JACKSONVILLE REPUBLICAN.

"ETERNAL VIGILANCE IS THE PRICE OF LIBERTY."

ESTABLISHED 1837. JACKSONVILLE, CALHOUN COUNTY, ALA., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 1894. VOLUME 58.

THOSE who claim that Aldrich is a pure, clean man, would probably do well to write to some of the leading men of his town and hear what they have to say.

WE would like to have a list of the white men in Calhoun county who go to the polls next Tuesday and vote the Republican ticket. It will be an interesting document many years hence.

GO to any store and ask the difference in price of goods under the Democratic tariff, and the Republican tariff, and then see if it is to the interest of the people of this country to elect a high tariff Radical to congress?

NO Democrat can afford to stay away from the polls next Tuesday. This is no factional fight. But we are now opposed by a man who belongs to a party which has always been an enemy to the South, all its interests, and all its people.

WE do not believe that the voters of the Fourth District will elect any man to a seat in congress who has a record as a scoffer of religion. No man, whether Democrat or Republican, should be selected to make our laws who believes that "Christianity is false and its foundation a myth."

WHILE the Republicans of the North and East denounce the Democratic tariff bill as one in the interest of the South, there are white men in the Fourth District who will go to the polls next Tuesday and vote for a Radical who is in favor of repealing this measure which helps the South, and enacting in its place a bill which robs the people of the South.

WHILE Vice-President Stevenson has been making Democratic speeches in New York, President Cleveland has not yet so much as said that he wanted the Democratic ticket elected. There is not only a great difference in this between Stevenson and Cleveland, but in Cleveland now and Hill two years ago. Hill then pulled off his coat for Cleveland. Cleveland now not so much as opens his mouth for Hill.

IT will require the vote to be cast and counted for Aldrich to convince us that any considerable number of the white men in Calhoun county can be delivered to the support of a Republican by money paid into the hands of certain Populists to control them. The white men of this county have always been true to the South and all its interests, and will certainly not now desert the principles for which they have fought all their lives and vote for that party which is the known enemy of the South and all its interests.

THE great demand which has come from all portions of the State during the present campaign for speeches from Alabama's two leading free silver Democrats is evidently painful to the Montgomery Advertiser. But it is a fact when the party wants to reach the people, it must then call for the men who are in line and sympathy with the people.

DO the Christian men of the Fourth District want a man to represent them in congress who believes that "Christianily is false and its foundation a myth;" who believes "that every church is the enemy of liberty and progress, and the chief means of enslaving woman's conscience and reason, and that therefore, as the first and most important step towards her emancipation, we should free her from the bondage of the church." If they want such a man to represent them in the national congress, then they can afford to vote for Aldrich, the Republican candidate for congress. But if they want men to make laws for them who believe in the Christian church, then they should vote against Aldrich.

AN ABLE SPEECH

BY CAPT. JOS. F. JOHNSTON.

He Urges the Jeffersonians to Come Back to the Party of Their Fathers.

Capt. Jos. F. Johnston expounded true Democratic doctrine in a speech at the court house in Jacksonville last Wednesday.

He was introduced by Jos. J. Arnold, Esq., and was received with a storm of applause. He is loved by the people of Calhoun county, and they are always glad to hear him.

His speech was clear, practical, and appealed to the reason of those who heard him, and not to their prejudice or passions.

It was just such a speech as we wish we had space and could reproduce in full. But we can only make mention of a few of the many good things it contained.

He commenced by saying that since 17 years of age he had never refused to go to the front when called upon, whether it was to shoulder his musket and go on the fields to fight the enemy, or whether it was to go upon the hustings and fight for good government; and that he was here to-day at the request of the chairman of the State Democratic Executive committee, and of the chairman of the congressional executive committee.

He first reviewed the foundation of the government, and the organization of the two great opposing parties,-the Democratic led by Thomas Jefferson, and contending for the sovereign rights of the States; and the other by Hamilton, who opposed the sovereign rights of the States and favored centralization. He then declared that since the days of Jefferson the Democratic party had not changed. It was still the party of the people. It still taught the doctrine of centralization.

That there were differences among Democrats, he did not deny. But stated that he thanked God that Democrats were allowed freedom of thought and could yet be Democrats. While they differed upon many things, he has never yet seen one who believes that the government has the right to tax one individual for the benefit of another.

He met Aldrich, the Republican candidate for congress, in joint debate in Talladega yesterday, and Aldrich there advocated the taxing of the masses of the people for the protection of the manufacturers.

The Democratic party believes in equal rights to all and special favors to none, and has never given a bounty to one industry to build it up at the expense of the people. Aldrich and his party favors a bounty of twelve million dollars to the sugar industry. Why not as well give a bounty of fifty million dollars to the cotton planters; they certainly need it as much as any people in the United States.

Aldrich claims that high tariff protects labor. Then why is it true that in less than ninety days after the passage of the McKinly bill, wages were reduced all over the country?

He stated that he favored the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, without fooling away any time on an international agreement. He was no enemy to gold. The only objection he had to it, there was not enough of it to go around.

He said in Talladega yesterday, in response to a direct question from him, Aldrich stated that he was opposed to the free coinage of silver, and that he favored having only paper money.

He denounced Aldrich's theory as a humbug. He said while we want paper money, we also want both silver and gold as a basis of redemption for our paper money.

He stated that with the free and unlimited coinage of silver we can erect a foundation on which we can get a sufficient amount of money to transact the business of the country profitably.

He stated that he was in favor of putting a dollars worth of silver in a dollar, and wanted this value to be measured by labor and products, and not by the gold standard.

Aldrich's theroy of money so as to do without the free coinage of silver is a humbug, and no free silver man should support him. There must be both gold and silver, so as to have time and place where we can get primary money to redeem bills issued.

If Jeffersonians believe in free coinage of silver, should never vote for Aldrich, but for Robbins. Robbins stood by silver like a man, and voted for it at a ratio of 16 to 1.

Said Aldrich stated yesterday that he favored the Federal election law, but thank God we will never have any more yankee election laws fastened upon the people of the South.

Capt. Johnston stated that he was opposed to bringing the church into politics; but that certain charges had been made as to Aldrich's opposition to Christianity, and that yesterday he had an opportunity to denounce these charges as false and did not do so. Certainly the people of this District do not want a man to represent them in congress who believe that "Christianity is false and its foundation a myth" and that "Every church is an enemy of progress and liberty." The result of such a belief would be to tear down all our Christian churches. Aldrich has a right to entertain these views, and the people of this District have a right to see that no such man represents this District in congress.

I am as much in favor of fair elections as any man. Do not claim that our elections have been absolutely fair; but one thing is certain, we can never secure fair elections by falling in with the Republicans.

The thing necessary to secure peace and harmony in Alabama, and to insure fair elections, is for the conservative men among the Jeffersonians to come back to the Democratic party. I want to see them come back, and the best way to do so is to vote for Robbins, a man against whose record they can find no fault. He has kept every pledge made, and should receive their support.

IF the Republican candidate in this District should go to congress, he would vote to increase the price on every thing the people have to buy from twenty-five to one hundred per cent. He declares from every stump that he favors a high tariff. Why any man in this section should want to increase the price of all merchandise which he has to buy, during these hard times, is indeed most singular.

Pastor Elected.

The conference at the Baptist church last Sunday was largely attended.

After the celebration of the Lord's Supper the conference entered into the election of a pastor for the ensuing year, which resulted in the election of Rev. M. H. Lane, D. D.

A committee was appointed to notify Dr. Lane of his election, and to ask that he hold a series of meetings in the Baptist church here at an early date.

Dr. Lane is one of the ablest prachers in the State, and it is hoped that he will serve the Baptist church here as pastor for another year.

Keeper of Paupers' Home.

The county commissioners on last Saturday selected Mr. John Pruett as the keeper of the paupers home another year.

They pay for feeding, clothing, furnishing with tobacco, and waiting upon each papuer seven dollars per month; which is a reduction of one dollar on the amount paid this year. Mr. Pruett has been the keeper of the paupers home for several years, and attends to these poor and unfortunate people in such a manner as to give satisfaction to all the inmates, and the county commissioners; and for this reason has been retained from year to year.

THERE'S going to be a badly fooled set of republicans and hangers on in the Fourth district on the 8th of November, who may cherish the vain hope that Mr. William F. Aldrich will succeed Gaston A. Robbins in congress. The people are not ready to relegate Robbins or a high tariff, woman's rights free-thinker and traducer of the religion of their fathers and mothers, —a man who said recently that "Christianity is false," and "its foundation a myth." There have been too many of that stripe in congress during the last quarter of a century. That's what's the matter with Hannah, now. Mr Aldrich and his friend Stevens will find that the people are singing the religious tune,

Is good enough for me."

And that the democracy of our fathers is the only hope of saving the country from the ravages of the robbers who have become so fat and "bossy" from unjust taxation of the people, and grinding them under the heel of "unchristian" trusts and monopolies. Mr Aldrich is unfit to represent an intelligent, Christian people, when he has declared that their religon is "FALSE." And this at a political gathering of Woman Suffragists, where it was proclaimed that "religion is superstition in fashion." —Selma Times.

DR. MCURRY CAUGHT.

The Heavy Hand of the Law at Last Laid Upon Him.

Dr. S. J. McCurry has at last been caught and the man whose cruel instrument, it is charged, killed poor Mattie Tucker, the unfortunate girl from Riverside, in the house of Gussie Wilson some six weeks since, will be brought to justice.

The capture was effected in Monterrey, Mex., and a telegram telling the good news was received from that city by Cheif Prather Saturday night.

McCurry went from here up towards Rome, then down through Georgia to the Florida coast where he took steamer for a Mexican port. The circular containing a picture and description of him had been sent not only all over the United States but also to the principle points in Canada, Nova Scotia, Manitoba and Mexico and it was these that led to his arrest.

Steps will be taken at once to bring about his extradition.— Hot Blast.

The circuit court has been well attended this week.

The White Plains Road.

The county commissioners while in session here last week passed an order to change the White Plains road from Jacksonville, so as to go through Pruitt's gap.

Before passing this order, the commissioners went over the new road, which the citizens of Jacksonville had already had surveyed and blazed out, and they were surprised that this change in the road had not been made before now.

By this change, a new road of only about two miles is required to be built, in order to make a road which the grade will not be more than six feet in the hundred. Whereas, the present road over the mountain is so steap that it is difficult to go over it with a buggy, and impossible to haul an ordinarily loaded wagon over it.

The people of Jacksonville proposed to the commissioners that Jacksonville would pay one-half the cost of the road, if the county would pay the other half. It was the purpose of the people of Jacksonville to build the new road without warning the hands along the route, and so proposed to the commissioners. The commissioners upon investigation found that the law required that in opening any new road they were required to warn the hands along the route to chop out the road, and decided that they could not evade this legal requirement in this instance. So the hands will be warned to only chop out the route, and the road will then be worked by the citizens of Jacksonville paying one-half its cost and the county the remainder.

The people on both sides of the mountain are to be congratulated in securing the change in this road.

While a number of citizens have done much to secure this change, to no one man is so much credit due as to Gen. John Forney, who devoted several weeks in locating the route, and bringing the importance of the change before the people.

An Interesting Case.

In the winter of 1892, George Forney, col., of Jacksonville, was arrested and tried before Judge Crook on a charge of an assault and battery on one Elijah Dawsey, col.

Not long after this trial, Elijah Dawsey died from what was supposed to be the effects of a blow on the head with a rock said to have been thrown by George Forney.

This wound which is said to have caused Dawsey's death was the same wound for which George Forney was tried on a charge of an assault and battery.

After Dawsey's death, a true bill was returned against George Forney for murder, charging him with having killed Elijah Dawsey.

At the last term of the court George Forney was brought up for trial on the charge of murder. His attorneys, Messrs. Caldwell, Brothers and Martin, filed a plea of former jeopardy; claiming that as he had already been tried before Judge Crook for this offence, that he could not again be placed on trial for the same act.

This was a new question, and while Judge Box sustained the plea, he allowed Solicitors Wilson and Arnold to nolle prosequi, in order that they might have an opportunity to look up the law on the question involved, and if they saw proper to do so, have the defendant again indicted and brought up for trial.

Last week, soon after the organization of the grand jury, George Forney was re-arrested on the charge of having murdered Elijah Dawsey, and was placed in jail. He was released on bond Wednesday morning.

The same question of former jeopardy will again come before the court for its decision.

THE editor of the REPUBLICAN may seem to some to be hard upon the Radicals, but when he thinks of the treatment the people of the South have received from the Republican party, he can't be indifferent. We are an old line, low tariff, free silver, Democrat, after the faith of Thomas Jefferson.

ADALAI STEVENSON

ON THE INCOME TAX.

Democratic Party Favors it, Republican Party opposes it.

For the past two weeks Vice President Adlai Stevenson has been making a canvass in Illinois and other States. His speeches have been full of unanswerable Democratic doctrine. He has reviewed fully the work of the last congress, and has clearly shown that great blessings will accrue to the people by changes made in laws enacted by the Republican party.

In discussing the new tariff bill, he spoke at length upon the income tax feature of the present bill, and among other things, said:

The duty of the democratic congress when it came into power, to provide the necessary revenues with which to meet the current expenses of the government, was imperative. How could this be done? Either by continuing or possiby increasing to the people the cost of the necessaries of life by tariff taxation, or by imposing a moderate tax upon the earnings of the wealth of the country. The democratic party was solemnly pledged to the reduction of taxation upon the necessaries of life. This pledge could be made good, and sufficient governmental revenues at the same time secured, only by the imposition of the tax I have indicated. Just in proportion as the burdens of taxation were removed from the shoulders of the poor they were to rest upon those more able to bear them. A democratic congress removed the tax wholly from salt, from lumber, from binding twine, from agricultural implements, and greatly reduced the tax upon cotton and woolen goods and other articles of daily use. How was this to be made good to the treasury? A democratic congress thought it wise to do so by a tax upon annual incomes exceeding $4000. This enactment was to remain in force only for the period of five years.

I submit to you now the question, do you desire the immediate repeal of this law? Did Republican senators and members represent your interests when they voted against this law? You must bear in mind that the aggregate wealth of this country exceeds the enormous sum of $65,000,000,000. The question I ask you now is, whether it is not just that a portion of the revenues necessary to meet the expensse of the government should be collected from the earnings of the vast sum I have mentioned? In other words, shall governmental expenditures be met in part by a tax upon the earnings of wealth, or shall it all spring from taxes imposed upon consumption? It is said this tax is odious —inquisitorial. All taxes are more or less odious and inquisitorial. Public necessity is the only justification for any form of taxation. It has been truly said, "The necessities of government are the beginning and ending of just taxation." But you have been told that this tax cannot be collected. This statement rests upon the assumption that men of wealth, the factors in the great marts, are dishonest. It assumes that men of affairs will risk the pains and penalties of perjury rather than disclose to the proper officer their annual income. This assumption is not only an insult to American manhood, but is disproved by the facts of history. During the period of eight years extending from 1862 to 1870 the revenues derived from incomes alone fell but a trifle short of $350,000,000. I repeat the inquiry, is it not just that some portion of the burdens of taxation should rest upon the accumulations of wealth, and not wholly upon the articles of daily necessity to human existence? The expenditures of the national government are necessarily great, and annually increasing with the growth of the country. The income tax is one of the methods devised by a democratic congress to meet the imperative necessities of government. Do you desire its immediate repeal? If so elect a republican congress, repeal the income tax and thereby add $30,000,000 of annual taxation upon the articles of daily consumption.

THE white men of the Fourth District who are thinking of voting the Republican ticket next Tuesday, should deliberately ask themselves this question: What single thing has the Republican party ever done in the interest of the South?

WE cannot understand how any man can be true to his country, true to his people, true to the memory of the men who gave their lives on the field of battle in fighting for the lost cause, if they now turn and vote for the party which has cursed the South since 1860.

To what party has the people of the South looked to for protection since the war? What party has defended the Southern people in the national congress against the vilest assaults ever made against any people in the world? Think of these things, and then see if your conscience will permit you to vote for a Republican next Tuesday.

THERE is danger of Aldrich being elected only in the apathy and indifference among Democratic voters. It should be a pleasure for every Democrat in the Fourth District to go to the polls next Tuesday and cast his ballot in the interest of the party which has always defended the South, and against that party which has done all in its power to crush and humiliate the Southern people.

THE greatest trouble with the South and West is the fact that these two sections havn't got a sufficient amount of money to transact profitable the business done by them. And why havn't they? Because they have been robbed by a high protective tariff which has carried the money into the pockets of the rich manufacturers of the North and the East. These are facts which no man can successfully controvert. And when this is a known fact, we cannot understand how any Southern or Western voter can cast his ballot for a man who is in favor of still carrying the little money left in the South and West and turning it over to the North and East where they already have an overabundance.

THE Montgomery Advertiser in speaking of Capt. Jos. F. Johnston, says: "It is generally understood that he has been making gubernatorial hay in this lovely autumn sunshine as actively as he ever did in his life. Of course, there is no impropriety in this, but at the same time there is no use in trying to sand anybody's eyes."

This is characteristic of the Advertiser. It can see no good in any man who does not bow at its dictation. No man in Alabama has given so much of his time to the party since the last State convention as has Joe Johnston. He is now making speeches every day. He goes where the State campaign committee asks him to go. And the above is the thanks which he gets from the great and good party paper—the Advertiser.

THE Jacksonville Republican very truly says: "The East is getting fearfully uneasy about the silver question. The people are in favor of free silver and are determined to do away with the gold standard, and the East will be much more alarmed yet than now" Replying to this the Ashville Aegis says: "There is not, and never has been any sentiment in the east or anywhere in this country in favor of the single gold standard, and the Republican knows it." No; the East, like the Aegis, doesn,t call it the gold standard, but "sound money." And to "get sound money," which the people already had, the East demanded the demonitization of silver, making gold the only money of final redemption. The Aegis can't hide out behind its specious plea for "sound money,, in its war on silver. The people understand the issue. It is bimetallism vs monometallism. The first is democratic, the latter is republican doctrine.—Montgomery Journal.

For Congress, Fourth District,
HON. GASTON A. ROBBINS, of Dallas.

Fair Elections.

The state of feeling which exists among the white men of Alabama to-day, politically, is deplorable.

We are not only divided, but confidence in each other's integrity is lost.

Each party has no confidence in the other when it comes to the management of an election. Instead of feeling confident that our elections will be fairly conducted, that every man will have the right to cast his ballot according to the dictates of his conscience and that it will be counted as cast, we now expect manipulations so as that the ballot will not be cast as the voter directs, and that frauds will be committed in the count.

Not only is this true in contests between the different parties, but the recent primary in this District shows conclusively that as Democrats we have lost confidence in each other.

These are facts which should be deplored by every man who feels an interest in the peace and prosperity of the State of Alabama; for as long as we look upon each other as ballot box stuffers and thieves, so long will we have division, restlessness, mutterings of discontent, and hatred one for another. So long as such feelings exist, the people can never unite in any effort to bring prosperity to the State and contentment and happiness to its people.

The question as to how confidence can be restored and the white men of Alabama reunited, is paramount to all other questions now before this people.

We do not claim that we are prepared to offer the best solution for the solving of these problems. But above all things else, we desire to see the conservative white men of Alabama brought together and their former confidence in each other restored, and this desire prompts us to offer the following suggestions:

Frauds in the management of elections must cease. The ballot box stuffer must be given other employment. We must have a free ballot and a fair count. To secure this, it is necessary for the intolerant to cease to brand all who do not agree with them as thieves and scoundrels. The conservative men in the State who believe in fair elections and good government, must throw aside their prejudice and come together.

The reforms needed in Alabama can never be secured by looking to the Republican party. Such an effort will only widen the breach and increase the wrongs. It is not to the interest of the people that the solid South should ever be broken, and it never will be. But there are a sufficient number of conservative men in Alabama who believe in fair elections, who favor such national measures as are to the interest of the people, to control the State, to force the honest management of our elections, and the only thing necessary is for them to come together and fight under the same banner; and we hope that during the next two years some plan will be adopted by which we can get together and that the strife and discontent which now exisits, will give way to peace and prosperity.

Democrats to the Front.

Next Tuesday the Democrats of the Fourth District are expected to go to the polls and re-elect Hon. Gaston A. Robbins to represent this District in the next congress.

The old enemy to Democracy is hard at work in every county in the District. Democrats will have to meet this work with their best efforts in order that our majority may be as great as that to which we are entitled.

We have the vote to elect Mr. Robbins by a good majority: all that is needful is to bring it out, and it should be a pleasure to every Democrat to place his vote on record.

This is no time for lethargy. The Rebublican candidate is spending a large amount of money, and will doubtless succeed in bringing every Republican in the District to the polls, and the vigilance of Democrats must not be relaxed until every Democratic vote in every beat in every county in the District is polled and we are safe beyond all question of a triumphant Democratic victory.

There is too much at stake to admit of any indifference. So let every Democrat put on his working clothes and bury the Republican party next Tuesday with such an avalanche of votes that it will never raise its head again in this District.

Proceedings of the Court.

The circuit court was engaged last week in trying civil cases. Only a few cases went to the jury, and none were tried of public interest.

This week has been spent on the criminal docket, and the following cases have been disposed of up to the time we go to press.

Jerry Borders. Card playing on Sunday. Acquitted.

Macon Cobb. Abusive language. Acquitted.

Make Cobb. Concealed pistol. Guilty. Fined $50.

John Jones. Grand larceny. Plead guilty.

Melle Queen. Grand larceny. Acquitted.

Daniel Mitchell. Grand larceny. Plead guilty.

Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas the Angel of Death has entered our community and taken from us Mrs. Phena Francis, who was much beloved by all, and who was held in high esteem by the members of the Shady Glenn Sunday school as one of its most efficient teachers: therefore be it.

Resolved 1st, That in her death our Sunday school has lost a member whose devotion to its interest was strong and constant, whose love for her pupils was deep and abiding, and whose cheerful smile was a stimulus to labor. The church has lost a zealous advocate of the cause of Christ, her friends a loving companion, and her family the light and joy of its home.

2nd. That while it is with the sincerest sorrow we yield to the loss of one so noble and so useful, and while we so sadly miss her smileing face, her gentle manners, and counsel; yet from the manners of her life among us, we are fully persuaded that our loss is her eternal gain.

3rd That to the bereaved ones we extend our deepest sympathy in this sad hour of affliction. May her prayer for them be heard and answered in a happy reunion in heaven.

4th. That the Jacksonville Republican be requested to publish these resolutions and a copy of the same be sent to the bereaved family.

The Democratic caucus of the Georgia Legislature last Thursday nominated Hon. Patrick Walsh for the short term in the United State Senate, and Hon. A. O. Bacon for the long term. They both favor the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, without waiting for an international agreement.

No man can fail to feel indignant who carries his wife and children to meet the night trains on the East Tennesee road and finds that no accommodation whatever is provided for their comfort. Those who go to these trains in Jacksonville, are forced to stand out in the cold and wait the arrival of the train. No agent at these trains to sell tickes or check baggage, and these the only regular passenger trains which pass over the road.

Such treatment of the traveling public is an outrage, and if the Railroad Commission of Alabama has not the power to force the railroads in the State to afford better acommodations than this, then its powers should be increased or the commission abolished. We wish to state that no blame can be attached to the local agent here for this lack of accommodation. He is not paid to work at night. It is the duty of the road to furnish here a night operator and agent.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welshton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhœa of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by *

We have heard a number of compliments paid Jos. J. Arnold, Esq, this week for the ability he has displayed in the assistance rendered the solicitor in the prosecution of the cases on the criminal docket. There is no young lawyer in this section of the State who has the promise of a brighter future.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of Mc Kay, Ohio, is of the opinion that their is nothing as good for children troubled with cold or croup as Chamberlain,s Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having la grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

MALARIAL POISON

Results from atmospheric conditions, unclean premises, imperfect ventilation and more frequently from the deadly SEWER GAS. A general rundown and impoverished condition of the blood ensues, and if not corrected, Catarrh, Bronchitis, and even Consumption may be the result. S. S. S. promptly corrects all these evil effects.

Mr. J. A. Rice, Ottawa, Kan., writes: For three years I was troubled with Malaria, which caused my appetite to fail, and I was so reduced in flesh, that life lost its charms. I tried mercurial and potash remedies, but could get no relief. I then decided to try S. S. S. A few bottles of this wonderful medicine made a complete and permanent cure, and I now enjoy better health than ever.

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flanel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by dealers.

The Tariff Off.

People know a good thing when they see it. That is why we are selling on a basis of 5 cents for cotton. We know money is scarce, so we have reduced prices to suit the times. We are selling Jeans with the tariff off so low that it will astonish you.

Large plug of tobacco for five cents, and don't forget us when you want flour. You will be surprised to know our prices. Come and see us.

Final Settlement.

STATE OF ALABAMA,
Calhoun County.

In Probate Court of said County special Term 24 day of October 1. 94.

This day came J. W. Harris Administrator of the estate of J. H. Parks, deceased, and filed his account and vouchers for a final settlement of his administration of said estate. It is therefore ordered that the 29 day of November A. D. 1894 be and is hereby appointed a day upon which to examine, pass upon, and allow said account and to make said settlement, and that notice thereof be given, by publication for three successive weeks in a newspaper published in said County, as a notice to all persons concerned to appear in this Court on said 29th day of November A. D. 1894 and contest said settlement if they think proper.

Attachment Notice.

Geo. H. Montgomery,

Whereas an attachment issued out of the Circuit Court of said county on the 24th day of September A. D. 1894 against the above named Geo. H. Montgomery, who it appears is a non-resident of the State of Alabama, and who resides at Burnett P. O., Ind., has been by the Sheriff of Calhoun county, returned to me the Clerk of said court, executed by levying the same upon the following described property towit: Lot 11 Block 1, Lot 2, Block 5, as per Montgomery's survey of the Schenck's Sulphur Springs property.

This is therefore to notify the said Geo. H. Montgomery, of the issuance of said attachment, and the execution thereof, and that the same will stand for trial at the Spring Term, of the Circuit Court of Calhoun county, Ala.

Witness this Sept. 26th 1894.

HOW

The Watch Stopped!

A lady about to boil an egg for her husband's breakfast asked the loan of his watch to time the boiling.

"Your watch has stopped," she cried; the egg is on, and I can't tell how long it ought to remain in the kettle."

The husband hastened to the stove and was horror struck to find that the good woman had dropped his elegant gold watch into the kettle, holding the egg to her ear.

Of course the watch had to be put into the jeweler's hands to have the water taken out and be put in order. J.P. Stevens & Bro., 47 Whitehall street, Atlanta, Ga., were fully equal to the emergency and the watch made as good as new. By the way, this firm employs skilled workmen, and your watch will always be safe in their hands. They pay express charges on work sent them for examination.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Mr. O. E. Ansley of Anniston, was among his Jacksonville friends last Thursday.

J. C. Wicks was down from Piedmont last Wednesday to hear Capt. Johnston speak.

After Tuesday we will have a rest on election for two years, for which let us all be thankful.

Our friend Alf Truitt of Anniston, never fails to make a favorable impression even when before a petit jury.

Prof. John O. P. Treadaway has gone to Sonoma, Etowah county, to teach a school. He is a good teacher and deserves a good school.

The farmers in the different portions of the county will probaly issue a call next week for the organization of an agricultural society.

The college has been recovered and otherwise improved, and our people should now go to work and beautify the grounds. They can be made as pretty as any in the State.

Speaker Crisp was kept from filling his appointment in Talladega on account of sickness of his wife. His failure to come was a great disappointment to the people of this district.

Mr. A. L. Vincent of Beat 14 was married in Talladega county last Tuesday to Miss Mamie Roe. Mr. Vincent is a most excellent young man and his friends congratulate him and wish for him much success.

The city council has made arrangement by which the Jacksonville fire company will purchase new hose. This is a move in the right direction, and should be followed by an arrangement to purchase a new reel, which is very much needed.

Miss Achsah Skelton, who has been visiting the family of Dr. Ayers, returned to her home in Hartwell, Ga., last Thursday. She is a most lovely young lady, and while here made many friends who hope that she will visit Jacksonville again.

Cards have been sent out announcing the marriage of Mr. T. J. Cason of Anniston, and Miss Harriet Minerva Weems of Jacksonville, on Wednesday, Nov. 14, at 10:30 a. m., at the home of Mr. F. A. Weems in this place. Miss Weems is one of Jacksonville's most excellent young ladies, and Mr. Cason is one of Anniston's most worthy young business men.

Last Thursday William White, a young man who lives near Ladiga, was being tried for burning woods and fences, and while the jury was out on his case he decided to go home, and up to time we go to press he has not yet been found. The jury returned a sealed verdict, and the court is awaiting his return to have the verdict announced.

Hon. A. P. Longshore made a political speech in the court house here last Tuesday. The people of this county are familiar with his speeches. This one is the same one they have heard repeatedly. At night, a Mr. Parsons, whom we learn is a Republican raised North, spoke in the interest of Aldrich. He was replied to by D. D. McLeod, Esq., and those who heard the discussion say that McLeod simply tore him to pieces.

Billing—Wyly.

In giving account of the marriage of Miss Sadie Wyly to Mr. F. M. Billing, the Montgomery Advertiser says:

But, the bride! She entered with her father, Maj. J. M. Wyly, and the no uncertain brunette, vivacious beauty of this interesting personage on this, the occasion of her life, was evidenced to a degree of intuitive admiration murmured by everyone catching a glimpse of her in a wedding dress of ivory satin, cut in the regulation high neck, with generous train and corsage of accordion plaited chiffon, caught with strands of pearl. The veil was held by a diamond crescent, the groom's gift, and she carried a beautiful bouquet of Bride's roses, maiden hair fern and Lillies of the Valley.

On reaching the chancel rail, the ushers assumed positions on either side of the aisle and the maids ascended to the altar, where the maid-of-honor handed to Rev. Dr. Powers her gift to the bride, a prayer-book of elegantly embossed white calf, containing the marriage certificate, and from which the ceremony was beautifully and impressively read.

Mr. Billing and his best man, Mr. Wm. K. Pelzer, were awaiting the bride who, in front of the minister of God, left the arm of her father, there to accept the arm of the man who now promised to love, cherish and protect her until death.

To the home of Maj. and Mrs. Wyly, on Madison avenue, the bride and groom, with a party of most intimate friends, were driven. A reception was revelled in. The house and the affair in every particular was a monster piece of art. Exquisite and gorgeous were the decorations, arranged by deft hands, and soft strains of inspiring music issuing from a concealed nook in the main hall conspired to intensify and enthrall the beauty of the surroundings, while Mr. and Mrs. Billing were being presented with sincere compliments and hearty well wishes.

Especially noticeable was the elaborate assortment of wedding gifts to the bride. They were arranged about and filled one of the drawing rooms. Handsome silverware, delicate china, bric-a-brac and vases, in fact, a variety of all sorts of pretty things acceptable to a bride, were there. Pointed mention must be made of the cut glass, for this precious article was represented in every conceivable form of art and utility. The presents came from far and near and emphatically pronounced the popularity of the recipient.

Mr. Billing's gift to his bride was a thing of beauty in the form of a diamond cresent of tweny eight first water stones of superior cut. In the center of the pin was one of the prettiest pearls one ever sees.

The friends of Capt. Ed. G. Caldwell are gratified to know that he continues to improve, and will soon be able to be out again.

Col. Ball, manager of East & West R. R., contributed liberally to the new road from Jacksonville to White Plains. The Col. always does what he can for Jacksonville.

Both the circuit court and the Anniston City court are now in session. It occurs to us that it is rather unfortunate that the sessions of these two courts should be held at the same time, as a number of the lawyers have business in both courts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bondurant gave the young people of Jacksonville a Halloween party last Thursday night, and while the witches were abroad on their baneful midnight errands, and the fairies holding a grand anniversary, we hope all the young people who attended were able to so perform their spells as to discover their future partners for life. Mr. and Mrs. Bondurant entertain elegantly, and the young people are always delighted to go there.

Mr. Bob Dowdell of Rabbit Town beat had an accident last Wednesday which cost him his life. He was hauling lumber to the place of Mr. John Chambers. He carried a load of lumber into the lot and unloaded it. After unloading the lumber he got up on the wagon, and by some means fell to the ground and broke his neck. He never spoke, but died instantly.

He had been a great sufferer from rheumatism and his limbs were considerable drawn, which may account for his fall.

He was a good citizen and leaves a wife and a number of relatives to mourn his unexpected death. He was a brother-in-law of Mr. Newt J. Stevens.

ANNISTON.

As election day approaches, our people are becoming more interested. We are preparing to make a clean Democratic sweep on the 6th of November. Aldrich will not get twenty-five white votes in Anniston, and most of the negroes will voto the Democratic ticket. Bill Stevens will not be able to control our colored vote by a great deal. If he did nominate Aldrich, he will never succeed in leading his race to support him, because the negroes here know that Bill is in politics for the money he can get. They know Bill has put his hands into the breeches pocket of Aldrich, and that, for this reason, and for this reason only, Bill is giving him his support. The Anniston negro can not be controlled by Bill Stevens, as Aldrich will learn on the 6th.

Hon. John M. Caldwell will deliver his famous lecture in Gadsden at an early date, in the interest of the Ladies Aid Society of the First M. E. Church of that city. The citizens of Gadsden will be pleased with Col. Caldwell. The subject of his latest lecture is "John", and he treats it in an able, eloquent, entertaining manner. In thought, it is profound; in style, it is fascinating; in diction, it is pure; in delivery, it is captivating.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Cook, who have been visiting relatives in the city for the past several days, have gone to their home in Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Adams have returned from New Orleans.

Tom Word, who has been on a visit to his parents at Newnan, Ga., has returned.

Hon. Gaston A. Robbins has been in the city twice this week.

The city court is now in session on the civil docket, which is said to be lighter than ever before.

The King's Daughters met Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. C. Anderson.

John Temple Graves will lecture here on next Wednesday night. He will have for a subject "The Daughters of Eve."

Mr. S. S. Webb has returned from a tour of the Lone Star State.

An interesting session of the beat Sunday school association was held Sunday at the Parker Memorial church.

Messrs. R. B. Kelly and John W. Abercrombie made Democratic speeches in Shelby county last week, and in Cleburne this week.

Our people are more deeply interested in education than ever before.

Prof. Gunnels, of the public schools, went to Birmingham Saturday to hear Evangelist Moody.

We had a good rain Monday, which was greatly needed.

DEARMANVILLE.

The rain of Monday night came in good time to save stock running at large from suffering for water. It caught a large amount of cotton open in the field, but did it no material damage.

A large number of fine colts raised in this valley will be exhibited at the colt show at Oxford Lake to-morrow. There never was a time in the history of this country when the farmers took more interest in raising fine stock than at present, but like everything else, the price of stock is very low.

Republicanism is a weed that will not thrive upon our Southern soil. Just as well attempt to make pure water mix with oil.

Next Sundry is the closing Sabbath with Rev. Mr. Jones of the Methodist church. It is hoped by many that he will be returned.

More than half the cotton crop of this section has been sold. Creditors are pressing collections.

FERGUSONVILLE.

The farmers are well up with their cotton picking and many cribs are filled with fine large ears of corn.

The rain Monday night did away with the dust and put the land in fine condition for sowing oatos and wheat.

L. H. Clements and Thos. Aderhold are running a gin at Capt. Bush's, and are patronized liberally.

Prof. Person will open school at Peaceburg next Wednesday.

D. L. Simpson is clerking in a dry goods store in Anniston.

J. H. McEachern is in the saddle this week drumming for N. Woodruff of Alexandria.

Henry Lanford has been around getting up help to run the court at Jacksonville this week.

WEAVER'S.

The mother of J. S. Parker died Friday of last week and was buried Saturday.

J. R. Alexander is improving slowly.

J. R. McElreath is still confined to his bed, but is thought to be improving.

The little son of W. M. Mahaffee has typhoid-pneumonia. The daughter that was sick is improving.

We had a fine rain Monday night, and it is hoped that it will raise the water in the wells, as the long dry weather has caused many of them to fail.

Miss Clemmie Weaver, of the Southern Female University, came home Friday to see her parents, and was accompanied by Misses Snow and Luttrell of Oxford.

MORRISVILLE.

Dr. H. L. Ison of Weavers Station, was in town this morning, looking after some investments that he made in this settlement last year.

Mr. W. A. Glenn is very happy. It is a bouncing baby girl.

Mr. J. D. Timmons of Dry Tuck, is going to move to Morrisville soon.

We had a good rain to day which is a blessing to the settlement immediately south of us. Nearly all the springs and wells have dried up and people were oblige to carry all the water they used a considerable distance.

If all the public roads leading to Jacksonville, were traveled by as many people going to Circuit Court as passed through this burg today, Judge Box will have plenty of company this week.

To-morrow week is election day, and if all the true white voters, do their duty Bill Stevens and his ally W. F. Aldrich, will be left several thousand miles behind.

It seems that Rev. F. M. Jones has been placed on double duty. He works on his farm all the week and preaches two sermons on Sunday.

PERMANENTLY CURED BY USING

Ayer's Pills

"My husband was subject to severe attacks of neuralgia which caused him great pain and suffering. The pains were principally about his eyes, and he often had to remain in a darkened room, not being able to stand the light. Ayer's Pills being recommended, he tried them, using one before each meal. They very soon afforded relief, followed by permanent cure. I am a strong believer in the efficiey of Ayer's Pills, and would not be without them for ten times their cost."—Mrs. M. E. EQUALIZATION OF TAXES.

Interesting Communication from Commissioner DeArman on the Subject.

There has been a great deal said about the commissionors court raising the peoples taxes these hard times. I wish to say that there has been no tax raised over last year's assessment. When the commissioners court met in July for the purpose of fixing a rate of taxation we scanned over the tax book and found that there was a few of the tax payers a little below their assessment of 1893, say about one in every hundred and as the law requires the commissioners to equalize the tax, and also to levy a tax sufficient to meet the expenses of the county, we decided that we would not change the rate but would try to hold each tax payer up to his last year's assessment and in comparing the tax book of 1893 and 1894 all was put back to the assessment of 1893. We then gave them notice to appear before our court and show cause why they should not be raised. Very few of the number notified appeared before us and showed a good reason why they should not pay as much as their last years assessment was.

Some had their houses burned, others had sold some of their property and their assessment had failed to show less property, and some few showed that they were paying more tax than their neighbor. Wherever they showed a good cause their tax was put back as they assessed them. We have had help from every beat in the county and done the very best we could to equalize the tax. We think we have got it about as near equal as we can get it under the present mode of equalizing. We believe it would be well for the legislature to pass some law that will bring about a better way of equalizing the taxes of our county. The greatest difficulty I find in equalizing the tax under the present mode is this: Some parts of the county place a greater valuation on their property than others are according to its actual value and especially on the farming land.

The commissioners can equalize as far as neighborhoods are concerned, but it is a hard matter for us to agree about the valuation in different localities or neighborhoods from the fact that equalizing is done just like every-thing else is done in the commissioners court—by votes. Now, for instance there are some parts of this county that the tax payers only pay on a valuation of $3 00 per acre, while other parts of the county valne their lands about three times that amount. Now, while there is a great difference, among our best lands we have some very poor farms and among the poor lands neighborhoods we have some good farms and for these reasons I say they are not equalized as they should be.

Keeping the mouth clean and the teeth sound.

Keeping the mouth clean from infancy until the termination of life's journey should be a habit so firmly fixed by constant practice in infancy and childhood that it will not be likely to be neglected in after life. In the air around are floating the germs of various diseases, consumptio, pneumonian, malaria, diptheria, thrush, tonsilitis, and the like. If the mouth is healthy and its secretions normal, these disease germs are destroyed there and thus they are prevented from entering the deeper tissues of the body.

But swollen, sodden gums, decaying teeth, tartar, and morbid catarrhal discharges, all form so many centers for germ culture and avenues for the entrance of morbid matter into the tissues. The enlarged scrofulas glands of so many children and youth, resulting in unsightly scars and disfigurement are usualy caused by tuberculous germs which enter the lymphatic glands of the neck from enlarged tonsils, decayed teeth, or suppurating ears. In thrush, the baby's mouth is filled with tiny plants resembling yeast ferment. The borax wash displaces, cleauses and destroys these minute plants, and thus cures the disease. Cavities, even in the first teeth, should be filled as soon as discovered. Tooth brush and powder should be used freely anb frequently, and the mouth rinsed out often with pure water. Enlarged tonsils should be treated or removed. Abscesses of thecar should be treated by cleanliness and disenfection, so as to heal them as soon as posible. Consulting the dentist early may save a set of teeth, the glands of the neck; and even life itself; for when tubercular germs have once gained an entrance into the body, there is scarcely a limit to their devastation. —Good Health.

Selma Times on Robbins.

We cheerfully nail Gaston A. Robbins' name at the mast-head of The Times as the democratic nominee for congress from the 4th District. He will be elected. Every white man in the district claiming to be a democrat can with pride and a good conscience vote for him. He is an honest man. He conscientiously represented his constituents through the stormy and trying scenes of the first and extra sessions of the present congress. He is better equipped now than when he first took his seat. He never stumbled nor flickered. He stood with his colleagues in repealing the purchasing clause of the Sherman act and in demanding additional currency legislation to relieve the financial depression of the country. He voted for the repeal of the iniquitous McKinley tariff, which Mr. Aldrich, the republican conglemerate nominee favors. Mr. Robbins offered an amendment to the present tariff law putting agricultural implements on the free list, which should entitle him to the confidence of every farmer in the land. Mr. Robbins is a practical, level-headed man—there is nothing of the visionary crank about him. He is true to his party, and will make a faithful, intelligent representative of the people.

Let the people cheerfully vote for Gaston A. Robbins.

ASSIST NATURE a little now and then in removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels and you thereby avoid a multitude of distressing derangements and diseases, and will have less frequent need of your doctor's service.

Of all known agents for this purpose, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best. Once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence their great popularity with sufferers from habitual constipation piles and their attendant discomfort and manifold derangements. The "Pellets" are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. No care is required while using them; they do not interfere with the diet, habits or occupation and produce no pain, griping or shock to the system. They act in a mild, easy and natural way and there is no reaction afterward. Their help lasts.

The Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, windy belchings, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. In proof of their superior excellence, it can be truthfully said, that they are always adopted as a household remedy after the first trial. Put up in sealed, glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, or to relieve distress from overeating, take one after dinner. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them.

Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.

A Campaign Lie.

The statement of one J. D. Hardy, chairman of the Republican congressional executive committee, in the Cleburne Plow Boy, that he had "reliable information" that the Democratic chairman, Dr. Ayers, has been to Talladega county trying to get the managers to prostitute their high office and defeat the will of the people by stuffing the ballot boxes of that county in favor of the Democratic candidate, is a campaign lie manufactured out of the whole cloth.

I not only did not try to get the managers of Talladega county to stuff the ballot boxes in favor of the Democratic candidate, but never had any conversation whatever with any of the managers of that county in reference to the management of the election. Not only did not have any conversation with any inspector as to how the election should be managed, but have never known who was appointed managers of the election at a single voting place in Talladega county. I not only did not talk to any of the managers in Talladega county, but never by request, or suggestion, to any living man, did I ask for any other than a fair and honest election in every county in the Fourth District, and J. D. Hardy, or any other man, who makes a statement to the contrary simply lies, and that is all there is in it. Never in my life have I been a party to any fraud in the management of an election. Never have I failed to speak out in favor of a free ballot and a fair count. My course during the recent campaign was not different from what it has always been heretofore, for I have not only advised in favor of fair elections, but frequently for the past two months have spoken through the press and condemned the ballot box stuffer, and urged that our elections in Alabama should be fairly and honestly conducted. And further, never in my life have I stooped so low as to start a campaign lie at an hour so late that it could not be corrected before the day of the election, as has J. D. Hardy in this instance.

T. W. Ayers, Chm'n.
Dem. Ex. Com. Fourth District.

PROBABLY no canvass was ever made under so many disadvantages as was that of the Democratic canvass in the Fourth District this year. In the first place, the low price of cotton, the scarcity of money, the dissatisfaction over Mr. Cleveland's financial views, and the failure of the last congress to pass a bill for the free coinage of silver, had prejudiced many voters in all the districts against the Democratic party; and then we had added to these, the fact that considerable division and disgust had been created among Democrats of the district before Mr. Robbins' nomination, and his nomination was made so late that it was impossible to make a thorough or satisfactory canvass of the district. The time which had to make the the canvass, gave him only two to three days in each of the counties, and of course it was impossible for him to make a satisfactory canvass in that length of time. Then he was opposed by a man who had a barrel of money, which he used freely. Under all the circumstances, Mr. Robbins is to be congratulated for the splendid fight he made, and for the victory which he has achieved.

WE would be glad to see Messrs. Kelly and Scarbrough, Calhoun's two able Representatives, lead the fight in the legislature to place the necessary legal restrictions in the management of our primaries to insure fair and honest returns.

WE notice that P. B. Brown is being spoken of as a suitable man to be elected as Anniston's next mayor. He is a gentleman of fine business qualifications, is affable and gathers around him close personal friends, and is just such a man as would make the Model City a model mayor. If he enters the race and needs any votes outside of Anniston, we will give him a big vote in Jacksonville.

SEVERAL years ago it was all the Democratic party in Alabama could do to hold its hand with the Republicans, but now it is able to come out on top even when the Republicans are reinforced by a large vote from the Populists. The Democratic party is in the saddle in the South, and there it will continue so long as there is any Republican party left to fight.

As we will have no more elections for two years, we should all forget political differences for the present and go to work to build up the material interest of the State of Alabama. More well decided efforts to better our condition and less politics and we will become more prosperous.

WHEN it comes to the election of a United States Senator two years hence, Alabama will no doubt do just what the legislature of Georgia did last week,—elect a senator who favors the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1 without waiting for an international agreement.

THE legislature will assemble in Montgomery next Tuesday. One of the most important things which this legislature will do, will be the election of John T. Morgan to the United States Senate.

As was expected, the negroes in nearly every county in the State of Alabama voted solidly for the Republican candidate for congress.

Biographical.

Phena Sims was born in Henry County Georgia, November the second, 1847.

She was converted and joined the Baptist church in July 1866.

Was happily married to H. T. Francis, November the twenty first, 1872.

Died at two o'clock a. m. October the seventeenth 1894: and was laid to rest in the cemetery at Jacksonville Ala., October the eighteenth 1894.

This brief record encloses a life of exceptional beauty, purity and usefulness.

Called in the zenith of life, ere her work seemed finished here, we are solaced with the thought "That life is long which answers life's great end" and feel that death with her was but a step into a new, eternal day which knows no darkness.

In her new sphere perchance she will finish her blessed work on earth.

"For who knows—if good deeds could all be traced to their source—how much of charity, mercy and purified affection, have their growth in dusty graves?"

In the lives of her dear children, her fond husband, loving sisters and many friends may her virtues live again and make the dark path of Death, a shining way to heaven.

A heart broken sister writes "Though she lived not long; she lived well. Her devotion to her husband and children was beautiful indeed. Her leading characteristics were her devotion to duty and her faithfulness in little things."

The testimony of those who knew her best is that her character answered to the highest ideal of moral excellence—that she was a woman of the highest type.

Highly educated and refined yet modest and retiring, she was too noble for calumny, too rich in love for envy or jealousy, too trusting and confiding for suspicion, and possessed withal, sympathies warm abounding and catholic.

Overflowing the sacred boundary of home, her kindly sympathy reached out to all, especially to the needy and suffering around her.

Religion is the germ from which grew all these fruits of a consecrated life.

It is well for the church and the world to pause at such graves and note the silent potency of a sanctified home life. What would the world be without their influence.

Though missed by all, her loss is most felt in the charmed circle of her refined christian home. What a sad sunless day for the soul when we return from the grave and again enter the home where the loved one was the centre and charm of the circle!

Oh! for an Angel's ear to catch the symphony in this seeming discord of God's providence:

"Experience, like a pale musician holds
A dulcimer or psaltery in hand;
Whereto sometimes we can not understand
Of God's will in the worlds, the strain unfolds
In sad perplexed minors.
We murmur—"Where is any certain time
Of measured music in such notes as these?
But Angels leading from their golden seat
Are not so minded. Their fine ear hath won
The issue of completed cadences—

A FRIEND.

Complimentory to Mr. Robbins.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 7, '94—

It is a great pleasure to know that my old home, the Fourth Alabama District, has elected Hon. Gaston A. Robbins to serve another term in Congress, and I am satisfied that the good people of this district will never regret his election.

Mr. Robbins has established a record in congress that the Fourth may truly be proud of. He was never known to dodge an issue and voted on every question that arose in the House of Representatives. His strenuous work in behalf of silver and the repeal of the state bank tax and other measures so exceedingly odious to the South, is known and appreciated by us all. His unselfish devotion and untiring energy in the interest of his constituency was shown during those sweltering summer months of 1893 when he remained in Washington at his post of duty procuring federal patronage for his people and endeavoring to have the republican encumbents turned out of office to make room for the "worthy," while other members were away at the seashore or cooling in some mountain's shade. He has always dealt fairly, impartially and honorably every particular with his constituents, and I am glad to know the good Democrats of the Fourth District have shown there appreciation for his efficient work in congress by giving him an indorsement.

ALEX GIBSON.

How It Works.

Our Business Budget, a leading St. Louis trade journal, has the following:

A southern banker astonished a group of northern men by telling them that there are 215 cotton factories in North and South Carolina.

"You mean in the entire South," suggested one.

"No," said the other, "I mean in the two Carolinas. I know it because I had occasion to send out circulars to them recently and obtained a list of them. It was a revilation to me. The fact is, the census of 1890 is already out of date, so far as southern development is concerned. In 1890 we had 254 cotton mills in the southern states, representing an investment of $61,124,096. Now we have 495 cotton mills costing $97,000,000. This growth of manufacturing in the south is bringing us an influx of bankers from the north. Only a week ago I had an inquiry from a northwestern banker who wanted a location south where he could use $25,000 capital to advantage."

Grand Jury Report.

Circuit Court, Fall Term, 1894.

To the Hon. L. F. Box, Judge Presiding:

We the Grand Jury, sworn and empaneled at this term by your honor:

After having completed our labors beg leave to make the following as our final report.

1st. We have examined the books of the County officers, to-wit:

The County Treasurer's books we find are kept in a plain neat style, we find his vouchers and books all corresponding, and are correct as far as we could ascertain from the limited time we had to give them.

We also find the books of the Probate Judge neatly kept and the fee books are correct as far as we could ascertain.

The Sheriff's and the County Superintendent's books were also neat and correctly kept as far as we could ascertain.

We have examined the jail and find it kept in good order except the process for disposing of the offal is not sufficient. We think it best for the health of the prisoners to run water through the building to dispose of the waste.

We also visited the poor houses. We found the house for the white people in good condition except the roof, we found that the house leaks in nearly every room.

We recommend that the commissioners see to this and have roof fixed so it will not leak; as said leaks will if not attended to cause considerable damage to the house.

We find the inmates of the house well satisfied saying they had plenty of food and all other necessary attention. We find 9 inmates at the white poor house.

We found the house for the colored people in good condition, except roof and lights which will be fixed at once so we were informed. We found 7 inmates at this house. all seemed well satisfied and well cared for.

We have examined the bonds of the county officers, We recommend that the County Treasurer make a new bond as two of his bondsmen are dead. We think the bond of G. W. Gilmer insufficient, also the bond of A. N. Ward. We find one security on the bond of H. C. Weaver is dead, also the bond of J. W. Carrol we find insufficient, and we recommend the forgoing officers be required to make new bonds.

We have investigated seventy different cases, and found thirty three true bills the majority of cases we have investigated are misdemeanors.

We extend our thanks to his Honor L. F. Box, for his able counsel and courtesy shown to our body, also to the Solicitor for his kindness courtesy and his able counsel.

We also to extend our thanks to the Sheriff and his deputies for their kind and courtious attention. Also to the door keeper for his faithfulness.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welshton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhœa of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by.*

Guaranteed Cure.

We authorize our advertised druggists to sell Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Cough, and Colds, upon this condition. If you are afflicted with a Cough, Cold or any Lung, Throat or Chest trouble, and will use this remedy as directed, giving it a fair trial, and experience no benefit, you may return the bottle and have your money refunded. We could not make this offer and we not know that Dr. King's New Discovery could be relied on. It never disappoints. Trial bottles free at the drug stores. Large size 50c and $1 2

Fair Elections.

There is a growing sentiment in every State in the Union in favor of fair elections. In discussing this question for the State of Georgia, the Atlanta Constitution, says:

"It is gratifying to know that several bills have already been introduced in the general assembly looking to the enactment of a general registration law for the state, and also of a measure which will reduce the possibility of fraud at the ballot-box to a minimum. Probaly no system can be devised which will guarantee an absolutely fair election and count, because there will always be a few things in every community who will be willing to perjure themselves and risk the penitentiary for a few dollars. The way to meet this class is for the state to provide adequate punishment for every man guilty of either fraudulent voting or counting of returns, and when a few such have been put in stripes it will be found that ballot box thievery will not increase in popularity.

Georgia is the most progressive, the most liberal and the most advanced of any of the southern states. She cannot afford to let it be said that there is a state in the union where the protection of a citizen's life, his property or the purity of the ballot is more certain than in Georgia. Public sentiment demands fair elections in Georgia, and it expects the general assembly now in session to pass a non-partisan, honest election law which will permit every qualified voter to cast his ballot, and none others, and will guarantee an honest count and a fair return of every precinct vote in the state The democrats have nothing to fear from such a measure, nor have the republicans or the populist any thing to gain or to loose by it. No party can stand against fair elections and public sentiment in Georgia demands that not another election in this state shall take place under the present inefficient and inadequate laws by which the state are now conducted.

The first steps toward a pure ballot is a uniform registration law, which will provide: First, that a list of the registered voters of every county shall be made from the tax-books, by proper authorities and under proper conditions, a reasonable time before every election; second, that voters, shall exercise the right of suffrage only in the precinct of their residence; third, that election managers shall be governed entirely by the registration list in receiving ballots; fourth, that the election manager, or managers, receiving ballots, or counting them, except as provided by law, shall be guilty of a misdeamor and punished accordingly; fifth, that every man who is guilty of fraudulent voting, or of abetting fraud at the ballot box, shall be liable to confinement in the state penitentiary.

These conditions are reasonable and they would go a long way towards assuring an honest election and a fair count.

It is with much pleasure that we note the interest of leading members of the general assembly in this subject, and the fact that several bills have been introduced, seeking to correct existing irregularities in our election laws, gives assurance that the legislature is in earnest and that the agitation will materialize in satisfactory legislation.

The democratic members of the general assembly now in session can leave no better memorials of their work on the statutes than by the enactment of an election law which will render inviolable the sanctity of the ballot in Georgia.

God grant that the legislature may have the manhood to do its duty. We believe it has and that the people will be entirely satisfied with its work."

For a pain in the side or chest there is nothing so good as a piece of flanel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of pain. It affords prompt and permanent relief and if used in time will often prevent a cold from resulting in pneumonia. This same treatment is a sure cure for lame back. For sale by dealers.

CITY COURT.

Grand Jury Organized and at Work One Case Today.

The grand jury for the fall term of the city court was organized and put to work this morning.

It consists of Messrs. W. E. Melton, W. E. Warnock, G. T. Anderson, W. M. Rhodes, W. C. Borders, J. W. Clardy, A. M. Hinds, S. L. Sharp, Jas. R. Draper, O. E. Ansley, S. G. Armentrout, A. B. Self, O. M. Bagley, E. P. Cooper T. W. Massey.

Gen. Anderson was made foreman.

Judge Lapsley's charge was a brief but an able one. It embraced the usual features, including violation of the election laws, and he also called attention to the buying of county script by outsiders.

Bailff R. E. Johnson and F. C. Bryan are in attendance upon the grand jury which is holding it,s sessions at the city court room.

The case of Corning Land and Loan company vs, W. S. Witham is set for trial this afternoon and all others continued until next week.

The petit jiries have been relieved until next week, also, except jury No. 1, which consists of Messrs. W. R. Anderson, L. B. Miskelly, T. M. Henderson, T. D. Bynum, J. M. Mims; J. G. Brimer, W. F. Hanna, N. B. Ballad, M. Applegate, M. F. Humphries, J. E. Johnson and W. P. Bright. — Hot Blast.

A copy of the minutes of the fifth annual Convention of the Calhoun County Sunday School Association has been received. From it we see that a larger delegation than ever before was in attendance, and that almost every nook and corner of the county was represented. Only a few of the many good papers and speeches that were given at the convention are published, but that could not be done, so the minutes state, without incuring a debt, and that should never be done.

The organization itself is the best one that any county in the south today has. The Beats have a separate organization; then a number of Beats are united and form Districts, five in number; and then the county organization. This is strictly an interdenominational work. Each denomination has representation upon the Executive Committee, and the Committees of management. Each church is urged to have a denominational school, but all communities when that is impossible, then all Christians are urged to come together and form a union school. By this manner all localities will be able to have a Sunday School where the people can study the bible.

In the localities where most interest has been taken the people are becoming aroused most to the study of Gods word. In many places the house to house canvass has been made and now the home department is being pressed. This will give all an oppertunity of studying the bible whether able to attend the regular sunday school or not.

There has been two thousand copies of these minutes published and if any one should fail to get a copy one may be obtained by addressing a card to Mr. S. A. Russell, Anniston, Alabama.

Primary Elections.

We do not believe that in any other way can a nomination be made which is so likely to express the will of the people as by a primary election when fairly conducted. But, unless some law is enacted to throw around primaries safe guards against the ballot box stuffer, and the man who would deposit more than one ballot, we can have no more guarantee that the will of the people will be expressed by the ballot at the primary than in the convention with the tricks and trades of the politician.

As a nomination in many instances is equivalent to an election, it is as important that the will of the people should be ascertained in the nomination of candidates as in the general election.

We do not question but a very large majority of the people prefer a primary election to a convention. Therefore, we believe that one of the best things the legislature of Alabama can do this year will be to pass a law throwing around primaries such restrictions as will insure fair and honest management as the voice of the people will be recorded in every nomination made by a primary election.

Give us such a law for the management of our primaries as no man will dare commit a fraud, and our nominations will be acceptable to the people.

Give us the numbered ballot, or some other plan by which a contest can be instituted and it can be ascertained just how every ballot was cast.

Our law makers have not failed to hear the mutterings of the people against the failure of our conventions to voice the preference of the people. They have not failed to notice the discontent and restlessness which now prevails. They should not decline to do all in their power to put an end to the mutterings which are now heard, and to allay the political restlessness and discontent which exists, and we believe the assurance that our primaries in the future will be fairly conducted, will be a long stride in the desired direction.

We believe this a most important question to Alabama at present, and hope to see the legislature take it in hand promptly and pass such a law as no man will dare commit a fraud in the management of our primaries.

SINCE today ends the election the political liar should get on the stool of repentance and make atonement for his political sins, for the people have become very tired, of dirty politics, and they will see to it two years hence that such are left in the rear. We must have decent politics or do worse.—Gadsden Times.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND'S failure to support the Democratic ticket in New York cannot be defended even by his greatest admirers. A good Democrat never sulks and goes into winter quarters just because he can't have things his own way.

If the legislature will submit a change to the constitution of Alabama so as to have our State election every four years instead of every two, we believe it will be adopted. The people are thoroughly tired of so many elections.

THE man who will start a campaign lie just before the election, will stuff a ballot box, or do any other mean trick in the management of an election.

NO more elections for two years, for which the people will no doubt feel thankful.

The Republican.

B. T. W. AYERS.

The Result.

A political cyclone struck the Democratic party last Tuesday and swept it out of power both in the House and the Senate.

The Republicans carried things their way in all sections except the South. And it now appears that even the solid South is broken by the election of H. Clay Evans, Republican, as Governor of Tennessee. The South also loses several congressmen, and majorities are reduced in nearly all the districts.

The Democratic majority of ninety in the house of representatives has been swept out of existence, and the Republicans will have a majority over the Democrats and Populists of 122 in the next house, and will elect czar Tom Reed as speaker.

Alabama elects a solid Democratic delegation except in the Seventh District, where Howard defeats Denson.

Georgia is solidly Democratic, and elects all her Democratic nominees. So does South Carolina. Democrats did well in the South, and there will be but few Democrats in the next house other than those from the South.

In the present congress the Democrats have eleven out of the twenty-two congressmen from Illinois. Last Tuesday we elected only two congressmen from that state. At present we have thirteen from Indiana, and we get none from that State in the next congress. New York not only gave 130,000 majority to Morton for Governor, but reduced the number of Democratic congressmen from nineteen to six. Kentucky sends four Republicans against one in the present congress. And so it went.

Among the Democratic congressmen defeated are some of the most prominent. Conspicuous among whom are Wilson of West Virginia, Outhwaite, Bland, Cummings, Hatch, Springer, Tracey, Bynum, and the father in the house and the watch-dog of the treasury, William S. Holman of Indiana.

Not only have the Democrats suffered, but the Poplists have practically been swept out of existence. They will have only six members in the next house. Jerry Simpson and Davis and all the Populists leaders have been shelved to make room for Republicans. They will not be known in the future, and certainly no help can be expected from the six Populists elected. While the Populists were helping the Republicans in the South, the Republicans in the Northwest were beating the life out of the Populists.

The next senate will be Republican by the Democrats losing the legislature in New Jersey, West Virginia and Kansas.

Many reasons are assigned for the Democratic defeat. Some say it is due to the failure of the Democratic party to keep the pledges made in the Chicago platform.

Others say it is due to the passage of the new tariff bill, and that this is only another instance of the fact that in the history of this country no party in power has ever passed a tariff law without being removed from power at the next election. Vice-President Stevenson gives the following as his opinion as the causes of the Democratic defeat:

"My opinion can be briefly stated. The result is due in part to the financial depression which came upon the country soon after the inauguration of Mr. Cleveland. While the democrats were in no way responsible for this, they were made the scapegoat. It was also in part due to the delay of congress in passing the tariff bill. Had the bill become a law ninety days earlier than it did, it is quite probable that the business conditions of the country would have so adjusted themselves that the political result would have been different."

Let the causes be what they may, one thing is certain: the Democratic party ought to redeem every pledge it made the people in the Chicago platform. It has yet until the 4th of next March to redeem its pledges, and before that day it should repeal the ten per cent on State banks and pass a bill for the free and unlimited coinage of silver. There is no longer any sense in talking about the Democrats securing an international agreement. They have only until the 4th of March in which to do any work and should give the people the needed legislation on silver without further delay.

The Result in Calhoun.

Calhoun cast the largest Republican vote last Tuesday by a very large majority she every cast. Heretofore, the Republican vote in his county has been cast by the negroes and a few white men. But on last Tuesday several hundred white men marched to the polls and cast their first Republican ballot. These were men who all their lives have fought the Republican party and looked upon it as the enemy of the South, and while they cast a ballot in favor of the election of a life-long Republican, we know that many of them do not indorse the principles of the Republican party. They were led to the extreme of voting the Republican ticket in order to condemn what they consider a wrong done the Jeffersonians or Populists in the last two State elections. As to what party these men in the future will affiliate with, remains to be seen.

While the Democratic majority was not as large in the county as we expected, the vote cast for Aldrich was not larger than our estimate. The fall off in the majority which we expected, was due to the fact that a large number of Democrats did not go to the polls. As has always been the case when no other election was held in connection with the congressional election, a small vote was polled. In the State election there were 4614 votes cast in the county, while last Tuesday the total vote was only 3592. In August Kolb received 2672, while Tuesday Aldrich received only 1449. It is well known that Aldrich received more negro votes than Kolb received. It is therefore evident, that a large per cent of the Jeffersonians in Calhoun were not willing to go back on their life record and the teachings of their fathers and cast a vote in the interest of the party which is the known enemy of the South.

The Democrats of the county who neglected to go to the polls are responsible for the small majority. If all had done their duty, the majority in the county would not have been less than one thousand.

The unofficial vote cast by beats is as fowllows:

BEAT—	Robbins	Aldrich
1 Jacksonville	165	108
2 Alexandria	115	122
3 June Bug	72	68

It seems that neither the Democrats or Populists got to the polls in many of the States last Tuesday. It was unquestionably a Republican day, and the Dems and Pops were not in it.

The Democratic party just now is slightly disfigured, but will be in the ring two years hence.

FOR ROBBINS.

HE WON BY 2263.

The Fourth District to Again be Represented by a Democrat.

The people of the Fourth District have again spoken and the verdict is that they are again to be represented in Congress by a Democrat.

They are not yet ready to put aside a Democratic Representative who has been true to himself, true to his constituents, true to his country, and take in his stead a life long Republican.

While Mr. Robbins majority is large enough, yet the full Democratic strength of the District was not polled by several thousand votes. An extremely light vote was polled in every county. Considerable apathy existed in every county for the reason that Democrats considered Mr. Robbins election certain.

Robbins is not only elected, but he has a sufficient number of votes obtained under a free ballot and a fair count to hold his seat after any honorable and fair investigation has been had of the votes he received.

Mr. Robbins carried Calhoun by 396 majority, and Dallas by 3900 majority.

Aldrich carried Chilton by 526 majority; Cleburne by 115 majority; Shelby by 700 majority; Talladega by 692 majority.

The election in all the counties of the District passed off quietly, and no serious trouble had at any of the voting places, except at Harpersville, Shelby county. Here the Republicans kicked at the election managers and wanted to instal John S. Pitts as clerk and J. Sanderson as fixer. M. E. Bates, a Democrat, who was returning officer, tried to quell the disturbance when about forty armed Republicans rushed in to take charge of the booths. Shooting then began, Bates was shot and died, Pitts and a negro were also shot but not fatally.

The vote in the two adjoining counties, Cleburne and Talladega, we give by Beats, as it will be appreciated by many of the readers of the Republican.

In Talladega, as in Calhoun, the full vote was not polled, and we learn in many precincts little interest was manifested. The county went Republican, as will be seen from the following table:

BEAT—	ROBBINS	ALDRICH
1 Lincoln	60	219
2 Eastaboga	53	165
3 Silver Run	19	149
4 Chinnabee	108	81
5 Talladega	385	317
6 Mardisville	81	104
7 Cast's	64	92
8 Kymulga	35	156
9 Wewoka	90	100
10 Fayetteville	91	202
11 Sylacauga	172	132
12 Childersburg	144	124
13 Emerbee	20	45
14	39	32
15 Kentuck	9	51
16 Mt. Vernon	5	17
17 Howell's Cove	32	189
18 Munford	151	85
Total—	156	2259

While the Democrats lost Cleburne, they made a good fight. The Democratic fight in Cleburne was led by Judge T. J. Burton, to whom is due much credit for the splendid work done in that county. The vote by Beats is as follows:

BEAT—	ROBBINS	ALDRICH
1 Hatfields	17	54
2 Oak Level	4	90
3 Muscadine	45	49
4 Edwardsville	81	132

Those who worked in the Fourth District to help the Republicans get control of the next congress, ought to be happy, for the Republicans will have charge of both the House and Senate, and and those who voted the Republican ticket will now probaly get what they voted for.

Who struck Billy Patterson last Tuesday? Many are of the opinion that it was Grover Cleveland.

Four years ago the Republicans gave the Democrats a fearful defeat, two years ago the Democrats cleaned up the earth with Republicans and took every thing in sight; this year the Republicans again got themselves together and nearly wiped the Democrats off the face of the earth; two years hence the Democrats will pick their flint again and elect a free silver President, a free silver House and Senate. Time about you see is fair play.

No party can hope for indorsement from the people when it does not keep its promises. The Democratic party promised the people that it would repeal the ten per cent on State banks, and that it would enact a law for the free and unlimited coinage of silver. If it desires to succeed in 1896 it should fullfill these pledges before the 4th day of March. Plenty of time yet left before the Republicans take charge.

While Calhoun county, the Fourth District, all the state of Alabama except Denson's District, went Democratic, we are not crowing. When we think of these victories, the knowledge of the fact that the Republicans will have control of the next House and Senate cools our enthusiasm.

The Republicans say there will be at least five contests from Alabama in the next congress. The contestants will be Gardner in the Second, Judge Robenson in the Third, W. F. Aldrich in the Fourth, A. T. Goodwyn in the fifth and T. H. Aldrich in the Ninth.

Underwood's majority over Aldrich in the Ninth District is 895. A small vote polled in nearly all the counties of the District, is the reason assigned for the small Democratic majority.

The Republicans with a majority of 122 over both Democrats and Populits will have their own way in the next House, and of course will elect Tom Reed speaker.

The latest reports indicate that California has elected a Democratic Governor. But as all the world has gone Republican we are prepared to see this report contradicted.

It is estimated that Howard's majority in the Seventh over Denson will be 3000. The Democrats refrained from voting

The Circuit Court.

Judge Box adjourned court last Monday afternoon until Wednesday morning, in order that those interested in the court might have an opportunity of going home to vote.

Judge Box left Tuesday at noon, and Judge Bilbro of Gadsden, came over and has been holding the court this week. The following cases have been tried since the last issue of the Republican:

George Hudson. Grand larceny. Guilty.

Mack Johnson. Petty larceny. Guilty.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

On a poll of the grand jury last week only three voted for Aldrich.

Crow Bros. had the misfortune to have their dray horse die last Saturday.

Col. G. C. Ellis has been in Cherokee county this week attending chancery court.

The court this week has not brought a very large crowd of people to town.

Calhoun stood true to her colors. She has never yet gone Republican.

Mrs. J. A. Gaboury and children have gone to Macon, Ga., to spend the winter.

The health of Jacksonville and the surrounding country has been unusually good this year.

Rev. M. H. Lane, D. D., preached for the First Baptist church in Chattanooga last Sunday.

Messrs. W. C. Tunstall, O. Z. Henderson, John Pelham and I. W. Gasser were up from Anniston last Wednesday.

Beat 5 is the banner Democratic beat of the county. It cast only 17 votes for the Republican candidate for congress.

Judge Bilbro has made a very favorable impression in Jacksonville this week while presiding over the circuit court here.

Messrs. Ross Whisenant, Jr., and Don Smyly have gone to Florida, where they will try their fortune in growing oranges.

The Republicans have carried everything in sight and we will now patiently wait for the better times promised us.

There will be preaching at the Baptist church Sunday morning by Rev. M. H. Lane, D. D. Seats free and everybody welcome.

The suit of Mrs Hughes against Dr. Hughes of Piedmont, has been decided by Chancelor McSpadden in favor of the Doctor.

Gen. J. W. Burke and John S. Lane came down from Chattanooga to cast there ballots for their respective favorites for congress.

Hon. L. W. Grant and wife left last Wednesday for Washington. Mr. Grant goes there to accept the appointment given him in the Navy Department.

Henry Reed has five acres in cotton on Dr. Crook's place from which he will get six heavy bales of cotton. He used two hundred pounds of guano to the acre.

Dr. John F. Rowan has gone on a visit to New York. We regret to learn of the illness of Mrs. Rowan's mother at her home in New York city.

The double daily passenger on the East Tennesee is still talked of. A change in the schedule of this road certainly would be welcomed by the people of this community.

Dr. Jno. M. Crook went over to Columbus, Ga., last Wednesday. He will return next week and bring back with him Mrs. Crook and little Agnes, who have been in Columbus for two weeks.

A number of the people of Jacksonville would have gone down to Anniston to hear the Graves lecture if the schedule over the railroad had been so they could have come back the same night.

The group of the grand jury taken by Mr. J. M. House is a splendid piece of work. Families wanting groups taken will do well to call and see him before he leaves Jacksonville.

ALEXANDRIA.

Prof. Persons has moved to Peaceburg to take charge of the school at that place.

Mrs. Draper of Oxford, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. S. L. Green.

Mr. Robert Browning has purchased the Easterwood place near here and will move there soon.

Alexandria now has a flourshing school.

A party of our young men went down to Anniston Saturday night to attend the play "Alabama."

Mr. S. L. Crook and Mr. Faine of Anniston, paid our town a flying visit Sunday afternoon.

Col. Bowman of Birmingham, spent a few hours in our town last Friday the guest of Mr. K. S. Woodruff.

Our farmers have nearly finished gathering the short cotton crop, but owing to the "short" price are not much benefited thereby.

OXFORD

The wedding bells have rung in Oxford an Mr. Lelus Brothers and Miss Pallie Barr have united hands and hearts for weal or woe and set sail to-gether over life's uneven sea. Never was an occasion more propitious for the union of congenial souls. A cloudless day heralded the coming event. The fickle moon with half hidden face put to another earth the pear trimmings to watch the dainty robes of pale pink and blue. The population of the town and surrounding country from the babe on its mother's knee to the decreped invalid were in attendance to witness the interesting event. (census 1890, 1500.) As the beautiful strains of the wedding march burst forth twenty couples, selected on account of beauty and grace from this and neighboring towns, marched gracefully down the isles and surrounded the alter as special bridesmaids and bridesmen.

After the ceremony the bride and groom and special attendants repaired to the home of the bride's father where a delicious repast was served.

The election passed off very quietly here, when the polls were opened the populists demanded a clerk and a fixer and as the democratic managers would not concede this to them most of the populist went to Oxana to vote. The vote in Oxford, Robbins 154, Aldrich 15. While in the beat Robbins majority is only 33.

Oxford has received as high as 300 bales of cotton per day for several days during the past week.

Quite a number of visitors in Oxford this week, most of them in attendance at the wedding.

A large party of Clay county people will take the train at Oxford to-night for a home in Texas.

WHITE PLAINS.

We have had a little stir among the thieves recently. Last Thursday night Jim Alexander and Robt. Houston, cold., hired a wagon and team and drove down the Oxford road about five miles and loaded up with seed cotton which had been picked and left in the fields. They stopped at three different places to make up the load. Jim is now putting up at the county house and Bob is under bond.

There has been a ring of thieves here for some time. We think we are in a fair way to get them.

Strange things continue to happen. The strangest thing which has happened here recently is that Beat 11 has gone Republican.—Fifty-eight negroes and thirty-one Simon pure Jeffersonian, Billy Mahone Democrats voting for Aldrich, giving him the box by a small majority.

At last the lion and the lamb have laid down together; but when they get up, the lamb, oh where will it be?

These 31 are rolling protection under their tongues as a sweet morsel, but it is nothing but the Republican's old quid.

About fifty Jeffersonians and 25 negroes failed to vote, and a few Democrats were too busy to go to the polls.

But now we will take a political rest, and some of us will patiently wait for whoever is elected to make cotton higher and meat lower, money more plentiful, kill hard times and bury the devil.

Two of our young men went to Oxford Tuesday night to see the grand marriage, but couldn't see the marriage for the people.

OHATCHEE.

Quarterly meeting of the M. E. church was held here last Saturday and Sunday by the Presiding Elder, Dr. Slaughter, assisted by Revs. C. A. Allday and V. M. Tumlin. The good sermons which Bro. Tumlin's presence always assures, brought out a large congregation.

Mrs. John Shurbett is still very ill at her home near Ohatchee, but her many friends are glad to hear she is thought to be improving.

The black voting booth, which was called Kolb's coffin, was again in use to bury Aldrich last Tuesday.

TAMPA

Our farmers are still busy picking their cotton and with the fall plowing, but not too busy to talk politics and spend one day to vote for the man of their choice.

Mr. Rhea Pearce and Mrs. J. E. Pearce left Thursday for Fla. The evening before departure Miss Mary Cross gave a "Taffy stretching," where the old folks and young folks all entered into the merriment of the occasion. Some of Jacksonville's fair young girls were present; also some young people from Weaver's Station.

Mr. R. J. Angel is our champion sweet potatoe raiser. One potatoe weighed five pounds and there were several others—almost, if not quite, as large.

Dr. Reagan made a professional visit in Tampa last Saturday.

LADIGA

Winter has at last put in its appearance. The large part of the crops have been gathered, and our farmers are about ready for cold weather. We notice some of them are keeping their cotton for better prices, while most of them are selling as fast as they get it gathered and ginned.

Mr. Love Stewart and family were visitors in Go-hen Valley last Sunday.

J. D. Amberson and wife spent Sunday with relatives at Randle.

Mrs. Jess Smith and her lovely daughter Miss Essie of Randle, were visitors here last week.

Under the skillful treatment of Dr. W. H. Kinebrew, J. C. Graham is rapidly recovering from his recent illness.

Some of our citizens went to Piedmont Saturday night to hear D. D. McLeod, Esq. speak. They report that he made a masterly speech.

H. G. Earnest of Randle, spent this afternoon with J. C. Graham.

Miss Mary Amberson of this place was at Piedmont this week shopping.

J. B. Palmer of Piedmont, was circulating among friends here one day last week.

William White the young man who left last week before the verdict in his case was read, was brought back and placed in jail. The case we learn will have to be tried again at the next term of the court.

Mrs. Wilson has come up from Talladega to spend a few days with her husband, Solicitor Wilson, while he is here attending the session of the circuit court. They are stopping at the Iron Queen.

The tidal wave last Tuesday swept several of our correspondents out for this week. We hope they will recover sufficiently by next week to send the news from their respective communities.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. Large bottles only Fifty cents at the drug stores. 2

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of Mc Kay, Ohio, is of the opinion that their is nothing as good for children troubled with cold or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having la grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

The Sleeping Places.

To The Guide.

With hogs as with other stock quarters is an essential item in securing the best gain at the lowest cost. One of the essential items in making hogs comfortable is good sleeping quarters. These must be dry clean and warm. More or less bedding is necessary in order to make comfortable. In order to secure proper cleanliness it is very essential that the bedding should be changed regularly, taking out the old material and putting in fresh.

One of the best ways of arranging the sleeping quarters is to fill up with soil clay is best, several inches higher than the outside. Then with a good roof one is reasonably sure of having the bed dry and this is the first and most important essential.

It is easier to keep a dry earth floor clean and it makes a more comfortable bed, all things considered, than if made of any other material. If considered necessary it can be sprinkled occasionally with with diluted carbolic acid or copperas water in order to kill out any germs of disease, or slacked lime can be sprinkled over the floor occasionally in order to lessen the opportunity of disease getting a start. Then by changing the bedding sufficiently often to prevent it from becoming too foul much can be done towards maintaining good health.

It is also an item to have good ventilation and at the same time to avoid direct drafts and the more fully this is done the better. Pure air is essential to health, and while warmth is essential to comfort pure air is essential to health and an animal cannot be kept thrifty unless good health is maintained. Give plenty of room. It is of no advantage to crowd the hogs. In fact they cannot be made comfortable if they are crowded in close quarters, either for eating and sleeping and it is better as well a economical to divide up rather than crowd as is too often done. Have the sleeping places roomy Generally it will be best to have them arranged so that the hogs can run in and out at will as at all seasons a well fed hog will want to sleep a good portion of the time, and he wants access to his sleeping quarters at all times.

By taking a little care to look after the sleeping arrangement in good season, a good gain, can be secured at a much less cost.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

Increasing the Value.

If we can discover how to breed and raise horses worth $10 per head more than the average produce of Kansas, and induce the people to use the discovery, the value of the horse stock of the State would be increased $8,000,000. Five dollars per head on the milch cows would be $3,000,000. Five dollars per head on the other cattle would be $8,000,000. Two dollars on the hogs would be over $3,000000. Total, $22,000,000—20 per cent. on the capital. This would be a grand showing, and yet it is within reach. Widespread, intelligent breeding and feeding will do it, said W. B. Sutton in his address before the Kansas Improved Stock Breeders' Association.

We will have accomplished a great work when we have made it clear to every grower of stock that he is richer only by so much as the animal's market value exceeds his cost; and have impressed on all the great truth that the common "crub" very seldom on his market value represents what it has cost to grow him, while most of them represent labor and money thrown away.

In the money received for animals grown on the farm there are a great many parties—selfish, grasping fellows—who take their shares first. There is the State with her taxes; interest on the land that furnishes the pasture and feed; the labor that produces the feed and cares for the animal; the cash often paid for grain and mill stuff; the railroad freights to market. All these and others take their share first, and if anything is left, the owner may possibly get it. If a shortage, he must stand it. The dollars the owner has in the beast are the last ones to come out. There is no pro rata business about it. If improved breeding and feeding add a dollar to the value of the animal, they put that dollar in the owner's pocket.

TO PUT ON needed flesh, no matter how you've lost it, take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It works wonders. By restoring the normal action of the deranged organs and functions, it builds the flesh up to a safe and healthy standard—promptly, pleasantly and naturally. The weak, emaciated, thin, pale and puny are made strong, plump, round and rosy. Nothing so effective as a strength restorer and flesh maker is known to medical science; this puts on healthy flesh not the fat of cod liver oil and its filthy compounds. It rouses every organ of the body to activity, purifies, enriches and vitalizes the blood so that the body feels refreshed and strengthened. If you are too thin, too weak, too nervous, it may be that the food assimilation is at fault. A certain amount of bile is necessary for the reception of the fat foods in the blood. Too often the liver holds back this element which would help digestion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery stimulates, tones up and invigorates the liver, nourishes the blood, and the muscles, stomach and nerves get the rich blood they require.

Spent Hundreds of Dollars with no Benefit.

M. J. COLEMAN of 33 Sargent St., Roxbury, Mass., writes: "After suffering from dyspepsia and constipation with untold agony for at least 18 months, I am more than pleased to say that after using Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and 'Pleasant Pellets' for one month, I was entirely cured, and from that day to this I do not know, thank God, what even a slight headache is. I paid a doctor on Tremont St., Boston, in one day (for his advice only,) the sum of $10.00 with $5.00 for medicine, and derived no benefit. I got more relief in one hour from your medicines, as far as my stomach was concerned, than from all the other medicine I used.

If any person who reads this is suffering from dyspepsia or constipation and will use your medicine as I have done, he will never regret it."

A REPUBLICAN SLIDE.

The Conditions of 1892 Are Reversed in 1894.

THE HOUSE REPUBLICAN, SURE

The Senate May Be in the Same Line—The Solid South Broken—Wilson of West Virginia Beaten—Reed Will Be Speaker Again—The Ways and Means Committee Smashed All to Pieces.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The next national house will be Republican by a good working majority.

The next senate of the United States congress will, perhaps, be Republican.

Tom Reed will be speaker of the next house.

The results, so far, of the election over the country bear out the above statements.

Morton carries New York for governor by about 100,000 plurality over Hill; Strong is elected mayor of New York city over Grant, and the Republicans have won in two-thirds of the congressional districts. It was a genuine landslide in New York. Everything Democratic went to pieces.

In the New England states everything is Republican. Massachusetts sends a solid Republican delegation of 13 to the house. And Connecticut sends a solid Republican delegation.

New Jersey goes overwhelmingly Republican, electing only three Democrats out of eight congressmen, and electing a Republican legislature which chooses a successor to Senator McPherson, Democrat. This will probably mean a Republican senate as well as a Republican house of representatives.

Indeed, the Republicans gain in every eastern state. But the greatest Democratic slump of all is in New York; everything has gone against the party.

From the west comes tidings of no disastrous results to Democracy as the east furnishes. The Republicans have swept over that section with the force of a cyclone.

Indiana, the state of small majorities, has overdone herself in favor of the Republicans this time.

From 30,000 to 50,000 is the size of the Republican majority in Illinois. Here Mr. Springer was turned down. Mr. Cullom will succeed himself in the senate, unless some other Republican wrests the laurel from his brow.

The Republican victory in Michigan is almost unanimous. In Wisconsin and Minnesota, the Republicans swept the day. In Iowa it was all that way, but one Democrat getting in. In the newer states the same condition of affairs exists.

Nebraska is an oasis, showing a condition of affairs that will probably result in Hon. W. J. Bryan being sent to the senate. On the slope, the Republicans seem confident of success all along the line.

The Republicans have carried Wisconsin by at least 80,000, electing Upham governor over Peck, the present incumbent. The Republicans also elected 10 to the Democrats' one congressmen, and carried the state legislature almost entire. No United States senator will be elected in Wisconsin this year.

In the south, the broken front of the Democratic ranks is presented, and Tennessee and West Virginia have gone over to the Republican side. At least it seems so from the very latest returns.

Alabama is solidly Democratic, as are Florida and Mississippi, while two districts in Texas await the official count.

South Carolina has been having a quarrel of her own, resulting in the continued triumph of Governor Tillman, but the ugly threat is made by Dr. Pope that he is intent upon a contest, both state and federal.

In Georgia, all the districts showed up well for Democracy.

The Ninth, Seventh, Fourth and Tenth districts were the ones that were regarded as the weakest Democratic districts in the state, and if there was any fear at all among the party leaders it was hinged upon these districts.

But they all went Democratic.

In the Fourth, Congressman Moses defeated Mr. Thornton, the Populist nominee, by something more than 3,000 majority.

The Seventh district went for Democracy and Congressman Maddox by 1,692, according to the most reliable reports from all the counties in the district. Dr. Felton, who was the populist nominee in the district, carried five out of the 13 counties in the district. His majorities in the district were as follows: Gordon, 150; Bartow, 569; Haralson, 260; Polk 400 and Paulding, 375—total, 1,685.

The result in the tenth was interesting, and the vote in Richmond was surprising, as many as 15,053 votes having been reported from the county alone. Of this number Congressman Black received an overwhelming majority in the county. Hancock was the only other county in the district, however, that went for Black, the majority there being about 1,000. The counties carried by Mr. Watson, the Populist nominee, gave him a total majority of 4,773. The overwhelming vote reported from Richmond and the 1,000 majority for Black in Hancock offsets this total majority for the Populists and gives the district to Black by something more than 5,000 majority.

Maryland joined the Republican procession and will, for the first time in the history of the state, send more Republicans than Democrats to represent her in the halls of congress. Four of the six congressmen elected are Republicans, a net gain of four. Unprecedented gains were also made by the Republicans in other directions, and the first branch of the Baltimore city council will, for the first time, be controlled by the Republicans.

From the southern part of Louisiana there is a story of disaster bound to be heard from in the future, and in Virginia and North Carolina the neck and neck character of the voting was decidedly uncomfortable.

It looks like the Republicans made a fight all along the line against the Democratic members of the ways and means committee. Of the 11 Democrats on that committee only two will be returned to the next house. Five failed of renomination, either voluntarily or involuntarily, and four were defeated in the election. Bunton McMillin, of Tennessee, and Henry G. Turner, of Georgia, are the only two Democrats of this committee who go back to congress.

Former Reports Confirmed.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—A survey of the returns of the election confirms former hasty estimates and partial returns. In the west, the northwest and on the Pacific coast the Republican landslide seems to be overwhelming and, in the southwest, the Republican gains reported are of such magnitude as to suggest almost a revolution.

The only exceptions to the rule appear to be in California and Nevada. In the former, state Democratic candidate for governor, Budd, is apparently in advance of Estee, Republican competitor, although the rest of the Republican state ticket seems to be certain of election.

In Nevada the silver party, which exists as a party in that state only, has, to all appearances, beaten the Republicans, Democrats and regular Populists, electing its state ticket and congressman. There is also an element of doubt in Nebraska where the election of Mayor (Jo n) over Holcomb (Pop. Dem.) is by no means assured.

With these exceptions, however, the tide of Republican success appears to be overwhelming. Ohio has given the largest Republican majority in its history, wiping out not only the McKinley plurality of 85,000, but going above the high water mark set by John Brough in 1863 of 101,000. It is thought that the official returns will show a Republican plurality of 140,000 to 150,000.

Colorado has repudiated Populist doctrine and swung back into the Republican column, electing a full Republican ticket and both congressmen.

Kansas, too, has returned to Republican faith, and Jerry Simpson is buried in a landslide along with the other Populist candidates.

Wisconsin has reversed her verdict of two years ago, and has elected a Republican state government and 9 out of 10 congressmen of the same political faith.

In Illinois, the Democrats have met a crushing defeat; not only has the state shown a preference for Republican candidates as expressed by some 40,000 or 50,000 plurality, but the congressional delegation has been turned over almost bodily to the Republicans, William M. Springer going down with his party in the Seventeenth district.

The city of Chicago, too, has cast 25,000 plurality against the Democrats, the legislature is Republican on a joint ballot, and the result of the balloting is a complete reversal of the political situation.

Indiana is full fashion, too. Returns are incomplete, but there seems little reason to doubt that the Republican state ticket will have from 20,000 to 25,000 plurality, and the victors will gain four congressmen. It is significant of the general upset that the election of Hon. William Holman in the Fourth district is more than doubtful, and the Republicans claim that the official count will retire the great objector from the national legislature.

Minnesota is Republican by 30,000 to 40,000 plurality, Nelson winning against the Democrats and Populists.

Michigan gives a Republican plurality of 40,000, and unless the official count changes the outlook greatly, the entire congressional delegation will be Republican.

Practically the same may be said of Iowa, although the Democrats of the Hawkeye state have a prospect of saving one congressman, Hayes, in the Second district.

The state of Washington is Republican by 9,000 to 10,000 plurality, including a congressman.

Idaho's contribution to the landslide is 25,000 plurality and a congressman from that state.

North Dakota has endorsed the Republican ticket by from 1,000 to 3,000 plurality, and in the territory of Oklahoma the Republicans have elected a delegate to congress by a plurality of 2,500.

So much for the states with Republican pluralities running to those which retain their allegiance to Democracy, there are still evidences of a prevailing trend of political opinion.

The Other Side.

In Kentucky it is possible and even probable that Ashland district, heretofore a bulwark of Democracy, will be represented in the Fifty-fourth congress by Mr. Denny, Republican. This will, however, be due more to the disaffection of Breckinridge Democrats than to any growth of Republican sentiment.

In Louisiana Democratic pluralities have been cut down to such an extent that the Republicans claim two congressmen, whether upon good grounds or not the official count will determine.

Tennessee is all mixed up. There are conflicting claims as to congressmen, and even the result of the gubernatorial contest appears to be involved in some doubt, owing to serious defections in middle Tennessee. It can hardly be doubted, however, that the returns will show the election of Turney by a safe plurality.

Down in Texas the Republicans for the first time have made the fight with the hope of winning, and, as the result, two congressional districts, the Tenth and Twelfth, are in doubt.

In Missouri a prevailing "drift" is manifest in reduced Democratic pluralities for the state ticket and the claims of Republicans that they will gain one or two congressmen.

Mississippi appears to have the lonesome distinction of standing firm in the Democratic fairly. She will elect all the candidates of that party by practically normal majorities.

Montana has not been heard from other than in a vague and indefinite way. The people of that state are interested in the state capital question more than anything else, but such returns as have been received indicate the election of Hunt, Republican, for supreme court justice, and Hartman of the same party for congress. This completes the list, and it is not likely that the situation outlined will be changed materially by the official count.

The Populist vote which was an uncertain quantity before the election cut a very poor figure generally. In Illinois, it probably contributed something to the defeat of the Democrats, although it is doubtful if the result would have been changed had that party not been in the field. In Kansas and Colorado it is evident that Populism is on the wane, while in Minnesota, the strong fight made by Owen for the governorship, indicates that the propaganda has taken a strong hold. In other states the Populists did not seem to cut much of a figure, and the expectation that there would be increased representation of that body in the next congress has proved to be mistaken.

The Prohibitionists showed their usual small strength, and the much discussed A. P. A. influence has apparently vanished into thin air. It was not in evidence to any perceptible extent anywhere throughout the west.

The whole verdict of the election seems to be that the two great parties were squarely opposed to each other, and that the Republicans got the most votes. Side issues and new parties had little or no influence on the result.

How It Looks in Kentucky.

LEXINGTON, Nov. 7.—The tidal wave struck Kentucky with considerable force. The Democrats lost heavily in many sections. Returns indicate the probable election of six Democratic and five Republican congressmen as follows:

First district, John K. Hendricks, Democrat; Second, John D. Clardy, Democrat; Third, C. U. McElroy, Democrat; Fourth, John W. Lewis, Republican; Fifth, Walter Evans, Republican; Sixth, Albert S. Berry, Democrat; Seventh, George Denny, Republican; Eighth, James B. McCreary, Democrat; Ninth, Samuel Pugh, Republican; Tenth, Joe M. Kendall, Democrat; Eleventh, D. G. Colson, Republican.

The Democrats have probably elected all four judges of the court of appeals.

Ashland, Breckinridge's old district, has turned down W. C. Owens, the Democratic nominee, and George Denny the Republican candidate, is elected.

News from St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 7.—The entire Republican city ticket with three exceptions were elected. The entire Democratic state ticket was successful throughout by a plurality of about 15,000. Missouri's congressional delegation in the next congress will stand: First district, William Hatch, Democrat; Second, U. S. Hall, Democrat; Third, A. M. Dobkery, Democrat; Fourth, G. C. Crowther, Republican; Fifth, J. C. Tarsney, Democrat; Sixth, D. A. Darmend, Democrat; Seventh, John F. Head, Democrat; Eighth, R. P. Bland, Democrat; Ninth, Champ Clark, Democrat; Tenth, R. Bartholdt, Republican; Eleventh, Charles F. Joy, Republican; Twelfth, J. W. Cobb, Democrat; Thirteenth, J. D. Fox, Democrat; Fourteenth, Marnold, Democrat; Fifteenth, C. H. Morgan, Democrat.

New Hampshire's Election.

CONCORD, Nov. 7.—The election in this state passed off very quietly, and with the entire absence of any excitement in any locality. The predictions of the Republicans that they would poll a heavy vote, and that many Democrats would stay away from the polls, was carried out. The returns have come in slowly, but almost without exception show heavy Republican gains.

Busiel, Republican, has been elected governor by 6,000 plurality; Sullowey, Republican, elected congressman in the First district by 3,000 majority; Baker, Republican, has been re-elected in the Second district by 3,000 majority. The Republicans have also carried four of the five councilor districts, and 17 of the 24 senatorial districts, and will have 75 majority in the house of representatives. They have also carried 9 of the 10 counties of the state.

Tom Johnson Defeated.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 7.—The latest advices received from the state indicate that the Republicans have elected their candidates for congress in every district in Ohio with the exception of the Third, where Paul J. Sorg (Dem.) has been elected, and in the Fourth where the result is still in doubt. The Republicans will have 19 and possibly 20 members in the next congress from Ohio. In Cleveland the Republicans elect the entire county and city ticket without a single exception by surprisingly large gains and pluralities. Tom Johnson, Democrat, is defeated by Theodore E. Burton, Republican, who has a plurality of 4,662.

Delaware's Full Count.

WILMINGTON, Nov. 7.—Delaware is complete as follows: Newcastle county, 950 Republican majority; Kent, 100 Democratic majority; Sussex, 350 Republican majority; net Republican majority, 1,200. The Republicans elect governor and congressman and local tickets in two counties. The next legislature will stand: Senate, 8 Democrats and 4 Republicans. House, 14 Republicans and 7 Democrats. Joint ballot, 18 Republicans and 12 Democrats. This insures a Republican successor to United States Senator Higgins.

Governor White Defeated.

DENVER, Nov. 7.—Returns are in from less than one-third of the precincts in this city with Republican strongholds yet to be heard from. The majority for McIntyre for governor over Waite is 9,030. Returns from the state outside of Denver are very meagre, but those so far received indicate that McIntyre is elected, and the entire Republican state ticket elected by 15,000 or 20,000 plurality. The Republicans claim to have carried even Cripple Creek district, which was expected to give a large majority for Waite.

Will Contest in Louisiana.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.—Republicans admit that the Democratic candidates in six Louisiana districts will receive certificates. Buck, in the Second district, is elected by 7,000 majority; Meyer, in the First, by an equal majority; Price, in the Third, will have 5,000 votes to spare. The returns practically insure the election of Boatner in the Fifth, Ogden in the Fourth, and Robertson in the Sixth, over their Populist opponents. The Republicans will contest the First, Second and Third districts in the city region.

Twenty Thousand in La Una.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—The Republicans elect the state ticket by at least 20,000 majority, and elect congressmen in the Sixth, Seventh, Tenth and Eleventh and probably the Fifth and Thirteenth districts—a Republican gain of 6.

There are not enough returns from the legislature to indicate the result in the state. The Republicans gain six members of the assembly in this county, Marion, and claim 55 in the state. The Democrats will probably have a majority in the senate.

Idaho Is Close.

BOISE, Nov. 7.—A large vote was polled in this state. The Democrats concede that Wilson, Republican, has been elected to congress. Careful estimates give the state to the Republican by 2,000 majority for the entire state ticket. The legislature will be close, although probably Republican. Senator Shoup will probably be elected.

All Democrats in Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, Nov. 7.—The return from the election in this state indicate the election of all the Democratic nominees. The Republicans were very active in the Fourth and Ninth districts, but Robbins and Underwood have good majorities. In the Fifth, Cobb beat Goodwyn, leader of the Populists.

Huling's Elect on Conceded.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 7.—The indications are that James H. Huling, Republican candidate for congress, is elected over John D. Anderson, Democrat, by 1,000 plurality. The Republicans claim 2,000. The Democratic executive, however, has not yet conceded Huling's election.

Indiana May Lose All.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Partial returns from Indiana indicate that the state has gone Republican by at least 50,000. The Republican state committee say it will not be surprised if the plurality reaches 70,000. Indications are that Indiana Republicans elect 11 and possibly all 13 congressmen.

Republic as Will Take Wyoming Solid.

CHEYENNE, Nov. 7.—The meager returns so far received indicate the election of the entire Republican state ticket, of Mundell, Republican, for congress, and of a majority in the legislature, which will elect two United States senators.

Evans Carries Tennessee.

CHATTANOOGA, Nov. 7.—Chairman Carroll of the Democratic state committee, telegraphed H. Clay Evans his congratulations, and concedes his election by at least 5,000.

To Contest Tarney's Seat.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 7.—R. T. Van Horn (Republican) concedes the election of J. C. Tarsney (Democrat) to congress from the Fifth district, but claims fraud and will contest the election in the house.

Pennsylvania's Republican Plurality.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Careful estimates from 67 counties give Hastings, (Republican) for governor, a plurality of 10,595. Complete returns will in all likelihood increase these figures.

Senator Faulkner's Concession.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Democratic congressional committee, concedes the house to the Republicans by 65 to 70 plurality.

Wilson Is Badly Beaten.

WHEELING, W. Va., Nov. 7.—A special to the Evening News says: Dayton's majority is still growing and he will probably defeat William L. Wilson by 500.

Mississippi's Seven Democrats.

JACKSON, Nov. 7.—Word comes from the seven congressional districts that seven Democrats are elected to congress from Mississippi.

North Dakota.

GRAND FORKS, Nov. 7.—The latest estimates give the Republicans a majority of 3,000 to 10,000.

Jerry Is Defeated.

Big Cotton Platform Burned.

TOCCOA, Ga., Nov. 7.—S. M. Inman & Co.'s big cotton platform was burned here. Seventeen hundred bales of cotton were entirely consumed; loss, $50,000, fully covered by insurance. The residence of G. W. Swilling was also burned. The cotton compress and Southern railroad cotton platform were saved by hard work.

Killed His Wife and Committed Suicide.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 7.—Mr. Humphrey Johnson, a well to do farmer in Collinwood, a suburb of Cleveland, shot and killed his wife, 30 years his junior, and then committed suicide. He was somewhat penurious and she was liberal in spending his money. Their quarrels were frequent.

The Hovas Will Fight.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Zanzibar announces that the Hova prime minister has replied to France's ultimatum that the Hovas will yield only to force. The French are evacuating Antananarivo, Madagascar's capital.

Newspaper Goes to the Wall.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 7.—The Evening News, a penny paper started last September by the Printers' Publishing company, has been placed in the hands of Scott Jones as receiver, with an order of the court to wind up its affairs.

An Indian Family Assassinated.

PARIS, Tex., Nov. 7.—A band of unknown men went to the house of Silas Washington, an Indian, and fired several volleys into it, killing Washington and his wife and mother.

THE FIFTY-FOURTH.

The Republicans Claim Both Senate and House.

SAYS TENNESSEE IS REPUBLICAN.

F. Babcock Says Senator Harris Will Be Succeeded by a Republican—The Democrats Figure Out Six Republican Gains in the Next Senate, With a Loss of Three Democrats.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The returns indicate that the Republicans will gain six United States senators over the number now sitting in that body. Three of them will come from states which have now but one senator apiece owing to failure of the legislatures chosen two years ago to elect, which are: Montana, Wyoming and Washington. The other three will succeed Democrats now representing in part their respective states, as follows: Martin in Kansas; McPherson in New Jersey, and Camden in West Virginia.

With the changes now apparent, the division among the parties will be: Democrats, 41; Republicans, 42; Populists, 3; Silverites, 2.

Chairman Babcock, of the Republican congressional committee, claims that the Republicans will organize the next United States senate. While the returns are incomplete, his information is that the Tennessee legislature is Republican, and will send a member from that party to succeed Harris.

DISTANCE AT SEA.

An Instrument That Will Measure It Accurately—A Simple Device.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—An instrument that will enable a mariner to tell in an instant upon seeing a lighthouse or any well known mark upon the sea coast just how far his ship is distant from more, that will inform the captain of a man-of-war now far away his ship may be from another vessel of his own navy, and be of assistance in many other respects where the elements of distance or height are factors, has been submitted to the navy department for trial.

The instrument is known as the stadimeter, and is the invention of Lieutenant Fiske, who devised the range finder. The stadimeter is much simpler in construction and operation than the range-finder, to which, indeed, it may serve as an adjunct, but which it cannot entirely replace, as at least one element—either height or distance—must be known so as to determine the other.

No Claim for Damages.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 7.—The supreme court of Pennsylvania has just decided that an employe of a railroad who is a member of a relief association auxiliary to the road has no claim to damages if injured while in the discharge of his duties. The case was Rindle versus the Pennsylvania Railroad company, and was appealed from the Philadelphia county court. Rindle was injured and accepted the benefits of the association. He sued for damages, and on a point of law secured a favorable verdict. The company appealed. Justice Williams reversed the decision of the lower court.

Senator Harris Robbed.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 7.—Senator Isham G. Harris, who was billed to speak at Bolivar, Tenn., arrived late at night and took rooms at the Bolivar hotel. About 1 o'clock in the morning he retired, hanging his vest on a chair in the room. In the pockets of the vest were a gold watch valued at $185 and $5 or $6 in silver. Senator Harris did not lock the door to his room. When he arose he found the watch and money missing. A stranger, who occupied a room above the senator's, is suspected. The stranger left during the night without paying his bill.

Savannah's Cotton Fires.

SAVANNAH, Nov. 7.—Latest estimates of loss by the cotton fires are $75,000 to $80,000. About 80,000 bales were damaged. The watchmen arrested on ships on which fires occurred have been released, there being no evidence to connect them with the fires. The mayor has offered a reward of $500 for the arrest and conviction of the incendiaries, and commercial bodies have also taken action.

To Hear Sugar Bounty Appeals.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The district court of appeals has set Nov. 22 for hearing the appeal of the Miles Sugar company, of Louisiana, whose petition for a mandamus against Secretary Carlisle has been denied. This was the case in which the sugar company demanded that inspectors be appointed under the McKinley law with a view to the collection of the sugar bounty.

Important Tariff Order.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The secretary of the treasury has issued orders to customs officers instructing them to admit to entry imported window glass packed in cases containing 50 square feet, or any multiple thereof. The new tariff act limits the packings to 50 feet per box. This limitation, however, is construed to be directory and not mandatory.

Burned an Entire Block.

EVERGREEN, Ala., Nov. 7.—A fire broke out in the Foreigners' hotel and soon spread to the entire block. A high wind was blowing and the flames were soon carried across the street. Before the fire could be subdued property to the amount of $40,000 was destroyed. The insurance was light.

Their Case Continued.

MEMPHIS, Nov. 7.—The joint case of W. S. Richardson and Ed Smith, charged with murder in the lynching of six negroes near Millington, this county, August 31, was called in the criminal court. Owing to the lack of a complete venire the case was continued.

CARLISLE SPEAKS.

Will He Discuss the Bond Question in New York?

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle has sent his acceptance to an invitation to speak at the annual dinner of the chamber of commerce, which will be given on the evening of Nov. 20 at Delmonico's. As nearly all the bank presidents and moneyed business men are members of the chamber and will be at the dinner, it is thought by many that the secretary will utilize the opportunity to set forth the administration's views on the question of a bond issue.

Wall street is almost a unit in the opinion that an issue of $50,000,000 or $100,000,000 of bonds by the government is a necessity to replenish the government's supply of gold, and to afford the banks a chance to put out some of the money with which they are at present burdened.

There has been a rumor in the street for a week or more to the effect that Banker E. C. Benedict, the close friend of President Cleveland, has been quietly getting the views of the leading bankers on the question of bond issue in order to let the president know just what the feeling here is on the matter. Mr. Benedict, however, denies this.

SAVED THE WOMAN.

A Fire Chief's Narrow Escape from a Burning Building.

WINDSOR, Ont., Nov. 7.—When fire broke out in Mrs. Jane Green's house she ran into the street, but a little later remembered that she had left some money and papers in the second floor and rushed back for them. The building, which was of wood, was then all ablaze, and she was in imminent danger of death. George Chene, chief of the Windsor Fire department, snatched a shawl from a woman standing near and bolted in at the front door and upstairs. A few seconds later the roof fell and the cry went up that the chief was inside.

A score of firemen with axes, picks and hooks started for the door, but just as they did so the second floor came down with a crash, and the chief, with the woman in his arms, rolled over and over out of the front door. He was blinded by the smoke and fire, and the woman was insensible. She was revived, however, and is recovering. The chief's hair was singed off, his face blistered and the coat burned from his back.

The money and papers were found unharmed in what was left of the building.

SETTLED THE CASE.

The Santa Fe Management Sustained by the Courts—Protectives Beaten.

TOPEKA, Nov. 7.—The present organization has won the fight for control of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad. Judge Foster of the United States district court gave a decision to make the temporary injunction permanent, which knocks the only props the protectives had from under them. The court vacated the temporary order restraining the old organization from proceeding with an election excepting under the cumulative plan of voting, and declared that the cumulative system does not apply.

The decision further states that the Santa Fe company has a charter and is operating under the grant of incorporation issues by the territorial legislature of 1859. The protective committee is overwhelmingly defeated on every point.

It is the opinion of counsel for the directors that the whole matter has been finally settled, and will not again come up in any form.

PRINCESS ALIX'S VOWS.

The Ceremony Observed In Her Embracing the New Faith.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 7.—The following description of the official reception of Princess Alix of Hesse-Darmstadt into the Greek church, has just been published here:

"The Princess Alix entered the imperial chapel in a white dress, and was led by the empress. She read aloud the articles of faith. Next came the paternoster and a prayer by the emperor's confessor, Father Yinicheff, which the princess followed. Father Yinicheff was followed by two assistants, bearing on a jeweled bottle which was carried on a rich tray, the sacred oil with which Father Yinicheff anointed the kneeling neophyte upon the forehead, breast, hands and on the soles of her feet, at the same time giving her the new name of Alexandra Teodorovna. After the service the czar and czarina partook of holy communion with the Princess Alix. The empress looked careworn."

City Funds Squandered.

TOLEDO, Nov. 7.—President Osborne, of the common council, sprung a sensation while discussing the proposed investigation of the city departments, by stating that the land recently purchased from John B. Ketcham had been bought for less money than the price given out by the park commissioners. "One hundred thousand dollars in bonds were paid," said Mr. Osborne, "but Mr. Ketcham has recently stated that only $60,000 came to him."

Peru Will Have Protection.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Lima says that the Carceres goverment have imposed duties on all articles that have hitherto been admitted to Peru free of duty. On iron, coal and machinery a duty is imposed of 8 per cent ad valorem, plus 6 cents silver per ton of 1,000 kilos.

Campbell Fails to Secure Damages.

OMAHA, Nov. 7.—The $50,000 damage suit of Rev. Larrabee Campbell against Banker Johnson for alienating his wife's affections, which has been on trial in the district court for two weeks, was concluded by a verdict for the defendant. The defense was blackmail.

A Cabinet Company Burned Out.

JACKSON, Tenn., Nov. 7.—The Southern Seating and Cabinet company has been burned out. It was one of the largest plants in the south. The loss is probably $25,000; $15,000 insurance. The fire is believed to have been incendiary.

IN THE DEPARTMENTS

Some Needed Reforms May Begin Very Soon.

EXPERIMENTS WITH ALUMINUM.

Secretary Lamont Will Make Some Important Commissary Changes in New York, Chicago and Washington—Mr. Herbert Wants More Men Enlisted in the United States Navy.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Secretary Lamont is considering the advisability of abolishing the commissary depots in New York, Chicago and Washington. A decision upon this matter is expected upon his return from New York.

The army ordnance department will soon begin competitive tests of smokeless powder in the 8-inch sea coast guns at the Sandy Hook proving grounds. Orders for this powder have been placed with five firms, for about 10 full charges for this calibre gun.

Samples of smokeless powder for field, siege and sea coast guns of other calibres have also been secured by the ordnance department, and their test will soon take place. Experiments for the 3.2-inch field gun are now in progress to discover the best smokeless powder for this gun, and also the best cartridge case for fixed ammunition.

The equipment board of the army, in experimenting with aluminum for army purposes, has found an alloy, which it believes may make the metal stiff enough for use, and some utensils made of it are now being manufactured. They will be at once sent out for test.

The war department has received from Captain Evans, military attache at Berlin, a large number of aluminum articles now in use in the German army. The alloy they contain is kept secret by the German authorities. Among the articles are aluminum buttons, meat cans, drinking cups, bridle bits, canteens, cooking vessels, and tent fittings. They are extremely light, and are, according to Captain Evans' report, very durable. It is the intention of the department to continue its experiments with this metal until it has obtained a sufficiently strong alloy from which can be manufactured the greater part of the equipment of the soldier.

In the Navy Yards.

Labor at New York in the construction of ships is far more expensive to the government than at Norfolk. Secretary Herbert, in his annual report to congress in December, will show that the hull of the Cincinnati, built at the New York navy yard, although exactly similar to that of the Raleigh, built at Norfolk, cost $100,000 more, due to the fact that wages are higher in New York than at Norfolk.

Now that these ships have been completed and have undergone their official inspection, pressure is being brought upon the secretary to order speed trials for them, but so far as can be learned, the secretary has taken no action looking to the issuance of orders for such trials.

Peparations are being made at the navy department for putting in commission the new cruiser Olympia, which, about the first of the new year, will be ready to receive her crew. The department's best efforts are directed toward securing a full crew for this vessel. It has been decided to put the Chicago out of commission immediately upon her return to the United States, and her men will be shipped to San Francisco and assigned to the new cruiser. The Chicago will probably arrive home about the latter part of December.

In the annual report of the bureau of navigation, attention is called to the absolute necessity of legislation permitting the enlistment of more men. Secretary Herbert's report also contains a long statement concerning this matter, and a recommendation that the present laws be so amended that the navy can make 2,000 enlistments.

OTHERS UNEASY.

The Decision Against Jabez Spencer Balfour Makes Them Quake.

BUENOS AYRES, Nov. 6.—The decision of the supreme court, granting the extradition to England of Jabez Spencer Balfour, absconding head of the Liberator association and an ex-member of parliament, has greatly surprised leading lawyers in this city. They say it is contrary to all precedent, and makes the treaty retroactive.

Balfour did not expect such a result, but says he bows to the inevitable, and may make a statement which will not prove agreeable to some persons now in England. The government will have him brought here from Salta and given into the custody of Inspector Tonbridge, of the London police. They may sail on Nov. 15 by the mail steamer Danube.

The supreme court's decision is based on the law of 1885, which provides that the chief executive may grant the extradition of offenders of any kind, providing reciprocity is offered by the government making the request. This is irrespective of treaties, which are considered mere forms to comply with the requisites of Argentine law. The decision of the bench is unanimous.

Several other American and European defaulters who have taken refuge in this republic are feeling very much depressed over this turn of affairs.

Probate Office

"ETERNAL VIGILANCE IS THE PRICE OF LIBERTY."

What They Will Do.

Knowing the principles and the history of the Republican party, the people need make no mistake about certain things it will do as soon as it gets control of the government again.

They can rest assured that the Republicans next March will elect Tom Reed speaker of the house of representatives, and they can also feel confident that he will again make a Czar for the United States.

They can rest assured that every law the Republicans pass will be to the interest of the North and East, irrespective of the injury inflicted upon the South and West.

They can rest assured that the Republicans will show no regard for the right of States, but will re-enact the federal election bill, and pass such other laws as tend to centralization and to perpetuate the domination of the Republican party.

They will repeal the income tax bill, and will put in stead a tax on what the people need instead of taxing the possessions of the millionaire.

They will by taxation increase the price of everything we have to buy from twenty-five to one hundred per cent.

They will favor a high tariff and extravagance on the part of the government.

They will increase the already enormously large pension roll.

They will again vote the unjust and fraudulent bounty to the sugar growers, and afford no protection to the cotton planters.

The Republican party has always been the enemy of silver, and a only five Republicans in the last house and three in the senate voted for the free and unlimited coinage of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1, the people can feel assured that the Republican party will continue to fight for the gold standard.

The Republican party has always been the champion of combines and trusts, and the people can rest assured that one of first things the Republicans will do will be to repeal the measure incorporated in the tariff bill by Senator Morgan making it a crime to form a combination or trust on any article which the farmers use.

AMONG the list of criminals sentenced at the session of the circuit court last week was a negro woman sentenced to a punishment for public drunkenness. Now as public drunkenness is a crime, why is it a woman is prosecuted, convicted, sentenced, while a thousand men equally guilty go not only free, but no one ever thinks of prosecuting them.

LET the legislature now in session take up our election law promptly and make such changes in it as will insure fair and honest elections in the State. The peace and prosperity of the State, and the interest of the Democratic party, demand that our elections hereafter be fairly and honestly conducted.

IF the legislature wants to give the Democratic party in Alabama the blackest eye it has had for many years let it carry out the wishes of the Montgomery Advertiser and defeat Hon. John T. Morgan for the United States Senate.

AMEND our present election law, and place around the management of primaries the same restrictions as are placed around the general elections, are two things the present legislature should not fail to do.

The Cause.

It is realy amusing to hear the papers which favor the gold standard rear back on their feeling of importance and cry—"I told you so." "I told you that the fight the Democratic leaders and Democratic papers were making against Mr. Cleveland's financial policy would defeat the Democratic party." These gold bug papers should remember that they made their cry of warning in no more unmistakable tones than did the Democratic leaders and newspapers who insisted that the people would indorse no party which failed to keep the pledges made in its platform. These men and papers insisted that the failure to repeal the prohibitory ten per cent on state banks, and to pass a law to coin both gold and silver without discriminating against either metal or charge for mintage, would disrupt the party and again give the Republicans control of the government. That the people placed the Democratic party in power on the strength of the promises made in its platform, and if it failed to keep its promises, it would most certainly receive the rebuke of the people who felt that they had been deceived. It is very evident that neither of these reasons alone led to the overwhlming defeat of the party in power; but that the unprecedented panic due to the vicious legislation of the Republican party had more to do with the result than any other one thing. It is much more reasonable to think that the individual representatives have been held to account for their vote on the silver question by their respective districts than that the entire party should be held responsible. This would be the just decision and fair treatment and the Democratic party is given to doing that which is just and right. It would have been a great injustice for Speaker Crisp's district to have defeated him because Congressman Wilson and other Democrats wanted to carry out what they believed be the spirit of the Chicago platform, even against the views of the President We believe the most reasonable theory is that individual representatives were brought before the bar of their respective constituents and made to answer for heir stewardship, and that only by taking this view can it be ascertained what figure the silver question cut in the recent contest. The test should be—how many representatives who favored the free and unlimited coinage of silver have been returned to congress, and how many defeated?

From a study of this theory of the result of the recent election, it is ascertained that of the Democratic represenatives who favored the free and unlimited coinage of silver, 90 per cent have been indorsed and returned to congress. Of those who indorsed Mr. Cleveland and John Sherman's financial policy, 95 per cent have failed of an indorsement and have been defeated.

These are facts which speak louder than words. Say what you will, the fact exists that of the Democratic representatives who favored the free and unlimited coinage of silver, 90 per cent have recieved an indorsement at the hands of the people, and of the Democratic representatives who suffered themselves cotro el by Mr. Cleveland, 95 per cen h ve been rebuked and left at home.

WHEN cotton is selling at more than two cents below the actual cost of production, certainly the farmers of the South will not plant more than half the present area next year.

MARRIAGE OF JEFFS AND POPS.

DR. CROWE WANTS TO INAUGURATE REUBEN BY FORCE OF ARMS.

Mr. Skaggs Advises His Associates to Go Slow and not to Violate the Law. Contest Law Demanded.

Montgomery, Ala., November 12. The Jeffersonian democrats quit business at 9 o'clock tonight, having made an assignment of all their assets to the populists. Today's convention of the protesting elements was a spicy one. Two or three times it looked like war was on. Some wanted to fight, others to establish a legislature on the outside and others cautioned good behavior and nothing but lawful action. Senator Goodwin called the meeting to order and Judge Lee, of Conecuh, was made temporary chairman. Every county in the state was represented. The following were elected permanent officers of the convention:

A. P. Longshore, of Shelby, president; Zell Gaston, of Butler, vice president; Warren Reese, of Montgomery, and F. W. Powell, of Cullman, secretaries.

A committee upon resolutions and means of procedure was appointed, of which W. H. Skaggs, of Jefferson, was made chairman. It was put to work early in the afternoon, but did not report until the evening session.

During the afternoon speeches were made by Kolb, Goodwyn, Bowman, Manning and others. Some of them were very lively, advocating the assumption of the reins of government and the seating of Kolb in the governor's chair by main strength if necessary. A resolution was introduced providing for the appointment of a state executive committee to manipulate in common the affairs of the populists and Jeffersonian democrats. It prevailed. A reconsideration of the resolution was afterward voted, and it was so amended as to consolidate the Jeffersonian democratic party with the populist party and all anti-democrats not republicans in Alabama will hereafter be known as members of the people's party, the name of Jeffersonian having been dropped. Thus the populists have swallowed the Jeffersonians body, boots and breeches and Manning is on top.

Skaggs, young Goodwin and one or two others fought hard against the assignment, but the sentiment was all against them and the Jeffersonian democrats are no more in Alabama. Tonight the committee on resolutions presented its report through Chairman Skaggs, who contended nobly for its passage. After considerable whereasing about frauds, the resolution says:

KOLB'S ELECTION CLAIMED.

"1. The state ticket nominated by the Jeffersonian democrats and populists and headed by Captain Kolb was elected by the qualified electors who cast their votes at the election held in this state on the 6th of August last. The will of the people thus expressed in exercise of their inalienable rights under the law has been set aside through the agency of election managers and county officials, aided and abetted by a corrupt judiciary that is a disgrace to our civilization protected by a de facto executive who has trampled under foot the law and destroyed in our state the form of republican institutions. These corrupt practices in election methods by theives, perjurers and public officials in Alabama, particularly in Dallas, Wilcox, Lowndes, Hale, Bullock, Barbour, Marengo, Montgomery and Monroe counties, have become so notorious that the good people of Alabama have been humiliated by having their state advertised in every part of the civilized world as a land in which public criminals go unwhipped of justice, and in which the better element is overridden by reason of their corrupt and nefarious methods. To the end that not only in this state, but in part of the American union, the public may be fully advised as to the evidence upon which we base such grave charges.

"It is humbly ordered that the documents submitted be printed for general circulation and that a copy be furnished the governor and every member of the legislature, and we humbly appeal to all good citizens, without regard to past or present party affiliation, to lend us their aid and co-operation in securing a proper and legal investigation of these charges in order that there may be an investigation.

FORBEARANCE IS URGED.

"We demand the enactment of a fair and just contest law immediately upon the assembling of the general assembly.

"Resolved further, That, while recognizing the just and lawful demands of the people who now protest against further peaceable submission to the unlawful and corrupt methods of ballot box stuffers, we deem it inexpedient at this time to inaugurate and maintain a a de jure government. And there are reasons for advising further forbearance under existing conditions. The members-elect of the legislature, who, on the face of the returns, did not secure their certificates, have not arranged to meet at the time and place provided by law for the organization of a legislative body, and the members-elect who did receive their certificates cannot as a majority organize an independent body. The present defacto administration will uphold the state officials who have been fraudulently declared elected with Colonel Oates as the de facto governor. Such policy would result in maintaining by force an independent state government with Captain Kolb as governor, should he be inaugurated.

"The present federal administration is in accord with the dominant olgarchy in this state, and, so far as necessary, would protect and uphold the administration headed by Colonel Oates without regard to the expressed will of the people.

"We congratulate the people of this state upon the prospect of the final solution of the existing troubles by restoring this country to the rule of the people, as evidenced by the recent repudiation of Clevelandism and the mainstay and support of the corrupt and dominating oligarchy. And if the stated authorities of this state fail to consider this ultimate demand for proper consideration of our grievances, then we shall petition the federal government for such support as to secure our rights and maintain a republican form of government in this state. But, while looking to possible federal interference in our behalf, we warn our oppressors against imminent danger of the people acting in the manner of their fathers and at last resort to the only remedy available after peaceable methods under the law have failed. We demand the repeal of the diabolical and dangerous features of the present election laws, in order that every qualified voter may express his choice of men and measures at the ballot box and have his vote counted as cast."

DR. CROWE WANTS TO FIGHT SOMEBODY.

These resolutions called for a long debate. Dr. Crowe, of Perry, wanted to fight. He said he could bring 600 men from Perry who would seat Kolb in the governor's chair or leave their bones upon the hillsides hereabouts. He was loudly applauded. Many agreed to stand by him and for a while it looked like war, but Skaggs and others cooled things off and brought reason into play again. He consoled them with the promise that a republican congress would fix things right. He believes the Sayre law would be amended by the democratic legislature, not as a matter of right, but as a matter of business policy. Skaggs agreed that the objection to a dual legislature was that his party was not able to sustain it at this time.

Dr. Crowe, thought they were ready. He said the democrats bragged that they had the militia, but that woe be unto the man who should give those soldiers the order to fire. He said he for one would amendment suggested is to help to hang Tom Jones and the balance of them if they went any further. He said if they would take the step now and assemble a creditable number of men from all over Alabama in this city on December 1st, and tell the d—d scoundrels (the democrats) to get into their holes, they would do so. He believed if they would bring enough of their men here on December 1st they could seat Kolb without a single gun being fired.

SKAGGS HAS A COOL HEAD.

Skaggs thought they should not bark until they were ready to bite. He thought the cause might be injured by violating the laws and that violence should be the last resort. He said he knew of at least one man, Frank O'Brien, of Jefferson, who would vote for a fair election bill and he believed that there were other democrats in the legislature who would. When all legal methods to secure fair elections in Alabama had failed, he thought the method suggested by the gentleman from Perry should be used. After further claptrap the resolution was adopted and the convention adjourned.

HEAVYWEIGHTS COME TO THE SURFACE.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 12.—Governor-elect Oates, Senator Morgan, Congressman Bankhead, Stallings, Robbins and Harrison are among the arrivals in the city today.

Needed Amendment to Prohibition Law.

There is a matter deserving the attention and consideration of the representatives of Calhoun County and calling for remedial legislation: It is simply this: All of the territory embraced in Calhoun County, excepting the city of Anniston and town of Jacksonville, is now under a prohibition law. This law was brought about by the passage of an act of the state legislature, authorizing an election to be held, at which the question of prohibition, vel non, was submitted to popular vote, with the result that prohibition received a majority of the votes cast thereat. And in accordance with the provisions of the act, the Probate Judge gave notice of the result of the election by a publication of the same in all the newspapers published at the time in the county. While it is a fact, publicly known, that the election was properly ordered, regularly held and the result duly published as required, it has been held by the Supreme Court of the State that in the trial of criminal cases arising from infractions of the penal portion of the act, it is necessary to introduce evidence to prove affirmatively, the ordering and holding of the election and that the result was published as provided by the act, in order that the existence and validity of the law be established. This necessitates the introduction of the copies of all the newspapers in which publication etc. was made and to hunt these newspapers and find them in the voluminous file of county newspapers kept by our officials is, indeed, an onerous task, and often seriously delays the trial of cases. Thus in the proof a merely formal matter in the trial, not going to the real guilt or innocence of the accused, needless delay is occasioned and a great deal of the time of the trial court is consumed.

By reason of the fact that the publication above referred to, was made several years ago, the newspapers are now getting old and becoming worn and are liable to be lost, misplaced or destroyed. It is, therefore, suggested that the prohibition act of our county be amended so as to make it declare that its introduction in evidence will be prima facie proof that the election authorized by it was duly ordered, held, and the result thereof published in accordance with its requisitions. Such amendment will have no sort of effect on the operation of the law as it now stands,—neither increase nor diminish the scope of its prohibitory qualities. The only effect to come from the tate the establishment of a fact merely formal in its nature, the proof of which, therefore, has entailed needless trouble and the consumption of valuable time.

Calhoun's Official Vote.

Last Saturday Judge Crook, Sheriff Caldwell and Clek Weaver met in the court house and canvassed the vote cast in Calhoun county on the 6th day of November. The canvass of the vote showed the following result:

Fraud in Georgia.

Probably in no other District in any State was such bold and outrageous frauds committed in the management of the election last week as was perpetrated in the Tenth District of Georgia.

There the friends of both Black and Watson deliberately went to work to stuff the ballot box wherever an oppertunity could be made to exist. Both sides went to the utmost limit. Neither side attempts to deny that its count was unfair. Both know that the other committed frauds.

In the count Major Black comes out ahead. Tom Watson was beaten at the game of count which his friends were playing for all it was worth. Feeling the guilt of his own side, Mr. Watson has decided that he had rather risk his chance in an other way than a contest, and addressed a public letter proposing the appointment of a commission to purge the ballot boxes of all illegal votes, and in that way to determine who is the choice of the majority of the legal voters.

The following correspondence between Major Black and Mr. Watson will explain itself:

"Augusta, Ga., November 10, 94. —Editors Chronicle: I received this afternoon, about half-past 5 o'clock, a copy of The McDuffie Journal containing the following:

MR. WATSON'S LETTER.

"'For the purpose of putting an end to the terrible state of affairs in the tenth district, I propose to Major Black that we appoint a commission to purge the ballot boxes of all illegal votes wherever found. If it appears that I am the choice of a majority of the legal voters, then Mr. Black to surrender the seat to me. If it appears that he is the choice of a legal majority, then I will not contest his seat, nor will I ever be a candidate again. The commission can be made up of two men chosen by me, two by him and a fifth chosen by the four.

THOMAS E. WATSON.

Thomson, Ga., November 9, 94.'

MR. BLACK'S COMMENTS.

"No one surpassed me in the desire to restore good feeling among the people of this district, nor am I willing to represent them in congress unless I am entitled to the seat. If I have the right to depart from the method prescribed by law, I stand ready at any time to join in any proper plan to eliminate all illegal ballots cast in any county in the district. But at first view there seem to be serious legal and practical obstacles to the attainment of the desirable end by the particular method proposed by Mr. Watson. The matter is far beyond any personal interest, desire or ambition. It involves questions of great delicacy and gravity, and the rights of very many of the best people of the district.

AN EARLY ANSWER PROMISED.

"I cannot, therefore, assume to be wise enough to act without the advice of friends, which I cannot at once procure. At as early a date as practicable proper attention will be given to Mr. Watson's proposition, and an answer made thereto. Very truly, T. G. Q. BLACK."

ALABAMA FARMERS.

Several Sessions of Their Association Held.

Montgomery, Ala., November 11.—(Special.)—Several interesting session of the State Farmers, Association have been held here this week and practical matters pertaining to the farm have been discussed. The session on yesterday, for instance, was addressed by Dr. Cory, professor of veterinary diseases at the Auburn college. He explained the spread of murrain, saying the most general way was by means of ticks. To prevent the spread of the disease by this means he recommended that sulphur be given internally and that a mixture of kerosene oil and lard be applied externally. He said the disease might be recogized by the symptoms of weak, dilated eyes, swelled throat and thin blood. The professor also discussed some less prevalent diseaes to which cattle in this section are heir, and told the farmers how best to guard against it.

Professor J. M. Seadman addressed the society upon the subject of injurious insects. He divided the pests into the classes sucking and eating insects and explained that the methods of getting rid of them were entirely different. To kill sucking insects he said it was necessary to use a mixture that would kill the body such as soap, kerosene and the like. To kill sucking insects, some poison like Paris green or insect powder must be used. He recommened to kill insects in grain to use bisulphide of carbon, but to be careful to keep it distant from a fire as it is highly explosive.

Commissioner H. D. Lane, of Montgomery, president; G. W. Dinklin, of Greenville, first vice president; H. Hawkins, of Hawkinsville, second vice president; T. J. Key, of Montgomery, treasurer; Frank Shackleford, Jr., of Colquit, secretary.

Executive committee for the ensuing year: Mims Walker, of Faunsdale, first district; G. H. Shackleford, of Colquit, second district; S. M. Pruitt, of Midway, third district; J. T. Burns, of Selma, fourth district; William Small, of Eutah, sixth district; J. H. Vanzant, of Gadsden, seventh district; Dr. J. B. Hampton, of Meridian, eighth district; C. C. L. Dill, of Dillbury, ninth district.

Executive committee for two years: Daniel Smith, of Mobile, first district; Dr. R. A. Lee, of Evergreen, second district; James Crook, of Jacksonville, fourth district; H. T. Webb, of Alpine, fifth district; W. E. Small, of Guntersville, seventh district; W. E. Matthews, of Huntsville, eigth district, and R. W. Beck, of East Lake, ninth district.

The Republican.

By T. W. AYERS.

Change Our Election Law.

While we believe the present election law in Alabama is a better law than the one in force previous to its enactment, yet it has been clearly demonstrated that it is deficient in securing fair elections.

There are several amendments which should be made to the present bill, and the legislature ought to take up the bill promptly and make such amendments as will raise the standard of our citizenship, and prevent as far as it is possible the prostitution of the ballot.

No other question will come before the present legislature the necessity of which is so imperative.

The people are tired of the continued charges of fraud which fill the air after each election, and now demand that fraud must be reduced to a minimum. This demand comes from the masses which compose the Democratic party. They are tired of having it thrown in their teeth after each election that their party is one of fraud and corruption. The time has come when unmistakable words should be spoken on this question. Now, while the legislature it in session, is the time the warning should be given.

If fraud continue, if it remain possible for ward heelers and ballot box stuffers to control the popular verdict at the polls, it will soon come to pass that many decent, self-respecting men will refuse to take any part in elections, and the goverment will be turned over to the corrupt men of the country.

Nothing is hurting the Democratic party in Alabama to-day half so much as the prostitution of the ballot. Not only had we as well sing psalms to a dead horse as to attempt to bring back to the Democratic party the men who have left it during the past few years, without a ballot reform, but we may safely count that thousands of men in Alabama who are Democrats will decline to cast their ballot as long as no confidence can be placed in the announced result of our elections.

The Democratic party has no greater purpose to serve than to give the people an election law which will insure fair elections.

Not only does party expediency demand this, but it is a question of public safety. For the prostitution of the ballot undermines the principles of free government and defeats the will of the people.

The tide in favor of a pure ballot in Alabama is set in fast, and the members of the legislature will be unwise if they attempt to stem it by a failure to make the needed amendments to our election law.

Not only should they not attempt to stem this tide, but should do all in their power to sweep every vestige of fraud and corruption from the State of Alabama

The Commissioners and the Inquirer.

The last issue of the Piedmont Inquirer contained an unjust and unwarranted attack upon the commissioner's court of Calhoun county.

In the first place, the Inquirer objects to a contract which the commissioners made with the Jacksonville REPUBLICAN to do the legal printing of the county, and asserts that the making of this contract was a "gross usurpation of authority."

The Inquirer may be more learned in the law than are the commissioners and their legal advisers. The commissioners understand from the law that it is their duty to make contracts for all work which is to be paid for by the county, and that they alone are authorized to make such contracts.

Their purpose in renewing the contract which the county has had with the REPUBLICAN for years, was to save to the county twenty-five per cent on all printing necessary for it to have done. There is nothing more nor less in the contract to which the Inquirer so vehemently objects.

The commissioners court assumes to control no printing except that for which the county pays.

As to the charge which the Inquirer makes against the personal honor of the men who compose the commissioners court, Judge Crook completely answers that charge in a letter addressed to the Inquirer which appears in this issue. It indeed needed no answer. For J. B. Palmer, J. T. DeArman, W. N. Coker and Green B. Skelton, are too well and favorably known to the people of Calhoun county for any man to believe that they would certify falsely,—perjure themselves,—for the pitiful sum of three dollars and fifty cents. They are not that character of men. But are men who are known to the people of Calhoun county for their veracity and integrity. The three first mentioned above are men who have received an indorsement of their official acts by a second election. The fourth is a man who has as high sense of honor as any man in Calhoun county, and who would be as far from performing a low, dirty act, as any living man.

The people will not fail to regard the charge against the commissioners court as unwarranted and malicious.

So far as Judge Crook is concerned he needs no praise or commendation at our hands. The people of the county almost to a man concede the fact that in him they have a Probate Judge who is as conscientious and as thoroughly qualified as any in the State of Alabama. The people have long since learned that he has the courage to do his duty under the law without regard to the favor or fear or any person or faction.

The editor of the REPUBLICAN has never hesitated to do a favor for the Inquirer when an opportunity was presented, and in all fairness, we think it exceedingly unkind for the editors of the Inquirer to meddle in our personal affairs by intimating that other persons are interested in the publicatoin of the REPUBLICAN. For the information of the Inquirer we state positively that no one is interested in the publication of the REPUBLICAN other than the one whose name appears as its editor and publisher.

Married.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Weems in Jacksonville, on Wednesday, November 14, 1894, Mr. Thomas J. Cason of Anniston, Ala., to Miss Harriet Minerva Weems.

Promptly at 10:30 o'clock Miss Fannie Hammond commenced to play Mendlesohn's march, when the bride and groom marched down the hall, which had been beautifully decorated for this occasion, and entered the parlor where they were met by Rev. J. H. Leslie of Jacksonville, and Rev. P. [illegible] of Jack Anniston; when Rev. P. Culver, of [illegible] a most beautiful and impressive ceremony united them as man and wife.

This ceremony was not witnessed by a large crowd who were spectators through curiosity and felt no special interest in the contracting parties, as are most of our church marriages, but was witnessed by a number of the special friends of the bride and groom, all of whom sincerely wished for them a life of prosperity and happiness.

The bride was one of Jacksonville's most excellent and popular young ladies, and the groom is to be congratulated in securing as a companion one who is so thoroughly suited to make his life successful and happy.

The writer has known Mr. Cason intimately for a number of years, and knows him to be a most excellent gentleman. He is sober, honest, intellectual, has good business training, and will no doubt make a success of life

Directly after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Cason took a carriage and drove through to Anniston, where they will reside.

The presents which the bride and groom received were numerous, useful and valuable.

We direct special attention to Lippman's advertisement in this issue. They manufacture many of the goods they sell, and they will be found far superior to most goods offered in the market, and cost no more money than will have to be paid for inferior articles at other places. They carry a complete stock of goods, and those who visit them at their store in Anniston will find them honest and accomodating, and that they sell goods as cheap as they can be bought anywhere.

Nearly all the wells in and around Jacksonville are failing in water.

JUDGE CROOK

TO THE PIEDMONT INQUIRER.

He Defends the County Commissioners Against the Untrue Charge Made Against Them.

JACKSONVILLE ALA. Nov. 13, 94.

Piedmont Ala.

DEAR SIR:—I notice with regret the dirty little fling at the Commissioners Court, in your issue of last week. I did not think that you would allow your columns used for such venomous, spiteful, personal purposes, and especially by a miserable dirty little cus who has no interest in Calhoun County, or her citizens further than his personal aggrandizement. Do you know, Mr. Editor, what the word "HENCHMEN" means? And knowing the meaning of the word, do you apply it to four, among the most reputable citizens of your County? I know whereof I speak, when I say, that J. B. Palmer, J. T. DeArman, M. N. Coker and G. B. Skelton, the county commissioners, are as economical, painstaking, conscientious men and officials, as any county under the sun can boast of. I write this, not as an apology for anything the commissioners have done; they are willing to stand upon the records they have made in office, but to say the charges insinuated in your article written by a transient little cus, are untrue, and he knew it when he penned the article. A skunk may change its color or its name, but the smell remains there all the same. Every citizen of this county, who will think for a moment, will recognize the author of your piece from its diction, and if you had made him sign his name, that would have been sufficient evidence of its falseness and would have been so accepted by the people. I feel sure that you did not give the article that careful consideration which such a charge against your fellow man deserved, (even if he is a public official, for officials deserve truthful criticism, as well as private individuals.) I care nothing for the insinuations against myself, because you know it is untrue. You know that [illegible] what is written in that piece [illegible] concerning me is false. You [illegible] know and the files of your [illegible] paper show, that you have received more patronage from me than all of the other county officials combined. Then why publish that which you knew to be false? Was it for the poor pittance of a few paltry dollars? You know that when you was setting that piece to type, you were engaged upon a job of work given you by me. And you know that for months I endorsed your note in the Tredegar National Bank, and when the Bank refused longer to extend the note I had it to pay, and this money you said was to enable you to continue the publication of your paper. But why talk to an ingrate? Now you accuse the commissioners of "contempt of the law" and "its frequent dips into the county treasury, under the plea of inspection of roads." Each member of the court is a sworn officer, and makes out his account for services rendered, and it is passed upon just as other claims, and do you say, that either one, or all of these gentlemen, would perjure himself or themselves by swearing to false accounts for services not rendered? And that too from the simple sayso of a man whose only characteristic is "vindictiveness." You have made no examination as to the truth of the matter.

Again you say "his Honor and Henchmen consider themselves as fairly entitled to damages," this, refering to their presence at the Piedmont barbecue at Piedmont, the past summer, when Col. Oates and Sanford spoke there, and that the court voted themselves three and a half dollars, and the judge three dollars for the days work. The court at the repeated entreaty of commissioner Palmer, had at its May term, set that day to visit the proposed site for the bridge, and had so notified the commissioners of the other county, for the purpose of inspecting the same. This bridge was built at the especial request, and for the benefit of Piedmont, and was vigorously advocated by the Inquirer. When the day was fixed upon, Col. Oates had not been nominated, and the barbecue was not thought of. The court went to the place, attended to its business, returned to Piedmont in time to enjoy the barbecue dinner, and on consultation decided that it would take the evening to get back to Jacksonville, and would be too late to do any business, so in order to hear the speeches, they decided to remain and travel back to Jacksonville after night. The county lost no time by the exchange, and the court was in its place next morning. They paid their own expenses to and from the bridge. Now is not your charge on this point to puerile, and should not the Inquirer blush at making such a charge!

There is no excuse for perverting the truth, when it can be so easily ascertained. I did expect better from you. Now as to Dr. Ayers and the Republican, this court has nothing to do. They continued the contract which had been in existence for years with that paper, which contract does save the county many dollars, and if there are any doubting Thomases, let them come here, and I will show them by actual facts and comparisen, that this is true. The affairs of this county are in the hands of the four commissioners. It could not be in safer hands. If the Inquirer does not believe they have the authority to make said contract, let it test it. I dont believe any county official ever told the Inquirer he wished to give his printing to that paper but was detered by said order. Now give the name will you. There is not a county official who objects to the court saving every dollar possible for the county, nor is there one who cares anything about that awful contract, and I dont believe one of them objects to it. Now if I am wrong give your names. Let facts be ascertained by giving names, dates and all other information. You have attacked the personal integrity, and official honesty of four of your fellow citzens and should prove their dishonor or apoligize for inserting such rot at the instigation of a vindictive ass. Now you can enquire of Dr. Ayers as to how he bought the Republican, and as to his private affairs; not one member of this court or its presiding officer, has one dollars pecuniary interest in that paper, nor are they interested pecuniarily in its success or failure. I as an individual have no interest in the paper other than I have in the Inquirer, but am just willing to assist the Republican, as I was to assist the Inquirer before it left its bank note for me to pay. I have no apology or explanation to make to you or the cowardly liar who maliciously furnished you the piece for publication, and then fled the country to escape responsibility. I will add that the court did receive bids for the printing for the county. The Hot Blast withdrew its bid, and it was the general talk, and a fact conceded by you to me, that the Inquirer might cease publication at any time. And the court after considering the offer of the Republican to continue its contract, did accept its offer and made that contract, a contract that is awful only in that it was not made with the Inquirer instead of the Republican. The court is looking after the interest of Calhoun county and not the newspapers, and it cares precious little whether its acts pleases you or not. As to the notices from my court over which I have control, I have in the past always given you the ones in which the people in your end of the county were interested, and I did so of my own accord. I shall continue to do as I please with such notices where I have no instructions, and shall place them where I think it is best for those concerned.

I have submitted this to the commissioners and they unanimously endorse every word as regards them, and as the object of this was to place them right before their fellow citizens I submit it for publication, provided you publish it without charge, otherwise consign it to the waste basket.

Very Respectfully,

EMMETT F. CROOK.

P. S.—The above was sent to the Piedmont Inquirer, but it declined to publish this week on account of pressure of advertising matter.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

C. D. Martin has gone on a business trip to Atlanta.

Captain, Mrs. Hames and Master Bill have gone to Montgomery on a visit to relatives.

Sam S. Wyly has gone to Louisville, where he will remain during the winter.

Capt. P. J. Hines has returned to Jacksonville after an absence of several weeks.

George Bowling of Alexandria spent last Sunday in Jacksonville with his friend John Journey.

Rev. Mr. Mellichampe will preach at the Episcopal church next Sunday morning.

Maurice Frank was over from Atlanta last Saturday on a visit to friends and relatives.

The press of other matter forces us to leave out several articles from local correspondents. They will appear next week.

Mrs. Dr. Haley returned last Thursday from Jasper, Ala., where she spent several weeks with friends and relatives.

Prof. Forney has been afflicted this week with rheumatism, and has been forced to stay away from school two or three days.

Those who are to take part in the "Gondoliers" will please meet Friday night at the residence of Mr. J. D. Hammond.

Mrs. M. H. Lane has gone to Sparta, Ga., her old home, on a visit to relatives and friends. Dr Lane accompanied her as far as Atlanta.

The Peoples Party held a meeting in the court house last Saturday and elected delegates to the convention held in Montgomery last Monday.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Gordon Frank, who has been quite sick in Birmingham, is improving, and will soon be well enough to return.

The county commissioners have been in session here this week, but have not been making any illegal dips into the county treasury. They are not built that way.

These cold days make it necessary to have flannels. These hard times make it necessary for you to know that Lippman's, Anniston, is the best place to buy them.

Sheriff E. G. Caldwell and Deputy-Sheriff John Rowland went down to Montgomery last Monday to attend the State Sheriff's Association.

We regret to learn of the death of the mother of Mrs. Dr. Rowan, who died at her home in New York city last week. Dr. Rowan will probably not return to Jacksonville for several days yet.

After this week the Tedegar National Bank will open at 9 o'clock in the morning, and close at 3 in the afternoon. So get your deposits ready an hour earlier than heretofore.

Next Sunday is Rev. J. H. Leslie's last appointment in Jacksonville before he goes to the conference. It is the desire of all the people that he be sent back here for another year.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Jack Bonds died last week at her home in Beat 3. She was a most excellent lady, and leaves a husband and several children to mourn her death.

One of the young men of Jacksonville met his best girl on the street last week and saluted her by saying, "How are you making it?" To which she pertly replied, "Making it with a ruffle."

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNED.

Criminals Sentenced.

The circuit court of Calhoun county adjourned last Saturday evening.

The last three days of the court was spent in trying the case of the State vs Robt. Poland, charged with the offence of seduction.

Much interest was manifested in this case. Both the State and the defendant were ably represented, and every inch of ground closely contested. The case was given to the jury in the afternoon, and it did not bring in a verdict for several hours. The jury decided from the evidence that the defendant was not guilty.

Saturday afternoon Judge Bilbro had the prisoners found guilty at this term of the court brought before him and passed sentence upon them.

Among the number sentenced were two white boys, eleven negro men, and one negro woman. They were sentenced in the following order:

Isaiah Daniel, col., for grand larceny was given one year hard labor for his offence, 190 days for the cost.

Mack Johnson, who had been convicted of a petit larceny, on account of the condition of the health of himself and wife was sentenced to only one hour in jail for the offence, and he secured the cost.

Nora Ross, a negro woman, who had been convicted on the charge of public drunkenness was sentenced to hard labor ten days for the fine, and 45 days for the cost.

Mack Cobb, col., who the jury said under the evidence was guilty of carrying a concealed pistol, was given six months hard labor for the offence, twenty days for fine, and 100 days for cost.

Arthur Jackson, col., had been keeping gaming table, and the judge decided that he should do six months hard labor for the offence, thirty days to cover the fine, and six months to pay cost.

Wyly Dunston, col., had been carrying a little pistol concealed about his person, for which privilege he gives twenty days hard labor as a fine, and 134 days to pay the cost of his trial.

Lee Brown, col., was convicted on the charge of adultery, for which he gets thirty days as a fine and 130 days to pay cost.

Daniel Mitchell, a young white man, who had been found guilty on the charge of grand larceny, was sent to the penitentiary for two years.

John Jones, col., convicted for grand larceny, was given one year and six months for the offence, and 139 days to pay cost.

William Slaughter, col., was sent to the penitentiary for five years for a conviction of burglary.

Ada Riddle, a young negro boy, who had been appropriating hog meat to his own use when it legally belonged to another, was sent to the penitentiary for four years.

Jerry Riddle, the father of Ada, had been getting hog meat in the same way, and was given four years in the penitentiary.

George Hudson, col., who had assisted the Riddles in getting meat, was sent up for hard labor one year for the offence, and 113 days to pay the cost.

The East and West railroad has been purchased by the Columbian Equipment Company, of New York, and will be extended on the east to Elberton, Ga., to connect with the Seaboard Air Line, and on the west to Birmingham; which will make it an important trunk line.

This deal may mean much for Jacksonville, as the gentlemen who have been instrumental in working it up, are wam friends to this place.

When you get ready to buy a Christmas present, the best place to make your purchase is from Henry Robinson, Anniston. He carries a fine stock of jewelry, and is one of the cleverest men in the world. When you go to Anniston, go and see him.

Mr. Robert Cheatwood died at his home in the eastern portion of Calhoun county last Thursday, Nov 15 1894. He was 102 years old last October, and was probably the oldest man in the county. He moved to this county from South Carolina in 1839.

We are requested to state that Bishop O'Sullivan of Selma, will deliver a lecture at the court house in Jacksonville next Monday night. Subject: What Catholics do not believe. No charge, and all are invited.

S. D. G. Brothers, Esq, has spent the week with his parents in the country and has no doubt killed birds by the hundred, and ducks and wild turkeys by the dozen. In other words, has had a regular Grover trip.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of Mc Kay, Ohio, is of the opinion that their is nothing as good for children troubled with cold or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having la grippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

ALEXANDRIA.

Rev. Geo. D. Harris who has accepted the pastorate of Mt Zion church will fill his first appointment at that church on the first Sunday in Dec.

Rev. Mr. Horton, for three years pastor of the Methodist church at this place, preached his closing sermon for the year on last Sunday. Having served his church so faithfully and well not only his members but the community will be glad if the Conference sends him here another year.

Misses Mollie and Dora Lile came up from Anniston and spent a day or two among us.

Mr. Holmesly, our former Depot Agent, spent a day or two with friends here last week.

JENKINS

We have been having regular hog killing weather for a week, and some of our people have been making use of it. First, W. P. Harris killed one that weighed 466 pounds. Pink Watson two that weighed respectively 382 and 338; total, 720 pounds, and has an other that will tilt the scales at 300 or over.

I do not think our people will buy much western corn or meat for the next twelve months. We will live at home and board at the same place.

Gathering corn and sowing wheat is the occupation of most of the farmers now while the chaps pick cotton.

Hope times will be more quiet now as the elections are all over. Think the men can stay at home better and work more.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Change Our Election Law.

While we believe the present election law in Alabama is a better law than the one in force previous to its enactment, yet it has been clearly demonstrated that it is deficient in securing fair elections.

There are several amendments which should be made to the present bill, and the legislature ought to take up the bill promptly and make such amendments as will raise the standard of our citizenship, and prevent as far as it is possible the prostitution of the ballot.

No other question will come before the present legislature the necessity of which is so imperative.

The people are tired of the continued charges of fraud which fill the air after each election, and now demand that fraud must be reduced to a minimum. This demand comes from the masses which compose the Democratic party. They are tired of having it thrown in their teeth after each election that their party is one of fraud and corruption. The time has come when unmistakable words should be spoken on this question. Now, while the legislature it in session, is the time the warning should be given.

If fraud continue, if it remain possible for ward heelers and ballot box stuffers to control the popular verdict at the polls, it will soon come to pass that many decent, self-respecting men will refuse to take any part in elections, and the goverment will be turned over to the corrupt men of the country.

Nothing is hurting the Democratic party in Alabama to-day half so much as the prostitution of the ballot. Not only had we as well sing psalms to a dead horse as to attempt to bring back to the Democratic party the men who have left it during the past few years, without a ballot reform, but we may safely count that thousands of men in Alabama who are Democrats will decline to cast their ballot as long as no confidence can be placed in the announced result of our elections.

The Democratic party has no greater purpose to serve than to give the people an election law which will insure fair elections.

Not only does party expediency demand this, but it is a question of public safety. For the prostitution of the ballot undermines the principles of free government and defeats the will of the people.

The tide in favor of a pure ballot, and the members of the legislature will be unwise if they attempt to stem it by a failure to make the needed amendments to our election law.

Not only should they not attempt to stem this tide, but should do all in their power to sweep every vestige of fraud and corruption from the State of Alabama.

The Commissioners and the Inquirer.

The last issue of the Piedmont Inquirer contained an unjust and unwarranted attack upon the commissioner's court of Calhoun county.

In the first place the Inquirer objects to a contract which the commissioners made with the Jacksonville REPUBLICAN to do the legal printing of the county, and asserts that the making of this contract was a "gross usurpation of authority."

The Inquirer may be more learned in the law than are the commissioners and their legal advisers. The commissioners understand from the law that it is their duty to make contracts for all work which is to be paid for by the county, and that they alone are authorized to make such contracts.

Their purpose in renewing the contract which the county has had with the REPUBLICAN for years, was to save to the county twenty-five per cent on all printing necessary for it to have done. There is nothing more nor less in the contract to which the Inquirer so vehemently objects.

The commissioners court assumes to control no printing except that for which the county pays.

As to the charge which the Inquirer makes against the personal character of the men who compose the commissioners court, Judge Crook completely answers that charge in a letter addressed to the Inquirer which appears in this issue. It indeed needed no answer. For J. B. Palmer, J. T. DeArman, W. N. Coker and Green B. Skelton, are too well and favorably known to the people of Calhoun county for any man to believe that they would certify falsely, perjure themselves, for the pitiful sum of three dollars and fifty cents. They are not that character of men. But are men who are known to the people of Calhoun county for their veracity and integrity. The three first mentioned above are men who have received an indorsement of their official acts by a second election. The fourth is a man who has as high sense of honor as any man in Calhoun county, and who would be as far from performing a low, dirty act, as any living man.

The people will not fail to regard the charge against the commissioners court as unwarranted and malicious.

So far as Judge Crook is concerned he needs no praise or commendation at our hands. The people of the county almost to a man concede the fact that in him they have a Probate Judge who is as conscientious and as thoroughly qualified as any in the State of Alabama. The people have long since learned that he has the courage to do his duty under the law without regard to the favor or fear of any person or faction.

The editor of the REPUBLICAN has never hesitated to do a favor for the Inquirer when an opportunity was presented, and in all fairness, we think it exceedingly unkind for the editors of the Inquirer to meddle in our personal affairs by intimating that other persons are interested in the publicatoin of the REPUBLICAN. For the information of the Inquirer we state positively that no one is interested in the publication of the REPUBLICAN other than the one whose name appears as its editor and publisher.

Married.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Weems in Jacksonville, on Wednesday, November 14, 1894, Mr. Thomas J. Cason of Anniston, Ala., to Miss Harriet Minerva Weems.

Promptly at 10:30 o'clock Miss Fannie Hammond commenced to play Mendlesohn's march, when the bride and groom marched down the hall, which had been beautifully decorated for this occasion, and entered the parlor where they were met by Rev. J. H. Leslie of Jacksonville, and Rev. [illegible] of Jacksonville, and Rev. [illegible] P. Culver, of Anniston; who in a most beautiful and impressive ceremony united them as man and wife.

This ceremony was not witnessed by a large crowd who were spectators through curiosity and felt no special interest in the contracting parties, as are most of our church marriages, but was witnessed by a number of the special friends of the bride and groom, all of whom sincerely wished for them a life of prosperity and happiness.

The bride was one of Jacksonville's most excellent and popular young ladies, and the groom is to be congratulated in securing as a companion one who is so thoroughly suited to make his life successful and happy.

The writer has known Mr. Cason intimately for a number of years, and knows him to be a most excellent gentleman. He is sober, honest, intellectual, has good business training, and will no doubt make a success of life

Directly after the marriage Mr. and Mrs. Cason took a carriage and drove through to Anniston, where they will reside.

We direct special attention to Lippman's advertisement in this issue. They manufacture many of the goods they sell, and they will be found far superior to most goods offered in the market, and cost no more money than will have to be paid for inferior articles at other places. They carry a complete stock of goods, and those who visit them at their store in Anniston will find them honest and accomodating, and that they sell goods as cheap as they can be bought anywhere.

JUDGE CROOK

Piedmont Ala.

DEAR SIR:—I notice with regret the dirty little fling at the Commissioners Court, in your issue of last week. I did not think that you would allow your columns used for such venomous, spiteful, personal purposes, and especially by a miserable dirty little cus who has no interest in Calhoun County, or her citizens further than his personal aggrandizement. Do you know, Mr. Editor, what the word "HENCHMEN" means? And knowing the meaning of the word, do you apply it to four, among the most reputable citizens of your County? I know whereof I speak, when I say, that J. B. Palmer, J. T. DeArman, M. N. Coker and G. B. Skelton, the county commissioners, are as economical, painstaking, conscientious men and officials, as any county under the sun can boast of. I write this, not as an apology for anything the commissioners have done; they are willing to stand upon the records they have made in office, but to say the charges insinuated in your article written by a transient little cus, are untrue, and he knew it when he penned the article. A skunk may change its color or its name, but the smell remains there all the same. Every citizen of this county, who will think for a moment, will recognize the author of your piece from its diction, and if you had made him sign his name, that would have been sufficient evidence of its falseness and would have been so accepted by the people. I feel sure that you did not give the article that careful consideration which such a charge against your fellow man deserved, (even if he is a public official, for officials deserve truthful criticism, as well as private individuals.) I care nothing for the insinuations against myself, because you know it is untrue. You know that what is written in that piece concerning me is false. You know and the files of your paper show, that you have received more patronage from me than all of the other county officials combined. Then why publish that which you knew to be false? Was it for the poor pittance of a few paltry dollars? You know that when you was setting that piece to type, you were engaged upon a job of work given you by me. And you know that for months I endorsed your note in the Tredegar National Bank, and when the Bank refused longer to extend the note I had it to pay, and this money you said was to enable you to continue the publication of your paper. But why talk to an ingrate? Now you accuse the commissioners of "contempt of the law" and "its frequent dips into the county treasury, under the plea of inspection of roads." Each member of the court is a sworn officer, and makes out his account for services rendered, and it is passed upon just as other claims, and do you say, that either one, or all of these gentlemen, would perjure himself or themselves by swearing to false accounts for services not rendered? And that too from the simple sayso of a man whose only characteristic is "vindictiveness." You have made no examination as to the truth of the matter.

Again you say "his Honor and Henchmen consider themselves as fairly entitled to damages," this, refering to their presence at the Piedmont barbecue at Piedmont, the past summer, when Col. Oates and Sanford spoke there, and that the court voted themselves three and a half dollars, and the judge three dollars for the days work. The court at the repeated entreaty of commissioner Palmer, had at its May term, set that day to visit the proposed site for the bridge, and had so notified the commissioners of the other county, for the purpose of inspecting the same. This bridge was built at the especial request, and for the benefit of Piedmont, and was vigorously advocated by the Inquirer. When the day was fixed upon, Col. Oates had not been nominated, and the barbecue was not thought of. The court went to the place, attended to its business, returned to Piedmont in time to enjoy the barbecue dinner, back to Jacksonville and would be too late to do any business, so in order to hear the speeches, they decided to remain and travel back to Jacksonville after night. The county lost no time by the exchange and the court was in its place next morning. They paid their own expenses to and from the bridge. Now is not your charge on this point to pucrile, and should not the Inquirer blush at making such a charge?

There is no excuse for perverting the truth, when it can be so easily ascertained. I did expect better from you. Now as to Dr. Ayers and the Republican, this court has nothing to do. They continued the contract which had been in existence for years with that paper, which contract does save the county many dollars, and if there are any doubting Thomases, let then come here, and I will show them by actual facts and comparison, that this is true. The affairs of this county are in the hands of the four commissioners. It could not be in safer hands. If the Inquirer does not believe they have the authority to make said contract, let it test it. I dont believe any county official ever told the Inquirer he wished to give his printing to that paper but was detered by said order. Now give the name will you. There is not a county official who objects to the court saving every dollar possible for the county, nor is there one who cares anything about that awful contract, and I dont believe one of them objects to it. Now if I am wrong give your names. Let facts be ascertained by giving names, dates and all other information. You have attacked the personal integrity, and official honesty of four of your fellow citizens and should prove their dishonor or apoligize for inserting such rot at the instigation of a vindictive ass. Now you can enquire of Dr. Ayers as to how he bought the Republican, and as to his private affairs; not one member of this court or its presiding officer, has one dollars pecuniary interest in that paper, nor are they interested pecuniarily in its success or failure. I as an individual have no interest in the paper other than I have in the Inquirer, but am just willing to assist the Republican, as I was to assist the Inquirer before it left its bank note for me to pay. I have no apology or explanation to make to you or the cowardly liar who maliciously furnished you the piece for publication, and then fled the country to escape responsibility. I will add that the court did receive bids for the printing for the county. The Hot Blast withdrew its bid, and it was the general talk, and a fact conceded by you to me, that the Inquirer might cease publication at any time. And the court after considering the offer of the Republican to continue its contract, did accept its offer and made that contract, a contract that is awful only in that it was not made with the Inquirer instead of the Republican. The court is looking after the interest of Calhoun county and not the newspapers, and it cares precious little whether its acts pleases you or not. As to the notices from my court over which I have control, I have in the past always given you the ones in which the people in your end of the county were interested, and I did so of my own accord. I shall continue to do as I please with such notices where I have no instructions, and shall place them, where I think it is best for those concerned.

I have submitted this to the commissioners and they unanimously endorse every word as regards them, and as the object of this was to place them right before their fellow citizens I submit it for publication, provided you publish it without charge, otherwise consign it to the waste basket.

Very Respectfully,

EMMETT F. CROOK.

P. S.—The above was sent to the Piedmont Inquirer, but it declined to publish this week on account of pressure of advertising matter.

If so, your attention is directed to our facilities for supplying handsomely engraved invitations and cards at a few days' notice and at very low prices. Our stock of silver FOR WEDDINGS is positively unequaled by any other in the South. Why select from stocks where only a few pieces are shown when you can so much better please yourself with the newest styles from our large display? Our prices will be found from 10 to 25 per cent less than others charge.

CUT GLASS can be bought from us at prices so much lower than prevail elsewhere that the fact is well known throughout the State.

If there is going to be a wedding in your family, it will pay you to write us. J. P. STEVENS & BRO., 47 Whitehall Street, Atlanta, Ga.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

C. D. Martin has gone on a business trip to Atlanta.

Captain, Mrs. Hames and Master Bill have gone to Montgomery on a visit to relatives.

Rev. Mr. Mellichampe will preach at the Episcopal church next Sunday morning.

The press of other matter forces us to leave out several articles from local correspondents. They will appear next week.

Mrs. Dr. Haley returned last Thursday from Jasper, Ala., where she spent several weeks with friends and relatives.

Prof. Forney has been afflicted this week with rheumatism, and has been forced to stay away from school two or three days.

Those who are to take part in the "Gondoliers" will please meet Friday night at the residence of Mr. J. D. Hammond.

Mrs. M. H. Lane has gone to Sparta, Ga., her old home, on a visit to relatives and friends. Dr Lane accompanied her as far as Atlanta.

The Peoples Party held a meeting in the court house last Saturday and elected delegates to the convention held in Montgomery last Monday.

We are glad to learn that Mrs. Gordon Frank, who has been quite sick in Birmingham, is improving, and will soon be well enough to return.

The county commissioners have been in session here this week, but have not been making any illegal dips into the county treasury. They are not built that way.

These cold days make it necessary to have flannels. These hard times make it necessary for you to know that Lippman's, Anniston, is the best place to buy them.

Sheriff E. G. Caldwell and Deputy-Sheriff John Rowland went down to Montgomery last Monday to attend the State Sheriff's Association.

We regret to learn of the death of the mother of Mrs. Dr. Rowan, who died at her home in New York city last week. Dr. Rowan will probably not return to Jacksonville for several days yet.

After this week the Tedegar National Bank will open at 9 o'clock in the morning, and close at 3 in the afternoon. So get your deposits ready an hour earlier than heretofore.

Next Sunday is Rev. J. H. Leslie's last appointment in Jacksonville before he goes to the conference. It is the desire of all the people that he be sent back here for another year.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Jack Bonds died last week at her home in Beat 3. She was a most excellent lady, and leaves a husband and several children to mourn her death.

One of the young men of Jacksonville met his best girl on the street last week and saluted her by saying, "How are you making it?" To which she pertly replied, "Making it with a ruffle."

CIRCUIT COURT ADJOURNED.

Criminals Sentenced.

The last three days of the court was spent in trying the case of the State vs Robt. Poland, charged with the offence of seduction. Much interest was manifested in this case. Both the State and the defendant were ably represented, and every inch of ground closely contested. The case was given to the jury in the afternoon, and it did not bring in a verdict for several hours. The jury decided from the evidence that the defendant was not guilty.

Saturday afternoon Judge Bilbro had the prisoners found guilty at this term of the court brought before him and passed sentence upon them.

Among the number sentenced were two white boys, eleven negro men, and one negro woman. They were sentenced in the following order:

Isaiah Daniel, col., for grand larceny was given one year hard labor for his offence, 190 days for the cost.

Mack Johnson, who had been convicted of a petit larceny, on account of the condition of the health of himself and wife was sentenced to only one hour in jail for the offence, and he secured the cost.

Nora Ross, a negro woman, who had been convicted on the charge of public drunkenness was sentenced to hard labor ten days for the fine, and 45 days for the cost.

Mack Cobb, col., who the jury said under the evidence was guilty of carrying a concealed pistol, was given six months hard labor for the offence, twenty days for fine, and 100 days for cost.

Arthur Jackson, col., had been keeping gaming table, and the judge decided that he should do six months hard labor for the offence, thirty days to cover the fine, and six months to pay cost.

Wyly Dunston, col., had been carrying a little pistol concealed about his person, for which privilege he gives twenty days hard labor as a fine, and 134 days to pay the cost of his trial.

Lee Brown, col., was convicted on the charge of adultery, for which he gets thirty days as a fine and 130 days to pay cost.

John Jones, col., convicted for grand larceny, was given one year and six months for the offence, and 139 days to pay cost.

William Slaughter, col., was sent to the penitentiary for five years for a conviction of burglary.

Ada Riddle, a young negro boy, who had been appropriating hog meat to his own use when it legally belonged to another, was sent to the penitentiary for four years.

Jerry Riddle, the father of Ada, had been getting hog meat in the same way, and was given four years in the penitentiary.

George Hudson, col., who had assisted the Riddles in getting meat, was sent up for hard labor one year for the offence, and 113 days to pay the cost.

The East and West railroad has been purchased by the Columbian Equipment Company, of New York, and will be extended on the east to Elberton, Ga., to connect with the Seaboard Air Line, and on the west to Birmingham; which will make it an important trunk line.

This deal may mean much for Jacksonville, as the gentlemen who have been instrumental in working it up, are warm friends to this place.

When you get ready to buy a Christmas present, the best place to make your purchase is from Henry Robinson, Anniston. He carries a fine stock of jewelry, and is one of the cleverest men in the world. When you go to Anniston, go and see him.

Mr. Robert Cheatwood died at his home in the eastern portion of Calhoun county last Thursday, Nov 15 1894. He was 102 years old last October, and was probably the oldest man in the county. He moved to this county from South Carolina in 1839.

We are requested to state that Bishop O'Sullivan of Selma, will deliver a lecture at the court house in Jacksonville next Monday night. Subject, What Catholics do not believe. No charge, and all are invited.

S. D. G. Brothers, Esq, has spent the week with his parents in the country and has no doubt killed birds by the hundred, and ducks and wild turkeys by the dozen. In other words, has had a regular Grover trip.

W. A. McGuire, a well known citizen of Mc Kay, Ohio, is of the opinion that their is nothing as good for children troubled with cold or croup as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has used it in his family for several years with the best results and always keeps a bottle of it in the house. After having la guippe he was himself troubled with a severe cough. He used other remedies without benefit and then concluded to try the children's medicine and to his delight it soon effected a permanent cure. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by dealers.

ALEXANDRIA.

Rev. Geo. D. Harris who has accepted the pastorate of Mt Zion church will fill his first appointment at that church on the first Sunday in Dec.

Rev. Mr. Horton, for three years pastor of the Methodist church at this place, preached his closing sermon for the year on last Sunday. Having served his church so faithfully and well not only his members but the community will be glad if the Conference sends him here another year.

Misses Mollie and Dora Lile came up from Anniston and spent a day or two among us.

Mr. Holmesly, our former Depot Agent, spent a day or two with friends here last week.

JENKINS

We have been having regular hog killing weather for a week, and some of our people have been making use of it. First, W. P. Harris killed one that weighed 466 pounds. Pink Watson two that weighed respectively 332 and 338; total, 720 pounds, and has an other that will tilt the scales at 300 or over.

I do not think our people will buy much western corn or meat for the next twelve months. We will live at home and board at the same place.

Gathering corn and sowing wheat is the occupation of most of the farmers now while the chaps pick cotton.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Issues and Measures.

Did you ever think about the relation of the two?

We are very apt to confound men and measures. In this way much wrong is done, and great harm some times results. A man may be one thing, and a measure quite another thing.

A measure may be unwise, even wrong, and the man who advocates it may be honest, sincere, intelligent, religious—a christian gentleman. It is hard sometimes for us to realize that those supporting measures which we oppose are honest, and intelligent. We are apt to attribute to them bad motives, or declare that they are controlled entirely by others, and have no mind of their own. This is the very spirit that gave birth to the bloody Inquisition, and would light its fires now were it the fashion as in the dark ages. We should be ashamed of the intolerance which would impugn a man's motives, question his intelligence, or try to make him less esteemed because he "Followeth not with us." None may assume infallibility. It has but once appeared in the flesh, the God took upon Him our nature, was manifested in the flesh. But we are very confident that we are right, very well after all we may be wrong. But suppose we are right, the man who advocate the opposite measure may be honestly mistaken, as we have been many times, and may be an intelligent christian gentleman all the same. These are compatible because of the limitation and fallability of all men. On the other hand a measure may be wise and good, and bad men may advocate it, this does not prove the measure wrong, or unwise; or the men good or intelligent because they advocate it. Bad men, and ignorant men are often found advocating what is wise and good, and vice versa. We must keep men and measures separate if we would save ourselves from wrong judgments, and harsh criticisms. A man known to be a bad man, because he advocates my party, or measure, or casts his vote for my candidate, or my measure, does not become by this one act wise or good, or worthy of respect and confidence. A man known to be a good man, because he may not be of my party or may vote against my man or measure, does not therefore become either a fool, or a rascal; nor is he less worthy of respect and confidence because he may differ with me. Confounding men and measures and the spirit of intolerance which would seem to claim infallibility is the bane of this country today. Men have differed in politics, and confidence is destroyed, and friendships have been broken, harsh, unjust judgments and criticisms have been indulged in, our social life has been disturbed, and much harm is likely to result. This spirit is not confined to politics, it has invaded the churches. It is carried into the various religious questions of the day, and even within any given church in reference to any measure of great, or vital importance, we see the same spirit. How we should blush as christians, to allow such a spirit. Doubtless we need a reformation at this point. It must come through the individual. Brother begin today to set yourself right, carry the right spirit into all relations, and all questions, and the reformation will have commenced. Discriminate between men and measures and much harm will be prevented. You may differ with me in judgment, and may oppose me, and I oppose you. Neither of us are either better or worse because we honestly see things differently. If I discount you because of this fact, I should search my own heart. You may differ with me, and do all you can, legitimately, on the other side, and yet be a gentleman, a patriot, and a Christian; or you may agree with me and do all you can on my side, and be neither a gentleman, a patriot, or a christian. Shame on our narrowness and intolerance. —Christian Enterprise.

Henry Wilson, the postmaster at Welshion, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhœa of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can always be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by *

The Right Way.

Now we are glad the election is over. We hope sincerely we will get a rest from political wrangles for a while. It did not go to suit a great many. But the country is not ruined. We can make this the grandest country on the face of the earth if we will. The destiny of this country, under God, is in our hands. Let us adopt more scientific methods of farming, build factories, educate our children, suppress vice, and condemn it in high and low places, live religiously, be industrious and economical and we will soon have better times. Let us trust more in God, and less in politics. Depend more on ourselves and less on politicians. This is the only way out.—Christian Enterprise.

A Supper at White Plains.

There will be a supper at White Plains Thursday evening Nov. 22. 94. The proceeds will be devoted to paying for some necessary improvements on the school property, for which we are indebt. This is a worthy cause. We hope that there will be a liberal response on the part of the public. Be sure to attend and lend a helping hand.—Christian Enterprise.

MOTHERS and those about to become mothers, should know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription robs childbirth of its torture, terrors and dangers to both mother and child, by aiding Nature in preparing the system for parturition. Thereby "labor" and also the period of confinement are greatly shortened. It also promotes an abundant secretion of nourishment for the child. During pregnancy, it prevents "morning sickness" and those distressing nervous symptoms from which so many sufer.

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.:
Dear Sir—I began taking your "Favorite Prescription" the first month of pregnancy, and have continued taking it since confinement. I did not experience the nausea or any of the ailments due to pregnancy, after I began taking your "Prescription." I was only in labor a short time, and the physician said I got along unusually well.

JUDGE CROOK

FIRES INTO EDITOR WICKES

JACKSONVILLE, ALA., Nov. 20th 94

EDITOR REPUBLICAN,

My Dear Sir:—Mr. L. Wickes says he prefers my article appearing in the "Protected Jacksonville Republican." Why he prefers this I am unable to say, but with your permission I will please him. Mr. Wickes has dodged the question by an effort to raise a question of veracity between him and me. Mr. Wickes says that I said I did not wish to have anything more to do with the Inquirer. He cannot find any such expression, or any such insinuation of that kind in my letter. Now as to how Mr. Wickes notes were paid, I said nothing, and only used that as one of many instances where I had done as much for the Inquirer as I had for the Republican. Since Mr. Wickes says that when I said that I had lost money by him, (which I did not say or insinuate, but do now say that I did lose money by that transaction) I told that which was untrue I will lay before the public the facts, as they appear of record in the Circuit Court, and the public can judge who is mistaken. First, I will say that Mr. Wickes' assertion that certain gentlemen in Piedmont took up his note, is not true. I paid the notes myself and got my money through the court. On February 20th, 1893, I indorsed Mr. Wickes' note for $100.00. This was a renewal of a former indorsement by me, and was due in two months. On March 25th, 1893, I again indorsed Mr. Wickes' note for $100.00 due in ninety days, and this was also a renewal of a former indorsement by me of his note. This now made me indorser of two notes for Mr. Wickes for $100.00 each, due respectively, April 20th, and June 25th, 1893. When the note fell due April 20th, Mr. Ide, cashier of the bank, notified me that Mr. Wickes had not paid the same and that unless some arrangement was made it would be protested. I arranged with Mr. Ide not to protest the note as I did not want my credit impaired by protest as an indorser. I wrote Mr. Wickes urging him to do something in the matter. Mr. Ide wrote Mr. Wickes, and Mr. Brothers, the attorney for the bank, wrote Mr. Wickes, and I telegraphed Mr. Wickes, and none of us could get any satisfaction as to what he proposed doing. On June 25th, when the second note fell due, Mr. Wickes still refused to meet his paper, saying that it took all he could make to support him, and declined making any arrangement by which I would be relieved from having to raise the money to pay his notes which I had indorsed as stated in my former letter. Mr. Ide informed me that unless the note was promptly paid he would protest it. I paid the note, but it put me to considerable trouble, and I was worried over the matter as I had not expected to have the notes to pay. I paid the $200, and immediately turned the notes over to Mr. Brothers, my attorney, with instructions to make the money if possible. Mr. Brothers brought suit and attached the outfit of the Inquirer, and at the October term of the Circuit Court judgement with an order of sale was rendered in my favor, and when Mr. Wickes saw that the law would compel him to pay me, he wrote me asking that I hold up the execution a while, which I did, and on the 9th day of December the City Council of Piedmont paid the judgment and I transferred it to the City Council of Piedmont. All of the papers in this matter are of record in the circuit court, and are just as I have stated. Mr. Ide and Mr. Brothers know the facts, and why in the face of such evidence Mr. Wickes would accuse me of an untruth in my statement is something I cannot comprehend. Mr. Wickes speaks of my having to pay his notes as if he had allowed me a great honor, and as if there was nothing at stake in a failure to meet a bank note. Probably there was not to a man like Mr. Wickes who would allow his indorser to pay it for him, and he not even come to see about it, or make any suggestions or efforts to assist his indorser to pay it, or arrange it so as to protect his indorser. He knew I could not afford to let the note go to protest, therefore felt easy as to himself. Now I ask if there is no worry or trouble over a bank note due and liable to be protested, by a man who wants to keep up his credit, and that too when he did not have a dollar with which to pay the note he had indorsed purely for accommodation? I had to move around lively to get the money to pay Wickes note or have my credit at the bank impaired. If Mr. Wickes will come here I will show him that I did lose money beside trouble and worry on account of my kindness to him. Mr. Wickes attempts by inference and by printing my telegram to convey the impression that if I had not recalled my article, he would have published it, and then addresses a P. S. "To the readers of the Inquirer:—The communication that Judge Crook sent to this office appears in todays Jacksonville Republican etc." Mr. Wickes has not yet returned my article, although I sent him postage to do so with.

After sending my article to the Inquirer I received the following letter.

Piedmont, Ala., Nov. 13th, 1894.

Hon. E. F. Crook,

Jacksonville, Ala.,

My Dear Sir:—Yours recd. and contents noted. I have not space to publish the article in this week's paper, but will publish it in next week's issue, as I have so much advertising that I cannot spare the space this week.

You infer by your letter that you lost money by indorsing for me at the bank, when you know that I even sold some of my personal property that I made my living from, in order that you might not lose anything by me. But it is your desire to put this before the people that I beat you out of the amount, but I will place it before the people in its true light. I will give you names of the county officials who wished to patronize the Inquirer, when I reply to the article. I take the Code of Alabama for my information, and it says that the public officials shall place their notices in some paper in the county, and does not say that the commissioners court shall have the say. You say that you are not running the court to please the newspapers, and care little whether it pleases me or not. It amuses me how different a man talks about a paper when it is not election year, but we never forget such things. The Inquirer belongs to the people, and it intends to use its columns for the benefit of the people. How is anything to be put before the people if not in a paper. I agree with you when you say that the court is not being run to please the newspapers, and you might have added not always to please the people. In reference to this contract we will test it and will also test a few other things from time to time. This is not our fight personally, but many other good citizens in the county as you will learn later on. I remain,

Very truly,

J. C. Wickes.

Now, this letter taken alone is very well, but I call your attention to the fact as to why he could not publish my article in his issue of 17th, and that he will do so and so "when I reply to the article." Remember this, and again the implied threat that "we" never forget such things. He tries to make the impression that he is the people's champion, that he is the only paper with sand enough in his gizzard to investigate this great wrong perpetrated upon the people by the court in letting the county's printing out by contract. And we, the people, four correspondents, without name, and ashamed to have their their names appear to their articles, twist brother Wicke's tail and say go it old boy we are with you, we the people. The communications have somewhat of a sameness about them. After receiving above letter from Mr. Wickes I sent him the telegram published by him asking the return of my article as I saw he was not inclined to treat me fairly, and I wished it to appear last week. I also wrote him to return my article and enclosed the necessary postage. The article did not come by the mail as requested, and I again telegraphed Mr. Wickes for my article, and in reply received this wonderful answer. Now read it carefully, and compare it with his former letter, and see how great a champion of the people, he is. The first letter he is in for fight for the people, in this one he washes his hands of the dear peoples' interest, and goes in to take care of Wickes. The same old story, poor old dog tray caught in bad company.

Piedmont, Ala., Nov. 15th, 1894.

Hon. E. F. Crook,

Jacksonville Ala.

My Dear Sir:—Yours received and will comply with your request as soon as possible. Your communication reflected very strongly upon Mr. Grant and I mailed it to him last night with the instructions to reply to the part in reference to him, and I would look after the personal attack made upon me. As soon as Mr. Grant returns the communication to me and I can make a duplicate of it for my own use in the future, I will send it to you. I have written him by this mail that you have requested me to return the copy at once. I am out of this fight except that part which deals with me personally, and I intend to prove to the people that the charge you made is untrue. I made no insinuations against you in last weeks paper only in reference to the unjust deal that was made with the printing.

Very truly,

J. C. Wickes.

Mr. Wickes is out this fight, then who is in it do you suppose? Where does Mr. Wickes get his authority to say that my article reflected upon any body? I called no names; nor did I personate any one but Mr. Wickes, and that only as the owner of the Inquirer. I said not a word of him personally. I dont know who he is, nor where he came from, nor whither he is drifting, but if he stops in Calhoun County on his tramp around the world, and undertakes to vilify his betters, he must expect to be dealt with. He cannot throw down the gauntlet to me and not have it picked up. Neither can he pour out his discontent and vindictiveness upon me and rub it in, election year or what not. Such mean, low threats, because a man is in public office he must be a foot ball to be kicked about by such trash as J. C. Wickes. Now for the benefit of the people whom Mr. Wickes has attempted to deceive about this printing contract, I will explain. I did not do so before because I did not honestly think there was a man in Calhoun County who read and thought for himself, so ignorant as not to know that everything in this county that is required to be paid for out of the county treasury was under the control and supervision of the commissioners court. Every bridge, every public building, every road, every particle of printing that is paid for by the county is under the control of the court, and it has the legal right to contract for the same, and to enforce its contracts. The court has had a contract, this same contract, with the Jacksonville Republican, long before I was made Probate Judge, and I never before heard of any body questioning the courts right in the matter, especially the author of Mr. Wickes great production. The court only seeks the right to control the printing for which the county pays, nothing more. The court would not presume to dictate or suggest to any county official as to what paper he should insert his notices in, for which the county does not pay. The court is not near as big fools as those who are growling about its transcending its authority. The court knows its duty and knowing that duty, intends to do it though the stars and this greater luminary (?) brother Wickes both fall. Now I take it that the people desire every dollar that can be justly saved to the county, to be saved, and that they are not only willing, but glad if the court by its contracts can save money for the county. Is there a man in the county who will say that the court would do right to let the printing for which the county is bound, go just as Wickes would have it regardless of the counties interest? I think not. Now I do think that a good citizen is in poor business reaking his personal spite and vengeance at certain members of the court, out on the court as a body. Why does he not take his vengeance out of the offending person like a brave man, and not under the cover of darkness? Now I have been told that Mr. Wickes has said, that he would tear the court to pieces when he got his returns from his Northern partner. Just turn loose your battery, but lookout for the recoil.

Most truly,

EMMETT F. CROOK.

THE JOINT SESSION.

At noon Saturday the house was again called to order.

The senators entered by twos and took seats at the front. Twenty-seven senators answered to roll call. Ninety representatives were present.

The president of the senate announced a quorum and stated the purpose of the meeting.

Senator Goodwyn announced when the speaker rose to announce the vote that he had a protest to file against the announcement of the vote. The speaker said he was out of order. Mr. Goodwin urged that his protest was signed by forty-four members of the house. The speaker said the senator was out of order. The following spicy colloquy then ensued:

"I appeal—"

"The gentleman will take his seat."

"I demand—"

"Will you take your seat, sir?"

"I insist, Mr. Speaker."

"The doorkeeper will—"

"I will take my seat, sir."

The results were then read by counties.

When Barbour county was called Senator Goodwyn insisted that his protest included that county, and read it again. The chair said he must enforce his ruling, and would be compelled to call upon the doorkeeper to seat the senator. The speaker stated he did not want to make a scene, but the senator had been ruled out of order and must desist.

"Then you decline to receive my protest?" asked Mr. Goodwyn.

"I do, sir."

Mr. Goodwyn sat down, and the announcement of the vote was proceeded with.

The following is the vote as announced:

FOR GOVERNOR.

Oates	110,865
Kolb	83,283

FOR SECRETARY OF STATE.

Jackson	108,944

FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

Fitts	105,934
Reese	71,316

FOR AUDITOR.

Purifoy	106,830
Lynch	73,601

FOR TREASURER.

Smith	107,122

FOR SUPERINTENDENT OF EDUCATION.

Turner	105,129
Oliver	72,271

The following is the protest Senator Goodwyn desired to present this morning to the two houses, but was ruled out of order:

"To the Joint Convention of the Senate and House in session November 17, 1894:—

"We, the undersigned members of the general assembly of Alabama, respectfully protest against the counting of the vote for state officers in the counties of Autauga, Bullock, Barbour, Russell, Macon, Montgomery, Lowndes, Dallas, Wilcox, Monroe, Perry, Hale, Greene, Sumter and Marengo. We offer this protest on account of the monstrous frauds committed in the election of August, 1894, whereby the result of said election frauds was to defeat and reverse the will of the people as truly expressed at the ballot box. Respectfully,

Report of County Superintendent of Education.

ED. REPUBLICAN:—The following extracted from my annual report to the State Superintendent of Education for the year ending Sept. 30th, will doubtless be of interest to some of your numerous readers:

Number of children in the county of school age (7 to 21). 11,835. White, 8165; colored, 3670. Total enrollment in all the public schools including transfers to other counties, whites, 4512; colored 1745. From the best information I can obtain, private schools from which I get no reports would probably raise the enrollment of white schools to 5200 and of colored to about 2000. Total State funds including poll tax paid to teachers, $11,879 57. Number of white public schools, 90. Teachers of same, 101; males, 54; females, 47. Of the white teachers, 48 have, or are entitled to first grade licenses, 7 have second grade, and 46 have third grade.

Some of the teachers taught more than one school during the year, and some of the schools had one or more assistant teachers. All however, embraced in the above list. The same is true in regard to the following colored schools and teachers.

Number colored teachers, 29. Males, 15; females, 14. Number colored schools, 26.

Outside of Anniston the average pay from public school fund per month of white teachers, counting assistants, was $14.90. Without counting assistants, $16.86. Average pay per month of colored teachers, $16.16.

The aforesaid salaries of white teachers were supplemented by patrons of the respective schools. Very few colored teachers received any pay from their patrons supplementary to the public school funds.

In Anniston the state fund is largely supplemented by the city, so that tuition is free in the two large public schools there.

In addition to the number of teachers given above, the private schools of Anniston have probably 25 others actively engaged. Making in all, 125 white teachers in the county; at least 75 of whom are 1st grades.

It is not wonderful therefore that the County Teacher's Institutes are much more successful than were those held 15 to 20 years ago when there were only about a dozen first grade teachers in the county.

The music and art teachers are not included in the number given in this paper as I have aimed to get a correct estimate of their number in the county.

L. D. MILLER,
Co. Supt. Education.

Gov. Jones Message.

The press of other matter last week prevented the REPUBLICAN from giving proper notice of Governor Jones message to the general assembly. It is indeed an able state paper, and reflects much credit upon its author.

Govenor Jones first discusses the condition of the treasury. He states that at the close of the present fiscal year, ending Sept. 30th, 1894, there was deficit amounting to $364,354.65. He made the same arrangement to handle this deficit as the previous year. He effected a temporary loan of $100,000 from the New York Security and Trust Company, and induced it to take a transfer of warrants at par to the amount of $215,000, if necessary, and also to take up the January coupons until the revenues of the fiscal year would enable the State to pay them and the loan. For this loan the State pays interest at the rate of six per cent per annum.

The auditor on the basis of present laws and valuations, that there will also be a deficiency for the fiscal year ending Sept. 30th, 1895, amounting to $34,820.00. Making a total deficit for the three years of $683,993.65.

The Governor states that the deficits are due to the falling off in assessments and to the lowering of the tax rate.

In discussing the duty of the legislature to meet the needs of the State government, the Governor has this to say of our present plan of assessment:

"It will not be denied that the value of property which is assessed and that which escapes taxation, is at least twice as great as the value shown by our assessments. If all this property could be fairly assessed, the present rate of taxation would more than suffice for our wants; but it seems idle to expect this, or any near approach to it, in the light of the repeated failures of the legislative efforts during the past seventy-five years, to cure the admitted evils of escapes from tax-

The Republican

By T. W. AYERS.

SATURDAY NOV. 24, 1894.

Hon. John T. Morgan.

The Democracy of Alabama last Tuesday gave an expression of its love, appreciation for and confidence in the state's most distinguished citizen and statesman, by nominating Hon. John T. Morgan for the United States Senate.

This is the fourth time Senator Morgan has been honored, a distinction which no other man in the State of Alabama has ever enjoyed. A distinction, however, which he deserves, for his ability, his unselfish devotion to the interest of his people and country, has not only given him a place among the most distinguished statesmen of the United States, but he is to-day numbered among the famous men of the world.

The morning before the joint caucus of the Democrats of the two houses was held, the Montgomery Advertiser displayed its well known spirit of intolerance for all men who do not believe just as it believes, by making an unwarranted attack upon General Morgan by charging that he had been inconsistent in his Democracy on account of certain promises made Taubeneck. General Morgan denounced in a card, addressed to the members of the Legislature, the charge of the Advertiser as absolutely false. The Democratic members of the general assembly also rebuked the intolerant Advertiser by nominating General Morgan by a vote of 75 to 5.

The Populists held a caucus and nominated Warren S. Reese, Sr., and say they will contest Gen. Morgan's seat in the senate on the ground that fraud was employed in the state election, and that of the representatives entitled to vote Reese received a majority.

For Fair Elections.

Not only do the conservative men in the ranks of the Democratic party in the state of Alabama want fair elections, but they demand that the present legislature so amend our present election law as to put an end to the prostitution of the ballot in this state.

The present law with certain amendments can be made such a law as will be as likely to inforce absolutely fair elections as any other bill that can be enacted.

The most important amendments are those suggested by Governor Jones, in his message to the general assembly. He says "elections should not only be fair, but should be believed to be fair. This can be accomplished by legislation securing the appointment of inspectors, clerks and fixers at each polling place, nominated by the proper authorities of each of the parties having candidates to be voted for at the election. I recommend such legislation."

With the amendments suggested by Governor Jones, a fair election can be had at every voting place in the State. Let all parties be represented by an inspector, a clerk and a fixer of the ballot. This is fair and proper, and there should be no objection to it. Not only have each of the parties having candidates represented in the management of the election, but represented by men of their own selection. Let the law be so amended that the county executive committee of each party having candidates shall have the right to name their inspectors, clerks and fixers. With this and a few other amendments we will have an election law satisfactory to all parties and we will hereafter have no friction in the management of our elections.

In a letter to the editor of the REPUBLICAN Hon. W. C. Scarbrough states that the bill he has introduced in the Legislature to change the manner of electing the county commissioners in Calhoun county, provides that one commissioner shall be elected from each of the commissioners districts as at present; but instead of having the commissioners elected by the voters in their respective districts, all four commissioners shall be voted for all over the county as are other county official. The bill also provides that two of the commissioners elected at the next general election shall serve for two years, and two four years. In this way, after the first election only two commissioners will be elected every two years, and there will always be two in the court who have experience in the management of the affairs of the county.

THE recommendation of Gov. Jones to throw around primaries the same legal restrictions as are thrown around the general election is wise, and the general assembly should enact such a law during the present session.

GEN. WILLIAM WIRT ALLEN died at Florence, Ala., last Wednesday. He was one of the bravest soldiers in the confederate army, and one of the best men in Alabama.

GOVERNOR JONES appointed Dr. Francis Rice Probate Judge of Madison county, to fill vacancy caused by the death of Judge Thomas J. Taylor.

GOVERNOR KOLB.

THAT'S WHAT GENIAL REUBEN SAYS HE WILL BE.

Calls on the People of Alabama to Aid Him in Being Inaugurated on December 1st.

Captain R. F. Kolb has issued a manifesto in which he states that by the grace of God, and by the help of the good people of Alabama, he will be inaugurated Governor of Alabama on the 1st day of next December.

In his letter he first reviews the last two state elections, and claims that in each he was elected Governor of Alabama, and closes his manifesto as follows:

"The foregoing considered and in view of existing conditions in Alabama, I have determined to discharge my full duty to the people of Alabama. I will not fail to respect the pledges which I made to the people who have given their confidence and stood by me so heroically and devotedly during the past four years. You, fellow-citizens, have twice elected me governor of this state, and this time, by the grace of God, and the help of the good people of Alabama, I will be governor. December 1st is the day fixed by law for the inauguration of governor. On that day I shall be in Montgomery for the purpose of taking the oath of office and my seat as governor. And I hereby call upon the good people in every part of the state to aid me in all proper and peaceable methods to uphold the law and set aside the power of traitors and usurpers in Alabama. I appeal to my friends and surpporters from all parts of the state to be in Montgomery on the 1st day of December, 1894, there and then to give me their aid and support in a lawful and peaceable manner to vindicate their liberties. I council against any unlawful demonstration, but ask the presence and co-operation of free men in a necessary effort to enforce the law and carry out the will of the people.

REUBEN F. KOLB."

WHAT GOVERNOR JONES SAYS:

Directly after the telegram was received in Montgomery stating that Kolb's manifesto had been issued, the following is a short interview had with Governor Jones on the subject:

Governor Jones, who was about to take the train for Mobile to take part in the ceremonies attending the reception of the cruiser Montgomery, was shown telegrams from Birmingham in reference to the Kolb manifesto.

He declined at first to be interviewed but when shown the dispatch wherein Kolb says that, by the grace of God, he will take his seat on December 1st, the governor quietly remarked:

"William C. Oates has been elected governor by the fairly expressed will of a majority of the people of Alabama, and has been so declared by the general assembly, the only tribunal which has the right or authority, under the constitution, to declare the result. It is my duty to see that he be duly installed, and, by the grace of God, he will be.

I do not anticipate that any number of men will be foolish enough to keep Kolb's advice, but if they do, the consequences will be on their own heads."

A notice of the visitors who were here last week to attend the Cason-Weems marriage was through mistake left out of the last issue of the REPUBLICAN. Among the number we met Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weems, Rome, Ga., Mrs. Ramsaur, Atlanta, Ga., Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Cedartown, Ga., Mess. George P. Cason, Walter Jones, Charley Sawyer, Durrough Watsou and Rev. Dr. Culver, Anniston.

ELECTROPOISE

SPECIAL OFFER.

The success of the Electropoise in ouring disease of almost every form, and many patients apparently beyond recovery, has caused a wide and growing demand for the "little doctor." Tumors, abscesses, scrofula, cancer, paralysis, chronic and acute rheumatism and neuralgia, many cases of female troubles, some cases of total and partial blindness, and deafness, Bright's disease, kidney and bladder ailments have been cured in such a short while as to border on the miraculous. The treatment is simple and effective. Write for terms of rental and sale and special reasons why you should get one this month; also letters from well-known people, testifying to its curative merit.

D. A. Bryant, Hackneyville:—"I was badly crippled with Rheumatism, also had a bad kidney trouble, I was helpless and could do no work. The Electropoise cured me and enabled me to work regularly."

Joseph Williams, Stevenson—"I can walk all over town and even run, whereas a few weeks ago I was a helpless cripple, the Electropoise did it."

Mrs. W. P. Nelson, Sunshine—"My recovery was wonderful. I have also tried the Electropoise on several of my neighbors, for various ailments, nausea, kidney trouble of the worst from, all with the most gratifying results."

LOCAL AND PERSONAL.

Dr. J. D. Arnold made a business trip to Opelika this week.

Miss Martie Whiteside of White Plains is visiting her sister, Mrs Weaver.

We had a very pleasant call from brother Smith of the Hot Blast, last Wednesday.

We had a very pleasant call from Farther McDonald of Selma, last Tuesday.

Miss Mai Cunningham has gone to Atlanta where she will probably remain for several months.

There will be services at the baptist church Sunday by Rev. M. H. Lane D. D.

Mrs. E. F. Crook has returned from Montgomery, where she spent several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Ruth.

We are requested to state that all the stores in Jacksonville will be closed next Thursday, — Thanksgiving day.

Rev. F. M. Treadaway is having a large overshot wheel built at his mill which he recently bought from the Forney estate.

Mess. W. H. and Walter Dean have completed the burning of their brick, and they are believed to be a No 1. The kiln contains 225,000.

Mr. Wills Lanford died at his home near Post Oak church last week. He was quite an old man, and had been an invalid for several years.

The new crossing over the East Tennessee rail road on Francis Avenue is one of the best crossings over that road in town.

Rev. J. H. Leslie leaves for the annual conference next Monday, and his friends here hope that he will be returned to his present work for another year.

Capt. Ross has spent several days this week in visiting the gins in the western portion of the county buying cotton seed for the Jacksonville Oil Mill Co.

Elmore Garrett of Anniston, has been elected to a clerkship in the state senate, and W. M. Maugham of this county, as door keeper of gallery in the lower house.

County Commissioners court has been in session this week drawing juries for next year for circuit court and Anniston city court.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Pet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. DeArman, to Mr. D.C. Wright, at DeArmanville, Thursday, Nov. 29, 1894.

The south bound train over the Southern reaches Jacksonville at 12:45 p. m, and the north bound 1:27 p.m. This is quite an improvement over night schedule.

Cooper & Co's Great Southern Railroad Show will exhibit in Jacksonville next Monday, the 26th. It comes recommended as a most excellent show, and the people should see it.

Our friend W. L. Johnson brought us this week a novelty in an ear of corn. It starts out matured as ears usualy do, and then divides into five distinct prongs, as if limbs to a tree.

Next Thursday is Thanksgiving day. While this has not been a prosperous year with the people financially, yet there are many things for which we should be thankful to Him who giveth all good things.

We direct attention to the advertisement in this issue of M. F. Doering, Anniston. He keeps a large and well selected stock of jewelry, and sells at living prices. He is well known to the writer, and we know him to be thoroughly reliable. Call and see him.

CALHOUN COUNTY.

THE NEWS FROM ALL PORTIONS OF THE COUNTY.

All About the People, the Crops, and the Outlook for the Future—You Must Read the Republican if you Want to Know the News of Your County.

ANNISTON.

The election on the 6th passed off quietly. Anniston gave her usual Democratic majority, but we are sorry to see that other sections of the country, both far and near did not keep the faith as did The "Model City." We have one especial regret in this connection, and that is, the Republicans will get credit for the good times that are sure to come from the Democratic legislation of the last congress.

As the Congressional election is a thing of the past, most of the people will have a political rest for about two years, but such will not be the case with our people here in Anniston; for municipal politics is already beginning to simmer—it will boil over later on. Messrs. Hight, Keith, McGhee, Noble, Brown, Houser, McKleroy, and others are being mentioned as men worthy of the position of mayor.

It is reported that one of our leading local Republican politicians deposited his ballot on election day without placing the X before the name of the candidate of his choice.

Prof. W. Y. Titcombe, of Shelby Springs, spent Monday and Tuesday of last week in this city.

Quite a number of our citizens attended the Brothers—Barr wedding, which occurred in Oxford last week. It was a swell affair.

The Jeffersonians, or a lot of them have gone, body and soul, into the Republican party. Two years ago they got mad with us for predicting that they would do this.

D. T. Goodwin stands unrivalled as a successful Chairman. He is the right man in the right place. He has done much for Democracy, and every good Democrat ought to see to it that he is fully rewarded.

Our street committee has been instructed to fix up a crossing over the L. & N. near the lime works. This committee also has charge of the opening of South Noble street, which opening is greatly needed.

The passenger trains on the Georgia Pacific will run into the union depot, on and after the 18th. This is gratifying news to the traveling public.

The city court is progressing nicely; that is, it is disposing of business rapidly. There is a growing belief in the minds of many that the jurisdiction of this court ought to be extended over the entire county. It is claimed that, as all the people have to bear the expenses of the court, all the people ought to reap its benefits.

Frozen water pipes have given our people considerable trouble during the past week. While city life has many advantages, it also has many draw-backs.

Weekly pay days have been adopted by the Anniston Pipe and Foundry company, to the delight of their many employees.

Several of our citizens went to Montgomery this week, to be present at the opening of the legislature.

The board of education held its regular monthly meeting Tuesday night.

Just as soon as the Republicans elected their men to congress, cotton went down. It is now selling at 4½c per pound. Just after Cleveland was elected, cotton went up to 8 cents. Which do you prefer, farmer?

The entertainment at the University on the night of the 9th inst, which was largely attended, was highly appreciated.

We are getting to be an exceedingly law-abiding people. Police circles are scarcely ever disturbed.

Alf Truitt is about through gathering the fleecy staple from his cotton farm located at the nor. west corner of the intersection of Noble and Twelfth streets. We have not yet ascertained how many bags he harvested.

CHOCCOLOCCO.

Since the election last Tuesday our farmers have been at work with a vim gathering corn and sowing wheat.

Our Populite brethren here could not swallow the Republican candidate for congress. But one white man at this box voted the Republican ticket, and he claims he voted it through mistake.

Mr. Hudson after a vacation of two weeks has resumed his school again.

Mrs. Hattie Scarbrough has returned from a visit to her sister, Mrs. Allen, in Bessemer. She heard Mr. Moody, the noted evangelist, in Birmingham.

The Sunday school at Harmony took a collection for the orphan's home last Sunday and got something over three dollars. They aim to devote one Sabbath's collection in each month to this institution.

Mrs. A. M. Whiteside and daughter, and Miss Morris, of White Plains, spent two nights this week in our village visiting.

Mr. Wright is clerking for Eba Scarbrough. Hop Borders having quit, as he is going into other business.

Messrs. Downing and Morris will move their stock of goods down near their mill as soon as their store building is completed.

Mr. King has a school at Iron City and will move there soon.

Rev. John A. Scott preached a splendid sermon on the life of Christ last Sabbath; after which he administered the Lord's supper.

Rev. M. G. Milligan is visiting at Heflin.

Mrs. Lucy Smith has moved to Heflin.

Mrs. Kelly who has been quite sick, is again up.

MERRELTON.

Rev. Thos. Nisbet assumed the pastoril care of the Piedmont Spring church last Saturday.

Mrs. Thos. Littlejohn is very low at this time. She is not expected to live long.

Miss Eva Wells, who fell some time since and was seriously hurt, is still in a critical condition.

J. M. Dowdell, a Calhoun county boy, has picked this fall twelve thousand pounds of cotton in Texas up to Oct. 21st.

The Coosa Yarn Co., Piedmont, buys nearly all the cotton that goes there, paying Atlanta prices.

We advise all farmers to plant much less cotton another year, and to a great extent discontinue the use of commercial fertilizers, and produce other crops, such as the small grains. The soil of this country needs rest from cotton culture.

We should raise our horses and mules here as well as our hogs.

Prosperity will come to those who avail themselves of the opportunities as the are presented.

OHATCHEE.

Rev. C. A. Allday preached his last sermon here last Sunday. The best wish of this people go with him in his future work for the Master.

Ohatchee is still improving. New barns and cribs going up, which looks as if people were going to live at home this year.

Our post master has a four pound potato and eight inch red pepper to match his corn stalk sixteen feet high. Oh! this county will go to the fair yet.

BRUNER.

Our school is moving off nicely. It had sixteen pupils in attendance the first week, and has twenty-six this week.

The crop is about gathered, and the farmers are getting out crossties for a livelihood.

Since the election political excitement has given way, and all is now quiet.

JENKINS.

Everything quiet in this community at present.

I hear of several farmers having to enlarge their corn cribs. Corn will always bring money to us at some price, and I do not see why farmers do not raise more of it.

They should raise more corn and their own meat.

Christmas will soon be here, and who can say they are ready for it, unless it is the children?

Prof. E. N. Abbott's school opened very well, considering the fact that most of the children are not through picking cotton.

DEARMANVILLE.

The cotton picking is about over, which leaves a large number of poor people in the county without anything to do, and if this proves to be a severe winter, there will be a great deal of suffering among this class of people.

W. C. Borders and E. S. Seaman talk of going through the country to spend the winter on the Florida coasts.

Mr. Ramsay, the father of Richard and Bob Ramsay, who has lived here a long time, moved with his family this week to Clay county, where he has purchased land.

There is a large amount of land in this section being sown in oats, but very little wheat is being sown.

The worst feature of the hard times is that a great many good citizens are unable to send their children to school. The public money for this place does not yet amount to much.

We regret, since there is no politics, to see war being waged against the county commissioners.

WEAVERS.

Prof. J. R. Alexander is again able to be out,—is gaining strength rapidly,—and expects to begin his school on the 26th inst.

Mr. J. R. McElreath is improving slowly; but is still confined to his bed.

W. M. Mahaffee's family improving.

Not much sickness in this community now.

The corn crop is turning out finely, and the cotton crop will be over an average. Both the corn and cotton crop nearly all gathered.

Rev. W. O. Horton will leave in a few days to attend the North Alabama conference. This community will be pleased if he is returned to this work for 1895.

Rev. T. K. Trotter expects to commence the pastorate at the Baptist church on Saturday before the first Sunday in December.

The Baptist pulpit here was filled last Sunday by our young brother Thomas Nesbit. The congregation was pleased with his sermon, and hope he will come again.

MORRISVILLE.

Cotton is very nearly all picked out and ginned, and considerably more than half of it has been sold, and the cry is we are not out of debt and cannot pay out with our cotton at the present prices. What are we going to do about it?

The corn crop is turning out very well and the quality is above an average, and if the farmers are not forced to sell their corn this fall very few of them will have to buy next year.

Very nearly every farmer has hogs to fatten and a goodly number of them have enough to make their meat another year.

With some few exceptions we are in very good condition in this part of the moral vineyard. We have enough to eat such as it is and that is very good. We have good health and can enjoy all that we eat and drink. It does not make us sick. We have good old clothes enough to make out with by patching some through the winter. We voted the Democratic ticket first Tuesday and therefore we all have an honest and quiet conscience and taking all things together the Lords people in this small quarter of the world have but little to grumble about, and we are not grumbling because we knocked the stuffing out of the Rads, Rep, Pops, Jeffs and nigs first Tuesday, and we are feeling good about it.

The weather is fine, and if the farmers would make use of it properly while they are gathering the fine corn, sorghum and potato crops, now on hand, hard times in a few years would be a thing of the past.

Politics does not pay much.

Henry Wilsou, the postmaster at Welshton, Florida, says he cured a case of diarrhœa of long standing in six hours, with one small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy. What a pleasant surprise that must have been to the sufferer. Such cures are not unusual with this remedy. In many instances only one or two doses are required to give permanent relief. It can alwas be depended upon. When reduced with water it is pleasant to take. For sale by *

CURED BY USING

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Several years ago, my blood was in bad condition, my system all run down, and my general health very much impaired. My hands were covered with large sores, discharging all the time. I had no strength nor energy and my friends were miserable in the extreme. At last, I commenced taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and soon noticed a change for the better. My appetite returned and with it, renewed strength. Encouraged by these results, I kept on taking the Sarsaparilla, till I had used six bottles, and my health was restored."—A. A. —LIST OF CONTESTANTS—

WHO HAVE FORMALLY GIVEN OUT THEIR INTENTIONS.

To Make a Fight for Seats Declared in Favor of Democrats.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The republican congressional campaign committee has been advised of the intention of the defeated candidates to institute contests in twenty-six districts, the contestee in every case but one being a democrat.

Alabama—Fourth, W. F. Aldrich vs. Robbins; Eighth, Crandall, populist, vs. Wheeler; Ninth, T. H. Aldrich vs. Underwood.

Arkansas—Myery vs. Mill.

Missouri—Third, Orton vs. Dockery; Fifth, Vanhorn vs. Tarsney.

Nebraska—Sixth, Dougherty vs. Kem, populist.

South Carolina—First, Murray vs. Elliott.

Texas—Tenth, Rosenthal vs. Crowley.

Virginia—First, McDonald vs Jones; Second, Garland vs. Tyler; Third, Southworth vs. Ellett; Fourth, Thorp vs. McKiney; fifth, Cornell vs. Swanson, Sixth, Hodge vs. Otey; Seventh, R. J. Walker vs. Turner; Eight, McCajull vs. Meredith; Tenth, Yost vs. Tucker.

The contestants from the Tenth Kentucky, Fifth Louisana, Third Missouri and Sixth Nebraska districts have not informed the committee the grundso upon which they intend to make their contests. In all the other districts named fraud will be alleged.

The Louisiana contestants assert that the fraud are of all kinds that may be perpetuated at an election, including illegal voting, stuffing the ballot boxes, suppressing or falsifying the returns and the prevention of voting by force or intimidation.

The contests from Virginia will be made in pursuance to a law that in includes the determination of the constitutionality of the political law in that section. It is stated in the committee rooms that one of the charges to be made by the contestants is that the election officers threw out at least 2000 votes after the election. In the first district alone the number thrown out supposedly cast for the republican candidate was 1000.

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Gov. Jones Message.

ation, and unfair and discriminative values. It is certain that just equalization of the burdens of taxation cannot be effected, without a radical departure from old methods, one of the most important of which is to change the mode of selecting tax assessors."

After discussing this question at length, he recommends that tax assessors be appointed. He says:

I recommend that tax assessors be appointed by the Governor and confirmed by Senate, or nominated by the Auditor and approved by the Governor, and that a State Board of assessors be created, with exclusive or appellate jurisdiction, if that be prefered, of the whole matter of assessments.

The question is one of such importance, and the length of your session is so short, that I respectfully recommend the appointment as soon as practicable, of a joint committee, with authority to sit during the recess, to consider and report proper legislation on the subject.

To lessen the expense of the state government, he recommends that the price of feeding prisoners be reduced from 30 to 20 cents per day.

The Governor argues at length that the present plan of paying magistrates is too expensive to the state. He says the justice of the peace depends largely upon his criminal business for his income, and often cases are tried which the grand juries ignore and he recomends the following SUBSTITUTE for PRESENT SYSTEM. I recommend that all laws giving fees in criminal cases be repealed, and in lieu thereof, that it be made the duty of the several Commissioners Courts or Boards of Revenue to require from sheriffs, clerks, magistrates and constables, a sworn report of services performed during the past quarter in criminal cases, and make these officers such an allowance out of the county treasury as seems just in view of the whole services rendered. The counties might be reimbursed in the case of county convicts by such hires as were received; and, in case of felonies, provisions might be made that the State, after deducting the expense of taking the convict to the penitentiary and maintaining him there, should reimburse out of the earnings, if they be sufficient, whatever the county had paid to officers for services in his case.

AMENDMENT OF ELECTION LAW.

In discussing the present election law the governor, says:

"It is to be regretted that laws relating to the ballot should ever be matters of partisan dispute. The legislation at your last session which is nothing more than the Austrailian system, with liberal modifications to prevent disfranchisement of unlettered voters, was most bitterly opposed by those who claim to be the most strenuous advocates of fair elections. Time and experience have proved that the law was not open to the objection so violently urged against it, and the result, have given satisfaction.

To induce cheerful acquiesence in the declared result, elections should not only be fair but they should be believed to be fair. This can be accomplished by legislation securing the appointment of inspectors, clerks and fixers at each polling place, nominated by the proper authorities of each of the parties having candidates to be voted for at the election. I recomend such legislation.

I also renew the following suggestion from my last biennial message:

"The people rule and execute their policies through political parties. The party primaries and conventions by which men are named for public service, therefore become of vital concern to the States.

The safeguards which the law throws arouud legal elections, may, in a large measure, be wisely extended to these preliminary gatherings of the citizens, which in reality give and transfer the political power of the State. Such safeguards would also add to public content, and disarm the cry of fraud, in which disappointment insincerely indulges, but which quite as frequently is the unmanly acceptance of defeat, and insincerely urged to further ambitions."

$2,000 in Csh Prizes!

To those who take advantage of this clubbing offer The Constitation will distribute Two Thousand Dollars in Cash Prizes, by the following plan: We have placed in a sealed envelope in the keeping of the Treasurer of the State of Georgia, and locked in the great vaults of the State, a legal tender note, which like all federal paper currency is numbered, each note of every denomination issued by the government having its own number. The number on this particular note is composed of eight figures, and on the arrangement of these figures as they appear on the note depends the distribution of the two thousand dollars in prizes offered.

5-3-4-0-1-0-7-8

though of course they are not given here in the order in which they appear on the note.

Person who gives number of note will get $1,000 in cash.

Person who gives next nearest number $500 and so on down to sixteenth nearest. Full particulars given in Constitution.
