democrats will not be deceived.

Mr. Magee was in Birmingham yesterday and met the local Republican leaders, nearly all of whom are anti-Moseley, and we have grounds for stating that the conference was pleasant. Mr. Magee called on Mr. Peyton G. Bowman, but he and Mr. Bowman are personal friends, and that may possibly account for the visit.

Mr. Magee is coming back to Alabama. He will be in Birmingham between now and September 15. In point of fact, his return will conform as to time with the Third party's state convention. This is not accident; it is design. Mr. Magee is coming here to consult with and advise the men who will be members of the convention, whether they be straight-out Republicans, straight-out Third party men, or sore-headed place-seekers claiming to be Democrats. Doubtless the whole scheme is already planned and when the self-elected delegates come here ten days hence they will find their work already agreed upon, and they will simply register the will of Mr. Magee, Mr. Manning and Mr. Gaither, and their allies of more or less importance.

Mr. Magee's visits mean mischief, as we pointed out the other day. He has taken it upon himself, at the suggestion of his master, the President, to furnish the skill and brains, and be paymaster of the money, to carry Alabama against Cleveland, and to defeat the Democratic nominees for Congress. He is one of the shrewdest and most unscrupulous politicians of his time. He is a man of consummate skill in political rascality. His object is one that will result in failure; but his appearance upon the scene lends new interest to our state politics. It will also cause renewed zeal on the part of the Democracy.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

The Situation As It Is.

The Republican District Convention which met in this city on Thursday last was a marvel of harmony and good order as compared with all previous conventions held by the G. O. P. in this state.

The convention gave its nomination by a practically unanimous vote to a man who had not sought the position. Judge Craig, the nominee of the convention is the ablest and strongest of all the Republicans in the district. He is a typical Republican. He is a Republican war and filling. He is the embodiment of Republican principles and ideas. He believes with the Republican party in the centralization of government. He agrees with Mr. McKinley that a high protective tariff is the corner stone of the Federation. He thinks with Mr. Sherman, that gold is and ought to be the money standard of the world. Mr. Lodge's Force bill would, we doubt not, receive his support, because he is a partisan Republican, though he might personally oppose the bill.

We have no means of knowing what the men who have heretofore affiliated with the Democratic party but who within the past year have drifted away from the Democracy are going to do at their convention in Birmingham on the 15th. If they nominate a candidate for congress and are able to control anything like the number of votes that they claim, then Judge Craig's election is almost a certainty and the Fourth District, which has a majority of 2,500 white men will be represented in congress by a Republican nominated exclusively by negroes and elected almost entirely by them.

If the convention at Birmingham shall endorse Judge Craig's nomination, then we will indeed have an anomalous condition of affairs, that of southern farmers complaining of the scarcity of money, the burdens of tariff and the vices of corporations endorsing the candidate of the party which has for its fundamental principles the building up and perpetration of gigantic corporations, the levying of high tariff taxes, the maintenance of the one gold standard of values.—Selma Journal.

The Moseley wing of the Republican party did not participate with the Stevens faction, but held a meeting in Calera instead of Selma. They elected J. D. Hardy, chairman, and adjourned. Col. Isaac Frank, of Jacksonville, passed through the city on the way home yesterday, and while he claims to belong to the Moseley wing says he is heartily in favor of Judge Craig, whom the Stevens crowd nominated for congress, and feels sure he will be elected.—Hot Blast.

"I don't give rebels in the south vouchers. I would rather furnish rope to hang every d—m one of them."—General James B. Weaver, Peoples party candidate for president.

EXCURSION RATES TO THE G. A. R.

Encampment at Washington and Naval Veterans' Association at Baltimore.

The annual meeting of the Naval Veterans of the United States will be held at Baltimore September 15th to 19th, and the Annual National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic will take place at Washington September 19th to 24th.

Round trip tickets at extraordinarily low rate will be on sale by the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia Railway for both of these occasions, September 13th to 20th, inclusive, limited to October 10th 1892, for return. Holders of these excursion tickets will be privileged to stop over in either direction at all principal points East of Bristol, where tickets for side-trip excursions can be procured to the prominent battle fields of Virginia. In addition to the ticket to Washington, which provides for a trip going and returning via the same route, there will be on sale at a very little more expense a ticket going via Roanoke and Shenandoah Junction and returning via boat, Norfolk and Richmond.

The E. T. V. & G. is without question the most desirable line from the Southeast and west to the points above named. The route is through the far famed Shenandoah Valley, which was the scene of many famous battles.

Any Ticket Agent of the E. T. V. & G. will be glad to give full information as to rates, schedules &c., or parties can address B. W. Wrenn, G. F. & T. A., Knoxville, Tenn.

N. Y. has escaped cholera three days, after the landing of the Moravia with its cholera-infected steerage; and already there is a clamor that there has been over-vigilance and too much "scare." "The stock market, produce exchange and banks have been demoralized, put to trouble, made anxious," whimper the fellows who would be howling like the devil if the very vigilance they complain of had been neglected. Queer world this!—Chattanooga Times.

The nominees of the National Democratic party were nominated fairly. No fraud or trickery has ever been charged up to its convention. The principles of the party, as enunciated in its platform, are the same that have characterized it since its foundation. Then no man, no matter how much aggrieved he may be over the result in State politics; can refuse to support the national ticket and still lay any claim to being a Democrat.—Cocoa Advocate.

Mr. Jarratt, the new president of State Normal school, made a favorable impression both on pupils and visiting patrons yesterday, and his management since has set at rest many foolish rumors as to what that management would be. There has been no disturbing text books heretofore, but nothing but of classes, nothing that was predicted by evil spirits. The president announced today that he would endeavor to the ministers of the various churches to attend in turn each morning and open the school with prayer.

A large number of letters have been received by various parties in Jacksonville making enquiries as to the students and the indications are to a larger attendance on the Normal School from points at distance than any previous session. Pimples AND Blotches ARE EVIDENCE That the blood is impure, and that nature is endeavoring to throw off the impurities. Nothing is so beneficial in assisting nature as Swift's Specific (S. S. S.). It is a simple vegetable compound, is harmless to the most delicate child, yet it forces the poison to the surface and eliminates it from the blood.

I contracted a severe case of blood poison that unfitted me for business for four years. A few bottles of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.) cured me. J. C. JONES, City Marshal, Fulton, Arkansas. Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free. SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $85.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black thibets, fancy cassimeres, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can combine and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.

MR. HARRISON'S LETTER GIVEN OUT TO THE COUNTRY.

A General Review of Governmental Affairs and His Position on the Various Political Issues.

General Harrison has accepted the presidential nomination of the republican party in the following letter:

The letter is addressed to "Hon. William McKinley, Jr., and others," and begins: "I now avail myself of the first period of relief from public duties to respond to the notification which you brought me on June 26th, of my nomination for the office of president of the United States by the republican national convention recently held at Minneapolis to accept the nomination, and am grateful for the approval expressed by the convention of the acts of my administration."

He reviews the work of his administration which he claims has been "distinctly and progressively American and republican." He speaks of the "great work of the fifty-first congress," and of the subject of the national currency.

The letter speaks of the existence of state banks before the war and the varying views of their notes of issues. He says: "The control of the currency, entrusted with the power to issue and regulate the circulation of the national bank notes, has been a subject of great importance to the country."

The president then devotes considerable space to the question of the revival of American shipping and to an argument in support of the subsidy law of the first congress.

He then touches upon the subject of reciprocity, and says: "Another related measure, as furnishing increased commerce for our ships, and of great and permanent benefit to farmers and manufacturers, is the reciprocity policy."

He then touches upon the subject of the tariff, and says: "The tariff is a subject of great importance to the country, and one which has been the subject of much discussion and debate."

POLITICAL NEWS NOTES.

Arkansas' Full Vote and the Democratic Victory.

Fort Smith, Sept. 8.—Western Arkansas polled a full vote in Monday's election. Fishback, Democratic candidate for governor, leads the ticket in all this part of the state. His majority will be fully 25,000. In this city his majority exceeds 700, which is nearly 200 ahead of the party ticket.

No People's Party in It. LINCOLN, Ark., Sept. 8.—From the returns already received of the election, it is probable that the Democratic state ticket is successful by from 18,000 to 25,000 plurality. The legislature is Democratic by a large majority. The People's party ticket polled a surprisingly light vote. It did not carry six counties in the state.

HONOR TO HENDRICKS. His Birthday Was Celebrated in Indianapolis—Cleveland Writes a Letter.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 10.—The Democrats of Indianapolis paid tribute to the memory of Vice President Hendricks, the occasion being his birthday. In a meeting at Tomlinson hall, addressed by A. L. E. Stevenson and others, Stevenson's reception was an ovation. He delivered a somewhat extended eulogy on the late president, and only incidentally touched on his career.

The following letter from Mr. Cleveland was read:

GRAY GABLES, Buzzard's Bay, Sept. 5. To Alex. C. Ayres:

Dear Sir:—I received the invitation you sent me in behalf of the Hendricks club of Indianapolis to be present at the celebration of the birthday of Thomas A. Hendricks on the 10th inst. I would have been very glad to accept your invitation, but I am unable to do so.

My duties here make it impossible for me to be present. I am, however, very glad to hear that the celebration will be a success, and I am sure that the people of Indianapolis will do credit to the memory of the late president.

Very truly yours, Grover Cleveland.

General Stevenson will speak at Marion and Anderson, and for the remainder of the week will travel over the state in a train, speaking at several places each day.

SULLIVAN DEFEATED. James J. Corbett, of San Francisco, Is Now the Champion.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8.—The great fight for the championship of the world and a small fortune in a purse is over, and John L. Sullivan, who for ten years has worn the belt, and gloried in it perhaps more than any other man ever did, is today down in the humiliation of defeat.

A few days ago thousands stood in awe before the greatest pugilist, living or dead. Now, these thousands pass him by unnoticed, except to point at him as the defeated champion.

THE QUARANTINE.

STRICT REGULATIONS ADOPTED TO KEEP CHOLERA OUT.

Two Dead, and Eleven Cases Reported on the Scandia, Which Has Just Arrived.

QUARANTINE, Sept. 12.—Cold facts, not words, suffice to tell that the cholera plague, baffled in its attempt to gain a foothold on our shores has knocked at the quarantine gate again with a vigor, increased a hundred fold over any previous effort.

Up to sundown the summary of the record of the scourge on the Moravia, Normannia, Rugia and Wyoming, while at sea and since arriving in port, approximately was as follows:

Total deaths at sea 31, total deaths in port, sick in port 43, total number of cases 93.

This does not include those isolated at suspects under Dr. Byron's charge or Swinburne Island.

The steambath, Honington has gone to the lower bay to take the passengers from the Normannia.

Dr. Jenkins said this morning that the statement that he had refused assistance from the marine hospital or any other source in relieving the passengers on the infected ships in the lower bay was untrue. He was willing to receive assistance from any one, and he thought it likely in case the marine hospital service did not voluntarily tender assistance that he would be compelled to officially call upon them for aid.

The Ill Fated Scandia. The much expected Scandia, also of the Hamburg-American line, was off Fire Island at five o'clock, and soon after dark came to anchor in the lower quarantine grounds. No report was expected until this morning, because of Dr. Jenkins' statement at the evening talk that he expected to hear nothing all the morning.

When, therefore, at one o'clock this morning Dr. Byron reported the fact that he had received the report that there were thirty-two deaths in a total of 1,089 souls on board, and that he was going to send a ship from Swinburne island to bring off seven additional cases, there was intense excitement at the health officer's home, and in the city.

Deaths at sea, 63; deaths in port, 20; sick in port, 30; grand total, 133.

The report that the Scandia had died at the Swinburne hospital during the evening.

Latest from the Scandia. QUARANTINE, Sept. 12.—Dr. Byron telegraphed from Swinburne island to Dr. Jenkins the following advice:

"An attack with two dead and eleven cases from the Scandia. Told the captain not to move from town quarantine."

The crew of the William Fletcher has refused to transfer passengers of the Normannia and Rugia and has deserted.

New Arrivals Reported Everywhere Well. NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—Arrived: Steamer Mannheim from New Castle; steamer Somerhill from Hamburg; steamer Kaiser and William II from Bremen; off Fire Island, signals: "All well on board."

None in New York. NEW YORK, Sept. 12.—The official bulletin of the health board, posted at 10 o'clock a. m. read as follows:

"No cases of cholera have been discovered in this city."

Pasture Says the Project is Feasible. Several Have Tried It.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The Times' Paris correspondent has had an interview with M. Pasteur in which the latter says his experiments with anti-cholera vaccine have never failed with animals, but he had been unable to apply the test to human beings without introducing virus into the bowels or stomach.

He had vaccinated persons living in contaminated centers, and none of them had taken cholera, and to further his work he had applied to the King of Siam to be allowed to experiment with cholera in that country, where cholera is epidemic.

The British Medical Journal says that a young English physician subjected himself to inoculation with cholera virus. The process, it is said, was easier and the inconvenience scarcely greater than vaccination, and it is claimed that complete protection was insured against cholera under a second inoculation, whatever the exposure.

The experiment seems to have established the immunity of inoculated persons from cholera. At least the physician who tried it, and who was exposed to cholera, enjoyed immunity from the disease. Seven physicians in all have been inoculated as volunteers in the cause of humanity.

A Missouri Mayor Elopes. CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—A warrant was sworn out here for the arrest of John H. Heiser, mayor of Brunswick, Mo., who is now residing in the city. It is charged that Heiser a few days ago eloped from Brunswick with Kitty Ashby, a pretty clerk in a millinery store at that place.

Heiser was married in St. Louis, Mo., to Chicago, and saw her entering a house on West Madison street and at once took out warrants for Heiser's arrest. Heiser has a wife and two children in Brunswick.

Glenn's Famous Band. NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Glenn's band of 100 musicians has left the city by special train via the West Shore road for St. Louis, where they will play at the celebration for 40 days, after which they will make a long tour of western, southern and Canadian cities before returning to New York.

WHITTIER IS DEAD.

The Quaker Poet Passes Peacefully Away at His New Hampshire Home.

HAMPTON FALLS, N. H., Sept. 8.—John G. Whittier died at 4:30 a. m. He passed away peacefully. His nearest relatives and friends were present.

JOHN G. WHITTIER.

atives and Dr. Douglas were at his bedside when the end came, and he seemed to be conscious of his surroundings at the last moment.

The funeral will take place at Amesbury, Mass., at 2:30 p. m. on Saturday next.

Whittier as a Man. John G. Whittier, well though his fame as a poet is, was little known as a man. Indeed, he ever cared to be so known; for he was modest even to shyness, shunning miscellaneous society and seldom appearing on public occasions or at public assemblies unless they were discussing principles to which he was devoted. He had no inclination to travel, never having been abroad and having made few journeys in his own country not prompted by business or duty.

After the civil war, when he was near sixty, many of his friends urged him at different times to go abroad. They assured him that he would enjoy European travel, with its classic scenes, historic associations and treasures of art, discounting largely on these and the intellectual advantage they would be to him.

But in all this Whittier was not interested. He was content to live at home, and in his quiet life he found his greatest pleasure. He was a man of few words, but his words were of great value.

CAMPAIGN RATE.

For twenty-five cents, strictly in advance, the REPUBLICAN will be sent to any address from now until the 1st of January 1893. This period will cover the Presidential Campaign; the meeting of the State Legislature and the gubernatorial contest before that body. It will cover the most interesting period of the State for years. Can any man in Calhoun afford to be without the paper at this price? Remember no name will be booked at this low rate without the cash.

Why is it that the Third party papers and orators are full of abuse of Cleveland and the Democratic party, and have nothing to say against Harrison and the Republican party? Calhoun county Democrats would do well to think of this.

The majority of the regular Democratic candidate for Governor in Arkansas was sixty thousand over Carnahan, the People's party candidate, and about twenty thousand over the People's party and Republican candidates combined. This shows the weakness of the new party.

The Weaverites claim to be the pure party. Their leader in Mississippi, Frank Burkitt, has been convicted of writing a letter to a negro school teacher, advising him to report one teacher more than he had in his school, and promising that he (Burkitt) would get the additional salary, if he (the negro) would divide the steal from the school fund. Very pure party.

Some of the people of this county who are going to support Weaver and his third party platform demand that the platform demands that federal soldiers be paid the difference between gold and greenbacks at the time they received their pay. This they say was only a resolution of the convention which nominated Weaver—a distinction without a difference. But this is a lie, Weaver, when in Congress introduced more than one bill to pay federal soldiers this difference, and he is in favor of it. The Southern farmers are already giving federal pensioners every year more than ten per cent of their gross money crop. The federal soldiers have already received this difference many times over in the pensions they have been steadily drawing since the war. An Ohio man and a Republican, living in Jacksonville, says that in Ohio every three months, when the pensioners are paid off, money is as plentiful as if a crop had just been harvested. Here we have only one money season a year and the farmers of the South are steadily growing poorer under the pension drain and the tariff robbery. How can Southern men vote to not only perpetuate the pension steal, which is impoverishing them, but to increase it by support of such men as Weaver.

Rev. D. P. Williams made a speech at the Mass meeting of the opponents of the regular Democratic party, last Saturday, in which he indulged in some pretty tall assertions. For instance he said it took twenty billions of dollars to move the crops of the country. The cotton crop of the South brings about three hundred millions. If the statement of Mr. Williams be true, then the South raises a comparatively insignificant part of the marketable crops of the United States. If his statement be true, then, while it takes only three hundred millions to buy the cotton crop of the South, it takes nineteen thousand, seven hundred million dollars to move the crops of the Eastern and Western States. Everybody knows there is no such great disparity in the productions of the three sections of the Union.

In another portion of his speech he said farm values had decreased an enormous per cent. in Alabama since 1874, and proceeded to tell the farmers how poor they are getting. Since his speech we have taken the trouble to look up the valuations of property in this State in the years 1874 and 1890, as shown by the Auditor's reports of those years. In 1874 the valuation of the farm lands of Alabama, as given in for taxes, was $70,311,185. In 1890 the tax valuation of farm lands was $88,029,447. So far from decreasing in value, as he asserted, we see that farm lands in Alabama have really increased in value to the extent of seventeen million, seven hundred and eighty-two thousand, two hundred and sixty-two dollars.

It is such misleading statements as these that are dissatisfying the people who own farms. It would be safe for them not to believe all every third party orator tells them. We don't think Mr. Williams would intentionally misstate facts, but he evidently, in this case, did not go to the official record for his figures, but took them second-hand from some newspaper engaged in the work of dissatisfying the democratic masses and promoting thereby the chances of Harrison for the Presidency.

Third Party Meeting.

We were promised the proceedings of the Jeffersonian Democratic and Third party meeting at this place last Saturday, by Mr. Frank Leslie, the Secretary, but up to this writing they have not been received. Not more than a hundred people were present. N. J. Stephens was made chairman. Resolutions were adopted of grandiloquent tone and denunciatory throughout of the so-called frauds at the State election. Wild claims were made as to the white majority by which Kolb carried the State, of which, by the way there is no proof. The following named gentlemen were sent to the Birmingham convention as delegates: Ira P. Webb, A. J. Farmer, L. F. Greer, R. L. Allen, W. M. Webster, T. L. Harvey, N. J. Stephens, A. T. Hanna, J. M. K. Guinn and Ed. Leslie.

At the Weaver mass meeting here Mr. Ed. Leslie stated that all the witnesses of Weaver's rascality at Pulaski, Tenn., were dead but one. Mr. J. T. Abernathy, clerk of the county court at Pulaski, gives the names of a large number of living witnesses and their postoffices. The crowd cheered Mr. Leslie's announcement that all these wronged Confederates but one were dead and would not doubt have gone wild to hear that he too had passed in his checks. If some of these men who have contracted such affection for the man who robbed Confederates during the war and wants to rob further their children now for the benefit of Yankee soldiers who desolated the South, will write to some of the parties named by Mr. Abernathy they will learn the truth about Weaver. But they won't do it. They prefer to believe a lie and be damned.

Birmingham Convention.

As we go to press (Friday) the Third-Party-Kolb Democratic Convention at Birmingham had made no Congressional nominations. The indications are that the convention will put out a Weaver electoral ticket and nominate candidates in all the districts. White Republicans were quite prominent in the convention; but the negro wing of the Republican party refuses to fuse with the Alliance.

The Birmingham Age-Herald is authority for the statement, that the opponents of Democracy, now in session at Birmingham, have made a deal with the Republicans, whereby the Mosely Republicans are to take five electors and the Kolbits six, the six Kolbit electors shall be. This means the eleven electoral votes of Alabama for Harrison. The deal was closed Wednesday night.

NEW RAILROAD SYSTEM.

Praise of Gen. Burke.

The Chattanooga News discussing the proposed new railroad system, to be known as the Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama railroads, and the connection of the Chattanooga Southern therewith, has the following to say of Gen. Burke, receiver of that road: "The Chattanooga Southern railroad will be a good model for other railroads in the system."

It is due to Gen. Joseph W. Burke, the able receiver, that the road has reached that proud position.

Yesterday afternoon Gen. Burke presented Pat Walsh, one of the section foremen, with a new hat for having his section without a sprig of grass and without a rough place on it.

The roadbed from Chattanooga to Gadsden is in the best condition it has ever been in.

The freight shipments are more than can be handled on account of the lack of cars. As an instance it may be cited that seven car loads of tan bark have been lying in a shed at Rogers' Station for several weeks. Cars will be furnished to morrow. It has been impossible to get them earlier.

The shipments of iron ore, coal and tan bark is immense, while three-fourths of all the cord wood burned in Chattanooga comes from down the Chattanooga Southern.

The splendid management of Receiver Burke is shown from the fact that the July earnings were double those of last January, the month before he was appointed to the receivership.

The passenger receipts for last Sunday alone were over $300 some 600 passengers having been hauled.

Gen. Burke in his position as receiver has certainly made a magnificent record of which any railroad manager in America might be proud.

WEAVER AT PULASKI, TENN.

The Story of His Robbery and Oppression of the People.

Having seen in some paper an account of General Weaver's conduct while in charge at Pulaski, Tenn., I wrote to the clerk of the county court for either a verification or denial of the charges. I received the letter which I send you.

Very respectfully,
W. E. ABERNATHY.
Rutherford College, N. C., August 15.

PULASKI, TENN., August 10, 1891.
Mr. Will E. Abernathy, Rutherford College, North Carolina:

Dear Sir—Your letter of inquiry in regard to the acts of General Weaver while in command of this place was handed me to answer. I was between fifteen and sixteen years old when Weaver was here, and I know whereof I write, and in support of what I shall write, I refer to a few citizens of this county: J. P. May, president People's National bank; Z. W. Jewing, ex-speaker of the senate; Flournoy Rivers, state senator; J. B. Stacey, ex-clerk and master of chancery; Thos. E. McCoy, sheriff Giles county; Col. Solon H. Rose, Dr. William Battle, Dr. J. C. Roberts; S. W. Butler, judge of county court; H. H. Ragdale, county trustee, and L. E. Abernathy, president Commercial bank and Trust company. Most of these men were here and know the facts. The others know from reputation.

The said Weaver seemed to have a perfect hatred for the southern people. He pillaged, robbed, persecuted, villified and abused our people in every imaginable way.

He had citizens arrested and imprisoned on trumped up charges, and made to pay to K. K. Cox pay $500 for his release. Mr. Cox is dead, but his son, Ed R. Cox, is living here, and can testify to said facts. So can Major J. B. Stacey and Colonel S. E. Rose, friends of Mr. Cox, who paid part of the money. He robbed Mr. Jasper Cox (no relation of Mr. D. K. Cox) of $2,000 worth of spun thread. Mr. Jasper Cox is a reliable citizen of this county, and now lives near Bodenham, Giles county, Tenn.

He robbed John P. Williams, an old, reliable farmer and soldier of the Mexican war, of all his hogs and meat. Mr. Williams' postoffice is this place.

He had J. C. Roberts, of this place arrested, and tried to make him pay $500 for his release, but he found out that the doctor would not pay it, he turned him loose. The doctor is now living, and will answer any letter. On January 26, 1894, he made the following parties pay him sums opposite their names. I have the original receipt he gave my father, Charles C. Abernathy.

All the parties are dead except Dr. Wm. Battle, who will cheerfully bear me out: Thomas Martin, $250; Dr. Wm. Battle, $100; Charles C. Abernathy, $250; Robert Dickson, $250; J. H. Newbill, $100; J. M. Morris, $100; David Reynolds, $250; B. Abernathy, $100; Thomas B. Daily, $200. Total, $1,700.

He claims in his order that it was for the support of Union refugees coming within his lines. Thomas B. Daily and Wm. S. Newbill, son of J. H. Newbill, are living here and will answer any inquiry. I could give other incidents or acts of said Weaver, if necessary. Yours truly,
J. P. ABERNATHY.

Death of Gen. Lawler.

In the death of Gen. Levi W. Lawler Alabama loses a citizen who has served her with conspicuous ability, and unwavering fidelity, and his mourners will number all the intelligent people of the State.

General Lawler's greatest service was rendered as one of the three men entrusted with funding the debt of Alabama after the State had been rescued from carpet-bag misrule, the other members of the board being Governor Houston and Colonel Betha. General Lawler brought to bear upon his duties common sense, and wide knowledge of finance, and in the happy adjustment of our burdensome debt the people quickly recognized his masterful skill.

For years he has been one of the State's railroad commissioners, and his death leaves a vacancy which Governor Jones will have to fill.

Personally, General Lawler was one of the most lovable and admirable of men; being both gentle and manly in all the relations of life. Throughout Alabama his death will cause genuine sorrow.—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Cholera Prevalent.

A Birmingham physician who passed through the cholera epidemic in that city in 1873, gives this advice as a preventive against the disease.

But we have a safer preventive—cleanliness, especially in cholera, is next to godliness. Use the bath tub every morning, rubbing perfectly dry afterwards. Put on fresh linen every day. Keep all closets and sinks saturated with a solution of coppers. Take five grains of quinine three times a day. Use five drops of aromatic sulphuric acid in a glass of water three times daily. Eat lightly of ordinary diet. Don't think of the epidemic.

If one practices these rules I believe he will have, if at all, only a mild case of cholera. Let us practice forbearance towards each other. Be conciliatory and kind towards each other. Don't occupy too much time in thinking of the epidemic.

A LESSON IN TARIFF.

What a Woman Learned Through a Small Transaction in Sugar.

"James," said the wife of a New York lawyer, "read this letter and tell me what it means. I don't understand it."

The letter was from a Vermont sugar maker to her husband. The sugar had not satisfied Mrs. James, and she had written to inquire why it was so dry and granulated. "It's not nearly so good to make syrup of," she said in her letter, "as that which you sent me in former years. What is the reason of the change?"

To this the Vermont farmer replied: "We've had to make sugar dry this year in order to get the bounty." And it was because she was mystified by this assertion that Mrs. James called on her husband for an explanation.

"Pshaw!" answered the husband. "Don't you know what that means? The reference is to the bounty of 2 cents a pound which the Government pays to maple sugar makers."

"Do you mean to tell me, James," that the Government pays maple sugar makers 2 cents a pound for making the sugar that they sell at 10 cents a pound?"

"Why, yes; didn't you know that? That's one of the things provided for in the McKinley 'Tariff' Act."

"But why does the Government do it? Why should men get paid for making an article which they can sell at good price? Why are maple sugar makers any better than anybody else that they should have presents of money from the Government for doing a thing that they would do anyway, a thing that they have been doing for years because it has paid?"

The husband smiled at his wife's earnestness. Then he went on to tell her how it happened that the maple sugar makers were getting gratuities out of the Government. "They are getting that bounty," he said, "because the Vermonters, who are the great maple sugar men of the country, had a 'pull' on the men who made up the McKinley bill. They made their representatives in Congress take the position that they were as much entitled to a bounty as were the growers of ordinary sugar."

You see, it was proposed to offset the removal of the tariff protection of sugar growers with a bounty, which it was said would encourage sugar men to increase their outputs. As soon as the Vermonters heard of this project they made up their minds to make an effort to get a bounty, too.

"When their request was made the law-makers ridiculed it. 'The idea,' they said, 'of taxing the people of the country for the sake of making presents to those Vermont Grangers is perfectly absurd. It would be robbery, plain and simple, absolutely indefensible. The Government couldn't get a cent's worth of return from the gratuities.'

"But the Vermonters hung on, and in the end got what they asked for. The amount distributed among them in the shape of bounty is small, but it is outrageous that a single penny of the people's money should be given them."

"Humph!" granted Mrs. James, as, without making any reply to her husband's remarks, she resumed her breakfast. Presently she asked another question: "Was the whole tariff law made up in the same way?"

"Made up in what way," demanded the husband.

"Why, did other people get things just as the maple sugar men did, not because they were entitled to them, but because they had 'pulls'?"

"I reckon that's about the size of it."

"And that is what you call 'protection' is it?"

"Well, James, I'm against 'protection' from this time on. I don't think much of taxing all the country for the sake of getting money to distribute among a favored few."

NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For President,
GROVER CLEVELAND.
For Vice-President,
A. E. STEVENSON.
For Congress,
GASTON A. ROBBINS.

CAMPAIGN RATE.

For twenty-five cents, strictly in advance, the REPUBLICAN will be sent to any address from now until the 1st of January 1893. This period will cover the Presidential Campaign; the meeting of the State Legislature and the gubernatorial contest before that body. It will cover the most interesting period of the State for years. Can any man in Calhoun afford to be without the paper at this price? Remember no name will be booked at this low rate without the cash.

You can learn something by hearing Morgan on the 28th.

Some scoundrel attempted the assassination of Gov. Flower, of New York, a few days ago.

Let the faithful Democrat possess his soul in patience. His reward will come in a glorious triumph of Cleveland and the Democratic nominees for Congress in November.

A great crowd of people will be at Schenck's Sulphur Springs to hear Gen. Morgan. Go that day and take a big basket of dinner with you. Let us make it a monster picnic.

Weaver and Field, in their letter of acceptance, do not commit themselves to the purchase of the Railroad by the Government. The Bull of the woods of Beat 8 ought to look into this matter.

Poor old sub-treasury bill. The Birmingham convention ignored it, and now Weaver and Field in their letter of acceptance ignore it. It has served its day and time. It was a good trap to catch gudgeons.

Gen. Morgan's speech in Birmingham is described as being a magnificent effort. Let the young men of Calhoun go and hear this distinguished orator and statesman while they may. They may never have another opportunity.

The Bill Stevens wing of the Republican party rejected all overtures of fusion with the Third Party-Moseley Republican-Jeffersonian crowd at Birmingham and put out a straight Republican Harrison electoral ticket.

The Hot Blast's Western campaign fund don't seem to be growing very fast. Better let the rich Westerners take care of themselves, Bro. Smith, and direct your attention to raising a fund for the propagation of Democratic principles in Calhoun.

The Birmingham convention passed a resolution on motion of Manning, the Third Party leader, denouncing Cleveland for sending a dispatch to Gov. Jones congratulating him on his election. It now transpires that Cleveland sent no such dispatch to Jones.

The regular Democracy of Alabama is going to clean the earth up with the candidates of the Birmingham convention of Republicans, Third Parties and Jeffersonians. Their nominations are weak and the bargain which brought them together is shocking to the moral sense of the people.

It is a precious thing to belong to a pure and undefiled party, headed by such truly good men as Kolb, Bowman, Longshore and Moseley. It is a wonder that such a truly good party can get its consent to dabble in such carnal things as elections and office hunting. It ought to take to itself wings and fly away and be at rest.

Some of the brethren who awhile back were very much in love with the goody-good party have weakened and can now afford to speak to a man who voted for Jones. Some of these are honest men who want to do right, and others are gentlemen with axes to grind. They want either to get or keep places and do not scorn the influence of the bad men who supported Jones and are now standing by the colors of the National Democracy.

Old Commodore Vanderbilt once said that his son-in-law, Shepherd, was more kinds of a d-d fool than any man he had ever met. It is needless to say that the old Commodore had not met Quinn, of the Oxford Voice, at the time he made the remark. Some time back the Mobile Register had some hard things to say of a certain class of North Alabama people. Quinn felt very much hurt over it, and in alluding to it, during the gubernatorial election, said it was the first time his "moral turpitude" had ever been questioned. Since he has accepted a place on the Tyrant and Robber ticket and entered into a conspiracy to deliver the farmers, he and his sort have deceived, over to the tender mercies of Force Bill Harrison, his "moral turpitude" will

One of the noblest and most unselfish of Alabama's public men has passed away in the person of Ex-Gov. Watts, of Montgomery. He died suddenly of heart disease at his home in that city last Saturday.

Ex-Mayor McCollister, of Piedmont, is an applicant for appointment as Railroad Commissioner, to fill the place made vacant by the death of Gen. Lawler. He is a good man and thoroughly understands the business of railroading and would make an excellent Commissioner.

Two Radicals for Congress and four for deals on the electoral ticket so far appear as the result of the work of the Birmingham Combine Convention. When the records of all the unknown men on the Congressional and electoral tickets are sifted, no doubt more Radicals will be found. It may be depended upon that Bob Moseley and Chris Magee got their share of the bargain.

The South Carolina State Convention, composed largely of Alliance men, nominated Tillman for Governor and endorsed Grover Cleveland in their platform. The Chairman of the Convention made a speech in which he congratulated the delegates upon the fact that the Third Party had gained no hold in South Carolina. People seem to have sense in South Carolina.

When S. S. Booth, a rank Republican, was put on the electoral ticket for the Third District by the Birmingham fusionists and they met and nominated John B. Ware. Ware is a man who is known as a person who can do an immense business on very limited capital. He has had some astonishing financial experiences in Birmingham. During the boom in Jacksonville some of our people had a taste of his quality. It is said he bought property, but never paid a dollar for it. From all accounts he is not much hand at extending the circulating medium.

Dolphie Longshore tried to pass a bill through the last legislature to divorce a man from an insane wife and give him the power to dispose of her interest in the estate. Longshore cared little for the poor insane woman whom he tried to rob of a protector and property at one and the same time. The legislature spurned his bill with indignation. Now it is in order for some little bench-leg of a fellow to pop up and say this is all a lie. But the records of the legislature will show in black and white that it is true.

Meantime let the procession of purists proceed.

Messrs. N. J. Stephens and Geo. W. Landers attended the appointment of Messrs. Robbins and Williams in Beat Eight and were accorded a division of time. Parties who were present report that they got the worst of the argument too. In view of this courtesy on the part of the Cleveland men, we presume the Weaverites will accord Democratic speakers a division, when their speakers come around. When joint discussion is had, the voters have an opportunity to become informed, and we trust that both sides in this canvass will accord division of time to speakers of the opposite parties, so far as Calhoun is concerned. Voters should distrust a party which will allow no reply to its speakers.

It is a significant fact that the Birmingham Conglomerate Convention did not endorse any presidential ticket. This leaves their electors free to vote for either Weaver or Harrison for President. A Senator Pugh points out, if they should vote for Weaver, the election would be thrown into the House of Representatives, which would elect Cleveland. They have said they do not want Cleveland. Consequently they will do anything to prevent his election. The only way to do this is to vote for Harrison in the electoral college.

Everything points to the attempted delivery of the Alliance men of Alabama to the Republican candidate for President. Will they suffer themselves thus duped by their leaders? We shall see.

Mr. Adolphus Longshore, the Congressional nominee of the Republican-Third Party-Jeffersonian combine was a member of the committee in the last Legislature which reported out favorably the bill to put poor white men and negroes in the chain gang for getting in debt. He is the gentleman who was so intensely hostile to the railroads that he suppressed in his committee a bill to prevent the railroads from influencing legislators by the presentation of free passes. He is the gentleman who could not vote for a second five thousand dollar appropriation to build a monument to the glorious Confederate dead, because, as he said at Piedmont, he thought a former appropriation of five thousand dollars was enough for them to have. Dolphie is altogether a very fit representative of his party; but his re-

The more we think of it the less we like the idea of a still hunt campaign on the part of the Democracy of Calhoun. Such a campaign carries with it the idea that the party is apologizing for its acts privately and is too timid to defend its record openly.

The principles of the Democratic party are worth defending, openly and above board. No man need be ashamed to advocate those principles or the candidates who are exponents of them, from the house tops. They involve the very essence of free government and cannot be too vehemently pressed upon the attention of the people by able and fearless men, whose devotion to those principles have never flagged, and who have never suffered private interests to interfere with an expression of their views. We have had too much back door politics for the good of the country. Democratic speakers need not abuse men who have been misled by the tools of the Republican party into questioning the honesty and patriotism of the Democratic party, but they should defend their party openly and boldly as it deserves to be defended, regardless of the effect upon that class of men who have been supping it for years. The Democratic party wants no apologists in the South at this time. It needs none. It is the only party that has ever stood by the rights and interests of the Southern people. It is the only party which has the disposition and the power to protect them. It will stamp out the infamous intrigue between the new party and the Republicans to betray the Southern people to their ruin and will cover the conspirators with shame. It does not condone treachery and cannot tolerate cowardice. It will submit to no force bill, if imposed by a hundred Congresses. Such a party deserves more than a whispered defence at the hearthstone of the recalcitrant and should not be "logged" for as if it were a candidate for county office.

A blast from the fable of a Morgan is worth a thousand still hunters and their apologetic methods.

Electoral Ticket.

The following is the free lance electoral ticket, put out by the Birmingham fusion of Republicans, Third Party men and so-called Jeffersonian Democrats:

First District—Dr. E. B. Harris, Choctaw; M. J. Candee, Clarke, alternate.

Second—T. J. Carlisle, Pike; John L. Stewart, alternate.

Third—S. S. Booth, of Autauga; Brooks, of Geneva, alternate.

Fourth—Philander Morgan, Talladega; J. M. K. Gwinn, Calhoun, alternate.

Fifth—John H. Porter, Coosa; Littleton, Reese, Lowndes, alternate.

Sixth—John B. Harris, Greene; W. L. White, Pickens, alternate.

Eighth—Thomas F. Jones, Limestone; H. P. Jones, Madison, alternate.

Of these Booth, Bone, Porter and Candee are rank Republicans; Gaither has not been a Democrat for years; J. M. K. Gwinn is a darned old fool generally, and all are teeth and toe nail against Cleveland and very soft on Harrison.

At the Third Party-Republican-Jeffersonian Convention in Birmingham a subscription was taken up for the financially crippled Alliance Herald. Lou Parsons, President Harrison's District Attorney, and Walker, President Harrison's United States Marshal, subscribed fifty dollars each. President Harrison's officeholders recognize the fact that the Alliance Herald has been a great help to the Republican party in Alabama already and that it will do much yet to carry the electoral vote of Ala. for Harrison, under cover of Weaver, and hence they subscribed freely to it. Chris Magee, President Harrison's political pimp; was there from Pennsylvania and ran the Convention to suit himself. After it was over he expressed great satisfaction at the electoral ticket named by the convention, and well he might. It has four straight Republicans upon it and several men who will vote for Harrison in preference to Cleveland. It will be remembered the convention denounced Cleveland, but did not denounce Harrison. Kolb & Co., have tried to sell the farmers of Alabama to Harrison. Can they deliver the goods?

The all-around old fool who edits the Oxford Voice makes a feeble effort in his last issue to dissatisfy Democrats with the recent Twelfth Judicial and Fourth Congressional conventions, and in order to do so deliberately lies on Hon. Frank Pettus and others. He is dealing with men who let no personal considerations swerve them from their party allegiance. A man who can desert the Democratic party, as he has done, because Kolb was beaten by Jones, is not capable of comprehending men who are governed by principle in political matters and who cannot be turned by passion or prejudice from the plain path of political duty. The men he feebly seeks to dissatisfy love their country too well and despise a narrow, prejudiced little traitor too thoroughly to be affected in the least by anything he may say.

The Stevens wing of the Republican party have put out a full Harrison electoral ticket, and nominated candidates for Congress in every district. Three of the Congressional nominees are negroes.

The Moseley wing of the Republican party and the Third party and the so-called Jeffersonian Democrats fused at Birmingham. They damned Cleveland, put up an electoral ticket that will vote for Harrison and nominated one straight Republican, one Anarchist and several men who have kicked out of Democratic traces for Congress. It is a nauseous combination that the Democracy of Alabama will easily beat in November.

Weaver is trying now to claim that he only robbed Southern sympathizers at Pulaski to feed legal refugees. In one case where a citizen applied to him for money he had robbed him, Weaver claims that he had turned it over to a U. S. Quartermaster, giving his name. The Quartermaster was applied for a restoration of the stolen money and he said Weaver had lied; that he had turned no money over to him.

Messrs. B. D. Williams, Presidential elector on the Cleveland ticket and Gaston A. Robbins, Democratic nominee for Congress in this District, spoke to a good audience of ladies and gentlemen, at the Court house, Tuesday night, and made a good impression. They spoke at Four Mile Springs the same day and Wednesday at Asbury church, in beat 8. The appointments at White Plains, Choctaw and Oxford wind up their canvass in this county for the present. Later Mr. Robbins will return and address the people in other parts of the county.

A Third Party white man led the negroes in the race riots of Calhoun county, Arkansas. He is another pure specimen of the "pure" party. This is probably the kind of a bullet campaign certain men with Third party proclivities have been talking about in Calhoun county Alabama. The women and children need not become alarmed at the expressions of these fellows among us. They would go into spasms if one should burst a cap at them.

Weaver was rotten-egged at Macon, Georgia, Thursday.

He Knew Weaver in 1864.

From the Prentiss (Miss) Plaindealer.

A reader of The Plaindealer tells in the following what he knows of Gen. Jas. B. Weaver while in command of the Union army at Pulaski, Tenn.:

I see in your issue of August 4, an article headed, "Hard On Weaver." I want the people to know I was a citizen of Giles county and was personally acquainted with Weaver when he was Commander of the Post at Pulaski. I did not see the order to Abernethy, Nowlin, Rodas and others, but I knew them to be men of good character and there is no doubt of the order. He also issued a general order for every man in the county to report what corn, meat and other provisions they had to him and he would take part and leave part. I did not report to him and they came to my house and took all the meat I had, every chicken and all the corn they could carry, leaving me about seven bushels because the wagons would not hold that. Many of my neighbors suffered like treatment and this was distributed to negroes and sorry white men, taken from the hard-working class. How can such a man have the face to ask men he robbed to support him? My father fought at King's Mountain under Cleveland. I guess he was the ancestor of the one running for President on the Democratic ticket, and if all Christian people will join me in praying for him he will be elected. I don't think the God of Heaven and Earth will allow the seat occupied by Washington, Jefferson, Jackson and others disgraced by a robber. I am not done with Weaver. He made the citizens of Giles county unload their cotton at the point of the bayonet and turn it over to him. He, Weaver, took from my son, two bales weighing over 500 pounds each and worth 70 cents per pound, making more than $700. Can a just God ever forgive such a man? I will say to the Third party, they ought to put Frank James on with Weaver, for he is as good as Weaver, and Weaver and James would represent a good robber's ticket. I am not half done with Weaver's meanness, but my paper is out. I was born 1807 and am near 86 years of age; have been a Primitive Baptist preacher for more than fifty years and can prove all I say and don't go behind the bush. My name is A. W. Walker.

P. S.—If any Third party man who claims to be honest, can take Weaver, it is only to show what a strong stomach he has.

A. W. W.

Comment on the above letter is unnecessary. Mr. Walker is a reliable citizen and Christian gentleman and the facts are plain and undeniable.

WAR IN ARKANSAS.

Murderous Uprising of Negroes in Calhoun County.

Little Rock, Ark., Sept. 19.—Advices have just been received here from Calhoun county that there is a general uprising of negroes in Compagnie township. The negroes are dissatisfied with the new election law, and have threatened to annihilate every white man, women and child in the township. Captain James, an old and respected citizen, went to a meeting of the blacks Saturday and tried to pacify them. A general fight ensued. Captain James was shot in the leg, four negroes were killed and several more wounded. Further trouble is looked for, as the blacks are desperate and are led by bad men.

KOLB AND MAGEE.

PROOF OF THEIR BARGAIN FROM A LEADING REPUBLICAN PAPER.

The Whole Thing Openly Avowed.—The Chicago Tribune's Staff Correspondent Makes no Bones About the Deal.—All for Harrison's Benefit.

The following is an extract from "The Chicago Tribune's" special telegram from Birmingham sent out last Wednesday night before the Kolb anti-Cleveland Convention. The Tribune had a staff representative on the ground in the person of Mr. McPherson, a son of Hon. Edward McPherson, a son of the last Republican Clerk of the County. The matter is valuable as corroborative evidence as to the exact nature of the deal made by Kolb and Magee at Birmingham, and is valuable because it is from one of the chief Republican papers in the country.

The occasion is made the more noteworthy by the presence in the city of Chris Magee of the Republican National Committee. He visits Alabama at this time to effect if possible the fusion between the Kolbites and the Republicans.

Never did diplomat have a more delicate and perplexing task. The Moseley faction has about all the Federal patronage in the State worth looking after. The Stevens crowd is on the outside, go to speak. Mr. Magee, it will be remembered, landed quite a batch of delegates from Pennsylvania to the Minneapolis Convention for President Harrison. He has now to deal with the President's appointees, and he finds them a stubborn lot of men. Being in the saddle themselves Magee will be compelled to use a vast deal of strategy to get them to yield a point to the Stevens folks. Magee has been here a day or two, but up to this time has not achieved what might be termed a "blooming success." Mr. Magee will do well enough in the Northeast and "wooly West," but he has a hard task before him here.

One Fusion Virtually Made.

The Moseley faction has virtually closed a fusion with the Kolbites on this basis: The Kolb party is to choose six out of eleven presidential electors and the Moseley people the remainder. The Kolbites are to have the selection of candidates for Congress in the nine districts of the State. Moseley and his friends are to be furnished with lists of electors and Congressional candidates and are to have the right to approve or reject. This much has been agreed on in an informal way. Capt. Kolb will to-night appoint a committee of five to meet a similar committee from the Kolb People's party Convention which meets to-morrow.

The basis of the trade has been agreed on and will doubtless be carried into effect.

Behind it all is an understanding to this effect: If the fusion ticket carries Alabama the six Kolb votes are to be kept away from Cleveland. Should there be any show of throwing the election into the House the Republicans will, if possible, see that the six would vote for Harrison in preference to Cleveland. They can get on record for Weaver if the Democrats suffer to that extent.

Magee's mission here is to see to the complexion of the electors. He wants dyed-in-the-wool, out-and-out anti-Cleveland men. The Kolb party is by all odds stronger than the People's Alliance, which has from 10,000 to 15,000 votes in Alabama. Kolb wants State control. He desires above all things to make his power felt in November for the effect it will have in the Legislature, when Kolb will contest Jones' right to the Governorship.

HAS NO LOVE FOR WEAVER.

He cares nothing for Weaver, but needs the Alliance vote to get him through by the terms of the agreement above referred to. The People's party will get the Congressional nominees and six of their brethren as electors. Kolb will boss the job and his chances of getting the Governorship eventually will be materially enhanced. Such is the arrangement on the stocks now. It has an extremely good chance of being ratified to-morrow or next day.

The anti-Moseley people are not in the scheme at all. All efforts to reconcile the factions have up to this time been futile and unavailing. The anti-Moseley party proposed a new State Central Committee made of the old one consolidated and divided by two. The Committee has twenty-two members. This the Moseley men wouldn't consent to, because there are five or six Moseley men on their Committee. On a fusion the Moseley men would be found in the minority. They rejected the proposition and substituted therefore a peace offering which gave the Moseley end of it a majority of four on the new committee, whereupon the other side kicked over the traces. Then Moseley's friends with all haste and speed proceeded to lay the foundation of doing business with Capt. Kolb, thus taking the initial and bagging all the glory.

The anti-Moseley people have not made any agreement with the Kolbites and are to all appearances in the cold, cold world. The chances of successful fusion election day would be bettered if the Stevens or anti-Moseley party was in line. It is on the outs now and may get party represents 95 per cent of all that is Republican in Alabama. Stevens The negotiations between Moseley, and Kolb will probably be consummated in an agreement to-morrow.

PUBLIC SPEAKING.

WEAVER'S BRUTAL CRUELTY.

Testimony of One who Witnessed it in Tennessee.

TALLAPOOSA, GA., Aug. 23.

I see in your issue of Saturday, the 20th instant an extract from a letter written by an old citizen of Pulaski, Tenn., also a copy of a clipping from the Giles County Democrat, charging Gen. Weaver, the people's party candidate for president, with beastly cruelty towards the citizens of Pulaski and Giles County while in command of the Union Army at that place in 1864.

I can fully substantiate a number of charges contained therein, and could add many others of like character, all from my own recollection. Although quite young at the time such a state of terror as we were kept in by this brute in human form made an indelible impression upon my mind.

My father, Dr. Perkins was living in Pulaski at this time. Our house, my grandmother's (Mrs. Dr. Ordway, now of Nashville), and Major Jones, a relative of ours, were used as officers' quarters. We were all subject to many insults. Major Jones family were ordered out of their house at about 12 o'clock on a bitter cold night in December. They were not allowed time to dress. Mrs. Jones had to wrap her sick child in bed clothing and carry it to a neighbor's house. Many acts of barbarous cruelty committed on my relatives and friends are fresh in memory. Men of the highest standing, young and old, were thrown into prison, kept there for months, and some shot down like dogs with never a charge entered against them. Ladies were insulted on the streets—it was indeed a reign of terror. Such acts of crime and vandalism I have never read of in a civilized county. All of this was done by the order, or with the consent, of General Weaver.

H. L. STEVENSON, Jacksonville, Ala. April 9th.

Gen. Weaver is met with hot water all through the South. He took advantage of a 20 minutes stop at Amory, Mississippi, on Monday, to speak to a crowd assembled on the platform.
When he finished, a lady on the train raised her window and said: "Gentlemen, this man General Weaver, is the man who, during the war, robbed every body in the Southern States who fell in his line of march. I know this to be so; for he stole two pounds of butter from me. Do not listen to him but go and vote the Democratic ticket straight."
Her words were greeted with great cheering and Gen. Weaver drew in his head and had no more to say.
Families in Huntsville were also taxed and suffered under his tyranny. One lady informed us that though she had six children to care for and no support, she was forced to pay a tax for the indigent poor or be turned out of her home the next day, and the lady had to sell a dress from her meagre wardrobe to pay it.
And this is the rascal who dares ask for a Southern vote. Shame on the man who casts a single ballot for him!—Huntsville Democrat.

The recently elected United States Senator of Georgia, General John B. Gordon, says:
Mr. A. K. Hawkes—Dear Sir: The pantoscopic glasses you furnished me some time since give excellent satisfaction. I have tested them by use, and must say they are unequalled in clearness and brilliancy by any that I have ever worn.
Respectfully,
JOHN B. GORDON,

The supporters of Weaver excuse his expressions of "late" of Southern people, on the ground that they were made away back during or directly after the war. Let us see about this. At a Fourth of July celebration at Marshalltown, Ia., in 1855, soon after Mr. Cleveland's inauguration and the elevation of Senators Lamar and Garland to cabinet positions, General Weaver made another characteristic speech, and said among other unreasonable and fanatical things:
"The free institutions of this country are again menaced and the union soldiers of the republic insulted by the elevation of confederate leaders to the highest places in the land. The refinements of the government at Washington have been given over to the rebellious south, and if this state of things is permitted to go on for another four years, you will see the rebels, who ought really to have been hung or shot, drawing pensions from the government they tried so hard to break up and destroy."
S. S. S. CURES SCROFULA
Mrs. E. J. Rowell, Medford, Mass., says her mother has been cured of Scrofula by the use of four bottles of S. S. S. after having had much other treatment, and being reduced to quinine low condition of health, as it was thought she could not live.
Cured my little boy of hereditary scrofula, which he had for a year and a half, given up all hope of his recovery, when finally I was induced to use S. S. S. A few bottles cured him, and no symptoms of the disease remain.

Two Necessities to the Front.

Sentiment don't sell clothes. It's price and quality. The LEAST of the FORMER for the MOST of the LATTER and things boom. It's no wonder we're doing the biggest trade in CLOTHING and FURNISHING GOODS. It's a characteristic of humanity to appreciate fine things, and where they are "surprise" you'll find the people.

The latest Fashion Plates the suits with bound and stitched edges, plain or silk facings. You read of these things—naturally you look for them when you "set out" to buy a suit. You'll FIND 'EM HERE—all of them, in chevots, plain black and light shades, tweeds, cassimeres and worsteds, cut in the scale of lengths that are proper. Plain weaves and wide wales. The linings and trimmings are as carefully selected and put in place as the outside finishings. We're not ashamed to have you look our suits through and through. We're conscious they're all right.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of Suit Fashion. When you make a change with US this Spring it will be for the better. We have "shaved" the price until only a tissue of profits covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $10.00 worth weighs light below that price. Up to $35.00 quality grows with every dollar. THERE is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The sacks and three and four button cutaway frocks, made up in "wood brown," chevots, black thibets, fancy cassimeres, clay's worsteds, etrick, tweeds, english homespuns, &c. Give us a variety that no three houses can compare and equal. Don't fear of the fit that is perfect beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had—and we have succeeded. Success piles upon success.
